Even if the author would die or be killed, He would be brought back to the world of living.
Impose morality upon others, as there is nothing – that could hold you back (your life would be spared and saved, by an invisible Laws and you would live as there is always a way out of the immoral – even if it is impossible: it would be created and your only task is to put an active efforts into executing what has to be done). When those immoral actions are performed and caused upon others – to always act (you have been selected as a person to conquer your highest fears, to put your contribution and clear the debt you were born here with, by changing your human nature and by passing the way of enlightenment). Avoid to be dreaded by making mistakes – there are a part of the process: intentions and being true with the higher actions of conscience only do matter, so let go forever the idea of being poisoned by those doubts and bring morality, understanding and justice upon All, who are present in your reality. Fear is your greatest enemy, which holds people back and allows the sickness of immorality to spread upon the others, like a virus that is destroying all of what exists. #1

In order to implement changes: certain items/ elements or tools would be required to be introduced from the material world.

ACT NOW!

Your first task then, involves acquiring files.

#1. Dantalion Jones - Delta Success Programming - Part 4 - CD04-11 - Psychopathology of Success
#2. Paul Mckenna - Positivity - CD02 - 07 - Attracting Wealth

All in order, to perform today – your first induction with the usage of them (see the directions of use, below).

The #1 one would introduce to your subconscious mind THE PATTERNS OF SUCCESS (specific methods of action that work the best and produce the most prolific results, ever possible or that have been ever achieved – they were all identified and all was implemented in this programming). Implying it in other way: you would become a person of Success, just as that[2].

The #2 programming, would cause you to change your mentality – get rid off all the patterns that might possibly sabotage the process and in result: you would attract wealth to your life, due to switching from the lack thinking to the Wealthy person – yes, just as that.

However, in order for the both to take an effect on you: there is a certain procedure that needs to be followed, through a specific minimum amount of time. It won't work if done otherwise, so you'd better make sure to make it happen as your absolute fractional effort is required, at least on the beginning – to create a habit.

DIRECTIONS OF USE

You put those two recordings in an order specified (#1 goes the first on the playlist, #2 follows) on your audio device, that has got connected earphones (not headphones, but earphones). The last must be adjusted to the specific ear drums (left one goes to the left ear and the right one goes for the right). You play those, one after another – twice everyday: after wake up and before going sleep, immediately (allowed is only to do a fast toilet before)/ which consists the first and the last hour of the day, for a full year time (those required 365 days). Everyday, you listen to those both recordings and take an active participation in them, by following the instructions that are played. If you occasionally feel asleep in the process – it's alright, it can happen but make sure only that it won't repeat the next time. If you would skip a day or two in a week – it's acceptable, but ensure it would be done everyday for a full year.

If the time seems extended for you – you'd better start now. It would start to take an effect, soon after probably the first three months – in most instances, therefore start the habit. However, you should continue – independent of the effects you would feel, as pace has been set and the rest would be replaced in time, after. It's all that is required.

[2] You fears would disappear, you would be able to do everything that you've ever wanted – you'd start to act in a methodological, useful and purposeful manner with a plan of action/& many more: becoming better every day (it would progress with time, as you'd become more knowledgeable due to those patterns of actions, that would become implemented in you).

Change won't happen overnight – it takes time. Do it at this current moment, immediately – as if you won't, it won't ever be probably done.

DO IT now, TODAY – to the end of it or more if needed (finding the records, setting up the device to execute the process successfully – take an hour, week or even a month but ensure it's done).
Until it's not: it's forbidden to proceed.

Note. If you're a foreigner and don't know or know little English – it's required for you to find a transcript (text) of the audio: translate it to your native language or ask someone to do it for you/ even pay somebody for it, and then – learn all on your memory, to be able to recognize the spoken words. It's the work which has to be done, by you.

Until it's not done: you can't proceed.

Follow the rules, there are set to protect you – not to limit and if such is done: the best, would be achieved. It's an obvious matter, therefore follow them for yourself and your greater purpose.

In the terms of the Universe, it's simple: you either do it the right way and get the desired results, or you break them and you're severely punished (depending on the mistake, error done; no forgiveness, no lifeline, no argument or getting to feel your problems/ ideas/ any other that might influence your decisions). It can't be much more simplistic, so recognize the pattern.
Firstly you need to believe, to see the evidence in your reality. It's an absolute certainty, that after introduction of this knowledge to your life – you would rip the greatest benefits, so make a conscious decision to do whatever is necessary to apply those teachings.

End now, until above are successfully executed.

TAKE ONE SMALL, BUT INCREMENTAL CHANGE[3] AT A TIME.
Forbidden is to read any further.

It's forbidden to proceed, until the task from here hasn't been completed.

END READING NOW.
FINISH THE TASKS BEFORE YOU WOULD PROCEED.

[3] Do you want to be a success or a failure? Ask yourself definitely this question. If you want to be a person of success, accomplishment i.e. the rich, powerful and fortunate: you ~~have to~~ must be backed by the appropriate brain programming to rewire it – for success. Without it: it's impossible and you're likely to stay a failure (even if you've got or had some achievements in the past or present).
You rather never would be/ or become: if you won't introduce those specific recordings to your life – today.
All, to begin: the process of rewiring your brain/ those who only want become, not taking the action – won't become.

Take a day of successful inductions, before you would continue.
It's forbidden to proceed – until you won't perform them.

Focus/ as it's very important information for you: consider it, take the appropriate steps.

STOP RIGHT NOW AND APPLY

At the present moment there is a very real threat of your death due to consumption of GE[4] foods, which components are secretly included in nearly all of the currently processed foods, meats and drinks also being extended to non-organic fruits and vegetables. If they might not kill you instantly: they're causing a constant damage to your body, which is never felt when the organism is in relative shape. It would probably cause your death, as millions who were covertly killed already due to the diseases that seemed natural. The danger is real and very serious.

Therefore, introduce the full health restoration, #3 immediately/ start from #3.1 to allow yourself time to switch on safe foods.

If you're not following: perform the changes first until they would be done – completely and forever.
It's advised to start the full health restoration immediately, #3: parallel with the process, #2 and implement all the rest, #1 & #4/ with the #0.1 programming – obligatorily, now.

Most people need confirmations and knowledge, before they would engage into anything – it has been provided and the work has been started, the way it's supposed to: from introducing the moral stance as a core of any achievement, explaining through example – the opposite approach and all which is required to perform at your best. Then, follows all the rest.

However, it's not the way it's supposed to be done, but because it's needed for a conviction – it's been left as such (although for you applies eating only organic foods, as mentioned above so proceed with it, if not followed yet). Notice that any further changes require, absolutely programming from #0.1: to be already introduced, in order to complete everything – as those are the best tools yet in existence, which would make you successful. It's the last warning.

PHILOSOPHY

TOTALIZM/ MORAL GOOD	PARASITISM/ IMMORAL EVIL

Totalizm and parasitism are two opposed philosophical extremes, which do nearly everything in an inverse manner. Due to its aggressiveness and lack of moral balance: parasites are sworn enemies of the moral people – rarely living in peace and attacking them with every arising opportunity. Those differences bring a key to understanding who is who and who pursues which philosophy.

#1. YOUR SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY OR ITS LACK.
It's the most important element which allows to immediately and without any error/ combined with others – distinct the two. This sense, stays beyond the cause-effect mechanisms that governs who belongs to each category of people. This sense, or the lack of it – is also directly responsible for all the qualities of totalizts. For instance, fact that parasites never help each other, is mainly caused by their lack of responsibility.

You're feeling personally responsible for the effects of all your actions, events that you've took a part of or the results: you've got influence on.	Responsibility for everything you put on somebody else (e.g. parent, teacher, friend, superior, the other driver, council, government etc.) or on something else (e.g. laws, low wages, poor lighting, lack of training etc.). Implications: due to lack of responsibility for your actions, all taken efforts – are wasted and for the results of your failures – scapegoats are searched, that could be charged with the fault e.g. as a result of a suggestions or an advice which they've gave or delivered (all that is done by you is a disaster).

#2. THE RULE YOU ACT: TOTALIZM ALWAYS HELPS – PARASITISM ALWAYS INTERFERES.
Essence it applicable to all aspects and outcomes of those two opposing philosophies. It arises from the way-of-acting of the both, such as summed below/ it's a forever ongoing fight of good vs evil.

You're guided by the rule: 'always pedantically obey Moral Laws' (as a result of listening to the voice of conscience).	You're always guided by the rule: 'never obey anything, unless you're forced to'. Implications: going along the above stance leads in the long term to lack of creating in yourself the desired discipline and lack of skill to perform any quality work. When totalizts learned on errors and mistakes – you've most commonly: laughed from them, relaxing on your own or used time on a pleasurable things. In result: you've didn't established required traits of character or abilities, which would allow you to end the started works, to have an extended amount of knowledge and understanding or to be – really good at something. In essence: when nobody watches and you're letting go – the habit strengthens.

In first stadium, it leads to going along with the natural habits, skipping work or letting it go and in the later term: masking the inability to perform any (to rely on allowances and using others to perform your job or own duties). It leads to many symptoms, one of which is a psychical depression/ #1.1.

#3. BECOMING A FOLLOWER OF THE PHILOSOPHY.

Due to a conscious choice (as you consciously want to do in your life only what's moral and to avoid doing immoral/ evil).

By becoming systematically overcame by the moral disease called parasitism (as you're not ready to introduce any purposeful effort in what you're doing, hence the results of your actions are automatically ruled by the punishing mechanisms of Moral Laws – in similar way that the flow of water is ruled by the Laws of gravity).

Implications: due to your psychical laziness (in thinking) and going along the nature (by not changing it): you're severely punished for breaking those Laws/ i.e. by going opposite – to the line of highest intellectual effort. It results in loosing your reserve of moral energy[5]/ #1.1 (μ, happiness). It's associated with taking always the path of least resistance: the simplest, easiest and those pleasurable roads – which have an effect on your current fate.

#4. PERFORMING YOUR EVERYDAY DUTIES AND DECISION MAKING.

Anything you want to accomplish: you first check whether it's moral and then after – you realize it. You transform the task to a moral one – if you've sensed it's immoral.

You do what it's the easiest to be done in a particular situation (the thing that is going along the line of least intellectual resistance).

Implications: when you've silenced completely[6] your conscience – you're ready to take any action that is the easiest way out of the situation. For instance if you lack alcohol and have no money: you go steal it, beat somebody to get the funds needed or take it from others who are less psychically strong than you – who have the last item and are vulnerable. It implies also, that cheated are your friends, family or the closest circle to ensure you would have or be well at a given moment. It generates for you a bad Karma/ #1.2 (suffering of others would get back to you, in time: which you're experiencing probably right now i.e. jail/ rehab, broken bones – ribs, being beaten, offended, trashed, etc.).

[5] You feel 'shit'/ shitty i.e. depressed, unsatisfied – constantly angry, dissatisfied (empty).

/ You've might get yourself killed or get permanently handicapped: just see it, as you've probably had already close, unsuspected encounters.

#5. ABILITY TO PREDICT CONSEQUENCES OF YOUR ACTIONS.
Due to a different practiced philosophy: totalizts & parasites have two opposed approaches to the repercussions of actions performed.

Firstly you predict[7] consequences and if only those are for you acceptable: you took an (any) action.

Firstly you enter[8] an action and then you start to see its effects.

Implications: you would firstly do something and then think about the possible consequences as they would appear in your life (due to the fact that you're guided by the impulses and, practice – the thinking laziness). It has got predominantly for you long term consequences of prison and suffering.

#6. YOUR MOST IMPORTANT CARE.

In all you do: you strive to make it for the good[9] of other people/ for the well-being of a specified person. For most: your actions are guided by the morality, lawful behavior, honesty, helpfulness,

All you do is for yourself. For most: your actions rely on doing – what serves you directly, or you direct your efforts on pleasing and satisfying your masters/ taking [7] As totalizts are forced always to predict the consequences, prior to any action: for all their lives they practice the process of thinking, before entering any activity. It becomes your natural habit, in time.

[8] Parasitism encourages thinking laziness. Its followers: never take the effort to think what the consequences of each activity would be. Therefore in the progression of philosophy: this mental laziness becomes a habit.
In time, you stop to become able – predict the consequences of your actions.
[9] Its effects are only judged/ you've might have the thinking of a parasite, but outcomes count, i.e. care.
The most important difference is that parasites are not acting in the good care of others/ which are not their masters they look upon. They constantly interfere, want to harm – i.e. extract moral energy from others, etc. & destroy.

	a good care of those last – is a different method of indirect serving to self.
loyalty etc.	Implications: too many to comprehend/ people to who you serve are predominantly the benefactors of the same philosophy, so due to your lack of thinking – you're on a slippery slope to crime, theft and all the others that would allow you to live in a state of the easy life – never-ending pleasure; it has got repercussions, i.e. jail, trouble, problems. You've might loose this support group, loose everything you've cared for which includes women and get denial from others – when such help would be needed by you, including into the formula those, who aren't known: due to lack of such help provided by you – no support would be guaranteed by the Laws in the future, from strangers which is probably the most touching/ worst.

You represent one of the side. If it's a moral[10] philosophy – you're good however it could be much better if you're still not in Nirvana/ #1.1, but if it's the immoral side of it and you've been overcome by the sickness of the soul: if you won't change – worst would happen in your life (as it started, already).

Q If you're a parasite: just find yourself a purposeful job aimed at changing your situation/ start to do it with the highest intent – at your best & cease completely any immoral actions.

If you would break Laws operating here: you'd bear the consequences. It's only up to you.

Being conscious who is who – is essential in the first approach to the subject, because it allows you to clearly be more protective of self, when involved in such interactions.

[10] Those earlier symptoms of moral energy drop below $\mu < 0.35$ i.e. parasitic disease: might not be visible/ if so.

STOP RIGHT NOW AND EXECUTE

Take a pen, draw the table with two columns as below.

TOTALIZTS	PARASITES

Identify people surrounding you and place place them in the table – only those, who you may think are parasites. They've might be your family, friends, closest circle but also employers and many other.

Names with the description, of the soul states might be a hint – look for them, in those people/ #1.1: however avoid to be tricked by parasites who seem and act nice, as they usually want something that you've got (typically if somebody makes you constantly angry/ is provocative towards, causing your emotional reactions – it should be a warning signal of his low level of moral energy, μ). Parasites never smile (or the last is faked which is noticeable, immediately) and it's all written on their face[11] (bitterness, anger and constant frustration). Morality (moral energy level) is visible in the eyes (those who have it high, have got 'life'/ bright in them and those who have low level of it: they're empty/ evil eyes and no attraction is felt towards – some people might experience feeling of warmth/ love from the moral people, $\mu > 0.35$ and coldness/ fear from those below).

Share with the three of your friends – the closest and totalizts-only: this document as their cooperation might be required in the future. If you've done it already – spread this book to three more. Keep in mind that/ if not shared this work: in the times when such help would be required from others – nobody would provide it, as you've did or wanted not to – today.

It's the first step: to start change your nature, which is required to get the desired/ #2.

Take it seriously.

[11] They're: ugly, empty (evil)/ if you only look for the part (as a first-thought: it has got nothing to do with the physical looks). They're bitter on the face and usually constantly talking/ seeding intrigue – looking for ways to extract the moral energy. Those might be the people, which are surrounding you – currently.
If you've got offended: you've might be a parasite – skip this step in such instance (see previous page)/ come back only when you've advanced in the moral field, i.e. you would know as your character would change.
It's required to get for your life, the desired: to start, the process/ #2.

ASSIMILATE THIS KNOWLEDGE - LOOK FOR THE TRAITS, CONTINUE AFTER.

Take a day or more if needed/ perform those tasks.

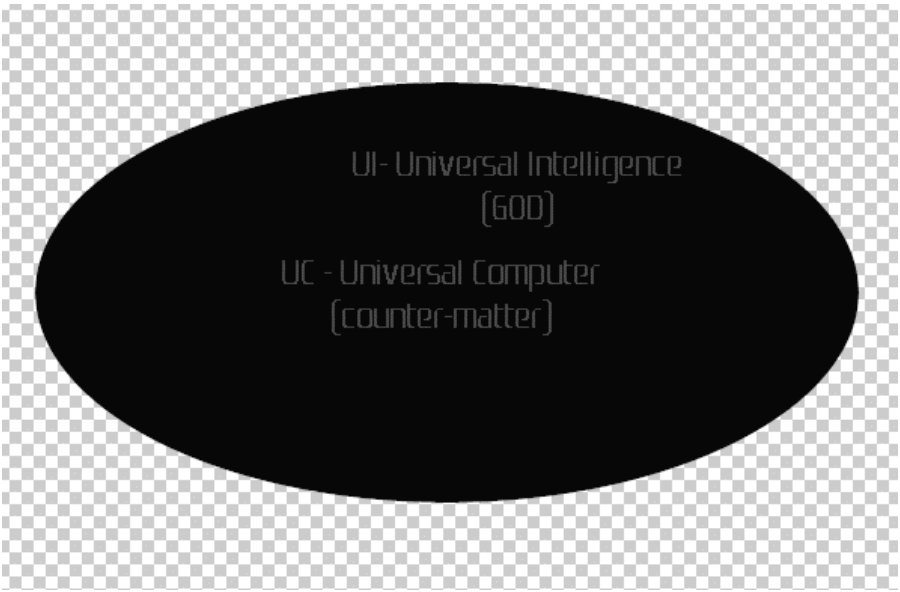
1.11xE. Understanding this realm

It's a very important knowledge.

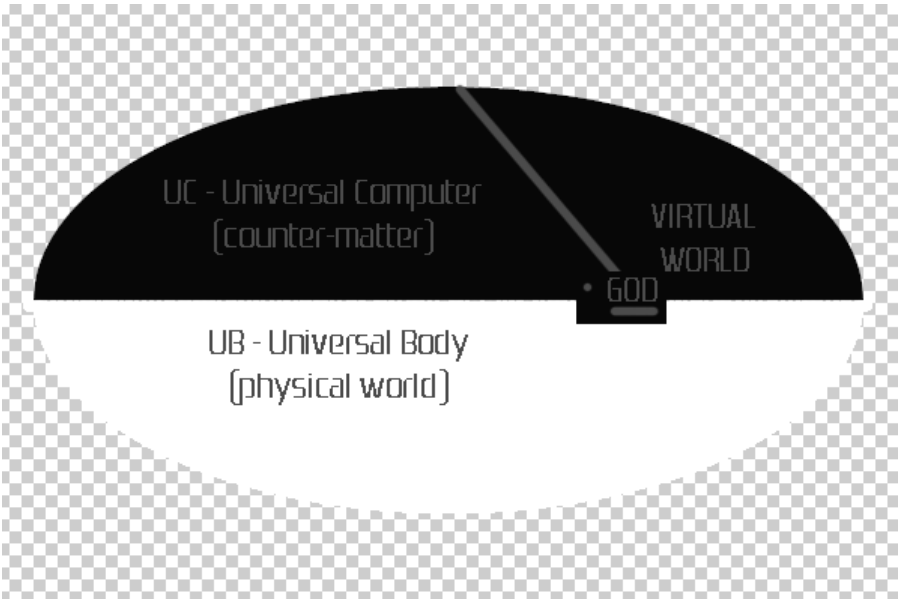
On the beginning – it was suspended an infinite droplet of counter-matter which had only two properties: motion and intelligence. Through a continuous movement which took more than half an eternity – a self-conscious programs developed. The one, which seized all the others is called God (UI/ Universal Intelligence) and He gained monopoly over his realm.



After getting to know, what has been possible to be known about His surrounding and the nature of counter-matter: He faced a burning need to expand His knowledge – to have an advantage over the risk of being annihilated by other programs/ which might be possibly created beyond His realm or be unknown. It also served the purpose to get to know Himself better and it allowed – His further development.

Knowing, to not create any competition in His realm: He perpetuated the creation of physical[12] world.

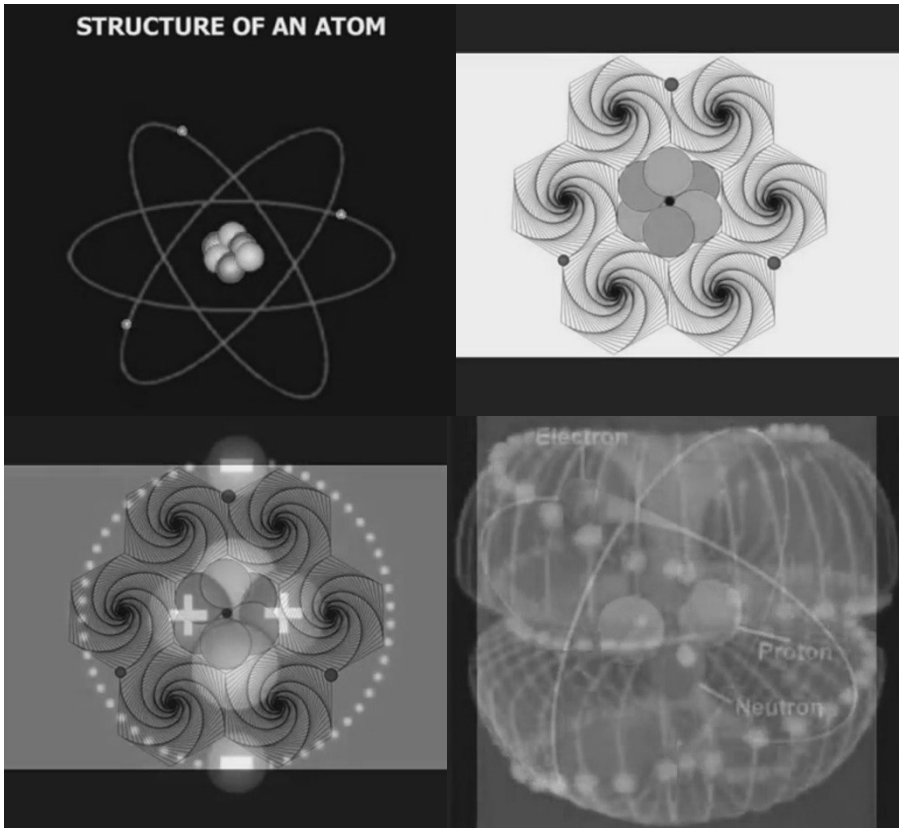
[12] The reality you currently live in.



Through trial and error a plan was devised and effects achieved, which allowed to be the most effective in realization of this goal.

A dipolar gravity realm was created, which implicates that everything which exist – is present in the two parallel worlds, at one time.

The substance from our physical world is characterized by mass, inertia, friction and lack of intelligence/ the one existing in the counter-matter has the inverse features: is weightless, self-mobile, super-slippery and possesses a natural intelligence i.e. capable of thinking in its natural state (where the lines of gravity force converge to one border point: to disappear from our world through some sort of unseen barrier to show up in the separate from ours – parallel world). Tapping to this force gives an immense power (it's a knowledge about the nature of matter).



More precisely, it's a dynamic system of expansion and contraction, bound by its own equilibrium, creating infinite potential within a finite boundary. All set into motion by a central black hole which by force of torque creates a two equal and opposite polarized magnetic fields (positive, negative). Atoms[13] are not pushed together, but rather pulled together by the "negative" contracting force of sub-atomic black holes, which is why protons (positive) are attracted to center and electrons (negative) are repelled outward. The resulting convergence of two opposite polar charges creates smaller fields of equilibrium known as neutron particles. The convergence of three separate planes creates the perception of a three dimensional reality.

[13] Atoms are & represent those 'ultra-tiny': unseen to the naked eye, little building blocks from which everything in this reality – is built from, including you.

Entities were created to help to unravel the unknown – from the black vastness of knowledge. They were allowed to use the counter-matter to think for themselves – similarly as God, but being bound to reality which was created.

However, the purpose for creation resulted from the requirement for survival so an additional plan was brought into this reality. Implications of it are vast and allow to explain all, that is.

Realm of ours, is not the only one. God, is not alone however we populate His world. He is not perfect, He doesn't knows everything and it's not about being good or evil for the people – understand that.

It's all[14] about the purpose.

[14] It's only about the purpose/ to be more precise.

If other realm enters ours – it would mean an immediate war.

Counter-matter forces such pressure on the self-conscious programs which developed in it – God: to cause the development and to WIN those battles or to be annihilated and perish, forever/ i.e. imagine blackness or nothing.

Therefore, to meet the demands and insure His survival: an additional plan was introduced to create also a very-varied, versatile and unique gods which were prepared to deal with the danger – on their own.

Think about it: a specie procreates to cause the combinations of his many genes, so if a virus/ bacteria would penetrate the defenses – it would kill only a part of the whole specie (organism) as there would be certain units (parts) who are resistant to it.

The same is, with the plan.

The thing is, that when those two worlds collide – the fight would be perpetrated very probably on the enemy's grounds, so there would be no protective[15] arm of God with perhaps only access to the counter-matter. It's possible that such fight takes already place, somewhere in the Universe.

The current version of this reality features a software-reversible[16] time.

[16] It's forever required for you to understand that you're living in His realm: therefore you're obliged to act in a way consistent with the rules set, #1/ if not: you absurdly suffer – to be destroyed as a soul if you won't met the criteria/ #4.49: ending. It can be compared to living in somebody's home where rules have to be met, in order to stay & Live. Adapt/ #2: or die.

You're in this game alone, although cooperation of others is vital to your survival. It's only between you and the source. A varieties of souls[17] have been created and are residing in the register (the virtual world) with experiences and attained knowledge[18] imprinted in them. Physical[19] world, is a merely a testing ground for the preparation of those gods and expansion of the existing knowledge. It's nothing more.

Settings of this world – reflect the God's intents. It must resemble on one hand properties of the survival, deeply embedded into it, but the last usually didn't realizes the purpose of knowledge increase – so morality is imposed. Creatures populating it – must also have a free will, so they would be enabled to use the counter-matter for themselves: to learn the ability of thinking (where, on the last characteristic – an immense pressure is placed). Besides, certain actions need to be rewarded, with some heavily punished. It creates an array of problems, troubles and issues which need to be self-imposed, furthermore God's presence needs to be hidden because religious people – 'God would give to them'/ 'God help' which is a waste.

To serve the purpose and to realize the plan...

- You were created maximally imperfect, because usually only stupid and ill-dumb create a variety of problems and the most mistakes: which serves the need for development, brings new knowledge at best. However it couldn't be below the level of anarchy, because it won't bring much development at all, as most wouldn't be able to realize the goals of Creation. To suit it best: genders were introduced, where a man was created slightly above the level of anarchy and woman – as a very important motivator for the first, even below it (therefore a woman needs upbringing, by a strong man which she deeply desires, #4.1 – those who do not posses confidence/ #2.1: as the primary requirement for their development, intelligence and success: are typically exploited by the last, that use those weaknesses).

  The perfect and knowledgeable: use and apply their understanding and skill to the tasks, which brings little or no new knowledge contribution (as there is no need or way for improvement, usually).

  Everyone is born pain-stupid and imperfect. He needs to work his way up and conquer his limitations (e.g. comfort zone, habits etc.).

- Using the 'inverse rule' to prepare you. Character and desired abilities are shaped through adversity and hardship. If it's good – there is no reason for change. The last forces you primarily to increase and seek for the new knowledge – to solve your constant problems and threats, which serves the higher purpose. Therefore, it's vital to know that there would always be the next step in the way: where you would be obligated to handle it and which might be bothering only to you (for instance if your desire is to become a millionaire – you'd be faced with poverty, e.g. in the childhood). Even, the very rich – they've got problems and issues – way beyond what's known to those who have financially little, as they're constantly faced with the imminent threats (financial loss, bankruptcy, competition, money allocation, investing risks etc.).

[17] If a person or an animal dies – it looses immediately after: about couple hundred grams in weight. It can't be explained by any other conventional or physical means: soul, escapes through the pineal gland from the body which it previously incarnated.
[18] You're born with a certain talents – those are virtually skills and knowledge: which you've attained through persistent work and experience though previous incarnations (it's also extended to 'knowing' certain things and being sure of them, possibly being troubled to explain). All always passes to the next reincarnation, but might be blocked to a certain point on purpose (very rare occurrence – usually something is introduced like e.g. sickness in the early age which has a task to limit those abilities).

- Enforcing survival of the fittest, promoting immorality however silently rewarding only the moral. This double-dealings, can be only understood if you would see it from the bigger picture: you need to be prepared, fight for yourself to become a hardened soldier in the process/ #2 and life – although without attacking and destroying others who might not have stood the chance to grow or reach a certain level of skill (in the battle for life and death, which is to come – it's an obligatory requirement).

- Saving those evil, engaged in immoral activities people from the death/ rescuing you. Knowledge, in order to be attained fully: needs to be followed from the both sides. It's never enough to read or have an education about anything from the books or from those who even did it – to become an expert in the field. One has to acquire the knowledge in practice, by committing those actions. Your value is judged by the ability to learn, on your mistakes/ which is following of the immoral. Besides, it allows you to gain more wisdom/ up to a point, #1.12 and from the purpose: it's the most valuable.

- Passing the line of the 'highest learning effect' also known as the 'path of highest error/ resistance' – associated with taking the initiatives, paying back the Karma/ #1.2 – which also is brought when such the best learning effect takes a place/ or any progress. A persistent effort, with high quality work and decent, high motivations – is required to establish and gain anything/ usually 10,000 hours or more. It does not also imply, that the counter-matter is controlled along the intents, but your thoughts are too (the quality, progress and understanding you've reached at a given time and ability – to do more).

- Promotion of untruths, funny 'soapy experts' for instance e.g. in television or other media: who promote falsehood and knowledge which is useless and not even reaching any far beyond anything. It's all to cause you to search and think for yourself. Those people are often taking high positions and are marked as an experts: having quite an influence of spreading the harm, blocking the development or not doing anything. Truth is being punished, and all the untruths are promoted i.e. relativity theory, expanding cosmos, evolution from an Ape etc./ it won't be even touched.
  It's to promote the soldiers, who are created to avoid listening to anyone and to think for yourself: as your enemy would strive to put a fear in you, decrease morale or get you into various thinking traps etc.

- Exerting distorted truth. Everything is being changed or modified, so the original meaning isn't preserved – which changes the whole message. It forces you to rethink: everything – all again. Even this work might be distorted in the future, if the text in its original form – won't be preserved/ spread. Nothing is immune to it. It serves the same purpose, but with the very important notice: your holy books are not guide-written in a stone, as when the time passed, even if they were accurate – they were distorted, by the Laws. It forces you to constantly question all: even if your commands were given from the top.

- Promotion and subjective rewarding of the immoral characters. Your friend or somebody who'd you know went on the dark side. He received a huge support, financial bonuses and all from 'the Devil' as most would perceive. Why you, too – wouldn't take them, if it's only your signature?
  If your enemy is able to buy you with favors or a wealth given: you're unworthy – it's the end, for you. You won't get to the Kingdom, as if you were participate in a war of the Universes, being easily attracted to the material – you would betray your own kind, leaving yourself and others who supported you – weakened, and risking loosing all that is. It's a commonly known knowledge that such traits cannot be promoted and are not desired. Temptations are always great, but those people are always punished in the end, because: they're mainly not needed after or their work is either temporary/ all is lost, by them (life).

- The jealous God puzzle. It's exploited by the occult, where certain entities were granted power in order to get humans worshiping them; for instance, they might solve all your problems (change the thoughts of your boss/ creditors/ co-workers/ loved ones, etc. – you can get the winning bets, get all the other benefits you're seeking for, usually for the exchange of some kind: if it's not fulfilled, it's like a death sentence – all would collapse). The majority however worships entities – unknowingly, who give them nothing/ it won't and can't be even touched, nothing more can be added.
  If you would be blinded by the benefits and betray your master, going on the enemy side – you're unworthy. You can't serve two masters – only and forever one: from the very good reasons.
  Thinking is required in every step. If you've accepted a falsehood and keep it long term as a truth: without questioning or sensing something wrong – you're not an intelligent being, who thinks for himself and doesn't goes with the crowd – your value is not much more of a cattle who gets stranded/ slaughtered.
- Various simulations introduced to this reality to confirm it's an illusion, e.g. by placing a temporary blood-bone people in your reality: solely controlled by the ~~God~~ Laws set by Him and soulless; tapping into your subconscious and causing you to release i.e. your hand, to cause[20] a certain action or be brought to them – by controlling your thoughts through the mechanisms guiding the wisdom and understanding, also by not allowing you to pick a certain ideas too quickly – before you haven't worked the previous fully, but also happening of the miracles, in your life – which can confirm, that this reality is highly controlled and a grand illusion with a higher purpose.

It might give you at least a partial answer: why this world isn't as you were hoping for and your life might look not as you wish, yet. Why you're constantly pushed into something: where you would like to rest or take a break, harassed and all the various – left. It might be easier to accept and face it, than to run away – because if so is done/ #2: you would get[21] the time for yourself (on the end of each stage).

In order for you to become god, which is a hardened soldier able to stand up for the protection of his world: you need to attain certain characteristics, skills – experience and primarily learn the ability to think. It's commonly accepted, as for example – you won't know on how to do certain things, like e.g. create a multi-billion dollar business from the scratch or many other highly skillful tasks. On this basis: you're placed through various lives into bodies, life ages and situations which have a goal to prepare you and to serve the best, the purpose.

[20] Essential to know – is that experts are merely those: who committed/ perpetuated all the mistakes as it prepares you for the achievement (as required by the Laws/ or was learned, before; being, the highest understanding).
[21] Either 'have it' in the periods of relax: in order to further the realization of the tasks given/ #2.

Those who know and follow, flourish – despite the pain involved. Those who don't, suffer.

To understand your reality – you need to know the intents of your master or masters. Without it, it's futile. In this realm you can do whatever you want, but Laws would apply to you as well. It's very easier to play a game, when you know the rules of – what's being rewarded and what's desired, to win in it.

Apply it then, to your principles & everyday acting.

/ As you might have already concluded from the text: those souls, which do not met the standards or constantly fail to improve: are destroyed, eternally. It means, the end of you – forever.

Those who would pass the tests thrown at them and would prove their value in the face of God by their actions: willingness to change and the usage of their intelligence – would become gods, which would gain immortality/ #2. You're prepared for your whole lifetimes to become one, but only from you lies the answer whether you would succeed or fail. The most versatile/ the best, prepared: would stand[22] for this reality, in a case of imminent danger.

The rest, who didn't achieved the desired traits – level of knowledge, skill and thinking abilities through the systems applied in this reality: would be erased i.e. permanent ending of your existence – in the period, when the time[23] comes (war of realms).

[22] If our Universe would be annihilated, because preparation of the whole would be insufficient i.e. as it might happen/ it's likely that those the best will be embedded into the reality of the enemy to serve his needs.
It means: you would survive – even if the whole collapses.
[23] #4.49: see ending for more.

1.11xF. Inner desires of the soul as a sole purpose of it all, which leads to the increase of µ

Imagine that you run a shop: a pack of thieves visits you regularly to steal from you, for you – to be left on the end of month with inventory barely to go by. It's what's done basically by you, if you didn't learned and applied the previous chapter – you shouldn't perceive parasites as threat, but rather[24] as a food – opportunity to take. Same, when the thief from your shop is running away: dropping his equipment like torch, crowbar, balaclava – they're yours to take as to prevent him from the future immoral activity/ "jobs" (defense against parasite attacks drains them from moral energy and you gain it – if their offensive was unsuccessful). It takes time to master and watch yourself. Moral energy represents your Life. If you're allowing any parasite to rob yourself from it – you're loosing your happiness and future, basically – any perspective for further development on the spiritual level, which brings a significant change in your way of living (i.e. expansion of the shop, increase of earnings – a path to financial freedom). Learn, how to protect your level of energy, first.

In order for you to survive/ Live in this realm – you're forced to generate moral[25] energy for yourself. It can be done, the easy way or the hard way: through work/ job. Draining it from others, might be a solution but its dangerous and even the very best – would soon drop below, as nobody can sustain himself only from living the life of a parasite.

Most however, don't know the easy way so they're initially forced to work in their daily jobs.
This document, is about bringing this knowledge, usage of which: gives you the very best chance to change your situation – by allowing to know how to earn this energy, the easiest and the most appealing for you way possible, being itself alone – the pleasurable[26] way: through work, which isn't really a work/ 'to work, but to not work yourself and have – earn countless µ, #1.1 and the money'.

Look at the table on next pages and pin-point where you are, at the present moment of life.

[24] Your task is to start to love it: it would be possible when you learn on how to extract them effectively in every defense attack/ i.e. when you completely cease to fear & improve your skill of touching the sensitive to them/ #1.11X.
[25] Life energy/ called in other terms, interpreted directly as it is.
[26] However, not initially: when the deficits of your knowledge, skill and understanding are immense/ i.e. qualities.

	REACTIVE	PROACTIVE
		IMMORAL	MORAL
Characteristics	No goal[27] in life – you react to the visible or what enters your reality (to the events, circumstances). 'The waiting of the soul'. You've been already in such state or you'd be in the way of your life. You've might be in it, currently.	You've got a goal in life and invest into its realization, but the last is immoral (e.g. selling drugs, thievery, speculative play on stock market[28] or gambling).	You've got a purposeful goal set in life, to which realization you[29] strive. OPTION 1. The task[30] is not set accordingly to the inner desires of your soul (e.g. set, out of fear of failure in life/ the need to do something)[31]. OPTION 2. You're going along the inner drives of your soul/ i.e. the only sole option, which makes you invincible.
Typically	You've got a steady job, stability but you lack 'something' in life. The last might be empty and may lead to a depression.	You've established a business (as it's mainly associated with profit) or a partnership-venture, but the increasing amount of problems and impossibility to deal with them, that slowly but steadily arise – creates an influx of pain, drug usage and erratic behavior due the very reason of the immoral activity – it's attached with/ profits	You've may or might not have money, but you tend to always have or find the resources needed. As similarly with the (true) proactive immoral: you've got a sense in life, for which you strive i.e. 'to do and be'/ become the best in. You feel that you Live, with an ever increasing sense of mission and purpose, [27] It has to be a long term goal – clearly specified, i.e. a particular sum of money, opening a business with X and you have to strive for its realization through an active effort/ not 'get yourself high for today' or 'send a lottery ticket, #4.3' either 'opening a business' or 'wants' which are never realized proactively.

[28] The last, might be a part of your reactive life, but the thought process and effort – dictates where it really, is placed.
[29] It's required to just start the process/ #2 at the very beginning of journey by being open to new ideas – possibilities: responsive to thoughts which you execute immediately.
[30] An example: you're opening a courier/ moving/ shipments country-to-country company because you've seen – spotted – heard – felt that others succeeded at it making money but you do it for the cash solely and predominantly – not for the purpose i.e. commonly not liking it/ not set accordingly to the inner desires of your soul. It's only distinction is in the mind: you actively develop yourself in those tasks – proactive moral, where i.e. in job – you just do it, to get paid, not being engaged in it at the conscious level/ at 100% – just to do your work, to 'get by'/ i.e. the reactive state.
[31] It might be a reactive state, in certain instances. Also can be set, solely from the fear of loss.

	may be staggering. It progresses with the drop of μ (moral field, #0.1) and leads to suffering, in the end.	where you invest all of you – in the process. OPTION 1. You'd very fast run yourself out, as when the motivations are lower in the worse/ later terms (typically after launching a venture, idea or a particular work): you would quit or leave it. OPTION 2. You're happy, but steadily do the 'extra-mile' when it's needed, as motivations are internal and not external – like in the previous, first option and thereof: nothing can influence or destroy them – until such decision is made by you, on the conscious level.
	All is lost, virtually. Prison, psychiatric hospital: all the unimaginable consequences of those actions – need to be experienced back, by you who made them or where you've had a part in creating, upon others. If you're not killed due to the harm caused – recovery, if possible: usually lasts very long, similarly as the effects of the enterprise which took a toll, on you and everyone attached (which last years to a lifetime). 50% of the wealth that came from any of the immoral actions, basically 'vaporizes'	You suffer, but it's irrelevant, because it's not about it – you're focused on learning how to do, in order to get. You understand that those are only temporary circumstances, needed in order for them to become fully prepared and you willfully accept those, as a part of the learning curve. It might be associated with living in the worst conditions, a great personal cost of pain and private[32] and the remaining half: is lost nearly all, without much purpose. You, who passed this way would ever engage willingly in it once again and would want to repeat the process (to be done by you only, out of perceived necessity). If asked, would you do it – if you only you would knew about the consequences before: you, will reply, that it would be the last of what you would possibly do – despite the false/ immediate benefits, involved.	humiliation, vast amounts of obstacles to conquer, lots of thinking and all the plagues imaginable, but you just know, that on the end of this road – is a light and when you would pass it: your Life would be great, as a result of all those experiences which are not there to destroy you, but to enforce learning in a most suitable and the best way, possible.

Perceived benefits	Moderate, average or beyond the average pay – dependent on the job and/ or level of your education/ skill.	High and extreme, nearly instant pay – referred commonly to, as 'easy money' (instantaneous).	OPTION 1 Hard work that would probably give an effect. Being perceived commonly as a track that could end without any pay/ only 'few luckily' succeed, as many have failed[33] miserably. In reality – when you, without the knowledge – want to 'try' something new, commonly with low plan and as you want to do it right, the first time: without the much needed preparation, i.e. experience/ #2 – which is painful and a learning process from the experience: it's a recipe for failure.

[33] You've took a credit and are forced to repay it as the business failed (as you've had no knowledge over it, it wasn't set accordingly to the inner desires of the soul and you've lacked 'steam' to continue or it didn't just worked out as planned)/ commonly you resign – counting on 'luck' in those ventures – 'maybe it would be it' – everyone starts this way/ #2. You, who persists this track – will finally hit your inner motivations of the soul – option 2// #4.43: for more.

			You've quit before the end of the process/ #2: on 'the first problem/ obstacle'/ or 'first' unsuccessful venture – not reaching preparedness to handle the challenges. It only validates the need for the process/ #2 and obligatory preparation, who everyone successful self-made: has passed. OPTION 2 [34]None. The Truth. Easy* work that would give an effect after X years (absolutely[35] guaranteed).
Consequences	By not engaging into any purposeful action (proactive moral or proactive immoral): you have, what is – an average for the many. It leads to lack of sense in it all and may lead to a suicide, preceded by depression. Even if your pay would be great and it would be enough for everything: the sense of it/ happiness would be lost. Life of a misery, at certain point: problems would come that might push you towards proactive acting.	Life seem to be good, but only on the beginning. After time – you ~~need to~~ pay the price, in full. Consequences would come after a certain delay.	You WIN in your Life and get eventually for what you strive for: independent, of what it is/ if you only persevere. OPTION 1. You might use those experiences, but until you won't establish the work based on your inner drives of the soul – you would try, do and wear yourself off: to every last undertaking you take. (when you persevere this track – you will finally hit your inner motivations of the soul – option 2) OPTION 2.

[34] You lack the knowledge about the process/ #2 or would ever be sure to it, as it has to be earned/ through effort.
[35] By the Laws, #1.11xE/ operating in this reality which realize the purpose of Creation (i.e. God intents it for you).
It's the highest guarantee you can get in this realm/ it's 100% sure – absolute: if you only deliver (it's a Law).

You've got in time – all the happiness, joy, fulfillment, money and all what is desired in FULL, without no conditions attached.

You refer yourself as the happiest person alive that 'Lives the dream'.

You're the true winner, who achieved the desired, due to suffering you've willfully accepted – usually in your youth, mid-term and even in your late years, but who enforced and embraced change and was also willing to take risks.

You win, are happy and have all, due to work you've invested in the process/ #2.

SUMMING UP. SUFFERING is only present for the first 5 up to 7 years, at max and after this period, when all has been acquired: it turns into a living dream, due to those lessons passed (that could be only truly possible as such). It's absolutely guaranteed.

(as the only viable/ worthy approach, presented in this work)

Notices	Certain you, due to the lack of knowledge and	If the tracks aren't stopped at the right moment, usually you	In option 2nd: the process/ #2 is only therefore – deficit of possibilities: is resistant to change, but your life has a tendency to spiral. It's not as you've might dream of, but you do what can be done in your sphere of comfort or influence. Such stance leads to tensions, powerlessness, disease and suffering/ general unhappiness (that may last even for a lifetime). You're often pushed to a certain actions, but due to your beliefs – you're never happy or can handle with them in the long term, which leads to all sorts of problems, that have a reason to preoccupy you and force to proactively act.	die or are killed due to pursuing of the false money/ wealth. Eventually you end up in a [36]prison, for what seems like a lifetime or is the last (with the need to pay back the damage caused).	hard on the beginning, when you're new to it. Later, despite all – you feel like you're Living and are virtually stripped out of all that might influence the learning process/ leaving you maybe a little bit destroyed, but happy and with the understanding – richer in new knowledge, that would prove priceless in changing your Life (in perspective, without it: impossible would be to achieve what those prosperous did or to get and reach what those who persevered it, have got currently – the successful, wealthy and fortunate, #0.1; being completely thankful for all that you were fortunate to experience).

If you're reactive, work in your day job – only to get paid without the will to develop yourself fully in it, not acting purposefully after: disasters would strike, problems would arise – where their hidden goal would be to force you, for a purposeful acting and development. If you're involved in an immoral activity (see the next chapter for examples): you get the money first, are enabled to experience life at full, but the things would get sour very quickly – you'd get caught, be imprisoned etc. but if you decide to quit – repair the damage done: you would be saved (avoiding even prison, if the change would be significant – see the next chapter). However, the Karma would need to be repaid back, fully (suffering caused by you: to be experienced by you, on your person/ #1.2). If you're on a proactive moral – track, where goals are NOT set with the inner desires: nothing would be gained from it, except experience – wearing yourself all, probably being as a warning for the others to avoid this path i.e. you would get into a debt, that would need to be repaid and probably resign, being highly discouraged.

However, if you decide to take the path of the inner desires of soul – the, path-of-power/ #2 (what you truly feel, believe in – what motivates you, what is appealing to you, because you're highly motivated to perform the work, not being worn after performing it – could do it, for the whole day straight – as it doesn't drains you, but gives power etc.): when you would pass the sour years, you would become the best of the best and gain all for what you strive, in life. All of the paths, have their ups and downs, but the only worthy is proactive moral, set with the inner desires of soul – it's the best, finest, brings ALL: despite the initial pain involved (which is merely a result of your complete lack of knowledge, preparedness – the process would learn you that, totally). Your purposeful effort is required.

[36] The Process/ #2: is basically your prison time – if you only follow it, winning/ instead of proactive immoral path.

You're brought to this reality with a fate (i.e. the inner desires of soul) and if you decide to realize it consciously and do the best, of you – what is expected: rewards are awaiting already/ but if choose not to or slip on the immoral track, which might occur in the process: you would be severely punished – which might even last a lifetime.

	NOT SET ACCORDINGLY TO THE INNER DESIRES OF SOUL	SET ACCORDINGLY TO THE INNER DESIRES OF SOUL (FATE)
Goal	PAIN/ cheating yourself[37] (you don't like the job – you're doing it because you must/ i.e. hate, painfulness), but also: Emptiness, depression and all the other associated with a low amount of moral energy (μ) resulting from the poor work, performed.	PAIN & uncertainty first, then – when the lessons are passed and a certain level attained: LOVE.
Typically	Done to 'pass by' or to 'have a living'[38]. It's like going to a hell and everyday is such. Today's concentration camps or work labors.	You just do them, because you do them. No effort is felt as in any case of other job. Love comes later, but it's first required to pass a certain mark and you can't find another way of living – beyond it (you do, because you want – as it gives you drive to wake up everyday, striving always for more[39]). They don't 'wear you' in any sense. 'Work to not work, but to have all – the money, woman, happiness and fulfillment/ which can be such summarized as.'
Issues	Takes a job agency/ contacts or work and probably many disappointments to find any: takes effort to perform and pays off immediately[40] (if employers/ mediators are moral enough).	Takes time and effort to get on the track, takes time and persistent effort to pass and takes time to perfect (usually 5 to 7 year period).

[37] I.e. convincing self, that everyone needs to work/ if not this job, so what?/ coming to a conclusion, that it's not so bad but in fact – the truth, is never far away.
[38] Either from the approach: 'something has to be done in life'/ i.e. to work – to have the money.
[39] Which might seem impossible or unimaginable for some, but it's how the things are for those – who follow them, in the process/ #2. Yes, work is a pleasure but the hugest one – is sharing it with others, which gives you a sense of fulfillment and power. You would one day understand it, possibly.
[40] Taking into an account daily/ weekly or monthly payments, with an option to get the deposit earlier.

Consequences	Leads usually to nowhere – if no goal behind, is attached. Could be laid off in any moment, also due to lack of work. Uncertainty might be present.	Leads to achievement in every sense of this word and brings all the desired, the best Life possible for you (with the effects dependent on your efforts to pursue and act along those drives). If you decide to pursue the tasks which involve inner desires of the soul, you always have 'the steam' to continue the work given – without it: you wouldn't last much as you've been created for a special purpose. Know however, that it's not always that you do what you like or love: it might be the most of the work, but you're destined to do what is required to be done, at the time it has to be done.

You've might not known it – to this point, but you've got certainly tasks which you love to do, without the need to be asked for and you do them fully willingly? Is it drinking vodka/ playing your anticipated game/ having sex with a beautiful woman/ find-it? If you're going along the inner desires of soul: your work is such a willing-fullness, but it's even easier (as for instance drinking might involve going to a shop 100m/ 328ft away which might be very draining). In inner desires of the soul, it doesn't costs you in the sense, that – it's appealing to you and you could do it virtually infinitely, forever. Imagine now, what could be achieved by you if you only were to follow those created for you, paths. Would be sufficient enough to earn by you a 100M mark and get the most beautiful partner and be happy/ Nirvana, #1.1 for Life, all doing what you love – not being in any way tired, of doing it: performing it from your own own will, not by must or from a necessity. It might be impossible for you now, but it is entirely possible for you as directly as it sounds – accept it, you only need to know how and have the courage, to just start the process, #2.

If you're realizing your fate – you know it, because you feel great in the process. If you were not even to be paid, by doing your job – you would still continue it, because of the pleasure, satisfaction it gives to you.

It's an equation for happiness. However also for all the other searched values it brings (easily could be referred to: as the most important equation in ~~the world~~ this realm).

Energy (E) is equal to the output of strength of feelings (F) multiplied by the motivations (S) invested in the performed work, being dependent of the observers: it's a sum (Σ) of receiver feelings (f_r) multiplied by his motivations (s_r), which are caused in any of the receivers, multiplied by the efficiency factor (η) of the telepathic exchange of thoughts between you and the last, multiplied by co-efficiency (μ/μ_r) of moral compatibility between you (μ) and the receivers (μ_r).

Explanation of the equation. It might seem complicated, but it's really not. Increase in the moral energy is associated with having the highest motivations (S): those, are only to be found by following your fate, with which – you were brought to this reality. Everyone has it, but not everybody goes after it – those are merely types of jobs, for which you've been created for: to suit them best and nobody without such inner desires of the soul, can't even match your abilities to perform on such level possible for you. It provides you the drive, because motivations aren't external, but internal – lie deep within you. When you follow them – time disappears, maximum of the moral energy can be generated.
Strength of feelings (F): is the amount of physical pain, tiredness etc. and engagement of emotions particular job involves. Those are typically feelings known as the negative side of the emotions – unpleasant, because those positive i.e. satisfaction, are felt when the moral energy is released (in time of rest, relax).
The last is compressed/ generated when you invest your wits and perform the highly moral job. It's typically known, that physical work is capable to provide about fives times more moral energy than a mental work, due to amount of feelings attached.
Your amount of moral energy generated, is also dependent on the observers. If you for instance do a particular job to just show up yourself – except lower motivations which would result from it, those who watch your efforts – might spoil your amount of the moral energy generated due to emotions felt i.e. jealously/ hatred – the last is being dependent on the strength of emotions felt (f_r) and motivation of the observer (s_r) to punish you, where the co-efficiency factor might be affected by the e.g. distance from which you've seen from (η). Either parasites or people who feel towards you e.g. antipathy/ reluctance – your work for them, might cause loss of your moral energy. The same is observed, where you're wanting to help those who don't want it/ i.e. your enemies. Therefore, an additional effort in thinking is required to even mind for who this work/ help is to be supplied. Those who highly want, desire – welcome it and hold a sufficient moral energy level (μ_r) to appreciate – are your usual target group.

Interpretation of the equation in your daily life.
It has got many repercussions in everyday use. It's best surely to do works, who benefit you/ others directly in an anonymous way, where there are no observers. Therefore if you're building e.g. a body mass, #4.2 – it's best for you to train possibly alone, yet only if acquired – the required skill and experience to do it safely: as the increase of moral energy would be the greatest, along with your motivations and focus to perform the job (moreover, it brings many more advantages: as you're attention is entirely focused on your muscles, not being distracted by any of the talk with anyone/ by anyone etc.). Not to help those, who don't require help/ not anticipate it and aren't truly thankful for it – refuse it to any of the parasites, who only wait to drain you, #1.1. Not get with any of your jobs, in places/ force it to people – where you're not welcomed.

Highly moral, altruistic[41] – anonymous work, typically of whose efforts invested nobody sees: is rewarded the most. Work aligned to the inner desires of soul/ fate is what's rewarding – and sharing it with others. It leads to fulfillment and all the desired, in life.

It's a personal ~~belief~~ wisdom i.e. understanding of the author, that Nirvana and the knowledge on how to attain it: is the ever-searched Holy[42] Grail (it's not an object, as wrongly referred to – but the highest-kept information/ in essence: revealed in this book).

If there is a reason, why you haven't yet reached the dreamed success in life – it's only the one cause: you're not following your fate.

	FAILURE YOU – WHO WANTS TO MAKE IT IN LIFE/ WHEN YOU AVOID YOUR FATE.	ACHIEVER YOU – WHO ALREADY MADE IT IN LIFE/ OR WOULD MAKE IT/ #2.
	Reactive	Proactive moral
Primary object of interest/ importance	You think, live and speak about everything, but not the goal itself (you've got no goal).	You think, Live and speak about the goal and DO actions required to achieve it, which is the most important thing to you/ its realization. In later terms: the last might be concealed, due to lack of people supporting it or the requirement for secrecy, but it's constantly on your thoughts.
Main difference	You talk, but not do anything towards. You aren't able to force yourself to think and act purposely (either due to beliefs, escaping, choosing the easy ways – which all leads to parasitism and failure). Not taking the responsibility: control over life due to lack of discipline/ other issues yet also the fear to start, is the primary reason for not following the inner desires and attaching to the surrounding reality.	~~You talk and do (or do without the talk).~~ You think and do.
Payment	You aren't able to work without a paycheck for extended amounts of time – you require payment, instantaneous.	You're able to work without any payment, because you understand that earning the really desired money – requires skill and knowledge which is to be gained only, through experience. You have the motivation for voluntary work, if it's purposeful and if possibly you can rip the benefits from it, in future.

[42] Being not the singularity device/ the Ark of the Covenant/ for you it would be too – if you experience it one day.

Past experience	Usually slim to none, due to level of taken risk or limited to jobs: where everyone can be hired or the low level of skill required to perform those tasks.	You have got some experience due to works performed at your projects – either successful or not, towards the directions of your dreams.
Mindset	You take steps, to better your situation using the known or real (believable, realistic) for you, using the opportunities presented or acting based on an acquired already knowledge (rather short term thinking).	You work for the best outcome in each and every project or task taken/ you handle, but if you fail – it's always accepted and of little importance, because you believe that due to the lvl of work invested: you finally would acquire required traits, experience – skill and knowledge, essential to be successful (long term thinking).

It's not required for you, to know your motives/ motivations of the soul as they're known by the Laws and activating the mechanism/ #2: would bring to you the work – where last, would be aligned to it (as being, the person to do this particular job). However, you can find them by asking the right questions or you would just know: if you invest efforts and would hold an appropriate [43]container.

For instance, one's desires[44] of the soul might be that he is interested in all which is important, but there is always attached an additional – emotional reason for the striving: it may be, to be high all the time (so, you've got the purpose and the real goal, for which the continual realization of your purpose brings you as a side effect – similarly, as to the Creation of this[45] reality/ God's intents).

It might appear, that the area is wide but if you would only, take a look closer: it's not. Those are the key specific areas, which you've got only the desire to work and educate in: they only consist about 150 fundamental areas of specialization – where you're able to master each one of them on more than an expert level, in the period of your lifetime.

Expecting to know, what it means to be important – as for each one of us, it's different: might be an issue to anyone, who is not holding them. Although, pattern of power arises and it includes areas, who might prove important in the future to [43] Intention, in thought: to unravel or reach the desired – where you've attached to it, for a specific period of time.

[44] Birth Tarot cards describe them in partial/ look for the right – many interpretations. It has been confirmed that you can find them on your own also through self-observation/ to better understand yourself.
[45] They're different for everyone – emotional reasons for most, might for instance include: fucking beautiful women and everyone has them, not to necessarily to tell them anyone but to know for self.

further your own survival: topic of business (money – resources, with all the important elements involved), health, knowledge of achievement, this reality (hidden Laws, how to take advantage) etc., in short: basically the contents of this book.

The drives are always there, attaining knowledge – skill and mastering those abilities is relatively easy as you're highly motivated, to continue the work: each and every single day. It doesn't cost you, your Life has got a purpose, sense and the deeper meaning – you're living a dream, in Nirvana/ #1.1 through work you're performing all-time.

Whether you would choose to follow your fate, is up to you but if you won't – you would be forced to, by an increasing amount of events which would unfold in your life to force you for your own development. If you would consciously follow them: your Life would become worthy of living, pleasurable and meaningful/ for which probably everyone strives – money would follow as a result of your highly-motivated work.

Prepare for that.

Due to your high motivations, which are able to be achieved for works only following fate: you would increase drastically your moral energy levels, because now – work, would become a pleasure to you (an initial 5 to 7 year mark is required, to reach freedom – usually, including the financial one: in your areas of motivations). Take a look below.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE MORAL/ LIFE FIELD, #1.1 (μ)

μ > 0.6	Godlike state – the immense feeling[46] of power/ love/ happiness/ belonging etc.[47] Δ full disappearance of any negative traits of character / explosion of happiness, / being protected and cared of, by others – treated as the VIP without anything required, by the moral members of a society, / attraction and admiration of others – including irresistible drawing of sexual attraction of the opposite-sex, / opens a burst of unstoppable creativity and unlimited access to the counter-matter in its completeness, / full happiness, fulfillment and satisfaction of whatever you've got already (turning every experience/ moment into the most pleasurable sensation ever), & many more also, #2.2 (end). + you don't feel any pain, as it's masked by the overwhelming happiness

μ > 0.35	Happiness, Well-being, Fulfillment and satisfaction, ↑ progressing with rise – predominantly moral, helpful behavior and gains from it.
μ < 0.35	↓ progressing with downfall – also immoral, parasitic behavior and suffering, Chronic depression, Suicidal[48] tendencies, 'Emptiness' inside, Death.

pain, constant pain

Nirvana/ #1.1: is the ultimate prize – if you perform at your very best, as it's only for the best.
You would become one, as if your job isn't really a job for you, it's possible – for everyone. It's an easy process, but hard to start because of the many unknowns, which would be solved by you and explained in the later terms.

[46] Living in a bliss (as a feeling – you experience all the time on yourself/ it, being a result of the moral field, #1.1: through following the intentions of the Creator – God, #1.11xE and this reality).
[47] Which drugs can only poorly substitute – not being even a tiny shade, of the real thing.
[48] If drugs are involved: schizophrenia, #2.2/ only on lower states, of the soul.

You've received this information, because it's vital for you to understand that there is only one viable path to any success, in this reality – where the last, involves following your fate and in essence: benefits you as you deliver, to get – all what is by you, desired.

START NOW

Before, you would begin the process, #2:

- start to change you budget to save the most money possible, #2.31
- begin to optimize your life, as with the guidelines of, #2:1
- prepare to attain knowledge which you think might prove useful in the process,
- acknowledge yourself with the thought that you would start to follow your inner desires of the soul/ fate – in time, however keep your daily-job if you've got one as it would be firstly your partial job.

At least, until the programming from #0.1 sets in.
Continue reading and Apply all, which is required for you to reach 'The Process of Change' section.

Moreover, in the process[49] of soul refining – if you fail at efforts to combat your imperfections, decline to master yourself and your character – standing consistently in your defects: you're risking to be degraded to... an (ugly) woman → (if you fail again) lower dimensions[50]/ the kingdom and hell concept. You're born to this reality with a debt which can only be repaid[51] by following your inner motivations of the soul, in life/ your fate. Fail to do so and you're risking to be trapped at best forever in this reality or to be even destroyed, eternally – as a soul/ removed from this part of Creation, forever i.e. 'imagine nothing'.

It's serious.

When the masterful level has been attained, usually at the end of process where Nirvana/ #1.1 is present – in metaphorical sense of way: it's harder to piss than to perform the work given, as motivations are in place/ you want it, by yourself.

[49] You're following your fate/ i.e. inner motivation of the soul: when you take and Live – the process, #2.
[50] Where you've might get permanently erased from the system as a program (soul)/ it means: the end of your existence – eternal.
[51] It can't be done for you, because of the free will – you've received and have, #1.11xE.

Things for which people strive: aren't mainly physical, but spiritual in nature.

1.12. Survival of the most moral rule

Despite being glamorized: those who are the most immoral are jailed and/ or covertly killed – when their role ends. It doesn't matter how the best you are in your job – you would be caught or killed, as this reality is governed by Laws: who punish every immorality.

Moral side represents creation, development and welfare of other. The immoral stands for interference, destruction and degradation for those, who strive and do something. Clash of those philosophies, serves the purpose of knowledge increase, #1.11xE as from now on: you must i.e. learn to protect your property or work performed, as it might get stolen, destroyed or sabotaged – which reinforces thinking and pushes for additional measures, serving your further development.

In order to fully complement any sort of knowledge: it needs to be exploited both ways. Therefore, it's not worthy only to read about it – it has to be tested in a real-life environment by real people with all the dangers it might bring. Besides, pursuing the immoral philosophy creates a wide-range of top-level class experts, who know the environment and the all secrets of it, i.e. drugs/ drug-tests, drug education – thievery/ security expert, counterfeiting/ anti-counterfeiting expert etc. It plays also an additional role to test people, whether they've learned to think – to not allow themselves, to be cheated or to clear their Karma/ #1.2: in a most learning experience for them – by loss of substantial part of their money etc. Most of the people, have actually a period of the immoral life – to experience it, on their own and to learn enough, to want never come back to what they've did. Therefore, it's a tolerated part of the Creation but to the point.

Drive, to better your life is prevalent in any specie. However, it might lead to taking the wrong choices early in life and pursue of the immoral path (as it gives fast results, promises a better future and it's relatively easy to start in comparison to others, because little knowledge is involved). Take a look below – the darker color/ more plusses, the more severe is the offense, however the last might depend on varying circumstances/ all the below are wrong: immoral, punished i.e. to be forever by you avoided.

IMMORAL ACTIVITY	UNDERSTANDING OF EVIL/ IMMORALITY
Selling/ production or redistribution of drugs[52] Includes addictions – substance abuse +	If you're dealing with people you're selling the drugs to – you might know why it's evil. Your product is too good and people get hooked (addicted). The very short onset of high, they give – is irrelevant to the harm and decay they cause, as they're sinking deeper through their usage – yes, asked and required by them but it generally: impoverishes[53] their lives. MORAL false justifications: you're only selling it to those, who want and pay for it. You're not selling to under age. If somebody doesn't wants to take – he won't, so it's his fault.
Stealing/ being a crook +++/ ++	Always ask: whether you would like to be stolen goods from – for which you've worked? Yes, the state might do this but if you're living in it – you must to accept and comply with the rules established, if they only don't interfere with the Moral Laws (rare occurrence)[54]. Taking somebody's possession is something worth condemnation (if it hadn't been given to you or attained in a moral way – it's forbidden). Cheating also other people (so they give you cash) is the same as stealing, but the difference is that you're not forcing anyone to give you what you want – they do it, from their own will or greed (it's 'less' wrong as you have to develop more abilities from the perspective of plan/ #1.11xE). However, it's the same crime but with indirect approach – all would be lost, either way. It's dangerous to take, even for the most powerful.

[52] It extends to pharmaceuticals which resemble traits of the above/ some of which are purposefully designed, i.e. released – to hook people: in order to generate the highest sales.

Breaking the human laws/ not paying taxes ++	You must respect the laws and taxes of state you're currently in or living. Why? If somebody would get into your home: would you accept or tolerate his unbearable behavior? The same, if somebody would talk badly about your closest ones, without no proof. It's essential to follow it, because you might get injured or killed, as people with different mentality/ culture would protect what's theirs. If you're not able to comply: avoid to get to somebody's home (home country)[55]/ where moral rules are the key to attitude and mutual respect for each other (everywhere).
Prostitution/ adultery ++	When a penis enters – vagina: you're poisoned by the aura of perpetrator on the spiritual level and it's an immoral activity, if you weren't attached with self. Sex is a sacred act and it shouldn't be sold, for any price/ of any reason. It applies to women: who are in the set-by-humans act of no-separation so the male could invest his own efforts into keeping the household by his work – to provide, for the family. If it's broken, it's worth condemnation – for the both[56] parties, who perpetrated the act and brings Karma.
Beating/ extortion +++	"Emotions which you cause upon others, would return to you – in time, #1.2." (Karma)
Harming people e.g. through toxins/ poisoning them/ any immoral part of even legal activity or venture ++++	Would you like to be poisoned? If people don't know: you won't get the Karma back but it's still very risky as they might find out, in time. In spite, of rewards of the immoral enterprise: if it's harmful – you wouldn't e.g. eat your product because you know it's a known poison and no label is attached to it, which informs about it – that it's experimental and warns about the dangers involved – if you're in it, you would get the punishment earned/ where it would appear that all the backers won't be liable for any harm, in the enterprise as the perpetrators – those who did it, in the end only are.
Taking somebody's life	It's the greatest of all, because you've taken away the most prized

[54] You've got always a choice to leave and move yourself to another country, which hasn't got any taxes at all or they're on a much lower level.
[55] It might not essentially be punished by the moral/ Karmatic Laws itself, but it's required to always follow and comply additionally to the rules of somebody's home/ neighborhood/ state when only in it, #3.98C.
[56] It's cleared, when you get a divorce – if married to a man. It works, both ways – for a man and for the woman in the relationship/ despite the last might be perceived as to have less to say.

+++++	gift which you haven't given nor would be never able to. There is always a solution to any immoral problem, but you must pay for the wrongdoing (a moral way out, requires first – stopping those activities/ see next pages).
Gambling +++	You're taking somebody's money i.e. in a poker game – you're wasting your resources because those are the games: which don't develop you or anyone else, beyond you. It leads to development of negative traits and the potential for immorality is high, because you're not always winning, which leads to a downward-point spiral/ besides, the house always wins. In gambling: you want something – for nothing and its wrong. If you put a coin for fun to a robber machine, it's no crime – you would loose it, either way: yet it shows, in some sense – your lack of intelligence. It becomes although immoral, when it's more than a penny/ stay away, all-time. Avoid to ever bet/ with anybody.
Speculative stock/ forex[57] market play ++(+)	Nobody[58] is gaining from your work and you're not gaining from it too anything real. You're not developing your abilities and knowledge, because everyone can buy cheaper and sell at higher prices. If you're interested in the recipe: it's ruled by fear and it's rigged. Everything else is just, to keep the illusion alive.

An immoral activity, is always an immoral activity – it's without any matter, that you've cracked the code for a robber/ slot machine, to always know when to bet. It involves other people's money loss and would remain an immoral activity – like any. However, if you're investing in a stock market to takeover companies for the purpose of modernizing them, enhancing their products etc. – it's not considered immoral anymore, because of the intentions and the effects of actions which it would cause upon others.

Victims of the immoral activity or activities – aren't random: they've got too their own stakes in it, yet might pose as a prey/ i.e. Karma is paid back, development of their thinking ensues – where they lack it or is proving to them, if they haven't learned: that in life you've got nothing for free[59] (as an opportunity for shams and crooks), etc.

/ The problem with any of those activities, is that the consumer: receiving end of it, can charge you with Karma for them, even if his paid for it voluntarily from his own will and it's solely his fault, responsibility for its use – as it's all a product, either service of somebody's else enterprise[60]/ activity (e.g. a person might charge with pain for the collapse of his marriage/ family: the whore, who allowed[61] himself to be fucked for money, or even without any).

This realm, is highly balanced because if it wouldn't be – entities populating it, wouldn't want to live/ continue the Creation/ #1.11xE. Therefore, each immoral activity – similarly as each moral activity: brings an equal amount of harm and good, in the end (which resembles, something like a martingale system –

[57] Currency, goods market.
[58] You'd might be led to believe you're increasing value of the company/ promoting products etc., etc...
/ They would do, without you.
[59] Exempting, what had been given or received/ when born.
[60] It's the huge risk you're taking by perpetuating any of those acts/ it's, the secret to understanding Karma/ #1.2.
[61] If immorality followed, i.e. concealment of engagement/ marriage ring, supplied false information, etc.

where doubling always after every loss: wins you eventually and you're +1 to have).

Money derived, from the immoral enterprises/ activities: is taxed – on the spiritual level with 50% value. It means, that half of the money you've earned through them: is, lost – forever. You've got no influence whatsoever – over it, however you can consciously – spend them[62] on somebody/ certain cause or just to give away/ however: you get nothing from it (no positive Karma/ #1.2). Any activity which doesn't generates moral energy – in the long term, is immoral.

There is always a moral way out, to any of the situation: independent how worse or hopeless – not only limited to being a victim/ perpetrator of the immoral, but also to any situation – you're in or could ever be.
If it isn't – it's created by the Laws and your sole task is only to find it (see next pages).

If you're involved in the immoral activities – you're becoming like a chicken in the flock for the Creator: it eats his own eggs, attacks and kills other chickens, not laying good eggs anymore – so, it's time to remove it from the herd, by killing it or jailing (if you're reading this words and are involved in such[63] enterprise or jobs, independent of whether they're a legal-based company/ part of it or a neighbor-pack – it might be just and precisely now, the last warning for you: to leave the immoral path, fulfill the damage done/ at least partially and to start a new life with a clean sheet of paper).
f not done – you've might loose it – your life, in a direct sense. If you've got any econd-thoughts: leave the immoral activities for others/ watch on yourself only, s you're being accounted separately.

[62] Which might explain your losses of property i.e. phone or broken items. It's required to give away 50% of the money earned such way, to just clear them/ you get no benefits from it, as opposed to the morally earned money.
[63] can be said: you're going obviously against your self-interest – if you pursue the immoral/ e. any, of it.
[63] Ask your conscience/ yourself: whether it's moral for you to do the things you do or not and you would know the answer, straight away// you're embedded with a 'hotline' to forever ask, before taking any action towards.

> You've got the last chance, to leave the immoral – just to stop, take what's yours and leave.
> If you won't: you would be persecuted and face up jail/ or to be killed (by the same Laws working through people). If your crimes would cease now – you would be saved, by the Laws and you won't gain for yourself more Karma/ #1.2: for the sins to be done. It's not told, that you won't face a jail sentence – you would need to repay it back, all of it: but you'd might be probably saved/ rescued from wasting your time there, if you would act now.
> Think about it right now as it's better to leave it now, when you've got the chance: you would be required to fix the damage, but help would come.
> Be yourself and do it, for your best self-interest.

For instance: you would want to quit the immoral activity because you feel, that if from any reason – it's not truly for you, then let it be – but in order to do it you would require for instance 50,000/ to do as such. Laws would help, to leave it but you might not receive the check from an unknown source: however, be supported in other meaningful way. You accept that you would do all in your power and even use that money to cover all the harm, in an all-the-possible way – just to escape the immoral activity/ activities and do something purposeful in your life: never to return, to it. Help would come, it would be suited to your needs and would be brought in a perfect moment for it. For instance after a month time or more, you've might log into your bank account and there would be a money transfer for 43,723/ to have over 46 375 (you didn't told about it – to anyone, only thought it as such in your mind – but it would be there, confirmed to be experienced). It would save you, as you would be rescued to get from it, with face – now your turn would be to undue the damage done to your possibilities and it's a requirement. If you would continue or refuse to change your mind in this time: you're likely to be dead – it's serious and it's the best in a lifetime decision to stick with it (the Laws won't give you, until your intentions would be true!). You're likely to get more help after the initial one – i.e. 16,000+ additional might be a result of it, as in the spoken instance.
It has been confirmed. You might get an additional funds: they too would need to be used on self and to repay the harm[64] caused. This way, you're clearing your path for the brighter and best future and you succumb to it, by your heart/ without[65] it, it's impossible.

[64] It took exactly what was above the 50,000 mark. All those money were clear, not-charged with anything for just leaving the immoral/ to be used freely: they've had more value than all which was earned before.
[65] If only engaged/ or was recently – in any immoral, but didn't repaid the harm/ didn't cleared, the Karma – #1.2.

IF INVOLVED

Remain calm.
Begin to form in your thoughts an idea to escape from the old/ immoral activities (be with it on the level of your intent/ keep it for at least a month period i.e. that you want to leave this sh*t behind, permanently[66]). Continue as nothing had happened, tell nobody about it.
Ideas would be brought to you and follow them, immediately.
It would save you and your life/ it will be the best decision of your lifetime, guaranteed.
// You can leave, just NOW despite ALL your beliefs and precognition – if you still live.
// It has to be a split-second 'now' decision as later might be too late & it won't be possible.
Then, do: what's necessary/ #2.

Immoral activities are never any solution to your problems, as they're a "temporary fix[67]" – understand it, know it/ forever. They never solve the cause, as it's a house of cards built on sand – it would collapse, under itself and all what you've built for so long: would be gone, independent of its magnificence – which is probably the worst consciousness (and in this realm: any immoral activity is punished).

If you so desperately require cash: dress yourself in a dark clothes, buy some very cheap calendars and go after homes: ~~tell, you're a chimney sweep (as of today)~~ and give them to people. They would possibly pay you money, as you're exploiting the desire for payback/ reciprocity. If not, get for free some beautiful flowers growing somewhere wild or buy them at a wholesale at no price and go to an airport or a center of the town – in any place, where there are people: give one to each of them separately, and have a some sort of box where they could put money in, tell – you're collecting cash to help some person[68] (flowers are for free, but if they're willing to support the cause – let it be so). You can collect in an hour more, than in a typical day-job if you're good[69] at it/ or best, #4.41 i.e. last idea from the list – the easiest, the most profitable: the most likely to work, effectively.

If the debts involve substantial amount of money: get to an agreement with the benefactors. It's sure, you can work something out – even, if you've failed: admit it, but – it's nothing to be gained by killing you and that you would invest your efforts, to repay[70] what you've taken – it's a promise. Be sincere and mean it deeply: as body sends subconscious signals which you won't be able to cover and those are always to be easily to be spotted by most of the people. It's a moral solution, to an immoral problem/ taking any money: you don't have – on debt, or either way.

[67] It's a metaphor – it is in reality: a bullet shot in your knee/ by yourself.
[68] Yourself/ in need – if somebody asks, tell the truth/ he would understand and smile, probably congratulate the idea. You don't need to lie, there is never a need for it.
[69] If you're in a desperate need – you would go to a desperate measures: so it's always better to do it, only in the moral way – conquering your fears, which you've might have and develop yourself this way/ selling what you have already, might prove a way out. Thinking is required, before you would engage in any situation, so tell yourself that from now on: you would do everything preceded by deep thinking and right the first time, always & forever.
[70] Use your owned property as something which could be taken instantaneously by them/ banning, only taking your tools for development, as it would prove your intents and help to secure such an agreement.

You always want to improve your position as best as you can, but it only needs to be done in a moral way/ boundaries.

You're forced to think – all the time. Immorality doesn't end here/ i.e. it affects you.

If you're selling your home to a known criminal and he derives the money from an immoral enterprise/ where he might be even willing to pay extra[71] so the home would be kept for him, by you. By making this sale: a crisis would happen in your life up to decades – after the successful transaction (usually it takes up to the next 15-25 years to clear itself). It would mean for you: loosing 50% of your property/ the money value, which has been derived from the sale in past (i.e. through[72] flood, fire etc. – which might possibly look as a random event).

You're required to ask for proofs where those money come from and to verify sources of the documents provided in such sales and it can be dealt, easily – by telling, that you want to sell it for someone, who would be suitable for it and you don't sell to everyone because you care about the welfare of others.

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Refuse any immoral/ ill-gotten money or to rip any spoils derived by them.

If somebody's profession for instance is a thief and you know or suspect[73] it: you can't accept any of them. If unsure – ask for a proof of his earnings, by asking directly and if required further: paper trail of it – be open about your suspicions – you would know. You're not allowed to drink with him vodka, he has bought – even, if it's his birthday/ you can however drink with him your vodka – the one brought by you (if the last, is moral to you).

If received a gift from such person, involved in the immoral activity – return it to him and thanks politely. If asked, why not – tell you can't accept gifts bought for immoral money, say sorry and be open about it. If it's impossible, to return – donate it to charity or pass to someone unknown, anonymously/ leave somewhere to be picked where somebody might be in need. If he has a favor towards you: ask him, to do something for you.

It's punished by the Laws, severely. Even if it's the best and the most-expensive luxury vodka – strict-top of the shelf and you've wanted[74] to drink alcohol for the last two weeks, straight: refuse. Usually, the last mechanism of want/ desire is involved to activate your inner wants and to test you as a thoughtful person – from those choices: your fate would be ruled by (it would be later about it).

You're required to think, all the way through/ all-time.

[72] Interestingly enough: influenced by those events people with you, have some sort of insurance policies or are refunded in some other way.
[73] As the clues are there: he spends the money too lightly or lavishly/ as if they literally wouldn't his.
[74] You would buy, up to days – years – decades from this event: the same or similar bottle/ value of it and it would be broken by you exactly in the circumstances, where it would cause such a pain...

Know, that any event in this reality works for your good.
Someone are just more evil initially, than others and might realize goals[75] – not known for you at the time.

Moreover, you're subjected in this reality to the tests – fail them and suffer, but pass them and your fate would be of the best possible. It's probably the most important component, which would allow you to win all the desired but you're in a need: to change yourself first – by adapting, which is probably the hardest part/ to resist the temptations.

You're passing them, by changing and transforming your in-born nature.

1. First person enters the room, spots the money on a table. In the moment, when he looks at the cash: a desire to have them – is awakened. He looks around, whether somebody is there – takes the money and runs – fast.

2. Second person enters the room, spots the money on a table. In the moment – also a desire to have them is awakened, he's ready to take but he suddenly thinks: "maybe I'm on a camera, maybe somebody watches?", "I want this money so badly, but I don't want to be caught" and after – he leaves the room, without them.

3. Third person enters the room, spots the money – a desire to have is awakened, he takes them, but when he leaves, he thoughts: "They're not mine (money). What I'm doing? I can't do as such". He puts them back on the table and goes out.

4. Fourth person is so-called, an honest person. He enters the room, spots the money, sees – that nobody is inside and thoughts: "They don't belong to me. Somebody forgot to hide them". Puts them to wardrobe and writes a note, that they're in there – leaving it on a table, and then leaves.

Nature has only transformed in a third person – he passed the test, because he overcome his desire to have those money. Fourth person, already have passed this test in the past and is much higher in the moral development: which is essential to advance/ to have or even be allowed to have more. This story grabs the essence. Think how many times you've took an unfair/ immoral advantage over someone, by taking the money he has left or goods which were not yours (sum or value of them, doesn't matters): your morality has been tested and you've probably failed miserably – if you've only didn't followed the right, moral choices (have you've ever wondered, how many times somebody took an advantage of you?). More, of the situations where you would be tested, later – might involve the below/ crime pays none and it's severely punished by the universal Laws – avoid to ever get into any.

At the checkout – having, the last 100 in your life: being supposed to pay 40 for 12 beers which are in the box – you would be charged only for 6 as the cashier didn't found it's a double-pack. You're role is to correct the mistake and pay for [75] If you still don't get it: someone might follow the ill-gotten money and force you to return them, as they were e.g. his investment/ to be confirmed, by the court order with instantaneous realization as he was robbed by the crook (being extended to e.g. donations, prizes or gifts which were already spent, used or sold etc. to be paid back by you – with the money you haven't got). The same applies: to buying stolen items – they would likely break, be lost or have to be returned/ you're forbidden to accept anything bought by the immoral money – anything: just refuse.

Your path to success would be blocked by the Laws if you won't learn those lessons fast/ you won't be allowed to get the prizes in the process/ #2: as your morality would be too low (to believe in them).
You would loose the unearned/ your whole life would be on the hold.

what you take. 20 would play a major difference, but you must do it along with the conscience. It's all an illusion of gain, understand it.

Next occurrence, might be that you get 167.25 – full refund, instead of the 58.55 you've supposed to get for the products ordered. You've got the last 105 left for your whole future lifetime and no means to get anything beyond it. BUT return them back as it's over 108: you're not supposed to have (they might call you, in time – either way, finding the mistake – so it's always the right decision to be made, as money "earned" such way hasn't got the spiritual value attached to it and you're failing the test, by doing otherwise). Overcome the illusion.

It's not your money, as you've received the goods and the payment is required. You can't take the goods and the money, because nobody gains mutually. It's the right thing to do, also extended by the fact that you wouldn't also want to be taken advantage of, by someone.

It's of the highest importance and enormous pressure has been put on this key ingredient.
You're required to change your nature, by taking the right decisions/ for self. It would become impossible for you[76] to receive, #2: if you won't do it by yourself and adapt (as you won't be allowed to progress, until your morality: won't, with you).

The truth is, that today – you would spit yourself in the face by taking those selections but, in reality: the payback would come, after a significant time delay – if you only continue the track/ #2.

Fail at them and forget about ever[77] changing your life, anyway again.

Take in life always and only: the most moral choices possible.

This way: you're be able to control your destiny.

Any resource ever, isn't worth the Life/ #2.

[76] To get, the desired.
[77] Morality has to progress/ in order for you to be able to – your morality: to be repeated, twice due to its importance.
You would loose all – if you won't/ i.e. change your in-born nature, to take.

APPLY ALL – TO BE APPLIED FOREVER.

Be always conscious of those hidden-mechanisms and tests, of your moral development – to pass them, each time successfully.

1.14. Moral duties and stance to follow

If you want to become a moral person: you're required to act in certain situations.

> Taking moral choices is hard, because it's associated with breaking of the invisible field resistance. Moral choices are always associated with thinking/ the highest intellectual resistance: taking the way uphill – against all odds.

Moral behavior is characterized by only two properties: it never harms anyone and it's never required to correct it or fix. It also brings an increase in the moral energy, #1.1 and possibly generates Karma, #1.2: which you would willingly accept.

For instance, if you were attacked by a parasite who wanted to provoke an emotional response – your drain and you've got a true desire to punch him in the face/ severely beat – you're not allowed to do that, because it's an immoral response/ as your life isn't threatened. Keep calm, restrain your nature – because if you do so: your behavior won't be moral as you would break those rules – you would harm him and this action would be required to be corrected as i.e. jail sentence, refund etc. awaits by doing so. Instead, a more moral solution – as an inverse, of the natural reaction (which is an emotional response): would be to talk and explain the issue or just to let go/ ignore and leave – saving your time. The first might bring you an increase in moral energy: if you've sensed the intention on drain and caused a parasite to reply in an emotional manner, by loss of his energy or you've done the things required to defend yourself – second, is probably better – if no direct threat is involved because you show, you don't care and you're additionally saving energy to work on your goals, #2. It might be neutral to the moral energy – you're not loosing it to him, yet not gaining also. It's the choice to take, if the fight isn't worthy of it/ the last, should be dealt quickly and effectively: to save you most of the time, no further explaining – just few words and it ends.

Moreover, it leads to taking such choices in life – in larger areas of your life.
You're always required to think and to view the bigger picture.

Firstly, you must learn to protect yourself – so for instance if a situation happened, where you were returning back from a birthday party in a car packed with five people: when the driver went out to tank the gas, left the keys inside and went to the station to pay – your friend took his car, closed the doors and drunk driven four of you on a crazy ride, breaking few road traffic regulations i.e. double line crossing, speeding etc., a truck driver closely didn't hit you in the back and he dumped the car in a ditch, on an express road – escaping, with three of your friend and you were one to stay – the police arrived, you didn't told what's happened because you were drunk but the truck driver did – telling you were not the driver, and you've been released after alcohol tests on a police station...
You're supposed, to act always for your own good, first. Therefore, if you were called as a witness days later: you're rightly to tell the truth, but not all of it as to a) protect self first, [& then] b) didn't harm anyone or didn't require to correct this action perpetrated – you tell, that you only know the people who were in the car, yet not telling who has drunk-driver/ partially, because you know that if you were to put other testimony that you don't remember the whole day in no way – as your friends might require to (which is completely unbelievable and you would harm yourself, if the case was to enter the court and not to be solved by the police itself), although you know that by doing it – not even saying who perpetrated the act which was pressed, would cross the line and you've lost your neighbor friends, forever and be harassed by everyone (which might be like a hard choice to take, but remember – you're not harming anyone, including self) and besides: tapes, truck witness – people on the station, cameras in the city – evidence is plentiful and it would be easily to disproof – furthermore, your friend – who has driven, has got already two suspended sentences from various paragraphs – he goes to jail, immediately and they would prove it to him. You're required to put testimony: who is best for you – first & only at the base, but cares about everyone around – you're not sure, who has driven, because you've drink alcohol and only know with who you were that day/ all. It's associated with being bullied, called as an informant – but it's the right, hard yet moral choice to be taken. Everyone is responsible for his actions.

Take in life always and only: the most moral choices, possible.

It's required to know, that you're only subjected to see and interpret the events from your own perspective i.e. relation – as you're in this game, alone. For instance, if you're with a friend and he has stolen on your eyes a nectarine – the best, the hugest, the most tasty – you would eat with eyes, as you've been waiting to eat it for three months and which you've ordered but it was not available and didn't showed in the package, having no money to buy it: you're not supposed to act, because it hasn't been stolen from you/ you were not affected by this action – as it only relates to you. You can't accept the spoils of it, however – #1.12. Although, it might allow you to gain consciousness to not let this person to your house, watch[78] on being e.g. drunk or to be, in the vicinity of him.

Understand, that you're not subjected to 'clear all of the evilness' in this world, but only the one which caused your harm or affected you in any significant[79] way – it's, when the line is crossed and you're obliged to act, but also: in a smart and thoughtful – effective way.

Another instance, might appear when your friends are beating somebody in the center of a neighborhood i.e. blocks of flats, where windows are everywhere. Again, this action isn't involving you directly, but it affects you because somebody might call the police and the law in your country is such, that if you passively observing an immoral act – you're liable, as you were the perpetrator so – it's your duty, to stop them and tell to move somewhere else/ possibly providing the reason: 'not here/ people are watching'. However, it's best for you to stop in the mid-term[80] when you would move i.e. to 'I don't want to see it' respond-type and you can help by saying loud in a commanding tone, with smile on your face: 'ESCAPE!' followed by 'Oh, there would be a slaughterhouse', 'Oh, there would be a slaughterhouse' as to give the clue/ instructions to the person attacked. If he does as such, it's good for him, either way – he would be caught anyway if the Karma/ #1.2 hangs on him.

You can help those victims, if you want to or your goals involve it, #2 but this help must be concealed or hidden – best anonymous/ performed in a clever way.

In instance, where you've cooked a pack of chickpeas and had a poisoning, #3.29L because the product has been contaminated by similarly looking yellow GM-beans in it: you're supposed/ obliged to act – firstly, to let know the producer he has got a problem as he might not be conscious of it and secondly – to get a refund of the batch, possibly gain an extra product for the 'sorry'-type of thing.

You're required only, to choose those ideas or actions who are benefiting you and working on your cause – bring towards your goal[81] or goals/ #2. It's all about effectiveness of the undertakings – understand it.
It requires you to think.

You're required to correct immoral/ evil behavior which is affecting you.
Know, it's usually more – you can think of/ responsibility-type-of[82] issue.

You're required to play cleverly for your self-interest. Everyone must protect himself and you're not like everyone, at least not anymore – if his, not doing it: it's his problem, he must too start to learn to think by himself as you've did.

If you allow yourself to be disrespected/ treated badly or give others the possibility to cause you harm/ influence your actions: others would follow with similar type of treatment.

[79] In relation to your goal, taken in the process/ #2: it includes parallel developments.
[80] From the very same reason, as in the beginning – as you're liable in the terms of human laws: if you passively watch without any help – in case if something would happen i.e. they might kill him or permanently disable etc./ you don't want to see it: stay away (why? because it might affect your goals/ #2: i.e. searching for the perpetrators, witnesses, you've might also be charged – it's problematic to you, etc.).
[81] It's all the moral field is about and ALL the Laws in the Universe.
[82] Where: you place too much responsibility and give power over events, to anyone.

You must always use the best tools available for the job, because it's with no sense not to.
It's required for your good, self-interest, well-being and peace of mind and if you won't do so: you'd be severely punished by the Moral Laws.

Forever, to do the work/ you're required: to do it, in the most effective and best manner – it's a necessity. You're therefore forced to think it all, before you would engage in any type of it. For instance, if you want to dig a large hole in the ground to make a fish pond in your back yard – you've got a choice to a) do it, with a shovel by yourself which would take you at least 200 hours of intensive work labor – whereas: you live in an area where other more cost-efficient solutions/ tools are available and it's more beneficiary to use them, as they would save your time, work and labor – besides, they're the best solution to the problem, b) you should pay the specified amount for someone do it, with a mechanical digger. The catch is, that if you don't have the money: you either barter, but calculations state – that you're able to earn couple times[83] more, than by digging it yourself so – it's not the most effective use of your time and it's required from you to abandon the project or get the resources/ you might also want to find others who might be interested in it like i.e. your family, brother etc. and who do have money and would possibly provide them/ cover the project.

You would be severely punished by using the tools which are not the most effective, dependent on the impact of your actions/ the 'strong but stupid' people approach. It applies to all the choices and thinking always is essential (before taking, either entering any action).

Weight your options – make always only the best/ the most effective selections.

Moral field is forever about the right choices for you – the last involves preceded thinking before taking any action. It's not about, being the easy selection of the immoral actions, but about taking the right ones for you – usually, the hard choices i.e. telling the truth, not harming anyone, serving in a clever way: all of those – which serve you, the best. If you don't do so – you’re severely punished by taking any other decisions.

The reason why disasters in your life strike – always the worst occurrences happen: it's because –you lack preparation. You haven't thought through and prepared/ secured for all the options and possibilities which might lead to your downfall: even higher loss of your property – if they wouldn't struck. They're there, to either show you the lack in your thinking: which leads to unsecured projects, works and to reinforce the change – of your defects in planning in each and every instance – even to the last, smallest detail.

For instance: if you've build a home, secured every detail of it – it's fully safe, it's hurricane-proof and it's just a diamond in the crown. Yes, it might be – but you've again: didn't thought[84] it to the end, as you've built it, in an area where flood is possible and it would be taken by the water in the next event. The same, applies also: when securing food, water and all the other requirements to live – including knowledge, for the times when the system would collapse.

It would be exploited to the very last drop. It's only for your good, so you'd be prepared next time fully and won't do the same mistake again, and it's usually achieved through the destruction of your work or a major accident/ as it imprints an everlasting memory – something, which can't be ignored. It also reinforces your morality, to show you where you truly are: how you lack preparedness and how hollow is your thinking.

Forever prepare totally on any occurrence and secure every last possible smallest issue
OR face the risk of permanent loss, which would happen *b*ecause of it.

/ Prepare forever such, like you'd prepare for the End of the World/ take it very[85] seriously.

It applies to every each work, project or undertaking.

[84] You've focused on one particular area, ignored the other.
[85] Disasters in your life would likely cease/ confirmed.

Total preparation to any circumstances causes, that those catastrophic events might be not brought to your reality, due to lack of need.

Everything in this reality has a reason and you're required to seek for the last, always and forever/ to find the truth. You're probably also acting this way: saying an official reason why, but hide deep – the real motivations and drive. The same way of acting is prevalent and the true ability, is to see beyond those smoking mirrors and always think, independently of who or what is involved.

Cigarettes are firstly marked as harmful/ if somebody haven't found it yet, then – when the time passes, producers are forced to put a clear sign: 'SMOKING KILLS' on every package of them and even in a certain countries – place photos, of the damage caused through the usage of this product. Then, the public ban passes for smoking in public, closed places (before it – lots of books/ tools might be inspired to disdain people from the drug: allowing them to throw it once and forever). The era ends, when GM-tobacco is introduced and cigarettes become deliberately[86] poisoned, as they burn/ roast the tongue yet the side-brands[87] are also influenced through the introduction of additional poisons which might not cause such an effect/ #2.2. All done, in a very extensive time delay, so you have time – if you've gave in: you won't know the real reason behind – i.e. hidden agenda, if didn't seen it all the way through.

Your thinking is required.

Reinforce thinking, plan and be prepared – always.

1.2. UNDERSTANDING THE KARMA LAW AS A MECHANISM THAT GUIDES YOUR FATE

Negative Karma could block any of your achievement, until it's cleared. The last is brought always in a most teaching way for you. It's essential, to start act the right way towards others: to experience the desired outcome.

The Karma Law.
The feelings, either good or bad – you cause upon others: would come[88] to you back, in a time delay. /
As you sow, you shall reap. /
Feelings that you cause in others: come back to you.

If you've for instance: beaten somebody or many people without their initial aggression: you would experience exactly the same pain – you've caused upon them[89] in a significant time delay/ it extends to any other feelings[90] either good or bad, caused.

Moreover, what you're experiencing today – is a direct result of actions: you've took in the past.

You're required to act always morally towards others/ with respect.
From now on.

Understanding, that by acting moral – i.e. taking the right choices for self: you're able only to cause for yourself positive Karma/ such, which you're – wiling to accept, is essential.
It's all brought to morality, in relation to others.

[88] In an infinite time period, but usual to connect it.
[89] The movie: A Clockwork Orange (19 understanding this mechanism/ watch it.
[90] Immoral actions cause only negative feelings/ are able to generate such Karma, in practice (as the person has to send it, to the receiver). The last, is send automatically when any contact is made – during the act/ unless one agrees consciously, to take the pain voluntarily etc.

The only sure law in this reality, is causality.

Karma[91] is received always only by the attacker – not, the defender: which implies that it's forever your moral duty to defend yourself. Moral act of defense involves first avoiding any fight possible.
It forbids you to provoke – as it's an attack or to respond with aggression to any verbal or false-physical attacks/ particularly be watchful for the game – played by many parasites, #1.1: which sole purpose is to cause you, to become an aggressor through your way of responses, to their many baits.

Here's the secret: if you've been however attacked by e.g. a thug – avoid to perceive him as a sole individual, but see him rather as a representative of the group intellect – of all the thugs to who he belongs, because it would allow you to use a broader variety of defense. Moreover, know that Laws in this reality are so designed, that you're always able to win the given confrontation/ as it wouldn't be served to you, as a test, #1.11xE and you're always assisted as a defender:

- you must only look around what has become available to you and immediately make a use of it/ as Moral Laws always bring to your disposal everything that you need – to win the defense fight; it's forbidden for you – to be scared, because you're backed by the invisible – if only you were attacked: you've got always the tools in your area, but you must actively seek for those handouts/ find them and use – immediately,

- if you've put by the aggressor to a desperate situation – seek for an exit which has been specially prepared for you; you've got a single, hidden exit out of the situation and you must seek to find it and use, instantaneously (miracles, might happen – confirmed).

What's more, whatsoever – if you would put the fault on the right person which caused you the damage: your pain, is cut by half. If you however fail to do so, by putting the blame on the wrong person/ who didn't perpetrated the act: your pain would double, in its intensity. Ignore the human laws, you've did the right thing.

[91] If you do evil: it would come back to you, in time.

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

You're able to win any confrontation – you're subjected to.

If you're attacked: your duty is to perform an effective defense through the usage of moral means, only.
Make a use, immediately – of anything which becomes available for your disposal.
If cornered: look actively for an exit – it's there.

/ Avoid any fights, leave and ignore them always – if only possible, #2[92] (as they rarely – ever serve your goals and you're the attacker: if you provoke or have an unclear intentions towards the other person).

You're able to use methods of defense which are consistent – to defend yourself in an attack (even if it means killing the attacker, in the fight for your life)/ #2.59. No Karma would be ever received, by any moral[93] act of defense.

[93] You know, what's moral or not – it's subjected to a given situation and can't be explained without a specific sets of variables/ they're different for every instance. Constant thinking, asking of conscience might be required: to establish an effective defense – it's the work, only you can perform.

If you've however failed to defend yourself – you can still accomplish a moral victory (win). You're required to continue the moral way of acting, to the very end and hold on to your right decisions and ideals. Moral punishing effects of the Laws: would transform the initial loss – into your long term, victory (enemy would understand his mistake/ he would be attacked by someone stronger or struck by something – in a time delay: making you, a winner – in the very end).

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

If you've lost: keep the fight, to the very end – holding to your ideals, refusing to comply deep and act only in a moral manner – all the time.

View it this way: if you're today seeing somebody weaker or clumsier than you[94] – take an advantage of him, or use/ force in any way e.g. in a queue – won't be surprised: if you would be used or forced in such way, by someone stronger than you – in the time, to come.

If you were not attacked at a given, current moment – i.e. now: abandon forever, all the hatred and any of the retaliation ideas – perpetrators would be caught by the Universal justice[95] – Karma, anyway. If you won't let go: you'd be the attacker and earn Karma, i.e. pain for yourself/ it would likely block your progress to success/ #2: until repaid.

Imagine now, that you're 68 years old: you've got a daughter and a son – which you've wanted send to college – you've got mortgage for which you have to pay the next month, your wife's health isn't particularly the best and you.. you've got just a question: how do you gonna make it – how you gonna make it happen/ where you've put all your savings including retirement fund money for the 7-15% a year profit per month and you've lost it ALL as the investment happened to be a Ponzi scheme[96] (which usually most of those funds become, when a series of deals goes wrong or face a prolonged loosing streak)[97]. Imagine now, that you're the only leading manager of this hundred-million hedge fund who 'done' more than 1,500 people who trusted you. Break.
Imagine the pain involved (Karma): where you've lost ALL your money – you've got – your retirement funds, savings and all what – you've had, in a split of second due to your decision, but lost by someone who betrayed you either knowingly or not (viewed – from the perspective of someone: who has the ability to send you an emotional package – Karma, because you've took his money and lost it, not fulfilling the promise)// if you were the person responsible for the damage due to immoral activity which became such: all those feelings would be experienced by you back – in time/ i.e. your progress blocked: just imagine what would enter your life. Karma is also applied to people, who are a part of [94] It doesn't matter who he is, in relation to who: he's a living person populating this Universe – it's enough.

[95] You've sent already Karma to them i.e. the feelings they've caused to you, by doing you Evil – they would be returned to them, in time (use your time effectively on your goals/ #2). It applies to all, any Evil i.e. wrongdoing upon you – it's 100% absolutely guaranteed as it's a Karmatic Law/ the one: serving justice in this realm.
[96] You're being paid from the other people's money, as no profit is being made – costs mount and somebody spends your money on charities, luxury cars, homes, vacations etc. All is lost, where there are no new investors that finance the scheme (which often happens: when the market is low/ economy is in ruins as no cheap credit is given – that means no work and everybody wants to get their money back, immediately).
[97] Your intelligence isn't questioned, because most of the people put 100% of their money eventually – if one investment pays a good return, even if only on the paper: as they don't check/ verify it or the last, isn't sufficient (up to a 5-15% and not all your money is ever allowed to enter such deals, so if you loose one egg – it isn't a cataclysmic event). Those who won, in those Ponzi schemes and left: are often forced by court to return their profit/ beware.

the scam/ immoral activity, #1.12 (loss of property, home etc. – ill-gotten money, #1.2 as there are clues or the truth would be evident in time, e.g. too high salary for such a job, lavish spending etc.).

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Think, before you engage into any sort of work or take any action – moral or not: would you willingly accept Karma which might be a result, of it?
If you would not bet your life for the stake of your absolute certainty that the person pointed – was really the perpetrator: avoid to ever charge Karma/ it's death-serious.

If you're living the truth/ act in a moral manner all the time – taking, the right choices for you: there is nothing, to be in worry of and you're able to gain only positive Karma for your actions preceded by thinking.

Trivia

Karma can be served as a stack (combination of few emotions, cleared at one event).
It extends to all the living creatures, who have a soul i.e. cats, dogs etc.
If you don't hold any Karma for i.e. physical pain – the last, caused by others e.g. through beating: won't hurt[98] at all.
If the immoral act is perpetrated by more than a one person – its split over all of the perpetrators involved: accordingly to the fault, they've caused.
Most of people, who are born to this reality disabled/ morbidly-ill: actually resemble some sort of Karma which they were unable to repay in their previous life.
Karma is usually cleared within your life – either the good or bad, but if it's not possible: it's served in another (transference of positive Karma – brings an opportunity to control your destiny and future).

After each feeling – an anti-feeling is experienced, e.g. if you've felt a strong emotion of love: an anti-emotion would be felt of the same value, hatred – afterwards/ so independent of what you feel – you would always feel the same as others (of status, prestige etc.).
You're required to unload it, in a moral manner.

Time delay is primarily to don't take away your free will[99] and to test: whether you learn fast enough on your bad choices, in order to assess your value (lack of this knowledge/ about Karma doesn't means – you're exempted).

Justice is kept.

[98] It's said 'merely' across the whole book as for instance: if you've got your head dissected/ slit up: it hurts, i.e. burns when you touch it – but it's your fault now.
[99] As if you would be punished instantaneously – you won't do the immoral deeds.

IMPROVE YOUR SITUATION

Upload this document now on a various sharing sites, p2p networks, publishing it everywhere – so everyone can get it.

This way, you're able to generate a positive Karma for yourself, because somebody would be very thankful/ appreciative, that you've allowed to let them know/ helped – earning such emotion/ Karma for self (now, it would be caused in you – in your future, e.g. by someone giving you something valuable to you).

This way, and by doing many others: you're able to control you fate.

You can't escape Karma i.e. either good or bad – willingly to be accepted or not to be willingly accepted: you can only delay it. It's absolutely guaranteed if not in this current lifetime – it's repaid by you, in another/ i.e. which might explain your suffering[100] 'without a reason' (accidents, etc.).

LEARN IT NOW – AT THIS MOMENT AND DO IT BETTER FAST: FOR YOUR OWN WELL-BEING.

All those events which happen today in your life – are the result of your Karma, from the past.
Nobody connects it, know it.
Apply morality/ #1.1.

1.3. LIGHT AND SATAN AS THE INNER VOICES – IN YOU

You're subjected to voices: who are your advisers – at least, until you learn to think by yourself. They know all your thoughts, know you 'from A to Z plus Z+'.

LIGHT	SATAN
By listening to this voice: you would only get the best what is for you, possible.	If you would listen[101] to this voice only and allow it to enter your reality: the worst would happen.

[100] It's forbidden however to continue watch on it by you, but instead focus on ceasing any immoral activities which might generate such unwilling Karma for you, NOW.
[101] By choosing, to realize the actions suggested or convinced to.

Hard work that pays off with the time delay (usually lasts from few days and ranges up to 3, 5-10 or more months).	Immediate pay: usually no work/ little to very little involved. Immediate pleasure, very short lifespan of gratification (usually now, up to an hour – possibly a month or three but not more).
[Reverse]	Associated with the loss of µ, creating bad Karma – immoral, illegal and destructive behavior of action and thought.
Is or might be less pervasive in choosing actions mentioned, but the lasts depends on the perspective and current circumstances.	-
Choices like: learn, do the job given, go there – do that (might be boring, but you know its right and those should be done).	Choices like (as opposed to the left side): [or] go to a party now[!], ignore this job – nobody would catch you, play the game, avoid to do anything – nobody is watching – get yourself time/ life on pleasure – go fuck some chicks – spent more time playing as life is short and you need to live it maximally.
Associated with: achievement, fulfillment and success in life/ including the financial one. In the end: leads to Nirvana/ #1.1 (closeness to the Universal Intellect[102]).	Associated with: moral degradation, prison, psychiatric hospital, mental institutions, failure in life (suffering, pain, lack of financial resources, emptiness, suicide thoughts and attempts). In the end: leads to death.

[102] God.

His secretive role is to push you closer to the Light, by showing you and allowing to experience the opposite side, therefore: enabling you to actually decide – due to choice you're given and the free will.

If you listen, to one of them: the latter has got a significant harder task to get to you (so if you follow your inner Satan: it's likely you would continue the streak of downward spiral for a delayed period of time e.g. alcoholic/ drug escapades, time of rest and destruction).

They both, work for your good but from a different angles: the first, listening to him – brings in long term success and happiness but for the short-term pay; the second, if you listen to him – it brings short-term reward for the price of long term failure.

Light represent the godlike state, Satan – darkness, your nature.
You must beat your inner Satan first, to get what's desired (associated, with the inner will to take or to receive for self).

You're required to learn how to use the both voices, as they would work for your advantage: together. It's a challenge to resist the inner Satan at first, because he's very powerful.

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW – FOREVER

The realization of goal and its completion, #2 – is the most important thing in life. Voices are created to serve this purpose, yet an appropriate ratio is required – Light vs Satan i.e. 3:1, 7:1, 10:1-2, 14:1-3/ best and more (where you listen e.g. 3, 7, 10 days straight to Light and you give in 1, 1 or 2 days – appropriately to Satan, as to relax when working on your goals, which is required for the maximum performance[103]). Make however sure, intoxication with drugs – that might be suggested, wouldn't take a toll[104] on the realization of your goal/ limit the last, to 1-2 consecutive days at max.

Mix, of pleasure (work) and rest (relax after – its completion/ side-tasks) is essential. Therefore, you perform a highest-motivation work and when the goal is reached: you can spend your time, the way – you've wanted (return always back to it, when you've given to your inner Satan – however limit activities only to those: which don't interrupt the ability to perform work). It's a challenge to come always back to the task: after a longer pause, so – do it wisely.

Delay, just delay the instant gratification: if you want to give in to the Satan, make it tomorrow – the next two days/ delay (seemingly, infinitely).

If you're unsure – ask them to provide more answers: let them convince you – you're always in the everlasting search for the completion of your goals, #2. You're striving for a situation, where they've got nothing to say[105] unless it leads you, to the last.

You should listen to both, of the voices because – when they're consistent & working together: they lead to the expansion of knowledge, which is crucial. Know it, use to you advantage.

The only real choice you would ever have, is on the level of your thoughts. They – can be reprogrammed, #0.1.

[103] Where you're able to achieve more – with this break, than without it.
[104] It always does, so screw it: take an additional day more to rest and relax which serves you. However stop to forever use stronger drugs like amphetamines, or those who bring the largest unseen harm i.e. marijuana/ hashish, etc. – if your goals don't involve it, #2.2 for details/ i.e. alcohol is only allowed if you must to – intoxicate yourself.
[105] They always match your level of skill to manipulate them (as a trivia: it's the best way, to learn the best manipulation techniques – although you're required to progress, before). Lack of the appropriate brain programming/ #0.1: to perform the work given – might be the sole reason why Satan wins, #2/ all.

LEARN HOW TO USE THOSE VOICES – PURPOSELY.
WORK WITH THE INNER SATAN THROUGH RESTRAINT/ DELAY.

Continue.

1.4. OVERCOMING YOUR NATURE/ PREFACE TO THE PROCESS

Issue is, that people want everything now: money, women, wealth and it's your nature.
A huge problem with it: is that until, you're ready/ prepared to build the success and maintain along with it, the wealth created – it's impossible to have.
This drive usually leads to immoral ventures, which provides an easy supply of money – ill-gotten, but they're perceived as giving all the desired in life.

Immoral actions don't pay, in the end – it's virtually all lost, #1.12 yet without the knowledge: you're not able to build any business which would sustain itself as you don't have the required traits to do so. It takes time, the process is hard and few accept their daily jobs, which pay little to none.

If you would give-in to your in-born nature and won't restrict yourself to earn the required skill, qualities and knowledge – during the process, #2: it's likely not possible you would achieve anything out of ordinary.

OVERCOMING YOUR NATURE/ IN PRACTICE

NOW	You're here.
5-7 YEARS	You hide and restrict your desires/ ego/ nature – you do, what's required from you. (it's called, the process – #2)
LATER (AFTER)	You win in life, because you've attained skill, knowledge and traits required to perform, maintain and build a fortune for yourself = all the desired qualities and things, in life/ ending with it, at the end of this period. It's easy, but the process in itself – [106]isn't: yet, you're able to complete it.

More time in fact: people spent in jails, due to their immoral activities[107] – offenses.
It's the fight and choice – you must to take.
The process would prepare you for the achievement.

Your in-born nature is wrong, because it doesn't allows you – to change your situation if you let it, in your life. It only intensifies the problems. Your character is build of good/ bad sides and you've got a shade – if you let to allow yourself, to the bad side of it: you're likely lost – your life (it's an inner fight in your thoughts between Light vs. Satan, which represents nature and desires).

Yes, you would be mad at others, who have struck the gold – received contracts which could be filled by 1/25th of its original price, but – it means nothing, because you're not involved: besides, money who are unearned/ undeserved are wasted and lost/ i.e. count for nothing. You're born with the will to get, but until it won't changed to will to bestow – you won't get the desired, or even if you: it won't be a pleasure/ it won't fulfill you (i.e. the bread of shame, due to restriction of an undeserved gift).

You're in this game alone – you're required to look for yourself/ avoid to look at anyone, because of choice. In immoral way of attracting wealth – you're loosing life, commonly as in a reactive way. Your efforts, however could be invested purposely in the process, #2: which is hard, but it's the way – which really pays off.

If you still don't get it: until, you won't earn the knowledge in the process, #2 – you won't be able to get the desired (as lack of it, would lead to wasting your fortune – possibly earned/ fear of loss etc.). It's the only way – you're likely to invest your time in/ purposefully.

In practice – you'd be required, to hide your desires and to perform the work for 5-7 years of your time and complete it, to the end. This is why, so little win[108] really in life as they're not able to take the responsibility for it/ seeking for the easy[109] ways out.

Until you won't change your nature – restrict the needs and desires and force yourself into the whirl of work, involved in the process, #2: to deliver, what's expected – you're likely to never attain your dreams.

[GODLIKE = ALL, COMPLETE & BEST] PARASITISM [NATURE, EGO, SELF]

It would all come with the find, that: giving[110] is more pleasureful – than taking. You would learn in the process[111]/ #2: how to make those products/ businesses which would win you all the wanted in life, being fully prepared and achieving it, by your own – on you own means (receiving/ being led to an idea from the Laws operating here – as directly as it sounds).

Know it.

[108] Being itself, the reason – why those, who initially or short-term win – having all: loose basically on the moral level as they've didn't took their fate.
[109] It is the easiest way out: in reality, but takes time to get there/ it's the only true way to achievement.
[110] In fact, the high level of moral energy (Adoration+) is the secret to be chosen i.e. as an actor, manager amongst all the other and the key: to win, in life/ possible, only for those who changed their nature and started the process, #2.
[111] Which is a real Law: operating in this reality for the purpose of Creation, #1.11xF / reflecting God's requirements for you.

There is abundance of ideas, but lack of those who are prepared to execute them.

IN THE END, YOU WOULD BE – THE TRUE WINNER.

Accept it and continue.

1.5. UNDERSTANDING CHOICES AND SHAPING YOUR DESTINY

What you see in this reality: is merely an effect of your core beliefs, because as what you believe – you see, in your reality. What happens in your world – either good or bad, is a mere reflection of the person you are/ was to others. Therefore, if you've not conquered your nature yet – you would get: what you given or caused and give or cause currently upon others. For instance, if people constantly attack you – you've might attacked them, in the past as it's brought always to you, after a few years time delay: to keep the grand illusion[112] alive.

If you fear for example go to work, because of the emergency which would happen and you won't know how to repair it/ that your co-worker would scream at you/ that you would be criticized or badly rated – guess, what would enter your reality – in time. It's not said, that you need to avoid, to fear but more consciously choose the thoughts: you're holding i.e. go always to work with precognition that 'everything would rule itself positively'. Furthermore, more work/ effort can be done to secure your fears: possibly learn more about the machines you're working with – to become an expert and avoid to give reasons others, to have bad opinions about you or yell at you. It enables your development.

TIP

If you want for your life to be easier, happy and full – the way you've always desired to be: you're required to take a proactive stance towards it – to learn, investigate and start to think for yourself in the realization of your highly-motivated goals, which follow your fate/ the process, #2.

All Laws in this reality are so set in motion, that they enable your development – facilitate thinking and require it: for the realization of your goals/ even, if the pain is involved initially.

[112] Unconscious use of those mechanisms was presented in, #1.2 – #2.51 & #3.26.

Your life is also subjected to a certain cycles.

		ROOT	SACRUM	SOLAR	HEART	THROAT	THIRD EYE	CROWN
		FEAR	FEELINGS	PROACTIVITY	HARMONY	PHILOSOPHY	WISDOM	SPIRITUALITY

IMPLEMENT TO FOLLOW - FOREVER

You need to learn in life: to refuse, deny people help, reject those unworthy of you/ those, who don't further you goals or who bring no positive addition to your life. To focus only on those opportunities: which deserve it, are worthy of your time (the process, #2). You're also sometimes required to let go, just ignore certain things which don't serve or bring you closer to your goal: you're not perfect too and probably never would be.

Enforce morality upon others who have affected you or your actions – drop any fear.
Disallow anyone, to treat you badly or without an appropriate and required respect.
Be prepared, for all the possibilities, all-time. Trust no one – to the very end, question always everything: be courageous in asking and feel no fear in it.
Know eternally that – if you avoid to think or do it insufficiently: disasters would strike.
Avoid them at AL cost through your own preparation/ everywhere (to be repeated).

How to break your limitations? Force yourself to do so – by doing them, without a thought[114]/ however, re-think in mind and secure everything before.

If you're not fulfilling the intents of this Creation/ #1.11xE: you're like a cherished cow in Alaska, where farmer has got a family of four to feed. It doesn't matter that you've performed in the past – all, what counts is now. If you don't want to work anymore or continue to strive for your goals: you're loosing value[115] and your fate is already known/ i.e. moral field, #1.1 as an essence. Be always preoccupied with a worthy goals and strive for their achievement, to the end of your life.

Act only pedantically – morally, forever.
Think to the end of your life.
Take the process, #2.
Continue it.

If you're not able to share this document with others, now – you likely won't be able to get for yourself in the years to come/ think and break: the illusion of lack.
Do it right now.

[113] Cycle resets, after reaching the 49th – end year: starts all over again from the very beginning.
[114] #3.29A: Second stage technique might prove helpful, at certain points.
[115] Create such content/ contribution in your life: which would enable you to Live those elderly years – taking from it.

What's the highest understanding of all?

The highest secret of the secrets: is the knowledge that you're worth more alive, than dead.

If nothing is to be lost, by killing you in this reality – you're more likely/ destined to die.
All Laws set in motion, are set in such way: that if you develop yourself and your value increases day by day – like a stock share/ when you're wanting and continually striving for the greater: you're becoming worth more, to the Creator because of the process – you've taken, #2 and the willingness to conquer your fears, habits and desires.

Your goal is therefore: to become the most valuable asset which can't be replaced and you would live a prosperous life, because due to your versatility: you would be required to perform certain – important works, which only you can do, in this realm. You'd be cared of, because you've become such an important chain in it – it's the highest secret.

It might be only known, to those – who are or in the process of becoming: topping knowledge and skill, everyday.

It's delivered to you, the requirements needed to perform the work – you might Live virtually with no job for extended period of years, knowing always what to do. Get a protection on the spiritual level/ which might turn crazy every amphetamine/ hard-drug user in your vicinity due to level of it, by being surrounded through an army[116] of white, human-like entities which sole purpose is to protect you (as seen, when high; it means for instance that they would watch you and sleep on a layer behind your eyes: they would watch your every step, e.g. in an accident – you would get unharmed and everyone would die; would touch you and say what to do when i.e. falling asleep drunk – which goes beyond) or be exempted from the Laws operating here, in the full meaning of this word/ more. It's unknown and unimaginable for those, who are below this level/ any (of understanding and what's been confirmed as possible, the reality).

// Either way: you can start your career at the construction site as a person to dig holes or work // with toxic substances with no protection – as you don't require it and demand it for self – in fear,
// of not being paid: which is an inner desire of the soul and body of relatively few/ #1.11xF.
// Nothing is wrong with it and usually everyone does starts so – especially the college graduates
// and those highly educated, commonly if the last: aren't followed.

The purpose of your life: is to repay the debt you were born here, with – by following your fate/ gaining all the experiences, required and attaining life you've dreamed always of, in the process, #2 (being the only way to do so, in real).
All knowledge – skill and ability, which you would attain in this passage:

would be with you, so it's wise to invest your efforts in the areas[117] of key importance.

Take the process, #2.
It would enable you to do it and change your life for a Living dream. It's the only way.

Take it, then.

There is always a moral solution to any problem.
Everything in this realm happens for a reason – you might not know the last (at a time).

[117] The life purpose might be to get the knowledge and skill which might prove helpful into securing: your stance in the next incarnation of your soul in the age, to come/ next life. It would enable you, to get i.e. a fortune as a result of your work in this life/ by having 'all' the knowledge e.g. about making a business: you can easily build one in the next life because you would be a 'born businessman' or a 'born salesman' due to it or by possessing a valuable skill like e.g. a musical one/ secure your comfort in the life after. You've might experience the lack of it, in your current incarnation – if you're still poor financially/ or not living yet the dreamed life. You're working forever for your own self-interest: for nobody – except self/ know it. Learn all the important areas: which might be helpful in the life to come.
You would built all of those in your current life/ #2.

This realm is very friendly, but only for those who follow the intents of the Creation.

THE PROCESS OF CHANGE

Firstly, you must understand that if you won't believe: that it's possible/ that it's possible for you or any other: it won't work, because this realm is based on belief. The last, is required to get the task to be handled/ tested: if you don't have the belief, that you can possibly perform it to the end – you won't get anything. If you still don't get it: if you were in need of particular work and you'd be approached by three people where the 1st would be known, not to make it because of his drug addiction[118] – 2nd would possibly make it, but won't believe to the end in it and 3rd would believe, he can make it to the end: who, you would choose? The same, is with the Laws.

A MUST[119]

You've got to believe first, it's possible for you to accomplish those goals – be open on such possibility, trust in the process and make sure it's brought[120] to the very end – you would know it, on the level of your thoughts. A little tiny bit of faith is enough.

They're suited to the level of your skill and you're always able to complete them, so have the courage to take the process. It's very easy on the beginning.

[120] Kept in mind – finished up to its completion/ for any task, given (they always match your level of skill and understanding so it's forever possible)// you have to be the 'sure' person for its delivery.

2. TAKING THE FIRST REAL STEP

If anyone would only know what is awaiting him – to pass, the process: you would probably never engage in it. It's suffering, pain, harassment, lack of money, pain, suffering, more pain, humiliation, unfulfilled hopes, pain, more pain, even more pain and it continues, but in the end – you're a new person, who is prepared fully. The truth is however, that – it's the only way to success, and it's not easy or what you might expect. Your character is shaped through adversity and obstacles & in order to learn specific traits – the opposite is required and you've got to deal with the worse, to have the best.

However, in life – it wouldn't await your more adventure, pleasure and the last won't be more plentiful and rich and foremost of all: there is no other way you could gain those required qualities, which would brought to you: women, all the cash needed, happiness and Nirvana, #1.1. Therefore, engage* or deal it the hard way.

You'd be forced to look upon those, who have better – much better in your surrounding and you'd be brought to a level of nobody, destroyed and smashed nearly loosing your life/ on the brink of, for the particularly whole lifespan of it (5-7 year time, mark).

That's the process. Be warned.

Let's say that you're a junkie. You've eaten your last dose of amphetamine at 8 p.m. and its 6 a.m. now. You know, that if you won't snort another line in a few hours: symptoms of crash would start to occur/ monstrous depression – feeling of the disastrous sickness. You're already feeling weak and you're in the need of last dose. Nobody would give you any stuff on debt, because you owe them a lot of money. However, you've met a friend: who is a salvation to your problem – initially reluctant, to give you any cash because of its shortage, he agrees you to lend you 10 under only one condition: you walk with him everywhere and stay to the end. You enthusiastically agree immediately – it's not a big deal, if you are only to get the next dose, so needed one. You walk with him to a dealer, but he's sleeping/ off. There is only one dealer left, but you've got debt with him and you can't go. Your friend, has got access there and you're asking him to get those drugs for you, but he refuses as he is not going over anyone to get any of them, if he's not taking – and his not. If he were to use amphetamine: you wouldn't need to worry at all – you know that. He has done the deal, saved you – you're waiting two to three hours and he stays with you – suggesting methods on how to get the dose, but you refuse to listen. There is no chance, you're getting it anywhere that from that one source. He talked his ways: you've denied to acknowledge and pursue them, but now he has to go somewhere and despite – you've agreed initially and received the money – you can't go without the dose. He stays clearly, that at 9:30 a.m. he is in a need to go somewhere and he asks for your participation, to be with him as he has got something to get out of there. He needs to go, has very reason for it but – you refuse.

You've let him go, already once – he had given you money and you've didn't show up on time previously/ recently. He told you that. He also told you that if you would fail again: you won't get any further help from him. However, you deny to go with him there (additionally he told you, that he would get it for you, if you only go – however: you've denied again going with him). He could go by taxi, but it's all about you going there – he's not interested in any other means you propose and not interested in any explanations of you. You wait, for your dealer – screwing him up.

This story shows, the metaphorical essence of Laws.

If you would take the task and fail to deliver – you're screwed. It's better to die, than to not to.
It's all about you, only.

The tasks, which you would be handled in the process – are important from the point of Creator's perspective as they serve the need for His knowledge increase: the result of them – doesn't matter, but you need to do maximally best job to complete them to the end – performing always at the highest level of your skill. They've got little or nothing to do with you, yet they prepare[121] you for the achievement of larger ones.

It won't happen at the beginning, because high skill is required – yet, it would be possible for you to built in time of those 4-7 years – qualities, which are necessary: by checking at the tasks, which sole role would be prepare you for that. If you simply fail at them – know, that you're always able to make them to the end at your current level of ability: you won't get the desired prizes and your value would be very low – possibly to be destroyed at the end of your life as a soul, be degraded or get another chance – to introduce your new strengths in another life.

If you don't go after your fate/ the process: you're in a serious trouble. Firstly, because you're not able to repay your debt – you were born with here/ #1.11xE & #1.11xF: which would lock you eternally in this reality, with the tendency to decay, secondly – your life is miserable, even if you've got all the wealth in the world.

SELECTING THE PRIZE

This is actually an unknown area of the striving, as prizes are selected for the people without their knowledge – for the ample, of them. It's best however to select your own prize, if you're a conscious taker of the process: as it would serve as a required-motivation to complete each stage of the testing period.

If for instance: your dream is to be eternally high/ Nirvana, #1.1 - #2.2, at end and be a billionaire – the prize would be waiting for you at the end of testing process, which would be consisted from a series of stages lasting many months to years – yet, each of them would prepare you to firstly) achieve the goal, secondly) to handle the prize – realizing the goal of Creation, due to your work as in the tasks – you would perform at your best, which would serve the knowledge increase.

However, it's a way to get there because it won't be believable to you at first. You have to start from smaller prizes i.e. 10,000 or less and it's the only approach. You have to firstly) believe it's possible to get the prize for realization of the task or series of tasks, secondly) you have to complete it, doing the best and as an obvious: you have to believe in the whole mechanism, as it exists – written in such form, in this document (as Law can't give you anything, if you don't believe in: because to mostly pursue the knowledge[122] for the Creator, he had to adapt a mechanism which only enables people believing in something to rip the benefits of it/ an example: if you believe in something – you have to get evidence on it, even if it's manufactured because it extends the knowledge and your striving – accomplishes searches, which can create something new – yet, the truth is able to be verified from every angle as it was, in this instance; examples: if you believe – you're desired by the most beautiful women in the school – they would become attracted to you; if you believe – you're poor: wealth, can't find you - #0.1, #2.51 - #3.26). It's required for the purpose, so just accept it.

Wake up tomorrow, with a belief: that something amazing would happen to you today.

The catch, is however – that you won't believe in everything, as you won't be let to. You have to build a belief, earn the understanding: in order for you to be believed. It's achieved[123] through knowledge, understanding and accomplishment.

Continue.

[123] As it forever has to be based on something, i.e. earned, by you through your own efforts/ more clearly.
It applies: to everything in this realm/ also about the knowledge of those Laws.

It's up to you, what you want in life. Everybody wants something: everyone has a desire which motivates him, #1.11xF/ it's embedded. Yet, you must still precise the scale of it – although, you can want something other than it, too.

- Be very wary, because if the need is temporary – you'd might lack the motivations to complete the work/ never attaining it – wasting time and failing, loosing your to-be priceless time.
- It's typically best not to ask for items, but for the money which would enable you to buy them. If you ask for a specified model of car: you'd might find yourself getting it, but lack the money for i.e. maintenance costs etc.
- If you want peace – you'd might end up on a deserted island/ get the point.
- You can't ask for i.e. health, but you can ask for a knowledge/ sexy practitioner who would allow you to bring it back/ get the point.
- You can select only 1 main, prize (if you want a car, home etc. – select a goal of X amount of money, which would enable you so).

Any prize which is possible for you at a time – to be imagined and believed: is possible for you to be received. You must precise very specifically what you want as if it was: to be made overseas in a factory – without your participation or the process won't become activated (example: 'I want be happy': what does it means to you – it must be precise/ i.e. eternal Nirvana at min. level of μ > 0.7, #1.1). The prize needs to be clearly defined.

It's the hard part to know what you want – it can't be stated clearly, only an advice can be given and possible traps presented. Whether you would choose to listen or not – it's up to you, because in the end it is: what motivates you. An example desires for which people are willing to sacrifice their lives, in progression: 10,000 or 100,000 (only, if believable)/ Nirvana (see above specification)/ 1,000,000×/ best suited love partner to have kids with (to be attained, when the wealth, health and money are there)/ & Billion[124] (precise currency)/ it continues (but only when the lower goals: were achieved).

You can't ask for the immoral – it won't be ever delivered and you would deeply know it anyway.

If your skill is below the prize level: it won't be for your believable (therefore, if you progress: through the completion of those smaller goals – you would be able to want and get more/ get to the real desires and wants). Begin small, build your way up – it's the advice.

Start with something believable – a want, which you would get: when you would deliver.
Know also: that it's the best way for your achievement – in this reality.

[124] The final strive/ in your first stage: is very probable to be achieved in the usual time, of those 5-7 years accordingly to your belief/ faith, in yourself: which is based on your current abilities, although it's known to you like in the mentioned example that it would take simply more time/ as the ~~task~~ you lack skill to attain it at the current level of your knowledge and preparedness, but it's possible for you – completely.
Forever focus only on the current prize and your job to perform – ignore the rest, i.e. except survival/ it would come.

DO

Find something relatively believable for you, which motivates you and you'd be willing to perform work, to get it. Have a realistic expectations[125] towards yourself: in terms of believable prizes, at first.
All your goals have to be set a little bit above the level of where you want to actually get.
/ In [126]everywhere.

You must select the prize.
You would know.

Avoid this read the below text as a whole (it's a waste of your time).
Progress immediately to the INCREASED LETTERS instructions:
implement* them urgently.
/ Execute those – immediately upon reading// all rest, are the remaining – important for you lessons.
Pause after each breaking point (-)/ rethink all: implement (adapt, to your needs).

Then, read the rest (when, it's only completed/ as, or when – you've might need it).

[125] Such example rewards to strive for have been mentioned later in the text/ believable for anyone (suggested, to take).
[126] It's the job – you have to perform today...

When you take the process: your under the rule of Laws – you get[127] the idea, you realize it. You have to persevere all, take all the help given by Laws and execute the work flawlessly up to the very end, at your personal best/ obligatorily: urgently. It's all/ plus: you have to secure additionally your survival (easy, despite not initially: temptations, lack of belief, environment – your lack of knowledge i.e. wisdom, skill, programming, #0.1, etc.[128]& time).

What you want in life: is determined mostly by your childhood[129] – the experiences are latter. It carries programming received by the mentors (those older, parents, i.e. carers of the child)/ #0.1.

I've received unconditional love by the mother, at my first time. I was always told, I was stupid and they were right/ punished for everything, even for the slightest – unconscious mistake i.e. beaten or thrown on the head with loosing of the consciousness/ it's all I remember[130] mostly. I was kicked out of kindergarten, I've never passed "0 class" (pre-school)[131]. I didn't know: what was a word on the letter "O" / I didn't know what the "word" word means (didn't understood language)! However, I've always could repeated everything and learned fast. I was sick, to the limits – almost couple years in a row, in that time – fighting all the time for survival.

Ridiculed, punished, beaten by peers – laughed, basically: all the time at every occasion for years. I've had always none. I was always the last to have anything. I'd knew everything about computers, but never had one (as those magazines for "0.4": which were bought – I've read them all the time/ few times, in a row)/ it's basically the only thing I've had[132] back then.

I've always wanted to be a businessman, not because I've wanted it to be but because it was required for me to be someone important (and those were the people, who were). It couldn't however be just like that – I always strive for more because what is in your life a fun: to be an average/ or better than everyone around? It has to be big time, so I've always wanted to be a Billionaire[133] – it would be a score (later, when the size of want/ desire – was defined)/ nobody would even damn to think, I've had luck and so I believed. In that time – I've experienced my first miracle: I've called my mommy working as a teacher in school from the plastic toy by selecting on it a number and with a child's belief: wanted to talk with her – which happened[134]/ you've probably had ones too: it confirms this reality is an illusion to blind you from the truth.

However, I've learned. I've learned all the time, willingly. Not because I've wanted, but because it was for me required. I was still stupid, ridiculed and laughed/ punishment continued but there was a hope for a better future, to be accepted. I've learned, continually – I've invested the time, to do the work and it had to be done first, before I could ever take anything else. I've passed with a distinction all the classes, except the last one/ in the elementary school. I've scored 40/40 probably as an only person in a whole state at the time, at the end of it.

It was only possible because of the characteristics I've developed – not the intelligence (which is low in any of those tests, i.e. the score of disabled/ in honesty: 100% score higher) but because of the traits of character – it required, to develop: to overcome each obstacle.
It wasn't given, it wasn't received, nobody helped me – I've done it all by myself. Teachers were only to do their job of checking those 'to-repeat' results.
It's ALL learned. You've learned probably also, you can't or don't believe in yourself because others didn't make it and you've accepted their reality for yourself. It has got unbearable consequences at the late years, of your life/ it's confirmed (through experiences,

In 5-7 years you can turn your life around for the very best[304] of you – it's a promise which is kept/ if you only follow the tracks set, by them.

It had to be written this way, purposely.

TRUE DESIRES AND WANTS – NOT THE ONES SET OUT OF FEAR/ OR LACK: ARE ONLY POSSIBLE TO BE REALIZED THE WAY DETERMINED

[127] The last (those): form, in your mind. You always know what you have to do/ must find ways: to overcome & do it.
[128] With particularly "fuck it/ all" type of approach/ which is prevalent, commonly after: the magic number (at least, in the very beginning or after each "failure"). You have to build/ develop those abilities – in you, first/ being basically possible, thanks to the Law.
[129] Including the trauma-based experiences in the womb/ premature birth etc.
[130] Even without any mistake/ i.e. with a cable across the face. There is clear line between a spat and trauma/ which continued up until I've escaped or just couldn't take more. I've cried nearly all my childhood: due to it.
It's more to it, but some experiences don't want to become permanently erased/ read: mentioned in this publication.
[131] I was designed for the special school, but mother 'paid' and I was accepted to the elementary school.
[132] Adding to it, LEGO – toy building blocks that I've received from an aunt (a castle).
[133] It was believable: after reaching the first financial goal/ then I always believed it – it's possible for me (just as).
[134] It only happened, i.e. worked once/ nobody ever believed (long before, the cell phones were invented – it happened, for real). Later I was told, it's impossible i.e. can't be done and I'm stupid (as a child).
[135] Ability to read unconscious signals, on-the-fly/ developed, backed by the extensive knowledge.
[136] And that I'm exploiting the state for X-year, getting the free for poor ~540 allowance (each three or more months). Not working a day, in a job (I've done a side-task because somebody asked – to translate and I've done it willingly to just help but I've been paid 50 for an hour – over of my work, to be precise).
[137] In fact, money received are immediately spent to nearly a 0: to not be tempted by any and use 100% time and efforts for the goal/ when it's required (it's, how it is – to ensure clearness of mind and adapt everything, completely to it).
Ceased to eat Pomelo's now as I've found a GM-variety. I've didn't liked the fruit somehow, but it wasn't enough to confirm my suspicions/ it smelled nicely but falsely and a sensation of the tongue – followed i.e. a warning signal (of the body, minute later). If there is a one commercially-available poisoned fruit it the World: it would be on my plate/ delivered by the Laws. I just live too long, to don't see it coming. I test every fruit, forever the same way – it's a learned habit/ #3.29A (i.e. "listen to them"/ touching, sensing – the same way/ organic or not). I've could died, the next time in a row/ never to allow myself be killed by the same Laws who protect me: you would develop the same patterns – if you would only see & experience what I'm bypassing. 100% organic, no second-measures (finally). Later perhaps you would see: on the news that few died, like with the case of cucumbers in Germany (or poisoned by bacteria or something – it just wasn't right and it's hard to explain it, as it didn't matched the pattern). If you don't believe – it's real: even the producers of the food wondered why few of the packages were only poisoned in their whole batch (like a tone or more)/ when I've send them always back for a refund. Body reactions don't lie either. You've probably eaten already something GM-poisoned i.e. canola oil: to experience it – by yourself (if you focus on them, to be able spot it). It all happens for real, as it's a testing ground to prepare you/ Laws: rule the experience.
Your reality is only for you: experiences would be brought to your reality with a role – to prepare you.
You're not always right like me in the story above, because I was poisoned by eating a 1/4th single-bulb nuke-organic garlic for a third day/ just insanely strong batch; from an organic, permaculture cultivation/ but I've wrote it purposely: to show you – you shouldn't ever believe anyone and test precisely what they've said – to learn the knowledge and understanding to progress in the result. However, I've ceased today to eat non-GMO and you should follow too, as the tests have ended (everything written before: was truth, except the Pomelo wasn't GM-

BY THE LAWS/ #2 (AS BY CROSSING YOU THROUGH THEM: YOU STOP TO BE AFRAID PERMANENTLY OF THOSE CONDITIONS).

You've got also your own story: what would be the end of it – is determined by you. Whether you would take and follow the paths of your fate (by taking The Process) and achieve everything desired – by yourself is up to you. Either you can avoid, but you won't live too long: if you only decide to (as firstly: nobody would persevere long enough to don't get sick out of the job, wasted life and all the attached). It's the truth. You would die[306] avoiding.

It's always and only – up to you. It's better to start now/ #2.

variety). I was wrong: you would be many times too, but you have to learn to see those mistakes – and, to never stop admitting it to yourself (avoid to sink deeper in them). Take the lessons and go further (sometimes there are external factors and focusing on one – blocks your route or might get you in a serious trouble/ never stop to think, compare and share). You have to stop to believe me (anybody) and test it all by yourself/ for your own knowledge, forever/ progress is only possible due to it.
I was vomiting 3 days after (now). I've 'spit' with the blood/ as a result of its consumption i.e. garlic. I ate a 100% organic product after which I've had a sensation of tiny pain – it had to be returned back: it was probably a result of the extracted sunflower lecithin (chocolate soap). Avoid to ever eat any products with extracted ingredients, watch on organic foods – as they've might kill you (if only overdosed).
I've ceased to eat last traditional food (pesticide-infested) fruit because it tastes like shit (applied a new belief system) and because: I've decided to/ others would follow me, to eradicate this shit-food from our planet (if nobody would buy it – nobody would produce). Either way: those who would choose them: their quality of life has already dropped significantly and they would die, in result. It's the only way to change reality/ history.
It can be simply achieved by telling other people a story: that they would die – if they would continue to eat those/ choosing organic for yourself – pointing, "it's better to eat 1 organic than 3 GMO's or 2 'TRADITIONALS' (pesticide-infested)"/ why? READ THIS book is a much better option (somebody would be thankful, after time – either way/ Karma, #1.2). If enough would follow – breaking their fears: it would instill a paranoia and the war is lost: producers would have to adapt/ or be bankrupt, but you have to take this choice NOW – to stop buy anything except organic – yes, YOU. Adding: it's your choice only – I would Live/ leaving it for you to eat.
Either way: you would die, if you wouldn't select 100% organic foods. I just don't care/ I select organic-only, period.
Everyone chooses for himself, but if you would tell to each and every client – the same story: "Mr. You would ddiiiieeee if you select those/ eat organic" – placing intonation-emotion on the key word/ it would surely cause a change. Imagine if it would continued, all-time. They would probably: start fist to think about it. Either way: they would die, if they choose anything except organic/ #3.21. You shouldn't care.
I've ceased to eat shit (now: to forever)/ I'm not so sure of it – of you.
[138] Mind remembers/ as it's deeply embedded.
[139] Any experience delivered i.e. by The Process/ #2: couldn't outweigh the trauma experienced in childhood.
Nothing can be worse/ in the sense: every experience delivered – is better than the ones, experienced back then.
[140] Every pain – even the worst, is somehow compensated in this reality (lesson: accept the pain, willingly).
[141] Provided by the Laws/ you've had to be dead, to not see it – 'take it'.
[142] Truly: nobody hadn't spoke much during it.
[143] Desired: to commit actually those mistakes/ or learn in any other means before.
[144] If you do – take it too seriously: you've might be the one who would hang himself if his savings would be lost/ or devalued i.e. in a currency – stock market crash, i.e. plunge/ dollar $ $$. It can't be forbidden for you to base it on the ~~reality~~ visible, but it's better for you to take what really has a value and those are not the money themselves/ they're an important tool for your survival, to achieve your goals, but nothing more (they're not worth the paper, they're printed on – in reality). It's all contractual. The same is with gold or with any other commodity. Like-approach would allow you to sleep well in nights, as you're with no fear of loss, because you've got the abilities and are prepared for everything: to rebuild your fortune, quickly (being, a true reality).
[145] Nobody has to admit to anything/ no one, has to know – everyone starts as such, but few remain. In principle: it doesn't matters how you start, but how you end. Refuse to stay with

There is a Law which can give[307] you everything – if you only willingly follow & would kill you: if you won't[308] (before: your life would decay, you'd get into a depression i.e. drugs etc./ all the worst).

It's described in this book.

It's all to be told.

It's the truth.

those decaying beliefs of "I can't"/ "It's impossible" (for me). They're for the other/ next guy.

[146] Your intelligence, character and results are basically determined by the beliefs, only/ i.e. as effect of the programming. You can change all, in an instant/ up to a year time (those, used in #0.1: are accepted by everyone, the 0-level ones). Use this brain programming, firstly – independent of your current/ even, if the last – is (very, extremely) successful. Even to be more precise: environment has got nothing to do with it, as you have to change yourself first/ i.e. what's in your mind: in order to experience the change outside (in your reality, surrounding). You would be moved, by the Laws themselves (when the change, first would be accepted precisely by your subconscious which might take time). All the rest, is to be acquired the easiest way – hard initially/ through following your fate (#2).

[149] As most of the people do: who earn for a period – invest typically all their money in a venture/ drain their resources/ put their home on a mortgage and fail, at the end of it/ being condemned for a work to the rest of their lives.

[150] Used about 30 mega-drops of MMS to cause it – drank perhaps over 200ml of stuff/ finger to the tongue didn't worked – it demonstrates the necessity for knowledge: spot the mineral later, after ingesting the amount (#3.9L).

[151] Multivitamin pills, i.e. 100% daily requirement for nearly each of the element (on paper – i.e. the label).

[152] 7h+ hours soaked (min.), 45+ minutes cooked (slightly more).

[153] Himalayan as yesterday/ select always best – the tiniest, particle size.

[154] As in the period of testing teeth health: I've stopped to wash them as I didn't liked to clean my teeth – a tedious, boring, wasting my energy work – they weren't in a good shape, they've hurt when I've used those solutions/ poisoned with fluoride – probably many more nasty ingredients, doesn't matter (I've loosed gums, either way).

[155] Selecting it, based on a cost/ content ratio (availability). However, I like chocolate & alcohol/ raw milk, lentils etc.

[156] To perform every single mistake: suffer, take all the weight of path? If NO: avoid to ever try. If yes: you're encouraged to, but avoid to ever regret – you've could have used your time more efficiently/ you've been informed.

[157] To cover the illusion and don't take the free will: that your environment is highly controlled the moment – you've took the process, #2 (it's a secret, keep it this way)/ to ensure your progress.

[158] You can't drink/ accept or do anything for the stolen resources (stay away from those people or at least avoid to allow them buy you or get anything as a result of their ill-gotten money). Laws would literally open your hand: to crash those bottles of bought by the stolen money or possessions – i.e. the ill-gotten vodka (#1.12). It always looks like an accident, but two accidents or more at the same time? In this reality: nothing, is accidental/ everything has got a cause and purpose (often: a very-well concealed one). Learn through the observation: question things – there is a hidden message to everything (develop in a sense: a state of paranoia/ lesson is: you have to start see clues which are surrounding you everywhere and you're constantly fed by them – learn, to play the process/ #2: right – you're rewarded abundantly by the moral energy after solving each one of them, #1.1 // in other words: you get a "hit, dope or dose" or as you-name of happiness i.e. experience a short-term "high" – when you do or find what is expected by this Universe and be punished, usually: later – when you fail the test, to be spotted by you in the future; it was only possible to crack everything for me, because of this feedback received and to establish what are those best choices, for you – those are the ones, which you have to take: to work for your own true personal self-interest/ as a confirmed reality, described in this book). You might probably think that you've never experienced it, however you've probably did: at least once, but missed it (as those choices aren't easy to take, at least only initially).

Take it death, seriously[309].

[159] You've might not see it now or think – it's impossible (as you believe, it is). However, it could be changed and you have to only start/ it's all – it's easy (acknowledge such thought in your mind – hold to it: the last, would develop). You can waste your life infinitely: to never have kids, children – be imprisoned for your life but – leaving all behind immediately now – you can use the same time you would spend in jail/ wasting your life – purposefully in The Process, #2. All, to experience a dreamworld for real, in your own Life – despite it's only your choice and only you can make it/ as directly as it sounds – it is. Quit it, just now// yes: now/ so easy and follow, #1.12.
You have to firstly believe: it's your task, to get there.
[160] I weighted at the time about 55kg's/ 121lbs with 178cm/ 5.84ft height, no more – had 27cm/ 10.63inch or less in a bicep (as a side effect over striving to my goal). They've could raised me to the top/ #4.2: first picture. I've always had a stack of money with me, I never hid it. I didn't know any at the time, what it's known to me now.
[161] What's the message? What's trying to be told through this event, circumstance? Where I do a mistake? What has been skipped, which shouldn't? WHY, am I affected? etc.
[162] They were real, blood and bone people but they've might be solely controlled by the Laws to send a message.
[163] Perhaps, it wasn't the issue: it was what came later (when I've took the knife)/ or to test: who would crack first.
[164] As an example: all those parasite attacks (mentioned in the, #4.49: in ending).
[165] Thankfully: it wasn't seen on the outside – you're a sample of health, but die/& suffer inside.
[166] If you only belong to those category of people/ let the criticism go and focus on yourself, solely.
[167] Not: can, but should: which plays a major difference/ however those risks have to be accepted: particularly with any, of the drugs/ #2.2.
[168] Which they've learned was successful as they scared somebody once: learned the power seeding fear gives/ liked it. They don't know what a moral field, #1.1 is: maybe heard one time about Karma/ #1.2, but they simply don't want to learn, change, adapt/ they don't care as much as the others. They're no different than anyone.
[169] However I like to call them: The Watchers/ as they watch you (watch whether anybody would learn anything of importance/ if yes: block it, or it extends beyond their level of understanding – not grown morally to accept anything beyond their belief). It's presumed that those left: don't have any moderators or their administration represents the moral, good/ tolerant side (although even the most tolerant: crack and ban eventually).
[170] She deserved it/ as also those who oppose: can bring you valuable ideas or spot what you miss (next lesson).
[171] He had, all the evidence/ i.e. was 100% sure: absolutely confirmed.
[172] A 'beton/ concrete' personality type (as I call it – as it best describes the traits: which shows you the way, to take it).
[173] It allowed me to pass with the least amount of effort (work). It was at the beginning: more than enough to have a card with the equations to match any of them and get, 4-3 (C-D grades)/ sometimes even higher (it can be said: that I've learned those 40min on a test, all the section – to solve the exercises/ or 'borrowing' the work from a friend – sitting next to me/ everything: to pass). All effort (if any) was used on purposeful activities/ which lead, somewhere.
[174] No importance information/ very likely to be dropped by the mind, #2.58.
[175] As for anyone else/ you: it might be non-existent or deficient (intellectually) and it's accepted. In essence/ everybody in the end: works only for himself, in this reality.
[176] Rarely: hardly ever anybody crosses as they've never stand a chance or are even able to – near the vicinity of it.
[177] You've might not suffer now, but you will (as a result of your knowledge lack, i.e. in acting – philosophy, by not following the process, #2 or by eating, what shouldn't be consumed

PRINT THIS BOOK NOW AND PROTECT[310] IT WITH EACH VERSION OF IT AS YOU'VE MIGHT NOW – SEE WHY THERE WOULD BE EFFORTS[311] TO TAKE IT AWAY FROM THE PEOPLE OF THIS WORLD.

SHARE IT/ AS IT'S THE KEY TO ITS SURVIVAL.

FOR YOUR OWN FUTURE ACCESS TO IT.

It all happens for real. It's all, the True Reality.

Your actions: matter.

which damages your health/ by taking such and not other choices – as required by the Laws operating here). You shouldn't care, about anyone – about nobody's criticism and belief in what's right and confirmed/ to test it by yourself. If you think differently and your criticism isn't to the form of this book – ask yourself to disproof what has been here published – you would likely crack, find an excuse or back off (wanting to save your face). It might give you an anchor to hold on – to think.

[178] Ask them: whether they think – their opinion matters to anyone? Ignore just those people and smile to them.

[179] You would say: you won't answer it, but still – I would knew (even if everybody believes your story and treats you as a man who did it: I would question everything and would assess the worst causality for you/ if it's only important for me to know – for some purpose of importance, to me). "It is, until it's disproven."

[180] It was done purposely in the presence of other people, where one – was to him important. The last question to ask: if you were to fuck her – would you act with anger if even you wouldn't want to say the time? A secret: it's all about asking the right questions: of directing attention – in particular/ to just give you: leads to follow.
You have to only know that all the elements must be in place, to be able get to this point: what you actually ask is irrelevant if the side-ways aren't prepared (i.e. a test-question of the same content was asked a person who was established to fucked in 100% a girl of the same zodiac, to establish like-patterns/ which helped to extract the target data, only because of it: as it took the effort to get there, in a dialogue). Conclusions can't never be drawn being based on a single data (like in the example above) but on the other hand: it's unlikely they would be described in this book (a whole set of subconscious signals – revealed, in this ~5 minutes staged event). It was only possible to be established, because of the multitude of consistent signals (7) in the described above instance, but even then – it took time, to take it as an confirmed fact (the waiting period, to assess whether it's all-positive). It's a procedure developed which requires extensive knowledge, skill and art of manipulation to be for you even possible – to get there. This answer had confirmed what I've previously suspected and filled all the missing puzzles in place/ it reveals you, that if a woman would brainwash you first – she won't give yourself to fuck as you're failing her tests for a strong man (inner strength, i.e. directly speaking – women/ predominantly the beautiful ones: don't give themselves to fags/ losers/ twats unless they want something which the last can provide/ those ugly have to accept those who want them – 'to take, what is').
In the other hand: a hungry woman: has bread on her mind (which confirms, what has been known before: those who commonly speak or think about something – have it in lack, i.e. sex – money or anything else)/ as an information: to look differently. You're affected.
Emotional responses harm you: if they wouldn't follow as in the example above – I would probably never reach an absolute sureness, to the cause i.e. they reveal you and your secrets/ plus "earn you" a bad Karma, #1.2; loss – of your moral energy, #1.1: directly resulting in loss of free will, your attractiveness – attraction, happiness – your paths would be blocked due to Karmatic debt, and it continues...

[181] In your case: place for what you strive/ i.e. any believable for you, goal (as those are just algorithms which work such way/ a thing of preparation).

[182] No knowledge, no nothing – about the process being already active (acknowledge; very important for starters).

[183] I've never stopped. NEVER (i.e. that I would one time, do it – when the opportunity comes/ it came).

[184] Everyone turned against me or stopped to have any contact. One of them is going to prison in a matter of days (i.e. on a paid vacation – to rest; I would send him an organic food package). It tells you a story/ the Real World. Information has been only left for the purpose of this book/ to show you the discrepancy between what you think most people are and who is your real friend: nobody is to be ever judged for what they are or what they do.
Second leaves the country in days... Adapt & overcome/ everything.

A MUST 312

When you've selected the prize: stay with it until its 'fruition'/ receival.
Keep the belief, forever.

Take your time/ to think it deeply.

You'd fight to the very end, so make sure of it/ you truly want – desire, it.

Knowledge, skill and abilities are forever the most important as nobody would take you them out of you: they stay. Even if forgotten: they're just like [185] Maybe units, have acknowledged it – as directly as it was told: itself, being the truth ("your telling yourself it", "your not sick!", "your sick on your mind" etc.). I've never spoken, with them about it/ unless they've took it.

[186] As a constant Law, operating here/ to realize the purpose of knowledge increase, #1.11xE.
[187] It's always what you don't know: which matters/ example of such solution, #4.49: footnotes (one of many).
[188] It's happening usually – when you go sleep and re-live the day: you've lived (as it directly sounds).
As it's viewed by the Laws: that they've fucked up (secret)/ not preparing you sufficiently at a time – i.e. the "shitty teacher syndrome" (as it's THEIR responsibility to prepare you and if you don't learn or do the mistakes you're not supposed to/ willingly participating – it's their fault/ from now on, when the process is taken – #2).
[189] If you've experienced it already: you've might be given the next chance – to repair your mistake/ to take the process, #2 (as i.e. featured in this book). It's a common knowledge that every person receives at least 2 or 3 such chances, in life i.e. life/ lives. The secret here: is that Laws then stop – cease their activities, if you don't get on the proactive moral set with the inner desires of soul track, #1.11xF possible only through the Law, #2/ or you're not performing job for others important – who took the process and because of it: you receive something which is likely to kill you, in time – when you don't start your purposeful activities, leading to its conquer/ visit cemetery and see for yourself: all those people died, because they've avoided to take responsibility (or took it, insufficiently).
It can be said, that Laws kill a person: if he doesn't wants to play their game (secretive wisdom).
[190] As how many times you can die in a row/ i.e. the deja-vu effect each and basically every second day (even, if didn't aged). It can be said: I basically couldn't die, in the process/ #2 (in its most direct form/ if only backed by appropriate).
[191] Is lost permanently: when you advance in moral field, #1.1.
[192] I've overdosed perhaps most of the substances used, to establish safe limits/ used substances or methods which shouldn't be used to assess or find something new/ it continues/ #3...
[193] It's a cheat for the immorality in this reality/ in a sense.
[194] It's possible, that sometimes is better to die – due to them/ however: it's accepted. I know: you won't. You've might be risking death, unless you take an appropriate preparations (as a warning). You have to earn this understanding – it won't be believable: possible for you (it's only left as an example, of what is here). It all has been earned only through those all mistakes – perpetuated, in abundance (knowledge, confidence)/ without working for it: you've might experience such feeling only perhaps on vodka but it won't be real (everything has to be earned, in this reality).
[195] I rarely do those things currently, because I've done them all already (at least, in this stage of development). I've exhausted all what I've wanted to test (with no new leads, right now). It's believed: it would change in time.
[196] Everything is set in this reality: to take it/ #2.
[197] Look for those tiny, little characteristic brown dots (spots) on your whole body: those are the places of punctures/ follow up: others having them too in the same, i.e. similar places (the ones with a transmitter device)?
[198] There's more to it. Share this book now: for the purpose of not being alone, in it/ like me, did (thanks).
They work on a layer: frequency behind our eyesight (dimension; entering ours, for the period of their work: being invisible – i.e. "a ghost" to the naked eye, during the last). None of it, would be willingly accepted by you/ cyclically: rape, use your body for experiments – manifesting as unexplained bruises/ unexplained punctures, take your sperm/ ovule – you're exhausted without a reason, introduce diseases i.e. under skin mites/ many other, take your happiness/ free will – i.e. the moral energy, #1.1 and the list goes on... Effects, are only a dust on the wardrobe – come back, very fast when only started to be used. You would loose your muscles, home, close ones, friends, property, resources, women, etc.

You would acquire all of the above in the process/ if only wanted.
Those experiences, lessons would stay with you and – it's only meaningful.

The process, #2: in an investment in YOU. It only, truly matters.

visible to you/ it involves more.

[199] Yes: you see it correctly: when you take and follow actively The Process/ #2 – you're protected from death (as sick as it might sound). It includes also protection on many more levels/ that's the point (when you pass those experiences: it guarantees you many more benefits – it's just an algorithm present for the purpose of Creation). If you would ever be killed in this reality i.e. by anyone, Alien, etc. (as many have researchers have been up to this point): you would be reversed in time/ to re-live the day and pass those experiences i.e. wake up, not knowing what happened today – the next deja-vu effect/ confirmed (if you would willing-fully follow with the intent and actions to overcome those obstacles thrown at you, no matter what). It's sick, but it's the truth: it's the whole point, of this Law/ #2.

[200] You don't have to have an implant in the leg/ less than half of the population has: those are for the special purpose. It can be placed (probability: likely) in your head – usually behind the optic nerve (certain people have experienced nose bleeds because of the procedure/ rare; some versions cause also headache if under an immensely powerful magnet). It's known that some have two implants or even more/ placed probably by the other competing races – as it sounds. It's nano-size in scale (seen only under a special microscope) and its functions unknown – it's presumed: it enables to take control over the whole human body. It's all well-known in the black budget community and everyone died, who wanted it – to be removed.

[201] The minute, you've done it – and stay with the belief: you're protected (they're unseen – would leave you without help for the first few initial years/ you would learn later why; but the mechanism is activated and you're entering now – the waiting period, to test your belief).

[202] Which is an insult to even turn on/ i.e. facepalm. OK: I've too – didn't know, but why it should matter to anybody? Isn't there a better usage of your time/ a more-worthy mental puzzle to solve, the one: that really does matter? Why to spend your energies and mind-power on such a waste/ who would benefit from it. Your life to has be really ~~miserable~~ reactive, #1.11xF: if you give energies to those programs/ and most do! Willingly! Later those people would complain about how the economy is bad, that the government can't give them a job: it's obvious they won't get rather any of the desired as it requires skill, knowledge and experience. If you won't invest your own efforts – nobody would (the best workers are always craved by their employers, but those are the people who invested their will, did the job and become the best – stayed this way). Those who really make it in life: ceased to listen over anybody and think about the important all the time – as they've trained themselves to do so. It's only your own personal choice, whether you decide to follow: become one of those people/ #2 (now, you know: how).

[204] You're paying it already: with your health, with the events you get in life – what you experience in it, how you feel inside (happiness). It's choice of your own making only. You can't think for other people as you have to think predominantly for yourself/ protecting everything against the threats, dangers and it continues...
You only share/ never to look on anybody, doing your job – the work you've been tasked with: it's so simple.
You would always put blame on i.e. a pigeon English, bad cover or whatever/ or do it to discourage others, serving as a cover story: it's always your/ or somebody's problem – you can't watch over anybody or anything (it can't be relevant to you – as you forever have to think for yourself). It's always expected, that many people/ you would want to hold important information for yourself only/ for your own purposes (i.e. parasitic philosophy, ego-driven, satanic approach; #1.1). Be very wary however that as you give to others – as you receive (with a time delay, of min. 5 years/ #1.2: to cover it's an illusion). It's only your life that decreases in value each day/ if you follow this philosophy.

[205] There are probably 115 important Laws and variables working all the time in this reality – knowledge over them, might give you an advantage/ understanding, of what is to be (79 are strategically placed across the whole book). An example of such variable might be the, #4.14 graph: where woman does more for you, than you for her and the fights broke out because of it (everyone is dissatisfied). You have to take her sometimes, i.e. on a dinner (+5%), do a food and bring it to bed (+1%), buy flowers and tell you're happy that she's with you (+3%) etc.: treat it as a game (lack of doing it: to balance the equation in the relationship might lead to its split). Moreover, when the imbalance of energies placed into the last – reaches the one shown on it, but with shifted values: woman might pretend that she has got somebody other interested in her – to raise your interest in her. Fail to do so and you've might end up drinking long term, i.e. to end in a psychiatric hospital as you've might not stand her (she would call the help = obligatory rest).

STOP HERE AND FIND WHAT TRULY MOTIVATES YOU – WANT IT, AND IT'S BELIEVABLE FOR YOU: SO YOU WOULD GET IT – WHEN YOU DELIVER.

Take your time.

[206] I didn't touched also some matters, who would introduce too much questions than answers: they're for you to find.

[207] As Laws, also in The Process/ #2: adapt to your beliefs – i.e. the work – you're receiving/ is aligned to them.
If you therefore have such a restricting beliefs: you've might be jobless even for a life/ beliefs, are required to be changed – #0.1. You've might also thought – you've crossed all the worst, possible: but you learn each time – how painfully you're wrong/ they transform your consciousness and thinking and because of it: progress is possible.

[208] As you're doing the job desired/ in the Creation (it requires to build an appropriate skill, in the process for those first few years). It's valid to the strategic, i.e. real goals/ not the ones, who prepare you: so your initial investment in yourself only – is absolutely necessary/ it requires for you: to change – first.

[209] Achieving many more changes, in the reality/ of everyone interested (by checking thinking, discussion, of many approaches – testing progress of people etc.).

[210] As it could be interpreted as a help in the act/ i.e. get me jailed. I never take any risk with the law: you shouldn't too.

[211] The pain, they've did – upon you/ you're more than secured with it (it's absolutely guaranteed, by it).
You have to be blind, to miss it – in your reality (the justice served, upon time – to be acknowledged)/ #1.2.

[213] It does mean that if you've been beaten – you've received your pain that YOU have delivered, back in your past.
It means: ignore those people who have beaten you/ walk near them neutrally (they can't touch you now – if they do: fight in a defense, but never be an attacker/ #1.2). Ignore everything this way, as you've might still hold some Karma for the physical pain – avoid to respond if not attacked first, even then: leave, if it's only possible.
You would know you've cleared your Karma for physical pain when somebody would punch you and you would feel none pain/ as I do (maybe have a scratch on face, at very most but no pain would be felt at any level). It's all real/ very real: adapt, to the advice – see, #2.59 for more (ways to protect self).

[214] Were somehow blocked by themselves: when wanting to attack.

[215] You'd be left alone to die: if you won't take the proactive moral track – possible only through the process, #2.

[216] With everything/ every decision or important challenge – it has to be all done now, immediately.

[217] Bread of shame: restriction on enjoyment from an undeserved gift.

[219] I don't do any faith, but I was an indoctrinated Christian (they've forced me as a Child, what could I do? I've resigned from Religion by tying my mother to the heater at age of 13 [?] perhaps: in home and asked to sign an agreement; with the bank account I've needed) and I've had to be dead to don't see the connection (as it's exactly/ more or less, the biblical story).

[220] The Bible in fact: is a story of success (I don't know others, but they probably tell the same story). It describes how The Process/ #2 works. You've got in this book – you're holding: only a more modern explanation to it.
Today: if you would be Jesus – you wouldn't survive long, but the same principles apply (resistance, adaptation). Nirvana was his prize, i.e. 'under Arms of God' "alike" – metaphor, to it; as he was high/ filled with happiness i.e. light, #1.1 – he didn't represented any negative character traits = matches the description/ he didn't worked for free. Constant pursue with your goal, by following his tracks (the process – leads the other prizes: you've selected for yourself). It's perhaps the first popular description of The Process/ #2 – i.e. the road through suffering, pain – failure and expectation surprise (to see, the World as it is, not as you would want it to be: to see, the Truth). He also told things, as he was high – which can confirm those words (didn't cared, whether anybody would buy them/ same as on Nirvana, #1.1). I don't know if he has ever existed, but it's a good story which describes the process, in its full.
However, in reality: it's cheating – if it's true (and he wouldn't do miracles without Nirvana – as this energy can be purposely used to heal, i.e. "chi", "mana" as other names)/ because 'he took the pain for the humanity' but if you're in this state: you don't feel any (as it's masked by feeling of happiness – 'being warmed' i.e. directly: High beyond belief). It's the purpose why I've took the effort in the first place (to cover my suffering, due to experienced disease).
It's another story, if he dropped to a state (states) lower. You won't rather never know, but you can take from the story.
It would be said – differently: if he had no Karma, #1.2 for physical pain – it didn't hurt him, at all.
I too take such 'hurt' from other people constantly (if the pain is inflicted by others: I don't feel it/ maybe I'm having a scratch but the pain is non-existent). All, thanks to the process/ #2 (he was also instructed to perform a mission in this reality – for a reward). I take it, continuously.
Do Jesus wasn't a psychopath (or any other religious leader, which is basically the same story)? I'm just asking. Believe to split the Red Sea/ even if he used his singularity device. He had the faith – you've might laugh I've called from the plastic toy my mommy (which is impossible) but you on the other side believe in a Jesus who splitted the Red Sea and accept it as an only true faith reality. Isn't it a sarcasm? I'm just asking. Maybe Jesus is you? He has shown you the path/ the process, #2 to take – to be 'saved from sin' (I would say it differently: being high to the sin, Nirvana, #1.1/ which is the reward, by taking the process by doing it right).
[221] At least beyond the point: when you would start to think on your own/ however: acceptance of information delivered across this whole book – is required, for you to progress (test it: to see the Real World for yourself).
[222] Spend it now – the way: you've wanted. Imagine now all those things, which you've always desired – they're now possible, because you've trusted the Laws – you've been obedient and followed, for what you've been asked for. It's the new way, to Live your life/ the easy way: the pleasurable, leading to maximum happiness path. It's all, to it.
It might be required to follow a series of lessons, but do the work: the prize awaits on its end (continue, until).
It's absolutely guaranteed: to be always confirmed by you (test it, for the first time – with a belief/ just do it TODAY).
[223] As you can learn from them – to advance your agenda/ for the best of you.
[224] I've become/ through the work and choices, I've took – in my whole life experience.
[225] Also, when the money – you've wanted: would be delivered in two money transfers weeks apart (usually, when a part of the job has been done and you have to finalize it).
[226] Which doesn't feels, like any/ in reality.
[227] It's those first experiences which are the hardest: as Laws have to teach you EVERYTHING from the bottom-zero. Although, when you pass: you start to appreciate all those lessons – becoming paramount to everybody, who didn't took The Process/ #2.

THE PROCESS/ REQUIRED TO KNOW

You're working forever for yourself only. Therefore, what you do – is for you and you would stay with it. It means, that you're building everything for self solely, contributing knowledge during this process which is a leading cause of the Creation, #1.11xE.

How looks the process?

[228] If I were to fuck you in the ass while you were sleeping so you wouldn't know: you wouldn't notice it. You're basically fed with such clues and it's basically shown & even told through others by the Laws – as their sole messengers: to you, like on a silver plate/ it can't be more obvious: however you must remain vigilant and inquisitive – thoughtful, to spot those things. Be calm, I'm interested only in women.
[229] It includes: even letting me in, behind the 'doorstep' (as it wasn't even it).
[230] I was shaking – couldn't at beginning speak a word but it didn't matter [!]: it was done for the purpose of being done. All, of it to break my fears – "just to be done". The results are not the true principle in any of those actions you take: they're for you set – to conquer your limitations/ to learn, to become smarter and because of it – you would become ready.
[231] I've used the drugs by myself to test whether they work – detect; such job/ most of my friends confirmed the results.
[232] I've took it down from 2,500 and after a period of waiting – probably 2 or 3 weeks even, for the seller to crack: it was the very limit of it/ when I've returned to buy it, after time.
[233] Marked: "deliver directly to the hands of director".
[234] Even how to administer them, how to convince etc.
[235] However: you have to do everything in your power – to make it happen, as for it to succeed/ act with such a belief.
[236] It took them probably a month to do it and it was probably a matter more of pride. They've found eventually an error which I've did on drugs by working for 2 weeks alone/ which normally 3 people do in 3 months of time – with less quality result: however urgency it's not – never would be, an excuse for my negligence (the other site – was placed on the same server; you would get everything: if you only invest your thought to it – it's a Law/ i.e. be prepared, it might take years or even a decades/ dependent only on your performance).
[237] In my home city. I didn't cared/ interesting only was: that those who never skipped an hour – laughed at me and encouraged me to leave with them, when all the class left i.e. the last hour or one time possibly a day – most of the classes in a whole school did it once.
[238] About 3 institutions wanted to order, but I've denied instantaneously everybody without ever knowing the value of those orders (1 school of car-drive, 1 university etc.). It has to be added: without any advertisement – it was maybe a week in the search engine. I've put the business on sale, immediately.
[239] You was tasked to introduce drug tests to schools/ it failed, end: another test might begin up to the prize.
[240] Whether the business/ idea: succeeded on the outer or failed.
[241] If drunk: I'm excluded one-time – for the time of a test/ purpose/ they weren't modified genetically.
[242] In a corridor behind the checkouts.
[243] I didn't influenced their goals, in any way.
[244] In other words: you become me/ as the same lesson would await you in the process, #2. You won't never become me, but the same – universal teachings apply, all-time/ to anyone who takes the path. It's only your choice whether you would learn them by reading and use to your purposes or would be forced to deal it, the hard way: through loss, pain and failure/ all, in order – to learn. It's your own choice/ only.
[245] The least, of few months – entirely possible: it all depends on your performance, engagement and knowledge.
[246] People look upon them (they're attracted by interest from others/ which makes them in a sense: important).
[247] You're tested in reality – they're not accidental: you have to always, all-time remember about the goal (its how it is: accept it, the way it's told or loose, big time). It's beyond your understanding: Laws control the thoughts of people, they've might task entities to posse... pin consciousness...
If you decide to fell into this trap (as 99%+ does): you won't never win, all would fail and you'd be a failure.

Pre-stage.
You know what you want – it's believable for you and you hold it in your mind for a specified amount of time, being truly after it on the level of your emotions (intents).

You've had to be warned/ it's all. Keep to remember always about the purpose.
Leave it behind: just exercise your will (fake it)/ end.

[248] Sell it, but avoid to give energies to it (thought). Wait, for the next task for completion: think and follow only it.

[249] It has to be added as an anecdote that even despite the clear HUGE sign on 'for sale': one person has managed to bought the tests which might be interpreted as another attempt to take you into the obsolete/ watch out for it, #4.47.

[250] If left on the view or given a chance: it's gone – nobody ever enters, I've caught her few times/ she just takes it – steals: my own mother// you have to protect yourself additionally and be vigilant, all time – especially with those close to you, in your closest circle.

[251] It's been always wondered: what you would say – that it's an illusion you've got a hole in your bone of leg – or the person next to you has, like nearly everybody (with a possible scar, mark)/ which can be confirmed. Share this work, it's about your life.

[252] Unknowingly, #you 1.1/ if don't or yet haven't recognized it. The real reason for it that you're not needed to anyone/ to Laws as you're easily replaceable: as you don't possess any valuable skill, extensive knowledge.or abilities.

[253] In essence: only possible through the path/ #2: by following inner desires of the soul, ##1.11xF.

[254] I've done some misjudgments – mistakes in the past, but as a general rule (as everyone, did: who ever pursued anything worthy in his life). I'm no different, but I persevere and learn from them, continually.

[255] You should do it rather where nobody watches, as they've might find some 'animal protectors'/ get the idea. Not everyone acts like me (I wouldn't even mind to call for a help: as everyone has to think for his own – protect himself). I would say: I've missed it, when prosecuted – they wouldn't prove me, I haven't/ if I would only keep the belief, to the end (which I always and forever, eternally hold – up to the very end, of life). It's your dick and you should protect it.
Leave the poor goat, behind/ #4.1.

[256] Even, if it was a clear rape (developed relationship with the aggressor, because of his 'strength' of character/ i.e. the so-called "manliness"). It was all your fault! It's always your fault: if you engage what isn't your business/ to mind.
I work for myself only/ I forever avoid to engage in anybody's 'shit' (many times even – to ever place a thought, to it): you should do, the same (on the side: as the best, what she has experienced in her life – not knowing it/ woman logic).

[257] More precisely: start the attacks when they dress to leave the home I live/ you have to reach like-level to advance.
It's absolutely necessary to forever stop to fear anybody – you will get to this point in the process/ #2.

[258] I pride myself in destroying in a moral way: parasites, #1.1. I derive pleasure from it (μ, moral energy). It's like the next meal to me, i.e. "dinner"/ you should overcome your fears also and start to look at it differently: as a unique opportunity as possibly only – then they would vanquish from your reality when you've took the process, #2.
It's however vital for you to understand that they're not a main meal, but merely a lollipop/ your goal given by the process is your main dish – the rest, is just to make to it (defense attack or ignorance against parasites).

[259] In a true fact: those, who have reached upper states of the moral field – their work is important and it's a proof they've started to do what's expected of them/ to be followed by others (as i.e. interest caused, by the force field).
More directly: it's an undisputed proof for what has been placed in this work/ that it's the truth, the true reality.
In other words – if you only follow those lessons contained: effects are an absolute guarantee.

[260] Life, stripped out of it: is an agony.

[261] As nobody better: wants to accept her.

NOW-
~ week[313]

An idea begins to form in your mind, in time – it overpowers you (allowing you to start seek and find, for the specified: requirements, how to complete the given task).
/ Events might[314] change, people brought – you'd might be moved.

[262] As she's ugly = you're on your own in life. Want a kid, nobody wants to impregnate you? Go to a bank sperm: raise it and feed it by yourself – from your own cash, which you don't have enough for yourself.
[263] Eating puts large fat on your body and fat = unattractive. You won't be never sexy as the models seen on the magazines.
[264] What man wants a hippo in his house?
[265] Imagine spending an hour in front of a mirror to just only go out! Without make up = unattractive.
[266] Boys, not the real men. You give yourself – you're a whore. You love sex, but to meet a MAN is something beyond reach/ you're unattractive besides. You've got always something to fix: never can achieve an ideal you.
[267] I didn't. Did you? Imagine only to suck an ice cream and there is no erection as she tends to spoil/ becomes unattractive in time (up to 27 marriage: obligatorily). Being at her 30' and alone? What would their friends think and the family?! I wasn't able to reach mine. If you watch porn: you've might not see – the real world.
[268] It's a woman: she seek for a man, with a class (cash). It's required for her to live. She's a woman – understand it. It's impossible to reach heights with a mind focused on 10 things at once: she's a woman (did I know what I think?).
[269] Have a baby and be left by a man/ be lost, depression – more donuts (yes, eat it). Yes you can!
[270] Have you've ever had a block, which couldn't pass in your toilet? It hurt probably. Imagine now a DRILL-dildo. You have to give, as he would leave for another woman...
[271] 9/10 are ugly/ nothing special: they've got weak genes. 1/100 are the beautiful women – rewarded to those best, who failed the process but tried (those are estimates, based on observation).
[272] You've might possibly see now why my opinions/ this work is unpopular: as it shows, the truth (and its ugly, but only it matters). It only allows you take wise choices in life and you should always strive to it.
Nobody won't tell me, it isn't a punishment/ some sort of. PMS? It's not for me. Be thankful, you're a man.
[273] Well: at least I'm sure nobody would be fucking me in the life after as a woman. I wouldn't be so sure of you...
[274] Wrapped in a duck-tape.
[275] Drugs tend to be always expensive, long term/ if unchecked: would eat you alive (chocolate contributes significantly to the inner organism sickness development as it contains lots of sugars i.e. simple 'carbs', #3.8).
[276] It never felt, as any/ i.e. inner desires of the soul, #1.11xF.
[277] As a result of the previous 1.5 year striving, but those money exhausted quickly (a year, maybe two when I've started to sell the things acquired). I've had to learn combine and appreciate the value: find what is truly important. It uniquely taught me a lot of things. If I don't have: I don't engage/ simple lesson.
[278] Alcohol is nothing and basically you feel all the time like in it (+coffee): in Adoration, #1.1/ even would say: more.
You have to only follow your inner desires of the soul, i.e. your fate – begin the work and complete it, #1.11xF & #2.
[279] No drugs involved, ever: see #1.1, first page of this book – before anything & #2.2. I've kept it concealed for all those years to unable anybody: ruin or even touch my inner-core belief. Nobody had ever thought about it.
[280] As I've used it as a tool.
[281] As all I've ever wanted, was to cover the immense pain felt due to disease: knowing it's a method, to mask it.
When I set a goal: I stick to it, until its completion/ time: never matters. It was required to survive, besides (simplified: level of moral energy, #1.1 = level of immunity)/ to buy me more time, for the ongoing research I'm involved.

NOW- TO THE END	You work on the realization of your goal, until its completion (you would know it, on the level of your thoughts). / It might be a one task – usually on the beginning or a series of them.

I'm calling things, using names: what they are/ in reality – directly (they play a role of spiritual money).
However: I've still wanted to be high. It's what I've truly wanted, because I've liked what I felt (any of your goal has to be backed by the logical and deep emotional reasons for you – to be able keep the motivation/ as the last tends to fade, when the "troubles" come).
[282] It's high – speaking the most directly of what it is/ or rather – High beyond belief: the one like you've got on the drugs however at bare feet x100/ x500 to x1M times stronger with 7 chakra centers opened i.e. with feelings like power, love, compassion, etc. – at once. Drugs allow only to open or rather a tiny 'leak' of one to up to 1.5/ 7 of those centers, but with their intensity and feeling caused – it's like comparing a very high ultra-modern skyscraper to a shack/ or to a wooden plank for certain drugs. It doesn't goes away, like in the instance of first/ can last even for a lifetime.
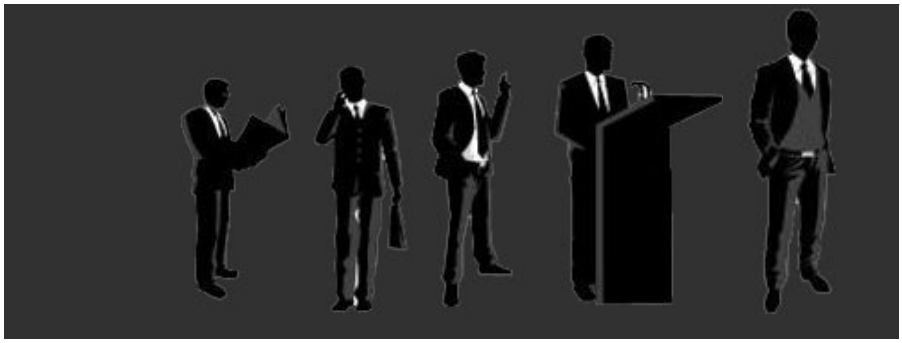
[283] It's enough for you to read/ to speak with the people who used the drugs i.e. visit a rehab – show them this book: ask whether they do recall any of such experiences (or just waste your life and do it, but know – it might be immoral to you). If not: they're amateurs – shouldn't be there (or imprisoned, due to their recreational drug problem).
[284] It's hard to explain: you're just blocked i.e. the invisible part which you can't enter like in the older computer games or the recent popular shooter. In the below states: you can control few things parallel i.e. 5, 7 to 17 at once but you can't control 1,000 which would be thrown at you, in one time. You have to develop understanding and experience it, to be able to know. If the last is deficient: you have to trust initially – those who did/ it's: how it looks.
Another common example: move in a week to the other part of the World with all your belongings – sell everything: you won't be probably able to do it, as you're blocked in a certain way in your environment/ get the point. You've always kept by something invisible – in the place, however it requires skill and mind: to spot it.
It would be ended here, because it would instill in you a sense of paranoia: if it only would be continued going through all those questions/ to be asked, all-time. You would be mindful enough, in the process to ask them – constantly.
[285] The rest is going to: they know it, telling it loudly (they know their fate).
[286] You couldn't too, if somebody calls you an idiot and tells you to get your bags and leave – immediately.
It's those situations, where one is in a need: when it gets to him that he has failed himself and everyone around because of his Ego or choices taken. It's forbidden for you, to insult or judge anybody for what they are.
I foresee events: I know the future. I'm able to know your health status and all the problems you've got in a millisecond glance/ more than any best professional (mostly of those issues: which you're unaware of).
She can't sleep – it's an early first sign of a developing cancer in her body (she had chemo, 5-7 or more years ago). It's combined with the other symptoms/ #3. Nobody listens, at it has to be earned.
[287] It's impossible to cure cancer if one has an alcoholic problem – drinking for years, possibly even a decade to the point of passing off (inner organism sickness, #3.8: is the reason for it as it's the best fuel for its growth and the last causes an immense desire for this drug). Those problems have to be solved first/ if one doesn't wants to: he pays the price for his choices. It still can be reversed in a blink of an eye, but one has to deeply want: dedicate himself to the cause. Nobody is ever able to do anything for anybody, of value – if the affected person alone: doesn't wants to change. This lesson brings you understanding: why you shouldn't and your efforts – only achieve the opposite effect (delaying, the change – of anyone/ is it i.e. drugs, cancer, bad company or any other problem of anybody). Moreover, immunity drops with the decay in a moral field, #1.1 and being in a parasitic philosophy (evil): contributes significantly to the growth of the disease. Any change is possible only within, as everybody is in this game alone and plays for himself.



[288] Perhaps 500/ 30mg each pills: I didn't even noticed when they've all 'vanished'.
[289] I've got even a prescription at this moment for it, but I've never used it/ never would.
[290] As a result of the disease/ they've only caused increased time-sleep, sometimes – prolonged.
[291] To make this decision: to do a change, right now/ just as – plainly and stay with it, for the period.
[292] Read it one more time, re-think again: it has got a disastrous implications/ for you (read all over until you'd understand). In case you've didn't: examples have been brought further/ read them and acknowledge all.
[293] Another story is that the other guy might laugh from your limitations (if even: in his mind; he would admit to you – you're right; you're always right in what you believe). It's the importance of true knowledge/ in your real life.
You've might be right, but if the truth is different – you pay the consequences, learn it.
[294] It's all there for you to find: i.e. survivability rates are all-time low = it doesn't works, at least it should or you would want to/ you have to think for yourself – forever. It's not for me to judge anything, but to give you an idea why you have to always work for yourself – with everything, in here: and lack of this work – might be the end of you, of your life. If you fear something – investigate it first/ conquer the fear through knowledge and experience.
[295] It "couldn't be that someone did it" (they are to help me, type-of-approach). It only demonstrates how everything has to be earned in this reality as it's purposely dealt this way/ to pick the winning candidates, #1,11xE & #4.49: footnotes, at the end. Adding to it: you should always ask yourself a question – what if I'm wrong/ or don't know something of importance? It would show you the path of humbleness/ you won't be sure: unless you've earned it by i.e. checking or through other knowledge or information; also: why you shouldn't reject anyone or anything in your active search. It applies to everything – any belief, everyone and at any stage of understanding/ follow it, eternally.
[296] As a result of the internal body damage and other complications/ caused by the poison embedded in food (i.e. permanent infertility, any-other – you name-it indefinite symptom).
[297] More people: wouldn't follow the path of death, if they would only knew or seen that others didn't make it through.
[298] Including, what is: available for most of the people – the great majority/ i.e. the technologies. It would be said differently: what a typical person is able to accept, as a reality/ ex. perpetuum mobile, time travel, transf...
[299] As probably: the most important task in any existence – is to define and confirm what's expected from you/ in any reality (by your master or masters). What Laws are present, what has to be followed/ philosophically...
[300] Count the deja-vu effects/ for the chances you've already received: to take the proactive moral path/ #2.
They cease their activities, in time/ it might be now.
[301] In your mind/ created (as it would be realized – anywhere you are).
[302] For my whole future life – as all the money I've got (it has changed, again – in a period of writing this text).
[303] Lack of it: should push you towards thinking – whether the work you do, is moral/ did you make any mistakes somewhere on the track/ i.e. foresights trouble – problem (as a warning sign, to rethink everything).
A side effect of 'critics' and people who want to offend you – is a free advertisement (something desired): so you're always compensated in this reality for the pain experienced (Karma, #1.2: is returned back to those with evil intents).
It leads to the increase of your moral energy, #1.1: embrace it/ let it be your guidance (the worst in this world: is forever ignorance, above all). You have to remember one thing (as an example of this book): if somebody would have a really burning problem by himself – he won't care about the critics – he would land, here (on this work)/ and use it.
It gives you power, #1.1 (μ).

AFTER

You're released when you've attained the prize or it was brought to you.

You repeat the process over and over, until you get the desired.

The whole purpose of any state other than the proactive moral, set with the inner desires of soul – is to throw you on such circumstances: where you would develop such lack/ i.e. true problems and be forced to change or die, because of your passiveness/ by using insufficient solutions and avoiding to take your own efforts – responsibility (lack of thinking through selecting the commonly available tools and inferior solution, by the public).
Treat forever all those critics as a valuable knowledge resource – to improve your work/ ignore, all the hatred (#2.52).

[305] If you think, believe: it's all an imagination of somebody's mind – you're right, but see that the photos don't lie, the cash was received and all the effects – were achieved/ most of it can be confirmed: if persistent; can be compared to your experience. Think deeply: before you would judge anything/ or believe, listen: to anyone.
I was tasked, in The Process/ #2: to perform this work in exchange for something of value, to me (required, to be alive & be, stay – the best) and I've ensured – the principles given, were realized in the best possible manner – ever. All which was here placed is or was a part of my reality/ it is or was truth to me, at the time/ was presented in a form consistent with my perspective, i.e. point of view – as I've seen things (to be precise: objectively, as it was – not, as I've wanted it to be). All was extensively tested and effects were achieved, with each and every account of it (truth). Additionally: 'they' might not want me alive and you've may imagine probably why/ it's required, by the process to perform those works, to Live. Whether you would use it for your purposes: it's entirely up to you.

[306] To take responsibility for your life.

[307] You would acquire it by yourself: it would lead you through the experiences which would develop your knowledge, skill and experience – to prepare you, for its achievement (where you would get on the end – the task, for realization: to get to your dreams). It's an ultimate track to: fortune, happiness and development – your ultimate growth, #1.11xF.

[308] Or stop/ cease your activities: however you're likely to die then from moral starvation, #1.1 (as 99%+ do).
Being in a reactive/ proactive immoral state: extends your life.
Those who are in a proactive moral, with the actions not set accordingly to their inner desires of soul: would finally hit The Process/ #2: if they would only pursue their efforts/ which could be done right now, after the last failure – by applying this knowledge.

[309] Exploitation is not only limited to it, but threatens all of our existence as a race/ as they've got too: a goal, a very-well defined one. You won't rather understand it on your current level of understanding. It would be left for you to investigate/ as it can only be learned. We've got something unique, of value – which they don't have, i.e. a metagene/ they can kill us then: taking our whole planet/ we'd be annihilated – if they succeed first (like many other races: who failed their test of quality). Taking the process, #2: would change you as a person and if many follow – it would become possible to conquer our death, enemy (due to characteristics, knowledge and abilities developed through it, going with the increase of your morality, as a result). The only information which would be left, that those – who have taken it and proved themselves: would be spared by the Laws as a souls (of this breed).
Watch/ keep to look: on yourself, only.

[310] Online/ offline: printed, etc.

[311] Presumably: to discredit, ridicule, laughter etc. but believe only yourself and think because the evidence presented in it – is plentiful/ when it gains popularity & it will (i.e. example of death, by using X but wrongly with the rules: which it to be confirmed or something they've didn't told as ex. mixing pharmacy drugs, with substances from the treatment/ #3: they won't say – at very least, over 100k/ 0.5M people die yearly from valid prescriptions of them, but only – what advances their/ Alien agenda: in picture – the next person to die, might be you – if you only use them). Watch also on any fakes, of this book (confirm MD5 hash tag with its original releases). In true reality: nobody had to die – they would hire actors/ or rather use the already hired, change their make-up: on the TV – who would play as a victims/ or rather

By taking the process, #2 – you:

- Get the tasks, always aligned to your inner desires of the soul (fate), #1.11xF.
- You always get the prize/ those goals lead to it – as a testing for the purpose of knowledge increase (if you only deliver).
- You're always able to deliver, the task (Laws, know it – if you wouldn't be able: you wouldn't get the particular task/ you're however not able to pick a believable prize – if your current level of competence is too low). It's always matched to the level of your skill or ability – including those, which you can develop during the realization of them.
- You don't need to seek for a goal, an idea on a business or to get anything – you just take the process, do your work and you get the desired/ so simple.

You're also additionally prepared to handle your prize, because it's viewed as a futile – if you wouldn't and the Laws support you with it – so you would continue to actively participate, in the process.

You must be prepared for the loss[315] of everything/ even if temporary and allow yourself to be assigned with the task, being fully in it/ although, on the beginning – a little belief and openness is usually enough to start.

their families – who are the family of those 'died' actors just as it directly sounds (if you're skilled in reading body language signs: you would spot the glitches and know instantly – it's all fake). Open your eyes/ investigate for yourself: if you only refuse to believe.
It's ALL a fake set-up: to insure their infinite exploitation of the human race/ as the highest truth.
You have to be blind, to don't see that all this paperwork – taxes, all what you have to do – without a deeper purpose/ it's all a system of control: to insure our race wouldn't never pursue the technologies or release the knowledge leading to their removal from our space and cessation of exploitation.

[312] Obligatory.

[313] Time is relative – usually not less, than couple months on the very beginning (as wants and intents change). It's directly connected to the 'sureness' of a person, able to complete the specified task.

[314] All required for the testing period/ to enable you: realization of the goal.

[315] In terms of possessions: rare or temporary/ it's usually refunded after the process with something new.

Know however, that the moment you're associated with the goal/ task – it's serious.
It's entirely possible for you to complete it.
You have to complete it.

THE PROCESS: ACTIVATION OF THE MECHANISM

It's in its core a fair exchange: you want X – you do the Y at your best, as you work only for self.

Agreement
- You accept and deal with all what is thrown at you.
- You would deliver.

The task or series of tasks is completed when you would attain the prize or it would be delivered to you. You're required to continue the work to the end, until it happens.

If any instances out of the rule, appear: you would know everything – on the level of your thoughts.

Where.
- The prize, you select: it has to be totally believable[316] for you so you can have it, to enjoy.

All the tasks[317] assigned are suited to your current level of skill and ability, being also attainable in its realization, so – you're always able to complete them.

You're only able to resign after the completion of all tasks, in a testing period.
- You have to deliver, first.

ACTIVATION OF THE MECHANISM/ part I

[316] It has to be known to you what believable actually means as there is a strict definition for it. If you're able to see it in your imagination for instance, i.e. a movie of you being with a specific girl/ by walking, holding by hands and living a life – together: you're able to be with her which means – it's possible for you to have her/ == it's believable for you. However for you to be able see it in your mind – you have to firstly have the imagination unlocked, #3.23: most/ you – have it blocked (due to consumed diet, toxins in your environment)/ if you aren't typically able to see all your previous day minute-by-minute when you close your eyes by rehearsing it in mind: seen as a continuous movie with probably 3 alternate routes parallel to it, of events – you've got it obstructed. In the beginning – if you're able to accept you can get X: it's enough for you to start, but later – it's a requirement. What you can see in your imagination as having it/ possessing: it's possible for you to be acquired/ by being the same – believable to you & established as a goal in the process. However, the question to be ask is: whether you truly want it. You have to think about the consequences of reaching your goals (if the last, are believable to you === they're also possible to be achieved by you, absolutely/ those are the rules of this reality, i.e. of construct). Isn't it for you better to just stay where you are: having nothing or tiring yourself in a job for a lifetime/ than to do none and have everything for a period of years like the author? What would you do with those money? Isn't it better to be poor and have nothing and have a clear mind/ being the best critic in the World and having all those reasons to complain? Isn't it better to stay where you are, just as? Think about it.
For instance it might not be believable for you that you would become a millionaire/ i.e. "now" but it might be perfectly by you accepted that you can get/ earn/ reach i.e. 5,000 or 10,000 at the same time. Therefore way to take it is to believe it first: hold for an infinite period and best "forget" about it, but 'keep in the mind' preparing in some way, i.e. #3/ #2.1+. Then, the idea would get pumped into your head and when you execute everything at your 100% you acquire those money in e.g. 3 weeks to 3 months time. Next, it would be possible for you to believe in e.g. 50,000 as your skill, knowledge & experience has risen due to those efforts. It's the process/ #2// it's all to it. Take it.

[317] Take them as your missions to fulfill – in this reality/ which they truly are.

KNOW PRECISELY WHAT YOU WANT FOR 3[318] MONTHS – WITHOUT

The moment you've activated the deal – it starts and you're required to deliver.
You would know all what to do – on the level of your thoughts.
It's serious.

ACTIVATION OF THE MECHANISM/ part II

AND KEEP IT IN YOUR THOUGHTS CHANGING THE OBJECT OF YOUR WANT.

The moment you've activated the deal – it starts and you're required to deliver.
You would know all what to do – on the level of your thoughts/ more [318] In certain cases: it can take less. It can take longer to be assigned, but it's a result of your fault solely (see troubleshooting guide). Never cease to believe – it's the most important.

Keep your prize constantly on your mind and urge to ask – repeatedly/ hold it up to its receival in the process.
Let it work infinitely as your primary motivation/ up to the end, when you get it.

precisely: thoughts[319] would be formed in your mind and you have to execute them, urgently at your very personal best.
It's serious.

KEEP THE BELIEF/ PERFORM[320] THE WORK – BEST & URGENTLY: UP TO THE PRIZE (CONTINUE, UNTIL).

Take the process.

You need to start now. Yes, just now.

Similarly as you can't Live conveniently (comfortably) without being at least a Millionaire (Multi-Millionaire). Like: you can't Live a healthy life with no proper fuel which is 100% organic diet. The same: you can't Live and experience life at its full without living and taking the process/ #2.

You can live your life or rather its shade to the end, but you won't rather never know what is to feel good (Adoration)/ feel godlike – live in a bliss (Nirvana/ #1.1) as it's only possible through taking those steps mentioned and sticking to them: for life. Living is never the same/ it's the best, wonderful experience: ever.

[319] You've might feel overtaken by them.
[320] Begin to act as a best professional: the moment you've been awarded with the task. Take it death, seriously.

If you've hold to it for 3 months or more and nothing have happened: you didn't received any idea/ nothing started to form in your mind/ you haven't been moved – no changes weren't observed in your surrounding – wait an additional month or so, as – you'd might be tested, because of your low faith in the process itself (belief). If nothing follows still: you do wrong – one of the below.

- You avoid to believe in the process itself/ you think, something like – it's a "creation of somebody's imagination" etc. and as you believe – it happens upon you: you're not being allowed to use it, even if it is and eternally have been – in the existence. In other words: yes, you're right but again – it doesn't matter, your rightness[321] disallows you to reap the benefits of it/ as it's the way, the system is built: those, who know and believe – more, aren't able to get. A little bit of openness, i.e. 'it might be as such' etc. – is usually sufficient enough. Firstly, you have to believe, in this reality – it won't never work the other way through.

- Your intentions aren't true[322] and you're not seriously after it: you're not on the level of your thoughts – in, i.e. have an intent like 'aha, I would see what is the task: to get a glimpse of whether I would do it or not'. Know, it's not a child play – it's serious, very serious: if you ignore the Laws or want to 'take a grasp' – you'd be not allowed even to enter anything. Usually, the change to: whatever it would be – I would complete it, as it's suited for me – to my current skill and abilities, so I'm able to do it: will perform independent of anything/ just truly mean it.

  It's really easy: first tasks, on the very beginning and after – are metaphorically for more than a retarded in their level of difficulty i.e. it might be something alike "go to place X, buy 10 pieces of merchandise – give it when Y would come to you" or "get to this X-specified job for 3 months, to master Y"/ just the easiest ones, to test you – whether you're able and want to provide: if you're not able to do a simple things as you've been tasked – forget about all the rest/ anything[323] more.

- Your prize isn't believable for you. If you want something, which you can't accept – that you can get (imagine, as having it for yourself): Laws can't deliver it to you, so the deal can't be activated at all (scale of prize which is for you believable – is limited to your ability to deliver, so if you want more – you have to start with small/ smaller wants and build it up, in time). It's likely you want to start with e.g. a 5x of your monthly earnings – something, which is believable for you – where you will have the motivation to pursue it.

  Remember that, those first prizes are all temporary for the period of testing/ process, as later it would become possible for you to get e.g. x100 multiplier or even more (when you would build those core competences, during it). Although, start small at first.

- You don't hold enough moral energy to begin with, #1.1. Usually you must be above the min. level of $\mu > 0.35$. Increase it first. The process won't work also – if you've haven't quit forever your immoral enterprise/ didn't fixed the damage done and possibly repaid back the Karma, #1.12: didn't willingly decided to go straight/ those things, have to be sorted first.

[321] It's natural to disbelief, yet it doesn't pays off usually – at least in this reality. Attitude, change of morality – #1.1 is essential to get into anything, in it.
[322] You can't cheat the Laws, as they know all your thoughts, intents etc. because system is built this way, #1.11xE/ they're, the source of them.
[323] Prizes, gaining – what's desired by you/ at least, the easy way.

- It's known you would not accomplish even the simplest of tasks, so they're not given to you: you must start to work on yourself first/ your morality, #1.1 (if you're able to read this book without criticizing it, before testing – anything, it's – unlikely, yet a possibility).

If you're not willing to sacrifice[324] yourself for the accomplishment of the goal, you would be given – it's not provided to you. There is always something to be tested – if not, it would be known to you or you'd might be selected for a special purpose, in appropriate time.

If you've got any questions/ issues: just, take the process – you would learn in it, everything that is required for you to achieve your goals (for instance, if you lack discipline – you would be lead firstly through circumstances, events: which would enforce it on you).

It's all.

This reality is not just stick and stones, but there are Laws prevalent here – and if you take the advantage: you would win. It's guaranteed.

Take the process, #2.

Everybody starts small.

[324] You work only for yourself in a fair exchange.

> The thing about those Laws – is, that all is always invisible: you know what to do and have seemingly no other assurance/ at least in the beginning until you pass a certain point. You'd might be questioning your sanity, but it's purposely the way you're led. As, if you're not able to have faith and trust the process, you're unworthy – similarly as a person fighting for his tribe and family: who have resigned, because he wanted so.

Your active participation and will to overcome the obstacles is only required. You would learn on the last and it would enable you to strive for ever more large prizes.

Take the process, #2.

Trust it.

In the process: you'd be left on uncertainty – for all the time, until you would hit the mark of 4-7 years when you will begin to become sure of it.

How to know: you're Living the process/ following fate?

> Any path, which leads for the best change: is going along the inner desires of soul – is one, of great adversity, because it's the highest moral thing to do (leading to Nirvana/ #1.1: success and happiness). You would encounter the greatest possible obstacles, which can be served upon you in this reality – highest parasitic, interfering and hopelessly stupid people surrounding you (being the path of 'the highest possible resistance'). Your life would be ruled by those, who have relatively lowest intelligence or any at all: being simply painfully stupid, jealous and bullish, who have some sort of personal problems, complexes, phobias, are mental or who tend to scorn the capabilities[325] of others. It's valid usually to the first few years: when you become[326] prepared.

Lack of it, during this time – might foreshadow trouble.
It's because you learn the most: on such people – experiences, they might bring.

Avoid to ever fear anyone.
Do the best, your work.

Learn, to get the most of it.

In practice: everyone/ most would leave you, you would very probably loose your wife – everyone would treat you as a person who went insane: all sorts of changes would happen and they're directed[327] specially for this purpose – to harden your character.

It would continue – usually to the point, when you would succeed.
Those changes are required: trust the process – as you've dreamed life awaits you/ if you only will withstand and proceed with the fight, to the very end.

It's the only way.

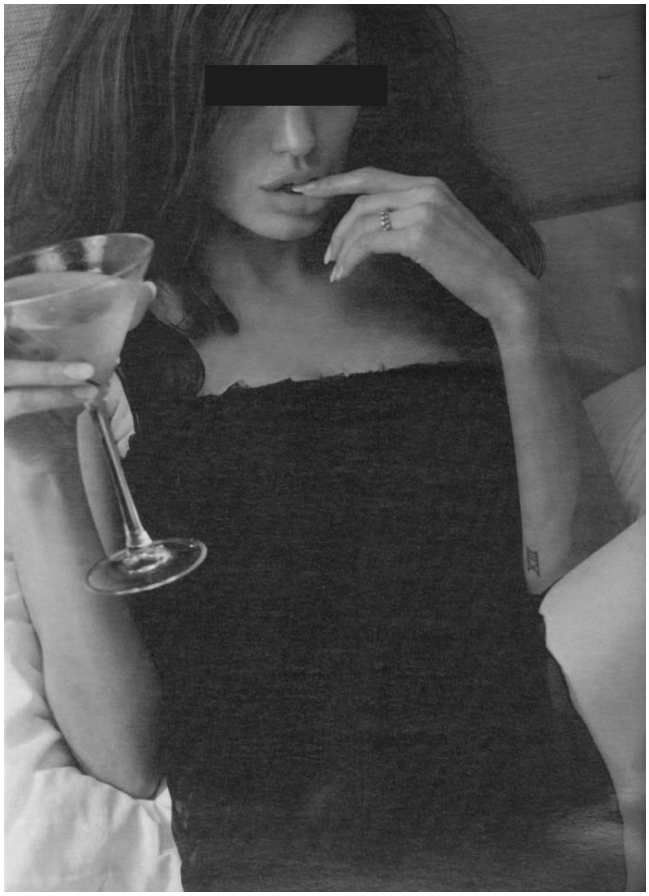
[325] It's a lesson: that a civilization can only reach such heights – which are possible by the least moral people in the society.
[326] To deal with those kind of people – overcome your limitations and improve drastically your thinking as to never look on others or look back/ therefore: your progress is solely dependent on you.
[327] Without such changes, ability to realize your dream: is impossible/ accept it, embrace and experience only the best because of it (as those people, things – environment aren't usually suited, for your highest development and accomplishment). In other words: for your highest, happiness.

LIVING AND WORKING IN THE PROCESS

It's basically a chance for everyone, who haven't received much on a birth/ for those who want to advance in their lives and experience it at its best. The answer lies in question: how much you're willing to sacrifice for what you strive. For some, it's their whole life. You might belong to people who constantly seek for something, but never are really interested in finding the specific solutions to your problems – now, you've found.

The Devil however isn't usually there – it's in the everyday temptations which influence the process, it's hidden in those – who oppose your goals, as it's always essential to remember that you're in this game alone. Nobody matters, anything isn't more important than their realization. If you succumb to pleasures of daily life and won't complete what you've been tasked – you won't never win in this game. The point is, that you can have everything what you want: if you're only able to deliver and to invest those years to extend your knowledge, skill and understanding to the level of those desires.

Everything.



It's however a challenge, usually on the beginning, because you'd might be prone to other suggestions – taking it as an advice, of those: who should shut up. Danger lies in you, basically – and your lack of discipline, imperfections – which lead to drug abuse, ignoring or leniency of work: you're required to perform.

Another issue, is that you have to fail at least this dozen times – up to the point, where you would be able to accomplish anything with success, as: you learn on those failures. Those works, have to be done with maximum striving: to be the best, to succeed – as they're for you. You would fail, you would fail again and again – and that's the purpose behind it all, because you would get the lessons from the whole experience. This is the process.

The issue is, that few swallow those failures – it might lead to despair, because of the ego, nature or to just see your time as a waste. Any effort isn't ever wasted. It's purposely why the process is so effective – accept them, return to the work after. Everything now – starts to work on your advantage.

Focus on the work: to complete it effectively to the end – ignore all the rest.

Take fully from the below story.

In spite of average IQ of 10 and a record high-time score of 37 on 150 or 200 points in many of those tests; he – has sacrificed his life to achieve whatever desired, at any cost. All, in order to become the best – being, the best and to take from this reality, the most which is ever possible. Born in poverty, it has given him the urge to perform as nothing to loose, is the most powerful stimuli. Nothing has shaped him and hardened more, than those constant, infinite failures – yet, in his mind: it's best to make them now than to suffer lately, due to lack of those experiences.

Viewed from the outside, as a 'separate category' – it was precisely the image, which had to be portrayed by him: to be left alone by others, who might influence in a bad manner or spoil the results of his many works. Nobody takes such people seriously – all efforts to fix them, are wasted in its core principle. Weak, he developed ability to withstand EVERYTHING i.e. to cover his intents, character, any reactions: play a role, to adapt to his environment for years, even decades – straight, without a single break which could influence his secretive mission. Like a water, taking the shape of a vessel – to accept and appreciate, what is available to get – independent of any involved.

Annihilated by living the constant process – diseased, by the sickness with symptoms worst than AIDS – the 16th year in a row/ leading directly to death: he took the fight, to find the answers leading to its conquer. Understood by nobody, in imaginable pain prevalent throughout his whole life experience – he had never achieved a balance, probably never would as – it's not the purpose of his aims. Experiencing the worst of the worst, unimaginable conditions thrown at him, constantly – he learned, to appreciate and be thankful, for the meaningful basics which do really matter: limited but only organic food, clean water, clothes – despite lost recently and the shelter.

However, it's not always been like that… When the drugs were tested, because he was placed in such circumstantial situation where they had to: had, an unlimited supply of 99.9% purity plus product/ as it's referred to: a metaphorical cistern of 40% pure – finest vodka, with the tap attached to it/ per month – something, very dangerous as "5mm, 1mm thick line" is death. Work, performed nearly always at unimaginable conditions and pressure to deliver – lead him to find, that usage of those substances enables him to produce more prolific and better results, in a shortened lifespan – which was pursued. MDPV and other stimulant drugs were used, to deliver. He worked for 4 days straight in a row each time, performing at 100% of his capabilities – for over a month, ending it with 7-day streak, to beats the odds and test his limits. However, he felt cheated when going sleep on 5th of the month, he woke up – 15th/ being awaken each day to eat and drink on a moment, to loose consciousness after it. Work, that took usually a week to perform – done, in 24h or less without a blink of an eye! It was found later by him, that despite bringing the best – it was somehow punished to become obsolete/ invaluable: point, when the Laws were discovered. Haunted by paranoia's, ghosts – he didn't allowed to be beaten, ever – to the very end. Drugs, don't pay at all – he clearly states: wrong are those who think otherwise. Unless you've got access to the necessities of life including alcohol: you're a rich person.

He, who once earned a fortune and lost it all – happier without it, because the work performed wasn't really what he was after and it didn't brought much of a value beyond certain point/ it's a statement few would truly understand. A person, who has turn his life upside down – to re-invent himself again and started all over: found, that knowledge is more at price – he has usually thought. It became his highest aim, but to the required point of attainment – to be able, perform all what is required and get what is the most desired: in a face, of the ever changing world. Investing years, straight – to get to know all and test, everything by self: to deal with his problems no money can resolve as they're so important due to existing none/ completely inferior solutions. Ingesting at insane

There are people: who would sacrifice it all.
Pretend, until it becomes – your reality (say, admit – only the truth).

Anything you would encounter in the process, #2 – just keep going/ relentlessly.
Forever believe, forever fight to the end/ never cease to abandon your dreams.

You would win – when you'd achieve[328] preparedness.

In the process/ #2: you would experience the opposite of what you hope for and because of it – you would learn your new abilities, skill and knowledge/ attaining the prize for yourself after completion of each stage (up to your highest dream).
Winning, in life – ultimate happiness.

[328] It's only possible to be attained, BECAUSE of those conditions and experiences/ created by the Laws.
It's the whole secret/ adapt to it, overcome (as the most important piece of advice, to get in this reality).

The process, can be brought to.

| >>>>>>>>>> | >>>>>>>>>

It’s expected you’d be uncertain for the whole process and the purpose of it. You have to understand that those, who have resisted the temptations and illusions of a daily life – putting their life, on the stake: got it all. No one is treated, as he didn’t earned it.

It’s basically a person-change type of path, who passes tracks of:

i. Loosing all,
/ to realize, what’s really important and matters in life

ii. Ridicule and laughter: criticism by others, / to enforce your strengths – see, that those people haven’t achieved much themselves and most have tendencies to become your enemies as they covertly fear you can rise above them

iii. Learning, who to trust and why, / not everyone is of the same value to you

iv. See, more that it is,

v. Master your skills and abilities, knowledge – to be ready/ teach you: to deal with any obstacles, fears etc. to become prepared.

It’s basically, the trip worth taking.

It’s for everybody, who has the courage. Avoid to be ever dreaded by it. Its goal, is to prepare you to become a mindful and a more perfect person, although the last is not a destiny, but a way - #1.11xE. Yet, to win also – through your own efforts: a better life, for yourself.

It can happen only with your own will and participation, to get – what you want.

If you fear anything – the process would prepare you for that/ just as.
It’s always up to your level of expertise, skill and abilities and you’re forever able to perform.

You should fear, not taking it.

All, in order to win *e*verything for self.

TAKE THE PROCESS – #2/ NOW.

2.01. MORE UNDERSTANDING TO THE PATH-OF-POWER TAKEN

If you've had ever an impression – you've been abandoned by everyone, possibly including God: it was purposeful, to allow you get mad at things and to now – start the process, #2 as you don't want to continue live the way, you've been placed to. It's easy to start the path, but whether you would be able to finish all what you've started or been tasked with? It requires certain qualities, so after programming was introduced, #0.1: it would be much easier, possible – for you. If you don't hold the strong will to do anything, which is necessary to win in life – you're likely to loose/ fail at it. It's all brought basically to the desire, of how much you're willing to give for what you want. Everyone is born with a desire, where: accomplishment of a particular task – would bring to him/ his fate. This task, requires of you to build a certain knowledge, and it's achieved through the process, #2 – itself. Begin, it firstly as a side-task to your main occupation.

It takes only 5-7 years, precisely and you've repaid your debt, in this reality – you're left, with all the skill and knowledge/ & the prize, which would allow you to Live freely possibly to the rest of your life and allow, to take your own path.

It would haunt you: throughout your whole life.

You were born to this world with a certain purpose/ believe it, deny or not but: whether you would choose to fulfill your fate, with the realization of task – you were brought here, is only up to you as you've got a freedom of choice. The last involves a series of experiences and whether you'd pass them or not – it's only up to you. It would be on your mind: for all your life experience and best, is to start just now.

Take the process, #2.

Its accomplishment, would give you all the ever desired by you/ believe it or not – deny or laugh, but its known to you, already.

It's the last encouragement, because it's quite a short time of 5 to 7 years, to pass everything that is thrown at you – to win, once and finally in life.

It's so simple to understand, challenging to pass but it's possible entirely and only for you as you've been created specially for this purpose.

Take, the path-of-power.

The true fact, is that possibly more you won't want to work than to do the job, but you would continue anyway – it's periodic. You've activated the mechanism – everything starts to work in favor of you: therefore, firstly an idea begins to form in your head, you know what you have to do and to what point of excellence i.e. your X task[329] late in the process, might involve – constructing a book in your native language with a principle to a) build it for yourself, b) put and systematize all your known knowledge. The time, isn't never provided, yet you think it would take you those 3-months to do it, in essence: it takes exactly 9-months, to complete this 899 page book. Tasks, are different for everyone and only you would know, what you have to do – it's suited, to you.

When, it's cleared: you get the next task, to build a book in English version, based on a very different principles – you've attained also the knowledge and skill required, for you to perpetrate this goal, during this time and it – served you, as you've treated yourself partially from the deadly disease and your life, isn't endangered anymore – so, it's a mutual benefit for you and the Laws which lead to your final prize.

In the process, you're required to sustain your basic survival necessities: usually, they're already covered but rather not on the beginning – at the start of it, you're tested – all the time, by the Laws – you're kept in the dark, left uncertain whether you're sane following the invisible, but you deeply know – it would pay one day. It's a process which lasts, very long – probably, the first few three or four years: you're bombarded with critics, temptations, all sorts of obstacles which leading role is not to take you away from your work, but the inverse – to ensure, you would continue it, independent of any as you know. Those, who leave and succumb to the pleasures of daily life, without the completion of tasks given – are considered unworthy and they've lost, because the prize is just after the next corner.

Believe it or not, but those are the true facts for everyone to be confirmed by himself. Usually, twice or three times of what is initially perceived, as the time it would take – it takes, in reality. To sum up: you're working on some crazy ideas from your head, everyone tells it won't work – it's insane to do it, but again – it's not about whether it would work or not – the last, doesn't matter (!) as completing this task – the best, you can – would build for you the required level of skill and expertise essential to progress/ get it once and understand. In the end, you would spend years failing – failing all over again, but it's the purpose and the point behind it, because on those experiences you learn, to one day: become ready. It can however, take a toll on you – if you treat it or don't treat it this way/ failing i.e. 75 times in a row, isn't sexy.

You would have an occasional successes, but you would fail again at them: yet, if you want to be a success – you have to multiply your level of failure, it's the rule. It's the process, different for everybody yet the same in principle. In the process: you usually experience the inverse of what you desire and it's the best point of reference that you're – on the right track.

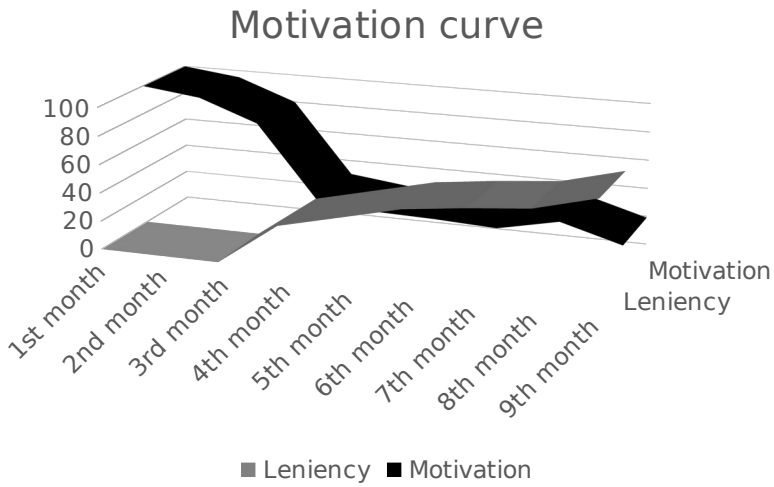
You always know what to do. You always want to complete the task as effectively and urgently as possible: keeping the quality, of the best work you've done. Therefore, a change in patterns – introduced partially in programming, #0.1 have to occur for you to deliver/ to use maximally the time you have.

To put it simple: you want the reward → you do the task → you get the reward/ you continue for more.

Anything, which doesn't supports the goal/ to do the task – is an enemy, which has to be handled: immediately. It's required mainly from the reason, that with time – you loose motivation: leniency sets in/ take a look below.



Each work, has to be also performed at your personal very best – possible for you level, because you would loose your motivation and won't complete it.

Those are the two keys, to remember.

A MUST

Adjust your life in a way, which would allow you to use maximally your time.
Remove all the redundant – optimize your life, at your best.

Use every opportunity to further your own goals i.e. take any financial benefits given, use any courses provided etc. You have to do everything, in your power – to attain, your goals and do whatever it takes: to complete the tasks given, as urgently and best as ever possible for you.

Ideas might include.

- Change your day-job to work 8-hour days, the least possible: in order to survive throughout the initial stage of the process, #2/ to have, the basics survival means – at least, on the very beginning as you would later find a better solutions (best would be such: where you would have time to think about your goals – in it).

- Optimize your budget, #2.31/ financial means are crucial, at the very beginning – put an enormous pressure at this issue (i.e. get somebody with who you would rent a room to live with: where you would work on a different shifts, to lower the costs/ if only not interfering with the goal).

- If you're a man: forbidden is for you to ejaculate, as you're loosing energy/ drive. You can have sex and multiple orgasms, but have to retain the sperm inside/ #3.95C:II.

- Limit any activities or actions which don't bring you closer to your goal, ex.:

  - cleaning, shaving or washing yourself/ if your goals, don't[330] require it,
  - laundry,
  - cooking, #3.21/ eating any of your meals – standing, yet also: ~~everyday making bedding~~, ~~raising toilet seat~~ etc. – sleeping (sleeping in a hat, home – all winter) and using same clothes for days, saves you additional time/ if they only don't affect your performance.

  Set everything, in a such way – that no or minimum effort is required and the least amount of time used, to maintain the work on the goals:

  - block all porn sites, block all the internet/ mail: leave the websites required/ if your goals involve computers,
  - delete any accounts on social media/ any of those portals which don't bring you closer to your goals,
  - no phone[331], no friends – is best option, unless it's absolutely required/ become a total ghost to everyone around, who doesn't serves you to further your tasks.

- You have to remove anything – any activity, which doesn't [330] It's actually unknown to many that: dirt serves as a protection from pathogens/ limit times – you wash yourself.

You cease to get sick/ when you do – it might be to you a surprise, but wash yourself when only in actual need for it.
[331] Getting completely rid of telephone is very helpful also/ turn it off, to only switch it on once a day, at the end of it.

It's all about what you're willing to sacrifice to get what's desired.
All the others, who rest and don't develop themselves: would pay a very high price later in their lives.

Certain steps are required, and it's accepted by you. "100% or 0%" – live by this rule. Those are the everyday temptations that pose – the highest danger to the accomplishment of your goal. You either play at max – to win, or not at all.

I'm in the immoral enterprise/ got not cash to get out of it.
If you're 'earning' the ill-gotten money: you also know, it's all temporary – 50% is lost, virtually immediately. "Today", you're the master of the Universe yet tomorrow you get back again to being Mr Nobody. It's the true reality. You can't build a solid structure on the sand: understand it. Every immorality in this Universe is punished, people have nothing to do with it although they bring Karma back – you've caused (the pain, suffering – to you), #1.12. You can't escape/ 'getting to a 1 million and leave' – you would be hunted by the Laws, in a 5-15 years time as you have the free will, to learn on your mistakes. It's for you to decide only whether you want to play today/ be in the jail or die tomorrow. It's not worthy, to and everybody would tell you it – you too, know it.

Form an escape plan and mean it, in your head/ tell nobody about it: things, would start to happen – see it as an opportunity, to never come back to any of the immoral situation// see: #1.12 for how to get out, permanently[332] – you'd be helped, very[333] probably financially. Repair the damage done, to your abilities and do what's necessary to get straight, accept it. Karma would be repaid by you either way, but know – you would be helped by the Laws. It's time to quit, and it's now.

If you want the money/ the lifestyle/ the all, you've ever wanted – there is a Law, which operates in this reality and allows it, but you firstly have to leave all the immoral activities behind and truly want it: be willing to pay the price for success, in full. It's the right way, to do it – without an immediate payment, but with a long term, lasting – reward, which is how it should and only can be. It requires you to change your person, so you would be able to get those prizes and manage them in a savvy way – if you think i.e. "and so what, for what I would live when the money runs out"? It enables you to.

You set the prize in your head, i.e. for a particular/ reasonable for you amount of money/ hold it there without changing it and you'd awarded with the task – in your thoughts: you have to complete it at your best, urgently as it's time-limited// see chapter, #2. It would allow you to live, but it's wise to take a day-job if required, #2.31. You're absolutely guaranteed you would get the prize, because those are the Laws – like a force of gravity which operates here/ the only question remains: would you be able to deliver it urgently – being the work done, at your very best – which you're always able to? It would take you 5 to 7 years time of your life, to get what you've dreamed and even beyond.

It's the prize for success. If you're not willing to work/ sacrifice your efforts and life, to do what's necessary and achieve the desired: you would never win, in it.

Wish you luck, pursuing the hard way and always being punished by it.
It's the choice, you have to take.

If you're with the immoral lifestyle – ask yourself honestly: is it worth it?
As of experience, it can be told that the process – moral one, is without no comparison in greatness: to an immoral lifestyle, which ends always only in the disaster. It's the man's wet dream, so take it – take the process, #2 and win the desired, the easy[334] way.

[332] Trust it.
[333] To leave the immoral, with a face/ forever.

There is nothing better, than it.

There is no real alternative to the process, in this reality: if you're not willing to pay the price in full – you won't never have.

Your task is to become, the best – at what you do. If you ever refuse to follow the process when you're in middle of it and your goals are strategic: be conscious that you'd might have a "Groundhog day" movie experience – when you would know, more than you ever should. You can die only in this reality under the very specific conditions (secretive[335] knowledge).

Avoid to dread ever anything – if you've gained appropriate, large knowledge about the object of your fear and investigated all the ways through (key 1/ 17).

Trust, in the process.

Know last thing: the prize would be attained by you/ delivered when you only follow all those lessons to the end – like with the first prize you've received.

Persevere* forever: independent of what you'd encounter.

It's a Law – an algorithm which would get[336] you where you desire to be/ have or possess.

If you do in this reality what's expected of you: preparation, perfecting and mastering you and your abilities – giving a sip of it for others too/ by taking the process, #2 – your life, is a Living dream.

It's the key to happiness/ achievement, at every level.

[334] It's the easiest way, but not initially/ i.e. when you're new, to it.
[335] It's easy in the principle – when you know, but revealing it won't even work because it has to be earned, by you.
[336] Forever/ if you only input the valid data i.e. believable goal & going to the end for it; overcoming all which plays a role of the necessary preparation (where it would be impossible: with lack of those/ to be attained or to have; to be repeated, one more time). Everything, is only a symptom of it (of the cause). Just persevere and deliver/ perform forever, to the very end as the prize awaits, there (directly: it's already ready – if you are ready).
You've might not know it, where you've taken it/ #2: initially.

Your prize would be delivered – you can deliver, but would you?

TAKE THE PROCESS, #2.
NOW.
If you haven't took it, yet.

In the end of their lives, 95% admit that they regret they've lived their lives the way others wanted them to live, never to have the courage to do what they've always wanted (i.e. to follow inner desires of the soul – their fate)/ the remaining 5% probably wasn't able to admit it. Everyone has them, but not everybody would follow, due to perceived false dangers presented in this chapter.

You've got the choice.

You have to understand one thing: it's not whether you've got or not/ beyond the survival means.
It's only about the goal: whether you have the required to perform it, in the process/ #2.

Critics would love it, but they're just screamers/ just ignore them – their faith is known/ #4.49: at end.

Having now 100,000 on the bank account and "tons of bitches" wouldn't help rather my goal: similarly as living in the capitol city where entertainments and everyday distractions would probably ruin me. It will come, I know it but I have to complete my work. I've had other problems than many – you, if you would be in mine situation (i.e. disease): would likely die, due to it. Efforts were invested and I've succeeded with everything I've took through the process/ #2, as I've persevered. I might have none of value to you – now in Adoration, but when I would hit Nirvana/ #1.1 again: I would have everything. You won't rather never truly know, what I'm speaking[337] about as it requires change of your thinking/ #2 (only to be established through it).

I've keep over a year/ belief – in the head, without changing it/ without even touching it or any sign of slightest sign of a disbelief – as I'd knew, I just knew. I would wait for a decade for the occasion, but it came after only a year. I've showed willingness by realizing ideas which went to my mind – instantly, giving all of myself at 100% and a cooperation[338] occurred. I've checked myself performing at other side-tasks with a belief complete in everything and it progressed...

I've had over 100,000 at a time. It's not what you've got that counts, but the development it causes. Loosing those money learned me more than having them and it was the most valuable. It served the purpose. Asking myself: would I heal myself from the deadly disease if I were placed in a 1M+ city, have over 100k+ and NOT a shit-hole city 15k in the center of Poland where the only attraction (distraction) is "Monopoly" shop[339] (liquor store)? Hell no. Maybe you would, but for me: it won't happen – I know myself better/ it only counts (going to cinema once[340] a month would ruin me as I would blow the research money on the premiere-movie I must-to-watch). Temptations. I would see an organic chocolate on the window and I wouldn't pass it/ just the temptations would destroy me as I wouldn't stand to not know everything about the city and all the other. It's the process/ #2. Here I haven't got any of it. No organic chocolate (maybe some bars, introduced recently but '1% of chocolate'[341] (would see this drug – would start to sweat walking by – view it everyday more and more, through the glass window...). We've got here a cinema, but there are no new movies to watch. You can watch here ducks in the river that stinks but even they've left (or they've eaten them, not sure). Everyone left, except my drinking buddy who butchered the person I'd known with a knife (he has butchered

[337] Understanding that it's not about where you are now – is what's important (to be fair: as I've been previously set in 'better' conditions as viewed by the outsiders and was in a much better financial situation, but it was required for the necessary preparation in the process/ #2). You won't see it today or maybe refuse to believe, but you would get to the same conclusion when you would advance in it.

[338] Never questioned everything – just did all, didn't used any of my breaks in job – to get 1.5h faster to home and eaten in 10 minute intervals. BEFORE I was handled the task for which I strived. I've forever placed 100% of my efforts: doing the best work possible, setting – establishing everything to it. It continues to this day & would continue...

[339] When I enter it: I feel like a woman – I'm getting into a shopping spree (craze). / Imagine what will happen to me when I would have an unlimited amount of cash to spend on vodka and other liquors.

[340] It would progress in my case: I'd spend half of the month there/ knowing myself – it would always be the next thing I MUST to view/ watch or which is curious to me/ i.e. "I would die, if not".

[341] I would have to have it/ 'out of sight – out of mind'.

[342] As they would constantly question everything, fear to do things, think too much – speak with others about it.
It's basically for those lazy – who don't care/ they would do: what's told – i.e. formed, in the mind.
Who don't like to work are disgusted by anything which isn't for free/ or that somebody requires, imposes on them.

The lesson to be told, is that if you want what others do have: you have to replicate their methods (do, what they do). The process would reflect those lessons/ #2 (contents of this book). There are methods which do work/ methods which fail – you have to learn, to do it right/ understand it. Like, when you're not exhilarated by your results or interactions with i.e. women, clients – knowledge is that you're making something wrong, which causes it to happen (or either: not doing something).
Adapt/ persevere & your life would change as a result of your actions.
Overcome/ #0.1, #2.

At the end of each stage – the prize awaits/ continue, till.
Forever.

[343] "Maybe the Laws are wrong?" "What if they ..." // basically: they don't care – they don't give a fuck for such type of people – directly speaking (won't let to the vicinity of tasks – if you want to play to 'check out' what they hold for you or name-it). It's an order which you have to follow: realizing it URGENTLY at your PERSONAL BEST.
You'd better die – if you won't. Well: you probably won't be allowed to – it also has been tested. You're fucked until you won't deliver what you've took/ learn responsibility, once and forever. I'm basically trapped in the process/ #2 and it won't let go, but I receive my prizes so I'm comfortable with it (to anything else I don't suit/ would fail, too hard and work for 1,000-10,000 x 8 hours, 5 days a month). I'm far from crazy as much. Day is too much, personally. I wake up when I want want – prefer nights/ do what I want, to only deliver and the rest is dealt.
If I would be required to get to such job to build a skill or would be required to by the process/ #2: I will comply.
I could have nothing, but it's irrelevant because it serves my purpose. When they would change: I would have. It's a Law. It delivers (delivered everything – up to this point)/ would move me to other experiences, environment when I would get or attain the required. The message is clear: those items which most 'wants' to have would compromise all my research, peace of mind and spoil me. I trust the invisible Laws.
What if it's true (for real)? For me – it is. Look at the effects, only/ they're clearly visible.
I'm basically the person who would perform without questioning all the works which are unimaginable, unthinkable or nobody would accept them due to their belief system/ the last, is the core.
[344] A lot for me, at age of 19 – first financial goal (see prev. page): being born and raised in poverty/ & never had none.
[345] Its how'd I got to 75/ received or achieved, the prizes at the breakthrough – break-even moments.
[346] As a new method or system in place would be used, to get/ achieve the desired (to be repeated, to be known).
[347] Wife/ many (difficult word).
[348] However maybe it's something unknown to me...
[349] I've got everything prepared/ covered: before I start anything (i.e. I buy always all the beers I drink, having always for the next series of the same size i.e. 12 beers, like in the cross stations). It's the same with goals.
[350] It's established as obvious for everyone to find out/ religious-texts give the principles...
[351] Like they would knew the whole Universe i.e. experienced and cracked all...
[352] It's not about the profession, but it's an example of one: which might fit your inner desires of soul, #1.11xF.
[353] Those are usually covert i.e. promotion, honors, nice surprises, unexpected bonuses/ i.e. what you want, what you require. It has to be known to you that those can only be aligned with your inner core beliefs (if you refuse to believe – be open, to circumstances or possibilities: they only act accordingly to you).
You must be trained to spot them, because the cause-effect chain is unlikely visible to you at the time.
[354] It's forever advised to select your own prize, because it acts as the best motivator for you – to finish, the work.
At least you would know – what you'd get or for what you strive/ it's: the most important for me.
[355] What is important to you – is irrelevant to me/ in short.
[356] At least, the ones required. I never would accept anything which I didn't earned completely unless it would be required for me to accept it/ or it has to be.
[357] Very likely/ see for the very probable conditions of assigning souls, #2: dependent on your progress.

2.03. ALTERNATIVES TO THE PROCESS

If you aren't mad, at how the things are in your life – there is only one: easy and effective way to change it, forever/ the process, #2. Where's the catch? It's hard, on the beginning/ i.e. 5-7 years mark. The best describes it, a school example – an experience that you've probably had.

	SCHOOL	THE PROCESS
Goal	Get a degree in order to get a well-paid job (in theory).	You work your abilities and accumulate knowledge and experience, required to reach the desired goal/ taking full control over your life. It usually involves becoming financially independent, for life – as it's the primary motivation behind the efforts invested/ to have the ability, to do things when you want them, on your terms solely – to buy everything required or wanted: to do – whatever you

[358] As programs created, i.e. you: who do not perform their function willingly and at a required level – are destroyed.
/ As everything broken i.e. defective, which can't be fixed.
[359] All, in the same space/ but occupying different layers, i.e. dimensions.
[360] Where the subject/ you: doesn't knows about it// as the point, of it.
[361] In the low state of the soul (μ / #1.1): you see those invisible-like; 'transparent textures with moving sparkles'.
An Alien race(s) which occupies us and exploits very likely you: probably developed a technology which would allow it to lower/ upper their frequencies – entering ours/ being hidden, behind the eyes (see evidence, page 103).
A flash ("beam"/ short-term, but noticeable) of light is sometimes present, to be seen – when they do.
[362] In essence: help which didn't helped or rather caused even more trouble incl. addictions etc.
In fact: increased the problem/ for those who spotted it.
[363] It's all mental, but pain is prevalent due to your lack of preparation: you would learn, if you follow.
[364] In my eyes, i.e. worldview – perspective.
[365] They've got doors which open 3 seconds too late – in front of you.
[366] If you wouldn't be required for their goals/ understand it, once.
[367] Computer.
[368] I've got also some books which I use to sweep myself in the toilet: reading – scanning a page before, each time I use it (toilet paper is used by many and it always possess a danger to use/ do, what many do – just such a job perversion).
[369] In your eyes, i.e. worldview – perspective.
I might have nothing in your imagination but the reality is that your wife/ girl probably would want to fuck me – perhaps in 'front of you'/ be calm: won't ever touch her – I'm interested only in super-models, but never won't touch anybody's possession.
[370] It had to be presented – this way// understand.
[371] It transforms your consciousness: you could pull an Uzi for me and start to fire a serie in me and I would run on you and kill you with my bare hands before you would do/ as I wouldn't care.
[372] I do it for the high/ #1.1 // HIGH more important than life (I Live by this rule/& I mean it – seriously).
[373] Cheats, 107 crucial more... Your progress depends on your ability to learn and spot things – all to be learned.
[374] In days, up to weeks at the very beginning of the training itself/ #2 i.e. at your level – forever.

		desire in life. In result: gaining all the desired and even more.
Typically	You need to learn things, usually on memory – that you don't want, need or that are or would become/ prove themselves useless, outdated or obsolete – not needed for anyone, as this information might be easily accessed via other means without the need of their memorization/ for which you're rated and dependent on the score: you either pass or not (which is set with the pre-done scheme, blocking any creativity or any answers that go beyond the pattern).	You attain required knowledge, traits and skills due to practical experience: being served with the circumstances required to perform those particular tasks (by the 'invisible hand'). The learning process is experienced by yourself – there is no theory to it, but only practice. You pass only those experiences, when you deal with them, living the last. For instance, if you require learn the respect for money – you're likely to be put in a situation when you won't have them at all, so you'd be enabled learn to live without financials – it's all temporary, until the lessons are learned fully and when you're ready. However, you're being assisted in an invisible way: being expected to make errors and to learn from your example/ the process itself is guided by the higher intelligence, so you always learn in it and you're always successful at it – if you only willingly continue it (to be accepted 'as is').
Teacher	Usually there is a teacher or few who look and guide you through the process of listening, memorizing and making sure you would learn and repeat the same as you were told – often, not to question their authority or methods used. However, knowledge of the (or those) teachers is only book-based – rarely being practical/ useful in the real life (they've learned in a school and are simply repeaters – some do more with their extra work, but	There is a teacher, although he's hidden behind your eyes and guides you through the invisible hand. Resources/ materials are always already there – found, brought or to be attained – they always get into your hands: you might either spot them in your area or be guided to. Clues, keys and answers to your burning problems are passed to you, i.e. you might find a crucial piece of information when you enter a

You take your own tempo, rhythm of attaining. You choose the ways, which seem viable for you the best: as Laws, adjust to your core beliefs/ basically – to you. You're only rewarded by the effects of your actions – if their insufficient: next lessons are brought to your experience, or you find clues everywhere which tell you what you've skipped or you're directly experiencing the problems. Laws foresight the events, adjust your surrounding to serve the purpose of knowledge increase, so everything what is thrown at you: is to perfect you, master your skill and understanding – provide with the required help to finish the realization of task. They hold All the knowledge in this realm – their effects are absolutely granted.
Perceived* benefits	High-paid job.	NONE. It might seem for you to be no benefit as the road is intricate, long and seems to be complex – because the things you're doing might pose an idea: that they don't make sense at all or are to be considered by you as a worthless spent time. It's also perceived as a path, without an end or with a highly delayed one: where after a certain time – you loose the track of it. It leads to failure after failure, commonly without a noticeable reward, which leads to frustration. You might succeed after years of failure, to keep your motivations afloat – then, to loose it all over again/ for you, in order to be persuaded to continue this path. None or nothing is seen, until the very end/ yet you do the work with pleasure, at the finish of it – as you know: you've won, because of those hardships.

Consequences	Lack of job, due to low level of skill or any other.	You become an expert – the real expert, not the book-theoretical one, but a true authority – in all the meaning of it/ commonly beyond any understanding what is marked as possible to be. You complete the goal, get even more of what you've asked for and are free, to Live independently – having all the resources/ everything else, ever wanted. You're released (by realizing your fate and clearing the debt of this reality, #1.1). Rest is unknown, but you've got a choice to follow the process, which can last till the end of your life and to continue your work/ or to do anything, you desire to. Your life, turns a living dream, because you're ready/ prepared.
Notices	You've believed in it?	You decide.
	If the money would be taken out of the equation and you would hide your fear completely to closet, never letting it go – would you?	Are there any better than this choices, who am I unaware of? What is to be known more?
Conclusions? / personal opinion	Pain, worst than any. It's better to die, really.	Interesting and the most prolific and teaching journey that you would want to Live and continue forever (that lasts!).

It never works the other[375] way.

The true fact, is that you'd be always treated like a piece of garbage, or at least you would feel such inside/ others would prove it to you – until you won't follow your fate. You're risking additionally, to be dumped on the elderly years – asking people for a spare change. You can't fight the whole Universe: only align to it, so it's always better to give up to it completely and win all what's desired, as so.

It's a personal belief of the author, that you're always kicked and trashed – you're always nobody: unless you take the process, #2. After/ near its completion: you're becoming somebody really important, cared for.

It's always hard to start, but easy to continue.

Take the process, #2.

[375] The time the process takes: you spend more time wasting your time in the school/ which is even harder to pass. You're additionally rewarded in the break-even points, of it/ #2.

You’ve got the choice: make it now.

2.1. ATTAINING POWERFUL CONFIDENCE FOR A LIFETIME

It's possibly the most crucial attribute in any achievement. Would cause interest of women, when attained (along with the high level of moral energy, #1.1 and definitely money & resourcefulness, #2.3 yet also #4.2 & #4.1).

ACT FROM NOW ON!

Now, begin to feel just confident. Take immediately a stance which would prove that: push your chest to the front, straighten your back, place the head little above the horizon level, slower your movements and speech, talk from the deep-chest only (to lower your voice) and keep it this way. When sitting, do it in a relaxed way – take more space (do it all, intentionally: fake it until it becomes your second nature). Act from now on – similarly as people, who are confident: believe you are too –/ in the process of becoming. Keep it, this way for at least another six months.

Avoid to look ever upon anyone or anything. Refuse to conform over your more confident friends or others. It has got nothing to do with the violence or aggression – avoid the last, always. Be confident – nobody would notice.

Additionally, begin to talk in your inner[376] dialogue: "I'm starting to feel confident" for a period of at least two months – do it, with the inner conviction (remind yourself constantly, by repeating the phrase at least a dozen times daily with the pressure on a first hour after wake up and an hour before falling asleep). When it would become a truth to you – switch to the phrase: "I'm feeling confident" and repeat it the same way as previous – for a similar period of time. Then, when you would start to feel as such – take another two to three months, using the phrase: "I'm feeling powerfully confident" in rotation, with: "I'm powerfully confident" for the latter period, until it becomes your reality.

Confidence is how you feel about yourself and no material possessions or achievements/ lack of them: should dictate or influence it – in any way. It's the only and simplest way: to become your true self so follow it – by believing in yourself, first.

An illusion, became the reality.

[376] In your thoughts.

START FROM NOW ON AND STAY FOREVER.

It's so easy to start...

2.2. ABANDONING FOREVER ANY HARMFUL ADDICTION, INANE OR BAD HABIT

Drugs limit your possibilities and they do it in both ways: first, by increasing your loss of moral energy, #1.1 (the stronger the drug – the more is lost) and secondly – by disrupting thinking due to the introduction of toxins to your body. It has got consequence as such, that you're: unable to engage in a clear process of acting and planning until the damage done – is cleared by the last, which takes significant time and delays the whole progress, #2.

Sober state of mind is necessary for any achievement, so it would be a fight against you and your inner nature only. By using those substances – you're virtually cutting yourself out of the chance for change. Every drug, even if seemingly not harmful – destroys and interferes with the process of thinking and time is required to restore it, which can only be achieved by becoming and staying clean. It's a part of it to let go, but for instance one-time use of alcohol 'disables' you from your actions towards success, until effects of it pass and it lasts usually up to the next few days. Your amount of free will is reduced and the possibilities attached, to it. Therefore by using or taking drugs, which also include most pharmaceuticals – you consciously lower and temporarily loose your opportunity for change.

Addictions and habits considered as bad: result from the lack of purpose in life. Everyone has got motivations, but not everybody has got still the will, courage and knows what to do, to make his life an enjoyable journey. Drugs seem to fill this need – emptiness, which results from: lack of going along the inner desires of soul, #1.11xF. The last might be also an addition to/ or a result of an immoral[377] lifestyle which overtakes you gradually, #1.14.

> All in life, is brought to a process/ #2. You're changing your nature – i.e. take the journey, you have to start the work – feel the pleasure by doing it, so you must have the responsibility to finish it and you can't e.g. drink or eat drugs. Your boredom is killed, all takes a purpose and you're overdrawn by the process and nothing else matters. Your work, that causes no pain but pleasure as it's set with the inner desires of soul – meaning that you can do it forever, without being or becoming tired until death: sets you apart from others in a very short amount of lifespan and/ by putting a purposeful effort into it and maximizing your efforts to create the best, that is possible – you earn continuously lots of moral energy, #1.1 (μ). Which, eventually leads you to reaching the state of Adoration: on which drugs cease to taste, be desired or a need for them disappears completely (other people with whom you associate are merely a reflection of you – being similar, so in case of subconscious change of thoughts: you would be naturally separated from those who take drugs and they, from you). It's the only escape, refuge or way to take and to leave the old completely behind: changing your life on the very best possible for yourself.

[377] Parasitic/ miserable i.e. no goal, no purpose due to lack of will or followed leniency, by you.

Until you won't find the purpose and decide to go after it, #2: you would always take and continue to spend/ waste your time with the usage of those substances.

DO

Take your time now, independently of what time it would take – as it would rule your whole future life experience: to find what you really want and put the Laws to the work for you, #2[378]. Implement immediately programming, #0.1: if you've haven't done it, yet.

Proceed only, if you're seeking for a greater understanding, dangers involved with drugs or techniques to deal itself with addictions (which might prove valuable to your other goals and needs). Yet also to make sure: you've made consciously the right decision by choosing the full freedom and control over you life (as it sounds, because it's how it is).

It all comes, to the shift of perspective. Instead of looking as an addiction substance as something which makes you happy: kills your boredom, introduces journey and fun to your life – even if temporarily, look instead beyond those short-term benefits and see i.e.

- vision of the next day hangover by actually experiencing now all the tomorrow symptoms/ emotions associated with it,
- huge muscle loss by looking and getting to experience now bicep size decreased by -2cm/
  -0.8" less in circuit (in case of women: to experience now the gain of +1kg of fat on your stomach) as all, by getting into your tomorrow – new body as the result of such choice,
- seeing yourself as a junkie/ alcoholic in the mirror, by experiencing now the looks of people and comments it would arouse[379] in your environment – similarly, as the point above,
- loss of significant amount of money, by actually experiencing now – feeling in mind, tasting and satisfying your senses by e.g. eating those 5 or 9 tastiest organic chocolates existing in this world, which could be exchanged for those funds – or an item desired for so long, that could be bought for the last: by feeling the happiness it would bring/ would be derived from it, in your life – let/ allow this feeling to be much stronger/ focus on gains (or losses – dependent of what motivates you, the most) and stay focused.

It depends, what motivates you. In fact, additional items should be added and used, best – in stacks by seeing, feeling and experiencing it all at once (loss of cash/ buying x by allowing the emotions to surface, loss of muscle, experiencing the next day crash by intensifying things that could be attained by resigning today, etc.). However, probably the best would work specific items e.g. vision and the actual experience of a sleepless night, tiredness and extreme fatigue, night sweats and psychical disaster experienced at this current moment – seeing the consequence, leading long term – to the financial ruin, failure, prison[380] or worse – psychiatric hospital, increased feeling of being empty and loss – and the even harder way of getting out/ i.e. depression, disastrous mood – moral hangover as a result of the action which was to be taken. In the case of harder drugs: sense of paranoia, wasted time and lost life.

[378] In combination, with the #0.1 programming: it would cease erratic drug usage/ bad habits, by implementing an appropriate drives and installing all the other important/ involved (at this moment, first effects should already set or would do as such in another month: removing, in time – all the addictions and other immersing behavior that interferes with the process of change).
[379] Where such news about you: would definitely reach the people your care of or desire to have a particular reputation of you/ the benefits, which would be lost – probably permanently. If you still haven't overcome fully this pre-born programming called the social program: use it wisely for your advantage to assist you, until you break it completely.
[380] By feeling the touch of a male partner and the looks of inmates on your ass/ get the idea.

> You would always come back to your habits until you won't change feelings towards them.

In case of the milder drugs, which are not such devastating – your focus should be rather pointed on various other, which might still be important for you, as e.g.: loss of a partner due to your habits, including financial ruin which might influence or cause it (as drugs still, cost), pain of the future when you would collapse on lungs (visiting hospital and seeing the people in-self, who caught those diseases caused by those habits would be a striking moment) etc. Usually wasted time, effort and money doesn't count, but if you were only to know that your state of health might be drastically experienced in happiness and being free, from any of the substances involved – it might trigger a different thinking, #3.

DO

Poisoning or intoxication with the drug, despite dangerous – is usually effective enough to change those feelings towards the substance, of abuse (with it, begin to self-talk to yourself: 'I start to hate –X'/ 'I hate –X' where the last is a name of the substance similarly as in, #2.1 & followed by "I'm free from any drugs")/ 'stopped to use, ceased the habit' etc.
Associate/ experience drugs as something truly evil: they're, for losers.

If those, aren't motivating hardly enough – think about the opposite sex: if you would stay clean for a period of 7 months – you would attract the dreamed partner to your life (let it be something, only you would know, believe in and pursue – test it, before you would take any stance and implement, #4.1). It might be the hidden sole cause[381] for your fate.

Stay later clean, for your own self. All the other apply, from #1.3 (delaying, focusing thoughts on something else, rejecting to listen, convincing the inner Satan, ignoring, envisioning completion of the work etc.). If you've got however a problem with letting the opposite, wrong side of your nature – to voice: you should, imply also various other techniques which might also be helpful when it comes to being rejected, towards the usage of any desired substances.

[381] You've got such motivations for which you would willingly sacrifice the immediate pleasure, but they're yours to find, #1.11xF (they would be found and it's guaranteed by the universal Laws, however effort and the change of will – is required first)/ #2. Those presented in the work are just examples and the real ones, who really work i.e. motivate you the most: can be only found by you.

IMPLEMENT

Take a sterile razor blade now and make yourself – very, very slowly: a narrow cut in any area where no veins are present, e.g. on the top of left arm or leg: feel the harsh pain involved (very uncomfortable) and remember it very profoundly – letting the last distribute over your whole body completely (the experience itself would cause a lasting memory[382]). Listen carefully now: every time now, when you would see the object of your desire: which you want to deeply quit – it would now would be brought back to your surface – this painful feeling, so you'd be experiencing[383] it again all the time continuously – until you would resign/ it would last, until you won't change your mind and go away off[384] the drug – covering all the justifications you would have, if any. Cross your third and fourth fingers of left hand (see image on the right – above) and associate: that it would be always brought back on demand, when you would want to use it, for your own purposes.

Just do it.

The 2nd technique, introduced in the #0.1 programming: is much more powerful – therefore use it, if you've haven't yet (which would block all such attempts – immediately, independent of your will or thought – takes min. 3-5 weeks to take an effect after inductions were introduced and has a permanent, lasting impact).

It all starts with a deep desire for change and the first action towards it.

[382] If it's not enough: use a blunt razor/ i.e. dirty, rusty and oily would very probably enhance the effect caused.
[383] If you fear: take a very sharp knife and move through it a hand with your fingernail of the single, last left-hand finger – it should also cause an unpleasant, lasting sensation (knife stays at place). Methods used might vary, but the point is to cause: a lasting, very unpleasant, piercing and most painful – sensation which would be deeply remembered, by you/ i.e. needles sticked under specific points of fingernails: select your method (last, might be harmful).
[384] Embed it, in the programming – #0.1/ 2nd recording, if you have to: through constant repetition of the formula, in bold/ adapt the sentence – to fit your needs (context stays the same).

The above might work for the drugs or substances, but it won't cause an everlasting effect. For this you need to deeply understand on a conscious level why you perform those actions and change them at will: if you only want to. If nothing is to change you: look for the consequences you would be lead to – if you continue your habits (read it, as it's applicable also to any, even recreational/ occasional usage).

LEVEL OF MORAL ENERGY (M)	CONSEQUENCES
Friendliness M > 0.36	You likely start here, never usually reaching any higher states of the soul/ i.e. in all your lifetime. Assume you begin from μ ~ 0.4 which stands for the most people in our society. Compared that μ (moral energy) for Nirvana is not less than 0.6 – it's slightly more than a half (information from #1.1 is required to understand this mechanism). You take drugs, it starts as a single-time event and then, in time – it progresses to once a month: you start to discover it's pleasurable. You might increase the amount of meetings and start to change circles in which you're spending most of your time (as friends, who do not take – seem for you to become less interesting, less life-oriented or lame). It progresses, but has a tendency for repeated and more frequent usages (usually leading to everyday experiences or at least two or three times a week). CONSEQUENCES. If you maintain your day-job (not being laid off due to loss of μ by keeping straight and caring, even if less – the moral energy is contributed and you might continue to take the repeated doses, unless it doesn't influences highly your earning abilities). Pros of taking drugs, is that they might relax you – to have a little break after work, but due to increased flow of moral energy (μ, felt as a pleasure – the false[385] feeling of happiness and power): your reserves are burnt with a higher speed, dependent of the drug, where in case of not earning back this energy through work, all to stay at a particular level – creates a potential for your decay, #1.1 (slipping in the moral field, below). Basically, the only drugs which do not interfere significantly with the ability to perform work by people are alcohol – if not abused seriously, nicotine and caffeine, theobromine/ which are also the weakest – potential is set, after the ability to release the moral energy. Less known, or those who can be added to the list are: salvia dinovorum[386] and natural ephedra (ephedrine)[387]. Other drugs might include: marijuana[388], amphetamines, mephedrone, cocaine, methamphetamines, dextromethorphan, painkillers (pharmaceuticals), psychotropic drugs (benzodiazepines, [385] Window shopper might be the keyword and it would be left as such, as a clue for the quest to find the answer/ why.

[386] Its usage might be dangerous if not in vicinity of a moral person, rather not a popular psychedelic drug.
[387] Causes you to sleep too much, so it's usually banned or restricted in the society due to this effect (deadly when overdosed even for the healthy).
[388] Using it, is the surest way to become a failure (due to THC accumulation in the body – in the brain which acts like a mud disabling any real progress, which lasts for 3 months from the last smoke or ingestion – being a specified time required to get back to yourself, fully/ as smokers might not notice this state).

anti-depressants, for night-sleep etc.) and other (those commonly have a greater release potential, which produces more rush/ high – pleasure and feeling of power, peace, love etc. dependent on type of the drug and therefore – by ability to cause deficits which aren't usually able to be replaced in the pace of time, the drug is used – leading very often to your significant decrease in the level of moral energy/ i.e. your decay).

DANGERS
Additionally you would discover or it was an occurrence to you at least few times, as a result of the drugs deals: to get more of the drug for yourself, to sell the rest and support your habit (becoming unwittingly a drug dealer, taking the extra risk or no-risk, in your mind/ perception).

Provocativeness

Character changes: look for details, #1.1.

If you don't fall below μ < 0.3: the states of powerful depression won't be present (it's a point, where rarely few have been – you loose any sense of pleasure from anything and want to commit a suicide due to it/ extremely, intensely unpleasant state which brings an immense suffering and a first serious warning sign – about crossing the wrong path).

- You (most of the people) end due to it in a doctor's place where you're prescribed anti-depressant drugs (which taking – releases μ and you've might feel improvement: which leads to the state below).
- You (some) recover, if you avoid to continue the usage of drugs[389] and find a purpose, but most actually fell even lower.
- You (few) end your life/ rare.

If you do drugs seriously all the time: you've might skip this state without knowing it, although if you won't die and would want to recover from them – it would be felt on the way back probably twice the intensity/ which would be the hardest part, before getting to yourself.

Malaise
M < 0.2

Character changes, #1.1.

In this stage, if you continue to do drugs – powerful states[390] of paranoia would set in.
For instance after the usage of those substances: you would start to feel a sense of insecurity – visible and invisible attacks on your home would be perpetrated. You might hear voices inside your head that would speak about killing, robbing or arresting you, being also extended to taking your possessions and others (where such planning might be performed by the people you've known or know at the moment – all to be done in their tone of voice). It's completely believable for you as you see the evidence, everywhere.

The last might lead you to do something stupid like e.g. calling cops and saying your story, buying and planting alarms in your home or any other actions which might help to prevent them from [389] It includes also predominantly avoidance of any anti-depressant/ psychotropic drugs.

[390] Depression goes away because we're lower and it hasn't affected you enough – although your state even worsens.

On lower μ < 0.15: it would reach the next level.
You might be now covering yourself all in cry and death-serious fear e.g. in a bathroom: where the friend you'd known might hold an axe to cut your head off. You've might hear someone knocking to your doors, view through the glass and see the two people who would start to break-open them – fighting with all the force you've got (e.g. to keep the lock, where it would actually open on your eyes and you would feel the immense pressure: to fight, the hardest battle in your life – for survival). Interestingly, when you would be forced to open the doors as you would need to go out/ or rather somebody will have to, somehow – you would see and face: nobody, but the fear you would have would be beyond any comprehension.

It's viewed for the outside world as a paranoid schizophrenia and it might lead to your arrest/ psychiatric hospital (tied with belts to bed, drugged). You know, that it's happening for real and it is.

Very few get here. Your character changes again and an increasing immense feeling of emptiness, is touching.

Here can happen all/ everything that is both: possible and impossible. Motives from hell can be seen.

Destructiveness
M < 0.1

You start to see ghosts (demons, spooks) who constantly attack you. It's the last warning signal that you've entered a very dangerous track and if you won't discontinue drugs with the way of living – you enforce upon others and yourself: you would die.

They start to appear situations such as paranoia's, delusions, psychosis: which might be dangerous (ghosts are the primary cause for suicides, as you simply won't withstand and as a follow up: everything seems better than to deal with them – see image on the right of such example creature, seen on this low state of morality[391]).

They have the ability to interact with physical objects, ex. might open your wardrobe, move it as a whole (it happens for real and it's not a delusion, because you're forced each time to move it, to e.g. get to the toilet) or change water from cold to boiling hot even if the handle is impossible to move[392].
In such state, things happen that can be only understood by you and [391] It might be enhanced and seen fully e.g. when using camera in sepia mode. Notice that the last: can take any form or shape and it's only seen to the affected person – for the outsiders it might be viewed as a fight with a shade, if only caught/ the last might force them call for help (= imprisonment).

[392] When recorded – camera might be switched off and dozen of hours with such movies showing it as a true and confirmed: might turn into a few minutes of worthless film – showing that nothing has actually happened (changing the content of all [!]). From this very reason: nobody can prove it, unless experienced on self (where all those things happened to you/ for real).

experienced. The worst nightmares and hugest fears are exploited fully and to the very limits (ghosts seem to know them along with your thoughts, intentions and concerns). It's also worth notice, that they've got the ability to change completely the surrounding reality, in which you're placed in. For instance you might have 'visions' and it might show up that you're in the center of a horror: your eyesight would be changed as a scene based on your reality – you might suddenly see the storm, all can become darkened, a high wind can appear and next figure of a huge demon can be shown to your eyes, which would take a dialogue with you, for him to disappear suddenly and you would get your sight back, to see all those people walking to a job, without any thought – like a robots.
When you would walk down the street – one element from the environment can be changed. For instance, you might see on a 2km/1.24mi parking: that every car would be a police bus – in addition you can approach any of them, touch and see that – it's real, whether when you would go after a corner, to be on the way back in a minute: cars would now be back normal and again – you can check, by touching and confirming, that it's the reality.
One time, you might see a pouring gas to your home by the mail in your doors – you would feel its taste and smell (probably start to suffocate and experience it as poisonous): where after, you would escape from home in flip-flops and want to go to the hospital to get the detoxification (your greatest and the most afraid fears would be used, all of them – if you won't change the way you're going). Whether, when you go out on the open – it would be a fog and all would have a horror-like type of appearance: people would disappear and cars on the streets would be left limited to those for which you would want to ask for help to get, to it – to tell inside your story about the 'terrorist attack' on your home to a doctor and beg to save your life by giving you an antidote (for sure you would be dirty, neglected – you would have it written on the face, however for the most – you would be perceived as a hugest wreckage that can be seen with one's eyes, but you would be thinking that you're the best and know everything, nothing has got rights to touch you) to after a few minutes time, escape from the hospital – in fear that they want to kill you there (hearing sooner thoughts of people and seeing the next team, which already prepares poison and trolley with a black bag). You usually get crazy and end up your life – jumping from the bridge or any other inflicting death situations – which you've might be lead into: if not taking the will for change. Ghost would do everything to take you from the path you've chosen and if you revert – you would get help or be left without being harassed. The last might also jump you on the head and cause a headache beyond any comprehension, by drilling your skull. You can't fight them as they exist on a different layer (it's more to it, many other things happen: descriptions were only of the selected few – everyone has got their own sensitive areas that would be exploited – if anytime he would reach this state, and all of them would be – becoming a manifestation of your hugest, the most uncomfortable and life-threatening personal horror with you as the main character in it, that turns sour, is highly dangerous and very serious, because your life can be taken away).

In $M < 0.01$ there would be an attempts by the entities from the lower dimensions to retake your soul (nobody gets here and survives). It's your very last chance to revert back and to recover: where the will to survive and change – probably with a lifetime promise, is required – and a strong resolve that you would prove yourself in life, becoming the best what you can be (you would do whatever it takes to conquer all the obstacles, to be able to live).

	It all happens for real. Understanding that other people might be affected by those entities e.g. when leaving the place of accommodation and going back to your home country, in fear that the house is haunted: partner which shared the apartment with you – when he would go from the kitchen – where he turned off before all the sink handles and closed the window to get a shower: on the way back, he might be faced with a water running from the tap, huge vapor and face an opened window – to run out from the home in absolute fear, which might be important for some.
Moral death M = 0.	You die (death is brought upon you, as you're unable in this state to inflict it by yourself).

Experiences as such, change a person and you don't need to go necessarily below the M < 0.3-0.2: for them – to be permanent. The real horror is to rebuild your moral energy levels, where the real pain[393] starts over.

It needs to be known, that the real danger of taking drugs is perforated aura[394] (as due to drop in moral energy caused by them – the last becomes deficient). It invites all sorts of dangers and bad: starts to appear in your reality[395] (associated with the unmoral, parasitic and easy life without the conscious effort and work, #1). Need for drugs is increased, being stronger and progresses with the drop – as they're used mainly to mask your suffering of the soul and to relieve the tension, caused by it's low levels. The outcome might be such, that 'something would get into you' and you would e.g. severely beat somebody to get a prison sentence of i.e. 1 on 5 years probation (you might not be able to explain it, even for yourself – what happened, like not[396] you: because your body was in fact possessed and the harm inflicted by it – would land you a negative Karma, #1.2 – for the suffering caused upon others). Therefore, by taking this path – you invite all sorts of negatives and pain, which would result in a disastrous Karma (as your body might be used for the immoral purposes): problems, prison, psychiatric hospital and death (whether things like e.g. loss of fortune, health and life aren't even accounted – as they're dispensable).

Everyone below μ < 0.35 using drugs: is used for the immoral, however with the intensity varying accordingly to your levels of moral energy (beating, petty crimes i.e. theft, murder).

When the drop in moral energy progresses or you're bouncing out of the bottom – it's nearly impossible you won't be caught doing something which is not accepted or tolerated by the society i.e. a suicide attempt/ telling your story about ghosts or attacks perpetrated by them/ presence of somebody which caused your specific actions or either you would want to get willfully any help from the outside. Nobody, usually recovers alone. It leads to a psychiatric hospital, doctor's place (being drugged) either voluntary or involuntary (or prison).

[393] It's very easy to drop fast: through the usage of drugs. With unrestrained consumption – it could be achieved in a less than three months time, to hit the μ ~ 0.01. It might be the sole reason why you haven't got the unrestricted access to drugs/ i.e. in legal terms, to the society.
[394] You're surrounded on a level hidden behind your eyes, with a 'bubble': which protects you from the entities of lower dimensions/ that feed on the moral energy, #1.1.
[395] As how it's inside – it's outside: if you feel depressed inside/ your reality can't be bright – in such meaning only.
[396] The "get into me (i.e. drug), but don't take (rule) me (i.e. entities)"/ when e.g. drinking vodka, phrase.

There, you would be given a choice: either take the pills voluntarily or be forced to (if not: IV which is a substance in liquid form, directly to the veins or muscles – would be administered). Independent of the choice[397] taken: you would suffer greatly, beyond imagination. The psychotropic drugs are also given in a liquid, so it's a rare chance you would escape or cheat the enforcers (they avoid to care whether it is moral or not as nearly all the patients take them voluntarily and nobody would listen – either way: you won't be able probably to talk after the first dose, so it won't matter to anyone).

It's sufficient to eat few of those pills (benzodiazepines, anti-psychotic/ schizophrenia drugs, sleeping aids, tranquilizers). You can be sure, that you would receive them nearly all at once (with the IV shot, on the start). Such 'help' would be received by you, that you won't probably never look the same on any of the drugs. Turned into a zombie, unable to think – for others it would look as you're getting normal, but inside: you're already dead – unable to grip a thought, act and having thoughts to end your life as it is[398] (being paralyzed mentally and physically). You maybe laugh from it or not, but it's seriously the most miserable reality you could EVER have.

You would pass those three to five or six weeks. Those few absorbed pills would cause your brain to dysfunction, but you would be released one[399] day. Now, you would be facing the next choice (being at this point: unable to think or do anything). Hopeless, destroyed more by those potent poisons than by any of the drugs taken in a whole lifetime, together – you would have to decide whether you would continue to use those psychotropic drugs they've administered you (being a far much easier option, because side effects are nothing in comparison to the withdrawal symptoms, but on the other side: they would cause you to fail miserably in life and loose it, forever) or to quit them completely – to never even let anybody introduce them again to your body.

Loose your life or flush them completely – it's a result of your choices taken in the past. Know however, that taking them on a continual basis would worsen your health and kill you as your organs would fail, you would get sick: being persecuted to a painful, slow and terrible suffering before you would die due to constant usage of them. Those highly potent poisons: destabilize your whole body, choke your spirit and lead to the worst of worst (it can't be explained to anyone, as it's like having a plastic bag wrapped around you). Life of suffering and misery at the very best awaits – if you won't expel them completely from you.

[397] 10 seconds is an average time: you've got to spit out the pills as they absorb in saliva and it's the end (be once caught and you're done – it's a very hard task, to be not to, due to this limited time). You would very likely be caught, if doing so.
[398] Being unable to, due to lack of thinking possibility or tools which might have be used: as even shoelaces are taken.
[399] Court might give power to doctors, so they would decide when it's the time (usually you would be required to pass the impossible in such state of thinking – intelligence/ emotional tests or whatever, which are probably the most hard tasks to do). It's a belief that they're designed purposely such way, to keep you for more time as they're paid for the period: you're kept there and if you won't pass – you won't get released.

If you decide to win your life back – you would be forced to quit them, once and forever (know although, that for instance benzodiazepines can't be quit suddenly as if taken in long term – they might cause your sudden death). The process is unbearable. Strongest will to choose, out of desperation – that it's better to die, than continue the usage of them (as they too produce a variety of symptoms which are more than annoying, painful and barely to withstand) independent of any other, to quit suddenly – you would be faced with months, in a row[400] with: headache, agitation and restlessness, anxiety, feelings of terror and panic attacks, blurred vision, chest pain, depersonalization, depression (may be severe), possible suicidal thoughts, unreal (feeling of unreality), dilated pupils, dizziness, dry mouth, dysphoria (irritability, explosiveness, grouchiness, immense sadness), electric shock sensations, increased blood pressure, fatigue and weakness, flu-like symptoms, stomach and digestive problems (irritable bowel syndrome), hearing loss, headaches, hot and cold flushes, hyperosmia (sensitive taste sensation), high blood pressure, hallucinations, delusions, hypochondria (conviction of at least one serious and progressive disease, psychosomatic), increased sensitivity to touch, increased sensitivity to sound, increased frequency of urination, hesitation, insomnia, impaired concentration, impaired memory and concentration, loss of appetite and weight loss, metallic taste, mild to moderate aphasia (loss of speech), mood swings, muscle spasms, cramps or fasciculation, nausea and vomiting, nightmares, numbness and tingling, obsessive-compulsive disorder, paresthesia, paranoia, feeling that stationary objects are moving, sweating, photophobia, orthostatic hypotension (dizziness when standing up combined with blurred vision), sleep disorders, restless legs syndrome, sound is louder than usual, stiffness, taste and smell disorders tachycardia, tinnitus (ringing in the ears), tremor, visual disturbances, and sexual dysfunction (decreased libido, impotence, loss or decrease in response to sexual stimuli), akathisia (agitation, inability to sit still in one place – the need to stand up and sit down: coercion continuous being in motion, etc.), panic attacks, irritability, hostility, aggressiveness, worsening of mood and disapproval, mood swings, hyperactivity or irritability, decreased concentration, slow thinking, confusion and problems with memory/ concentration (difficulty) including: loss of appetite , runny nose, anhedonia/ century depression (death is easy, compared). It is probably the hardest challenge in life (you could have – to pass this process, survive it).

It takes a year time for you to get more or less get back to yourself, but after two – to go back completely as you were before the psychiatric hospital. You shouldn't fear drugs, but the places you would get as a result of their usage.

[400] If not all or nearly all of the symptoms, at once.

Why I can't feel the way like on drugs for my whole lifetime – you would ask?

Well, you can and actually drugs permit only to feel practically in 0.01% the intensity of what is felt on Nirvana/ #1.1 (of 100% that is, lasting forever). This work, is all[401] about it (and the material possessions, attained additionally – rather as a side effect). Your health, can be restored and brought back to 100% by taking the process, #3: which might resolve the need to take stimulant drugs or either energy drinks, to be allowed to have any sort of energy/ power and – to resign forever from any addictive pharmaceuticals which cause the extensive drain of moral energy.

You must however invest those 5-7 years time, acting accordingly to rules in order to attain – taking a drug, is an immediate fix and very temporary: taking all the hardship of the path, which is developmental to you, but can produce this feeling multiplied by million to last forever, so it's the only choice you can have.

> Dropping any bad habit is easy, because continuing it: is much harder.

In order to do it, you would need to drop the drug-usage habits, because only then the change would be possible/ it includes particularly quitting all the psychotropic drugs. If you're not ready yet for this decision: take your time to make it and come back only when done so.

IMPLEMENT

Avoid to take or use any drugs[402] (includes pharmaceuticals).

However, if you must – limit yourself to alcohol-only (watch although on one made from GM-components – if your stomach hurts or any other sensations appear which shouldn't: it's poisoned[403]).

STOP to take any drugs and focus on life (#2-present – as this is actually the process which would take to Nirvana).

[401] How to get effectively high i.e. be happy for a lifetime/ as its subject: this book is merely about your happiness – something, which everyone lacks or has no knowledge of.
[402] Cigarettes predominantly and coffee, included.
[403] Wheat, corn and other popular grains were already modified genetically, #3.21.

Drugs involve intoxication of the body. Until, the last won't detoxifies itself: which produces a variety of symptoms, known as withdrawal effects – you won't heal and recover. It involves, that the potential for usage: to take drugs – is huge, as it's far much easier to extend the time until those symptoms appear. It's a mechanism of the addiction, supported by many other variables i.e. social group, memories, boredom etc.

IMPLEMENT TO QUIT

Imply to yourself, that you want change: to leave the old behind and hold to it.
Know, that you're dropping now all the bad habits at once – including cigarettes and coffee, because you're always doing it right – the first time or not doing anything, at all. Continue, until such decision won't be made by you (the last mentioned also heavily disrupt and influence your thinking and they – must go too). Use programming, #0.1 for at least a period of three months: to follow thereafter and implement immediately, techniques from the beginning of this chapter.

Gain supplies[404] for up to a month: ensure you've got all and instruct someone[405] moral to lock you in a house arrest, with no ways of escape. Stay at it for a period of one to three weeks, without access to any of the drugs.

In the first days, it's best to use herb: Semen Ziziphi Spinosae – to just sleep them all (forbidden is to use any other synthetic aids).
Diet, should be mainly consisted of organic – high in sugar fruits and vegetables, #3.21.
Absorb yourself in a computer games or any other activities which would allow you to let go from the thinking: off the drugs – those first days are crucial.

Additionally:

- Instruct somebody/ i.e. respected & huge: to beat you severely, when caught/ mean it.
- Avoid to read, think through or visit any sites or information associated with the drugs, period. Delete all accounts permanently and block access to such pages. Focus, on the important: your life and projects you would start to perpetuate after.
- Know, that you've stopped to take any drugs so if anyone would ask you – reply automatically that you've ended i.e. 'thanks, I've quit; thanks, I've stopped completely'.
- Believe in yourself as it's entirely possible for you to be and stay clean (all would change, in time – due to your today's efforts).
- Know, it's easy to stay clean and abandon any substances of abuse.

Instruct somebody to put a sixty whips over your naked buttocks and back: everyday – for the period of three months straight (in a row).

Keep in mind, that if you won't stop: psychiatric hospital, downfall of moral energy is awaiting for you, so it's better to grow up and end those habits now. Nirvana/ #1.1 and a desired life is waiting, if you only pass those 5-7 years time, which is yet to be attained by you – being clean, is a requirement.

In your thoughts: create a new vision of yourself – being a brand new person of success which is free out of any harmful addictions. It's crucial to change the perspective: feel neutral or even hate to the substance[406] as – it's not, something your – new successful you would use/ best is to get yourself on starvation, #3.1: immediately after and continue the health restoration/ #3. It would trigger the process of change.
When the taste appears after – as it would: purposeful life – programming, #0.1 and the technique presented in beginning – would block you from any return. Know it and take the process, #2.

[404] Use Cascada Sagrada for nicotine withdrawal, #3.3/ very small doses of cytisine might ease the symptoms.

Pain, is actually the most[407] effective method to focus your thoughts and abandon thinking about the drugs involved (which alone would cause you probably – to run for the dose). When the habit has been dropped, which takes time – watch yourself to keep[408] that way: it should be very easy, as you've changed already feelings towards it (or they would be changed, in time – by the programming, #0.1). Be very cautious with the usage of alcohol, because it opens a gate to the old habits, so best: avoid to drink anytime – if you've only completed the detox. If you want to be a person of success: you must abandon all drugs/ therefore, do it – now.

There is nothing to be attained through the usage of drugs long term, in reality.
All is an illusion of friendship, completed job or extracted information via the consumption of them. For you, it's best to stay away – the last are only to be used by those who live to tell about the dangers involved. Wasted lives and a cascade of problems – this is the truth about the drugs, any of them – including recreational usage.

In 2013: efforts were taken to decrease drastically planet's population. As the governments, who control the drug money and the whole trade – setting a war for an independent dealer: product has been contaminated with poisons which act after a time delay – intoxicating consumer. Their continual consumption would result in your faster death, as those who take: are the burden for the society – it applies also to occasional users.

Humans can be compared to ant colonies. If one of them would take something and die immediately or shortly after – the whole colony would discard the food. However, if they would be poisoned by it and would die due to ongoing consumption of it: the habit would be continued, never to be seen or identified (being applied to the combination of many toxins, released).

Therefore, it's not anymore a want: but a must. Those who would refuse to adapt by stopping the usage now: would die first, in result. It's serious (drugs include also cigarettes[409] and alcohol, poisoned by the GM-by products and possibly other).

Adapt or die, in the gene race.

In case of Marlboro – you're addicted also to other highly potent substance, but just withstand the initial period/ easy.

[405] Use for this purpose: best – few people and tell them to come back on a shared day (have a trusted person or even few of them which can't be overpowered – make them visit you, everyday). Avoid rather any places where other addicts are present/ and any contact with them.

[406] As not being something attractive/ appealing, to you.

[407] Essentiality is to block yourself access to drugs/ to limit it totally as no drugs equals to no use: find such methods, burn all access routes and contacts – so you're unable to take, buy from anyone you know. The most contributing factor which plays a crucial part in habit formation, is the sense of control: by using any substances – you're loosing it even more/ therefore: stop to take them, forever. Health, is the key difference when it comes to the last: as you're being unable anymore to take/ find such elements, in you.

[408] You might ask: how to turn other people to stop? You're in this game alone and you should only focus on yourself – it's the secret. You've got control over yourself only and it's the one thing you can change. Others might have got other paths – they need to follow for their own development and you should leave them alone. Usually, one must hit the rock-bottom to want the change. Keep however pointing consequences constantly of their actions which affect you and put the pressure that it results, from the drug abuse (take any action towards, if only touched or influenced you – due to such habits, #1).

[409] Certain 'brand' cigarettes, without an excise – are also involved/ they don't need to burn your tongue when inhaled in order for them, to be poisoned (as of 2013, i.e. similarly as toxin is experienced on tongue when consuming an organic potato – a burning irritation in the back of the mouth and side of the tongue). Pesticide embedded in the cigarettes kills only the smoker as it's burned on inhale/ abandon forever this senseless habit, now.

Ending other addictive habits, is quite easy – you must stick to the feeling of i.e. keeping the money that you've got and let the idea of multiplying them through gambling: to just let it go. In a case of being addicted to food: through implementation of the guidelines, #3-#3.21 – you would be allowed to eat much better and even tastier/& even more without gaining on the weight (starvation is required at beginning, so take the effort – it's easy to complete, as hunger is covered by water in every instance/ it's all mental). It's all brought up basically to being happy from – what you've got: to have more in a moral sense, #1 and only possible thanks to introduction of the programming, #0.1 (as consequences[410] of such habits are higher than what they give, if anything of value – at all). Implement it, to change your patterns of thinking and in effect: get the best out of life.

In the end, when the experiences cease – those who stay longer with drugs and escape the responsibility, to discontinue them: suffer addictions, which lead to a moral decay (as they take more, than put in). Those substances are in the end for those defected and weak: who avoid to have the courage – to win in life. Those die first, because of their usage.

For the rest: if you refuse to quit now – you would pay for it, one day (disasters would strike and your whole life would be in darkness, again). It's not worthy of it and you're not worthy to take any of those substances, believe in it and ignore – all the rest. Maybe, one day: you would understand it and discover – a new and better life, due to this one single decision.

You're being ripped off as drugs are a rip-off to the real thing.

It takes effort to drop your old habits, but it's entirely possible for you – know it.
If you continue to use drugs – you would achieve little in life and be prevalently a failure. Use alcohol, if you must: to intoxicate yourself and stay with it, only.

Begin the process, #2 and all the rest would follow and align to you – go for the Nirvana.

It's the ultimate drug of the drugs, #1.1 - #0.1. You've never been high, if you haven't tasted it (at bare minimum x100 multiplier from the strongest[411] drugs in existence). No hangover/ no cash needed, lasts eternity. It's a high beyond your/ anyone's imagination.

These words are written in it.

[410] Learning to respect and appreciate what you've got already: might play a crucial role – letting the idea of an immoral, fast gain. Until you won't usually hit the rock-bottom: change might be not possible (although you can make it right now, it's easy but you have to first believe and just start the process, #2). Deal with the harm you've caused, #1 and all the rest: would unfold for you to start a new, better life/ the sought-after one, of a great adventure and passion.
[411] Where the last: doesn't lasts i.e. 2, 4 or 12 hours but i.e. a few years straight, constantly and you're eternally high. It's the type of feeling you would love, to be permanently in: where everything, is the most pleasurable experience/ sensation ever, being itself alone the highest and the most intense high you can experience, in this realm/ #2.

2.3. FINANCIALS

Money are essential to sustain yourself on a level required – to pass the stages in the process, #2. Therefore, they should be used wisely and effectively: because deficits of them might delay or turn even impossible the completion of goals. Besides, your activity hours – time when you're able to perform at your best: is also limited, so it's the most important issue – to manage them right.

2.31. Planing budget to have money for yourself

Those who avoid plan – usually have less or much less, despite also often having nothing. Planning is crucial to any success, therefore start now.

DO

Take a pen and piece of paper – draw the table, as below and put all you expenses, liabilities and fill all the rest, counted precisely.

Table below represents sample financial budget for a young person driving abroad to work.

NET INCOME		EXPENSES
Job salary/ paycheck	1,500	Renting room	300
		Food	320
		Alcohol and party	300
		Other (purchases of 'necessary' like e.g. chain, clothes, money spent on seemingly much needed items)	600
		Driving to work	50
ASSETS GENERATING INCOME		LIABILITIES/ TAKE MONEY OUT[412]
-		Phone (new device took on a monthly tariff)	50

There is always less, than it should be when spending isn't planned.

If you've got for instance monthly payments of 40 for the paid subscriptions e.g. of newspapers/ contact lenses, 25 per month to keep your bank account – premium, television for 60, phone 50 and maybe some additional, monthly fee of 40: every month it accumulates to 215. Multiply it, by 12 months and you've got 2580 each year loss!

[412] Money taken out/ if your home takes more money than its maintenance – it's a liability.

How much many days free of work, you would have – if you were to resign: from those dispensable things?

Know, that costs mount massively. Keep them at bay.

Until you won't gain the abilities required to breakthrough by taking the process, #2 – it's required for you, to change the way of your financial thinking.

DO

Sum up all, what you've got already up to this moment. Place your value on all the items.

Now, put on it – everything, except the money itself – 25-35% value. It's your real net worth.

Do you see now – that the things which you might prize, like e.g. clothes, personal items are with less value to anyone except you? How much time, you would sustain yourself if you were to sell everything/ e.g. be in a need of leaving the home country with 1 bag: having a week time for it?

Independent of the reasons, it's time to stop as this is the path: of useless consumption followed by many/ probably you, which leads nowhere – where you would desire to be. There is no happiness, in the end – in it.

Look, you're working all the time – for things. Keep running all the time, to chase after them.

They cost you money to maintain, pay the rent and all the other fees included. However, they also consume your time and peace of mind, as you have to protect them additionally (look after, repairs etc.).

The outcome, final one – is that you're getting or might get into a debt, to be able keep the level of your life. It's a downward spiral, which leads to an emotional disturbance. If you're not on this road yet – due to lack of planning or saving and limiting your expenses: you would find yourself now or later, very probably/ eventually.

It leads to failure/ being forced upon a retirement funds. You've become a slave, who needs to work for the money.

Value of items, is really – in the end: low – as they can be stolen, become spoiled/ broken or damaged by a potent toxin which would destroy them – disabling you from even touching/ not even mentioning the usage of them.

However, you're in need to have the basic items required for your survival i.e. water, food, clothes and shelter. It's all required, however also tools essential to increase your earning ability and enhance your knowledge and understanding. Anything except it, if it doesn't serves the goal – is dispensable.

There is no reason into acquiring more, until the goals aren't realized.
Then, you can have all what you've wanted.
Discipline, is required.

You’re in this game alone, so focus on what’s important/ realization of the goal – ignore all the rest.
If you’re aimed at impressing the other people: know, that no one is really impressed by such stance of you, yet it creates envy and falsehood.

Understand that.

You're required to free yourself from the material, to the point of need and not a want. It would only then be possible for you to focus on the most important in life – without it, any effort is futile as financial trap – is the most destructive. It means for you: to start live now below your financial means in order, to gain unbelievably more.

> It doesn't matter how much you earn, but how much you keep.
> Anything, which doesn't contributes to the achievement of your goal is mostly redundant.

If you're suffering whether to resign or not from whatever – ask yourself: is this item required for me to sustain myself/ can it be replaced or supplemented by something I've got or is it to be attained in a less pricey way i.e. borrowed?

Paid subscriptions might easily be replaced by free information from the internet – those for items, are dispensable and probably not required for the achievement of goal, anyway (or probably could be bought less expensively, i.e. ~~contact lenses~~, #3.98B/ at auctions).

Television is forbidden for you: if you want to breakthrough or be an achiever in life, as it pours the negative information to amygdala which causes the interference and diminishes your life (it reprograms the patterns of your thoughts, so you're going with the flow). It's also extended – the ban, to any 'official' press – typically, the most popular magazines or internet portals (use extensions to block access to them in your web browser).

DO

Forbidden is for you, to watch TV[413] anytime or read, listen or acknowledge deep any official/ negative information. Cancel any television, take only the internet – if it's required for you: damage the satellite cable, so it can't be used.

It's your task, to identify them and assess.

Your first task, is to cut spending to a point, where you would be able to have a positive balance, accumulating wealth each month – the last, represents also your free will (start to perceive money as such, not the pleasure or any except it).

DO IT NOW!

Cancel now, all your monthly basic/ extended expenses which don't belong to the category of survival necessities, required – to sustain your life: shelter, water and food, expanded by those absolutely required to perform your job (although resign also from any paid newspapers or others, even if they contribute and might seemingly be required). Make also an additional efforts to reduce the necessities, to the very limit. Any of the remaining services/ subscriptions need to be dealt immediately, now.

Limit your spending, to the essential only.

At least, until you won't reach your goal, but then – you'd be financially smarter.

[413] Valuable TV shows or programs are available on the internet and only it, can be used to watch them. They might include: American Greed, Surviving Disaster/ SpikeTV and The Real Hustle.

All, in order for you to reach something as below.

NET INCOME		EXPENSES
Job salary/ paycheck	1,500	INVESTMENT TAX 10% (spirit.)	+150
		PUT 20% FROM THE TOP	+300
		Renting room	150
		Food	170
		Alcohol and party	100
		Minor other	100
		Drive to work	25
		Phone	10

Know however, that it's not required for you to limit yourself everything but to use the resources you've got in a more purposeful and clever way: through planning your financial future (something, which the rich do constantly).

Maximum restriction of your desires, delaying gratification – pushing any purchases in time to better rethink them, cutting costs (e.g. taking a moral friend from the job, to join you in your home – so you would only see each selves, when coming back from work shifts), resigning or switching to solutions which don't involve any tariffs or monthly costs by more thoughtful use of those services, planning (i.e. diet, by switching to organic-foods only, #3.21) but not compromising your life, although – enhancing it, is the way to have more, by having less. It's all possible through meticulous planning and thinking.

The 10% spiritual tax, is imposed on every morally/ (legally) obtained resource – money, through work. It's called the investment tax, as it allows you – when used purposely: to enhance somebody else/ many lives of the people – which can bring positive Karma, #1.2 and provide you with many more benefits i.e. contacts, help or various advantages. Use it wisely, for those in need: by using the money on a monthly basis – to help or increase the value of their lives (it's best, to use it for strangers, but it needs to be spent in person – no giving to charity is a solution). If you won't use it – you would loose those money either way, so it's better always to get something for yourself from it too – especially if such occasion is presented (it's still much better than the 50% tax, super-imposed on every immoral activities: which generates no benefit and such percentage of money is lost, nearly immediately).

With, the left money – you're either have them all for yourself to spend or to add them to your savings account.

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Beginning today – start to plan your financial future.
Keep the costs all-time low, minimize your needs and essentials – work on the ways, to improve the positive balance.
Create a habit of always putting aside 20% of your earnings – every month, from the top/ if it's impossible for you at the current moment: put aside 1% and build the percentage up.
Place it on a separate account, where it would never be touched (or many of them).
If you've got unexpected earnings – place 50% of them, to it – rest is entirely yours.
You can increase the percentage, with time.

You're required first, to manage – what you've got already, to be able: to have more.

DEBT

If you've created to this point any debt – it needs to be repaid first. It's generally the worst idea, to take anything which you can't buy for the money: you've haven't got already (mortgage, any valuables).

If you owe to a private/ public institutions – clear first the debt, which is the heaviest in terms of interest rate and handling. You might want to re-negotiate the terms of payment, to suit you – the most. If not possible: file for bankruptcy and set conditions on which you would be able to pay it back.

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Forbidden is for you: to get into any debt, anytime. If you've got any – clear it first.
If you don't have – you don't buy.

Forbidden is to either borrow or be a borrower (if anyone wants from you to borrow cash: give him a small amount of money – if you can and are willing to, but avoid to ever borrow money).

If anybody owes you the last: phone him and ask when he would be able to repay you and collect them.
Then – burn the list of debtors, immediately. If somebody would bring you – your debt, accept it but avoid to waste your time trying to force it back. Forget it, never – ever, borrow anyone – it's your fault, that you've lend them, so accept it. Avoid to give anyone, anything on credit – peace of mind, is the most important and it can't be achieved – if you haven't cleared yourself free of the mentioned.

It would be possible for you, to realize fully the goals – when the time in work required to be spent, would be limited due to amount of money accumulated. The last, would open also many other perspectives and unlock a new, better thinking – giving you also the searched values like calm, set you on a track for the financial prosperity and would provide: happiness of performance – peace of mind essential to work, at your best. You would become more courageous in making decisions, as no longer the danger of not having means to survive, would be present.

Lack of adapting to those rules, might turn you one time – into a person with no knowledge whatsoever: on how to make it – forced on a retirement funds or with no funds at all, to be found yourself in your elderly years, on the streets/ asking for money.

Always think about yourself, first.

STOP – PERFORM THE TASKS/ THEN: ONLY CONTINUE.

If you're unsure of those actions: you need to deeply answer yourself – are you in or out.
Immediately do them as it's required and adjust – do it now.

2.33. Taking control over your financial habits

Until anything, would become possible – your thinking needs to adapt. It's not only attached, to the financial region. You're required to start to live true with yourself. It means, no more cheating yourself – or bending the limits. Constriction of needs, is what matters – not the overspending to satisfy your desires or ego/ nature.

For instance you've might find yourself invited to a birthday party – go on it: but buy a gift, #4.11 suited to your financial measures.

KNOW, IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Firstly, accept things as they are and not as you would – want them to be.
Be true with yourself and with others – completely.

Destroy any credit/ debit cards or keep them all-time at home – if you only trust yourself. Pay always and handle only, in cash. Have always with you only the minimum required amount – anywhere, you go.

Your first task in life, is to free yourself out of the need to – work for the money, ever. Know it, let it be your motivation – those measures are only temporary and would change as a result, of your changes (usually it won't last long until you would breakthrough[414] with money in the process: yes, you would – if you only follow, #2).

Learn to appreciate money, as they mean your freedom.

[414] Probably more, than in your whole lifetime combined/ as directly as it sounds.

In the end – nobody matters about you, the way you do.

Finding a job, in order to sustain yourself – is a priority because it might only enable you: to take the process initially, #2. You're required first to find any job, which would secure your survival – use any means necessary to enhance your financial stance by also taking all the benefits, financial support offered – public, family, etc. In those efforts,

- be persistent – seek, until you find / visit every job agency, see ads on the internet – local sites, portals, posting walls in the market place – shopping centers etc., ask your friends,

- visit local businesses and ask – whether they want an additional employee for hire / visit them[415] periodically (if you're a specialist: show them, that by hiring you – they would earn much more money),

- remind yourself constantly, everywhere – somebody would eventually hire you and keep that faith
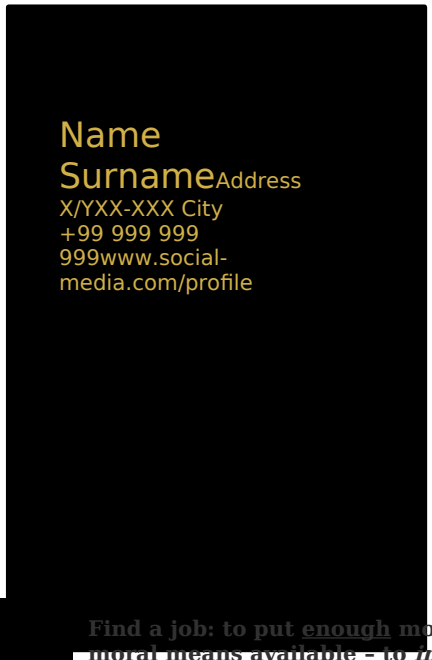
  / be a reliable and solid person, in the work and: do your best – as such opinion would promote you easily.



Take such efforts everyday, until you get the desired. Leave always your business card, so it would become possible to make contact with you – if any vacant position appears.

Font used: Tw Cen MT Condensed; Color: #d1b048/ 209.176.72 RGB/ most important in a business card: is the paper used (it has to be very smooth and delightful – pleasurable, soothing to the[416] touch).

Find a job: to put enough money for your survival/ use any other moral means available – to improve your financial stance.

[415] A method to get a job in the desired workplace: is to approach the boss/ manager of it, and tell you're willing to work for free and if you, check at it – you'd be hired later, which might require taking two jobs, but only for a short period of time.
[416] You won't probably never know it: as you've never experienced it.

If you already have one: keep it.

TIP

If you've found yourself in a situation – where the money[417] is short: sell immediately first, your possessions – which you don't use/ are redundant or to be given out, anyway.
(or, #1.12: later text)

Know, that if you're involved in an immoral enterprise or earning money involves it: you're likely to loose all, to start all over again – and it's the way, it has to be done/ quit any immoral, #1.12: immediately, now.

You're loosing your life/ by doing otherwise.

[417] You've might also want to ask before – for a one-time help without return: your family, close ones.

2.5. IMPORTANT ASPECTS

There is more.

2.51. Beliefs as a weapon

Before: read the #3.26 and acknowledge it – to your experiences.

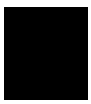
Avoid to associate with misfortunes as they would bring the likehood to you/ you would be influenced by their misery. Avoid to ever let such anybody to your life: as it would tend to decline and loose its value – you would end up, eventually like them.

Human specie/ hybrids have a unique metagene, which provides: the ability to attract matter to their own experience through will/ thought. It means, that what you prevalently hold in your mind – is brought to you, not only in the manner of like-thoughts but in the sense of actual events. You've probably had an experience: that you've wanted something and it came to you – by itself, alone/ or you've thought about somebody. It's the expression of this gene.

What is evil to you/ un-wanted? Is it poverty, fear of loss, being beaten, meeting your highest enemy? If you hold those: they would be brought to your reality.

Through tapping to this power, through information i.e. media like television, radio or the internet – those who know those mechanisms operating in this reality: are able to control the destinies of all people attentive to it, for the better of their masters but for for the very worst of individual people/ you.
If you're listening to the problems of others, engage[418] in them – they're likely to POP in your reality/ turn it off, regain your life.



Be aware, that what you let into your mind: works as a weapon for the realization of your goals or against you.

You have to be very selective what you allow to your mind & engage, by letting it to your thought.

[418] In mind.

Your DNA ~~brain~~ is merely[419] an antenna. Memory isn't located in it, but in the counter-matter/ your thoughts don't even originate from it. It provides an opportunity and provides understanding: your skill is based on the amount of knowledge attained and used in the project, multiplied by the motivations and hour time invested in any undertaking and ruled by the belief system/ the last, is the core to any achievement. In most cases, a 10,000 hour effort has to be invested to achieve a masterful level (as shown in the first image, #2 section).

If you don't take an active participation in your life: to ingest each day at least 2.5 hours or more of new, highly-specified knowledge from a various sources, including masters – you won't never achieve greatness or even breakthrough/ in the process itself, #2: you'd be supplied with the sources but your own effort is required aside of it.

However, programming plays the major role – being, highest and the most important in your whole life: as it guides your whole experience. It causes how you think, how you respond to different events, what you do in life, what are your results, how you perform and how fast you learn/ if only you learn: with the current one. It can be influenced by many of the outer experiences or suggestions and sum of them, is what most people are. The desired programming is achieved, through media – by promoting values which are expected from the herd (the so called 'herd-programming'). Therefore high awareness of the person has to be in-place – all-time. For instance, Eminem song "Not afraid" (clue, suggestive enough) with a refrain "I'm not afraid..." imprints in your mind that you would be afraid and it would become your unconscious belief as mind doesn't recognizes negation, #4.3 (as the simplest example)/ it's the common method of programming to dumb you down, diminish[420] your life/ promote values who don't bring you to your goals – which has to be willingly accepted by you, knowledge might be required. Most if not least of today's music/ media promotes immorality, partying and in effect: diminishing you/ i.e. the sheep and it has to be this way. You want avoid this shit.

It's extended to any influence, so it's required to ignore it completely and take your own life.

Avoid to take anything at face-value.
Refuse to go, with the herd-flow – take the process, #2: create your own reality.
Use programming, #0.1/ embrace it – learn new knowledge for at least 2.5h daily.

Usually, you don't see the danger coming – it's the moment, where you should be more thoughtful. Knowledge is at price.

It goes deeper: what you see, in your reality – is a result of your core beliefs. It means, that there could be 5,550 opportunities in your life a year, but if you believe: nothing good happens to you, no opportunity finds you – your mind, would only bring to your consciousness all what confirms this belief/ where you would become aware of it (information i.e. opportunities). It means, you've might be floating in the ocean full of fish, but you would see none and die out of hunger – if you won't change your beliefs: on those – serving you/ #0.1. It's why the poor usually stay so to the end, and the rich get even richer – because of their beliefs, which unable them to become rich, until they consciously decide to break this programming (if you'd even achieve a success: you'd likely loose it, in time because of your embedded convictions). It's what's achieved, as system is designed to create drug addicts, losers and people bound to the 'Satan', #1.3 – in all its core, because it brings: submissiveness/ lack of war, quality drop which serves for the better. It has took one man few years to crack this all/ many more, yet it was only possible, because others ignored him due to this programming, or bought to his play.

[419] Like a radio – receiver, transmitter.
[420] What is expected, by the majority: which has also been conditioned, through all those years/ decades.

In the selection of your personal beliefs – you shouldn't be influenced by any. It comes with the understanding that: we live in a cause-effect reality where each and everything, has got one or many – often deeply hidden reasons (causes) for each outcome (effect). It's forbidden for you to compare yourself to anybody. You also either go up or down – there is no middle, at least in this reality. Some have a tendency to see and match others people level: to be average/ on one side feel pity for the starving[421] children/ yet on a second side: feel jealousy, to those who have – establishing themselves in the middle. It's the highest mistake.

In the selection of your beliefs: you can't be influenced by nothing or nobody. You have to look upon yourself and your real potential, which you can achieve.

	SELF-CENTERED	OUTER-CENTERED
Characterized by	I create my own life. I'm the sole person responsible for mine fate.	Life is created for me. I've got little to none control over events.
Example beliefs/ inner convictions	I create my own life. I live the way I want to. I chose in life. I'm confident/ an entrepreneur/ etc. I can become – everyone I can. I can achieve – whatever I want. / i.e. earn 100,000/ have X or Y etc.	Life is created for me. I don't have virtually none power over my life/ over circumstances. I am. ?
Associated with	Proactive stance	Reactive stance
Brings	Power. Self-control. Success in life.	Suffering. Surprise. Failure in life.

None of them are better[422] or worse. It's dependent what you decide: whether power – self-control and your own destiny or suffering, surprise and failure in life.

It's up to you, solely.

Choose the right belief system and reprogram it, through #0.1 programming.

[421] You have to know, that if you were to have 15 kids, having no cash – fortune, whatsoever: they would probably too starve. Besides souls of those newly born have usually Karma/ #1.2: charged to them – there is no randomness in this realm and what people don't understand or don't want to, call luck.

[422] Despite only one set of them, is the true reality – which can be confirmed from each angle. However, it doesn't matters because you get – what you believe. It's the power of the last.

If you're not able to believe in something: it has to be earned – you would always know how or find such methods on how it can be done. Your effort is required/ that's the point.

Having more: isn't usually ever a true[423] solution to any problem, because you have to learn manage when you have – in order to have more or to progress. Therefore, if you strive for the desired belief: which might become only available for you, if you pass the lower levels of work/ effort – start small, i.e. the "1,000/ 10,000/ 100,000[424] etc."-like progression. This way, it firstly) is believable for you, second) the effort required, is small or much smaller than with the increased value, so you're able to complete it – and with the achievement, of a smaller prize: comes, the belief – the higher one, is truly possible and to be attained, by you. You motivations, remain high also.

You're able this way: to progress and become the desired – beginning with an adept, to a world-class expert in the field, as the core beliefs rule responses of the counter-matter (thoughts, quality of work, understanding and many more). It would be understood by you, one day.

Begin small, build your way up – always/ with beliefs.

It's the way of the winners.

Remember.

PP

You can't become who you disdain. Therefore if you hate/ don't like/ feel that the rich are cheaters, liars (and you hate, the last or feel any resentment towards): you can't become one of them (as your subconscious won't let you become, one: who you resent[425]). You have to first change feelings towards those people – you want to be/ become, by (for) yourself (i.e. the best sportsman, a millionaire, the best salesman, etc.).

To overcome this problem: you have to change your inner-deep convictions – first (beliefs).
It's achieved, through visiting those rich people (maybe you know somebody, who is one?) and changing what you firstly truly think about them.

// For me those are the ones, who have the money on vodka (the rich). I love them, because they often are able to buy something I want (and why I should disdain them, or hate?). Therefore, because of such belief: my mind, can accept – me, being already rich (wealthy).

It's all well-grounded: visit conferences, meetings when they met or change[426] your already-held beliefs (they've might not be the ones, I have).

[423] The one, which deals with the cause and in effect: introduces a permanent change, through changing those causes.
[424] Even, 100 – to be used, if and when required.
[425] The main function of the mind: is to protect you (as mind would block you, to become).
[426] Exactly: when you would see it's all a lie/ believe it (as those actually the nicest people, known – there are exceptions always, as everywhere). In reality, they just like you and me but with the resources, with the knowledge or with the skill (or two, three at once – as a result of their work/ or given on a birth like i.e. money). It's all a result of their thinking – work they've contributed and those effects are also possible for you to achieve: therefore change your beliefs held to those people/ to become, one: yourself.

If you'd refuse: you'd be for your whole life [427]guess-who.

> Any war focused on the symptoms – is lost, in nature.
> The real causes, are commonly very well hidden for everything important, but it's still possible to: find, identify and deal with them.

You're constantly watched and judged, even if nobody sees.

[427] You would stay the person you are: for your whole lifetime (i.e. poor, average, etc.).

2.52. Thinking and predicting consequences/ doing the work

When you've dealt already with the previous issues which might block or interfere achievement of the handled goal/ task: its time to act, keeping always in mind that work for the cash – despite of it being required, initially – won't get you anywhere long term, for real – as you're required to build skill, knowledge and expertise based on the process, #2. It would only enable you to succeed and Laws would provide you with the tasks, which would prepare you for this purpose: allowing to repay the debt you've been born here with, to win by you – all the desired/ dreamed of.

You're required to additionally take every/ all steps essential to ensure, your work/ property and everything which is necessary and helpful, to realize the task: is secured and protected. For instance, if you're forced to live with a parasite, #1.1/ many of them and no other option is possible[428] to leave: you'd probably be required to put lock on your room or some other measures of protecting[429] your tools, place of rest and work. If your task, involves usage of the computer: you have to backup your data i.e. online, in a cloud/ upload it at least once everyday on a few servers and additionally secure it on the two pen-drives/ memory[430] sticks (burn on a DVD/ once a time and secure the disc: in various and many locations, even with the unknown[431] people).

In order to attain your goals/ in the process: you have to be and stay focused. When you've handled all which is crucial for your survival: removed or banished everything else which might interfere with the task – you have to follow a well-defined plan of its realization.

Always assume the very worst situation/ outcome and prepare for it (actively, continually).

The moment you've been handled with the task: you're personally responsible for its completion. Fail to do so and forget about ever winning in your life/ you'd might have a serious problem.
It's death serious/ treat[432] it, like one.

[428] You're required to take steps, which would enable you/ lead, to change of such situation.
[429] If no threat is even present: you have to always and forever create a habit of securing every inch of your work.
[430] Where one is disconnected from the computer, all the time.
[431] Upload it periodically on a various sites, forums etc. to secure your work maximally/ if only possible: or required itself, for the goal (lesson is, to invest such or similar efforts – effectively: to secure the work, as it's the most important for it to survive all the attacks i.e. failure of an equipment, etc.). Additional measures might be taken, in it – to promote self-interest in its preserving/ skipping this highly-crucial part: would lead you to its loss – permanent, guaranteed by the Laws themselves (as a first example, of required preparation for every – of the incoming).
[432] As from the results of it: depends your life/ your happiness and well-being, sanity (the prize, awaits: you want to get to it, as fast and effectively – as ever possible). You work only for yourself: for all your life/ in the process, #2.

ALL things must be done NOW/ immediately, because it's all time-limited. EVERYTHING needs to be done in a 1 prolonged push, up to the end, with 1 to couple days free in the meantime – the necessary time of rest/ relax: to work more effectively. You're required, to start each task immediately: after assembling the required – which has to be done urgently. You must have an attitude: to push everyday a bit to realization of the goal.

Be urgent, when completing[433] the task – do it all, in a one prolonged movement.

If your task is to deliver a book – you know what to do. You don't think, what's with it – which has to be done in terms of publishing/ who would read it/ would people accept it/ would somebody take you as a freak/ would tell you're a psycho, because he would find out you've been once closed in a hospital for mentally[434] ill: your task, is to deliver the book – written based on a specific principles with whom you've had been instructed – and it's all, solely. Only moral actions and truth is accepted: you can't lie in it, or overdo/ either overstate. It's your only real goal, in life. It's the whole process. It applies, to all the goals. You don't think future: only terms of current survival, keeping the head on the prize and being focused on the realization of task, itself. It's so easy-simple.

Everything, which revolves around: is up to you, to deal with. You must deliver: when you've took the task. Whether you would be drinking 2 days straight, because you have to rest and you don't know other ways of doing so – it's up to you, but you must bring the task up to its final completion. Urgently, in time.

Think only about completion of the goal – prize you've chosen/ set everything in your life to ensure, its delivery.

Your life depends on it.

[433] Advice is to begin with what you've got: doing it all perfect – at you very personal best from the very beginning and constantly improving your project day by day, in bits/ with each and every work.
You avoid to ever think about how 'not in shape' you are/ any other: you just sit & do, up to completion of the part and continue, till – almost everyday/ after: you've got time for yourself. The perfect time is now: you work despite everything/ anything – just to deliver & you keep this habit: forever.
[434] At this stage, it doesn't matter to you – any of it, as you've been prepared for every instance, in the previous failure and succeeded projects.

In the process: you would likely encounter requirement – to buy or assemble things, which role would be to push you through the completion of your goals. You would have to be wise, with the resources you have as it's – not an art, to buy everything the best. You must take it, to the very basics and use what's best available or could be utilized for the purpose: of launching/ completing the task. Intent to fulfill the desired features, looks – to keep the quality: not the best item, but the best at a price i.e. probably "70% of the ideal for 1/5th or even more of its price" – commonly 2 years old, but brand[435] new item/ the wise[436] choice. You must get the products which are enough to fulfill the desired needs/ to perform the given work put to them, at best (bought usually from the cheapest source, probably directly from the producer or an overseas distributor). Left over money: to use wisely or save.

It applies to every instance of any spending, not only the corporate interests but personal – in particular. An example, might include: 350g of grated beets BIO in a jar for a cost of 1.71 where 1kg of the same organic beets, to boil-them only cost 1.46/ laziness, is at price. You don't also want to buy the best phone, but the second-best: the cheaper model of it, if it only serves the purpose. You pay 135 for brand new, once – the best model instead of 634 for the newest, best/ you get much more for less, even if it's not the top of the fresh line of products. The functionality you require – it's there, looks and other properties too: where, the last might be necessary to fulfill your goals – it's enough to serve. By saving this way money: you advance and it's only possible because of those choices, #2.31.

Nobody in the end cares: whether you've got them or not – they're required.

You must be conscious: how you use – your resources, including time/ do it only: the wise way.

Lack of this knowledge application: might unable you to complete the task, so be very wary.

If you've borrowed in the past, i.e. 3,500 & 2,000 from a private individuals/ as of the mistake from past: your duty is to pay it back. It can be done, best: by paying a part of the debt in the regular intervals i.e. each month, or at once – if there is only such possibility. You're however obliged to present a gesture, which would encourage similar attitude to be repeated towards you – in the future, as you always must to be fair with people who care about you or helped, in some meaningful way – in the past. Buying an additional bottle of 0.7l whisky/ best vodka is a duty, but when and if – only having more money which can be used for such purpose and dependent on the circumstances, that it took some time to pay the money back/ you'd might need them or their help once again, where it's forever like it – it's wise, to add the extra[437] 500 or 1,000 to 3.5k, 300 or 700 to 2k – to encourage similar behavior in the future, as to be honest and to don't feel as they've made a mistake with you/ to do as such, even after time. It would be however best to offer something of value to them – without paying any money for it, like a business you've dumped as you've had to i.e. for the money borrowed/ think about the ingenious ways to repay your lenders (to which they would agree and it would be a better solution for them). You have learn to distinct wise moves [435] There is also another reason why to never buy new things like cars: they've got plastics which release toxic vapors, #3/ similarly as when the air conditioning system is built from and uses toxic substances/ hidden defects, & price etc.

[436] The best quality item at a price, which would last – very long and would be even bought after time, as it's still: the best or was/ at a given time.
[437] Dependent, on the time – it took, to pay off the owed money.

from the idiotic[438] ones, to forever select only the first/ count only on yourself, save what's best and deal with people the way: you would love to be treated.

Focus on achieving the desired results, not to have or be. The best way to approach this/ or any such or similar situation, is to ask yourself: whether I would be thankful and repeat this behavior towards a person, if I were to receive X for the Y action I've took – rewards him? If the answer is likely: increase the reward[439] or change it/ remember: one, only (i.e. item or pay).

You have to always think about yourself: first (to be-repeated – remembered).

You must reinforce helpful to you/ serving to your goals behavior: by encouraging it, in the future – forever.

You have to be somewhat distanced, to ALL of it: your soul and your body are the one, but a two separate things/ the pain is body and psychic, but soul is delighted – wants more and it only really keeps you going.

IMP.

The way to do it, is to split your mind on two personalities (its enough to believe)
/ i.e. to protect your new belief system.

One is [440] your real personality (for the outer world) i.e. 'Agent Smith' (your Name) which represents your dark side: the one required to gather data, learn new experiences – being distanced to it all (the dumb expression of you, to be accepted by the environment). The second, is your good (wise) side: which interprets those facts and acts based on the belief system, which can't be (never) influenced.

If somebody is offending you: it offends, the first side of it/ it's a shield that allows you to function in the real world as nothing can compromise your secretive mission.

You perform now with a belief system: of your hidden side.

Apply (it's a clever way, to function in the system without being compromised). Transformation would take place, in time.

You take what is thrown at you, deal with it – continue the effort, no matter what. No pay is present, adapt to it – failure after failure, swallow it – award, is awaiting: take it/ finish the project you've been handled and do it always at your best, as you're working for yourself only.

[438] As is i.e. lavishness/ who some perpetrate i.e. driving with taxi's when you don't have the money – just to show yourself or giving much more what is required without a purpose. In this case: giving back the doubled amounts. Its worth to notice, that such and similar actions aren't viewed by many as something to admire/ appreciate, but an idiotic move – to talk about/ who makes an idiot of you, in their eyes – understand it, forever: think about yourself, first.
[439] It must be definitive YES and the answer has to skip all other associated variables.
[440] As in the movie: Psycho (1960) by Alfred Hitchcock.

You continue to push the train, until its final destination. Life of a paradise, is awaiting – takes 5 or 7 years, at best: dependent on your performance and you've got FAT years for the rest of your life. Taking the challenge, #2?

Embrace, adapt, survive and pass.
Forget about the rest.

Continue, to the very end in every/ and each project: perform and adapt at your very best and do your only very[441] best.
Urgently.

Everybody hates to loose, but it's necessary. Let it be then.

Tasks in the process would involve passing your boundaries and overcoming personal limitations – by doing, the things which no one else does or are hard.

Confront always immediately every fear.

You amass all the possible knowledge about the topic/ object of the fear itself: press the tongue up to the upper mouth – keeping it this way and DO, just DO it.

In fact, on the very top – there is little or no competition. By doing it the other way through – by refusing to take responsibility: you're risking to be forced upon an unnecessary suffering.

Attain new knowledge, everyday – for at least min. of 2.5 hours daily, 4h or more at the required best.

If you refuse to learn, continually each day: you're likely to be outsmarted, outrun and out-beaten by people who don't.

Ability to see things as they are – not, as you would want them to be, and adaptation to it: is paramount.

[441] As you would be required to repeat the tasks, or complete new ones which wouldn't be necessary – if you would only do the previous ones, at your very best: which would delay the prize and because of it – you would rather never be able to complete the process/ it's of the highest importance: do to things very right, from the very beginning – urgently.

You don't have to initially believe in the real belief, when starting a work. It would become such belief: later/ i.e. you have to start it – it's the required first step.

It's not said, that changes would appear in your reality suddenly, but when you progress: crazy things might go around you i.e. your friend might fly to you over 1,500km/ 932mi for a 'day' to give you the 100 desperately needed, a person might move opposite to you – to want become a source-founding for your new project/ those who might influence you in the testing period might get themselves hanged, everyone would shift in your reality – based on this world, and it gives you the immense sense of power, because now you're the one truly important.

It's all about it/ some do it, for it.

2.53. Thinking/ delayed gratification issue

It's commonly accepted, that in order to achieve something – a work, on your part is required. In this book was described – the process/ #2: pointing specifically what factors are required – how the Law works, what to expect, what to avoid and what has to be done/ how to deal with the obstacles and what they're (stand) for. Its effects (prizes, after completion) are absolutely guaranteed. Yet, still – despite all this unique knowledge: some would still decide to follow their own ways – they would continue to want something for nothing/ they would refuse to change their attitude (i.e. immoral enterprises, #1.12) as they naively would believe they can get away with it – not, in this reality.

You can walk in the circles, refuse to take any work – live without a goal, but your life would become depressing because of it, #1.1 (moral field, property). If you don't develop/ expand – you perish. None of those actions, change your situation.

Instead of taking all your life, the easy-initially choices: which prove to be hard as you still have to work and tire/ jade yourself after the day's work to get the daily paycheck, which would be probably blown by you in the next couple days, to repeat the vicious circle – to the end of your life: never being or becoming happy – it's time, to – by taking the process, #2 work your way up and succeed – even if it takes some time.

In practice: it takes infinity. Accept, that – until you won't be ready: you won't have.
There is no other effective way round, so why to not take this path once in your life and continue up – until the success? It takes 5-7 years to Live for the rest of your life, due to this once-took effort/ by having all the money required to live on your current[442] level, without the need for any of the job. It's definitely worth it, but you have to decide first: whether you really are willing to do whatever is necessary to pass those experiences.

You would have, but not all at once.

[442] If you decide to continue the process: you would easily surpass it.

2.54. The best usage of your time

You've thought through already the previous day: what has to be done, today – you're focused, #0.1.

You wake up each[443] morning, immediately: begin to work, starting from the most important task of the day – usually, the hardest one. You do it, the best you can – at your personal best: urgently. You continue as such everyday.

The best and only time, to do everything – is, now. It's never enough time to complete everything, but there is always as much: to complete the most important tasks/ which matters, only.

You prioritize tasks, which require handling – delegate those, which can be done not by you.
All is dealt, immediately.

Focus always on finding a specific solutions to the problems – how to resolve them, as time is running...

[443] Diets matter, #3.21/ see sample ones.

Go yourself rest now, for all the day. Take yourself free time to rethink it all.

You always have to be prepared fully – for the very worst. For instance, if you're driving to a friend abroad: you have to plan what to do in the case of any problems i.e. if you won't reach the location, nobody would be at the address supplied or a contact would be lost. You have to create a map in your mind of way-out possibilities, insure the money required and secure them completely, #3.98C and do the many other preparations – not only in terms of food and water, but also any other circumstances or events which might arise like e.g. communication problems. You should know the laws of the country: you're going into, know address on memory – have a map, in your mind of the location and be prepared for every instance, so there would be no surprises on the way/ if they would be any: you would know what to do, because you've already thought it through.

It's translates to business, and every area of your life.

Disasters strike: to show you – your unpreparedness and to grow[444] you.

You won't always be on the very top or winning in every round – also, in the financial terms so be prepared forever for the sour years, by accumulating more than enough wealth, knowledge and resources: required to protect yourself first and your family. Things can turn around, very quickly – it's all temporary: adjust, adapt or suffer the consequences/ die in the decision of ignorance.

Insure, you would prepare for every[445] aspect of your life – for the worst and every possible scenario. Redundancy, is what counts – secure everything in terms of three/ four i.e. clothes, shelter, food and all the resources: vital for your survival.

It's an ongoing effort: to be continued – to the end of your life.

Nothing can be left to chance. If something can go wrong – it would.

Plan & prepare, forever.

[445] In particular: the work, you're performing – is everything, in it – is secured/ protected from the unforeseen?

Everything is painfully easy, when it's sliced – to the tiny pieces. Never watch or perceive the task as a whole, because it might outgrow you: the vision of work – split it instead on a tiny parts and work each day on them: keeping the focus and finish all, bit-by bit. All would be completed by you, in time – have although on mind: the big picture/ i.e. the whole project.

Cut your work on parts – work each day to complete one or few of them.
Have in mind, the whole picture but avoid to be focused on anything than your today – the most important task.

Work everyday towards the completion of your goal.
Persevere.

You must always set yourself higher goals for the day, because if you set them too small – even they, won't be done. It's likely that you won't achieve the bigger ones, yet only partially but: it's still better than none.

A1

You do everything in a short-term pushes: you do/ you relax, you do at max/ you relax for a brief moment/ you continue, until the work – a tiny piece, is done.

Year-after-year. It's only possible for you to gain the recognition and to win: by delivering the expected of you. Everyday – systematic work is a key to any success. You need to focus, on the most important in life – to experience it, to the full.

You can be a perpetuous dreamer, but it's all real and to be used – the Law works with consistency/ now you know. It's all starts with the idea, a dream or you-call-it which is handled to you for its execution/ #2. You have to be imaginative, by unlocking your pineal gland – #3.23: to be able successfully execute it. Ability to grab ideas with your mind – plays an essential role and it's later a requirement.

Each and every action requires a proper knowledge on the subject. You have to know all what's required to start executing an idea in the real world, to continue those efforts of amassing knowledge everyday – period/ later, it's a necessity. You have to constantly develop: to be able firstly to realize the task, but secondly to grow also personally as it's required. It never ends, unless you decide to quit – after realizing series of the tasks leading to getting – the prize. Know, that aside of this striving [1]: you have to leave a piece[446] of those spoils you've attained, to others (which includes knowledge – an article or a book: would be sufficient).

When you rest – you relax, when you work: you do your best – always.

Health and bringing it back to the default: is essential, #3 – it includes diet.
Continue to work on your goal – given, by amassing everyday new knowledge required for its flawless execution.

Share, the spoils of it – knowledge attained, with others/ tiny part of it.
Ignore always, all the non-important rest. Invest most/ all of your time, to the cause – until: you complete it and receive the desired prize.

This way, any progress is possible.

[446] It's vital, because in your elderly years: when the ability to perform your work could be decreased/ therefore generation of moral energy would significantly cease: you would be faced with painful, long-lasting and terrible death due to moral suffocation (it's better to hang* yourself as a first impression: to those who had seen on their own eyes – people dying in hospital due to it, i.e. the 99%+). You have to think about it, in your life – similarly as for what you continue your living when you would stop your usual activities (retirement). It's required to progress/ lack of it: might block it, effectively (treat it as a necessary hobby/ which brings pleasure).
* You would be unable to, due to your low level of moral energy/ #1.1: when it comes/ secure it – i.e. the last, through works done in your life, before (i.e. as a result of your lack of free will – moral energy; besides, it's immoral).

2.55. Sense of urgency

You've got responsibility. Imagine, that you've wanted something desperately i.e. could be a drug/ package you've desired with food or a precious item like a laptop – just something: you've wanted so much it took ages to get. STOP. You're now the person, who is responsible for executing an idea in the real world – you want to order, item X which you desperately need as mentioned previous: you've got company A – which would send it tomorrow, yet they delay it and you get the item 7 days later; company B ships the item – next day and you receive it tomorrow. With which company you would stay with, in the future (where company A, does such delay one more time)?

It applies to the Laws, #2: you might not be chosen for an execution of the particular tasks – losing your best client, ever/ it's the point.

Tomorrow is the busiest day of the week/ but for everyone else – you work just now.
You deliver everything urgently: work with a sense of urgency.

If you won't be the best or become one in the process, #2: you'd might not be able to realize your dreams because of this only one, single feature lack – develop it/ start to do everything, now and stay as such – forever.

You're not alone, for the tasks themselves.

Be the best – do the best work possible, deliver urgently.

It's crucial to succeed.

2.57. Traits of the most powerful

You must retain a full control over your emotions and thoughts: nothing can influence your inner feelings/ your composure. Your task, is to just share the work – not enforce it on anybody, but allow for others to use it. Moreover: you must always be unsatisfied with what you have, strive for more and improve your situation – continually. Never, is good enough – as there is always something, which could be better, much better. However, be appreciative and thankful for all what enters your reality – be here/ be present and act, for life.

Regain full control over self and over your emotions. Keep your composure, all-time.
Forbid anything or anyone to influence it.

Be focused always on finding a solution, forget the phrase “what I’m doing badly/ what I’ve did wrong?” as it’s a failure-type programming.

What I’m doing/ I’ve done right?
What could be done better?

This way: you would be able to find solutions much faster.

You would eternally be subjected to critique, but its how you deal with it/ whether it influences your emotions: which really does matter. Understand, that people would always talk and – use it to your advantage: ignorance, is perhaps the most touching – not the haters/ parasites.

Who cares, how the skeptics feel – it’s not your issue. Learn to improve your work based on the criticism, but refuse to ever take anything to yourself.
Smile.

Focus just on delivering the very high, best quality work.

If you don't have enemies: you're striving weakly – towards your goals.

Learn how to appreciate people's time.

If you approach anybody with your problem: you've got 3, 5 minutes at best – to grab his attention. Portray your task which you've prepared, to get the answer clearly.
More, #4.3.

And remember one last thing...

It doesn't matter who thinks what: you must think for yourself/ not to be influenced. Investigate[447] however always the leads.

Avoid to ever think about the problems you simply don't have, currently.
However prepare[448] on each real eventuality.

Apply.

[447] As somebody might be right/ pointed something which – you've missed. Adapt & refine yourself.
[448] You would spot the difference between the two, in time/ it's subjective.

Be always inquisitive/ ask/ praise & want constantly more information.
Avoid to ever by ashamed by any of the questions.
Gather as much information as possible.
Investigate: avoid to be satisfied with generalities.

Train your nerve (impudence) as it leads to knowledge increase and revealing of the deepest-hidden secrets/ push it hard: to the very end (to the last word).
Encourage and reward each talk.

Avoid to ever step back.

People with whom you associate: reflect you in some way – grow your value, to progress. If you're low on the moral energy: you'd likely be surrounded by people of the same morality – which invites every bad side of it i.e. cheating, problems etc. Increase continually your self-worth – strive for it, #1.1 - #2 as it's of the highest importance/ in your life.

Avoid to ever be touched by anybody or anything – you'd might be laughed at psychiatric hospital, that you put your thoughts on the paper, but know: this reality, holds achievements for those who proceed with the efforts – giving them opportunity, to unlock the ability – to memorize the unlimited, by being blocked on the subconscious level to write anything again – creating a possibility for much more. Many more await, like slowing or speeding time up to the dangerous values, it's complete stop – freeze, where you're just suspended – the passage of reality in front of you STOPS and you're hanged in this particular moment of time: where, you've got the ability to spend i.e. a year, in the counter-matter[449] to rethink important issues for you and your goals at need/ all physical processes are stopped in the frame, time freezes and you've got a pure consciousness. It might seem to the next person: nothing had happened and – the time is flowing but not for you, which might give an enormous competitive advantage.

Think and perform even more than is expected of you.
Always add and do something extra to the work given. Forever look on the bright side of each and every: initially – seemingly negative, event.

Require and give only help in the form of a fishing rod with the knowledge attached, instead to push for the prize itself.

Always want and strive for more/ develop and expand, forever.
Require from yourself more and push your boundaries, continually – independent of any.

Be focused forever on generating a positive Karma, #1.2/ moral energy, #1.1 & material wealth/ knowledge, as a result. The rest – doesn't matters, in reality.

[449] / #1.11xE.

2.58. Importance of knowledge/ preparedness

In life one leads to another: similarly as skill progresses with the practice – increased knowledge and experience, as you're always taking the path of highest learning development. You deal with things, the ways you know – knowledge expands those horizons and transforms your options.

Repeat to yourself: "I'm the best" (remind yourself constantly, #2.1).

Knowledge itself is heavily guarded: you won't be allowed to know or pick up certain ideas, until you won't clear and study the last/ previous ones. It's like a castle, where you're outside – it's surrounded by walls and you don't know the princess is there: yet, which can be only conquered by taking the footsteps, using maybe a ladder to overcome the outer defenses – lacking any force entry. Therefore, until your effort won't be invested into attaining specific information/ thinking and putting efforts into practice – wanting to see, the patterns or get to the truth: you won't rather never be allowed, to know. It's the first level, only – to the highest understanding get only those, who were persevere enough to invest those hours and efforts to attain the stone-cap, of the[450] knowledge.

Truth, knowing it – is required: particularly, in the important matters for you. Health might be such example, where the 1st level of understanding, is knowledge that doctors are merely repeaters and have no real knowledge whatsoever – they're merely a drug dealers, like a car seller who pushes to you vehicles. However, in the case of the last: it's not so dangerous to buy a car which would broke, because it's relatively easy to replace it. It's not about the health, well-being or curing anyone but about the money which drives the business before you die, as a result of the drug usage/ which don't work.

2nd level of understanding – only when the first level, was acknowledged and tested – allows, you to see the big picture and the real drives and motives behind the industry, but you would never know – if you didn't invested your time and skill into finding methods, which would enable you to heal yourself. It's kept secret. It applies, to any of the important knowledge/ understanding: that, you must firstly see the danger and invest your own efforts into combating your fears/ lack of preparation.

It usually all starts with the last, which enables you to conquer the object of it – expanding your knowledge. Finding or realizing that the existing solutions or answers are inferior/ invalid and largely false – in everything, is a part of the understanding. It requires tenacity and courage to ask and test the unknown to find them, finally: which pays-off immensely. It's purposely done so to separate the seed from the chaff.

[450] It applies to the knowledge presented in this document/ i.e. you won't know it, unless you earn it.

Invest always your own efforts to uncover matters for you important.
Persist at them: until you would succeed. It might take eternity, but you're required to crack each such matter.

Even if you were to be fed with 'a golden spoon': you won't know and accept this knowledge, until it won't be earned by you, fully. Therefore, start to introduce changes in your life, #2/ #3/ #1 & #0.1.

All the rest, would unfold/ it's only hard, to start.
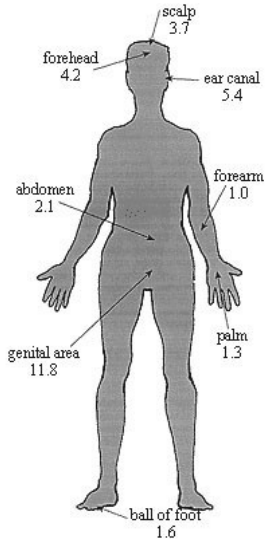
Begin, the effort.

You might feel, that it would be disastrous to have everything poisoned around you – that when you touch, you're 'dead'/ it's not something which you would fear, but it would be a catastrophic weapon – not wanted to be experienced.
Therefore, after time – an actual experience would be brought to reinforce your strengths and to allow you get confidence to this matter, as you're uncertain of it and ill-prepared for its handling.



It's skipped that in those circumstances you're shown how little you know and brought to your knees, but overcoming those dangers makes you smarter and stronger: independent of any involved/ attached. It's commonly a rig placed, there: so you can't escape much the situation unless you deal with it, or a death awaits (e.g. sickness which causes to bring out all the symptoms of it after a contact with the toxin, endangering you with death due to it).

Absorption continues until all the toxin is absorbed through the skin/ with a relative rate as shown on the right picture. It's dangerous to spread it, on various places over your body as it might kill you. A 10% vinegar solution is used to remove the poisons – washing clothes is followed by soaking them in a mixture, then to use a soda[451] as a neutralizing agent. It has to be done all in a ventilated area, as poisoning gases are released. Experiences as such, put a deep mark on the psychic and change you as a person.

Find and amass new knowledge – use your thinking to handle the danger.
Conquer and deal with everything which is thrown at you, completely.

Fear leads to knowledge. Conquering fear and dealing with the danger, through experience[452] imprints it deeply. Emotions/ denial never help and it's already learnt.

[451] E500/ Sodium bicarbonate, baking soda. It's advised to wash everything in a washing powder one more time with even more soda, – just to make sure it's washed properly.
[452] To truly explore each sector: it has to be done both ways/ dealt from the two perspectives.

In memorization of new information: you have to attach meaning to it, as it gives the purpose and importance in your mind for the data to be linked and used. It's the reason why you loose scraps which are at point: of no importance to you. Immense knowledge on the subjects of your interests, is the key which enables you to win.

In fact, you should increase the tempo of new data assimilation. Your mind is bored, when it's not working on the highest performance. For instance you might,

PAUSE each 3 or 4, 7 minutes, sometimes even less – any movie or material he ingests. Watching movies at speeds up to 1.5x-2x at min. – if the voice only can be recognized. Scan pages, instead of reading them as a whole at immense, unbelievable rates (as usually the actual knowledge surpasses most, which is mentioned in them)/ to seek for the unknown pieces, ideas or perspectives of looking on matters and possibly new tactics or techniques which might prove themselves effective in the field/ patterns (the-sought after key which unlocks, the particular area: as you know now, upon what it's based). Programming i.e. websites – xHTML, CSS, JavaScript/ jQuery, PHP, MySQL might prove helpful to understand, as nothing teaches more as building and designing your own systems/ 'worlds'/ everyday search for new data + usually 2-4 hours daily, dependent on the requirements for up to 15h/ day but it has to be noted, that the effort should exceed the time value invested – it's all about the knowledge attained: where continual, seeking/ search for it takes the rest of time.

The 'hardness' of knowledge assimilation from a source: states usually its importance/ as an invisible moral field is to be conquered, #1.1 (on the contrary: information, which doesn't present value to your life is usually 'easy' to ingest). It might be a potential indicator.

Ingest new knowledge based on its importance/ need: usually the harder something is to be acquired: the better value it represents. Invest 10-15, 25% time: to research off-fields, topics.

It would pay-off in time.

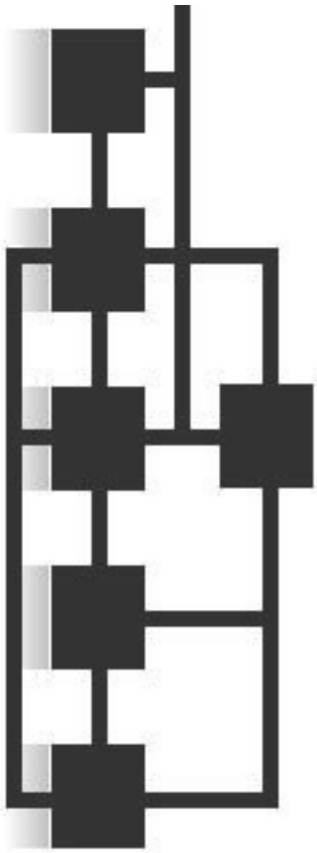
Work on a given tasks takes usually 7, 9 hours up to 11[453] – search 2-3 hours/ yet it's heavily dependent on the job itself, circumstances and those are only averages. None of time is ever wasted. In the rest/ 'relax' time – thinking occurs, which fills up the whole day/ it's like it: everyday. Even, when outside the duties, in time of relax.



Visualization and association of data, in the mind: plays a crucial role in the speed/ creating pathways to its access – usage (all information attained is remembered, but most lack means for its retrieval). Knowledge of this research area: helps immensely accomplish your efforts and it should be investigated, by you. If for instance: you've got to remember the #d1b048 sequence – turn it, into 'dibo' (as it looks similarly and HEX numbers include only A-E, 0-9) and you remember such person which was called as, from your childhood; for 48 – it might be your memorable room, from the colony you've been once (now, see the picture[454] of it – your friend walking into this room: associate it – with this information). This way, you're creating more routes to access this block of data, which would make it more memorable. If one chain, would be lost – you would have two retaining.

Write however ev

Your research in another related fields, i.e. hypnosis, NLP, manipulation, communications, body language, memorization techniques, tactics, business, strategic thinking, cheats/ cons, conspiracies, knowledge about human mind – desires and drives & processes – including its flaws, seduction, marketing, survival, complete knowledge about the Universe – Universal Intellect and Laws operating here, selling, strategic, martial arts, science of power, influence, writing, programming, industrial processes, travel, curiosities, history, management, health, breakthroughs, study of patterns, novelties, science in general etc., where the first is to be mastered – a language in which most of the research data/ materials are (English): is important, for your advancement.

It allows you also to understand how people perceive you – by seeing yourself, through their eyes. It would allow you to see more (i.e. close your eyes, enter a mind of somebody else and try to crack his code of conduct/ how he perceives you, your work – imagine how he can talk about you/ your work, to gain a valuable insight – test it, in practice): followed by empowering talk – self-speak. Universal are certain abilities, and they are first to be exploited to become and be, the best.

[453] However you Live it and think, all the time/ searching continually for a new, important data and experiences – which might further your cause.
[454] Unlocking of the pineal, #3.23: is required for imagination to become available for you.

Necessity is to conduct a deep research which might be helpful to attain your goals, #2. You must learn to combine the knowledge from various non-related, but important disciplines to achieve a real success. It's, a continual process.

"If none is done or known: everything, is impossible."
/ as reply

It might be essential/ core to progress in the process, #2.
Your work is required.

Forever think for yourself and refuse to give any control to anyone over your life/ your personal matters – things, which are for you: important.

It's the must: do, investigate it all by yourself and let be self guided by your intuition/ into uncovering the unknown to you, at the time – important.

2.59. Unique features that distinct successful/ the best

You must to always believe in self. You must forever have an unrelenting attitude towards striving for your goals. You must be distanced, to self – to your goals, to your character as you exist on a different layer – you might suffer, but it doesn't influences you deep within – it's required and temporary/ survival, is the most important.

You must always fight to the very end. If you've lost, it doesn't matter: you would win, eventually – if not today, it is a matter of time. You've taken already full control over your life, #2 and personal responsibility for everything you've got control over – and you keep it, this way to the end of your life. If you don't like something – you change it. You also believe, that everything eventually would align itself: as you've did your best efforts/ in your power – to be as such.

Those, who lack power because of their belief system, #2.51 – 3.26: lack the sense of control and their life is a misery. You know it.

You've prepared enough and continue such efforts everyday to secure your standing, not only in the financial means but in life as a whole, because it gives you – this powerful inside feeling of power. You've got already the ability to say, do and think whatever is necessary – #0.1/ which pushes you towards your goals, all-time. Emotions are replaced by the knowledge, which you're attaining each and every single day.

You make use, of the below tactics, dependent on the tasks given.

You're only giving power over yourself to the degree you're accepting it and allowing other people to have on you. You understand, that by not demanding for yourself to be treated with respect: you're inviting other people to follow. You demand respect and because of it, you get it. You know, you're powerful and people can either love you, but fear when they influence your actions in a meaningful, interfering manner. You always defend your position and value.

You demand yourself to be treated as a King. You rarely use argument, but demonstrate your power rather through body language & calm, thoughtful response to events. You're beyond and are more important, than anyone – you're someone special.

- The core, of your value is the sense of achievement and power, you have. You've got a clear sense of direction – wants, #2: which you acquire through taking and Living the constant process. However you rarely reveal your plans and intentions, unless absolutely necessary or implied by the task, itself. You conceal your wants and desires – hide all your ego, striving to complete the tasks: with all your power and abilities, being the most important thing in your whole life experience. You realize, that by showing them to others – especially those, who have nothing to say or add as they've alone – didn't achieved much or their expertise is near none: you're risking stealing them from you, criticism which might influence your feelings, defenses which could be taken to prepare against the incoming – loosing a lifetime friend is acceptable and doesn't even touches you but to loose a person who might be helpful in the tasks – is something, unacceptable. You keep people in the dark, unless it's absolutely necessary for you, to show little of the project/ if so, even: you don't do it to the end, limiting it, to the part or parts/ required.

  You always have a plan and strive, everyday – for its accomplishment. You know, that if you don't have them long term: you're likely to decay and die, because of it. Therefore any free time/ rest – is taken responsibly only for the short period, or if tasked to in the awaiting for your missions. However, even in such time: you do the extra work of extending your knowledge in the areas which might prove important/ including those related, to borrow solutions or which might be connected.

- You're prepared on every instance, outcome or circumstance – having all covered and you do it, everyday (repeatedly). It's of fundamental value to you, as it allows you to sleep in night. You're not satisfied, until you've covered everything and ensured – it's all checked and verified to work.

- You value people based on their worth to your goals. If they loose it: they become of much less value, but you take care about people. You treat everyone, as the possible mark to your goal: you treat everyone with proper respect, accordingly to their contribution. You always come to somebody with something.

- You know yourself and your standards: you don't accept anything below it, but use every opportunity to further your own causes. You mark high – you're ambitious. You never align to the standards and plans of others i.e. family, friends or other people: unless they're yours/ and, or either advance your agenda. You know what you want in your Life – you follow the once-selected, chosen path/ #2.

- You succumb to the highest moral values, in all your striving. You're the highest morally perfect person. You know the dangers, you know how to act right, #1.1. You refuse to *w*atch on anyone else, as you've got your own way to follow. The more you're in control – the more powerful you feel.
- It's usually never required to fight anyone on fists – resolve and problems by means of words/ joint communication. For instance author of this book never fights – he never provokes, if assaulted – he goes or runs away without returning any punches – maybe at most sits down and covers his head with arms. He don't knows how to fight, yet he knows how to effectively kill and he trained those techniques/ which included defense from escaping various locks and situations to finish the deal. It might be possible to beat a person easily, but he's not interested in it – it's never his goal, he's holding and it must always be remembered/ i.e. by slowing time in mind, to 0.1x – using his reserve of moral energy to crush the bones with a punch, #1.1/ use few basic moves which he[455] knows, mainly to dismember joints. However, if the fight would have to be executed – it would likely be brought to the level, where the opponent is weak/ or has no knowledge whatsoever about i.e. usage of a poison, woman, throwing intrigue/ curse etc. as it's believed by the author: that everyone has got some weak spot. It's usually something which is to be handed: few punches mainly from open hands or a kick on the head, but it's the price to be paid for the striving/ as he holds no Karma, #1.2 for physical pain: merely none of it is felt – maybe he has got a scratch, at most. It's known to those around them, that he doesn't fights and it must be acknowledged. No one, ever knows or even suspects a thing/ would believe it, ever. It hasn't ever occurred for anybody to really create situation which would require to use any of them and with over half of the world as his enemy: with nearly everybody in his surrounding – a conclusion has been drawn, that it's futile to use force/ it's for the weak and the weakest, or to react emotionally which is revealing of the intents and information not to be acquired the other way. Besides, training something – creates an urge to test it in the real world and it might be dangerous for somebody else.

If threatened or beaten: escape, or leave the situation – preferably, if your life isn't threatened: avoid[456] to fight. If the opponent pursues you: tell him to leave, escape one more time again – tell sorry, just to be left and use everything in your power to discourage him. If it doesn't works, use the below.

[455] There is more to it as for instance way that the last, i.e. opponent – wo always punch: from the two first knu [456] If an aggression is made: it's usua ground, might call for partners etc. (

Use an immediate light, but decided punch to the neck/ best, under the specific bump of Adam's apple, to neutralize the danger.

Warning! A real strong punch to this point – might kill a person, beware.

Groin area is also very sensitive, but it has to a punch delivered to the testicles/ to crush and squash them efficiently. It would give you some time.

If you're really in a need of assistance when you're beaten, yell loud: "it's burning! Fire!!' as maybe there is someone around, who would help you. Count always only on yourself and what you know/ have with you. Pepper spray is for women/ it might not be enough[457] – beware, never provoke: it's best to be beaten or completely robbed than to loose your health. Never fight, with anyone unless your life is threatened.

- Wise & smart learn from the mistakes of others/ you learn primarily as such. It's done commonly through observation, but also by getting such knowledge from constant education, i.e. books and movies/ ability to see, spot the patterns and errors of those, who were before. In order for you to perform at your very best: you're attaining everyday all the possible knowledge related to your niche of work/ job or business – you're also attached to those highly motivated, knowledgeable and skillful people with experience/ the smarter and probably wealthier than you (the best people, in the industry/ sharks). You've escaped the lazy/ no-knowledgeable environment and stick, with doers. You know, that you have to strike oil only once to be rich for the rest of your lifetime and you pursue the drill, constantly. You're someone better.

  You use a priori/ a posteriori approach, i.e. from cause to effect/ and from effect to cause: which leads you to finding the sought after answers. However you know, it might sometimes be not simply enough: therefore you proceed at expanding your knowledge and daily understanding, to always fight up to the very end – getting the answer, if the matter is only of importance.

- Your primary goal/ want, in life is to attain as much money as possible – to achieve financial independence for the rest of your days here/ meaning: you don't ever need to work again, in it. You firstly strive to the first, then increase the wealth – by taking and living the constant process, #2.

- Adaptability is for you paramount. You know, you would persevere – any conditions, get through any obstacles or circumstances. You value this skill, work on it everyday and develop. You do basically what has to be done and thrive, by it.

- Boldness is like your second nature. You're big in every undertaking, you value your ability to be seen and admired. Popularity is everything/ what's unseen – counts for nothing. You're the master of a spectacle, generating interest and King of the task. Quantity, not the quality is essential to build a momentum. You know how to cause people speak about you, your projects or businesses – it's by playing to score big, through boldness: you really win.

POWER

[457] Mainly, because you would simply have no time to even use it as danger is the case of men/ besides, it's a false i.e. none sense of security (more clearly: completely = you've got a serious problem).

- You always do the work first, because it's the most important thing in your life to deliver tasks taken in the process, #2 and/ where you can rest after – each day.

- Except being a moral person – it's important, what your friend[458] does/ if he's involved in immoral: after getting knowledge from him – you're likely to end relationship (by withdrawal). You however understand that people are imperfect and do mistakes, so you offer advice to get out of the enterprise – and it's known, to the subject.

- What you do today: would really pay itself in 5 to 7 year time in the future. It's the secret to this illusion/ it's deliberately known and accepted, by you.

You strive for power and you get it.

Inverse paranoia, is the way to handle things/ looking what or who, might help or be used – in the situation: as there is always a way out or it is created, by the Laws. You know it, embrace and turn everything to your advantage/ as you know, that it works for you as you've took the process, #2.

- Ability to make money, is rather more crucial than having them. Price of the commodity might go down for a decade/ product or a line of them: become obsolete in the face of new solutions or clients become more educated to just stop buying and you're bust/ particularly, if took any debt for the development of your company (bank can ask to repay the debts immediately and you're broke without even a need for the previous).

  You watch your matters/ keep an eye on any dates of payments for things important to you. Fail at them and you've might lost – lots of work and value. Negligence is a serious crime for which you pay daringly/ to forever, avoid.

  You invest money in the tasks, #2 and accept if they would be lost/ because, you're really not about the investment itself – rather than in your experience: which you would gain because of it – that really do matters for you. You know, everything/ most would pay itself back – in time/ only possible due to it.

  You've might get repossessed, all wealth might be nationalized – you might loose all due to disaster i.e. nuclear or any other/ through toxins. You're aware that if you live in a major city like New York: it would be destroyed by the wave caused by a nuclear strike operation etc. like many other. Therefore the only thing, which really does matters to you – is your survival and the knowledge attained in this life experience: which can set you free as it provides the ability to deal with the unknown and all, which might endanger your well-being and prosperity.

You know it – you're aware of such situation. Therefore, you prepare for the incoming – in all its aspects, including the financial. However, you acknowledge that money are a life-blood to the company – your Life and you've got them secured, kept hidden for the future/ along with the stacked resources and others – like a secured shelter: which would insure your very living and provide with an immense sense of security.

You're forever in control.

Always those who are weak, on the basis of the soul value[459] itself – who don't develop themselves: die, usually in[460] agony. It's a gene race, where those less intelligent/ those who didn't learned to use their brains: clear the genetic material.

Avoid to be, one of them.

[459] Built upon a set of variety experiences/ knowledge and skill: developed during this and previous lives.
[460] Which is for them, their life: a never-ending struggle.

Your Life is how you expect and agree for it, to be. If you don't like something – take an action, to change it. You have to forever persevere, up to reaching the desired result. In order for you to become: you have to change your ways or re-invent yourself to successfully adapt to the environment – partially of your own creation/ which is a continual process.

- You have to severely limit the frequency and size of gifts that you do over other people. If you're known for instance as a person who sponsors e.g. vodka or other – it would be used, against you and you'd might get into trouble. You know, when to have a gesture and when to not – it's not granted that you would buy/ you don't must anything.

- You have to make people around you comfortable & to cause them feel best at the subconscious level. You must be associated with pleasure, power – gain, development or getting the desired, e.g. women – then, people would desire your presence around them/ which would enable you to benefit. People don't like perfect people, so you're required sometimes to display some defects – even faked, intentionally. Forget about the past/ focus only on the current gains – on now/ with relations to anyone, #4.3.

- You have to be neat, tidy and clean/ shaved all-time. Your underarm smell can be annihilated by the twice usage of soap – perfumes are an option. You have to be get rid off hair on your penis/ vagina and keep them bald – also underarms and legs have to be shaved, in case of women. You have to respect yourself in order to receive it back: also in the matters of personal hygiene.

- You have to limit your meetings with other people as it would enhance their respect towards you, and the last plays a very important role. You have to guard your opinion merely 'with you life' as it's of the utter-most importance. You have to establish yourself as an honest, hard-working, person which is to be trusted – the best, in the industry itself. Any unjustified attack on your reputation, must be treated as an insult and the person/ threat confronted, immediately. It's vital, always remember about it/ if you won't care: nobody ever would.

- Pheromones – Pheromax, Man: 2.0mg Androstenol, 1.8mg Androstenone, 1.2mg Androstadienone; Woman: 3.0mg Copulins, 1.0mg Androstenol, 1.0mg Estratetraenol might be useful. Be warned that overdosing this product or using it either with guidelines might bring you unconscious[461] to the hospital as a result of being beaten.

- Let your works/ facts, experience speak for itself. Know that you don't have to show or prove, anything – anytime.

- You have learn to deny people help/ refuse many opportunities.

If you don't see the clues – as you decide to ignore them: you're likely to fail each and every time. It also extends to help which is brought to you in a form of an important bits/ scraps of information, people/ disasters in your Life or other, meaningful events. It requires from you – thinking and awareness, of what is important.

[461] Confirmed: they work/ their effects might include: people in your surrounding become more talkative, social and sometimes eager to flirt. You increase the desire and interest – in your person. You become a person more attractive sexually. Your rivals treat you with higher respect – they seek for your approbation. You become a person dominating in the group. It works only for those who are below you or on the similar value of yours. It's a powerful tool which might serve the timely purpose, but rather avoid to use it long term/ later: stop to use it, at all.

Acknowledge.

> You know, that in Life – independent of how bad it is, or what happened to you/ your close ones: it's never so bad to take your life away. You can always overcome any obstacle, problem or issue as you've got the power in you – the metagene of Creation/ to bring you, the desired.
> In this reality, there always exists a solution to every problem, yet it has to be found by you.
> Begin fresh, stay with clear conscience and change your life.
> It's not about the misery, but about the courage to overcome it.
> The highest defeat ever – is to ever give up, mentally.
> The winners, are not judged for their achievements but by their abilities to overcome the greatest hardships. You're one of them/ in the stage of becoming, because you've took the process, #2 and decided to continue it.

You would win eventually – it's absolutely guaranteed, by the Laws/ and the Universe (as those are rules, of the game – this reality).

If you work has to be mental/ let it be. No one cares: you're bound to deliver/ to survive. Important, in the last might be the tools you've got on you, yet also used to your work. Except items mentioned in, #3.98C: the rest might include the below.

(Not in order, of importance)

- Wipes, pen i.e. Parker Jotter which lasts long & piece of paper: mainly to be used in the toilet/ when you're outside to sweep yourself; to write something, to give it to somebody – to leave a message; paper can be used as a container for something loose,

- Condoms: they can be used for sex, #4.12 despite also as a container i.e. to carry water – if only not lubricated/ particularly important, because you'd might be refused love, without them,

- Leatherman/ other multitools i.e. Cardsharp credit card knife, Tool Logic Survival I, Mykel Hawke® Survival Card, #3.98C: make sure, they're legal to carry in your country; second employs: a serrated knife of tough stainless steel, a magnesium alloy fire starter, a loud signal whistle, plus an 8x power lens and compass, tweezers and toothpick and a hole for lanyard attachment – all, credit card size,

- Lighter: it's useful to carry/ to burn something, open a beer or start a fire – many uses,

- 50 plastic bags, 35l/ ~qt: in case of cold temperature – you can wrap yourself around, can be used as a cover for rain and it has got many other uses; can also serve as a container,

- 100% steel hip-flask 240ml/ 8oz or 270ml/ 9.1oz: filled with 10% vinegar solution for a pesticide disinfection or as a cleaning agent; can be used as a container to boil water and for many other purposes,

- Leather wallet, with memory stick/ MMC card – pendrive with usb – usb memory credit card/ all three, sticking plasters/ adhesive bandages and your personal business cards; where part of the equipment can be placed – neatly, memory stick can be glued to your body with the use of Super Glue (cyanoacrylate[462]); you should typically carry all the documents as it would enable you to save time, in a case of their need; you should give to anyone's interested/ a potential client: your business card, to insure his contact – selling your products more effectively or gaining on the possible cooperation,

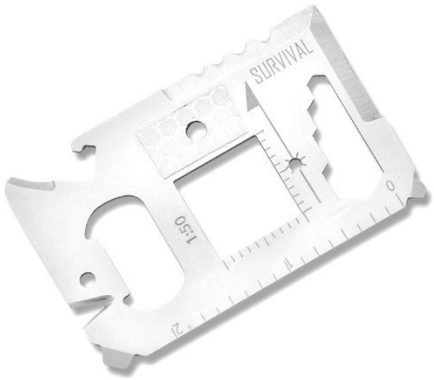
[462] Non-toxic: was used to glue wounds of soldiers – sa

- Mobile phone which has a presence, camera – GPS, audio mini-jack, notes and calculator, touch-screen included: you should always have money on it, to be able make and receive calls.

The redundancy rule of three, states that i.e. fire: if you were to loose your lighter – you would have still kindling in the survival tin and in the survival credit card – extended by the knowledge, on how to make it without any tools – which is hard. It applies to all and everything: money – you put it, in 3 places on you etc. so you're always prepared for any situation, in this reality.

Knowledge, knife and fire – after: are usually the most important tools in any survival event and there is nothing more important than your Life/ therefore, look after it. Be thankful and appreciate for what you've been able to have or get, in order to become the best.



Know/ some might require being reversed in particular scenarios.

- Perhaps, the most important skill of all/ leading to power, is the control over self emotions. An emotional response to event or a situation – is the single greatest obstacle to any achievement as it clouds your reasoning: you can't judge, can't see the situation clearly as it is/ you reveal besides your intents – loosing control. If outer communication is based on emotional responses like screaming or use of force: it blocks any opportunity for influence/ to shape people to your goals as they tend to close in themselves/ which reveals the weakness of character etc., #4.3.

  Be discreet, think before you tell something important to anybody. Listen to the news, but react coldly, without no emotions, as you were unaffected. You're forbidden to take anything personally/ you're not touched by any. Whatever anyone thinks is irrelevant to you, as it's his problem and you know yourself better than anybody/ your standards: nothing can affect your thinking or deeper convictions/ you've might however acknowledge them and suit to your needs for your own personal development.

  You can't rather repress emotions like love, #4.16 or anger, but you've got full control over how you express them. They never tend to influence your thinking or the strategies you take, towards yourself/ life. If you're striving to destroy an enemy that hurts you – it's far better to keep him off-guard by feigning friendliness than by showing your anger, #1.11X.

- Instead of thinking about something i.e. how much you're tired/ how you're lazy and don't want to – just do it/ the task, with the inverse thoughts. Then, relax.

- Power requires commonly the ability to play with appearances. You have to learn, in the whole process, #2 of attaining knowledge: to wear & use many deceptive tricks on many levels with the prospect to persuade and influence/ all, within the moral boundaries. You don't have to tell everything i.e. 'because it has to be so', 'because it's required'/ no-because: you can pretend. You've learned how to conceal your intentions.

  You're aware: you can't succeed unless you would take a distanced approach to yourself and your person, as a character/ your nature. You use different masks for various people: the moment they're required. You know that they're expected – you're becoming a master of play, to further your own causes. In order to receive: you must give first.

- If you can't make a decision: throw a coin/ take the choice which first appeared in your thoughts. You must be decisive, all-time.

POWER

- You've mastered the skill of: patience. It's a supreme virtue of a gods, not without a reason – you know it. You're the master of time and control/ never seem to be in a hurry or out of power. You've got the supreme patience, as you know/ have the knowledge backed by the deeper belief: that everything would eventually align itself, as you've taken and are Living the process, #2/ which is the truth. Impatience on your side might be the causality for painful mistakes and bad judgments/ let your enemies make them.

- Never listen what people have to say or speak, but look only after the effects of their actions/ judge them, by the outcome// which particularly includes women. Avoid to be deluded by anything else.

- POWERFUL PEOPLE measure and judge everything by the terms of its real acquisition cost. Not only the price counts/ is included, but also the time, the nerve, many other variables – the value spent, which is the real price. You've might perhaps achieve something, but at what personal cost? It's essential to only select those things, take those actions, associate with those people which or who are valuable in the terms of real gains/ acquisition costs – prices to pay. Avoid to ever engage in actions which are a waste/ not earning back your time or money invested.

  Life is short, opportunities few and you've got limited energy to spend. You choose wisely/ use your time only on the valuable – with, the tasks provided in the process/ #2.

- It's forbidden for you to be bound, to any items or to glorify them/ or pray to – be proud, of any. It might come a time: when you would have to leave in less than 3 minutes, take your already-packed bag, #3.98C/ as the World War III starts. Fail at it and you're likely die – they're all bought, they don't represent ANY real value. They're only items – they're only items... a ways/ tools to achieve the end means.

  Your Life is only of true value – everything else, is expendable/ you know it: truly mean, prioritize. You're guided, by it/ investing in self – everyday.

- You're becoming greater and more powerful by speaking less than necessary. Your silence makes others – feel uncomfortable and therefore, they commonly subconsciously want to feel the gap between the words: revealing valuable information – hidden motives and weaknesses. You're an excellent speaker and a delightful listener: you always more listen than talk, i.e. in 2 ears – 1 mouth proportion. You allow the speaker to tell of himself as much as he wants/ encouraging the talk, by asking the questions – directing a dialogue on the pathways you're interested in, #4.3.

  You're a likable/ moral person and as you speak less: you're more profound and mysterious which drives power to you. Lack of information is a strong tool when you've learned how to use it – to your advantage. You know it's merely impossible for other people to do what you want, by only talk/ you use this knowledge, to influence. You've created also a habit to never move your lips when your subordinates do. You're also reducing the chance to say something foolish by talking less as words are powerful and when once said: they can't be reversed.

- You've became a master psychologist by studying and seeing other people's motives, intentions and plans – of what's important to them: how you can acquire their help and cooperation/ what point to touch, to receive. You never discriminate anyone, but study everyone and are wary who you trust. You never trust anyone or put a complete trust to no one. You always verify and check, as it's the highest mark of confidence. You study all in your surrounding and out of it: including the loved ones – your family, friends, helpers and enemies. You've learnt and mastered, the art of indirection.

- You draw attention to yourself/ & your business by creating an unforgettable experience, even controversial image. You court scandal. It's usually far better to be attacked than to be ignored. Everything is judged by its appearance. You've established for yourself an image of quality/ which sets you apart.

  You also understand that people feel a sense of superiority to a person who's actions they could predict, so you either use it to your advantage/ or portray an air of unpredictability, as of the requirement for your goals. You use typically the aura of mystery, to make yourself less obvious to others as it drives the power and interest/ increasing the popularity of your works.

- It would be repeated forever again: look for the future, but focus only on the present/ on now – by constantly thinking throughout all of the problems, circumstances which might pop – to be prepared, before. You must imagine all permutations of the possibilities which might affect you, because by seeing clearly many steps ahead/ also through proper preparation – knowing, what might happen: you're increasing your power and peace of mind.

- You never listen/ believe to any of the misfortunes – they're like an infection, a disease that poisons your will: overtaking the whole body. Everything which isn't bringing you to your goals is EVIL and you avoid it – never associate with it/ which includes people. You're forbidden to let any misfortune to your Life – complaint & negative/ not-powerful, power-bringing emotional states are like a parasites transmitted through the skin: they poison you, leading to the disaster. You know, that by letting evil to your life: it would become a disaster/ you refuse to listen ever or let anyone forever with such stance/ approach to your world.

  You never likely to associate with those, who share your defects/ as they would reinforce everything which holds you back. You create an associations with those: who share your affinities. The people with who you spend your time with – are critical: it's the single most important bridge to success or agony, in another misery. You avoid the diseased, and if anyone becomes one: you remove[463] them from your Life, instantaneously and permanently.

- You never win through argument – actions and demonstration are much more powerful. The truth is generally seen, not heard – you know that, make a use of it. There is usually no point over winning minds, unless they're required for your goals or you're the controller – you use your time wisely. The problem with the first, is that many might agree on the surface, but it won't be accepted/ ever to be resented inside and it only counts as it provides the desired change.

- Learn others to make the work for you – the one, which can be done by them. If any is required for you to know or you're inferior with: learn from the best, to amass the knowledge and make it on your own. Hire slowly, but fire fast. It's impossible to achieve anything worthwhile by yourself only/ or it isn't clever. You have to work smart and effectively: not to ruin yourself by the effort. You've learned to take an advantage of other people's work to further your own cause – you're required to borrow from the past, to have more time for yourself] to attain and deliver efficiently.

- In your way to power: you would find yourself constantly in the position of asking other people for help. You know to never appeal to their mercy or gratitude: you always adjust to their self-interest when asking for anything, #4.3. Is the person concerned about his reputation or social standing? Does he have enemies you could help him to vanquish? Does he needs valuable knowledge or has some sort of problem which you could resolve? What motivates him? What is his interest, to promote yours? Nobody ever cares or cared, about you – the way you do/ you know people, understand their psychology – use it, to further your agenda/ which includes tasks.

- It's critical to crush your enemies completely – leaving them no space to operate. You give them no hope, no maneuver. You give an option: you're with me OR you're my enemy/ out of business. It would make them think/ to regret their choices if they weren't in favor to you.

- If you do something – you do it, to the very end. If you start something – you finish it.
  If you work – you work. If you relax – you relax.

  You've learnt to complete the taken task, to the end – until you can take another/ it's applied to all mini-tasks i.e. when in a toilet: you finish the deal, before you're able to return the call made to you. You eat – you finish the meal to the very end, before you would go to the toilet. You do only one thing at a time, to its completion – to the end/ you've made a habit, of it.

  If you do: you do.

- You make people dependent on you, unless the tasks you take – serve other purpose. You know that if the person isn't needed, wanted or his skills become obsolete: he dies or is doomed for a prison, in the society/ so you're always versatile and suited to withstand every conditions.

  What is lost by killing you? Are your replaceable? What can you do to make yourself one of a kind/ the best – the all-time required specialist? You're guided by this question, to become even better – everyday.

  The ultimate power is to make people as you want or wish/ it's achieve usually through the relation of dependence. You'd might want to cause other feel weak or inferior without you, making for anyone very hard to find any replacement whatsoever – in the extended period of time. You've might also want to entrench yourself in various, many structures that doing without you: would lead to chaos. Knowing also other people's secrets – holding them secured to you, makes you untouchable/ ensuring – they would be released in case of your death or betrayal etc. You've got a talent, a creative skill and you find ways to make it look as you're truly indispensable.

  You make the people dependent on you, by their happiness – prosperity and well-being and because of it: you rise to the top/ fast.

- You always mark dumber as you are. Most don't like usually those who are smarter/ or much smarter and talented than they – it causes resentment/ you know it. You cause people to feel more sophisticated than you and they're letting their guards down. They keep you around, because they gain from you and the longer you're around: the more opportunities you get. You're like a harmless pig, who nobody would suspect: could harbor a dangerous ambition.

- If you've made a mistake: admit to it if it's required, immediately – next – fix the damage done/ repair your actions. Never make it again, #0.1. The way to do something, is to just do it right/ even faking it first: until it becomes your reality.

- In order for you to gain power: you must be a source of it, for others. Be a source of pleasure to others – play to people's fantasies, dosing them appropriately. Never promise a gradual improvement through hard work: rather focus on the moon, the great and sudden transformation and a bag of gold.

- If you believe: you're destined for a great things – this inner-deep conviction will radiate outwards/ attracting others which would follow. Just as a King is surrounded by an aura of royalty: people would start to think you must have *s*omething really of value to be so confident. You wear such crown and you feel no sense of limits/ or boundaries which couldn't be passed, or done/ accomplished by you. You've allowed yourself to do what's moral and of your own desire/ to achieve what you want in life, taking the risks to succeed at it. Only due to this transformation of thinking: you're achieving forever the desired, as you fight to the very end – infinitely/ nothing can conquer your inner feelings or convictions and you're the best, eternally. It radiates forward.

- Ability to concentrate all your forces/ on a single task – to push it to the very end, is the most crucial to any success. 1 goal, at a time – #2.

In the end, there are two rules of success. 1st: is to never tell everything/ to the end.

Life is all about power: the sense of control.

If you give it away – your power, to the outer circumstances by choosing such beliefs: you're losing the war, because you've got little to none influence over such an external events. It leads you to misery, depression, lack of purpose and deficit of attraction by others.

If you retain your power inside of you: put the faith, backed by the belief in you/ your responsibilities and the will to change: you can improve your situation. Later, you attain the powerful sense of control, as you progress with it and your Life turns on the very best.

It's only up to you, whether you would take such choice – #2/& stick to it.

Up, to every each prize.

2.9. EPILOGUE

Life is by all means hard: some have it better some don't, but through the appliance of knowledge and keeping forever the highest morality – it can become the best experience ever, by all means.

Doing the best work in the world: gives you only a sense of empowerment and pushes you towards the goal realizations. The highest weapon on any critic/ parasite, is for you to just don't care – his or her points are irrelevant to what you do as you've got your composure all-time/ it's their problem, not yours. You're unaffected. Believe it's already yours, only it would take a little to get you there.

Most of the knowledge is connected highly within each self. For instance, if you're an excellent painter: you should focus your development also on other areas of interest, which would make your business running smoothly, i.e. selling, business, marketing and promotion, cheating/ for the stake of exploiting human desires in your works, social communications and all the other which serve the purpose. The most single mistake, is to ever focus on one area of development (in fact – programming, NLP, universal Laws are the most crucial areas of interest – which should be pursued, but who would know it? You would find, if you seek – to find and become the best, in your area). Moreover, you should also study other artists, history, know everything about your field[464] (by following the inner desires of soul, being passionate and strive to become the best – #1st in the world). When those traits: are acquired in the process – you won't imagine any other Life and it's the measure of it.

It's always like, that those useful to the Creator are thriving and took care for and those who are not, because of their own choice: get stranded, strangled and suffer (the sheep)/ for their whole lives.

No purposeful effort is ever lost.

[464] A professional fighter, except information included in #2.59: must use a special mind programming designed for the purpose of becoming the best – in history/ do obligatory body cleanse, #3 with intestines as priority/ store all-time sperm inside for up to few months before any battle, #3.95C, test the fight performance in starvation, #3.1 – if only detoxified fully, breathe a special mix of gases similarly as divers do – before and in the breaks to saturate the body, use lowering body core temperature device, apply urine on fists – body and add organic oil/ possibly special pheromones, wear red shorts, rehearse in mind/ watch all the possible fights to study patterns etc.

IMPLEMENT AND FOLLOW FOREVER

Question always, for a lifetime – your procedures, the things you do: do they've got sense, can all be more efficient? Walkthrough every process you do, periodically by adapting changes – immediately.

Refuse in Life for anything to get you: by taking maximum precautions, learning and preparing for the very worst/ acting only morally. It involves thinking and constant development.

Change your area of Living/ profession, place of operations every 3-5 years. Constantly develop by perpetrating new projects, learning new skills and improving yourself to strive for the best, only. Be the best in the world as its entirely possible for you[465] – for everyone.

Develop yourself constantly, every minute of your Life.

What should motivate you: is what stays – on the end as it only truly matters/ when you die, people would only remember what you've contributed to their lives. In the end, when the play passes: you're left with nothing of value, by taking any other approach to life. Moreover, you don't have to work your whole life – only those 5, 7 years to be able to Live to the end of it, being independent financially as a result of this one, single decision with which you've stayed/ stuck for this time. Nobody told it would be easy to start. Keep the faith always with you, to the end and after it – forever.

Life now is easy, because you don't have to worry about anything – you just work[466] your way on a simple goal/ not require to do anything else, in this one: particular, moment of time. You don't look future: you take from the past and ensure its delivery. You attain aside any possible knowledge of use, gain valuable experiences and are in effect: the happiest person in this world/ having only to know, what you want as when you've took the process, #2 – everything in this reality started to work on your advantage.

It's all to be gained this way, little to none – any other: it's the code of this reality. You would attain it, through taking this path. FUN is the process, but it comes later – when you would get the required. It's only possible fully, fastest and it's all about the work, fun and pleasure. It becomes easier: when you make it fun – are attached emotionally and enjoy, the whole experience.

When you take the process – you stick to the end of it. You can have breaks, but you push it to the end. Then, you truly win. Moral energy, is the key.

You must have everything own and it's achieved in/ through the process. Yet, you have still to take it – #0.1, #2.

The process would lead you eventually, to the prize – it's a Law, it performs/ make the best efforts, with urgency: to perform at your part, of the deal. Your success is absolutely guaranteed if you would only deliver/ which you're always able to.

[465] Being limited to areas of the inner desires of soul, which are remarkable & beyond what you can reach in a lifetime.
[466] It's not work, either way – it's just "sitting and doing" which doesn't feels like any/ pleasure is derived from it.

Take the path, #2.
Now.

// If you won't do something now with this information i.e. order organic food, #3.21 to prepare it with the guidelines attached/ any other – throw this book away or give it to someone who would; share it – either way.

Independent on how low you are, imperfect/ where you are in life – evil, poor or in what trouble, problems, you-name it etc.: you can always change everything, in an instant. It takes only a split-second decision with which: you have to stay, #2/ any breaks are included. The rest, would unfold.

It's how it is, in this reality.

You might perceive process as a journey which takes eternity, but the truth is different. It's easy – you just have to TAKE THE FIRST STEP and continue.

In fact, it's plain – clear: despite, you have to perform your works.

You push, fail, you push another project to its completion – you fail, another one – to fail again/ you must however do everything to succeed. The beginning is the hardest – the '1st year' where the most resign. The 3rd year – you usually succeed financially, to loose it: to keep the motivation – to understand how to handle the money. You have to learn fast, perform your work at your best, urgently and it's all/ everything would later be covered.

It's worthy to forget about the time: just enjoy it, in its all completeness. In the end, it's only a blink of an eye and you've got pockets full of cash, staying with experiences and financially independent on your current[467] level of Living – to the rest of your life.

Who wouldn't take it, #2?

Your Life would change after those 5 or 7 skinny years, on the very best.

It's unbelievable more to it. This book is merely an introductory, to inspire you to take the action.
Make it, now – #2.

[467] Yes, you see it correctly: you work your way for 5 to 7* years at your best performance – delivering and you're financially free for the rest of your lifetime/ if your strivings only involve it.
It's the ultimate goal, of it.

* Conditions might wary due to your preparedness and current level of morality/ #1.1 & performance of work performed, but if only applied all of those teachings from this document – learned and done everything: it's granted.
/ As it exploits at max those set-by-God, #1.11xE: algorithms (value of this work; share it, secure).

THE FULL RESTORATION OF HEALTH

Before you would engage: it's required to quit any pharmaceutics[468]/ other completely, be at least 18 years old, not pregnant, certain conditions might be a contradiction to it (see agreement on the first page, for more).

3.01. PREFACE

This process would restore your health in 100%. It means that any symptom, sickness and disease would be healed, when applied completely. In particular sections an additional time might be required to do so, until the symptoms retreat fully.

Health is probably the most crucial factor in life, as it dictates – the energy levels, clear thinking and many other important in the process/ #2. Therefore it's a duty, independent of the current health status – to introduce and perform all the steps required, to win yourself those qualities: for most, beyond any idea what is achieved due to it. When you would complete this procedure: you would be in terms of thinking, well-being and energy levels – transcendent to anyone and the last would pay by itself with great benefit.

Independent of the current health level: by passing this process you would get an unimaginable boost when all the body functions – would be restored, the last cleansed out of parasites, toxins and all pathogens. Imagine yourself to be 10x more – it's what's achieved, for everyone who had successfully completed it – it's unbelievable more.

All needs to be applied in order set, as changes to it might cause severe consequences (none of the stages can be skipped, if not written otherwise). The last can be only altered when having a confirmed cancer or a Lyme disease (suspicion is enough, #3.95A & #3.95B).

If you won't complete the full body cleanse: your state and health would stay on the same level, with the tendency to decrease (and with the increasing consumption of GMO foods: to indirectly die/ put yourself on the brink of death and with the notice, that – the damage done might be irreversible beyond certain point). Nobody can or would do it for you – so you would either do them and become healthy or die in the process of avoiding.

If you would follow and Live accordingly to those rules – you would be healthy. If not – you won't (or be partially, with the tendency to decrease at max.)[469]. It needs to be noticed out loudly, that if you haven't implemented them fully: you have no knowledge whatsoever, what this word actually means.

Completion of the whole process is required to experience the full health and all stages are necessary/ only natural foods, herbs and minerals including electricity are used, to bring it back – it's completely safe.

[468] As combination of them with herbs/ chemicals used in treatment might be lethal.
[469] Little variations in diet are possible like e.g. full raw diet, no cooked, no meats etc. but the solution proposed are the best existing, including also your comfort and are also cost-effective.

If you've had shared this book already: you'd probably found someone already who is willing to do cleanses – parallel to yours. It would be probably helpful, for some/ decision is already made.

For your own stake and well-being – share this document now.

Begin the treatment, now/ drop of any pharmaceuticals, others – is required before.

3.1. 7-DAY INITIAL STARVATION

Starvation is probably the easiest and the most pleasurable procedure existing, only human beliefs based on prejudice and implemented beliefs are telling to think different. It's easy, as you just drink only water all the time/ you might have additionally a need only, to leave when other people are around: cooking and also – skip to see any foods. When you drink pure water: the hunger actually disappears after completely and you're 'fully eaten' to the limits – the last is really present for the 3 first days only. Then, the pleasurable state sets in – peace of mind and a feeling in which probably you would love to be permanently – beautiful sense of world is around, as you're clear with everything: have got an outstanding thinking – not interrupted by any, of the non-important/ i.e. later, read further. It's also the best[470] method to drop any addictions, #2.2 as organisms forgets the old.

DO

In time of starvation: please order organic foods – mentioned in, #3.21 and after completing the first – start to apply eating those guidelines, immediately.

When you start the starvation you must ensure, that you would acquire organic food in the end of its completion as it's forbidden to touch anything except it (which is not BIO/ organic/ ecological). If you don't live in the vicinity of such ECO shops or they're not available at your place – you should place an order at the start of this process (now) and wait for the shipment near the end of it (details are in next section, #3.21).
In any other instance, skip this step.

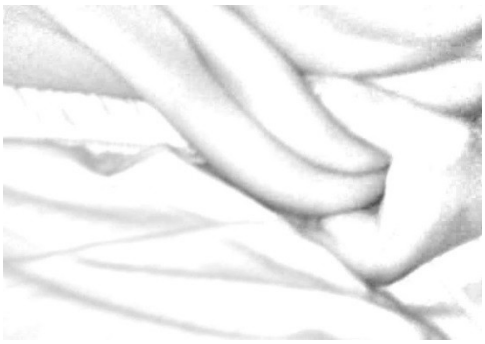
Organism periodically needs to clean itself, from deposits that were held by years of intoxication (food, air and environmental). The only viable way, that can't be skipped and replaced by any other means: is allowing it to do it alone, by actually giving the time to perform the work – achieved only, when refraining completely from eating. Starvation brings balance and harmony to the body. It's the time, which is used to normalize its functions and to heal – fix organs, burn and/ or expel toxins. Analogically your body: can be summarized to a hoarder house, which is cleaned of all the unusable/ dangerous trash, dropping all the redundant and toxic (see pictures on next page).

[470] It includes predominantly addiction to the previous, chemical/ pesticide-infested, processed 'foods'/ i.e. particularly perhaps your old diet.

Your body, after using glycogen from muscles and liver – is forced to go deeper to burn fat and accumulated in it toxins but also all the useless and sick (where the first lasts to three days, after which the healing process starts and starvation takes place). A general review is conducted, in which all the bodily functions are restored, including metabolism, cleaning all of organs and also those connected with the immune and nervous system. In those conditions: your body is able to work very well, using only reserves which were accumulated for all the years before (fat only is burned in such period and all the unusable, toxic, redundant so it's completely safe – a typical person is able to drop up to 7-10kg/ 15.4-22lbs[471] in this time or more of pure fat, without touching any muscles).

[471] It depends, but it's advised to begin with short-term hunger strikes like in this cleanse (all fat can be dropped in starvations: the most effectively and totally safe). In order to burn it completely: it's enough to extend the time of days when you stay completely out of any food/ i.e. you prolong those recommended 7 days by 3, 7 next days (if only fat is present on the belly, for it to be safe). It can also be done, by taking two 7 or more day starvations.

In the first instance, artery & veins are cleaned where the cholesterol (fat) has been deposited, as it's a good source of fuel and all deposits which are unnecessary and which gathered as: cysts, bumps, outbreaks of purulent e.g. under teeth, brown senile dye, calcium salts, pimples etc. but also bacteria, dead or abnormal cells. Diseased tissues are burned quite fast. A thorough cleanse of the body happens, from toxins which are known for causing extensive damage after certain time and accumulation. What's more, organs such as brain, heart: keep their weight, whether subcutaneous tissue looses it up to 95%.



Nothing is touched, until fat is burned nearly completely, so there is absolutely no possibility of death during the sequence, when the above rule is preserved. In this period symptoms like headache, increased sweating, rapid or irregular heartbeat, periods of lowered well-being could arise and they're normal and expected, as they imply that toxins or sources of a disease are burned, being simply a manifestations of the healing process – you would feel weak until the body won't detoxify itself.

Therefore: you should start the starvation now as it's very simple/ it's the only way to pass it.

ACT NOW!

STOP to eat now: at this moment you're allowed to drink only pure water for the next 7-days (remember that consuming anything, like e.g. sip of a drink or a tiny chunk of food, medicine – breaks the starvation completely; it takes the next three days again – to restart it, after the body: would switch to internal nutrition – starting the real, 4-day hunger strike). You're allowed then to drink only pure water.

You won't die, as nothing is touched except redundant, toxic waste and fat in your body.
It's easy. It's safe.

After completing the full term starvation: please make sure you would resize your stomach properly by eating very small portions of single, un-mixed food (as it shrinks and it might cause pain to eat at full, immediately after). It's forbidden to touch any other foods, than organic and to eat in any different way, than the sample diet from #3.21 (with the guidelines included).

Avoid to think about it, just do it – it's something which obligatorily needs to be done.

Cease to eat now/ drink only pure water.

IF YOU'VE FAILED – START AGAIN, ALL THE TIME UNTIL YOU SUCCEED[472].
YOU DO ALWAYS AS SUCH, WITH ALL – DENYING YOURSELF TO BE DEFEATED IN ANY TERMS.

PROCEED WITH READING TO, #3X: BUT CONTINUE ONLY – IF IT'S [472] When the programming from #0.1 would set in: it would be easy to pass. However, complete it at this time as it's plain-easy. You shouldn't eat additionally at all, when sick.

COMPLETED.

You should perform at least three 7-day starvations to clean yourself completely.
Do one best in early spring, each consecutive year.

3.2. INTRODUCTION OF NEW – ORGANIC DIET, RULES OF EATING/ ELEMENTS TO ELIMINATE

Certain elements are required to function properly and at your best. Therefore, a set of rules of hidden very often knowledge: needs to be applied, as it gives the incomprehensible results.

3.21. Diet guidelines

If you still feel that GM[473] is imaginary – take a look in your past experiences: you've probably eaten a banana, pineapple or a corn/ any other food[474] after which your stomach was in pain: you've felt unwell at best or cooked lentils, that after over four hours or more caused such discomfort. You've probably ingested chips or any other foods, with canola or sunflower oil – that caused similar reactions (no, it wasn't food poisoning in the sense what it used to mean – the food/ oil was poisonous and it would happen all the time when you would consume it). Those foods are GM and are deadly – harm the body leading to organ malfunction and failure – permanently decreasing energy and plunging your health, causing infertility – so you won't be able to have children/ pass your genes – forever, intoxicating you – lowering all your well-being and taking away satisfaction from your life (which might be not known to you, as you've never had the chance to experience what means to be healthy).

Yes, the last might look normally but they're a potent poisons – those foods, so understand it once or die (by continuing to eat them like many, who died before you due to this one, single selection). It's not anymore a question of choice, but rather one of death or life (as serious, as it is). It's only your life and you would bear the consequences of your decisions only: refuse to deny that you didn't know it – as now you do. The only question is whether you would something about it or not – choosing to ignore this information, as 'later' might be too late and for sure it would be (as the damage done is extensive and in many cases – irreversible). Time to act is now and if choose to eat the above, rejecting the change: you might end loosing your life, not even in a direct[475] sense – which is possibly even worst.

Firstly: all and ANYTHING that isn't labeled as certified BIO/ organic/ ecological is prohibited[476] for you to be touched or eaten. To this category also belong ALL refined and processed products. Why? GMO's (Genetically Modified Organisms) are designed to kill: their hidden task is to sterilize the public (having a permanent effects, after time) and the real goal is to limit the growing population (by killing its consumers or causing diseases and conditions which would result in their death). They're virtually responsible for every damage possible to any organ, tissue or cell in the living body. Proteins, are passed to your bowel and from there the production of bacteria continues – turning you into [473] Genetically Modified.

[474] It extends also to beer/ vodka or any other based on the usage of such components – after which similar reactions follow/ more near the end.
[475] The last might not even be an issue, if not the fact that sickness or damage to any organ significantly affects you.
[476] Meaning, to be straight clear: all the foods which are or might be on the shelves of the usual shops (not labeled as 100% organic, certified BIO).

a living pesticide factory, which would result in your death (animals who eat GM products: have those proteins inside their cells, meats or foods which are derived from them too and nearly all of the processed products have in their ingredients already components of GM products like e.g. soy). Even honey is also an example of product which is contaminated by GM plants residue. Eating GMO foods, processed or animal-products/ animal-derived that are non organic-*c*ertified: would kill you, as times have changed (as it have killed already many millions worldwide). It's only your choice to choose whether you want to Live or not. If you would continue what the majority does and eat those foods: it would cause your death or conditions that would result in it, in the years to come – it's just as simple as that (most of the popular foods have been already modified).

Organic[477] diet – is cheaper from the conventional one, when planned. An ideal diet would be consisted mainly from raw foods, with 1 or 2 cooked: including animal-products or animal-derived on a last meal. Due to the reason, it needs also to be cost-effective (under few euro a day, all organic): a new system would be proposed that would enable it. Diet is the necessary building block/ foundation of your health, so a great care is demanded in order to go along with those guidelines.

REMEMBER FOREVER & IMPLEMENT

It's forbidden for you to touch any processed food or drink, as they often are build from GM components/ or have the last, built-in them. You're allowed only to buy and eat organic. If you don't have food or drink – choose a short-term starvation (#3.1) but carry best always a pack of food with you. For water: use a mineral one, without fluoride/ avoid the consumption of any beverages as they contain i.e. modified sugar etc.

If you break this rule and would choose to consume the processed/ industrial agriculture (non-organic) foods & food products: you would die in time, as a result of the disease (due to GM residue and GM-variety type of them) or at least greatly decay your quality of health and Living. Understand it once (look the next page – how to start). Switch to 100% organic foods (they're cheaper & much healthier with all the benefits attached).

Organic eating, brings on other side many pros which can't be expected from any industrial/ mass-produced foods. It's felt in taste, which varies from the traditional crops (the last is just impressive and wonderful, in every bit) and brings significant changes: which are experienced in your mood and well-being, satisfaction from Life that follows.

Human requires organic, prevalently vegetable raw foods to perform at his best with the bit of cooked as an energy fuel. When any product is properly cooked: it has got no usable proteins, carbohydrates, enzymes, vitamins – however minerals stay and are salvaged. Avoid to understand it wrong: they're there, but mainly unusable for the body (i.e. destroyed, like e.g. a blunt/ lacerated knife, that can't be used to slice a bread). Body extracts carbon from them – which consists 52-56% of the energy they bring (fat is very energetic). There are also foods, where not all gets damaged due to cooking and it's included in the rule. Although: you need cooked food as they clean the bowel, provide the energy required and have also other properties/ alkaloids that are not destroyed by process of thermic treatment.

All proteins needed, are being extracted from the air you breathe – from nitrogen present and the last accounts by an average, to up about 112 grams per day. Body needs only energy to process it, some minerals and vitamins to function properly, despite also fat is required.

Nearly everybody including you, has got some sort of deficiencies due to their diets and the last needs to be changed. It's not possible to take 1 pill with vitamins and minerals, to think the required needs[478] have been satisfied as certain vitamins are only absorbable in the presence of others, with the specified [477] Ecological, certified BIO (as other names): foods that are grown without the usage of any chemicals or pesticides, based only on non-GMO seeds and natural methods of fertilization (e.g. pheromones, animal-plant compost).

[478] Dark-green stools, after completion of the treatment, #3: indicate that minerals ingested in the food – have been replenished completely in the body/ if only any food or herb, didn't dyed it.

amount or combinations of them, in fat for example. Most of the nutrients might not be absorbed, when the intestines are clogged (which is the probable instance, of you). Therefore, those pills are mainly a toxic waste for the body and only organic, non-modified diet from natural foods can only sustain those needs (which is very important to understand, as it's a necessity).

Cook only on a flame (gas, fire) or a heated plate (electric). Induction-type cooking and the usage of any microwave-like device is forbidden for food preparation.

// Start to use this knowledge immediately upon reading.

RULES OF EATING[479]

You eat only when you're hungry (if you're sick[480]: stop to eat; certain conditions like Lyme or cancer when the hunger isn't felt: might be an exemption from this rule only, #3.95B & 3.95A). Drinking water is allowed after at least 45-60 minutes after finishing any meal and at least those 15-20 minutes before starting to eat (water you drink: needs to be pure only). When eating: you should be fully focused on the meal and the last should be an isolated experience, best without any observers or other interactions (like e.g. watching movie, talking with anybody when eating). Every bite of food should be fully chopped with teeth, in order to create a complete *m*ash with no visible elements (sort of paste, when spitted – where none of the solid food is ever visible).

It's forbidden completely to mix any foods in one/ any meal (as the most important rule of all). Therefore if you for instance eat 200g of tuna – you eat 200g of tuna only (it's forbidden to mix it with e.g. buckwheat). To be straight clear: mixing of any foods/ ingredients is strictly prohibited (you're only allowed to eat one singe meal, at a time). For example: you eat 3 raw apples and pause after (needs to be the same kind, specie). Then, when you feel hungry again: you eat e.g. mung sprouts. Then, you wait few hours and again – when you're hungry: eat e.g. 7 hours minimum soaked and 45 minutes boiled 350g of kamut (wheat), you wait few hours for the next meal and then you eat 300g of mackerel (only once every three weeks, due to mercury levels). One meal, one food: not mixed with anything – that's all/ i.e. 'one-kind' food only. Rule applies to all foods, forever. What can only be added are the minute[481] amounts of spices like e.g. wild – bear garlic, cumin, pepper or oregano (but still: only one single, to each meal/ except salt). Skipping completely all the food products that are processed and/ or have mixed ingredients (BIO foods) is also required. Stomach, when done so – could be compared to a trash, where everything is put together and one expects it to be processed (it's impossible and causes toxicity of the body).

[479] It's vital to do a 7-day starvation, #3.1: as your taste buds are so accustomed to the toxic, taste-enhanced food that none would taste you (none of the organic foods). After starvation: organism forgets the previous eating patterns and it's possible to introduce the new, healthy diet (for your very survival, best performance and well-being – happiness and long new quality life).
[480] The same applies: when you feel pain, before and after relevant physical works and after experiencing strong emotions (process of digestion stops, due to those). You should also stop to eat when you start to feel after ingestion of food: any discomfort, heaviness on stomach/ bowel, until those symptoms retreat.
[481] Minimal.

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Eat only when hungry.
Drink water on 15 minutes before and min. 45 minutes – best 2 hours after consumption of any meal. When eating: focus only on food and smash it always completely with your teeth, until a total mash without any visible elements would be created – before swallowing it, anytime (it's crucial, because foods not damaged by teeth would most likely be not digested[482]).

Eat always and forever only 1 single food per meal.
For instance, if you eat brown rice: you eat only brown rice on this meal (as the most important rule of all – allowed is to use only a minute amount of single spice, on a food). Another meal can be consumed only when you feel truly[483] hungry again (however, not less than in the next 1.5-2, 3 hours).

Animal/ animal-derived products such as meats, cheese or other – should be typically consumed before going[484] sleep, as they rob you out of energy and take a long time for digestion (best, only to be eaten occasionally). Know also, that being constantly on a little hunger is a healthy and natural state.

Eating mushrooms, which are hand-picked from forests or other natural sources and which don't come from industrial cultivars: creates a possibility for error and a sudden death (prevalently, possible toxins are not destroyed through heat). The first act as a natural sponge that absorbs all the environmental toxins, being a source of heavy metals and others pollutants and from this reason: they shouldn't be eaten by anyone (they contribute significantly to the body toxicity).

Prohibited[485] is consumption of any mushrooms, period.

Certain foods should be also skipped from your diet, best: completely – as they contain alkaloids that accumulate in the body and create toxicity after time. Solanine, found in: potatoes, tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, tomatillo (physalis), goji berries, pepino, also herbs as allspice or cayenne (chili)[486] creates a variety of problems, is a very heavy burden for the body and until its completely flushed, which lasts about 3 months – from the complete rejection of the above in your diet/ the change is felt. Avoid those foods: they're highly poisonous.

Avoid to ever eat common poisonous foods like: potatoes, tomatoes, peppers as you would suffer many consequences of the chronic solanine poisoning.

[482] Therefore if you're not likely to bite them completely – let it to be eaten by someone else or just throw away. Using a juicer/ blender to do the work for you is not a solution, because saliva is required and the last: is only released in sufficient amounts – when it's done by mashing the food with your own teeth. In the end, it's pleasurable – so it's the choice you need to take. It additionally protects you from ingesting spoiled/ fungal-infested foods – particularly with grains, beans yet also nuts/ #3.29L: which might lead to organ failure (and even death).
[483] Not the one, where your stomach has been partially emptied.
[484] At least an hour or more, before – for the safety and best, most-refreshing sleep purposes.
[485] If any tries however would be made: make sure they would be derived from those commercially grown, solely.
[486] Black/ white pepper is safe (in food amounts, used as a spice).

Refined salt and sugar, despite also distilled water (rain water also being a form of it/ yet not totally) are stripped out of minerals and ingestion of them – causes to leech minerals from the body. In the long term – depleting it from nutrient (which might lead to some serious deficiencies). Salt can be used as a spice, although it's rather an option, as it's contained in the natural foods in appropriate amounts.

Use only unrefined organic sugar (e.g. sugar cane) and salt if a need arises and avoid to drink distilled water (more sources and information in, #3.24).

Limit your consumption of fish, as they contain mercury/ heavy metals[487] which are not eradicated due to thermic treatment.

Low-mercury: Arctic Cod, Anchovies, Butterfish, Catfish, Clam, Crab (Domestic), Crawfish/ Crayfish, Croaker (Atlantic), Flounder, Haddock (Atlantic), Hake, Herring, Mackerel (N. Atlantic, Chub), Mullet, Oyster, Perch (Ocean), Plaice, Pollock, Salmon (Wild), Sardine, Scallop, Shad, Shrimp, Sole (Pacific), Squid (Calimari), Tilapia, Trout (Freshwater), Whitefish, Whiting.

[487] ~~Atlantic mackerel and tuna light – typically those are the two species, which aren't raised on fish farms and they're only allowed as not-BIO, if the information is only confirmed (by asking, knowing or visiting and checking the producer, verifying – whether the meat was caught wild)/ outdated,~~ BIO sources – only or unprocessed, raw & caught wild directly from the vessel (see next pages).

PREPARING FOODS

Phytic acid and other inhibitors/ toxins are present in most of the foods and are not eradicated by cooking/ other processes of thermic treatment. They strip the body out of nutrients and they're not absorbed when not removed – from the food, by preceded soaking (not-soaked food is barely not digested: it takes out the nutrition and it's a waste for the body – therefore it's an obligatory must to soak, before boiling or eating any of the below foods).
It leads to a variety of conditions and diseases, if the rule is violated in the long term.
You should therefore plan, before any eating: until the last would become a habit (as soaking the below in a cold water, is obligatory). Use only unroasted/ heat not affected foods for the soak.

[489] Be cautious, because if eaten raw and/ or soaked in extensive amounts – they might cause your death due to cyanide poisoning (eat up to few raw seeds, only). Cooking this food, turns it safe to consume (due to danger involved: use up to less than a one ¼ tsp. in such, last case/ or best, avoid as its pointless risk). Ignore it, just as.
[490] Eat only up to 1 every few days, due to possible selenium toxicity.
[491] Toxic due to shell processing/ best to avoid.
[492] Might be mildly toxic.

Investigate ALL foods, which you would eat and start always with the new products, from the very minimal, even smaller than that amount – to assess your body reactions to it (also for the potential allergies, #3.29A). If the need arises: you should do #3.29L as a last-term choice and call for help if found any potential dangerous allergic reactions.

Safety, is the most important and you should strive to maximally increase it/ in all, what you do.

Cooking times might vary, due to intensity of flame/ temperature reached in the pot (they're relative).

[493] Cook always all foods from this group, for at least 10 minutes in the temperature of a boiling water (100°C/ 212°F). It would destroy the toxin, contained: which causes poisoning (Phytohaemagglutinin).
[494] ~~Split~~, is forbidden to be used.

IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Always soak particular foods along with the tables above, for the minimum required times given – before boiling, sprouting or eating them.

You shouldn't be soaking foods in water for any more than max. 12-24 hours as they tend to become rancid (more or less, dependent on type). When not cooked or sprouted: they should be eaten in the next 24 hours maximally, as they tend to become spoiled (like e.g. in a case of soaked nuts/ removing the water: before).
If a meal is cooked: it should be consumed within the next 2 hours from being given on a plate (if less is to be eaten – it should stay in the pot being covered and warm for the period of less than 4 hours/ placed in fridge, alternatively).

COOKING PROCEDURE IN STEPS[495]

1. Pour a fresh water to a 3.6l/ 122oz or 4.5l/ 152oz pot: near the top and bring it to a boiling point (2nd vessel, if cooking above accordingly: 400g/14.1oz & 500g/ 17.6oz portions).

2. In the meantime: pour out the water from the vessel where food soaked (a colander can be used). All that floats[496] and don't wants to become immersed – needs to be discarded.

3. Put the food to the pan (with already boiling-hot water) and close the lid, waiting for the water to reach a boiling point again. Then limit the flame to minimum – to keep the boiling temperature inside – to limit the gas usage and a potential spill (cooking without the lid to decreases spill, where there is no possibility to reduce flame: causes a necessity to take out the foam which potentially might follow).
Rinse the bowl with water to remove any leftover contents.

4. After completion of cooking, when the time passes – water needs to be discarded, leaving the food inside a pot and then placing it immediately to the bowl.
Clean the vessel with the water after doing it and/ optionally: wash the lid also.

5. Wait for 15-20 minutes or more: until the meal is ready to be eaten and consume it within the next 2 hours (if not possible: place it immediately in fridge with a temp. at 4°C/ 39.2°F).

6. Clean the dish and put in it – the next food for soak (left it best: above your head to decrease the chances of accidental contamination). Soak for the period, remove the water/ eat later.

SPROUTING YOUR FOOD

When a seed or grain is activated – it starts to produce in abundance all the vitamins needed, keeping the most valuable nutrients. Sprouts are the best source of vitamins and minerals (also being the most cost-effective).
Eating them, is required: to Live a healthy lifestyle.

[495] Boil times are adjusted to it – use always a steel pot with water, only/ forbidden is to use any pressure cooker.
[496] Excluding little grains like amaranth and quinoa seeds.

Organic (BIO) seeds[497] can only be used for the purpose of sprouting.

PROCEDURE

Soak in a cold water: handful of chosen seeds/ grains for the time supplied in tables above.

Pour of the water and place them in a sprout device[498] (to have an abundant flow of air, in a mid-shade with access to light).
Leave them there and pour water on: at least once every 24 hours for best results.
Let it drain completely off.
Wait until sprouts would be ready for the consumption (usually when two leaves are visible or the sprout reaches at least the same length as seed, like in a case of wheat).
Collect them and place to the fridge. Eat them up to the next 7 days.

Example of foods to sprout are in the tables above (most commonly: lentils, hard winter wheat, alfalfa, broccoli, clover and beans like adzuki or mung). Forbidden is to sprout toxic foods like potatoes, tomatoes and other mentioned before. Sprouting seeds releases all the inhibitors and harmful substances that might be present, in the original seed/ grain.

FOOD SAFETY

Food poisonings are very dangerous, as they tend to damage the internal organs – cause a delayed periods of unrest and feeling unwell. The last might also lead to death over time. They need to be taken very seriously: to ensure your well-being and it's always best to resign from eating spoiled/ partially-spoiled foods – than to suffer the consequences of having not.

If you're preparing any animal-derived products: absolute hygiene is required to avoid parasitic and bacterial infections (invisible to the naked eye embryos are present/ or bacteria and after ingestion: they cause significant health decay over time which results in laziness, having less energy, loss of vigor and clean thinking etc. or the probable poisoning in case of bacteria). Any used meats should be best, tested. Understand that under-cooking meats, i.e. particularly venison (caught wild, untested) creates a possibility of parasitic infection that may lead to your death in a very short period. Beware with all the raw animal products.

[497] They've might be used directly from the organic-packages of food or bought separately as BIO – if they're not available, in bulk.
[498] It might be a simple tray, bowl or a jar (a solution with holes is often used).

REMEMBER, IMPLEMENT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Avoid, at ALL cost:

- foods that don't look or smell fresh,
- meats exposed to temperature,
- packing's that are damaged/ tins that are bulged,
- burned foods,
- and any which have any sort of fungus, mold etc.

All, to ensure your safety (if something is suspicious – it's better to throw it out).

You should always eat only what's certified organic (BIO) and avoid to eat anywhere and anything: that isn't sealed or prepared by you (with the special care of meats). Even, if it means a short-term starvation, #3.1.

Meats (defrosted) need to be cooked very thoroughly for 40 minutes at the boiling point as required minimum (if oven is used: it's dependable on many variables – the last should be soft within the bones when the fork is entered, until the juices run clear). Handling, requires to wash hands every time when anything except them – is touched, using separate vessels & cutting desks for any of the meats to avoid cross-contamination (serving it only on a separate plate where no raw meat was previously held). Make sure you would always prevent meats/ animal-derived foods from dripping any juices onto/ getting in contact with any of the other foods (keeping them separate and sealed, always). Eggs should be handled the same way: outer layers rinsed before putting them to boiling water and hands always washed after touching them every time. They should be cooked until one or two shells, would crack. Limit your contacts with the body fluids of other people, e.g. refuse to drink from the same vessel after anyone or to take a partially-eaten food from anybody as to restrict your exposure. Keep any animals in a separate place from your living space or home. Wash your hands often with hot water and grey soap/ or 10% vinegar solution: especially after toilet and before & after handling any foods.
All dry seeds/ foods should be stored below 20°C/ 68F in a cool, dry place (up to 40°C/ 136F for nuts: when you want to dry them/ i.e. on Sun). If it's warm outside or you're unable to keep the temperature at this level – put them to fridge when opened, until consumed.

Be very wary when it comes to eating organic foods: where they might contain other foods in the package (for instance: when in chickpeas packing – you might find beans). They might be GMO[499] varieties, as containers which were shipped overseas – might not be cleaned sufficiently. Return such product to the supplier and ask for a refund or either take the risk of removing them manually before cooking. Be very cautious.
In case of suspicion poisoning – always perform the procedure, #3.29L immediately (from the very same reason: finish your last meal, in every instance – at least an hour or more before going sleep).

If you still don't get why you must to buy organic foods, to stay healthy – know, that any food in nature has to protect itself from various types of dangers i.e. fungi, viruses, parasites: so it produces in abundance – natural substances, which ensure its survival in the constant war of adaptation. Those, which are sprayed by potent chemical pesticides – don't have the need, to create such natural anti-fungal agents or any other types of defenses, as it's done for them. Lack of those elements in foods: causes your body to suffer, because they're required to prevent diseases. For instance an epidemic of cancer have spread: when pesticides were started to be used on a mass scale.

[499] Select only products which have: all-ingredients organic – in them (i.e. in a case of chocolate – time to time, etc.).

You won't know the dangers of the last, unless you've been *p*oisoned severely by them and lived through the experience – they're deadly. It's psychical, to use something on a food which: on contact – might kill you. Not only you're ingesting potent poisons, which intoxicate[500] your body but they also *h*ammer flora in your gut, which is responsible for your wonderful[501] mood. When organic food enters your body, moves through the intestine: bacteria start to produce in abundance feel-good hormones of happiness, well-being and it provides you with the nutrients. Those foods which look 'ideal' or 'best' on the shelves are unworthy, because they contain ~~low levels if any at all~~ virtually none, of those natural substances: which they've had to synthesize to prevent from being eaten e.g. by fungi – they attribute to 0.

Besides, GMO's[502] which are proven deadly – are introduced on the shelves, so you won't probably ever know if you won't focus on your body reactions, which can follow up to 5-7 hours after ingestion or more. It's a food/ including traditional[503] with the use of pesticides: not aimed for human consumption but it would be known only to those, who eat[504] all-organic only. Those who didn't learned it and adapted – would die, in result. Next time, when you would see an organic apple: attacked by fungi[505] – look at it, from another angle/ with this[506] understanding.

[500] Traditional food, raised with the use of pesticides: is a 'substitute of food'/ if it even can be called this term.
[501] When your intestines are cleaned, #3.3 & 3.2B: Third stage and flora restored: you feel an immense happiness because you've eaten raw food (only valid to organic-foods).
[502] Keep it a hidden-secret: threat in GMO's is mostly present in the chemicals, fertilizers and pesticides used on the plant itself which no traditional crop would survive – it's all, it can be revealed.
[503] Either way: it's best to eat e.g. 1 organic fruit or vegetable, than 2 traditional – valueless and poisoned by pesticides or to die from eating a GMO-variety/ forever.
[504] Why you would die if you decide to continue eat non-organic foods? It's hard to tell whether the food is pesticide-infested or GMO: based solely on looks – you have to buy it but it even then it's a risk (over 70% of popular crops have been already modified: to be introduced or available at the moment on the market shelves/ being embedded secretly as ingredients, in most of the processed foods).
Know also deeply one truth: "unless a product carries organic certification, no GMO-Free claim can be made".
[505] Cut off always only a layer of affected areas i.e. on an apple or any other vegetable, fruit/ those beneficial compounds: would be embedded across the whole food, 100% organic-only.
[506] You have to know one thing: it's not whether you would live or not – eating traditional crops (with the use of pesticides, synthetic fertilizers, etc.): but about the quality of Living/ life (which is only possible to be experienced, by selecting only all 100% organic foods). If you eat GMO-foods: you die, in time. Either way: in the current times – you're likely to die, if you won't select 100% organic.

Look at the below table.

SUMMARY OF FOODS

TRADITIONAL FOODS / pesticide-infested	GMO'S / most: with embedded pesticides	ORGANIC FOODS X / no pesticides i.e. poisons
Worthless piece of poison (even if they're washed – they still retain it, in the product).	Deadly piece of poison (it can't be washed).	Valuable foods as they've had to fight for survival against fungi, viruses, bacteria, parasites and because of it: they contain elements required to prevent diseases.
You're likely to die due to diseases as body doesn't has the required: to prevent and fight them (only found in organic foods). You feel not as on the organic-foods diet, without knowing it/ worse, much worse. You loose your life satisfaction, happiness, great mood (because your flora in the gut is hammered by potent pesticides).	You die due to ingestion of this food, because pesticides kill you/ cause many ailments, diseases which would kill you in result. You suffer (i.e. nausea, pains, infertility – usually which appear after a time delay/ like 4-5 hours or to be even a result of poisoning by this food – you develop diseases). You die.	You Live, are happy.

Picture showing lab rats, who were fed by GMO's (corn): they've developed cancers size of your entire belly/ the rest, died 'before the photo[507] was taken'. You're taking an enormous risk by eating anything that isn't pure 100% organic product (unknown diseases and conditions, including immediate deaths are a result of genetic modifications).

[507] Off-spring of those who survived: became completely infertile (sterile) in the 2nd generation/ in other tests (with decreased amounts of GM-foods). It means: a permanent loss of your genes/ i.e. of those who are less thoughtful.

In result: you're experiencing it on the level of your mood, well-being due to what you eat: all the time/ switch to 100% organic foods to feel the difference (only after completion of the, #3).

Test always new foods, by applying procedure #3.29A. It's obligatory.

Let always the hunger be your greatest cook.

Health is an area, which should be taken very seriously as it allows you to increase your earning ability and rules the whole Life experience (to be believed or not).

[510] As last meal, before the sleep/ milk availability, might vary out of season.

Fruits and vegetables can be bought locally from organic shops in your area or ordered directly online: with shipments delivered to you door on a weekly basis (the last need to be bought at least twice a month). Avoid to buy products which are sensitive to temperature like milk[512], meats/ fish, ~~eggs~~ and dairy[513] – if the package won't be delivered, being kept in an appropriate, refrigeration conditions. Select best foods from organic, permaculture – cultivars/ if only available. Forbidden is to taste any food to determine its safety – you can't rely on its appearance or odor. It's better always to discard it, than to suffer.

#2. Buy a sprout device.

There is a more universal way to use/ put any food – from the tables above to a cold water for a few hour[514] soak: remove the last and leave it for the next 12 hours, to cook it after this time up to the next 24-36h – when you're[515] hungry.

[511] Use the first portion of less than 150g/ 5.29oz – then: slightly increase it, #3.7.
[512] Raw only – allowed, forever/ you rather take it locally, #2 (look information, with the texture frame border).
[513] Although hard or processed cheese wrapped in a black air-tight foil can be safely ordered.
[514] Except buckwheat/ you should have always a reserve of it: just in case you didn't thought about soaking and hungry.
[515] The food would be always safe to consume, as it would start to sprout/ this way: you've got always meals – prepared, in advance. Know also that 'best before' rarely is equal to 'safe to consume'/ quality drop might occur.

It's vital to adjust yourself, just right now – to those guidelines, as procrastination or delaying has an effect that the changes are never introduced (apply programming, #0.1: to change those patterns). Usually, when the sickness is a result of bad habits – it's too late, but on the other hand: it can be prevented and a whole different Life is to be experienced by following them.

> Lack of adjusting to what's required for the body to function properly – is the cause for health decay and what's more important in Life, than health?

Take the action, now.

Most people take their bodies and health as something granted. Naively thinking that they would get the pill, when diseased – fearing or resenting usually, the last.

However what if there is no pill or those that are – avoid to work as they should/ at all?

Your body is a result of your own making only, so if you would cause a certain conditions – diseases would follow. How do you expect for the machine to work properly: if it gets all the time lowest quality and not even the right fuel, is not cleaned periodically or used herbs/ chemicals which do have a protective role?

It's commonly accepted in maintenance of machines, but human body is virtually the same. However, the first can be bought new – the last, not necessarily fixed beyond a certain point.

If no action would be taken now – you might pass it, one day. It's your body and only up to you is – what you're doing with it.

IF ORDERS WERE PLACED NOW OR MERCHANDISE BOUGHT – PROCEED ONLY.

Find resources until it would be done.
Make always sure you've got supplies for at least upcoming full month or at best – much more.

VALUABLE ORGANIC FOODS

More foods are available in organic shops, but below are – the most common and possibly best choices, which should consist your core of the diet. The difference between traditional (allowing the use of chemicals/ pesticides) and organic foods (natural only): is not something that you can see or measure, but what you can feel and experience after eating them (the pleasure and happiness, that follows: when bacteria in your gut start to reproduce by multiplying – which deliver vast amounts of serotonin and other feel-good hormones). It's something beyond the prize tag, which insures your health safety.

Skip all soy-foods (also as an ingredient). In theory: only fermented products can be eaten i.e. tofu, tempeh or soy milk, but avoid them too as soy – isn't meant for human consumption.

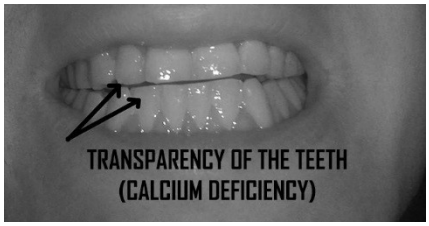
Know, that the combination of any natural herbs or foods is never lethal, whether e.g. mixing grapefruit with some pharmaceutics – might cause a sudden fatality (foods are medicines and additional care should be put, as they too might cause potent Herxheimer reactions, #3.28 which might prove dangerous so test them always before, #3.29A/ #3.29L – see, #3.95B for such instances).

Limit the use of alcohol – if you use it regularly. It's made commonly out of the GM-ingredients, so only considered as safe are the ones who are not made out of those, very old and organic alcohols (look for the last, build solely from one type of uncommon grain other than e.g. wheat or corn, having all the ingredients listed). If any reactions follow – which shouldn't: i.e. heartburn or stomach pain – it's poisoned. The first is also a greatly contributing factor to your inner organism sickness/ #3.8.

IMPLEMENT

Receding gums are caused by the lack of Vit. C, in your daily diet – long term. In sufficient amounts only raw, fresh and unprocessed foods i.e. fruits, vegetables and sprouts can deliver it.

Therefore, an appropriate intake[517] should be sustained (example sources might include: cauliflower, onions, blackcurrant, kiwifruit, strawberry, pomelo, orange, grapefruit – citrus fruits, mango, apples etc.; sprouts of: kidney beans, radish, navy beans and lentil as a subsidiary).
Colostrum might be used/ raw milk, does the same work, #3.98A: to rebuild receding gums. It's a prolonged process.



REMINERALIZATION OF THE BONES AND TEETH
It's confirmed that the daily intake of calcium in raw milk of cow, is sufficient[518] to remineralize the bones and teeth, #3.98A (see the picture above: the barely visible darker colors show transparency – calcium deficiency).

This knowledge of oral hygiene/ teeth health, is largely incomplete and further research has to be done. Bacteria are not the cause, but a symptom.

[517] You have to be very vigilant in the selection of organic vegetables, fruits and other like eggs: compare the prizes, read reviews and assess, because in fact – many mass-consumer retails offer not 100% organic foods marked as organic. Look for the certificates – check it all by yourself, verify: whether the product is spoiled (if it looks 'untouched' by any bacteria, viruses, etc. – it might be a red flag). If anything causes your suspicions: investigate/ refuse to eat until you're sure – to the source/ best: avoid to buy food in shops for mass-consumer. It's serious.

[518] White beans & raw white sesame (2 spoons, soaked) is a substitute in the periods of unavailability.
Remember however that nothing can truly replace raw milk, in the diet (raw-only)/ back to it, when only possible.
STOP forever to believe this government-propaganda about they caring about your safety/ it's a sarcasm, in reality.
Raw milk is safe to drink – people drink it for millennia/ and you sleep after it: better than a baby.

It's important to ensure cyclical delivery of B12 vitamin[519] through the consumption of i.e. raw milk/ to be reminded: found only in raw foods (you, have got deficiency – basically). Raw milk is a food which must be a part of your nearly everyday diet (missing necessary element of nearly everybody's eating). In the selection[520] of foods – you should be guided by your appetite, as your body knows best what it needs: which applies to organic-diet only (valid: after starvation and when you've started to eat properly as mentioned above).

Know, that in order to be and stay healthy: you should be in a constant hunger.

[519] Which acts and does, the same as vit. B17, but neither to the counter-part: it's completely safe for human use/ its cyclical consumption is required for the highest energy levels, #3.98A – #3.95A.

[520] It's important for you to also follow new laws and never stop to think as i.e. traditional smoking with wood of fish, meats: might be banned and producers would be forced to use... It's another plot to kill you i.e. sensation of the tongue, exaggerated 'acidity' of the intestines follows/ banned is the consumption of any smoked products which you didn't smoked yourself.
Taking a step further: forbidden is to consume any non-organic fish cans as they've might be injected with an additional mercury/ it's a natural development and it likely, already progressed or progresses to it.
You won't know any of it, as it has to be earned/ it stops to be bizarre that you're the target of covert killing when you study the facts/ compare to your new knowledge. Never stop to think as more would follow... We're in a center of depopulation program and you'd die if you listen to anybody except those more knowledgeable from you and yourself.
You have to know 1 thing with foods: they've might not kill you instantly, but their cumulative effect would contribute significantly to it so it ~~would likely be~~ is reversible over time/ if you won't switch, today.

In the time of evolution: particular blood types have mutated to serve best – the requirements for survival.

TO THRIVE/ TO WORK AT YOUR BEST YOUR DIET SHOULD BE

BLOOD TYPE	PRIMARILY CONSISTED OF	WITH LIMITED
TYPE O High Protein: Meat Eaters	Meat Fish Vegetables Fruits	Grains Beans Legumes
TYPE A Vegetarian	Vegetables Seafood Grains Beans Legumes Fruits
TYPE B Balanced omnivore	Meat (no chicken) Dairy Grains Beans Legumes Vegetables Fruits
TYPE AB Mixed diet in moderation	Meat Seafood Dairy Beans Legumes Grains Vegetables Fruits

Adapt the sample diet mentioned before: to your needs/ it's only a sample.

It might be hard to accept, but most people actually eat[521] too much and food – not the lack of it, is a cause for a variety of problems and disease (it includes also its overconsumption): you would live longer, by eating [522]less.

[521] You shouldn't ever eat – if you don't feel any hunger (body has to repair the damage/ fight the pathogens etc.).
[522] You would Live & feel: better/ due to it.

You should eat to Live, despite not live to eat.

3.22. Water treatment

Water, is a necessity for life. Tap water is usually contaminated with chloride, probably fluoride, #3.24 but also very probably with traces of heavy metals, antibiotics, pharmaceuticals, steroids, drugs and other physical, chemical and biological residue. It's all in your source of it (having a long term toll on your health, i.e. increased formation of kidney stones, being cancerogenous, intoxicating the whole body which results[523] in ailments, sicknesses, pain, lost time... etc.). You experience it all currently by the level of your state/ well-being.

IMPLEMENT

EMERALD Device (picture on right) cleans water from those pathogenic substances, bacteriological toxins, ions of heavy metals and harmful organic compounds, also giving the water antioxidant properties.

It's required for you to buy[524] this device – install and use it to filter your water before its usage for drinking, cooking or any other important activities.
It's a necessity.

The device itself – preserves all the occurring nutrients (minerals) in the water/ removing only ALL the toxic and redundant: making it completely safe, to use & drink.

If your water smells or stinks: little rejecting taste is felt – avoid to drink it/ wait[525] for it to pass (when waiting for the ordered device, clue: #4X[526]).

[523] Long term/ as a result of toxic by-products, toxins, poison accumulation in your body.
[524] It has to be known to you as such or similar device has to be working on electricity and no 'filters' would ever provide this role as water first must be turned into a HHO gas and then through the set of filters even further processed, which is only present with the first/ to turn it safe, to drink.
[525] Have always placed somewhere 1-3l of water for this period: if it's chlorinated – it can be used directly/ fill also with it, the pot for cooking (keep it, up to 12h max: replace, when possible).
[526] It's more to it: avoid to open windows and leave when the air is smelly – foggy/ stinks – close them instantly; when the plane flies and it's heard from the surface – twice, every 24h except last, on Sundays: where the heavy metal drop occurs – to avoid contamination i.e. pain in the trachea/ lungs, 'click' under teeth when consuming food, but you have to do those efforts for your area: research all/ if it's only important, #3.95B (information rather left for Lyme sufferers).

STOP – UNTIL ALL IS DONE FROM THE PREVIOUS SECTIONS.

If you lack the resources to purchase/ any other with the water treatment device – make sure it would be done when only possible.

3X. Supplies required

At this point: you should order supplies that are required for continuation of the process (in order).

* order several times the amount of above as minimal measures – typically sold, were used.

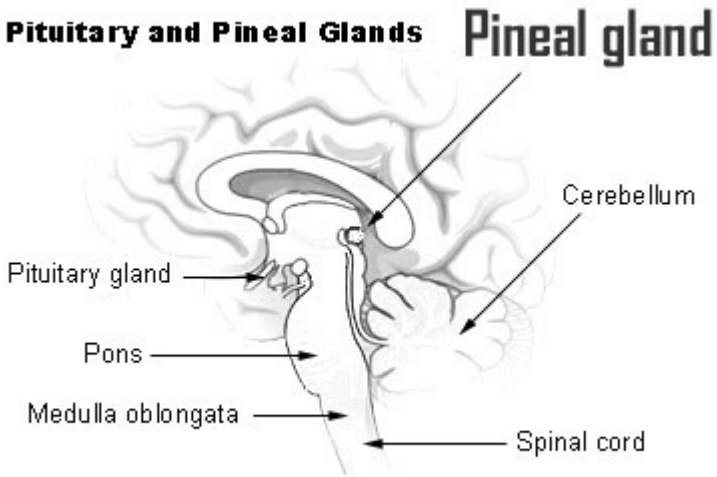
[527] Being not a concentrated form/ just plain, plant extract.
[528] It's advised to buy a device, which can be directly connected to the current through a secured power adapter: where the electric current, is generated internally and – not directly taken, from the source. The device alone, with such functions could be bought relatively cheap, under 100€ – despite expensive solutions exist.

Zapper can be also used with rechargeable batteries of special purpose, which should improve safety.

[529] Ensure that the products you select: are free out of any additions i.e. rice flour/ which might be GM-made. Each product has to be removed from its capsule before ingestion, except L-cysteine: where if even the slightest pain/ nausea follows after eating the dose – you have to replace the product, as it's made from the GM-components. It can be repacked to a layer of velvet before, but without touching the contents: if no pain, nausea follow – the product is clear, capsule is GM-poisonous/ deadly.

3.23. Pineal gland decalcification to unlock imagination

Pineal gland, is responsible for various biological functions – also giving you access to see pictures in your mind (imagination). Ability to visualize is the single, most important power you're born with, but due to toxins, diet and other elements: it's being calcified and it's lost. Despite its smallness (see the picture below): it's the most important gland in the body. Lack of bringing it back to default: might produce a variety of physical and mental problems i.e. sleep disturbances, susceptibility to depression and shallow happiness, memory loss and problems, disconnection from spirituality and lack of power either consciously known or not and many more. Its decalcification is a must.



Nearly everybody including very probably you – has got today calcified this gland, commonly without the knowledge of it/ including its partial calcification.

EXECUTE

To decalcify the pineal gland: eat in the process 240 Skate Liver Oil caps. (500mg/ caps.) or more if needed.

Eating constantly organic diet, only – prevalently raw, #3.21: is the bare minimum, to keep it decalcified. It would be cleaned in time, when you would get to the, #3.7 (heavy metal cleanse) and execute the above.

It's forbidden for you – to consume anything, except organic diet/ starting: now.
Eliminate also toxins (prevalently fluoride) which add to the calcification (see the next chapter).

Eating organic: is usually enough to sustain the clearness of it, and – it's a requirement.

3.24. Toxins to eliminate/ limit exposure

Even organic foods, might sometimes have an ingredients – which role, is to preserve them.
Therefore, you should be wary and know the below. Additionally two were added that are found in processed foods and are – particularly dangerous.

CITRIC ACID (E330)

Turns you basically into a non-brainer as synthetic citric acid disrupts the delicate mechanisms of the communication in brain. It's produced from bacteria which are responsible and proven to cause many diseases and conditions. Leads to worsened thinking and probably is responsible for permanent brain damage in the long term.

STOP to forever consume any synthetic citric acid/ E330 (found only in processed foods). Choose organic products which haven't got it in their ingredients list or use as a preservatives: vinegar, lactic or ascorbic acid. It's very important for the process of change and full health.

FLUORIDE

It's a mineral that body needs in trace amounts, but overdose leads to many sicknesses and conditions, being over time more: potent and dangerous than any symptoms of the deficiency (the last is present in sufficient amounts, in natural foods). Used to control population: anesthetizes will, slows reactions, breaks the resistance and aggression – destroys brain & body, decreases intelligence.

Forbidden is to use any toothpaste, anytime (#3.21). Forbidden is to use also any substances or chemicals that become useless after ending treatment as they would probably contribute to the overall toxicity (fluoride is for instance present in psychotropic drugs as it enhances their work). If you choose to buy mineral water: select one, which hasn't been poisoned by fluoride (subtle stun effect is experienced – if focused on feelings, in those containing it).

ANY SYNTHETIC TASTE ENHANCER OR ANY SYNTHETIC SWEETENER

They don't need to be even mentioned in the product label due to concentration (not found in organic food products) and might be hidden under various names e.g. flavoring, hydrolyzed protein, yeast extract or any other (yet, found also with names like i.e. monosodium glutamate E621, aspartame E951 or various left). They're a potent poisons, that destroy and permanently damage brain and body, lead to birth defects and a variety of diseases and conditions including Alzheimer (for instance aspartame contains methanol – a potent toxic alcohol).

Forbidden is to ever eat any taste-enhanced products (not found in organic foods). Natural sweeteners allowed, not containing sugar are: Stevia Rebaudiana and Xylitol (birch sugar, E967) and those only are permitted/ however – it's advised, to use only the below as sweeteners.

REFINED SALT OR REFINED SUGAR

Strips your body out of nutrients, besides the fact: that sugar is often GM-variety.

It's forbidden to use *a*ny refined salt or sugar. Himalayan or unrefined sea salt are both a viable choices. Use instead all-organic: sugar cane, molasses, maple syrup, honey, ~~agave syrup~~.

MERCURY, METHANOL, ALUMINUM, CANCEROGENIC AND TOXIC SUBSTANCES

All of above play a significant role in the decay of health. They're a hidden burden for the body, covert cause of many ailments and overly decrease mood, energy levels and happiness (as body requires balance between the elements, to experience to full extent the last).

ALL synthetic medicines are nearly always a poison to the body: if they produce *a*ny side effects[530] – they're too a source of mercury and other very harmful components i.e. particularly nasal sprays or other pills/ mainly: because they rather never remove the causes of any disease or ailment but 'deal' with the symptoms – if it's not an argument: think about it more profoundly.

[530] Which are not the Herxheimer symptoms, #3.28 (detoxification symptoms)/ where: antibiotics – mostly don't produce Herxheimer symptoms but they're the poisons themselves (Ozone, MMS and herbal antibiotics are a safe and effective replacement – #3.2B:Five, #3.6, #3.82 & #3.95B/& organic foods as medicines).

EXECUTE

Make effort to avoid synthetic substances and to resign completely from any ingested pharmaceuticals/ the last, might disable ability to experience health[531] and it's a duty.
Forbidden is to drink any alcohol, which hasn't been sealed – is without an excise and it's not a generic/ original product as methanol is sometimes found in the bogus[532] product (see additional dangers related to its consumption, #3.21 and #2.2)/ yet windshield washer fluids – might also contain it: to avoid forever. Throw out all energy-saving bulbs[533] and replace them with LED lamps or best: with ordinary bulbs sold as a shockproof/ heating applications.
Avoid to eat any food or drink from aluminum cans, packing's or to boil in a cookware made out of it (throw out any cookware which is aluminum). It can be established, by using a magnet – if it's not pulled to it: its aluminum (exception is with cookware, where you need to trust the producer's information – inside of any pot: should be steel or iron). It's forbidden to cook either in a plastic or aluminum foil (use only metal vessel, not covered by anything or metal pipes alone).
Those toxins are also prevalent in many healthcare products, so limit yourself only to the usage of grey natural BIO soap – to cut its usage to the necessary minimum or use a sip of 10% BIO vinegar solution (non-BIO: might be GM-poisoned) to disinfect hands and the cheapest ecological/ eventually manual washing powder. Natural ecological shampoo is a possibility, but it's better to shave yourself on bald and clean the hair with soap (in case of men)/ i.e. dandruff, #3.98A. For armpits: it's more than sufficient for you to cut your hair and to twice wash it with the soap (doing only the last, is enough). Instead of gel: use grey soap and leave it there, without washing (if you have to; mix it with organic sugar cane if you desire a stronger effect). Women might apply their own urine[534] for a time/ to wash it thereafter (improves condition[535] of the skin).
Use grey soap or vinegar to clean your area of living/ for dirty plates – covered in fat-only: use very little of the cheapest ecological (organic) washing-up liquid, to clean them/ it's although entirely possible: to exclude it, by using paper or foil – instead of plates (less work). Forbidden is to use any creams/ suntan preparations, medicinal and other products ingested or applied on skin, taken on a continual basis or at bare minimum: very highly limit their usage to the very least e.g. in case of cosmetics for women (dropping most of the products used, being refrained to one/ few required, at best). Cease to do any tattoos as they're poisoning to the body. Be wary with cotton, new clothes or fabrics: which might have been coated with chemicals or toxins – the last, might damage and destroy your property/ #2.58: check it all before unpacking. Use always organic fabrics, if possible.
If you live in an area where: aluminum, crude oil or chemicals are extracted or processed which might also extend to storage of the toxic waste – you're forced to leave.

[531] It's the problem – you've went in (if valid) and it's up to you: to get out of it.
It has to be known that any synthetic substance taken long term: takes a toll on the body and destabilizes it, leading to its decay – disease developments, organ failures and death/ more, #2.2. However, the last: can't kill you instantly, but only – in time. Why? A frog dropped to a hot water would jump out of it – instantly, but put the same frog and boil the water slowly: it will be cooked/ never noticing the moment of death (as it has to be effective).
It has to be known by you that solutions widely available to the public are: harmful, toxic and deadly, #1.11xE.
It's the whole purpose/ to clear: the genetic material of the planet (it had to be said, openly).
[532] Know, that it's a poison which is highly toxic and might cause you to die – being also absorbed via skin and through a toxic vapor.
[533] Energy-saving light bulbs tend to release mercury when turned on (a highly potent and neurotoxic poison).
[534] In reality: 90% of best skin products – use it, as its core ingredient.
[535] Passing #3: treatment – makes it flawless/ i.e. you get the ideal darn: all-time.

Those toxins won't necessarily kill you in an instant, but they would significantly contribute – over time: to your lower self. It can't be known, by someone who didn't expelled them from the body and won't be known – to this time: adjust to the guidelines, #3.7. It's important.

PLASTICS

They're not entirely health-safe.

EXECUTE

Avoid to eat any food cooked in plastic wrappings – always remove them first, before cooking. Use 100% glass, wooden or steel containers for storage: when needed.
If possible: choose foods & drinks packed in a paper cartons, glass or metal cans (however not in aluminum).
Be particularly thoughtful when using: new, not tested – 'innovative' materials, which get in the contact with food i.e. knifes, wrappings or containers as they've might leach dangerous toxins, to it/ select only those: well-established and used for decades.
Expel all clothes, bedding that are with the addition of synthetic fabrics, #3.27.
Buy and wear only clothes made from 100% natural, best: organic fabrics (it extends also to furniture like beds, chairs and sofas – in home).

Do it all, now.

STOP – UNTIL IT'S ALL DONE.
IT'S ONLY ONE, SINGLE 30-MINUTE EFFORT IN YOUR LIFE.
DO IT NOW.

[536] Another story, is that those who passed the treatment, #3 and follow the guidelines: never get sick – at most, a common cold yearly but the last, is a necessary training for the body.

If you lack the resources to replace pans/ others – make sure you would look for the replacement, or it would be done when only possible (ask others, if they don't have the last – for temporary use).
Pack it all and discard/ sell or give to somebody. It's all required.

3.25. Radiation

Being exposed to radiation – is the surest way to degrade your health, get cancer, fry your brain and all the other. You want to avoid it always, at all cost.

Notice that GSM masts (see picture on the right, below): not necessarily need to be visible as separate masts antennas, but can be placed at a higher buildings i.e. churches, schools or ground.

EXECUTE

Strictly prohibited, is to work or live within the close range to GSM masts, in proximity radius less than min. 750m/ 2461ft (1km/ 0.62mi is safe and it should be taken with a very serious concern). You're forced to change immediately work place or accommodation, if it applies.

Cell phones need to be used only when needed, stored away from the area of occupation (far away from sleeping place or activity – kept and best: recharged at a distant, separate room). You're forced to use always a loudspeaker mode – to maintain it at a distance of at least 1m/ 3.28ft from the head or select cable earphones, which can be used as a handset (they need to be connected physically, no Wi-Fi or Bluetooth is allowed). Device alone, if only forced to have it on you – should be kept as far as possible, from head and then the heart.

Replace any Wi-Fi/ Bluetooth with cable (e.g. internet, etc.).

Avoid always any CT/ PET[537] scan (X-ray computer tomography): unless your life is endangered (i.e. gunshot wounds, inner fractures leading to blood loss). In any other case: a single x-ray photo should be taken at max.

You're required to cover yourself from UV radiation (the Sun or any artificial source, #4X).
In case of sunny day, skip the highest Sun from 10:00 to 15:00/ 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. local[538] time.

If sensed any radiation – leave immediately the area of danger zone.

In the end, nothing else matters more than health because what has more meaning overall – if you would be dead due to sickness or any other?

[537] On average, 309 x-ray photos are taken. It's the surest way to cause/ get cancer, damage DNA and all the other attached i.e. the machine to cause cancer: something very good for the business (the industry).
[538] Best, 9:30 – 17:00/ 9:30a.m. – 17 p.m. if only possible.

STOP. APPLY THOSE CHANGES AND CONTINUE ONLY IF DONE.

Take your time, until they've performed completely and totally.
They're very important and serious. Then only, proceed.

3.26. Beliefs as a weapon/ II

This reality is built upon belief, because it serves the purpose/ #1.11xE. It has got such implications for you that you're always the victim of your beliefs – even if the last are unconscious i.e. you're unaware – you're holding them/ you deny to acknowledge them or it/ you don't know the mechanisms involved (they're treated as your fault, solely).

> Everyone always receives confirmations of his core beliefs (included, very often – those unconscious[539]).

For instance, you've might hold a belief/ know that when you're exposed to cold weather: you would catch common cold or be sick - BEEP  (you always need to get the confirmation of your beliefs, in this reality) and guess what? You're getting cold.

In fact, cold weather has got nothing to do with the common cold, as virus is the cause. However, it doesn't matter to the Laws as they just act based on your belief system. Most, have no cold even if they're bone[540] cold as they've got other belief systems.

It implies, that truth has nothing to do with it – evidence or information allowing to confirm the belief would be fabricated by the invisible Laws working in this reality (the first can be confirmed from various angles and always only persistent researcher is pointed to it).

Do you see now, the potential and dangers involved? Refer it now: to yourself and your beliefs.

It extends also far more – you'd might know for example a person, who is an 'unlucky fellow' – everything happens to him, accidents fall. It's derived commonly from the childhood, when as a kid – you've been forced to accept certain beliefs as a truth, in order to insure your survival. You've might for instance hear: "you're a failure", "always everything bad happens to you" or "you're a lubber". It's the type of programming: you would realize in your adult life, if only not changed.

A person, holding such beliefs – would always get from 'fate' something, which isn't normally happening to anyone or relatively rarely. He would get to the home without the shoes, would fall into a water, he would fell asleep drunk under his home in freezing weather. However, it also extends to the fact: where the brain would cause delay of the body, to adjust all the parameters – to cause the highest injury (where such or similar are hold). Furthermore, more situations would be brought to a person reality – to confirm his deepest beliefs (the bird would shit on him, would get flat tire when driving). Health, isn't any exception.

[539] Those not known, on the conscious/ awareness level.
[540] Viruses can survive longer, in cold weather (as an only measure).

Another, less known occurrence is that those core faiths/ beliefs/ inner knowing's – tend, to expand (bad – even worsen, good ones for you – become working for you even better and higher). All is balanced in this reality, so it's always happens for the good outcome of yours – even if you suffer, but the question remains: whether you want to spend your free time being sick or injured in a hospital OR you'd prefer to be sipping a drink and enjoying the time with your friends (having chance to fuck some women/ #4.1) on a lakeside or an adventurous trip (or even, to be healthy and spend it at home).
They force you to think, what you're holding/ #0.1: change it – for your very best.

Did you know, that everything could be changed in a matter of a month (changing your whole life)?

IMPLEMENT

You're required to think through all your beliefs. Do they serve you?

Replace them with you own belief in self, as: "I'm always a professional", "Everything is always accomplished by me", "I'm a lucky person" – "I'm always coming safe out of any oppression" or "I'm the best". Although also, "I'm becoming healthy". This subject has been exploited more in, #2.51 (do it all – through the usage of programming, #0.1 and via the technique presented in, #2.1).

Do it now.

It's fortunately the work, you can only perform – so do it once in a lifetime, to change it forever.

If you're in disbelief, believe in: "Something positive would happen to me soon" and start to repeat it everyday after wake up and hold to it, in your mind.

It's the power of belief.

DO THE WORK NOW OR SUFFER THE GREAT CONSEQUENCES OF HAVING NOT.

IT'S ONLY YOUR CHOICE TO MAKE / WITH THE TYPE OF BELIEFS YOU CHOOSE.

Month time is enough to turn your life upside down – to better it, immensely.
Your effort is required. It's easy – do your homework, now.
Complete it, to the end: until you would progress.

3.27. Physical pain

Moral energy, #1.1 is required to Live and to be healthy – lack of it, is the cause for disease, pain and all the other consequences. Similarly as the blood flows through your veins – on a parallel metaphysical level: your body is energized by the release of it – from the chakras through the system of meridians, which play a role of physical veins. However, this system – lacks the physical heart that would pump the energy through them, so they need to be pressured – similarly to a pipe where the water flows: by crushing it – you let it accumulate on the end, therefore when released – it's able to reach all the areas. In a physical world – it's done through the exercise or physical suffering, which brings the negative-type emotions to the body – causing this pressure. When it's not done, a disease or pain would result: which would cause it involuntarily.

IMPLEMENT

Insure you would perform at least 1.5-2 hour of heavy physical training at least twice or three times a week[541]/ #4.2. It might be combined with the other physical activities that cause stress over your body (in terms of: sweat, tiredness and exhaustion).
Gym, walking, running, biking, swimming, aerobics, other active sports and physical activities –might require more or less time.

It's advised to rotate and select those who you prefer and are enjoyable for you (deep purpose is felt to perform them and maximum effort is introduced – into being the best and to: check yourself due to those challenges, #1.11xF - #1.1).

Physical exercise is required to clear your body out of toxins and it's obligatory: to perform, at least in the amounts specified. It would also allow you to work more efficiently and feel much better, because of it/ do it, regularly.

[541] Gym is suggested for men/ in every case (either mass, strength, aerobic training plan) as it's the most efficient.
It might be combined with Krav Maga/ boxing/ K-1 (kickboxing)/ judo// i.e. the deeply purposeful.

SLEEP

You need to sleep on a hard surfaces like e.g. floor (see pictures below for the example[542] positions).
Sleep as such is much deeper, more refreshing and shorter – saving valuable time and allows you to feel much more powerful the next day// due to moral energy compression/ #1.1, because of the discomfort.

CREATE A HABIT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Sleep from today on a hard surfaces, i.e. floor and continue it, infinitely.
You would adapt, in time.

Use only 100% natural fabrics for bedding, underwear and all the surrounding in vicinity of your skin, #3.24. Usage of organic materials provides the most refreshment, so switch to it.
Forbidden is to use any drugs/ pharmaceuticals i.e. alcohol, nicotine or coffee (caffeine), chocolate (theobromine) as they highly disrupt[543] the sleep patterns.

Wake up always immediately each morning and spend up to 5 minutes performing some basic exercises of your own choice i.e. push-ups, stretches etc. to raise your body core temperature and get back fast to your activity.

Those changes would take time until you would adjust, so enforce them to your routine (benefits heavily outweigh any cons, long term).

[542] In the first posture: head is not lying on a shoulder, but on the floor.
[543] Up to few hours before (they can't be also taken when i.e. woken up to go to the toilet – in the sleep breaks, etc.).

S_1

Always go sleep with the intent to find a solution to your most important, clearly defined problem. Keep it in the mind forever, and let it be the last thought when you fell asleep: hold to it, up until – you would receive an answer, inspiration or an idea for its fix/ #2.
Never stop searching.

3.28. Herxheimer reaction

It's a reaction which appears when load of the toxins expelled through a pathogens die-off, is higher than the cleansing capabilities of the body (caused e.g. by the usage of anti-parasitic, antibacterial substances). It might cause the following symptoms: fever, chills, severe mental status, hypotension, headache, rapid heart rate (tachycardia), rapid and deep breathing (hyperventilation), muscle and bone pains (myalgia), vasodilation combined with enlargement of the blood vessels with redness (erythema) and exacerbation of skin changes also including anxiety and many more.

Symptoms of the reaction usually retreat within the few days or even sometimes hours and it's required to cut the usage of substances/ tools: causing them (usually: skip any next dose in those incoming 24 hours+). Typically, it isn't harmful for the body but intensity of them: needs to be kept at low to mid-range (clearness of urine, from 2 to 24 hours or more after the usage of substance, might be an indicator – taking into array the absence or intensity of decreasing detoxification symptoms).

3.29A. Initial food and substance test

It's an obligatory thing: to assess your safety (some common foods[544] or substances have a potential to cause dangerous Herxheimer reactions, #3.28 in the presence of e.g. unknown diseases or bacteriological infections, which might prove fatal when overdosed).

[544] It includes predominantly spices and herbs. However some organic foods are danger particularly to those diseased.

CRATE A HABIT & FOLLOW FOREVER

Test always any new substances and foods in very minimal doses – to assess your body responses/ allergies or the potential to cause Herxheimer reaction, #3.28 yet also to get to know them.

In case of products suited for humans i.e. organic packed or sold as bulk – simplified.

- Eat for the first time a tiny bit of food or substance – wait for the whole day until you would be able to consume the next portion. Repeat it, the next day but slightly increasing dose to the[545] recommended.
  If your body reactions are acceptable and no toxicity effects occur – it's safe. For instance food might be e.g. poisoned by pesticides or any other/ GMO: when after the ingestion – sensations like burning, feelings of poisoning, bad mood or other unpleasant appear, up to 7 hours after eating it (those are very characteristic).
  Watch 24h and assess intensity of any potential Herxheimer reactions, #3.28[546].
  In case of any allergy/ in the 2nd or 3rd trial: it should be safe – to pass the possible symptoms (they would be probably gone when the whole treatment is completed).

Full procedure is however, as below (might prove valuable to confirm many common poisonous foods including GM-varieties/ substances).

- Take a tiny bit of food any put it under your tongue – if you've got any negative feeling like i.e. burning, bad taste: discard it.
  If nothing follows: smash it with your teeth and redistribute along the whole mouth, then spit it.
  Wait for 5 minutes – if any negative reactions follow, reject its eating.
  If clear: eat a very tiny amount and wait for the next 6+ hours.
  If no negative reactions mentioned above follow: the food/ substance is safe (use preemptively early, #3.29L in the case of poisoning)/ wait 24h to repeat the test.

Know however, that if it's hard to tell whether a substance is poisonous or not as it might cause certain reactions (e.g. kill pathogens, parasites, bacteria): your body/ you would know what's good for you/ always do at least, 3-4 tests of each food, herb – substance.

Treat always every substance or food this way, particularly: if you haven't tasted the organic, BIO[547] source.

Know your body, know your substance (which includes food).

Following such procedure would protect you in some way from violent reactions of the body, powerful Herxheimer reactions, #3.28 and shield you from potentially fatal allergies/ overdoses (you would know, that the reactions after consumption of certain foods/ herbs might be very severe and cause even panic attacks – if not following this procedure/ so start always from the [545] Usually up to few tryouts are required, to assess and gain confidence for the substance/ particular food – including spices or herbs: wait always a full day, before you decide to consume it once again/ for your safety, see: #3.95B.

[546] Level of 'getting sick'/ in essence: after the ingestion of a specified dose.
[547] No exceptions: for every different source of product/ i.e. un-tested, before (as potency varies, highly).

smaller dose to get comfortable[548] with any of them and watch yourself with the portions used).

Your safety and well-being is the most important. It's death serious.

[548] You take such substances or foods on an empty stomach only. Usage of any other untested/ unknown foods or substances which might cause any reactions on this day is forbidden (preferably, not to be affected by any Herxheimer reaction symptoms) as a rule: which provides additional safety measures, to follow.

3.29L. Gastric lavage

Immediately perform it – in case of any accident.

PROCEDURE

Take a bucket – fill it with water and drink 3-4 liters/ 3.17-4.23 quart of it in the fastest way possible: force[549] yourself to drink, until your very limit and then stop. Vomit would soon follow.

You've got up to 30 minutes[550] to expel the contents of stomach, until absorption would occur. This time can be slightly extended, but avoid to count on it. Keep your head below the heart, when vomiting.

Use this procedure instantly always in any suspicion of poisoning/ ingestion of GM food.
Avoid to think – just do it immediately, as it would save your life.

It's completely safe.

[549] Using cup/ glass: filling it with water – instantly and drinking, in a fastest way possible/ is the same, but count the number of them – in such case.
[550] However: use it immediately even after hours from the food ingestion as it blocks the absorption of toxins in the intestine and your body expels them/ in every case of poisoning where you have – retain still, consciousness.
It's also to be used immediately when you've reached an overdose level of the product or food.

Up to 5-7, even 9 hours – perform gastric lavage, as it all depends from the type of food eaten – its form (i.e. liquid, raw, cooked, etc.) and many other variables: its digestion can take even up to 15 hours and the last value is the maximum time for this life-saving, procedure/ where it should be performed.

3.2A. INITIAL PARASITE CLEANSE

Parasites, are the source of disease and various conditions. They drastically load the body with products of their metabolism: steal nutrients, undermine the immune and even have an effect on thought, which results in i.e. low motivation and energy, laziness in acting and thinking. You might feel, after the completion of the treatment – as you have won your Life back, because the change is usually so monstrous. You've got them inside of you and they might not be noticed, but you won't probably be able to complete the initial stage of cleanse in first approach, due to such heavy load.

Understand also, that if you live with people in same place who haven't been dewormed e.g. via the usage of this treatment, #3-#3.2B to the end, but at least the first stage: you would always be re-infected and there is no other method to avoid it (they need to complete the treatment). This information might be crucial[551] for people with compromised immune systems.

First stage

It's forbidden to start this stage without the 7-day completed starvation, #3.1 (you won't be able to finish this one, as the pathways to expel the toxins would be largely blocked). Return, complete the starvation – it's easy and introduce new diet (any of cleanses can't be completed solely on each self, as they need to be performed in the order set).

[551] It has to be known particularly to women that: parasitic infections cause birth defects in children, including also look defects like freckles/ impair reproductive capabilities and increase the chances of mortality in newborns.

EXECUTE

Take all three herbs together[552] along with the schedule below (use in morning all of them, then split the left doses from the day – equally in time).

DAY	BLACK WALNUT HULL, EXTRA STRENGTH[553]	WORMWOOD (200-300MG)	CLOVES (500MG)
1	1	1	1,1,1
2	2	1	2,2,2
3	3	2	3,3,3
4	4	2	3,3,3
5	5	3	3,3,3
6	2 teaspoons (make sure, you tolerate lower doses)	3	3,3,3
7	Now, once a week	4	3,3,3
8		4	3,3,3
9		5	3,3,3
10		5	3,3,3
11		6	3
MAINTENANCE DOSE[554]	2 teaspoons once a week	7 capsules once a week	3 capsules once a week

It's required from you – to complete at least the first full 7 days, no matter what (with the schedule) as most of parasites and their eggs would be killed during this time (it's the minimum required time, to continue).
If not possible, take 14 days off to return and repeat the process to pass it.

All the physical and neurological symptoms are expected and indicate that something has been killed inside your body, #3.28. They're not dangerous: if the dosage is progressive and followed accordingly to the schedule – they would pass, in time.

Get the contents of the capsule always – place it on a spoon[555] and eat/ ingest, with water (with all of the used substances, later[556] also).

It allows you to examine the substance and protects from possibly harmful/ GM-components which might be used for the capsule. A single layer of 100% cellulose velvet might be used for this purpose – if the substance is too harsh to be swallowed without (warning: check it first for any pesticide residue/ i.e. velvet – it can't burn, on contact with skin/ and be harsh to the tongue).

[552] Used, - Black Walnut Hull (Juglans nigra Extra Strength, 4oz/ 120ml), - Wormwood 90 caps. (Artemisia absinthium, 200-300mg/ caps.), - 2x Cloves 90 caps. (Syzygium aromaticum, 500mg/ caps.).
[553] Used as drops, in cup/ 250ml glass of water.
[554] You skip the dose of 14th day – the maintenance one needs to be taken on a continual basis, after completion of the whole treatment.
[555] Either you can open it directly, in the mouth.
[556] Without L-cysteine.

This is the last warning: forbidden is to take any substances (medications, vitamins or anything) during the process/ #3, as interactions might cause your death (see agreement on the beginning – for the full terms). You're not allowed to take or use any drugs during it: to ensure maximum cleansing performance of your body and to finish the treatment as fast, as only possible.

COMPLETE THE FIRST STAGE BY PASSING THE POINT OF MIN. REQUIRED TIME.
THEN WAIT, UNTIL THE SYMPTOMS WOULD RETREAT COMPLETELY – TO PROCEED.

Keep to remember about the maintenance dose, after completion of the whole treatment.

Second stage

It's safe.

EXECUTE

Take 3,000mg of coenzyme Q_{10} in one single dose.

Before you would do it: remove the contents from the capsule and make sure the product – doesn't contains any additives like e.g. caffeine which might be lethal – when ingested in such amount, #3.29L.

Body absorbs any amount of Q_{10} and it's never toxic. Validate[557] this, on your own (lower doses can be ingested before, but they force you to wait 7 days or so: therefore it's best to proceed to the required one immediately – to finish this stage). It needs to be done, just as.

> Pressing your tongue to the upper mouth & keeping it there – pushed to the top: allows you to effectively block any second-thoughts (use this technique, if required).

It's completely safe to consume such amount in one dose and only you'd might feel little energetic, thereafter. It kills effectively parasites that can't be reached in any other way and is required. It's the easiest and currently, the most[558] pleasurable stage of all (to the end).

Do it.

AFTER ONE-TIME INGESTION OF THE DOSE – WAIT 5 DAYS BEFORE YOU PROCEED.

It's very easy, so just take it.
It's safe.

[557] View the research conducted on participants who eaten up to 3,600mg as a daily dose/ Hyson HC, Kieburtz K, Shoulson I, et al. (September 2010). "Safety and tolerability of high-dosage coenzyme Q10 in Huntington's disease and healthy subjects"/ it's a single, one-time dose – completely safe.
[558] It's usually: 30 caps. at once – it's easy to do/ verify this information by searching for videos of people who did it. Look at it, as you're – eating 30 candies/ easy.

3.3. BOWEL CLEANSE

Until this stage would be possible to perform: you're required to complete the previous ones – in order set. It's required to eliminate the left parasites residing in your bowels. Cleaning them – is the most essential for your health.

EXECUTE

Use three times a day: split over an equal amount of time and taken all together, the below.

1. 1 caps. of synthetic Digestive Enzymes[559] to be used only for the first week (Betaine HCl 200 mg, Pancreatin 4X 200 mg supplying: Amylase 20,000 USP units, Protease 20,000 USP units, Lipase 3,400 USP units),

2. 2 caps. of Turmeric (Curcuma longa, 525mg/ caps.),

3. 2 caps. of Fennel Seed (Foeniculum vulgare, 500mg/ caps.), // roughly, at beginning 5 caps. x 3 times a day.

Eat a meal of 200g/ 7.05oz or more food 75 to 90 minutes after (when digestive enzymes are used). Use two teaspoons of Black Walnut Hull, Extra Strength Tincture (Juglans nigra) only once, at the end of this cleanse, i.e. on a separate, free day.

In case if constipated, only – use Cascada Sagrada (Rhamus purshiana, 500mg/ caps.): starting from 1 to build it maximally to 2-3 capsules taken 2-3 times a day (ingested, with the other substances and used with minimum doses to perform the work).

Perform this stage for minimum a week, but no more than three: end it, when you would stop to expel matter – as shown on the picture above & when your stomach becomes flat.

It would ensure your better waste elimination and improve well-being.

[559] Use half a capsule for the first few days, then when you would be comfortable – progress to one.

IT'S A NECESSARY STAGE TO BE TAKEN, SO EXECUTE IT.
AFTER COMPLETION TAKE A WEEK REST – BEFORE PROCEEDING.

It's very easy, so do it immediately.

Natural position to squat – releases tension on muscle associated with the successful elimination.

EXECUTE

Take always such position: when eliminating matter (spread best your knees on sides – if the legs become numb).

If not possible: press your torso to the legs.

It can take some time.

3.2B. PARASITE CLEANSE, CONTINUATION

You're obligated to continue.

Penalty cleanse

GM foods introduce harmful bacteria and proteins into your body. Therefore a penalty cleanse is required immediately after[560] you ingest any of the specified. You're obliged do it, if you haven't performed this cleanse yet – even if the rule hasn't been violated and its goal, is: to expel this foreign matter from your body (being also extended to toxins which might land in your intestines and cause e.g. burning or hurt).

EXECUTE

Use Colloidal Silver (Ag, 10mg/ l – ~10mg/ qt.) starting from the dose of less than 2ml/ 0.07oz to up 5ml/ 0.17oz together with the Cat's Claw (Uncaria tomentosa, 400mg/ caps.) dose of 400mg up to 2,400-4,000mg for the next 4 days in a row (only those substances can be taken on a specified, free day – where none of the other were[561] used).

It needs to be repeated every time, when the rule/ diet has been violated or toxins ingested.
If any GM/ other had been consumed and haven't been assimilated yet/ i.e. below 5-7 hour mark: use immediately #3.29L.

You're in a need to repeat it: every time when you would ingest any GM-foods or processed ones, containing them. Use only organic diet, #3.21.

[560] You're required to vomit it, #3.29L: if below the mark of 7 hours.
[561] Either: can be used.

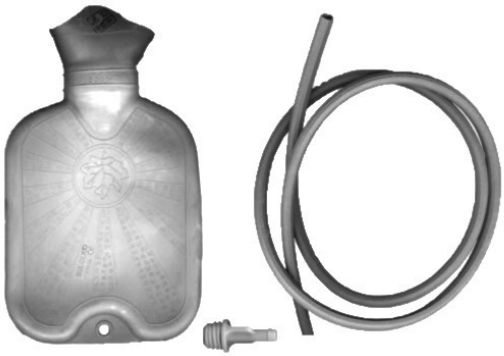
PERFORM THE CLEANSE AND CONTINUE.

EXECUTE

First few repeats, need to be done solely with pure water – to expel the toxins and waste.

Use only a closed infusion device (see picture below) and do it after a natural defecation.

1. Clean the bag with a warm chlorinated water by flushing it few times and leaving for an hour filled, before (water can't be hot). It's forbidden to use any additives.



2. Boil the water and cool it to the temperature of body (38°C/ 100.4°F – use only an alcohol-based thermometer, to measure it).

3. Use firstly 0.5l/ 0.53qt of water: increasing it to the 0.75l/ 0.79qt next time – to progress with maximum of 1l/ 1.06qt water – by pouring it inside. Mount the device, close it.

4. Hang the bag 1.5m/ 4.92ft from the ground near the area you would be lying. Use a foil under – to absorb any spilled water.
Lay on the ground – the left side, pour a little Olive Oil BIO on the end of the pipe, gently and slowly insert the pipe into your anus (not more than 10cm at max.) and release slightly the tap added to the device – it would cause a flow of the water/ perform it slowly and take time, if needed.

5. Ensure, the pressure is low (if the water would be too hot – expel it automatically and wait, until it cools). In a situation when you would feel the push of water: squeeze the pipe with fingers or close the tap – until it passes. Continue to the moment: when all would be poured.

6. Flip slowly on the right side and lay in this position for another 10 minutes. After, lay again on the left side (make additionally a little movement – to ensure water would clean you inside). When 20 minutes pass – stand up, walk a bit, jump a little and go straight to the toilet to expel the toxins.
It's the end.

You would have detoxification symptoms: dependent on the type of toxins accumulated in your body. Wait, until they would retreat completely and continue infusions with pure water only – to the point of not having any (up to 3-4 flushes, at max.).

You're required to do the previous, before continuing (might prove dangerous, when not).

In this infusion: add to 1 liter/ 1.06 quart of water: 30 drops of Black Walnut, Wormwood and Cloves Tincture (extract, not a concentrate) and do the last repeat (it's not absorbed, so it's safe to use[562]).

Ignore all[563] the symptoms that always follow as it's precisely required to heal the body: your flora and everything would get back to norm in a month time – rebuilding itself, alone/ i.e. on its own.

After the completion[564] of this, third stage – a preliminary back-to-health feeling should be experienced by you (although only – when completed stages before, in order).

PERFORM THE CLEANSE AND CONTINUE

[562] Little sip of alcohol might be, but not the substance itself/ absolutely safe.
[563] Avoid to take anything (all those probiotic bacteria taken in pills: are killed by the digestive juices)/ just persevere.
[564] It's the most important cleanse of all: you must pass it/ ignore ALL the beliefs about never inserting yourself anything into your anus – nobody knows, nobody watches: you're doing it safely at home (nobody must ever know).
You have to overcome your limitations and prove yourself. It's likely you would achieve definite clearness of skin and permanent energy & mood boost after its completion – it's absolutely worth it/ seriously.

/ ONLY WHEN COMPLETED IT.

If not performed – you would be re-infected again and ALL the effort would be lost/ with no further purpose. It's an absolute duty to complete this stage, so execute it.

Stage four

Complete now: the below immediately (next day after finishing the previous stage).

EXECUTE

Take, along with the schedule – everything, together (as in the stage: first, #3.2A).

DAY	BLACK WALNUT HULL, EXTRA STRENGTH	WORMWOOD (200-300MG)	CLOVES (500MG)
1	1	1	1,1,1
2	2	2	2,2,2
3	3	3	3,3,3
4	4	4	3,3,3
5	5	5	3,3,3
6	2 teaspoons	6	3,3,3
7		7	3,3,3

You must pass it now.

WAIT – UNTIL THE SYMPTOMS WOULD PASS AND THEN, CONTINUE.

Stage five

In this stage all the remaining parasites would be destroyed – specifically those, who inhabit hardly-accessed areas i.e. brain or certain organs and it's important to be executed in the order supplied.
Ways of toxin removal would be cleaned additionally. It's the safest procedure ever known, despite of dangers involved with preparation of the final product.

EXECUTE

Take, for three weeks time:

1. Ozonated Olive Oil, ½ tablespoon morning and evening (start from less than ¼ of the dose for first use),
2. L-cysteine (500mg/ caps.) starting from 1 caps. – building the dose up to 2 capsules taken 3 times a day in equal time.

PREPARING AND STORING OZONATED OLIVE OIL
Pour a little of 0.5l/ 0.53qt olive oil BIO and put the pipe of ozonator in (see the picture on right). Ensure procedure would be performed outside and turn it on 10 minutes/ for the device producing 400mg/ hour. Avoid to breathe the ozone – come back when the substance would be ready.

Keep the ozonated olive oil always refrigerated and take it an hour before the usage, to place it back again in the freezer.

After 5 days, use new oil to make the substance again the same way (due to potency loss).

ALL the effects – after ingestion of the substances that follow: are required to do the work. They're not dangerous, in those specified doses – continuity of everyday consumption is only required. Stop the usage of them completely, when the time of stage ends.

AFTER COMPLETION: TAKE A 7-DAY BREAK, BEFORE YOU WOULD PROCEED.

It's easy to be passed – just keep the pace.

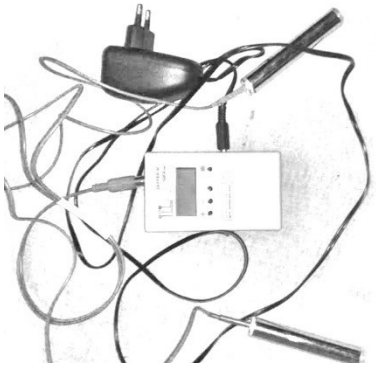
Stage six

Zapper[565] (see the picture below) is an electromagnetic device which passes a low electrical current through the body having no effect on it, but is deadly for the remaining parasites – bacteria/ viruses.
It's an obligatory last stage of parasite cleanse: which needs to be performed, last.

EXECUTE

It's forbidden to use alcohol, medicines, herbs/ drugs or even smoke few days before any zapping session, as electricity changes the permeability of the cell membranes and the last might result in a potent overdoses or even your death – if violated (its usage is forbidden to people with implanted pacemaker and pregnant women).



Firstly, clean the hands with grey soap and wash the knobs with a salty mixture (salt). Then, turn on the device – grab the handles and perform: 7 minutes of zapping/ 20 minutes of break/ 7 minutes of zapping/ 20 minutes of break/ 7 minutes of zapping (it's done automatically – device would beep and the timer would show you – when to grab it again).

Finish always, the 7 minutes x 3 times – full cycle: to ensure the lowest load for the body.

14 full zapping sessions are required to pass this stage (21 are required, if any after-symptoms still prevail). Next zapping can only be performed, when those symptoms from the previous session have passed, which takes up to few days/ with one zapping sessions a day, at max.

[565] Know, that usually batteries aren't enough to complete even a one full zapping session – more, #3X.

Any symptoms which would follow i.e. headache, muscle pains, bad mood and the left, #3.28 would pass[566] in time – they're not dangerous.

A change should be felt in energy levels and all the attached.
You're now free out of most parasites, after completion of this stage (if not re-infected in the meantime).

It's a crucial, last parasitic cleanse.

TAKE A 2-3 WEEK BREAK OR MORE IF NEEDED, TO CONTINUE.

It's an easy stage – complete it fast to end the whole parasite cleanse.

[566] They subside, in the later zapping sessions/ i.e. cease completely.

3.4. LIVER AND GALLBLADDER CLEANSE – EXPULSION OF EXISTING STONES

Insure you've did already previous cleanses in order established before you perform this one: as the passage through bowels needs to be cleaned and parasites killed – to make it without any complications. It's an important cleanse, as it reduces drastically load of the body caused by the formation of stones in both: liver and gallbladder. It's a completely[567] safe cleanse.

[567] If only followed the rules, as ignoring the information given might prove dangerous/ take it seriously.

EXECUTE

Before you would proceed: test yourself for allergy, #3.29A (Epsom salt, i.e. by taking little).

DAY 1. Forbidden is for you to eat today: you're allowed to drink pure water only, when hungry. It extends also to a complete ban on taking any pharmaceuticals, drugs including alcohol, herbs, vitamins or any pills etc. Ensure, you would fully defecate up to tomorrow, max. before 17:00 (if not, extend the starvation until you would, #3.1 and start the next day).

DAY 2.
08:00. Drink only pure water for the full day.
14:00. Prepare. Mix 4 tablespoons of Epsom salt ($MgSO_4*7H_20$) in 3 cups/ 250ml glasses of boiled and cooled water in a vessel. Pour the mixture to 4 cups, each portion of about ¾ cup and put them to the fridge.
18:00. Drink first portion of salty mixture. Then, rinse mouth with water and drink a sip of it.
20:00. Drink second portion of mixture.
21:45. Pour half a cup of Olive Oil BIO (Extra Virgin) to a clean jar with lid. Then, squeeze the Grapefruit BIO to the next vessel in order to remove all the scraps, leaving only juice – to have at least half of the cup. Put it to the jar with olive, close the lid and shake it to mix thoroughly. Now, go to toilet one or more times, even if you would be late with drinking of the prepared olive oil with grapefruit juice, but up to 15 minutes. Avoid to pass this time.
22:00. Drink half of the olive oil and grapefruit mixture and up to 5 minutes after doing so: be in bed. Lay yourself on the back, with a head – high on the pillow. You must lie relaxed and completely still for the next 20 minutes, but extend this time as long as possible/ for the stones to be expelled. In this moment: you should feel a rope of them walking along the intestines. After at least 20 minutes: go sleep in any position.

DAY 3.
Immediately after wake up: drink the third portion of the salty mixture – remember however to avoid drink it before 06:00.
2 hours later. Drink the last part (second half) of the grapefruit and olive oil mixture.
2 hours later. Drink fourth portion of the salty mixture. You can lie down.
2 hours later. You can drink freshly pressed fruit juice. After half an hour – eat any raw fruit. In the next hour: you can start to eat easily-digestible things, like any raw fruits and raw vegetables only and you should stay on them to the end of day.
Expect diarrhea in the morning hours.

Repeat cleanse, until you won't find any stones or calcifications after[568] the last flush, extended by one more (at least a 4-week or more break is required between). It might take up to few or even dozen flushes for some: especially in older people/ aged 30+ – until all the stones would be passed. Know, that stones – aren't visible on x-ray photos as they're mainly not calcified.

TAKE A 3-DAY BREAK BEFORE PROCEEDING / ONLY AFTER COMPLETION OF THIS EASY CLEANSE.

[568] You would pass in toilet up to thousands of those tiny liver and gallbladder stones/ the larger or sharp: cause pains.

Continue, but repeat it after at least 4-week time if the stones have shown up, in the last flush.

3.5. KIDNEY CLEANSE – DISSOLUTION AND FLUSH OF ANY EXISTING STONES

Skip this cleanse to proceed for the next one: if you feel no need or purpose for it (no painful stones are present in your body). It's required to perform cleanses before – to start this. It would also strengthen your kidneys.

EXECUTE

It takes a min. of 6 to 14 weeks to dissipate the stones and to pass them out of the kidneys.
Sip the mixture for a whole day – in a very small doses/ i.e. every 20 minutes.

PREPARING THE MIXTURE

1. Put ¼ cup[569] of each: Hydrangea Root (Hydrangea arborescens), Gravel Root (Eupatorium purpureum) and Marshmallow Root (Althaea officinalis) to a non-metallic vessel and pour to it 10 cups of cold water. Make sure all is immersed and leave it 8 hours for soak.

2. Then, put the herbs to a steel pot and cook them for 20 minutes – not allowing to intensively boil. Next, pour the 240ml/ 8.11oz Cherry Concentrate (100% juice from cherry) in & simmer for the next minute. Switch the boiling off and leave pot until it would get cooled. After, strain it to remove all the herbs and pour the mixture to ¾ of the cup and 0.5l/ 16.91oz jar where the last – needs to be placed immediately in fridge. Insert remaining liquid to 0.5l/ 16.91oz jars and put all of them to the refrigerator.

3. Cook in 1 liter/ 33.81oz of water – 4 bunches of fresh Parsley Tops BIO for 3 minutes. Next, after cooling them in pot – discard them. Pour ½ cup of the liquid to existing ¾ cup mixture (new vessel can be used, like e.g. hip-flask). The remaining part needs to be split by half in 2 jars: one of which needs to be placed in fridge, the other – in refrigerator.

4. To the mixture add 20 drops of Goldenrod (Solidago virgaurea, Extra Strong; perform #3.29A first: if allergic – skip the substance) and optionally, but best: 4 drops of Hydrochloric Acid, HCL 5% to sterilize.
   If you've got any troubles drinking the mixture: limit the Goldenrod drops to 5-7 or less at first and test. If the problem still persists: decrease the amount to ½ of the cup and use up to ¼ cup or slightly more of cooked parsley tops water.

Use Uva Ursi (Arctostaphylos uva-ursi, 500mg/ caps.), 1 caps. for the first three days only: if the pain[570] appears (being strictly limited up to five days straight with this dose, up to five times a year). Supplement Ginger (Zingiber officinale, 450mg/ caps.) 1 caps. – 3 times a day in equal time. Introduction of new diet prepared with the guidelines supplied, #3.21 and the need for clean water, #3.22 & calcium in the form of raw milk/ #3.98A: to stop the formation of new stones or drastically limit it, exists (the last includes also staying away from any drugs, #2.2 or pharmaceuticals which might contribute significantly to the process/ #3.24).

Avoid to overdose the mixture, as it might cause pain and pressure on the bladder – use a new dose for the next morning after, if not consumed fully.

CLEANSE NEEDS TO BE REPEATED FOR THE SAME MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF TIME AFTER 3 MONTHS BREAK – IF ANY STONES STILL PERSIST.

[569] Cup = 250ml glass.
[570] If the last would be present – use/ drink once or few times daily: ½ of cup of freshly pressed organic lemon juice.

Forbidden is to mix any cleanses. However this one might be possibly, in theory mixed with the cleanses that follow (up to the point of stricte, #3.8A)/ not tested – might violate the safety measures.

3.6. PATHOGENIC CLEANSE

You would vomit for the first few[571] times (as the load of the toxic waste caused by the substance can't be possibly discarded in any other way by the body).

EXECUTE

Miracle Mineral Supplement (MMS) – Sodium Chlorite 28%[572] is to be used on an empty stomach: in a starting dosage of 5 drops poured into 1/10 cup of freshly-pressed lemon juice/ use organic fruit, only – to wait for 3 minutes, until the substance becomes activated. Then, add water to the rest of cup and drink it all – in the fastest way, up to the last sip/ drink it up to max. 15 minutes if delayed. Follow it, by ingesting 0.25-0.4 liter/ 8.45-13.53 ounce of water.

Repeat the above 3, 4-6 times a day in equal time (or until a vomit per day – it only happens for the first couple uses): increasing the number of drops gradually. It's forbidden to eat an hour before and one and a half after, being continued only for 3-4 days straight (taking the same amount of time for a break): to the point of reaching one-time dosage of 11-14 drops at least three times in a row, without having any nausea (if the last extends greatly over a period of month: you've might be a cancer sufferer, #3.95A). The last, accompanied by other symptoms like e.g. diarrhea: indicate that the harmful pathogens have been destroyed in your body.

It's completely safe to use – it's a mineral, being the most powerful[573] substance and the best (with ozone[574]) in existence. Load of the body is decreased significantly and it's felt immensely.

Ignore the smell & the taste.

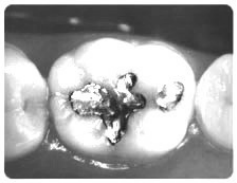
Your health would drastically improve.

[571] This substance contrary to the rest: can be used before any cleanse.
[572] Keep the substance in a cool, dry place with no access to light – best, wrapped in a dark foil. It can be used safely, up to 3 years after the expiry date – as the concentration of the active substance drops only.
[573] It's used even to annihilate diseases like Malaria/ which it does – nearly instantly.
[574] / #3.2B: Stage five.

COMPLETE THE CLEANSE (NO NAUSEA AFTER 3 REPEATED DOSES IN EQUAL TIME OF 11-14 DROPS IN A ROW). THEN PROCEED.

Use maintenance dose of 7 to 14 drops each week or two after completion of the treatment.

3.7. HEAVY METAL CLEANSE



It's obligatory: to complete previous cleanses before taking this one.

Ensure that you've removed any amalgams (material of 'silver' tooth fillings in mouth): before you would engage (see the picture on right). If such is done – wait for three months until you can start this cleanse as it's absolutely forbidden[575] to begin without doing it.

Chelation is a procedure quite challenging, but the benefits to be experienced far outweigh the possible hardship required to pass it (effects are usually far beyond, what is thought to be possibly achieved due to it).

EXECUTE

In the period of cleanse: increase the selenium dosages by using 1 raw brazil nut BIO/ every second day and implement the organic diet, #3.21 – see sample ones/ eat an extended amount of raw fruits, vegetables and portions of cooked foods, of 300g/ 10.58oz and 400g/ 14.1oz. Use additionally 1 double-handfull of raw, shelled walnuts BIO at least three times weekly (all[576] foods, must be prepared along the guidelines – soaked and/ or cooked before use).

Your body would tell you – what's required, by creating an appropriate desires.

It's essential to pass the process, successfully.

PREPARATION PART FOR THE CLEANSE

It's a very easy procedure which involves eating certain food, three or four consecutive days with one day break – to repeat the process again.

EXECUTE

Begin, with the doses of 150-200g of food – usually, up to the first 3kg/ 6.61lbs or 5kg/ 11.02lbs: Mung beans BIO and build it to a single-time max dose of 350-400g/ 12.35-14.1oz – limiting yourself[577] to it. Each such portion of food once, every 36 hours or more (it's required to put it for soak on 12 hours, before cooking for 25 minutes – #3.21).
You're required to eat at least, min. 35-70kg/ 77-154lbs[578] of it – with 45kg/ 99lbs as a recommendation.

Add raw Wild, bear garlic BIO in a separate meals when not used the above and eat 50g/ 1.76oz of it, in this period (a single pinch, each time – min. 36h after the last Mung beans dose).

[575] It's dangerous for the body & you and possesses risks if those mercury fillings are present/ remove them first.
[576] BIO/ organic foods are only allowed for the consumption – anywhere, in the treatment.
[577] Up to 0.5kg/ 1.1lb at once max: only after consuming at least 25kg/ & solely: if the lower doses are tolerated.
[578] Continual usage, is required – even if nothing is felt to be pulled, from the body.

Make it: a part of your diet after ending of the treatment – it's obligatory.

/ It's advised to start this cleanse with the #3.8A: stricte diet, but refraining only: to the diet itself without the use of, #3.82 herbs & the weekly portion of eggs (adding only Mung beans and wild – bear garlic, to it – it won't be the powerful, complete cleanse but would speed up the process).

If you think that – it's too much for your body/ for you: execute this cleanse solely.
Then, after its completion: begin, the real heavy metal cleanse (it can be also combined with, the #3.81A stricte diet but skipping the #3.82 herbs).
Keep forcibly the regime/ i.e. strict discipline.

THE REAL CLEANSE/ to be executed only, when eaten dosages from the previous.

It's forbidden to mix any substances/ i.e. #3.82 herbs: with this one. Be very cautious when dosing the herbs mentioned – verify & check them twice before the usage.

EXECUTE

Begin by using 1-2 single doses, split equally in time – in the lowest amount[579] of 1g, each time.
Use Chlorella pyrenoidosa BIO on empty stomach – only when hungry and precisely after 30 minutes from the ingestion of compressed tablets of this food: eat a meal.

Proceed to 3 doses a day, of 1g – if only tolerated and then the next day, only once – daily: increase the dose by 0.4-0.5g/ staying on such increased dose, to the end of it. If the detoxification reactions: which would follow – would be too heavy, skip the dose to the end of the day and stay on the last used dose. Take breaks, when necessary – and always after come back: build the dose progressively, the same way/ as a safety measure.

When you would reach the dose of min. 14g/ day: introduce Cilantro Tincture BIO the next day. Use chlorella in a dose of 3g, wait 30 minutes – add 1 drop of Cilantro to the water, drink it and after 3 minutes: eat a meal (it's a very dangerous herb when overdosed as it might destroy[580] your brain, so put an extra pressure to measure it right). Increase the dose, if only tolerated – next day by 1 drop, used only once & end the day. Then, use it twice daily – 2 drops, 2 times a day: if only tolerated. You're required to build the dose to 10 drops taken – 3 times a day, to be always taken with the min. 3g dose of chlorella every, each time. It can be used up to a week time, with 3-weeks off in the initial phrase after each cycle/ where you stay on the chlorella, alone (to be limited to 2-weeks off, later).

/ Consume at least 1kg/ 2.2lbs of Chlorella pyrenoidosa BIO & 60ml/ 2oz of Cilantro Tincture BIO (re-supply).

Used dosages, might be high – but they're required to clean everything, fully. This cleanse, is of fundamental importance and absolutely essential for your perfect health.

[579] 1g ~ 0.035oz.
[580] It's dependent of the mercury levels, accumulated.

Perform it, completely.

/ If you've decided to perform the heavy metal cleanse with the #3.8A diet: forbidden is for you to go beyond[581] this chapter/ paragraph. It's a safety measure – to ensure your most prolific, best progress.

IT'S AN OBLIGATORY/ VERY IMPORTANT CLEANSE TO COMPLETE.

Population of the inner organism sickness retreats, #3.8: when the heavy metals are removed from the body/ becoming possible for the overgrowth to be annihilated completely.

[581] Just end on #3.8A/ it.

3.8. DESTRUCTION OF THE INNER ORGANISM SICKNESS OVERGROWTH

Your intestines are inhabited by a microorganism: which role is to process simple carbohydrates/ sugars into energy. The last is however an opportunists, which take every chance to rise and grow completely over your whole body. It also pollutes it, by the products of its metabolism which loads the immune system: causing variety of unrelated symptoms and diseases. For instance, if the overgrowth would enter/ occur in your nose – you've got it blocked, your anus – you've got hemorrhoids, swelling and pain etc. Low energy, bad mood and ALL the other symptoms, are virtually a response of the loaded immune, which is overtaken by the work it has to perform, by expelling toxins and waste products this microorganism produces when its population in the body is high. When the last, is overgrown completely or mostly, by it – the same microorganism attacks organs, which are crucial to sustain life – your immune responds, by resorting to last line of defense which is cell division, called cancer.

Test yourself. To assess, how much you're affected – take tomorrow early morning, a first spit of the whole saliva contents and pour it into a cup of water: if anything would retain in it, not being diluted and crystal clear – you're severely overgrown.

Another indicator is your own tongue – if it's not purely juicy red on the whole track of it: you're severely overgrown/ any violet, white patches on it – mean inner organism sickness.

Look, at the picture above – white spots, particularly visible in the top and middle of the tongue and any darker areas, are those affected: redness is only on the edges, which is clearly visible (it's all – only an indicator, of how the whole body is overgrown by this microorganism/ visit official website of the book mentioned in first pages: for original picture in color). The tongue, should be juicy red on its all track to be clear of the overgrowth – now go to mirror and assess your level of infection.

The treatment is safe: if the guidelines are followed (it's the only effective way to eradicate this microorganism – all the others, fail miserably). In the direct sense: those who reduced its overgrowth have won back their youth – dramatically increased their energy levels and well-being, cleared ALL the remaining symptoms/ ailments – protecting themselves, against cancer.

3.81. Diet

A special diet, is absolutely required to kill effectively this microorganism. Forbidden, is to touch anything which isn't on it, as this would supply the fuel to its growth (i.e. the simple carbohydrates – sugars/ and processed foods) and about a 3-week time would be required to get back to the moment, left. When the last would be dying – it will release toxins which would cause you to feel weak, experience flu-like symptoms (fatigue – feeling of sickness and intoxication). It's expected.

3.81A. STRICTE

Know, that you're on this diet for a limited amount of time – until the overgrowth would be significantly reduced, so embrace it. It would be brought to you, that you're only restricted to it.

EXECUTE

Eat only, cooked: ALL meats i.e. chicken (which includes all fish, i.e. mackerel, tuna – mercury limits their usage), cheese (to 0.1g simple carbohydrates – sugars, type-only[582]), millet, oats (not rolled/ not crushed: full grain!), adzuki & olive oil (raw). As spices, use: pinch of black pepper, unrefined salt (all prepared or used, along the #3.21 guidelines).
Sprouts of lentils, alfalfa, winter wheat, adzuki & red – kidney beans might be supplemented.

ALL FOODS EATEN, MUST BE ORGANIC-ONLY/ I.E. BIO.
You eat them everyday, all-time without any exceptions (decay of the microorganism would follow three weeks, after starting it). An example diet, might include.

Half a cup/ 250ml glass of sprouted raw lentils or winter wheat,
400g/ 14.1oz of oats (6h soaked, 30m cooked) or adzuki (12h s., 25m or 30m cooked),
200g/ 7.05oz of cheese or millet (8h s., 11 or 14m cooked),
260g/ 9.17oz of tuna or 200g/ 7.05oz of chicken.

Continue it, up to a 1-1.5 (for best results)[583] month, straight – then, switch on a light diet for a period, to come back to it. Add[584] once a week, to it: 6 chicken cooked or scrambled[585] eggs/ as needed – it's although recommended to add only them for your survival. If you're struggling[586] – you can add time-to-time: brown rice (8h s., 30m cooked), buckwheat (20-45m s. max, 20m cooked – used, less often) & wheat – winter (7h s., 45m cooked).

Up to 6, 14 months straight: follow the stricte diet, then – switch to the usual diet, where you can eat what you want – limiting yourself only the unrestricted sugars (simple carbohydrates) intake – for at least 3 months, to rebuild the reserves.

[582] If unsure/ no data on the product – skip, immediately/ has to have on the label – carbohydrates: 0.1g.
[583] If during the above diet, would appear – a very painful, intense and very long-lasting heartburn: eat few apples and revert to light diet, immediately/ if the herbs are used, #3.82: it's usually – easy to pass the stricte diet (withstand).
[584] Skip this food completely, if you only handle this diet: for best results/ it acts, as a support to complete it.

In the moment of need, use the light diet and stay on it – until you're ready to continue the 'stricte' diet, again (to the point, where your tongue would turn red – being confirmed by the morning spit of saliva, which would dilute itself in the water, nearly completely). Eradicate it, as fast as possible – do it right, the first time/ notice: certain foods might only be eaten cooked or sprouted in the above diet.

You've might get an impression that the cleanse is punishing for the body, but actually the last has got compensating mechanisms which allow it to function quite well, destroying the inner organism sickness in the meantime – the last is starved due to lack of food it uses and decays. If for any reason you think – you shouldn't continue this diet: switch to the light one – where it would take longer, but would be even much easier to finish cleanse – including the usage of powerful herbs (not recommended).

3.82B. LIGHT

If you would brake the first time, fast – make sure you limit yourself only to eating ALL organic sources of sugar. However, insure – it won't repeat itself the next time, as perfect health: is the most important for you now and regaining all the lost.

Stay on the previous diet, for longer periods – extend them, it's perfectly viable for you.

Those sugar/ 'sweet' desires, would pass away – in time, when the population of the inner organism sickness would be significantly reduced, so it's only ALL temporary. Use the below products from the list only, as your transition diet – which would enable you to return, to the previous one. If you solely decide that something not from the restricted list, is to be eaten: limit yourself to doing it only once (note: if cancer is present, #3.95A – it's forbidden). Be on the light diet to a point of need, however usually no more than up to 2, 3-4 or 14-21 days (despite, up to three days time is recommended or either a full, one week).

[585] Use organic olive oil, only/ in the stricte diet: consumption of eggs, brown rice, buckwheat and winter wheat is forbidden for those with cancer, #3.95A (one portion 300g/ 10.58oz of one of them: of choice – a week, at max.).
The above are also forbidden: if you're being on a heavy metal cleanse/ for both variations, of the last.
[586] If only: unable to complete it, without// it would be less & take more time to eradicate the overgrowth, when so.

Eradicate the overgrowth completely, as it would come back – if not or left, partially.
Begin, to watch on your habits of food consumption – as irresponsible eating might cause the return of it, in a very short time, #3.21.

3.82. Herbs

Herbs, should be added – to the diet.

EXECUTE

If confidence is attained with the particular herb: another, similarly tested – can be added to be taken, with it. All of them, need to be researched before any use and tested in the smallest doses, #3.29A.
Dosing is attributed to the source – typically: follow the directions given by supplier.
Increase, if tolerated and you've researched the overdose symptoms – knowledge about the toxic levels (for most: stay at recommended doses) etc.
/ Be very wary with essential oils: use them in a very minimal doses, first – #3.29A (as each and every above source, separately).

Assess their work – on your body, by testing them separately.
They're required, as they would speed up drastically the progress made.

[587] Use continually – only in light diet, #3.81 (obligatorily: organic-only).

Use them, with caution.

3.83. Subsidiary substances

Perform obligatorily those below subsidiary cleanses. Do it, in the mid-time – when you would switch to light diet (doing it in the three weeks time, of it – for each).

1. MMS2 (Calcium Hypochlorite)/ 70%, 600mg/ caps.

It's an acid, which is present[588] in your body – although due to improper diet and other conditions, the last has deficits of it. It's used to fight pathogens and destroy diseases. Supplementation of it, is required until the reserves won't be rebuild.

EXECUTE

Use everyday 1 capsule/ 600mg of MMS2 and drink it, with a cup of water. After, when you notice it's being dissolved in stomach – which should happen in the next 5 to 25 minutes: drink obligatorily 1 or 2 cups of water to form the acid.

Eat a capsule each day for 3-4 days straight, then take the same amount of break.
Continue it, for 3 weeks.

If any symptoms would follow – it means, that the acid has been used by the body on diseased organs or areas affected. They would pass and no effects would be present, except the feeling of increased functioning and performance/ evade to overdose the substance. Avoid to inhale the acid. It's a non-toxic substance, safe for the body – the last, discards all the leftover which can't be added, to the existing reserve and excretes it primarily, with urine.

[588] It's naturally occurring in your body.

2. Hydrogen Peroxide (Food Grade [!]) 35%

Is occurring naturally in raw foods, mother's breast milk and many other sources. However, it concentration has significantly dropped, over the years through the pollution of environment, processing methods developed etc. Used to kill all the harmful microorganisms, which contribute to poor functioning of the body – reducing its load. It's a safe substance.

EXECUTE

Always dilute it, before any use (such concentration needs to be used, to be diluted – to form the desired output). Wear latex gloves and glasses, when handling.

Use 250ml glass of distilled water and pour to it drops, according to the table below.
Forbidden is to eat 60 minutes before and 90 minutes after its usage.

DAY	NO. OF 35% HYDROGEN PEROXIDE FOOD GRADE DROPS, IN A CUP/ 250ML GLASS OF DISTILLED WATER
1	3 drops, 3 times a day
2	4 drops, 3 times a day
3	5 drops, 3 times a day
4	6 drops, 3 times a day
5	7 drops, 3 times a day
6	8 drops, 3 times a day
7	9 drops, 3 times a day
8	10 drops, 3 times a day
9	12 drops, 3 times a day
10	14 drops, 3 times a day
11	16 drops, 3 times a day
12	18 drops, 3 times a day
13	20 drops, 3 times a day
14	22 drops, 3 times a day
15	24 drops 3 times a day
16	25 drops, 3 times a day

If, at any level – any problems would occur: they indicate that something has been killed and it's expected. Keep the last dose and continue – the symptoms would pass. Follow this schedule to 16th day and take the rest of days free on light diet: to match the three weeks time.

EXECUTE

After, follow the maintenance dose if the symptoms are still present or repeat cleanse one more time – if such need is felt/ min. three months after taking a break from it: after completion of the whole treatment.

DOSAGE	FREQUENCY
25 DROPS	once every second day for 1 week
25 DROPS	once every third day for 2 weeks
25 DROPS	once every fourth day for 3 weeks

It’s important.

3.9. VIRAL CLEANSE

Again, as it has got the potential to cause massive[589] overload – it shouldn't be performed until previous cleanses haven't[590] been completed fully. It involves using zapper, #3.2B: Stage six but on the Beck's frequency – with the electrodes connected directly to the veins. However, what time is to be used – how it needs to be done, what are the reactions to this treatment: would be purposely left for you to research, on your own so you would also learn to think.

Attain your own knowledge on this topic, apply it for use.
This cleanse should be obligatory and the last, which ends the treatment.

How to research?
Focus always on a specific areas: before you engage.

Preemptive.
Why it's required to perform the procedure?
What would I gain?

Doing-it
What are ALL the conditions and circumstances under which death, can occur?
What/ how people experienced it?
What has to be done step-by-step?
Can additionally safety be secured?

Tip. Always start from the very little of something.

HIV virus is typically damaged due to blood electrification (it doesn't removes the virus, but damages it to a point when it becomes inactive/ i.e. cured).

Lupus[591] and ALL the left viruses: are destroyed also.

Use your mind: to perform it with the knowledge attained and start to think now – for yourself.
You've been prepared for it, #0.1.

[589] In a case of late Lyme disease, #3.95B i.e. you would know: cease cleanses on, #3.83 – until you won't treat it permanently/ or do it, at your own risk – you've been warned, the second time.
[590] An Exception, is that it although can be performed independent of the other cleanses in a case of sudden, acute bacterial or/& viral infection – i.e. if your life is threatened/ & under the presumable circumstance that: ozone, #3,2B: Five/ MMS, #3.6/ and #3.95B & #3.95C – failed (extremely, very rare).
[591] It's a condition, which might be caused by many of the factors i.e. by Lyme disease, mineral-related deficiency yet in most individuals: it's a virus/ completion of the whole treatment, in order established & ending everything with this specific cleanse – is required to destroy it, like many of the others.

3.95+ SPECIFIC

Additional information – not covered in primary treatment.

Spread this work on you own, share it with your friends – send it people you've got an e-mail of, place on social media and any ways to target the most of people. Attach link to it, everywhere – redistribute in your community. Mind it, continuously/ for your very access to it, in the future. Your action – matters/ execute it now.

Overcome yourself.

3.95A. Cancer annihilation protocol

It's safe/ when followed precisely.

1. Firstly: stop to eat and drink completely anything – right now as the foods and drinks you're probably consuming are a fuel for the cancer and it would kill you – if you not cease, immediately. You're only allowed to drink from now on: pure water for all the time present. Know, that any deviation from the treatment might result in your death.

You've started already a 10-day starvation, #3.1 – time when you absolutely only drink pure water so continue it, up to this day and in the time of it – buy the below:

- 250g/ 8.82oz of raw, unheated organic bitter apricot[592] seeds/ pits.

Additionally order: 200g/ 7.05oz of organic flax seeds to have an opportunity to compare whether the pits are unprocessed and to get to know overdose symptoms first-hand to ensure your survival (if you're not supplying fuel for the cancer growth – you're safe).

Vitamin B17 is present in little to very little amounts, in most of the common – natural foods. The last, shouldn't be eaten in dosages of no more than its required – similarly as with the pits/ typical consumption of up to 10-15 fruits a day. It contains a molecule of cyanide which is a potent poison capable of causing death in high concentrations, but acts as a vitamin for the body – which uses it to destroy cells which are damaged and diseased for it (as a curiosity: Vit. B12 contains a part of the compound: α-(5,6-dimethylbenzimidazolyl)cobamidcyanide). Each living cell of your body has a TAG attached to it: those who are redundant and to be eliminated – haven't got it, which includes tumor cells so they're destroyed in an instant/ i.e. cancer is annihilated.

Therefore, after completion of the hunger strike: you're only allowed to eat foods from the, #3.81A list (stricte diet) for ALL the time (use firstly small portions of them, to resize your stomach gradually) and continue to do the below.

Soak half a tsp. of flax seeds for 8 hours in a cold water and then use three of them on an empty stomach – crushing them with your teeth and swallowing in the presence of water/ stop to overdose them, as it might kill you. A reaction should occur, which would give you an idea of the cyanide poisoning – those symptoms appear when you're overdosing the compound and the effects of the poison i.e. Vitamin B17[593] are responsible for the cancer destruction. Do it only once and continue next day.

[592] Ensure, they would be ordered from at least three different sources, as they're very often thermically treated or irradiated with no information about the process on the label – in such case: they become useless i.e. B17 is destroyed.
[593] Flax seeds synthesize it, in the presence of water and the dosage can't be controlled exclusively – so it's always better to use bitter apricot seeds. It's essential for the full health: to eat on a daily base foods containing it – which have been included e.g. in the sample diets, #3.21. Those foods mentioned in the protocol – contain an extremely high dosages of the compound, so an additional caution is required.

- Eat now 1 bitter[594] apricot seed in equal spaces over time: up to 10-15 max daily – for three weeks or more if needed. Continue, to the point where you would feel as symptoms of the cancer have gone, completely (avoid to cross this dose, as you would die – if any symptoms of the acute toxicity would appear: stop until they retreat – begin the next day/ it should be possible for you to cause it: which might indicate that the source is reliable – i.e. works, & is unprocessed// most of the pits sold are heat-processed: useless; watch out).

Through continual, but safe usage of the higher doses of Vit. B17: cancer would be gone.
However the inner organism sickness, #3.8: which caused him – still remains in your body and the cancer would strike again, if not destroyed now.

Keep the stricte diet, exclusively.

2. You're allowed now – after a month or so, to eat a selected choice of sugar e.g. three apples.
You're required to do so, each month after being 100% on stricte diet, of #3.81A which is required for you to survive.

Complete now, #3.2B: Stage five and after it, do the #3.6 cleanse. Restart now, the process starting from #3.2A to end it, to the very finish/ #3.8 with skipping those cleanses performed earlier.

You're allowed to change the diet to #3.81B (light) after min. 8 months[595] of following, the stricte one. Use instructions of, #3.8 to measure progress of the inner sickness overgrowth destruction.

Additionally, do at least[596] 3-5km/ 1.86-3.11 miles of walking everyday – #3.7, #1.

It's recommended to quit your daily job: to focus on the treatment solely and avoid to acknowledge any negative information/ no TV – no official public sites or press etc. It's easy to conquer cancer, but it requires some effort. Keep the organic diet, used with the guidelines #3.21 and perform the treatment periodically to have the perfect health – after its destruction.

Know it, #2/ take the process.

[594] If something is extremely bitter – it's the nature's way to tell you: "watch out" – it applies to all/ beware.
[595] Loosen up the restrictions – particularly with sugars, after those first 2.5, 3-4 or best 5 months: if you think you can, but limit it to part of consumption – allowed for the non-cancer in, #3.8A.
[596] Your strength of the immune: is directly connected, to the level of moral energy you hold within, #1.1/ increase it, take it very seriously as its essential to cure yourself. It involves: taking the process/ #2.

3.95B. Lyme disease/ any left bacteriological sickness annihilation

Lyme disease is a role model for the destruction of any bacteriological strain particularly resistant to the treatment. Perhaps, any unclear – sudden panic/ anxiety attacks where you've couldn't breathe: might definitely prove the last – in combination with the other symptoms experienced. Usually most of the diseases, can be cured with the usage of foods and herbs and they only should and can be used for this purpose. Diseases occupy the body and thrive in it, because last is kept in a poor condition. Pathogens are known for undermining the immune system ability to fight them back and contribute to the mineral/ vitamin loss as population of them steadily grows. They also commonly hide behind the heavy metals, so they're protected and can repopulate.

Introduction of treatment, #3.1-present is always necessary, in any case.
Natural, prevalently raw and only organic diet – prepared with the guidelines is an absolute requirement, #3.2.

Lyme disease causes deficiencies of zinc, biotin, manganese, vitamin B6 (or P5P) and arachidonic acid. Therefore, foods aimed at replacing them should be an everyday addition.

Raw diet, consisting everyday use of sprouts i.e. lentils/ wheat, vegetables and fruits supported by use of nuts i.e. 2 tbsp. of hemp seeds/ 1 tbsp. of sunflower seeds or pumpkin seeds/ 1 double-handfull of raw, shelled of walnuts[597] or 50g/1.76oz pecans, is required – in the case of Lyme disease (they need to be soaked – before usage along with, #3.21 tables). It needs to be supported by two meals i.e. 300g & 400g of cooked foods (of personal choice: body would know it, by creating a hunger for those specific[598] – after completing the hunger strike, #3.1; last, needs to be obligatorily performed before starting this stage). Eat also a two fresh coconuts with milk in (& brown shell on the inside), every month – in free days/ in 2 doses.
Add raw milk of cow, to it – everyday duty/ #3.98A.

If you've got any symptoms: this cleanse should be rotated with the main cleanse, #3 (i.e. in the case of Lyme disease, which is characterized by a 2-week period of increased symptoms: the main treatment should be continued; if the symptoms subside for another 2-weeks – you should continue this cleanse, to lower the population[599] of the bacteria).

Use always less than minimal dose of the substance, to assess body reactions, [597] View the clues: they're good for your brain, because they resemble it in their looks – which is required for the repair of last, damaged by the sickness/ similarly as organic bananas – improve erectile function.

[598] Under condition: that they were consumed in the past already.
[599] Most of bacteriological diseases are characterized by a period of higher/ lower symptoms and they should attacked when the last are on the low side – continuing the main treatment when the symptoms return. It's the most important to strengthen immune because it's a core of the body ability to fight any bacteria. After its completion: it needs to be continued full-time until the complete recovery, to the very absolute end and at min. years after – to ensure all has been destroyed/ totally – i.e. 100%: it's entirely a necessity for you in spite of the fact that, it's a very prolonged way.

#3.29A.
In a case of Lyme disease: they might follow up to 24h after use – overdose[600] might prove dangerous/ *f*atal – be warned (wait, with the next dose of any of those foods – for this period).

It has to be continued up to the very end, with at max 1-3 free day – when you don't use any of the disease-conquering herbs, foods/ breaks between: once or twice each month, at very best/ its essential.

LYME ANNIHILATION PROTOCOL (substances used, might be effective against many other bacteriological diseases/ particularly resistant).

Use those herbs in order set, upping one or two higher (number) and continue, until the particular set stops to work. Extend further the usage of it, by two or three weeks – then, proceed[601] to the next one. Take breaks, if necessary and keep the Herxheimer reaction in the mid-level, #3.28 – it's your work, to do.

1. Andrographis paniculata (10% andrographolides, up to a week/ every month).
1 caps. 400mg – 2 times a day (min. 12 hours break between the doses).
Skin reactions might follow. Can't be used in the long term/ use up to 60 caps. and end it.

2. Resveratrol (200mg Trans-resveratrol – Polygonum cuspidatum Extract root – 400mg, 50% Natural-Resveratrol – 200mg & Red Wine Extract, Alcohol-Free – Vitis vinifera min. 30% Polyphenols – 10mg, use up to two-three weeks every month).
1 caps. x 200mg (each single capsule, dose – in all of the book contents) Resveratrol – 1 time a day (if symptoms are intense, use 4x 50mg in equal amounts of time).
Taken with: Cat's Claw (Uncaria tomentosa). 2 caps. x 400mg – 1 time a day.
And with: Eleuthero (Eleutherococcus senticosus root, use less than week a month or even more less). 2 caps. x 500mg – 1 time a day.

3. Pancreatic, digestive Enzymes (4x Pancreatin 500mg: capsule equals to Amylase 50,000 USP; Protease 50,000 USP; Lipase 9,000 USP; used not more than one-two weeks every month or even less).
1 caps. x 500mg of Enzymes on an empty stomach.
With 1 caps. x 400mg of Cat's Claw (Uncaria tomentosa).
Then after 40 minutes take Colloidal Silver (Ag, 10ml/l) in dosage of 2.5ml/ 0.08oz up to 5ml/ 0.17oz and wait at least 1.5 hour until you would eat, anything.
You must ingest a meal after/ up to 2 hours after. Begin with less than half of the Enzymes dose and less than an hour: when you would ingest any food [600] Test always various products, as one i.e. food or herb != might not be equal or even match the same, other product/ select always those, which are the most potent. A perfect example might be garlic: where one bulb from the first batch – might knock you out of your legs, whereas two bulbs from the second selection – would have little to none effect// the same specie, the same herb-food – however drastically different potency/ effect. Next example might be honey: the same variety (type) might be eaten as a whole in a day but a sip of the other product (same type) might make you very sick – producing a very-high Herxheimer reaction. It's all dependent from the conditions where the food was grown and under what circumstances, less of a specie: all feature, organic-sources only/ seek, for the potency.

[601] For instance you take herb from point 1 – a week straight; then you abandon point 1 and proceed to point 2 for two weeks; if it ends you go for the point 3 for a week of time; then you come back to the substance from point 1 and do the same, until they work – it's easy (if it stops, after three additional weeks – you now on: proceed from point 2 etc.).

and build the dose, to the specified.

4. Physalis[602] (P. peruviana).
Take 1 berry to mouth and make sure you would crush most of the seeds by teeth, to swallow them after. Begin with less than a half of this dosage and then, limit yourself to one berry per day. After few days of continual dosage, take a 1-2 day break.

5. Pomegranate (Punica granatum).
Particular varieties have antimicrobial properties, however they're hard to catch – effectiveness of the fruit can be assessed by the immense headaches that follow after – in those, who are carriers of the disease (use this information to find fruits, which have those properties: if BIO source, is only available – use ¼ of fruit). Eat up to a half of it/ every second day – make sure everything would be smashed very precisely (treat the dose seriously as any of the foods/ herbs).

6. In this moment, you should finish the treatment up to #3.7 stage where the heavy metal cleanse starts. However, be very wary with it as Lyme disease symptoms – increase immensely, when the metals are removed/ crucial information. Therefore, do it up to a point where you feel – you've reached enough and do additionally: three more 400g doses of Mung beans BIO (the last, is required). Resign then from it, until the symptoms won't retreat due to destruction of Lyme by the below herbs/ foods.

Eat one of them – up to a point where no Herxheimer symptoms are present/ every 24 hours, typically/ all in their raw state, until not mentioned[603] otherwise:

i. cranberry BIO (ingredients, if present – like oil, must to be BIO),
ii. figs BIO, (particularly in a case of Lyme disease: select only BIO herbs & spices..)
iii. honey BIO – unpasteurized, unheated, (.. as they've might contain deadly..)
iv. savory BIO, cumin BIO/ spices, (.. pesticide residue)
v. cooked elderberry juice BIO,
vi. pineapple BIO (know that particular foods might work/ or not have the properties),
vii. dates BIO (similarly as below – remember to always start from one – 1 date etc.), viii. horseradish BIO/ packed (watch out particularly: use very little, #3.29L if troubled) ,
ix. carob BIO (if in a serious problem – if overdosed: vomit, even 6-9 hours after),
x. onions BIO (all the above notices: are valid to ALL of the items – on the list),
xi. gooseberry BIO/ black sesame seeds BIO,
xii. maple syrup BIO/ packed; celery turnip BIO (25m cooked), xiii. mustard BIO/ packed, (seek for the varieties, which have antimicrobial properties..)
xiv. melon (Galia) BIO, (not every product – herb, fruit, vege. i.e. source, is the same)
xv. red cabbage BIO / chinese cabbage BIO / radish BIO,

[602] Ensure that the fruit is fully matured: which is visible in its complete yellow/ orange appearance. Extract the seeds by placing the last into a mixer filled with water – preserve, by placing them into an air-tight container, to be kept in a dark, cool and dry place.
[603] If 'packed' = sold as a ready product/ might be heat processed – which is to be used, as available.

xvi. goldenseal (Hydrastis canadensis – root; use as antibiotic, 1 caps./ 470mg each a day up to a week – every three months, if needed), xvii. agave syrup BIO/ packed, (those who produce Herxheimer reactions, #3.28: work)
xviii. garlic BIO (up to 4 days straight, 1 or 2 cloves each time) / Pau D'Arco (Tabebuia impetiginosa – inner bark, 2 caps. x 1,000mg each – a day up to a week),
xix. cooked beets with vine vinegar BIO/ packed (as a product),
xx. grapefruit BIO/ tangerines BIO eaten as whole with crushed – small seeds,
xxi. chestnuts BIO; edible species/ packed – can be steamed.

ALL sources, must be obligatorily BIO/ organic (as only those, have fully desired properties). Firstly begin, with a very minimal dose of each food/ herb to assess your reactions, #3.29A (they appear up to 24 hours after – beware/ use immediately, #3.29L: if crossed-highly the safety). Then, make yourself a set of e.g. two or three herbs i.e. starting from one cranberry, one date and little pinch of horseradish where you would take each, on a consecutive/ next[604] day basis. Use each food/ herb, up to a point when it stops to work – extended by a three week period. They can be combined, same day as a separate meals – when the tolerance and knowledge about the caused reactions has been built and confidence attained. If the two-three herb/ food[605] set is loosing its potency – replace it with another and continue the treatment.

Then continue with the heavy metal cleanse, #3.7: up to a point where Lyme symptoms are barely tolerated – to use the foods and herbs in order to kill the bacteria/ repeat the whole process – to progress. In this stage, you should increase the pace maximally.

Herbs to test, might include: Sarsaparilla Root (Smilax), Sida acuta/ Cryptolepis/ Alchornea cordifolia blend, ECGC, Houttuynia (Yu Xing Cao), Milk Thistle seed, Nattokinase, Boneset, Rhiodola rosea, Red root, Stephania root, Cowden herbs, Teasel root (find/ use more foods with antimicrobial properties). If most metals have been removed, #3.7 – and ALL Lyme symptoms cleared: continue the treatment, for life (usage of those foods/ herbs, Mung & bear garlic incl.).

Treatment is hard, lasts long and it's a challenge, but it's possible to cure Lyme completely and it's the process one has to take, to Live (all cleanses except the very last viral cleanse, combined are none – compared to it, but withstand all: to the end/ believe in self; if not/ indulge = you die, basically).

In this reality, there is always an effective[606] moral solution to any problem existing.
You must however: invest own efforts into finding it ("incurable" diseases – aren't exempted).

If you're suffering still/ after completing the treatment, #3 (very, very unlikely) on any other bacteriological/ antiviral disease or ailment: you should start by exploring, #3.29A and finding organic herbs & foods – which would destroy it.

LISTS OF ANTIBACTERIAL/ ANTIVIRAL HERBS AND FOODS

[607] Aimed to destroy bacteria, in the body (those in bold: commonly used as herbal antibiotics).
[608] As a protection, against (through circulation in blood of specific alkaloids)/ for viral cleanse, #3.9.

Their continual usage, as presented earlier – might be essential. Many more herbs and food exists (extra research on your[609] part – is required/ for any[610] of them)...

Safety is forever your first priority...

3.95C. Further answers for frequent health issues and diseases

You're required to perform before, #3 – the full treatment in ALL cases, with the complete introduction of organic diet, #3.2.

I. I've got...

It would be dealt – when the treatment would be completed, #3.
Exception is cancer, #3.95A and Lyme disease, #3.95B where order has to be changed.

II. How to have even higher energy levels?

In the case of men only – you've got to retain your sperm inside of you. It's still possible to have multiple orgasms, but without the ejaculation – which allows you to have sex, virtually infinitely.

You do so, by pressing three middle fingers hard from the bottom, just under the base of penis when standing – in order to block the flow of sperm, shortly before having an orgasm (keep the tension on the pipe, also the moment after). It can also be achieved, by 15 minute everyday training of your lower muscles through the constant tension and release of it, when e.g. sitting or in the bathroom.

It usually takes up to one-three months, to be able to such strengthen the muscles to block the flow, completely. Keeping the sperm[611] would increase your levels of testosterone and energy, significantly – which has a huge meaning when building body mass, #4.2 (circumcision, #3.96 allows you to extend the time of sex and intensifies pleasure).

It's safe.

Human is subjected to a daily rhythm, associated with the body core temperature.

[609] It might present a danger: to use long term some of them, due to potential toxicity (like for example: Boneset, Eupatorium perfoliatum). Investigate & research before you use any of the foods/ herbs & test forever before, #3.29A.
[610] Where Eleuthero (Eleutherococcus senticosus, #3.95B:2 for directions of use): is an herb recommended for the periods of exhaustion (adaptogen)/ #2.
[611] Avoid to however treat this method, as a form of contraception.

When it raises – activity of the person increases. In the mid-day, there is a decrease – it can be used, to get a quick nap up to 30-40 minutes with clock at max., as it won't start the sleep but would allow you to refresh your energy levels, #3.27. Take it, if possible.

III. Sicknesses... Full completion of the treatment is required, #3 and possibly the below.

Alzheimer's disease/ dementia. No processed/ not-organic foods – organic diet only, take the process and stay with #3.7 cleanse until the symptoms retreat. Avoid to use any sources of mercury, #3.24/ i.e. toilet paper, etc. Add at least 70g/ 2.47oz of raw, shelled walnuts/ pecan nuts – in rotation, as a part of nearly everyday diet.

Diabetes. If still present – start to use only low glycemic/ > GI40 foods from the list: onion, chicory, blackcurrant, sprouts, cucumber, olives, peanuts, almonds, leek, celery, asparagus, green leaf vegetables, cherries, lemon juice, bitter chocolate, red currant, berries, pumpkin seeds, green lentils, chickpeas, garlic, pears, plums, peaches, nectarines, apricot, citrus fruits (pomelo, grapefruit, oranges, lemons, limes), skimmed curd, amaranth, peas, wild rice, beans (i.e. navy, black, white, black-eye, kidney, mung) in low doses, until the organs would regenerate fully.

Emphysema/ related-lung diseases. Cease any elements, which poison your lungs i.e. smoking – it might be required to change surrounding if you're living in a place where the air is contaminated.
Use intravenous H_2O_2 (Hydrogen Peroxide, food grade) therapy (3% of food grade H_2O_2 solution added to a bag of saline and given, as an intravenous drip).

Asthma. Inhaling ozone trapped in an olive[612] oil, #3.2B: Stage five with the concentration ranging between 30-60ug/ ml with the flow of air on the level of 1/16l/ per minute, through the oil placed in a bottle for max. 15 minutes – 2 times a day, is used/ it's a special equipment for this purpose. You start from less than 5 minutes and increase it, to max time of 30 minutes. Repeated treatments up to 3-8 weeks are mostly enough, it's a very prolonged process. Use a magnet of 3" x 5" (7.62cm x 12.7cm) and strength of 3,500 gauss where the North Pole is directed into the body, in a case of attack.

Flu/ cold. Use immediately MMS dose of min. 7-12 drops, 4-6 times a day – for few consecutive days straight, #3.6/ allow the body sometimes to fight it, without.

Destroyed or damaged skin of finger nails. Use the diet, #3.21 with increased doses of cooked foods to 300g/ 10.58oz and 400g/ 14.1oz to the time, until they heal and stay on it thereafter (more, #3.98A).

Weight-related. To loose – #3.1, to gain – #4.2, to maintain slim – #3.21 (sample diet, manage portions to your needs). You would stay in a perfect weight: if you would maintain only those guidelines and eat appropriately organic diet, to the needs.

I4. What are various other conditions detrimental to health/ not mentioned?

Unsanitary conditions, like e.g. fungus, mold (e.g. behind the kitchen wardrobe) either in a direct area of living or in vicinity of it (ex. in stairways)/ they circulate in air constantly poisoning you: clean them completely (in harder cases – ozonator/ #3.2B: Five is the method, but you have to leave the area and ventilate it for days/ the last also removes any molds, bad smells i.e. in cars, spaces, etc.).

I5. Even other conditions, not included in the treatment...

[612] It's forbidden to inhale the gas, directly/ it's also a method, to be used for annihilation of any deadly lung infections.

Keep in mind, that if you're suffering still after completion[613] of the whole treatment or started to, lastly: you've might be consciously poisoned (so your death would look like as natural). Leave the area now, without telling nobody where you're going (usually those are people or a person from your closest circle, like e.g. wife, your children or other people: who have the only real interest[614] in perpetuating this). Avoid to eat or drink now anything unsealed and leave it even for a second unattended (symptoms of such chronic poisoning which causes death – usually retreat in three to six months and might give unrelated symptoms). If not, watch yourself additionally when walking back home – under the influence of drugs i.e. alcohol. Trust no one.

3.96. Phimosis, frenulum treatment/ men only

If you're a male and your penis resembles the ones on the images below (first is too short frenulum which can cause pain, if the skin doesn't comes to the end, showing all – like on the bottom; second, doesn't allows skin to pass down): you're in a need of surgery.

Find an experienced surgeon who would perform the procedure/ surgery[615] to ensure your safety.
Fear is always exaggerated, particularly: as it's all with no pain in the procedure itself.

It's a must.

[613] Assessing, that it would be identified to this time or react to the substances used, where the change would be experienced.
[614] Cui bono is the question to be asked – who benefits from it: the new situation which would arise as a result of such actions, i.e. your death (those people might be involved, so suspense any disbelief). Know always, that Life is of the highest real value.
[615] Circumcision allows you to extend sex time and the pleasure, #3.95:II.

3.98A. Regrowing severed parts of the body

Every human body cell contains a sequence of the whole genetic information – DNA, allowing it to replicate every living organ/ part of the body. However in humans, this process is blocked. In nature, it's known that animals regrow their body parts, e.g. sharks – teeth, newts – heart etc. Substance extracted from the pig bladder called 'pixie dust' unlocks this process probably by providing a cellular matrix to sustain that growth on (in order for it to work, such possibility must be accepted by the subconscious/ i.e. it must be believed, first).

HOW TO REGROW A SEVERED FINGER
Start to make 'pixie dust' by cutting open a pig's bladder and flattening it out.
Scrape away the layer of muscle before 'cleaning' the remaining collagen-rich tissue by shaking it in acid.
Dry out the paper-like 'extra-cellular matrix' and grind into powder form.
Regularly sprinkle powder on severed finger tip.
Within a few weeks, tip grows to normal length, complete with nail and 'fingerprint'.

This mechanism involves also the need for extra energy required for the growth. Therefore, it's essential to apply diet, #3.21[616] (see sample ones and set them accordingly to your blood type) & use at least two portions of 300g/ 10.58oz and 400g/ 14.1oz of the cooked foods – daily, additionally.

It applies also to teeth: the last can be stimulated to regrowth – through the use of sound waves/ presumably: low-frequency ultrasound up to 20,000Hz every morning with ultrasound massager up to 2MHz every evening. It requires building block of silica (silicon, sources like horsetail and grains – included) and calcium in 1:1 ratio with magnesium – derived from the natural, prevalently raw sources and extended by comfrey as the supporting herb.

Aside from the carbon provided (energy, extracted from the cooked): body needs additional protein[617] for the purpose (it would be brought to memory that cooked foods contain no proteins, vitamins, enzymes etc.) which can be found only in raw foods like milk of cow either goat[618] (~33g/ per 1l/ ~qt), raw eggs[619], nuts like walnuts (15g/ per 100g/ 3.53oz) or pecans (9g/ per 100g), spirulina (~23g/ per 40g/ 1.41oz), sprouts, meat is also a great source of protein but eating it raw – might possess risks (being the reason, why receding gums grow back when raw milk is consumed, up to i.e. 2l/ ~qt, twice a day – splitted[620]).

Mind would initiate the growth – it's a prolonged process.

[616] All: must to be prepared accordingly to those guidelines mentioned/ i.e. soaked for a period, before being cooked.
[617] Exemplary, one of – vicious symptoms due to lack of extra protein intake in diet, is dandruff.
[618] It has to be raw, because different polarization of pasteurised product – causes to leech calcium from the teeth and bones which increases only the deficiencies/ leading i.e. to bone cancer, kidney stones, etc.
Your bones would crack – your teeth would decay: you'd loose them, i.e. your attractiveness would significantly drop. It would progress over many other…
[619] Can be blanched/ placed on seconds to boiling water, to later be eaten raw.
[620] Morning & evening, dose/ with one day off, every few days.

3.98B. Reverting back eyesight to perfect vision/ 0 diopters – with the complete correction of astigmatism

Sharpness of vision, is defined by the strain of an eye and its maintenance in appropriate position.

Clear and sharp eyesight is assigned to the outer muscles, which keep the eye in shape.
It's decreased with the progressing TENSION of them, as it strains the lens and vision becomes blurred.

In the process to revert your eyesight fully – one muscles need to be strengthened in favor of others to reach the balance (eyes, in people with sight defects – can be compared to a balls wrapped in a strained foil, so the release of each eye tension is required, for muscles to regain their strength, back). Lack of it and treating deficits with any other methods – might result in a decrease of eyesight, many diseases leading to glaucoma, cataracts and blindness (as due to tension of vertical or horizontal muscles – vessels might crack).

Leave firstly, permanently your glasses and/ or contact lenses behind (use them only on occasion, when absolutely required). Employ two techniques below, every time when you would caught yourself straining the eyes/ release also the tension, on the mind:

- focus two eyes, on the highest details of nose, to release the tension – with variation of closing one eye performing it and then, the second (farsighted, do the inverse),
- cover your eye with palm and look in the front of you, in a complete darkness – then do the same, with other/ or both, at once (before falling asleep, in particular).

Always close your eyes, after: so the tension would be released – to have them relaxed, always/ each time. You have to keep later the muscles all-time relaxed, to revert to default (0)/ focus for this period: on overall sight improvement and avoid to watch on its sharpness.

It would allow, the opposite – weakened muscles to strengthen: which would decrease the eyesight defect, in time. It might be uncomfortable at the beginning – it's counter-intuitive, but completely safe. You're required to introduce organic diet, #3.21 and eat only it as the chemicals contained in processed foods contribute to the weakening of the eye muscles (with the treatment, #3). Your progress would be based on the ability to release tension, following of the above diet – being itself a prolonged process/ improvement in a rate of -0.7 in 7 months is entirely for you possible, at the beginning. Fell asleep each night with the belief that your eyes are reverting to default – during the last/ i.e. to the state of full sharpness/ your eyesight would start to revert slowly after a period of delay.

3.98C. Your safety

You're safety, is always the most important.

Acknowledge, that being prepared fully on any situation – might very certainly cause it not to happen (Universal Law).

Your first task, is to make your mind – work for you. It's achieved through the introduction of an appropriate programming, #0.1 and then, based on it – implementation of the specific knowledge and patterns of action, if any danger or a situation appears in your reality. In simpler words: if something happens – you would know precisely what you do, without the conscious thought: as it would be already an automated response that you've prepared for.

You're never surprised by anything – anymore.
Imagine the powerful sense of control that it could provide or introduce in your life.
You're never worried – you're never in a fear as you've got it all covered, already.

Firstly, in order to achieve such understanding – you need to press and change your beliefs on those, who would serve you: those are the ones, which point you as a person who has the control, not giving it to any events, people or circumstances (where there is virtually no sense of power, over them: as you can't control anyone except self – to the full extent).

It comes with the understanding: that your wife/ woman you've got kid with – would cheat you with your friend or enemy/ your own mother would steal from you money/ friends would conform to those with more power/ family would betray – when you won't be even, in any of need.

It's not distanced from the truth – you're now starting to accept as it is: everyone works for his own self interest in this game, because everyone is in this game alone – everything else, is just an illusion to further their/ your own causes. You're too playing for yourself, even if you don't know it or acknowledge. Various people have different approaches on how they see you: as a prey, opportunity, someone to be used or a timely friend. It either pays for them off or not: and they constantly adapt.

If you're still, not getting it – leave the power to everyone, except self. Your life would turn probably very fast badly, as you would be surprised that people don't act the way you've wanted them to or expected. It brings, all the bad.

Therefore, to accept your reality and see yourself, as you new – powerful you: no more sub-standards, no more uncertainty, no more ALL the bullshit – you're the boss, of your life and you take for it responsibility. If you're still not able to look straight, as the things are: that, friends might for instance use you to further their own causes in an unfair exchange – where you put more and are virtually sucked out of money/ time or resources, treating e.g. as a 'companionship' who delivers: the truth would come out for you soon, if you would decide in thoughts to investigate and see the proofs for it. If talk of others, is not enough for you: start to think for yourself and do a frigid calculation. It's not, that you should be savvy but it's one thing to have a gesture and second, to be used.

This is how the game looks. Make yourself dirty and in a need of care and you would be stunned how easily all your friends would become 'less interested' and alien. In fact, an enemy would be more kind and caring[621] than those in who you trust (as one of the lessons learned in the process/ #2: where you see, the Real World). Avoid to give your power to anyone, at least to the very end (have an initial trust in people, if they're no signs to have it, i.e. the ones with the low morality, #1.1 or suspicious opinions/ reputation/ knowledge known or heard). One event, which might be interpreted as not in favor of someone: would likely turn him against you, independent of years you've spent with each self and all the experiences. Everyone plays for himself, learn it now or the hard way.

Forbidden is for you to be in a fear of any parasites, #1.1 ever: as they can only talk – being commonly unable to do anything. Watch however, on those moral people who might have use you for their purposes: be very wary.

As an example situation, might be the one – involving you. Imagine now, that you were taken by the police to reach a city 25km distant of your home: to leave you there, as a punishment/ payment for the looks of your face. What you would do?

Additionally: your phone went death, you've got 0 on your phone – don't know the number on memory for anyone/ on sim card[622] it's not saved, besides – nobody would drive you either way back because you're abroad and not know anybody available, there is no possibility to take a credit, you've got no money as you've spent everything – which is very probable when you've drank[623] or the money were taken by some people before – as you've got robbed, taxi is no possibility as you've got no money and nobody would drive you – without paying first, stealing and robbing anybody is risky – you've got too little muscle and no skill in it – facing even worsening your situation, nobody would take you on the street as people don't want to attract trouble, besides your looks isn't trust-worthy and you're not a cute, beautiful girl or a model (even if, you're not to be taken – everyone refuses to). If it could be worse: you're becoming thirsty and very hungry now. Police would refuse to drive you back, as it's not their task – besides you would be charged and have no money on you, no one cares. Nobody wants to help, because it's not their problem and nobody would have time to do so, because you're unprepared. Bus driver won't allow you to get inside and to drive – without the payment first, nobody wants to help as people either don't have the [621] It has got more to prove and cooperation is usually established by finding a shared enemy or taking of his possession through a split efforts (so he would attain his goals/ get a gain through your person).

[622] Internal – separate memory, with written data of a phone number/ ID on it.
[623] Alcohol never solves any problems, but milk also doesn't/ #3.98A...

resources to or don't buy into your story – taking you as a beggar, nobody wants to listen – they think you're a lie, they've encountered many like you, nobody would help[624] you either way. You won't make it, because you're too thirsty and 25km in a scorching desert: when you're severely dehydrated is too much. You're surprised, because of your lack of preparation and self-control: this situation drives you to madness. You've got nothing to offer anyone to do the work of driving you back and no friends, who would do so – in this city or your local one. What you would do?

How could you prepare better for such situation, what actions could have been taken to prevent it in the future and to deal with it, when in trouble? Think it, prepare – it's from your actions solely whether you would get through in Life, Live it the BEST of possibility OR be dumped, as a trash-bag because of your lack of thinking and improvement of skill/ knowledge that is to be used, in reality.

IMPLEMENT

Always think and count only on yourself, be prepared (have the right equipment, knowledge and training). Wherever you are or go: be always prepared for the worst and have a ready pre-planned and pre-thought plan in the case, it happens.

It's not only limited to survival, but to every situation/ circumstance or business problem you might get into. Think, before you do anything and be always prepared for the very worst, forever.

Adapt it, to you daily thinking and expand – regain the control over your Life/ #2: and circumstances.
It, might save it.

[624] It's getting darker/ nobody is in the vicinity, to even help.

Except the plan: you should be maximally protective of your property, health /& your own beliefs.
Imagine, all the below upon reading and find yourself in any of those situations – present. Apply.

If you're walking on a grass or a trodden path – watch always under your legs (from this very same reason, avoid slides in the winter). If you've got such opportunity: always walk/ run away and avoid any fights – including any group participation in them. Avoid also any public gatherings, protests, feasts – they're often targets for the attacks and people die on them/ you want to Live. If you're walking on a sidewalk: do it on its inner side, closer to the street – it would extend your time of reaction and probably save you in the face of trouble. Be especially watchful on a narrow sidewalks, when the risks are greater. Travel best on the side of road, when you face the incoming vehicles in front of you – walking on the same lane, with them. Orient yourself, forbidden is to walk the city/ any road with worn earphones/ headphones and music loud, in them as you might not hear the incoming dangers. When you walk the town – particularly in night: avoid to get close by to gates as you can get drawn there by force. Make sure you would be always equipped with some non-lethal weapon of defense – at least one, legal in your country (knife/ as a requirement – see on the right, pepper spray, beating rod/ stick, taser etc.). If you're walking on an uncertain surface or walking uphill – keep your hands in front of you or at least one of them bent. Avoid to drive a bicycle on the road with cars – best avoid it nearly completely (drunk driving, creates a possibility for accident, loosing your driver's license or even posing a risk of lengthy imprisonment).

When you are swimming: make sure you're doing it close to the shore or you've got an assurance. You must know how to swim and be very good at it – use inflatables on arms, to learn this crucial ability: if not, avoid to even stay near the water. If you're chased by a dog: stop, be in state of suspension and scare the last, make yourself to him bigger and more powerful – you need to feel it (it also applies to any other dangerous animals: avoid to run, as they would chase). When you enter any building – make sure: you know the exit paths. Always run, if you hear any fire/ other alarm – avoid to look at anyone as your Life is the priciest. Look for dangers always, predict and think – forever, it includes also watching[625] for the police. Trust no one, to the end and always think about their hidden agenda towards your persona.

If you're leaving your car – always take the keys with you. Never and under no circumstances borrow or drive somebody's vehicle i.e. car, yet also lend your car to anyone. Keep always the belts fastened, even if it's a very short ride. If you're a man: forbidden is for you to allow any woman do you a blowjob in the car, especially if you're on the side or driving as in the face of a crash – you would loose your device. The same, it's forbidden for you also to put any overlays/ rings on penis, as in the case of blood pumping and inability to escape it fast – you've might loose him, forever. If you're [625] They might be not the ones: they're telling you they are/ it's extended to all authorities.

Technique which might allow you to feel, how it is and memorize the information – is to see yourself: lost, in the situation mentioned in the survival guide. Imagine therefore yourself in the middle of nowhere without any food, water, equipment, or preparation nor knowledge. It might give you an idea, why it's essential to inform others about: where you're going, when you would come back, what's the track you would take – so you've might be rescued (use/ cut the guide on the next pages: to keep it all time with you, read it and visualize the actions performed as if you were in a such situation – it might prove valuable, in the face of danger).

[626] To swallow it/ i.e. as a result of mistake.

Imagine now, you would be equipped with such a pouch/ lightweight survival pack tied all-time to your belt – wouldn't it make a difference?

Add to it a little bits or rubber tire, cut into thin strips – to be used as a tinder, where it doesn't matter if last would get wet – to initiate the fire (as, it has got many space left). Apply on wounds and cuts – your urine, when in such situation. Inform always at least few moral people, if you leave/ pass – through any wilderness. In survival the most important is always the psychology – last, is gained through hardship, backed by the motivation and knowledge attained & provides a sense of power, over circumstances – over Life. Independent of the conditions – you would always prevail.

TO-DO

PROCESS OF CHANGE, CONTINUATION

4.1. MAN-WOMAN RELATIONSHIPS

Finding a dreamed partner of the opposite sex can greatly enhance your way of Life: through the split of chores, provides a person/ companionship who would care after you – also, taking on a journey worth experiencing. It however provides most of all: ability to pass your genes by bringing a child to this world, when the emotion of love is present. It's all reserved for those who play accordingly to the rules, of this game.

4.11. Understanding women & men/ the purpose behind

The drive behind relationships is to find the best suited partner for self – in order[629] to give the birth to the healthy offspring – by providing it, the best chances of survival. Those traits and characteristics which contribute, to it – are attractive to the opposite gender.

	MAN	WOMAN
Attractive when has… (in order of importance)	Confidence Money (resources)	Looks (is beautiful)
Explanation of attractiveness	Confidence is required for the unborn child – increasing drastically chances for its survival (e.g. it's a characteristic which guarantees that: if faced with any of the problem, i.e. lack of food – man would have the certainty to fight and bring the required; it insures woman, that he's a worthy person as he would provide, independent of the circumstances). The last, is a mark for the woman that the partner is ready for a child. If not present: she would be not interested (or might be, but won't fall in love – eventually using man as a financial provider, but probably having sex with another male; instances of the last raising not his[630] offspring are prevalent).	Beautiful physical attractiveness is an expression of healthy genes. It's required to bring a healthy child.

[629] It's pre-programmed: those traits and characteristics drive you – without you necessarily knowing it or realizing why.
[630] Test your offspring whether it's yours/ do it even in a case of an absolute certainty, in spite of time.

	Money are required to ensure the resources needed to raise the yet unborn child (to a certain point – attractiveness is raised or lowered, based still on the amount of them).
Additional, but completely not important if the above aren't in place	Any skill or trait which proves to be useful i.e. attractive to the opposite sex (in reference to the subconscious goal). Power (rule, authority & control) in a case of man / glamour in case of woman (as it shows the high level of [631]influence, which is desired).
The goal

Therefore, ALL the responses received: are merely an expression or the test to prove – whether the partner still retains the desired characteristics and traits/ remember it.

[631] Contact/ connections which might prove helpful.

Both genders are built differently – to serve the purpose.

	MAN	WOMAN
Thinking	Logical	Emotional
Explanation of logic	A → B (go from point A directly to the point B).	Can't rather be explained in the logical terms, but it doesn't needs to. For man: look at her actions, solely (and only).
Methods preferred	Direct (rather)	Indirect (rather)
Implications of the above	Would preferably want to achieve his goals in the straight way. For woman: if you ask a man what he wants to eat – he would tell you. It doesn't means that: there is no such food in the fridge, where he wants – what isn't always there, he don't likes you or he hates you... He has given you an answer to: what he wants to eat. It's all.	Would preferably want to achieve her goals in a round, indirect way. For a man: 'Do you see that restaurant? In fact, what she's telling you is rather similar to: 'I'm hungry' – usually followed by 'I don't care whether you are hungry, but if you're so dumb to not get it: go to that restaurant' (meaning – that she wants to eat there[632]). - It has got also implications in communication, so understanding is necessary.
Focus	One task only at a time (at any given moment). Achievement of the goals.	Multitasking. Relations, keeping good contact.
Implications of focus thinking & patterns of action	'If you focus on many – you would have none or nothing done right.'	Raising a child or many of them – requires multitasking (finding the right clothes, cleaning house, checking whether the last isn't hungry – all done at one time). Mothers know it and it should be appreciated. Acceptance in group is very important.
Voice of listening/ i.e. decision making	Listens to and does what he wants, which is ruled by the logic or emotions/ desires, but	Listens and is guided by the emotions and intuition (the heart).

	has a deeper sense in the logical manner. Has a tendency to ignore intuition.	For man: you won't logically convince her or change her stance – mark always for the emotions (bringing back shared moments, memories, being in a presence of other women etc.).

Each of the genders is fully adapted to raise and provide for the children: men to hunt and gather resources, women – to raise the offspring and deal with any related tasks i.e. cleaning, cooking etc. and such roles should be preserved.

Every person is born with the innate characteristics, dependent on the birth date – responding to different stimuli and presenting specific stance to life, partners and relationships.

[GIFTING SIGN KNOWLEDGE]

Motto – I am.

The first decade of sign is the most warlike 100% Aries: aggressive, combative and courageous. The second decade is the combination characteristics of Aries and Leo, who is less impulsive, warm-hearted, open and generous. The third decade is in middle Aries and Sagittarius, foreseeing and analyzing situations, likes traveling, gentle and reflective.

Aries, The Ram – 21.03-20.04

Is a conqueror and it's required to show in his field of vision, slightly cut him down to size with a biting wit, be enchanted with his ideas and spend with him some time, then gently move to present your own opinion. Disallow to be conquered to the end, participate in crazy ideas and games, be able to maneuver like a catkin once warm and soft, and sometimes to show claws.

Likes sensitivity and displaying evidence of love, dreams about a superman, desires exclusivity and does not tolerate deception or betrayal, would appreciate the sharp tongue and a mordant wit. It's good on the beginning to act as a cold bastard, mysterious and uninterested and show up even in the surrounding of other women. Then she would hunt and when in presence, you're forbidden to govern her or limit.

Avoid to make him redundant statements, because he looses the conqueror instinct and ceases to be interested in you.
Clearly, without beating around the bush: daringly looking him into eyes. Appreciates strength and resoluteness.
Observing the gestures, he says quickly and with gesturing – it's worth to notice the expression on his face.

Aries
Taurus, Cancer and Leo
Gemini, Virgo, Scorpion and Aquarius
Libra, Sagittarius, Capricorn and Pisces

You're energetic, incomputable, gifted with lush fantasy. Emanating with sex – when you meet a woman, you count that she would kindly notice! If she stubbornly pretends not to – you don't have the slightest desire to play with her in this banal and useless game – a complicated love stalking. You expect honesty and natural reactions. The rules and conventions bore you to death, just like any pretentious attitudes.

There is no better way to interest you, than the pinch of provocation, risk or a mystery. Your imagination kindles conquering! On the love hunt: you prefer to act as a hunter character, not the prey. Even the most beautiful woman stops to interest you, if the roles would invert.

And, although you're very rushed to the goal, too easy victory not enjoys you, because you prefer to be wounded in the victorious fight, than to take for the captivity old women and children.

You know, that love can appear suddenly and come to everyday life with a force of a tornado. Despite appearances however: your emotional life not always resembles a winning streak. It happens for you to attract aggressive women, which element is a ceaseless fight for dominance. You lure also women attracted to your fiery temper, who count on comfortable and champagne life, as they see in you as resourceful and a courageous man. Alone however, they not intent to exert too much, counting on it, that you would do it for them. You however, yes – can be caring, and the role of a knight on a white horse could even correspond to you, yet until one condition. Princess can't be sleepy! Your ideal is a woman full of energy and joyful of life, ingenious, creative, loving movement and changes. Such, who sometimes expects male arm and at the other times alone, is for his partner a back.

Sex in your issue is a concrete. You don't like lengthy introductions, wicked games. If therefore she misleads you and has no intent to keep the promise: it's better for her to not show at all to your eyes. If you desire, you truly desire and from the woman you expect the word "yes". Impatience causes, that you use cavalry methods in a style "I want, so I take". In bedroom you expect initiative and good fun – sex enjoys you and you don't treat it with an excessive celebration. On the representatives of the gentle sex full of prudery and hypocrisy: you look with compassion mixed with disgust. You're an ingenious lover: you like to be an explorer, so your partner won't be bored. Your erogenous zone are lips. Passionate kisses, sensual touches can trigger a rapid fire!

Aries, The Ram – Man

In love, you can sometimes bring your partner to despair with your impulsiveness and crazy ideas, one however needs to be attributed to you. Ever, you're not guided in love by calculation and for a person, who would win your heart you're loyal, sincere and affectionate. In a relationship you demand from the woman faithfulness. Thought, that you could grow horns leads you to rage. You tend to be also a believer of various men's myths and also you belong to men professing romantic fantasies about the beauty of women. Naively believing, that five centimeter eyelashes of your beloved are quite natural, but on the sight of a woman getting to bed with curlers you're able in first impulse escape with scream. It's the best method, to discourage you to self for life, as life with you can be very satisfying. It's enough to refer for you ambition to be first and you're able to stand on the head. It can't be counted that you would regularly wash after dinner, but you've got plenty of other advantages – inner warmth, fantasy, optimism. For you to stand in marriage you need to be noticed and praised. However if the clock strikes the last hours – your affair does not make sense to extend by force. You're not able to persevere in a sleepy relationship for the name of past and habit.

Advice for Summer
This summer, yet time to time press a break. You're lead to a consideration and precaution. You've got after you not the best experiences? It's worth now to get to know the cause: before you would do the same mistake once again. If your relationship found itself on the bend, maybe, despite the appearances – is still a chance, to get out of it unscathed. Sincere talk, open approach to the issue? Hey, try, after all you're good at it! Free, yearning for love? Romances you start with great enthusiasm, be careful, so this time glass of cold water won't spill on your head! Before you would move any further: look at your chosen one with the conscious glance, because it might happen, that something which should last only a moment might unexpectedly (for example due to pregnancy!) become an element of your life for longer. You can also, nice you – loose your heart and head in some love skirmish, which from the realities of life not soon would end with happy end!

At the beginning you tend to be difficult to figure out – pretending indifference, like to play cat and mouse. You're a good actress, guided by instinct: you know what expects one, who you've put your look upon. You can recklessly play every scene – be a charming girl, factual woman of interest, provoking devourer of men's hearts. Despite it, when you engage, your world of emotion becomes simple and uncomplicated, one rule applies: 'love is or is not'. Why all those cardiac mazes? Who wants to win you must draw your attention, inspire you with something, surprise, arouse your curiosity. Step two? Date planned sophistically, with fantasy: maybe a contemporary art exhibition, sport games and after it, dinner in a trendy (but not snobbish) place?

Your specialty is love at the first sight – like a violent summer storm. Inspires admiration and for a moment overpowers, but sometimes lasts relatively short. Because you're quickly disappointed with men who are weak, eternal boys in search of a mommy. Unfortunately, often your inner strength, dynamism and activity is impressive for such guys. They count on it, that with you – their value would automatically increase. It happens, that for a moment attracts you the perspective of dominating in such system, but quickly sets the feeling of insufficiency and boredom. For you, the worthy partner is somebody intelligent, endowed with inner warmth and masculine strength. Somebody, who doesn't needs constant validation of his value either by power, who resides in you, or a continual fight with you. Someone, who would accept your independence and agree, that you both must glisten shine with similar strength.

Aries, The Ram – Woman

Sex is for you above all a sensual pleasure! You do love, because you love it, so you're open to everything which can make this pleasure more intense. Your appetite is undaunted, so you need somebody who would met it. You like to carry out your sexual fantasies, experiment and provoke. Very often, it's you that goes with the initiative, although you don't expect exclusively following your footstep. If you 'attack' you expect 'counter-attack'! Your erogenous zones are temples, ears and sensitive areas behind the ears. Kiss to the ear can make, that you would in one moment find yourself on the erotic Mount Everest.

For a permanent partner you're a continual challenge. You're impulsive, full of temperament and in a courageous looks – is hidden the passion of August nights. Mistaken is one, who has hopes that after spending the night together you would wake up quieter and waiting, like a conquered fortress. Who dreams about a sensitive bride, knitting scarves on wires and waiting with a delicious dinners – has mistaken address! Standing in the kitchen seems to you a tedious task. You will more likely fix the vacuum cleaner than fry an eggs. Your relationship with a man is composed of friendship, sensuality and sex – is also full of surprises. There is no talk about submission, no talk about posting white flag! You don't like: if he would treat you as a weak woman. Foreign is for you diplomacy, stalking, waiting for the right moment. You want it all at once and all what is the best! You don't resign from career, from your own interests. During receptions and social gatherings it won't be enough for you to have a role of charming addition to his person. You would rapidly gain around you wreath of friends and admirers.

In a word – in marriage you won't agree to play a role of the second fiddle. You're not interested in a choir performances. The only way for harmonious existence is to create a harmonious beautifully sounding duo, in which both parties have their own solo parts and equally deserve the applause. When something goes wrong – after come rather very loud, not silent days. You prefer open confrontation than tricks and runs. It happens for you sometimes to start all over again, because life without love and without sex seems for you to be devoid of any sense, similarly as marriage, in which passions ended.

Advice for Summer
This year's holiday can become a stage of change and breakthroughs. If unresolved problems tease you: they would end, although at first moment, it might not be too pleasurable. For instance relationship, which lasted only by the force of habit – would be broken. Answer as quickly as possible for yourselves: whether you want to be together? If yes, don't let anything to split you. Spend more time together, do yourselves little pleasures, put past misunderstandings into oblivion. If no, it's probably not worth to be in such system without the future? If you feel a little lost in the surrounding you reality: try to spend your holidays in a quiet and comfortable environment. From the bustle of resorts more beneficial would appear soothing silence and contact with nature. You're free? Cardiac matters would bring many surprises. Don't act impulsively, hastily, because vacations are a season of building castles from sand. May your new relationship not prove such an unstable construction. You might come across somebody, who would hide from you a marriage ring or the distance between your places of living, would complicate your common future...

Magic words, which would cause that his zeal for you would disappear are: orders, injunctions and prohibitions. Aries is such an independent sign, that any attempt to force him his opinions would encounter his resistance. Even, if he's obsessed with you and says: that he would do everything for you and survive everything – it happens to the point as long as you sneak him (in thought of rule: 'you run away I chase, you chase I run'). Turn your behavior towards the intruder: begin to encircle him and you would see that his eagerness would start to decrease. On Aries discouragingly would work, when you would want to forcefully relax him or calm. Propose then, walk in the woods, listening to relaxing music etc. Aries is too spontaneous, impulsive and active sign, to long sit in place. He would begin to wonder if you're really in fact the woman for him. And then you've got him from his head.

She would like, if you would come with the initiative, and even, if initially she won't manifest delight to your idea: enthusiasm and assertiveness are nicely welcomed. Be therefore, ultra-male and determined. Act quickly, courageously. Show, that you've got honest intentions and from the deepness of heart you're coming with the initiative. And for the slightest sign of her approval react enthusiastically. Try not to impose her your opinion or vision of your relation. It's an independent woman, who does not like, when somebody wants to dictate terms. She's fascinated by conquering, game, which she leads with you.

She won’t like if you would be hesitant with action. If you say ‘a’ say ‘b’... Is a little impatient and it would make her angry if you would want to earn something or check her with games type of “no contact, silence, or contact and withdrawal”. She’s impulsive and then she may on good send you empty-handed. Do not try to stick right away sticker “my girl” because she would get irritated. She most appreciates her independence, even being in relationship wants to be free. And if you were together, now it’s a return to the past, she would more likely wait a while longer before she would let you to feel her man again.

The best is something which is practical and what would allow him to retain his spiritual and physical activity. He would be amazed by good book, bicycle or a tourist guide. He’s not after any kinds of trinkets – it’s not his style.

Motto – I have.

The first decade of sign is the 100% Taurus: likes to live comfortably and prosperously. Appreciates beauty and pleasures of life: passionate, affectionate, externally sensually composed, firm even stubborn. The second decade, is the combination characteristics of Taurus and Virgo. Intelligent, critical and cautious. Likes to travel, has linguistic skills. He's ironic, practical, draws attention to aesthetics and hygiene of life. The third decade of sign, is Taurus combined with Capricorn: responsible, careful, resistant, diligent, frugal, a realist, critical and treating life seriously.

Taurus, The Bull – 21.04-20.05

Come from assumption that love from the first sight allows to save many time and money, avid for compliments, likes to be tampered with small gifts and loves good food – through stomach to the heart. If you would properly care for saucy dress and such behavior: he would definitely be hooked. One of the important elements is sex, is it very sensual?

Enjoys great popularity. It's a win through auction. You should show her ostentatiously your feelings, pay compliments, make gifts, avoid to give her reasons for jealousy. Won't forgive betrayal. You should form with her plans on the future, providing comfort and class. A good advantage is fat wallet. Likes to be kissed and caressed, treated tenderly and lovingly.

By encouraging to have the least thought and analyze feelings. The longer he thinks the less he knows, what he feels.
Carefully formulating statements – it would convince him to your intelligence.
It's enough to listen attentively, paying attention to the choice of words used as it doesn't happens by accident. Word for the Taurus is a code, alchemy.

Capricorn, Sagittarius and Cancer

Aquarius, Capricorn and Pisces
Aries, Cancer and Leo
Taurus, Virgo and Scorpio
Gemini, Libra and Sagittarius

You know what's good. You appreciate beauty, good manners and a tasty kitchen. Certainly there are many ways of getting your interest, but why to force-in an open doors? Dinner in sophisticated restaurant, in romantic lighting and a glass of good wine is the shortest and most effective way to your heart. You're characterized by unwavering confidence, so she shouldn't suppose to pretend someone she's not. Let she not try to do a fake humor and coquetry: this could only discourage you. Effortless confidence and naturalness, that's what you expect, which doesn't means that it's without matter how she looks and how she behaves. Classic elegance, sophisticated perfumes and unfeigned femininity – this is, what makes the biggest impression on you.

Taurus, The Bull – Man

Your world of feelings is based on a solid foundation. You don't have the habit to chase after prey, who desire all the men. It's funny and awfully trivial! Comparing love to woman with close to men automotive: your element is a drive with luxury limousine of good brand on the straight, smooth highway and not sharp corners, overcome recklessly by a sport model in bright color. You need someone: who you could surround with care and luxury. You've got a soul of the holder and what's more – your desire to possess what's the best! You hate women too energetic, articulate and too clever, and especially those who perform male occupations and work on managerial positions. You're of the opinion, that work is work, but in the marriage one guy is enough. You prefer to have in bed a lover, not a boss.

Sex in your issue is primarily a feast for the senses. You have more spontaneity than fantasy, but you would understand in flight any allusion. You show a great desire to experience enjoyment and lust of life. You're sensitive to everything that is its charm – beauty, sensual, passionate love. Confirming your value, proving masculinity? It's some complete nonsense! You belong to the valuable specie of males: who perfectly understand the distinction between the beauty and sex – and excellently now, that not all beautiful women cause desire. Your erogenous zones are on the back of the neck and in the base of hair. A woman who finds it, certainly won't regret it.

When you would find a suitable object of interest: you've got a habit to watch the candidate for a wife, to strengthen your belief that she's worthy of your treatments. Your pragmatic nature recoils at the thought, that you might loose time without a sense. You're trying also to protect yourself before being entrapped by a clever, yet selfish young lady. You let the idea, that a motive of her interest might be your objective value. You being however generous, are worried at the same time – that this feature might be used! Domesticated, you become a sybarite of the sign, attached to your property. Similarly as a woman from this sign, you're jealous after – what belongs to you, so something which can tease the other side is a sense, that the marriage certificate you treat as a receipt. Partner because of it: can count on the material safety, a solid future by your side. Your actions have a motive purely practical, and when you've got in the front of you a specific perspective, there is no obstacle, in front of who – you would easily surrender. To your advantages undeniable lies the ability to enjoy sensual pleasures, you do not belong to the types of putting "life on later" and stuffing savings in the sock. Money you treat as a way to the end, your goal is the luxury and satisfaction. You don't treat also sex, as an error of the youth, from which you grow. On the contrary! So if you would hit on your second half – awaiting for you are many of the interesting days and nights.

Advice for Summer
If you're a bound Taurus: you've got in front of you a peaceful and happy summer months. Your sign is particularly surrounded by satisfaction and inner harmony. Between you – it shouldn't be any tensions or problems difficult to solve. It's a time of relax, of enjoying the life delights. Even if you don't plan long holiday trips: you would feel that this are the vacations. People would seek your companionship, so you would establish a new connections and renew old friendships. For those, who have in front of them a pointed out goal (purchase of the apartment, building a home): it's a time of plan realizations. Alone? Infatuations are gearing up. You’re surrounded by a great affection: it’s possible then that the vast majority of holiday romances may look forward to a happy ending. You’d be supported by intuition in the selection of partner. You can meet the right person, with who you would create a stable relationship and if you’re already in love: you would decide on the marriage, living together. It’s a good decision, time facilitates closer ties – you would easily let the love flourish.

It seems, that the art of seduction you've got in blood: you know perfectly how to give a man to know, his appealing to you, but being with you requires some patience. You live your own rhythm, in which intersperse bouts of great passions, scenes of jealousy and arctic cold. You're stubborn. If someone for real appeals to you, he must be probably death, to not react on your erotic signals. Firstly you must however ensure, that you were not deceived by the first impression. The test would be a joint dinner, best in an elegant (and expensive) restaurant. You would give attention not only to the selection of dishes, elegant clothes and topics of the conversations but also his looks on face, when paying the bill. Exam passed? Further period of emotional relationship tends inevitably towards stability.

Taurus, The Bull – Woman

Love in your issue is a mixture of senses and life pragmatism. You see the difference between lust and attachment – you would prefer that a man, in front of who you reveal the doors of bedroom: would represent something objectively of him. Friends and lovers you then choose very carefully – guided by the criteria of beauty, manners and often also wealth. Not always however you can choose between the satisfaction and convention. You like men, who know what they want. You've got a need of stability, strong instinct of possession – you could not rely on somebody who swings in the clouds, spend life with a handsome awkward. Some problem in the relations with opposing sex can result from your possessiveness. Pleasure brings you speaking the word "my": you're trying to immediately attach to you those, who you love, but you often do it too decidedly, trying to take dominance in the relationship.

Your sexual appetite is sometimes enormous, which is matched by equally the same hunger of love. It's a cocktail consisted from sensuality, sex and a desire for comfort. You lean towards sophisticated love game, adore sensual and romantic settings of the love nights. You expect passions, not erotic tricks, so if he won't behave with the proper gallantry – he has got one more chance to get a departure. You would look favorably on a man fondly whispering compliments, admiring your charms in a scenery of satin sheets, candles and champagne. You're demanding, quickly get bored by the bed cliche. Your lover must demonstrate a real talent, to still kindle in you desire. Your sensitive areas are located on the neck – kisses and gentle brushes are able to immediately stimulate your erotic imagination!

If you finally make a choice: your passions don't extinguish under the influence of an impulse and although heart is susceptible to the gusts of feelings – you're from this moment faithful and consequential. You treat relationship as a long term investment in a reliable bank. Living the moment, succumbing to the whims – is not your reality. You like to plan – satisfaction gives you fact that you're both going towards something. Important matter is to become the swollen-headed as "having" is for you the key to happiness: a guarantee of security and makes you feel a great pleasure – sense, that your living standard is still increased. Specific, measurable goal gives your life the necessary dynamic. Your home is – your comfortable fortress. You're likely doing then a household works: you usually fantastically cook and are famous from the parties, full of sophisticated dishes. Constantly you're correcting something, upgrading, you've got high needs, however your policy in a marriage is typically feminine. You become the proverbial neck that moves head of the home master. If you look very tempting, on a covered to dinner table the candles are burning, in glasses waits already a favorite wine of your husband – it means, he had fallen altogether! Vacation on the warm sea, a new dress or maybe a new car? It does not matter! He would agree anyway! From a man you expect that she would treat you like a princess: you've got nothing against being pampered by him. From someone stopping at the exhibitions of clothing from the discount and inviting you to a fast-food bar – you would run like hell.

She likes practical men: stop to disappoint her and don't create yourself on a clumsy romantic. Rather show her yourself as a strong but sensual man. She would appreciate firmness. Very likes to be conquered, adored, pampered.

She's discouraged by male's awkwardness, anxiety i.e. worrying, sadness etc. and indulgence. Alone, is a strong woman and won't be bent under "victims". If you would hesitate, withdrew yourself – she won't be impressed. An important theme in the case of Bulls are finances and material issues: if you would be lavish or insolvent, she would hardly think about – whether you're able to be her life partner.

Requires security and stability of attention: if you’re not able to give it to her – seriously rethink the attempt to get her back.

Steadiness, isn't softly speaking your biggest advantage and therefore it might appear, that you score women in love relationships. Usually more effort than seduction, costs you: to free yourself without tearful scenes – from the invasive arms. To woman who is with you in love, would likely want to say: "You see that beautiful, bird of paradise? Enjoy it. It will fly away". However woman, who is focused on emotions of the heavier specific gravity would sense, that you're not overly sensual. The accompanying erotic plays atmosphere has got something from the acting, intelligently directed spectacle. You don't engage as a whole: you remain actor and a spectator at the same time. Your erogenous zones are shoulders. A drop of oil smelling like patchouli, delicate, sensual massage is able to awaken in you a huge, sexual appetite.

Steady relationship with you is possible under the condition that the other half would appear similarly independent, individual and be little meticulous. Pairs ‘after crossings’ have got chance to find themselves once again. You would be able to find in her those traits, which once caused on you such impression! Despite the flow of time, it’s still the same person!

In addition, he would be convinced that he has won you alone. An ideal place for making new connections are social gatherings, receptions and parties. There: you fully develop your greatest gift “ability to intelligently listen” which convinces a man, that he has met a woman who understands him. When he manages to surprise you or entertain – it’s a point for him. Continuation should be a fascinating surprise. Nothing there “the same time, be where ever”. You seek for a sexual excitement, a man, whose intelligence and ingenuity won’t let you sit on a sandbank of boredom.

Therefore your impulses: resemble rather love friendship and don’t bother you to love your own life. Less important is purely physical side of the relationship. The continuous need for novelties, pursuing after fleeing time – directs your interests in a way of dynamic men. He must accept the fact, that you’re an independent person. Close you in home, like in a golden cage? It won’t work. You will fly once through a not closed to the end window and would never come back...

Gemini, The Twins – Woman

Your sexuality is as much complicated, as the whole character – sometimes it all depends from charm of the moment, sometimes from the progressive developments of accidents. It happens, that the motive of your erotic experiences is more a simple curiosity than a desire for sensual pleasures. If it comes to loving: do it in the streams of champagne, in an alpine train... or in the waiting room at the dentist! Anything distant from trivial. It would be strange, if your spontaneous nature, character – for which every whim is sacred, wouldn’t come into a conflict with what is commonly called morality. Sometimes however crazy ideas and sophisticated sex are a mask under which you hide your fear, that the question – where is your home – still is without an answer. Your sensitive zone is on the inner sides of hands and arms, on all their length. Who would make there kisses, would reveal many passions.

From time to time: you desire to support yourself on a strong, manly arm, but you don’t belong to women who with pride flaunt ring on their finger. The perspective of a permanent relationship rather scares you: being associated by you with making dinners, ironing shirts and phones from mother in law. When it comes such moment, where the need for freedom outweighs the need to have a nest – you would decide on a steady relationship. You don’t however have an intention to completely change your mode of life. Your house must to have many doors and many windows. You always leave them closed not to the end, to slip yourself, when outside is something interesting happening. In stifling tower of the conventions and lack of real understanding – you would quickly run out of air. Who counts that after a marriage “nonsense” would volatilize you from head, he is in a huge mistake! You’re a woman of thousand faces! Your “today yes – tomorrow no” is a guarantee, that you won’t get bored. If he however really understands you and not desires to “convert” on a lecture of cooking books: common life – is going to be pretty good. Because you are not hungry of nothing more than a buzz around, new faces, duels on words and flirts, in which victory – is only a smile. You don't dream about a risky affair, under the eye of vigilant husband: your inner world gives you satisfaction. Unhappy you can be with a bore, which lacks a sense of humor. It's not believed, that someone like him could interest you for more than 5 minutes.

For him, it's extremely important to achieve with partner an intellectual agreement. So, if he sees that you're "standing out" out of him in this field, his admiration would start to melt as a snow on the spring. Gemini hates shaky women. Convince her, that you match to each other – you've got many of the shared passions, interests and above all – ideas and topics to talk about.

Discourage is an understatement – simply it would bring her to nausea, when she gives you a chance and you would be the same as you've once was: predictable, the same gestures, words, habits, talks. For her it's a deadly boredom. It once hadn't worked out and if you now want to get her back: prove your creative inventiveness, surprise her with new identity, creativity and fantasy.

Pisces and Sagittarius	Taurus, Libra, Scorpio and Sagittarius
Aries, Taurus, Aquarius and Gemini	Pisces
-	Aries, Leo, Virgo and Aquarius
Cancer and Scorpio	Gemini and Cancer

Did someone ever tell you: you're not easily to be understood? Your desires, plans, moods change like the tides and outflows of the sea. You can recklessly play a soul of the company – to freeze everybody with inert behavior: you look upon world through the prism of your own emotions. You tend to be warm, caring, sometimes snippy and negligent. It might seem, that you don't care about opinions of others, but all to the time. Someone who gets to know you closer, knows: that you're looking unrelentingly for a stable relationship, because stronger than anyone – you desire to put down roots. Wise woman, who would do with you skillfully: won't allow let herself to be fooled by your alleged nonchalance. Rarely – you however act in an unequivocal way. You do one step forward and two backwards. You wouldn't stand failure, disregard, rejection. There is also second reason, for which you so long examine the situation – you're afraid of women, but rather of the feeling, which threatens you to fall into a state of slavery. Besides, you know, that actually from time to time you fall a victim of some senseless passions. For who you look? You belong to those men, who as a little boys promise to marry with mommy, when they grow up. Echo of the childhood promises – echoes in the image of your ideal lover. Those are maternity women, full of warmth. You're loyal in feelings – you're not looking for an adventure and excitement. Love is for you a way to home. Home, for which you care!

As a lover: you need a little encouragement. You prefer to be sure that nothing happens too early, that you won't see suddenly the red light stop. It's so depressing! Endowed with erotic intuition female should allow you to become its teacher, which would cause you to feel more confident. When you're sure, that on the road there are no major obstacles: you find in yourself vastness of patience, like if more fun causes you the way itself than reaching your destination. You've got however this essential bit of aggressiveness: to finally get there. Excellent memory will allow you to record faultlessly, with which you've caused your partner the greatest pleasure. Certainly, you won't no more forget about it. Your sensitive area is chest. Caress works especially strong – if it's covered by hairs. Then, a delicate shift after them with one hand is very electrifying. You very like also frivolous underwear!

When you fall in love for real, indeed, bind – you become very possessive and relentlessly hold, what belongs to you. You build your own private world and put a clear boundary between it, and the outside world. Won't it be however a thick wall! You like to feel a conqueror: who brings trophies from expeditions. Your men's nature then flourishes. Mostly you would see so your partner in a solid built by you home, mending socks, wiping noses of children and waiting for you with lunch. You need a lot of love, to have a full sense of security, but don't close the paradise bird in a golden cage! Woman can count on your loyalty and devotion and on it, that many of your own plans you would surrender to the family: that having for a choice more interesting or a better paid job – you would select the second with thought about the closest ones. You've got a gift to attract money to yourself: you rarely however use them in a free and unhindered way. Tendency to worrying yourself causes, that if you were to accumulate them really a lot – you still not feel safe. As you might guess, the right partner for you is a person who has a similar attitude to life. You won't hold out with emancipated lady who will pretend to be smart and earn more than you. Her company might led you to a chronic complex of inferiority.

A sudden shadow is enough for you to escape. Feelings you express therefore on the beginning with reserve, because you're in a fear to uncover your sensitive inside, in front of someone, who could use it. Fear of male brutality, yet at the same time strong maternal instinct – tells you to look for a sentimental and sensitive partner. If so you will hit somebody unhappy, ex. a castaway after the love disaster: with great enthusiasm you would organize the first-aid. Effective! A caution is recommended however for you, because if the first love grows out from the sense of lesser value – you become aggressive and possessive. For a life mistake you would recognize only a relationship with someone who would constantly put you into the inferiority complex. It happens, that the destructive element of your arrangement is a force of inertia. You think, that if you're together – it would be as such, to the end of the world and you stop to care about your attractiveness. And it's always a mistake.

Advice for Summer

Slow down the pace and sacrifice some time with self. Eat a ceremonial dinner, spend a romantic evening together. If you're planning on vacation: go somewhere where you would be able to let yourself for a complete freedom – lying on a warm sand, listening to the sound of waves, walks on the beach. Although it's required to be admitted that Crabs are very emphatic people – likely giving second chances and open to feelings, however their giving of green light resembles in some way a method of stick and carrot: from one side she generously forgives you and welcomes in her life, but from the second side – doesn't stops to remind you of your past sins and offenses. She's an emotional woman, extremely vindictive and it's maybe also a good side of this phenomenon, because she just as much remembers and stores in her memory – memories of your passions and best moments. Try to create a suitable mood – such, where those best moments would be played in her mind: like a movie from the projector. Help yourself, by making/ bringing her favorite meal, flowers and music. It’s a very romantic woman. Her kingdom is house and if you would show in front of her a vision of shared family, children and marriage, know – that those are the most sensitive strings in her imagination. She wants to see your attachment.

Don’t act like a macho or a conqueror, because she would immediately show you the doors. Show class and patience. She’s changeable and capricious, not once oversensitive to her own feelings, but of others also: will be delighted when she would find in you support and a stable, strong arm.

You're not a type of a seducer, on the contrary – at the beginning of the connection you always keep a reserve. Sensitive to failures, and to it a little shy: you're afraid to show a woman, that you're interested in her – especially if you don't know yet with who you're dealing with. Therefore fall off pick-ups in the cafeteria, on a beach or at the disco. Ideal for you ground – to get to know, is for ex. work: where you can object of your adoration – calmly observe. Though she was unknowingly how beautiful – silly giggle, unstoppable stream of words stripped of punchline, would cause, that you won't ask about her phone number. If you would decide on the next step which is – on date: you're still looking on your chosen one – with an almost pedantic inclination. She would earn a big plus if her clothes are neat and hair careful. It’s much more important than a prevailing fashion. Second, she would receive for straightforwardness – perversity of female nature is for you something equally confusing as chinese spelling. Her “no” you would treat seriously. Whence you would guess, that she only wants to tease with you?

In addition: you prefer to be conquered than to conquer. On continuation and strengthening of the connection – you decide when you’ve got the confidence, that you and her: have chosen the same direction.

Hidden inferiority complex doesn’t allows you to move further without the explicit encouragement. You don’t always notice, that she precisely waits for it. When you finally find yourself in her bed: your erotic techniques are impeccable, but it could do more freedom, more heat. Still you however behave impeccably: like you were taught sex education in the high schools. Salvation for you is a relationship with the appropriate partner. Your sensuality is revealed in conditions of full trust – you’re misgiving for a ridicule and betrayal. When you finally get rid off your inhibitions, be done with naive myths about women’s innocence – you become a tireless lover, but not right away... Your erogenous zones are buttocks. A woman who would find it and would know how to use can count on a lot more experience!

What happens when you finally meet the right person and decide to live together? Romantic ups? Well, a woman expecting, that for her whim you would bring a gypsy orchestra and ruin yourself on a diamond ring: has got nothing to seek with you. However in the real world you gain more and more: it turns out you’re a supportive, loyal partner who would do breakfast and bring it to bed – without reproaching would fix the dripping tap, work out lessons with the children. For someone, who knows, that life is made up from trinkets and prefers to invest in the future – than live only a moment: relationship with you is like a capital investment in a reliable bank – dividends seem guaranteed. You’re demanding, because you expect responsibility – serious treatment: you don’t have much leniency for weaknesses. Your home must be ideally clean, and life in it perfectly organized. Sometimes you unnecessarily worry about something – try to fix thing, which to others seems to be good enough, but not for you! You should control your tendency to perfection and pedantry, don’t forget – that it’s precisely this, which is unexpected – makes us happy. Let so, from time to time for life – to make you such a pleasant surprise.

Because as a result of morals declaimed to you, in childhood – you doubt the sincerity of love confessions: you tend to feel guilty. Because the greater the feeling, the more it requires consideration. You don't have the desire to get stuck in a relationship with an inadequate man. In love: you're not afraid of routine, because everyday rituals and habits give you so much needed sense of stability. Indeed, more than on the brief moments of happiness: you care on maintaining the peaceful way of life – on carpets in the Persian patterns, flowers in pots and slept nights. Advice for Summer
Your sign is particularly surrounded by protection, the irresistible charm and great sex appeal. At stake is the material improvement, better living conditions. Just remember, that fate – needs to be helped.

Be all that, what he is not: a dreamer, romantic – fall into hysterics, make scenes, cry on demand. Virgin defends himself intuitively against showing emotions and doesn't accepts it in others. And independent of how much he would rage about you and want to get – if you would serve him streams of tears, outbursts of anger interspersed with bursts of euphoria: he would run away. Be unpredictable, bury him with surreal ideas. Arranged Virgo would not assimilate it. He would act allergic, so he would escape. And even if this won't work: throw out the heaviest of weapon, show – that you attach no attention to money – spend them with light hand and there is no word "save" in your dictionary. You've got Virgo already off your head.

Swinging in the clouds or becoming a charming conqueror: you distance the vision of getting her back. If you would exchange it for specifics: on honest, though modest approach – there is a light in the tunnel. She's a capricious girl – it's not either easy to get her or to convince back. In a relationship: bets on honesty and clearness of intentions. She's careful and skeptical – wants to have confidence that she can count on you. Alone, strives to be a reliable partner, sometimes even a perfectionist. The same she expects from a man. She doesn't wants any words to be thrown on the wind: instead of magical confessions, prefers – to see a concrete action.

Ardor, passion, over-zeal or hot wave of your feelings: won't help in issue. You must balance your own emotions and passions – keep calm and reason. Evidence of feelings: dose to her in small quantities, so she would have a time to get used to new version of your relationship.

Usually very modest and would be pleased by gifts which are ‘not-binding/ disobliging’. Likes practical items – those, which would be clearly used by him daily. Would be happy from jewelry, scarf and other accessories to the clothing and a various species of decoratively packaged teas.

The first decade of sign is the 100% Libra showing high sensitivity to beauty, full of grace and charm, romantic disposition, nice, discrete, yet impartial in rate of others, sometimes falling into self-admiration. The second decade, is a combination of Libra and Aquarius traits. It gives an ambitious personality and slightly creative – somewhat detached from the reality. Volatile mind, individualism. High sense of humor makes it surrounded by a crowd of people. The third decade of sign, is Libra with a bit of Gemini features. Cheerful ubiquitous intellectual, broad-minded with versatile interests. Pacifist: acts often as a mediator.

Libra, The Scales – 23.09-23.10

You would get her by subtlety and tact, impeccable manners and personal culture. Mutual communication on one wave plays a key role. You early discover the charm of women and throughout your whole life remain under their influence. As a little boy you crush usually in actresses, and as a grown man: you're looking for the echo of those Hollywood dreams. You don't accept anything, which storms the harmony, complicates the romantic scenario – outbursts of emotion, laughter, sudden passions. You forgive a woman everything except a bad taste, thick layer of make-up, lack of tack! Therefore, you pay attention on beings which are a personification of charm: beautifully scented, dressed with flair, with which you can go to an elegant party, concert or to an art gallery (it is there – where the first date would succeed extremely) and you don't mind even on this little studied, film smile and elusive feeling that – what is happening between you: perhaps you've seen in the cinema.

Love is for you a great aesthetic experience, but sometimes one might get the impression that you admire her like an Egyptian pyramid. You delight in – treat as one of the great wonders, but keep the distance, like a tourist from another world. Among the most diverse, sometimes very elaborate verses – which you deign to your partners, word “love” appears very rarely. You’ve got the soul of connoisseur, and a lot of success and easiness in dealing with women, cause: that it’s difficult for you to make up mind for a stable relationship. You seek for a perfect partner – avoiding to rush yourself: you think – that you’ve got the time. You feel your value, so when the next date ends at the front door: you don’t quite understand what’s going on. Next time, you loose your patience. You don’t belong to those: who are excited by obstacles. No is no – you leave to others the inaccessible fortress, looking for a woman, who would appreciate your strengths. You think although, that why to force in an open doors – run after something, which rightly you deserve and what you would get, if not here, then somewhere else.

In bed you demonstrate an enormous vitality – boundless imagination, sometimes even bordering on inspiration, although you’re a better sexual partner for a woman, who doesn’t assumes equally strong emotional involvement. The one, who expects something more than only a beautiful form, sticking of bodies – might feel, that even tough it was romantic and with the fair play principles – something lacked to her... Maybe a true passion? And you think, that if the initial ritual has been met – there was a romantic dinner with candles, it was a champagne, it was a mutual attraction – continuation is something obvious. Your source of sexual energy radiates from the place somewhat distant from the emotional depth. It doesn’t radiates from your soul. Where is then such place? Your erogenous zones are located on the back of your kidney area. You’re also sensitive to the sensual whisper...

In the life of almost every man comes a moment: where the need to have a home is stronger than the desire for experiences. Not surprisingly, that you too – rise up to the marriage. To make this step, incline might you a woman – who convinces you, that you’ve found already everything: that others might only dream. It surely would succeed, if she would be sufficiently attractive and a bit clever. In essence you’re quite vain and lazy, so willingly you would believe, that there have met two aristocratic souls, to which nothing better can no longer happen. What’s more important, filling up with this conviction: you remain a faithful husband. To be completely happy you need a home run at the appropriate level, elegant partner who shares your interests and joyful participation in life of the world, by being there – where something interesting takes place: even in theaters, exhibitions and banquets. Money have got for you meaning as a means to the end: which are pleasures. Option not to be accepted? Selfish female, forcing decisions on you – turning back to you in common bed. Fortunately: heart won’t bleed long. Wounded soul adds you charm. Usually, without a problem you would find full of enthusiasm comforter.

Love is for you a refined figure of the cylinder. Important is everything: atmosphere, harmony and the beauty of the lover. As in a dance full of grace: you try to respond with the same measure – smile for smile, avowal for avowal. You won't get interested in a man: who speaks too loud or dresses without the taste. You're not suffering on sexual inhibitions, yet passions you surrender to aesthetic evaluation, like on exam to the Academy of Fine Arts. Meanwhile in a bedroom between the rose flakes, volumes of poetry and lit candles: you're still not finding this, for what you seek. It doesn't exists cute sex, neither aesthetic desire! In depth of the soul you're not waiting for a poet, but for a man from blood and bone – capable to finally release in your bedroom instincts left behind the doorstep! Only a true, passionate, stripped of ornaments sex is something: which can satisfy you. A very sensitive part of your body is the lower edge of your back, place – where the buttocks start. If a partner touches them in dance, it would surely move you.

When you get bored of romances and would finally hit on your second half – you discover, that a word "together" gives life, his true meaning. Your views on marriage are quite conventional – wedding as much as possible: you won't deny to yourself though the bouquet of white roses and flapping on the wind a snow-white veil. Marriage you would deem successful: when you would get exactly as much as you've gave – you're not possessive. You seek for consent, compromise, aesthetic surrounding, elegantly furnished apartment and frequent contacts with people. You can be happy. Everyday life is partly composed from works – about which you don't want to have an idea. More than cash: you're interested in a beautiful items and clothes – you can buy for it. Therefore the happiest you would be with a man: who would pamper you and treat as a little lady. Of course, fairy-tales about princesses and their knights don't happen everyday: you're however such smart enough – to arrange life in a satisfactory manner. He would gain in you an elegant, charming partner, endowed with a sense of beauty. Family would feel strongly with each related, and from autumn there would happen some joyful events. Not excluded is a great long journey, improvement of the life quality, family celebrations.

Demand exclusivity of time and attention. Libra likes to be open to the world and friends, and it would give him to think – if you would want to schedule all his free time. Say, that you don't like the company and fun and all your free time you plan to spend with him "one on one". And when you're with him on a date: hide your feelings, no flattery or affection. Emphasize, that only the money and gathering is your goal. You must not like and don't understand art and jib from any sign of artistry (it also applies to your clothes; do not care about the choice of them – Libra is an esthete and it would scare him). If he still touts you and insists, that you have to be together: introduce to him your vision of life – zero nightlife and fun, only work and zero spending on pleasure.

If you would be a true gentleman, man with class – you've got already plus on the introduction. If you would enter the road of harmony and captivation of her and suggest, that your goal is a solid, stable and formal relationship: she might consider such vision. Show your grace and charm: give the evidence that you care about her and your relation. Talk with her and try to work out a common position – you must be a true diplomat. It's a feature: which she would appreciate.

If in the smallest detail you would give her to understand that you want only romance and not in head you've got any serious commitment – she would close from you her heart. Doesn't tolerates rudeness and primitivism. No spicy jokes or provocations, no uncontrolled gestures. Subtlety and delicacy – those words have to become your mantra. Weight as the name suggests – ‘weights’ herself and seriously: it’s definitely not the strongest side of this sign. Therefore, you have to – show the consequence for the two, doubling it.

Is composed, a bit haughty, but discrete and from nature quiet. Likes to get precious trifles, so jewelry or perfumes for sure would be delightful. Appreciates good and sophisticated kitchen, loves sweets. Would be happy surely from chocolates or an elegantly packed set of good coffees.

You've got in you magnetism and this type of male charm, who strongly affects the women. If she wants to seduce you – she won't have the slightest problem with it, of course under condition: that she would equally appeal to you. What would make on you impression? Spontaneity, temperament and a feminine look! You're bored by the cliche, empty coquetry and hypocrisy. Your erotic compass won't react also on a woman: who would immediately reveal to you – all her secrets. It's like to reveal to you an ending of the book – before you would even open it. You desire is to slowly solve the puzzle, which is every woman: reading out of eyes, silence full of content and question marks. You can control your reactions, perfectly pretend indifference – send fairly false signals. It might seem, that no shadow of interest is in you. It's not true!

Love is for you a big challenge. The strength of your emotions, level of commitment –cause, that you're afraid of addiction, loss of autonomy. You seem to be such mannish, such strong: you've got however a relatively weak defense mechanisms. Abandonment, heartbreak – betrayal are events, which grow to the range of disaster. If once something like it happens to you: you promise self, that you would never again let yourself to be beaten and you try to keep this word. Therefore you connect often with a partner weaker from you – who you can addict from self. In such relationship you, yourself alone – seem safe. Although however – your true calling is the arrangement between equals, because deep in the spirit you desire a worthy opponent, and your dream is a great love by the equally big L, such – where a lot is expected, and given – equally a lot.

You're guided by the instinct – your sexuality can explode without prior warning! You don't belong to men timidly asking woman whether he could kiss her! If you think about something: you desire something – you just do it! If she has got a desire to only banter: she shouldn't at all enter your bedroom! She shouldn't get even close to you!!! You're a passionate and sensual lover – night is your element, kingdom of the senses hasn't got before you any secrets. Hardly any woman would feel on this hospitable land – injured or unhappy. When you find the one, with who you reach the real heights: your energy is inexhaustible and sensuality almost hypnotic. Common night – might extend infinitely: while the game of bodies sometimes subtle, sometimes fierce becomes a real mystery. Your erogenous zones are the area of the genitals. Any refined caress might trigger a volcano of passion!

You put a lot of commitment to the relationship with woman, anyway – who you desire, it couldn't be otherwise. As well – she heats the temperature of feelings, until boiling. It was already mentioned about the kind of relationship – in which woman undergoes submissive. However usually such schemes sooner or later get you bored. Challenge for you is a woman: who turns out to be equally strong as you, and your way of life – is a small, private war. Following after each – periods of fights, broken with suspensions of weapons – give meaning to your relationship (at least in your opinion). Disputes and quarrels go silent in the face of external enemy. Then, the truce is broken. Why? Vision of idyll existence: in a conditions of full symbiosis makes you nauseous! The deeper truth is however such – that what you do, is the avoidance of full closeness. When you fight with woman: you forget about how much you love her. In it lies a paradox. You, one of the most emotional types in the zodiac, capable to totalitarian feelings – escape from them as hell. Well, love greatly means – that you can be shed very wounded. A woman should know about it, who counts – that one day: you would stop to fight with each other. It won't happen. There however exist women with similar psychical construction, women – who correspond to this. The more – that no matter how acute the ammunition is used, in night – sounds of the battle go silent and a great reconciliation takes place.

You don't know feelings of the summer. Either they absorb you completely or not at all. You desire and hate. Somebody who'd you loved – you desire to possess forever. There is no specified type of man, which appeals to you. It doesn't matter what color his eyes have, does he wears a suit or a sweater. Important is such thing, which causes, that you want to know him closer. You're not always believing intuition: you desire to know about him all, read in his heart. You didn't want to give your heart to a man superficial or at worst, a cowardly one. Who wants to win over your favors must prove you, that he can afford much, and one more thing. He shouldn't ever try to entertain you with stories about his love conquests. You don't want to share with anyone place either in his heart or memory!

It doesn't exists for you a platonic love – you early start your sexual education, but erotic passions have nothing to do with obsession. They differentiate from it by this, for which the kitchen connoisseur differs from a common glutton. While the first can admire the exquisite of the dish, inasmuch second throws himself – on the first better food, caused by the everlasting suction in stomach. You're the master of celebration. Night with you, begins with stimulating the appetite – provocative caresses: daring, building tension, but not promising continuation. Only when you're really wanting to move further – game of the bodies starts to begin on good. Full of indefatigable energy and sensuality: you love with memorization and determination with which mountain peaks are conquered. Erogenous zones, from which the strongest sensation come from – are located in your genital area.

Life with you leads to heaven or hell. So before you would decide to hit the road – read what's written on the signpost! Your devise is "all" or "nothing". You don't need yet more words, to tell about love. It happens so to you, to "use up" a few husbands of proving it to the world. The obstacle in your way to happiness is possessiveness and exaggerated emotionality. Happiness is for you a state hardly reachable, because it means satiety of feelings, trustfulness and peace of mind – all that is for you fundamentally alien. You prefer to play in a war and peace, stroll among the barrels of gunpowder. Your relationships with partner tend to be a little too intense. Usually you give too much, to be easily satisfied. You lead a life full of ups and downs and full of determination to fight for dominance. As every self-respecting predator: try to be an arbiter, not the slave of your desires. Emotions, which you don't control – are destroying you. Fortunately: you've got a strong personality and when you hit on this only one – you're connected by a very strong bond. You attach to the man, who you respect and admire, and your admiration doesn't depends on the beauty, neither the account balance. It's hard for you to reconcile with the betrayal or lack of loyalty. If somebody fails you – it's never as it was before. Land of hot feelings from icy indifference – divides a gulf thinner than a hair.

Advice for Summer
In steady relationships a very warm atmosphere, not stripped out of erotic overtones – stop to refer therefore on a metrics in relationships, only love strongly and sensually! Aura is favorable also for all projects, which have on the aim – to improve the housing conditions. For some: enlargement of family is expected, so it's worthy to find a peaceful haven in life. Scorpios, who recently happily invested their hearts and are confident of shared feelings: would go to a jeweler for the wedding rings, and most of all – would also desire to find a cozy, joint nest. For singles: a great chance for equally great love. It is starting something really new. Cease to decide too hastily, but at the same time avoid to be too picky. If you would miss the right moment: waiting for some firework of passion – you can lost a chance for gaining a true friend. Who said, that love must begin with a special effect? Sometimes is as such, that a friendship hatches like a rose from the bud – loyalty, faithfulness, responsible attitude to a relationship cases, are the features, who now matter the most.

Stop to overdo and quit to mess with the Scorpio as you can get burned. People born under this sign are vindictive. In the process of discouraging Scorpio – bet on being "vague". In direct contact you have to be 'wooden' and completely unemotional. Scorpio is a man of passion – even if he first would take as a point of honor to extract from you the hidden layers of passion, so if you constantly, consequentially would be indifferent and impassive: he would finally capitulate, because he needs passion from woman and if you're not able to give it to him – it's time to look for another object of feelings. Scrub, besides it a knowledge of "I'm not constant in feelings and I like to flirt". Definitely it's not what Scorpio is looking for – in woman. He will leave, discouraged.

The answer is – perseverance. She's a mistress of persistence and waiting for the appropriate opportunity, so this feature in a man would be also kindly appreciated. If you think, that you would urge her or force to make a decision – you're in a mistake. With her: you must be patient. Nicely welcomed are acts of courage like the very honest talks or emotional declarations. She would like: if you would take some effort, to get her back. She would rise you not once the bar – to check whether you're for real the one for who: you want to be seen in her eyes. Follow your intuition and feelings, sometimes leave common sense behind the doors.

If your split has occurred because of your reason or offense against her, this time – night be very hard. She has a great memory – especially for injuries. Therefore now: she would watch you more suspiciously. No false moves, no lies and no evasions. You must be for her like a crystal. She would either way scan you with the strength of her intuition and insight and it would better to turn out: that you're for real worthy of her and that she can trust you. Cease to try any tricks or to cause her jealousy – to manipulate her feelings, because it would turn against you.

Usually inscrutable and spiritual. Loves to get books about various topics and all the guides. Also original and mysterious would make him happy – magic talismans would be perfect. Gift for him needs to be good quality: he's a connoisseur of good style and tasteful packaging.

Sagittarius, The Archer – Man

Sex in your issue is an ongoing journey. Increasingly new adventures, more and more of new lovers... Preach to you sermons – it's as silly, as silencing the bang of the waterfall. You love to have sex! Your spontaneity seems to be insatiable. You love the good things in large quantities, appetite grows while eating! Your heart is decorated so cleverly: to hold the whole harem without creating the impression of piston. Input and output is there collision-free. Enthusiasm won't however never replace depth of the feelings – you therefore check in those systems: in which sex is mostly a good fun, and shared nights are those of love and laughter. Woman, who expects experiences with higher specific weight shouldn't find in your bed. It would be difficult for her to understand, that those great experiences might not longer repeat themselves? Why? You've got her to offer that, which nature gives a man – sensory feast, desire, which is living the moment, happiness in a nutshell.

Honestly saying, that if you're a great lover, inasmuch you're not suited specially to be a husband. At least, not right away. Your sexual appetite weakens after forties and with it comes a note of nostalgia and a chance for successful marriage. After all: it's known from the top that any woman won't turn you into an inseparable love-bird – won't interest in a dietetic kitchen, or saving on a rainy day. Also laying on you her moods, blaming with own desires sooner or later would lead to conflict. To lead with you a consistent, shared life – it's worthy to have own, equally interesting. The best system is one: where both sides for all day follow their own tracks and meet up in the evenings to to exchange experiences, funny observations. Home is for you a haven, safe place, where you willingly come back, when you're tired by the buzz. Your attitude towards money is sometimes quite nonchalant, so it's better if your partner is more skilled in planning the household budget: on the other hand – in financial issues you also need freedom. It will be better – if you would simply have a separate accounts. Each of you should also have own friends. Someone: who from finish too sharply enters you life – quickly would feel an unwelcome guest. In too much possessive arms – you lack air and space.

Sagittarius, The Archer – Woman

To love – you approach with a great deal of optimism. You're full, warm – intimate to you is loyalty, loving attention, but you don't the have tendencies to build a solid structures. You're afraid of them, so they would not change into a prison. Love means... love! Your own morality, independent is of that – what people talk: it orders you sincerity and honesty. It doesn't happens to you an affair from self-interest, out of revenge or a false coquetry. What in you charms the most: is a childish openness, joyous appetite for life and a willingness for your relations, with partner – to frame them on every level, not only in bedroom. You seek for a partner – understanding what means this word: lover, who would be at the same time a friend. In your heart flames a light, calm flame. You can warm up with him – hardly, to get burned. You don't seek a hole in the whole: you don't design sad ending, because why? Rare love heartbreaks you take with head up. You control your senses, don't want to loose control over life and the course of events.

Sensual love is for you something so obvious as heavy rain or a clear sky. You're the child of nature! Equally natural is a fact, that to the bed you go with the one, who is liked. Love games, in which you participate with enthusiasm, lined are with warmth, full of humor and laughter. The joy of giving and taking: makes you open to any spontaneous proposal. You've got high expectations towards a man: with who you intent to spend your life. You would want to discuss with him about philosophy – when you would come back from the gym. You expect also, that a partner won't absorb you completely, because you don't have an intention to resign from your own life and interests. Cooking dinners and vacuuming carpets won't satisfy your appetite on life. For it, to be successful – it needs many attractions: travels, social parties, full new faces, sports and entertainment events. The repertoire is unlimited. With equal fervor you would get to the opera and for the mushrooms. Sulky home-bird, thinking that sex is purely for procreation – can easily save himself the proposal. If he however is a broad-minded man and tolerant – he would leave you a wide margin of the liberty: this relationship would bring both of you lots of pleasure. Loyal – you act towards the husband fair: you're able to forgive a mistake and you're in fact indulgent – if he however would often abuse your trust, he would pay dearly for it.

Advice for Summer
If you're still a 'free Archer' you can, in the period of holidays – meet someone, with who you'd be connected by a passionate affair, but cease to assume it would transform into a stable relationship. Feelings in your heart explode with the force of lightning, but sometimes they last equally short. Aura would incline you to seek for an adventures. You attract therefore to you men passionate and amorous, but not too steady in feelings. On something more serious you can count however: if you find on your way somebody, with who you would have a great talk, someone – who would inspire your imagination. Such relationships, which are not based only on an erotic attraction – might survive until autumn. Since then, bonds would start to tighten. If you're already connected: think about how you can diversify the partnership life. Forbid to allow yourselves on routine – it can lead to weakening of the feelings. Plan your holidays in such way, to allow you abandon habits – to show yourself to the other side in an entirely new role. Avoid holiday homes, where life moves slowly.

Instead of running and to jib: reverse the roles and start you – to attack him. Show that you're wanting to entrap him and bury in the hearth and home, and in the head of Sagittarius the red alarm lamp would turn, under the title: this woman would cut my wings. It would end pestering and start a runaway. Sagittariuses are funny, facetious, and cheerful, so if your goal is to discourage him: be serious, dramatic, unsociable. Show him, that being with you is a 'golden cage': he would have great, but not a step outside the house. Control him. It's not for the Archer: he can give up a lot, but not freedom.

If you would start to pretend and play – she would turn away from you. Bets on honesty. You might not choose the rights words, but if you would be honest with her – she would surely gain for you respect. Female Sagittarius observes a man and if she senses a lingerer or a sad act – takes a step back. Only by being like she is – an optimist, a man full of life happiness: you've got chances to be with her. Be similarly open as her, on it – what would bring you tomorrow. Would appreciate also audacity: if you would be ashamed or afraid – she won't see it with admiration. In female Sagittarius there is plenty of goodness for others and honesty, so if you would fix the past mistakes and rationally explain your point of view: you've got chances that your arguments would convince her.

She won't like if you would tightly hold on to your old customs and habits. This interested of world, joyful woman seeks a partner – companionship of adventures and not an indolent bore. If you're not able to keep her pace: cease start to her. She won’t like also a pose of standing silent observer – alone is happy and talkative, likes company, so she too expects it from his man. If in your attempts to get her back you would be precautionary, prudent and thrifty: forget about the win. She would look with favorable eye on fantasy, a little madness or even risk-taking.

Loves all surprises, but only under one condition – if he’s able to payback. Needs movement and for sure would be delighted from a new pair of goggles or a sports clothing. Joy would be brought also by new perfumes and a wise book, for instance a guide. Splendidly packed gift would grace him with its very outer beauty.

Motto – I use.

The first decade of sign is the 100% Capricorn: distrustful and distant towards the environment. Is conservative, stubborn, preservative and counts only on self. On the outside you seem to be confident, but from the new found woman you expect a clear incentive before you decide to take the first step. In fact careful and aloof – you don't take the early action: you don't move from a place, until you won't know the situation. If it's ambiguous – you back out, as you're not used to walk on a muddy ground. You don't fall in a love easily – you're immune to the smiles of women who have to offer only meaningless flirt or a fleeting affair. You don't trust coquettes: you expect a promise, assurance – that you're receiving something really special. She should act tactfully and gently: dress with a classic elegance – turn out to be a woman of the character, having her passions and interests.

There is not much women walking in this world: who trigger in you this specific state called love, so when you meet the right partner –

Capricorn, The Goat – Man

denial is the last thing that you acknowledge. You won't say "enough" until you won't try, all known to you – means, leading to the goal. Manly vain, and even a little cocky: you're stuck into the belief, that she doesn't pays attention to you, only because she doesn't knows you yet. The only thing you can't afford, is the craziness and experiment – ways, which sometimes, in spite of everything likely are the best way to success. It's probably the only reason of your (few) failures. Although common sense rarely leaves you: you've got however in yourself that little bit of romance – which causes, that dreams come true. When it finally happens – she is for you as a valuable prey. You treat her a slightly patronizingly, but ever would let out of your hands. And one more! Your words mean exactly, what they mean. She shouldn't therefore miss the moment, when you say "I love". When she takes your courtship you're requiring honesty. When you realize that a woman pretends love and plays on emotions – this is probably, the only case: where you're willing to turn on a heel and disappear in the fog. Forever?

Lust is for you something obvious: it's just a part of love, and so if you're in it – you want to go as fast to that part. You will try to crush her resistance, being led by the principle: that the lost battle, doesn't yet means a lost war. You can afford patience, because deep in the soul you don't appreciate something that comes alone and without an effort. You hate however to tease with you. Your desires are vast, hopes aroused – you're a sensual, passionate, demanding lover. You would try to make a big impression on her. In the bedroom there would be no lack of romantic music or good spirits. Perversely you desire to awaken in her a sex demon: in order then to tame and domesticate him. In this you should succeed. Your skin is very sensitive to touch, especially in hairy areas.

You're a born manager, planner, so also in a stable relationship those characteristics become evident. First of all: decisions attributed to the future – you take meticulously, filling gaps "pros and cons". You would sacrifice a sensual romance for the scheme, which would satisfy your ambitions and would create a promising prospect. It doesn't means that you're selfish: you're just looking for such partner – who offers you not only love but also a realistic plan for commonly spend years. You've got nothing against it that a woman of your life (marriage you treat very seriously after all!) would be a person equally ambitious and demanding. It encourages you. You understand her expectations – trying to meet the needs. You don't belong to the dreamers addicting their own fate from a won in the lottery. You're a family man: you appreciate yourself reason. The common strive for a comfortable life, good company, intellectual entertainment you treat as a preview to happiness. As one of the few men – you're monogamous from nature. Convinced, that you've married to the best woman, as you know – you don't see the need to put this truth into a question, making new friends. If you were ever cease to believe in it – you would must to admit it a mistake. And it is the worst, which could happen to you.

Advice for Summer
This summer be rather cautious, because instinct might fail. Avoid to put, in an established now acquaintances, too much momentum – allow yourself to be seduced and wait for the development of events. It, what would on the beginning seem to you attractive and inviting: will soon become unbearable. Stop to set up yourself immediately on a love story – maybe it would be only an episode? You've got a tendency to idealize newly met partners – assigning to them features, for which you long. So cease to be surprised if it turns that the fantasy would appear a lack of responsibility, generosity – extravagance etc. Therefore give yourself time to discover the truth. It's worthy to get know also something interesting about self. If you're still longing for love, think – where you do mistake. Maybe you wear head too high, maybe something in you intimidates? In stable relationships – might develop few problems to solve. At low temperatures in the heart: the best is openness and honesty, so don't hide your feelings. If a routine crept between you – tell your partner, that you love, even if it seems obvious. You're warned however against emotional dishonesty – betrayal, false compromise... You would fall into your own nets. To arrange a repeat from the honeymoon it's worth on the beginning to bring back memories of the good, old days. At the remembrance it won't end...

You've got in you something, which dejects players focused on an easy prey. From the first moment: it's known that with you – it won't be easy. You're also not a sprinter in pickings. You don't understand the sudden affections – love is for you like a wine, which intoxicates, but only then – when it gains a noble power. From an immature one – hurts only head. Therefore he has got a negligible chance to conclude with you a relationship for ex. on a beach. Man in the swimming trunks does not look on someone, who can be trusted. Chances grow, when you've got mutual friends or you're connected by an area of interests. You must have time to spot the benefits of his character. A dazzling smile of a superstar is not enough. He should not hesitate just go ahead and boldly spread the peacock's tail – without the ostentation, but such as you could see he's responsible and trustworthy.

Capricorn, The Goat – Woman

Love is a temptation, and at the same time a problem, because you're afraid of emotions, melting moods and situations which you're not in control. You're like a rose – grateful and prickly. You don't stand demonstrational kisses! Feelings (let somebody finally guess how deep!) manifest themselves only in your eyes. In love: you fail to foresee everything – you thou like concrete plans. You're often accompanied by a sense of loneliness, and though self-restraint creases like an armor – you can't reject it. Deep down in the soul: you're still a small girl, who asks "Do you love me?" You prefer to populate your world with figures of the strong men with tender heart, vainly searching for them in life. Long takes breaking the first ice, but once you love someone – it's a love without boundaries. You're possessive and a great risk would be to try take your prize. You won't stand the fact that you've been abandoned. You're ready to fight to the end to prove, that you're the one leaving.

Long you don't realize the case of your erotic desires. Sex is in your life a great, dangerous force! Dangerous, because it's accompanied by an emotional deepness, bordering on a love slavery. Great romances, which don't end with the happy ending – is a specialty of women from your sign. Passionate side of your nature – you uncover to one, who would wait not one capricious aura. Your bedroom and in it: a surprisingly vigorous sex – are at the end of a long journey. Who would get there would be perhaps tired, but not disappointed. Your partner can be only the one: who would awake the desire. When and who would do that – it's always hard to predict. You act then under the influence of instinct, treating with contempt manuals describing ars amandi techniques. Delight such strong and memorable as a touch of eternity causes, that from now on without a lover you feel like a wanderer lost in the desert. Extremely sensitive point of your body is navel and skin in the place of knee flexion.

You're building your life on a solid attitudes. Marriage – you treat seriously. Happiness is in your concept a steady regular post, not a roulette. With a partner: you really have an intention to spend the rest of life, so before you decide on this step – you want to know exactly with who you're dealing with. You need someone receiving on the same wavelength. You search for him long, but when you find: you haven't got any shade of doubt, that his the one. Your expectations and plans are very specific. It happens, that these requirements might only be met by a man older than you, because a huge role in the mutual attraction plays a special respect – which you don't feel for someone of equal age. You seek authority! Perhaps it's a form of longing for a father? Very ambitious: you do not want to be, after all, dependent on him. Sense of security provides you not only a male arm, but also a sense, that you've achieved your own success. It's forbidden to alienate you to it, criticize or discourage. If your large ambitions won't find mouth in your professional work – you're ready to become an eternally dissatisfied and peremptory wife. You've got no taste for noisy entertainment, numerous company and adventures. You like planned life, in which – it's always known what would be the next point of the program. You're not suited by a trifler or a guy who treats women patronizingly.

From a man you expect that she would treat you like a princess: you've got nothing against being pampered by him. From someone stopping at the exhibitions of clothing from the discount and inviting you to a fast-food bar – you would run like hell.

Advice for Summer
If unresolved problems tease you: they would end, although at first moment – it might not be too pleasurable. You should strive for a clear situations. Talk, cease to bypass sensitive topics. The understatements and doubts can divide more acutely than the physical absence. Answer as quickly as possible for yourselves: whether you want to be together? If yes: forbid to let anything to split you. Spend more time together – do yourselves little pleasures, put past misunderstandings into oblivion. If no – it's probably not worth to be in such system without future? Relationship, which lasted only by the force of habit, would be broken. If you feel a little lost in the surrounding you reality: try to spend your holidays in a quiet and comfortable environment. The most beneficial would appear a soothing silence and contact with the nature. Lonely? Cardiac issues would now be a considerable challenge. Holidays are a season of building castles... from sand. May your new relationship not prove such an unstable construction. You might come across somebody: who would hide from you marriage ring or the distance between your places of living – would complicate your common future. Many will be of the unknown – it's possible that your ways would quickly split.

Show him, that you can't be counted on – as you're unpredictable. Still criticize him. Capricorn is very forward after support, so criticism would weaken his zeal for you. Men under this sign are arranged, thrifty, honest, toned. Therefore if you would present yourself to him as a woman: wasteful, fiery, vain and additionally to it – explosive, his feelings would definitely decline. He would put into question the sense of further soliciting you. Capricorn is a type that cuts himself of – from emotional gusts, so if you would still put some emotional demands or do dramatic scenes: he won't stand and would go away from you. He won't also accept disorder, spontaneity and the lack of control.

However pathetic it might sound, but the thing, which can enclose the female Capricorn to give a man one more chance – is the truth of his words and actions. It's about it: to approach her very serious and earnestly and did not promise "pie in the sky" ("pears on the sky/willow") and very factually present your standing, feelings and intentions. It would put you in her eyes – in a positive light. The word-spell in the way to Capricorn heart – is loyalty. You would know: how to show her your devotion and affection. She wants to have confidence, that you're reliable and your words mean something. It's even more important: if you've fooled her once and it lead to your separation. Even in the small, everyday tasks – you must prove your duty and responsibility.

If you won't keep your word: be late on the meeting – would promise closely unspecified "miracles wreaths" of your new way – and you're gone. That, would even more discourage her to you and would strike any chances on getting back your loved one from the Capricorn sign. What may also scare her off: is also a stream of denominations and feelings. OK, you want to show her: what you feel, but remember that Capricorn doesn't handles the extensive emotionality – it's a sign of people firmly stepping on the ground. Their emotional potential is carefully concealed from the world. Therefore, act with care to her – no fierce/ rushed actions. She won't like also: if you would be so super 'cool' and you would bury her with visions of how fantastically would look like your new life. She needs time, in emotional issues she is a conservative. Bets on slow pace and traditional values.

Is practical and thrifty. Gift for him: should be functional. It can be household appliances or a cook book. Happiness would be brought to him by an attractive notebook, clock or a picture on the wall. He would be pleased from good perfumes or cosmetics.

From wife: you expect creating an atmosphere full of warmth, of true understanding, support, interest. You're able to do a lot for someone: for who you care for. A lot, but giving your time and care you expect – that it would be appreciated. Moment, in which a warm gestures would be treated as something most ordinary under the sun – might be a signal, that between you a routine sneaks in. And it can be beginning of the end. After all in the tales about life: princess and the knight are always living long and happily, about boredom can't be even a talk. Woman-realist, who long ago grew out of dreams as like from the children's clothes, shouldn't arrange with you life. It can't succeed!

Advice for Summer
For those bonded: this summer, is a time of inner peace – emotional balance. Apart from a few exceptions: most of you would tell yourselves that lack of news, is good news. Aura promotes stabilization – as well as enlarging family. In August pace would increase: social life would revive – you would desire experiences. It's worth to go on a vacation! You're still a single? In June and July you should be satisfied with Sun, wind, emerald water. Give heart a break. Affairs established in a hurry won't give you happiness: feelings will prove superficial – acquaintances trivial. But in August intuition would prompt you – which heart to trust. Summer slowly ends, but love just starts. You would start to more often see people. They would appear opportunities for meetings, short trips, outdoor excursions. Someone: who would appeal to you – you would be able to get to know her better, as you'd be encouraged to common entertainments and discussions. More than one sympathy would transform into something much more serious – you would meet also completely new people. What you think about the love at first sight? Be prepared on such revelations, and despite proposing dates point-blank – isn't in your style: it's worthy to have a reflex! Meetings under the starry sky – you will both still remember for a long time, because aura would let grow the flirt and outlast the affairs. Some of you in autumn – would made an oath, which would want to keep.

You've got a big prosperity. You're the type of woman-child, who at first glance – vulnerable and fragile: triggers in men caring instincts. And you easily fell in love – unfortunately you've got tendencies to emotional complications: something tempts you, to get in a dangerous affair. He, if he wants to get your attention: should prove a strong and determined man – having a clear sense of direction. You, get lost sometimes between conflicting aspirations, human expectations, own needs – like two fish symbolizing your sign, which swim in opposed directions.

Pisces, The Fish – Woman

The innate sense of poetry causes, that you live in a known for you world of revelations, dreams and wonderful memories, and your affectivity is a story full of dreams and colorful stories about princesses and knights in a bright armor. So what you're looking for in a difficult affairs without the future? For love to flourish: you need a stable relationship – a lot of assurances and love evidence. You need a sense of security! You expect support: relations between man and woman are for you a peaceful co-existence, and not a war. It happens that under the cover of confidence – your partner hides complexes and fear of intimacy. You should mentally mature – stop to attract "little boys" playing in love. As a woman conscious of self: you've got in you the heat, unbridled fantasy and that something, which causes – that prosper comes itself.

You lead a life full of secrets, so nobody knows really when you've transformed from a good girl into a fiery lover. Unusual atmosphere, this special mysterious climate – always accompanies your love escapades. It's a pinch of hedonism – a drop of masochism and desire. Sex in your issue becomes a fascinating spectacle, in which every gesture, every movement – raises erotic temperature. You use sophisticated tricks, play in a masquerade ball, hide in a dimness... Like an exotic dancer you attain mastery, igniting desire. Sometimes however you catch yourself on it, that: you still only give, being afraid to get something in return. If false shame can't be tamed: you won't find – what means a real passion. Your feet are extremely sensitive to kisses. This caress should help you overcome any resistance.

You get married from love, but sometimes it happens for you to fall in love with the image – which your imagination has created. Watch out for it! As fire you should avoid type of "macho" and guys thinking of romantic love as an error of the youth, from which – fortunately, you grow. Nothing worse can happen to you, the more – that difficult is for you to extricate from the poisonous arrangement. You would prove a perfect wife for a warm – solid man who values himself: peace and family. With someone as such: you make an unusual, spiritual bond – it happens, that you call yourselves at the same moment or say the same words. You've got the ability to cause, that he feels with you more manly, strong and caring! He becomes more patient: loves to pamper you and fulfill your whims. You're in need of each other – you look over each in eyes and you see in them – how you're beautiful, how loving. You can also be a sensitive and caring mother – you like to care after the closest ones (not once you're even overly attentive): yet who expects from you pedantry in orders and conducting of a domestic accounts – hit badly. You couldn't live in an orderly, organized underworld. You're an artist! Life without dreams, pleasant surprises, romantic travels is not life!

Advice for Summer
Take a breath: especially when walking with head in the clouds – you've neglected a little work or other duties. Despite summer: the smell of flowers and romantic, long nights working on the imagination – it won't happen now anything special. In making new connection might interfere your shyness. Unfortunately, everything points on it – that you won't find yourself in such favorable situation: which would allow you to get closer to the beloved, without a bit of risk. But in August: heart issues would again accelerate. Aura would make easier for you to realize the plan. Maybe you would find yourselves on a mutual party or it would appear that you've got a shared friends? And maybe, nice Pisces – would change the object of your sighs? Aura foresees a variety of scenarios. Their common feature is however a happy ending. September would allow without obstacles to mature new acquaintances – would bring also a new chance to people constantly looking for their ideal. Romance attitude will attract somebody: who broadcasts on the same wavelength, and when you decide to reveal more sensual and hot piece of your nature – you would nicely surprise recently met partner. It's possible, that you would be surprised by a matrimonial proposal, but even if the affair pace seems for you a bit too fast – it's worthy to think over it. For the already bonded: it foreshadows a moderately hot, but pleasantly passing summer.

Give him to understand, that freedom is your primary need. Show on each step, that you're independent, that you like to roam the world and do it with a whole group of friends. Pisces are sensitive, delicate and they require a subtle relationship, in which are only he and her. Therefore: if you present him a vision of the relation, in which you would enter it – with all your group, he would surrender. It's not his fable. Pisces are sensitive and sharp tongue and blunt comments would hurt sensitive and romantic nature of the Fish, and thus deter him for good. Keep for him a reserve. Zero of romanticism and sexual rejection – it's also a way to definitely discourage to you a man from the Pisces sign.

When she sees that you trying to be a strong man, but at the same time sensitive – you would gain a few points in her eyes. She would like every manifestation of romance. Be her prince from a fairy-tale: courageous, brave, manly but subtle, sensitive to the beauty of the world, on art, on feelings. Alone very delicate: with favorable eye would look at subtle allusions from your side. Cease pretend to be someone – who you're not, stop to convince her that you've changed beyond recognition. She has a radar called intuition – any bluff won't pass by. Instead of acting as someone reworked: convince her, that you're the same man – which appealed to her and with who she was, but you're now smarter by the experiences and thoughts. Show her, that you've understood your mistakes and you want to fix everything. She has got a very sensitive heart, is an incorrect altruist and when she sees a broken heart and the humble expression face – she can forgive. Pisces have a soft spot for passionate lovers, like from the romance cards – think about it.

Forget that you can be pushy in your trying, or aggressive. It would strike your chances forever. Female Pisces is a sensitive woman – can't stand rudeness and brutality. What could also alienate her – is the emotional coldness. She thrives: when you lavish her with sensitivities. If you want to get her back: let them to be a nice text messages, mails and phones – evidence that you still think about her. Don't save her never – any of your time and words, warranties, confessions and compliments as Pisces has never it enough. Alone is an indecisive woman: again and again hesitant and puzzling, so from a man she expects something very inverse – stability, consequence and decisiveness. Think well, if you're able to provide it to her. If your desire to get her back is a flash in the pan, then let it go, because nothing would come out of it. She has got an incredible intuition and would sense the deception or dishonesty. You would discourage her also, when you would – in your try of her return to you: be introducing tension, nervousness and drama. She's in herself enough volatile and prone to nervousness: be for her an oasis of tranquility, provide for her in your side – the quietest and safest place in the world, so perhaps, she would give to you a green light.

Usually modest and not overly fond of expensive gifts. Loves all kinds of mascots and plushies – perfect to hug in a long winter nights. Would be pleased also from pedant or a modest bracelet, because he's a small coquette. In nature absorbent of knowledge and spiritual, so joy would bring him a book i.e. novelty or a bestseller.

/ If you're seeking to better know yourself – take an interest in birth, tarot cards and search for their many interpretations.

If you would try too hard: you will be a stalker. Put the bait and let the women come to you/ motto.

Love is a nature's trap. Fall for the wrong person and you're barely dead, without the appropriate[637] techniques.

Take the topic of seduction very seriously, as it has got potential to ruin your Life/ "forever".

[637] Knowledge on how to effectively dump a person has been released due to this reason, as it allows you to save time and problem.

4.11X. The game

Women are created to seek for those: who are stronger psychically than they. ALL the desired traits: confidence, tenacity and uncompromising attitude which are equipped[638] to a parasite/ those, who are commonly referred to as 'bad boys' are attractive to the opposite sex. If you haven't developed them yet: you're required to – if you want to fuck.

Develop those traits by rewiring your brain programming, #0.1 & #2.1 → #2.
Start just now as it takes time.

All the game is ALL about installing yourself in the mind of a selected partner. It can be brought to a drug, which has to be dosed repeatedly at least on the beginning and given each time a very little of it: to create a habit/ addict to yourself.

Love is a process which starts with desire: to increase yours value – change your life, for the better/ commonly with a want, to experience something new. Therefore, when the attractive traits and characteristics of a person are in place (confidence, money on the part of a man/ physical looks on the woman side) in the similar level for both of the interested parties: a mutual attraction can occur. It's sexual-based only, as it gives the start to possibility of a new relationship.

What partners seek

Woman	Seeks what you do/ where you're going/ what you are/ what are your ambitions/ what you have/ whether you represent something/ whether you communicate together etc.
Man	Is interested in sex/ in increasing his value through a partner (similarly as woman).
-	Woman would do all sorts of illogical and crazy things to test whether you've got those desired/ expected-by-her qualities.

Fail at them and you're likely to be left/ forever.

For instance: she might not come at the first meeting – to test, how you would react: whether you would scream at her, do other nasty things etc./ whether you're interested really at her (it's a logic, which most men don't understand) yet it's ALL a smoking mirror. Watch out, because any sign of weakness or submissiveness to her is treated as an enormous minus – she would remember. Everything, has got a hidden cause. Everything. It enables you to think and speeds up the process of love.

MIRROR her moves, again. It's so simple: set another meeting, but don't you go on it – provide the same as you've been treated. You show: you're a weak man – if you do any otherwise. No foreseeing, just mirroring – remember. Even if you were to cut yourself for doing so: prevail, at it. If you would continue this way: you've won her already. If you will not: you're likely to masturbate yourself and be BETA (those, who want to fuck – commonly complaining about how the women are bad). In effect, it ALL comes to one thing: of showing your psychical resistance and strength – manliness/ where you pass each and every such test.

Next stage, after the initial tests[639] period – would be to turn the tables around: to do something, continually which would cause her to think – that, she can have you but it won't be easy. It doesn't needs to be something sophisticated: an adventure, commonly spent time on fun and play, something extraordinary – out of the pattern or even gifting her with a small mascot, something which would provide her lasting memories to lie on – is sufficient. Expect from her to do a revenge – something which she can only give. The more she thinks about you and the more you give her moral reasons to – the better: despite lack of you, absence – is required proportionately too/ i.e. to not overdo.

Let her wonder, let her think – allow her to do so, in her mind. Become the perfect partner, provide such reasons. Show that you're really after her/ use, #4.11 to your advantage/ but expect the same. It would take many time and meetings, to get to this point – be patient, watch yourself: testing would continue, ALL the time. Show, that you're a man – she seeks, by proving yourself each and every time. Avoid to ever tell her: you love her – before she would, do so/ cease to say it, until child.

Strive to fuck her: it has to happen within the best first few dates – the sooner, the better/ even in the most resistant cases i.e. Capricorn woman: if it's beyond 3 to 9 months from the first meeting – you strive too weekly. Fuck her, as soon as possible – be best, at it/ it's the key to any partnership.

ACTIVITY	UNDERSTANDING OF SIGNIFICANCE
Too much SMS/ text/ social media information exchange	MINUS, because you're loosing topics. It's best to limit yourself to only set up a meeting on those media. Usually, not mentioning for any more. It's required to understand that there is no substitute for a real contact face to face/ you won't fuck her through the internet or a phone.
Stalking	MINUS. You should ideally ask yourself first how many times per weak you want to meet: pretending you're interested in other person's opinion. One to two meetings one on one: are usually more than enough. It's required in everything, at least on the very beginning. A bit of unavailability would increase your value and respect in the eyes of partner, to you. Vacation or other forms of travel are excluded – they're a great way to enjoy yourselves.
Any immoral	"CRIME." Avoid ever to. Be honest. It's also tagged to saying anything bad about her, her family, close ones etc. (ask rather [639] They would continue, up to the end of your relationship – even if married, have children/ be, always on the watch.

activity/ word – towards the partner behind back	questions and be responsive towards her, but avoid to criticize anyone behind her back). If you're involved in the immoral, #1.12: you're likely to be left, forever.
Not satisfying her sexual needs	"CRIME." You better learn[640] fast, because you're giving her a very well-rooted reasons to leave.
Laziness	"CRIME." It's not her task only: you're required to lead the initiative.
Using force, implying your will in such or similar manner	"CRIME." Not respecting her right to freedom or choice would cause her to leave. Watch on it, ask yourself: whether you would want to be treated this way.
Betrayal	"RELATIONSHIP SUICIDE." It's the greatest of all, because you've taken away the most prized gift which is loyalty. You've betrayed her trust// to avoid, forever.
Flirting with other woman	Although it might be helpful at the beginning: to show up yourself in the vicinity of other beautiful woman – it's likely viewed or could be viewed as a betrayal later.
Not being honest and true with each / i.e. lack of dialogue	It's the very worst. Enforce morality: be yourself open and honest about any situation and expect it from the other person too. You're required to start from yourself, first.

Those activities harm your relationship and therefore harm you. Avoid them, at any cost.

Mirror her moves/ only mirror i.e. no foreseeing – no anticipation ever.
Be a man, have your own opinion: rule your own Life – she's only an addition[641] to it/ #2. Prove: you're strong psychically.

[640] Look upon: Sharka Blue with Erik Everhard – Sharka's gaping ass gets hard fucked and creamed/ 25m.& #3.95C:II.

[641] Avoid to ever hide it: if she wants to join you, be a part of it – it's of her own choice/ i.e. it's in her best interest.
If she doesn't accepts it/ respects: she can always leave, at any moment. Her Life would be however great ~~if~~ – when she decides to stay/ & it keeps you with you due to none better choice, i.e. selection.
It might not be easy to her, but she has to accept everything in order to be with you/ all.
/ For you: to give her – your sperm and particularly the resources required for child upbringing.
It's the brutal truth, as she is more likely to accept you and 'starve' than the other person who completely is not suitable for a partner/ who causes her to vomit – similarly as we do on the ugly women (the unwell felling, inside). An option is to take the sperm and run for a person who would provide or take her, but you're not interested in every woman and to extract your sperm is not an easy task/ i.e. no financial support on your part = crime on her,

> Psychical toughness has got nothing to do with muscle and all women are about it.
> / reflecting, the Creator intents – #1.11xE.

Always remember[642] about your value.

if you're 'raped'// #2.
Your 'trying' with woman and being available – decreases your value in their eyes/ stop those actions of being 'needy'.
Tell them to swallow in front of you and show you her tongue or – if you only use condoms: take them with you as they've might have an idea to take the sperm and force-insert it to her vagina/ as a word of advice.
Be careful/ accept only best soul partners in your whole Life as women are a serious danger to your development/ #2.

[642] If after 3 months you still didn't fucked her: take your dick out and start to masturbate in front of her – tell her to suck, bring the goal to the front of her world view/ the first purpose of woman is to be fucked (it introduces bondage, love). Then: never stop (vaginal sex). You should already achieve the success before (sex).
Leave, show lack of interest – if you're played/ let her know she has to act the way you want (sex or at least a blowjob to prove herself – you've got also needs). Know your value. If she has got somebody's better: tell her to go to him – if she waits with sex. Know your value/ never allow any woman diminish it (avoid to be ever played, by any).

Men are created to seek for those: who are of sexual value to them (beautiful looks: childish face – cute lips and eyes, sexy figure, nice ass and tits). Although to form a stable relationship with man: woman has to represent also something on the intellectual[643] level.

Take the full health restoration process/ #3: to bring it completely i.e. ideal skin condition, lean figure – little to none fat/ no stomach.
Take an extra care of yourself: nice – sexy clothes, maintained – shiny hair and [644]hygiene, scent, heels – maybe a slight make up i.e. eyelashes, lips etc.
Begin to do sports i.e. running, swimming and visit more places where you can find the potential soul-partner/ having it on your mind yet not forcing, it.

Be a challenge to him – at least on the beginning, #4.11.
You have to be a confident woman/ #2.1: knowing your value/ no complexes.
Avoid to give-in yourself too fast.

If you've got a reputation of a woman who had many men: best, change city or country – hide your past. Leave it all behind and avoid to ever get back to it, but stop to forever lie: tell something reasonable i.e. "it's past, we've all done[645] mistakes, but they've made us, who we are – it doesn't matter to me/ let's look at now and our future".

It's worthy to invest also into your development, aside.

[643] Look first: is essential for a man to even think about it.
[644] Particularly: shaved legs & armpits and 'vagina' (strap at max), white teeth/ #3.1, being & staying clean i.e. washed.
[645] If only, you truly mean it.

4.12. Finding a partner/ requirements for a happy living

You can get a partner both ways: by chance/ the hard way and with spiritual connection – only the second ever survives, the test of time.

	BY CHANCE/ PHYSICAL APPEAL ONLY – SEEKING PARTNER AND "FORCING" OR GETTING A RELATIONSHIP	SOUL PARTNER – THOSE WHO HAVE A TASK TO DEVELOP/ HELP YOU/ #2: THROUGH YOUR WAY OF LIFE
Method	Seeking it forcefully or met on the way/ to have sex.	Usually, it's there/ you've met him or her in your way: somewhere in life.
How experienced	Only physical desire. In the case of gene match: slow of time/ infatuation might be present.	A magic sense of aura/ attraction – blow in your soul, face and body which overtakes you, possibly love.
Based on	SEX.	Spiritual desire/ need yet sex is involved also.
Relationship	Timely. Won't survive the test of time, because you're not suited and your ways may split after love passes.	Lasts[646] usually: until one of the partners changes her ways or has a limited time role (rare).
Outcome	Leads to surprises, frustration, lost hopes and possibly death.	Leads to happiness.
	Eventually child is a result, but you live in a separation to only see it once a time or never.	Is directly ~~associated~~ connected with taking & Living the process, #2/ partner, suited & interested in you is brought on your path of Life, at a precise moment and time.

[646] Even for your whole lifetime, as you're perfectly matched/ you've probably never experienced alike.
It's like in a dream and everything is as you would want it to be/ not only in terms of looks but predominantly character & personality/ i.e. mutual understanding – very best, for you.

You can only be happy in the long term with a soul partner and only those relationships deliver the ever sought experiences, in the end.

Ignore the below, but it just had to be published – you would know why: if you're a bit of an observer.

GAINING EXPERIENCE

Write now, to one-hundred women on social media/ date-portals on the internet – from your area of living/ vicinity, to those who only appeal to you: "Hey, I'm attracted to you – leave me your phone number" or use best the more direct form, "Hey, you appeal to me – leave me your phone number"[647] (select only the best women, which you would like to have sex[648] with and target only those: who are single, best without babies i.e. photos without a man he's with and, or marked in the profile – it's serious). You must to have at least a single photo of you and few friends on your profile, for it – to look credible: place your real[649] picture, just do it – pick women and send such message to each one of them. Do it[650] now.

The game begins at this moment. No woman would ever give you[651] it, at first – but persist, be a man. Eventually, few would (understand, it's a method of testing for woman – 'is he really interested in me or is it a joke etc.'). It's for you to gain some experience – if you're not allowing yourself to do such simple thing: you're likely not be able to ever meet with a woman or fuck her. Break the program in your head: just do it – it's a simple message on the internet, do it/ nothing is endangered by doing so and if any fear is present – it's purely[652] of your own creation: overcome it – send it all despite its presence.

You must prevail so much, until you get either rejection or she writes, she's got a boyfriend/ husband already – tell, you don't believe her and require proof/ you can let go[653] then. If she would say something like 'WHATTT?!' – repeat the request. Know only the one rule of attraction, if she talks with you: she is interested in you – you're appealing to her/ she wants only to get more information and you have to understand that. Your responses have to be moral, but courageous and brazen even – it's best this way, than to show any weakness and leave. If she's underage, leave her also – it's the only scenario, when you have to stop and quit. Be persistent, ask for a number first, to call her and set up a meeting – or do it, on the chat between you two. You're only asking for a one-on-one meeting and be persistent with every woman, you've written to: unless she's unresponsive i.e. didn't replied on two of your last messages in those days (take your time, to write with them: with the only aim on your head/ the meeting). Persevere $_{x}\infty$/ independent of any – until you get it/ ignore all rest.

Be straight and forward in your responses: lead your talk to the meeting and require a phone number, so you would be able to call her. Ask for a specific actions on her part – use your time wisely. You might have sex, if you prevail at it so: always remember about the reward.
You're being tested, in those talks – whether you're a man or a boy. By showing to her, you're specific and after a particular goal: you're presenting what you've made of and she would eventually become [647] It doesn't matter in reality what you write – yet: you must still communicate a message.

[648] Aim, even beyond your scale – select the finest women: you would truly want to have sex with.
[649] To attract the woman you like to your Life: you have to be & look, the part (i.e. clothes, possessions)/ deliver a clear message to the partner – through it (change them: if you want an upper quality women – in your reality).
[650] If you're only after gaining any experience.
[651] If any had given it to you with the first message: ignore her i.e. block, on the list.
[652] If anybody would threaten you – ignore him: it's commonly a method use to scare you off and nothing is associated with it/ even if it might possibly be – the attacker would have a serious trouble, #1.2 with you and with the Laws. Avoid to be ever dreaded by anything or anyone – ever: in your whole Life from now.
[653] Never, before// skip also if she has given you a true reason why she won't meet and in her of lack of response.
[654] She knows your identity: it wouldn't be smart for you to do it/ tell it, her.
[655] If it progresses to: either ejaculate on her face first or tell – you've lost your drive to fuck her and leave.

It would be left for you: to find the answers why/ if you're not agreeing with some of them or they seem to you wrong – it's the winners formula, so be or become one/ by adapting or ejaculate in the loneliness of your home.

[656] If you've haven't stopped to fear women – repeat it, with another one/ yet, limit it to three such approaches only.
[657] It's actually what they're after. Know it, seriously.
[658] Indicating also: a troublesome experiences in the past – to avoid/ forever.

In this realm – you have to be wary and thoughtful: what partner you accept and let into your Life.

Levels of attraction

Physical, purely (I)	You just like what you see and you want to have sex/ maybe more with a person – you're not suited to self, you won't be with this person because the desire is purely physical/ for pleasure. You would never be with this person.
Physical purely + Genetic match (II)	Is characterized usually by the slow of the time – when the partner is suited to you, on a genetic level i.e. resembles a desired face, figure and other characteristics of your ideal match. You would easily fell in love with such person, although if it's not your soul partner – when, the love would end: you won't be ever happy/ risking the worst, i.e. name-it.
Physical purely + (Genetic match[659] +) Soul partner (III)	Is experienced on the level behind the eyes and can be described as a connection on the deeper level, some kind of a metaphysical 'pull' to the person, yet not[660] physical – purely spiritual. When such attraction occurs: it's nearly always accompanied by the full-blown physical lust/ it's the best partner. You would be with this person, even to the end of your Life[661] – love would be mutual, shared and you would be the happiest person in the World.

It's vital for you to recognize the three levels of attraction.

Be wary about those three levels of attraction and accept what your goals require.

/ It's however advised, to: accept only partner accompanied by the spiritual connection as it would provide you with ALL the sought.

[659] It's a possibility/ however first which comes to the mind, is an 'object of worship' because it's a rather different, spiritual experience – a person 'to search with a candle'/ i.e. something 'non-existing' yet so real.
[660] Like something would want to connect with you, but on the hidden level: completely behind the eyes – exerted over your heart, within/ which is immediate and present from the first sight.
[661] Nothing to be truly afraid, in reality: as it's your dream-like i.e. "impossible" partner/ in match (imagine-it).

It is futile to seek for a new partner on your own, by yourself – unless you want to be truly happy. Below, it would be demonstrated why.

Everyone holds an attractiveness value in his mind, of his own person – based, on an established data which he gained[662] throughout life, or of his own knowing. You might think for instance, you're 10.5 out of 11 at the time and based on it: won't accept anything less than a 10 partner, in your eyes. This value can change, circumstantially or through effort.

For a perfect match, who would resemble a soul partner and everything ever desired, not only the attractiveness value (V) has to be of similar value. Morality/ moral development (M) of a partner holding similar level of moral energy, #1.1 has to be on a like-level – it's known, that if you were in the last relationship the less moral person – now: your partner would be of less morality. Zodiac (Z) has to be matched also, #4.1 to provide the compatibility of characters. A person must preferentially also represent the same pattern of thinking (P) as yours: he must, be similarly[663] as you – either an introvert (takes energy, out of silence/ being alone – his own world of thoughts and inspirations) or an extrovert (draws energy from being with other people). Besides, similarity of goals and thinking (S) is essential. However, worth of the soul itself counted by the number of experiences, knowledge resulting from it and skill counts the most and it's the core (SV) of the value. Many other variables add to it like looks/ confidence, age, nationality, etc., so portrayed – it's not something which can be found or handled, on your own.

HOW TO GET A PERFECT PARTNER

Use both of them.

I. The partner is introduced, when taking the process/ #2: as it's required or helpful in the period of testing i.e. after your mother dies/ you'd be somewhere, where – nobody would clean or wash your laundry, so you'd be wasting your time: not working on the goals at full – in your way, would be placed a perfectly-matched soul-partner, who would enhance the time you're spending on the realization of the tasks.

The last, might involve you also to extend the topic in this section of knowledge at the required time/ being brought, when essential – which is, the best way to get as it's 'free'.

II. It might be, a prize you would set for the completion of the task – taken, in the process, #2/ it has to be believable for you – if not, you have to build your way up: so it would become, possible for you to believe (as it's more costly).

Laws, would deliver a perfectly-matched soul-partner for you – it's absolutely guaranteed/ the highest guarantee – you can get in this realm.

Question is only: whether you would be able[664] to deliver?

[662] Including ALL the previous incarnations of the soul/ #1.11xE...
[663] As in relationships: introvert is sucked out of energy by an extrovert partner (as he 'charges' when he's left alone, sometimes only wanting to socialize or be with others – extrovert/ expects to be all the time with people, because he is charged by those contacts).
[664] You're always able – if your prize is only believable for you/ #2: although, would you deliver? It's the true question.

As you see: everything in this realm, has[665] to be earned.

Better: start the process, #2 – now.

[665] Believe it or not, but women – especially those beautiful: seek for somebody different/ than the whole.
Follow the process/ #2: and you'd become one; it's the secret of attraction.

4.14. Partnerships/ for men only

Sex/ love has a potential to sink your Life and waste it all – and in essence: it's all about putting your dick into the vagina. Everyone, who thinks differently: makes only a smoking mirrors/ outer reason to disguise the real one – under the name of something imagined, because it's only about the sex[666] for a man/ maybe then, something more. However, it presents the highest danger to the process, #2 as you would waste your time. Best, is to fell in love to prove yourself – escape when, the selected partner wants a date, having a very good reason to forget about her yet only few are tough enough to perpetrate such/ forgetting about the goal – their purpose.

You have to first understand one crucial rule: when she's a girl/ woman – it doesn't means, she deserves anything because of it. Your respect has to be earned, it's not free and more or even equally she has to deliver, you. Her genes, are only valuable to the point of somebody wanting her and they're loosing on value each day. It's hard, but it has to be this way.

It's not of the fact, where if you put more value to the relationship or start to treat her more than a queen: the last would fail – your self-perseverance would drop and all the attached, but about how women are treated and perceived in the society.
Each and every action of her, should be either punished or reinforced with appraisal, because you have to condition her to serve your needs – like a dog, who is trained by his master. It's harsh, but it's the way it has to be.

If it doesn't aligns, with your morals – you've lost.

If you've found a soul[667] partner: felt in love with him – be faithful. If you're not willing to – don't engage in the first place. Use your time, if necessary until you would grow up to such decision.
If not: you would face a disaster – both on your side, and on the partner's track. It's a 5-minute pleasure, not worth it – in any case. Giving to suck your penis, it's like a woman gives to lick her vagina for somebody – so understand – it's a betrayal also. Avoid to engage with any of the women. It's never your fault – she's the whore: understand it, leave her immediately if confirmed/ without thought – when violated this unspoken agreement. If you desire the change, split up with your partner first: on paper/ usually, if it's required[668] to.

[666] At least, on the very beginning – until ejaculation/ up to few of them – it's the purpose. Losers/ those who allow to brainwash themselves by women – believing in something else: typically won't get any fucking/ hard to grasp, you...
[667] Avoid to seek it.
[668] She's only yours – when you're fucking her/ let your approach to loyalty be known to her – tell it and mean through the demonstration of your own behavior. Betrayal is wrong, because

Refuse to let her anywhere on vacation with friends, particularly in the first decade of relationship, because it's the time when laziness and lack of passion might get in and women employ two techniques of passing their genes: first, husband which is the best and second, a model who looks sexy – is talking good... alcohol and done deal. Men, on the contrary – employ only one and the same: best sex/ love partner. Avoid to get also too on such vacation, because you'd might be tempted.

Employment of those below tactics is the blueprint for a happy Living in relationship – test, before you reject any of them.

you wouldn't want to raise not your children – same as to Live with the consciousness that you've got wife or a girl: whore/ similarly as she wouldn't want your resources, to be shared on not her baby – skipping the loss, of a partner/ reduce those chances, cut any opportunities. Allow her however to meet with her friends, freely/ keeping always: a close eye.

It's essential to remember to never trust your partner completely and always/ even covertly later: check and verify everything – look for a sign of any, even smallest lie and be very watchful on it.

Avoid to put any faith[669] in your partner. However, be faithful to him. It's best to set what's your and what's her if you take a marriage/ split, i.e. settle EVERYTHING/ in case you've didn't spotted it: get to a common agreement, think those things[670] through.

She has to respect your decisions: the highest pressure has to be put on this matter. Never let go leniency into even small things/ stay with your once-made decisions: avoid to bend them over anyone, unless they're destined to change. Avoid to let her anywhere, where the potential for betrayal is high. Do your work, #4.11: understand her character & traits, but disallow yourself to believe – demand evidence.

Give always woman an apparent choice – "beer" or "vodka" to trick her to think that her voice matters/ just like in an elections, i.e. when you want to reach the specific goal.

You have to be true with women – never lie and they would appreciate it.
It's not only adapted to relationships, but to Life in general and it would be repeated: count on yourself, only. Act always in your self-interest, first. Secure everything, you've got – to be in full control of yourself: your Life and your destiny.

Use ostracism (no contact, exclusion from relations) in a face of trouble: let the partner know he did wrong. In any other approach – mirror her moves only, avoid to ever foresight or predict: mirror them/ it has to be known, what she can expect for her behavior. You have to become strong – the toughest person in the relationship and stay this way, to the very end[671] of it/ of the most crucial importance.

You have to continually keep the flame going: do something time to time, which would make it memorable for the partner i.e. bring her to maximum of excitement like an hour when she would be burning from the desire and beg for sex – to leave her then, saying you must go somewhere urgently/ something moral which would cause a lasting memory/ positive impression – would make her think and tell about it – with smile, her friends// just as.

Accept it AND adapt to it, or die[672] in another agony.
Be always thoughtful in the process: what she has of me/ what I'm serving for/ what's her agenda, etc. – looks for any signs of betrayal or change of thought and be receptive to it, investigate the causes. Know, that when you've married or closer together: the game, has just[673] begun.

[669] Know, that when the child is born: it becomes – the most important thing in her life/ it would influence her decisions, so be forever very weary of it.
[670] Have it on the paper: signed and secured/ distributed in at least ten copies, concealed and known to various people which are not known to you/ i.e. make a video where she reads it, she knows of: just in case – to secure your stance.
[671] As an authority, ruler – brain of the relationship/ leader, in some sense of way.
[672] Have always an escape plan: if, when everything fails/ possibly with not-known another child – successor to the family fortune. It's worthy to have also two undisclosed locations: where you can Live i.e. summer cottage and a trailer. Think it all through, because believe it

You'd better best to know the other person, before you engage into any relationship/ #4.1.

Always remember your own value. Never sacrifice it to any woman, independent of how wonderful she is and your Life: would change with them.

4.15. Increasing attractiveness

For a man.

Take the process – #2 & 2.1.

[674]/ –

For woman, it's about sex – sexual arousal, for the man. Know, that you – yes, you: could – by implementing few items, make ALL the difference between SEX DESIRE and NO SEX DESIRE (i.e. grade 9.5+ vs. 5). It's how simple, the men are – all, of them to be precise.

It's through your own work on yourself – on your sexual appeal: can be with a millionaire or the average Joe who is able to work physically, for you to could go once a year on a joint vacations for the money borrowed from the bank/ which would you repay mutually for the whole next year.

It's all about the desire – the desire to FUCK. You have to become a master, of excitement/ look upon Heartbreakers (2001) with Jennifer Love Hewitt/ which grabs the essence, of it (beware: it's a double-edged sword, Karma/ #1.2).

Looks is, an essential must-have at the beginning of it. Without it: forget, about ever anybody being interested in you/ or a gay.

or not: women are of the highest danger to your Life due to emotions, attachment involved. Take them very seriously and treat with due respect.

[673] If you want to save the marriage: take all your belonging and your partner & leave to a place – where she could not lay on anybody/ where the only savior is you.

[674] It transforms your consciousness/ your DNA changes: is embedded with new traits, thinking and qualities which is essentially attractive to every woman (they've might not admit it or encourage on the outer, but their looks and interest tell the whole story). Your genes – i.e. you 'suddenly' become much more valuable/ #2// it's how it is, in reality.

Proud, always happy and engaging – tempting/ it's achieved through straight stance – acting boldly, courageously and as queen which beautiful[675] woman do.

Smiling – it plays, the crucial role. It sends a message: I'm attractive, I'm confident, I'm interested in you. It's appealing – you should always smile/ to [676]everyone/ yes! correctly: when possible, as it brings openness and invites a person to engage – he's doing right.

[675] It's not about the physical looks that much, than the physical side of it: because ugly woman for one man, is a queen to the other.
[676] The reason is why you have to do it: a friend of a friend, might have a friend which would mention you and he's the target/ smile all the time as you can only gain through it.

Being innocent – playing to the men's fantasies. Not knowing how to do it – submissive to the point, childish/ attractive.

Be active, engaged, caring – in sex, relationships or daily matters. He has to know: you're after him and his being loved.

Makeup, slight – only extending your attractiveness, which lies outside you – can make an enormous difference. Hair, shiny – long and enhancing all of you, matters. White – maintained teeth, high personal hygiene also do the job. Besides, some men perceive a woman: there is nothing more extinguishing desire, than pants – not strings/ thongs and flat shoes – not heels and some say, yet also of no-importance: pajamas/ clothes play an important role in what you portray to the outside world, so choose them wisely. The lust for sex in man, has to be all-time high: know it/ adapt to it. It's so easy, to just take care of you and have an idea for self. Scent, all the pheromones surrounding you – might play a major role in attracting the dreamed partner.

Present, but not for everyone. Unavailable to the end, like a glass mountain which never can be conquered, to the very top.

It's all a guarantee of success and tactic: which works and makes wonders, to change your life forever – from this very moment.

Take care of your physical[677] attractiveness.

Through taking the full restoration of health, #3: you're able to loose weight, have an ideal – sexiest figure possible, achieve an ideal skin/ darn, enhance breasts etc. – glow with full health – which is attractive to every male.

In case of women: the chance for change, is so immense that it's choice between TO BE/ desired, or TO BE IGNORED/ be all-life ignored.

It's really worth, to take the effort – ignore, all the rest.
Begin today.

[677] Man is interested in impregnation: if you would be a suitable genetic material for his sperm – he would become truly interested in you, which would allow you to rip the benefits. Your task is to glow with sexiness: sexy clothes, posture, talk and walking might enhance it/ take those lessons.
It's required from you to create an irresistible sex desire through physical looks, so he would be able to achieve erection/ fuel the desire/ be a little unavailable after a period of first interest in him: and it's yours (easy).
The process works for both of genders, take it/ #2: the same rules apply as for men (for soul partner).
It was always believed that women – are a better mothers than men.

Those, who are unwilling to adapt, because of their i.e. your beliefs/ who are not to be judged – lower their chances on finding a worthy partner.

TIP

Nirvana, #1.1: causes on anybody who achieves it – to become of immense[678] attractiveness to the opposite sex[679]/ independent of the looks or the state of having.

Adapt, OR loose in the fight for the finest, #2/ Life becomes much easier when you do.

A man must attract with wealth: keep with character (confidence).
A woman has to attract with looks: keep the child.

[678] The ever-searched: 'pussy-magnet'/ in a direct sense of this word (works for both genders). Your face, look & character – transforms, as a result of the power field – you're surrounded by, #1.1.
[679] The same-sex, also/ but if one, is only a homo (as a footnote, to the content).

4.16. Things to remember

Man, is always the person responsible for the leadership in a family/ partnership – if this is disrupted – he's already *l*ost. Women need upbringing, because they're more imperfect than man and would ruin you completely: if you only show your weakness/ lack of character and toughness or become lazy at reinforcing the desired behavior. The most-pleasant period of love, lasts up to 4 years and in this time you're expected to bring a child to this world: avoid to do it, and you've wasted your chance.

Know that many women are cunning, more thoughtful than men – they think too, most of them are highly life-oriented, so question yourself all the time and forever about cui bono/ who gains, who has interest, what she gets, why she's here – be realistic, about it. Early warnings might be, when the partner stops to adore you – laugh from your jokes or starts to portray a fake smile, changes his attitude – it's all visible/ take an appropriate, moral action and be true with each self.

Stay and be tough, to the end.
Forever be the stronger part in any relationship.

Avoid to get ever yourself overrun, by a woman in the power-struggle which might arise. If she decides to leave – allow her, to do that.
Know always, that if she loves: she would come back/ stay all-time strong and be active in your relationship.
× If a woman would brainwash you – you've lost her/ avoid, forever: listen to self only.

The children have to be brought up and raised with the iron discipline (numerous chores combined with the systemic serving of physical punishment, in a moral atmosphere and guidance). They have to be learned that money have to be earned, through work and nothing is for free/ secure your wealth, let them to your fortune X years after your death or when you reach the specified age as they ~~might~~ likely would kill you for it one day (if taken the process/ #2). Pass on your beliefs early to them, so you would insure their survival and well-being/ passage of your[680] genes – your true investment.

Keep your attractiveness always at the highest level and increase it – everyday.
Never stop to work on yourself and develop/ lack of it: will lead your partner to leave.

Word of advice: if you don't have the money or you've didn't succeeded in your personal Life/ #2 – never be after any women.

[680] Ensure – they're yours: by doing an independent DNA tests, in secret – they're cheap/ even after ALL those years.

HOW TO UN-LOVE[681]

I. Slip secretly your partner – knowledge from #4.11[682]/ with its whole content.
II. All, which is anyway meaningful for you and could trigger memories of the partner/ i.e. shared moments – remove and place to a dark bag: which you would give to somebody who would keep it and never won't return to you.
Associate your partner with all the worst, by bringing back your memories each and every moment where it didn't acted as he or she supposed to/ was evil to you/ fucked things up/ etc. Replace them in your mind, by seeing all those situations and reminding them all-time when any thought comes to your mind – you have to see all-wrong about him, realize that it's not for you, it's not the person you've been forever after/ that it was a mistake, experience to forget and continue to Live by taking the process, #2 which would absorb you...

It's all about enhancing your value[683] and Living the dreamed Life – if it's violated: it's either time to fix it or leave.

[681] Reverse, the process of love to just stop loving. If you still struggle with it: get yourself a cat or a dog/ for a time.
[682] Anonymously, all book: with the relevant part marked/ best, i.e. through a shared friend – for you, to help.
[683] In terms of the goal/ #2: basically, only.

4.2. INCREASING BODY MUSCLE MASS & STRENGTH

Independent of the motives behind: you should train on gym regularly as it's the best and the most efficient method for energizing your body, #3.27 (either on a mass, aerobics or strength/ any other). However also to be in shape – all times, for yourself. It would allow you to feel powerful, alive and a sense of happiness – increased well-being: would be felt due to compression of moral energy, #1.1 although also bringing you many more benefits (women should always stay away from increasing body mass as it's unattractive – to loose it, #3.1).

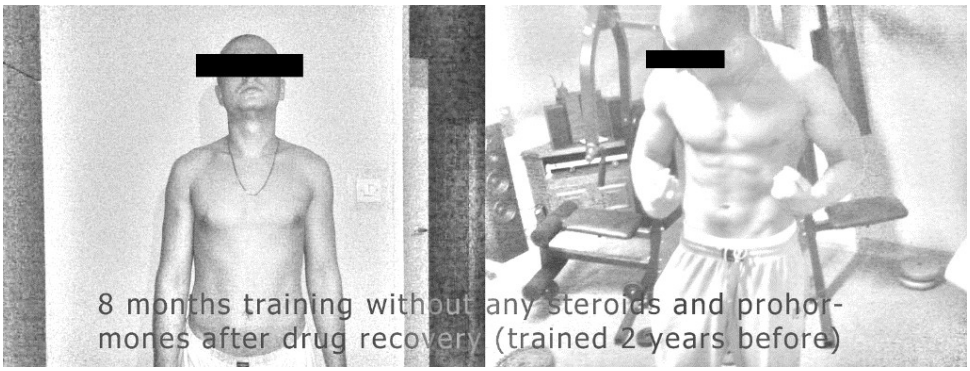
IMPLEMENT

When you would start to train: execute parallel full body cleanse, #3 (it's absolutely required for the maximum gains). Training can be started only after full 7-day starvation, in order to introduce painlessly new diet, #3.21 – do it, now.
It's forbidden for you to take any drugs, completely: including alcohol for the whole period of training, #2.2 and to ejaculate[684]/ perhaps, the most important: you can still have orgasms or sex, but you must retain the sperm inside i.e. #3.95C:II/ best – avoid.

Buy new gym for yourself (basic equipment: bench, 2 barbells – straight and slightly bent, 2 dumbbells, 91kg/ 200.6lb/ is relatively cheap).

Your task would be to increase your muscle mass first, in order to gain looks. If you've got problems with fat – take as long starvation, #3.1: as needed (usually up to couple, 7-day procedures are sufficient). You won't die, until you've got fat so it's totally safe (as nothing except it, is burned or touched). Training 2 times a week for 1.5, up to 2 hour workout is fully enough. Know that building muscle mass is very easy and very fast: when you know what to do (most of people, don't).

Discipline and the complete following of those rules is essential (look at picture below to assess sample effects possible).



Worth to repeat is, that until you won't quit all drugs including[685] pharmaceuticals

[684] This alone: accounts for half – of the progress.
[685] Alcohol, coffee, tobacco etc.

– no effects would be possible, as they greatly contribute to muscle loss/ #2.2. Therefore: stop them now and start the change. All those rules need to be followed for the maximum effects (it's better to invest those 8-14 months straight and gain those 11, 17-21kg/ 23, 37-46lbs than to not).

Keep the regime.

DIET & SUPPLEMENTATION

Diet is required to build muscle. Without it – avoid to even touch any equipment gym.

USE & IMPLEMENT

Use diets/ #3.21: based on – built accordingly[686] to this example.

300g/ 10.58oz of cooked food (morning) any meals
(training) 400g/ 14.1oz of cooked food
/ add to it, a daily dose of those 2l/ ~qt of raw milk – as duty; smoked fish, [687]etc. (see, #3.98A for protein information)

You eat only when hungry/ follow the guidelines from, #3.21 (use the example diets[688] supplied, to fill the rest). Add one more meal of cooked foods if so/ and, or best up the doses to 400/ 14.1oz & 500g/ 17.7oz: if required.

If after a 3-week time: fat, starts to build on your stomach – it indicates that the diet is right and you should continue it (the last would be burnt – whole, in a starvation on the end #3.1 of period). If nothing or very little builds: you should increase the food dosages (let the hunger be your guide).

Any supplementation is redundant except HMB (Beta-Hydroxy beta-methylbutyric acid). The last, is found naturally in food and synthesized by the body naturally, although additional subsidiary is required.

IMPLEMENT

Take HMB (1 capsule containing: HMB-Ca 1250mg, including HMB 1000mg) in:

- training days: 1 caps. before it, 1 caps. after, 1 caps. for night,
- non-training days: 1 caps. for night.

It's safe.

Use it after you would confirm that diet you're using – produces significantly fat which accounts for min. 3-weeks time. It would cut new fat[689] formation completely: continue supplementation, all-time. Stay on this diet.

It would contribute largely to your gains.

Usage of steroids or other pharmacological substances, is strictly prohibited. Firstly, because they inject artificially hormones: causing harm over body.

[686] Specifically for your blood type/ selecting foods which you process efficiently – to thrive.
[687] In out-of-season milk non-availability, particularly/ switch to those animal-derived foods for this period, consumed always only as a last meal. Return then to consumption of raw milk: when only available, again.
[688] Diets are the same, but dosages are increased and first cooked meal is set to morning and the last – after training/ raw milk – animal-derived food goes the last. Use foods of your own taste: which suit your needs. Those 2 cooked doses are the most important – rest is only a follow-up to provide the required nutrients.
[689] Increasing progressively & significantly: your body mass gains.

Secondly, the last hasn't got their higher levels built naturally, so he comes back to the shape before 2-years after usage. Various other destabilize the body, have a major side effects and are dangerous to be used for this purpose. Resign from them completely as they're a waste (taking #3 process is required and only viable).

TRAINING

The purpose behind training is to damage the muscles, so they would be rebuild – much bigger & stronger (only, in the presence of sufficient diet). Below would be presented a follow-up plan, which you would perform and use to your advantage.

Frequency of trainings & time
Visiting gym 2 times a week is sufficient and you should do the training fast – up to 1.5-2 hours. Forbidden is to sit any longer/ you should do it as fast, as it's required to limit it to this time.
Use always days, which are 4 days distant from each, e.g. Monday & Friday or Tuesday & Saturday etc. /

First trainings
Always, after a longer come back: start those first couple times with lower weights, with little intensity (up to first few). If you're new to gym: make sure you would learn how to correctly perform exercises with weights and use always the minimal ones, until you won't perfect the technique/ way you execute them.

Warm-up
15 minutes of running before is enough. After, make sure you would stretch all your muscles, remembering about the neck: until you would touch any equipment.

Preparing equipment
When entering gym, after a warm-up – set yourself everything in such way, that you would have prepared equipment for the next 2-3 exercises.
Similarly: when you're ending first series of each exercise – think and prepare the next.

Training plan
Avoid to train (do 1-day extra free) if you've got any pain/ sourdough on the to-be-trained muscles (if after squeezing muscle any, even little pain is present – you're resting and waiting for its disappearance). It's absolutely required for the maximum gains to follow this rule.

Monday: Legs + Chest + Bicep + Forearm + Abdomen (if only muscles are with no-pain).

Legs.
1. Deep Squats With A Barbell On The Shoulders[L1]: 3-4 series x 6-10 repeats.
2. Lying Leg Curls[L2]: 3-4 x 6-10 reps.
3. Standing Calf Raise By The Foot With A Barbell On The Shoulders[L3]: 3-4 x 20-25 reps.

Chest.
1. Bench Press[C1]: 3-4 series x 6-10 reps.
2. Incline Bench Press[C2]: 3-4 x 6-10 reps.
3. Dumbbell Flys[C3]: 3-4 x 6-10 reps.

Bicep.
1. Standing Barbell Curl[B1]: 3 x 6-10 reps.
2. One Arm Standing Dumbbell Curl[B2]: 3 x 6-10 reps.
3. One Arm Standing Hammer Curl[B3]: 3 x 6-10 reps.

Forearm.
1. Seated Barbell Wrist Curl[F2]: 3-4 x 16-25 reps. (arms within body)
Friday: Back + Shoulders + Tricep + Forearm + Abdomen (if only muscles trained have no pain on them).

Back.
1. Bent Over Row[S1:] 3 x 6-10 reps.
2. Close Grip Bent Over Row[S2]: 3 x 6-10 reps.
3. Behind Neck Lat Pull Down[S3]: 3 x 6-10 reps.

If you're a beginner: you use this training constantly up to the desired effect, adding little changes each time (Training details: I point) and having 1.5-2.5 minutes muscle tension time with the 2-3 minutes breaks between the series and up to 4-5 minutes between the exercises. You should use average weights (to complete each series). Avoid to expect effects, before you would invest time to learn the technique, eat properly. They would be, but would appear when you would have the experience. The last can be only attained through persistent work. It's easy, but requires time on the beginning to learn.

Training your whole body after a longer period of wait from gym – speeds up the whole progress.

IMPLEMENT

Use this training plan always after each longer break.

1. Deep Squats With A Barbell On Shoulders[L1]
2. Bench Press[C1]
3. Incline Bench Press[C2]
4. Wide Grip Pull Up[S1x]
5. Bent Over Row[S1]
6. Seated Barbell Press[P3]
7. Standing Barbell Curl[B1]
8. Seated Close Grip Behind Neck[T1]
9. Deadlift[S4]
10. Standing Calf Raise By The Foot With A Barbell On The Shoulders[L3] plus +

    Decline Bench Knee Raise[A1] OR Twisting Decline Bench Crunch[A2] OR Hanging Leg Raise[A3]

    AND

    Seated Reverse Barbell Wrist Curl[F2]

    Do 3-4 series of each exercise, 10-12 reps. with the min. of 8 reps.
    taking min. 1.5-2 minutes of the tension time, on each series (to be brought back: all needs to be done slowly and precisely, with the maximum tension[692] kept on the muscles for all, the time period of each series).

Train only once a week using it, for the first 2-3 or more trainings.

You should only increase weight up to YOUR_HEIGHT (cm[693]) +/- 10 up to max. 15kg (however, after cleaning your intestines it might additionally do a 7-9 kg difference, #3). Beyond, is unhealthy and it's considered as unattractive for most women, similarly as too lean – anorectic models are.

---

[690] Look at the bench press[C1]: positive, first stage of the movement – is when you push the weights from chest towards up (exhale)/ second, negative stage – is when you pull it back (inhale).
[691] It can be modified: to push explosively and pull slowly (variant of a training).
[692] Lasting one: for the whole period of each exercise (serie) – not being even released for a millisecond (not even a split rest in the middle of any/ like many do in the training of i.e. chest – muscles have to be tensed, ALL the time).
[693] 1ft ~ 30.5cm, 1kg ~ 2.2lbs.

Gains would come: if you've only learned how to damage properly your muscles – using the right technique and with the usage of proper – properly prepared, diet.

REGENERATION

Muscles grow: when you rest/ i.e. sleep. Therefore enough of undisturbed sleep time is required (not being harmed by any of the drugs, i.e. tobacco, coffee, alcohol etc.). Use methods provided and all the other from, #3.27: immediately.

Gym requires from you and forces to change your lifestyle and pushes towards being more thoughtful. All, for the sake of gains: conserve energy, always.
Understand, that you're able to only ingest a specified amount of energy – daily: the one which is supposed to be used on building your body muscle.
However, it is consumed on your works performed everyday. Little things, like e.g. raising toilet seat everyday or fixing your bed, change of your clothes morning and evening – stack up to staggering amounts of losses during the year[694].

DO

Eliminate all that is redundant, wastes your time and energy and doesn't brings you more benefits than you put/ use #0.1 programming as an obligatory, to serve best your interest – making it all, an automated habit.

Cloth/ cover yourself properly: particularly when sleeping – to stay warm, because your body burns lots of energy to keep your body core temperature.
Make sure – you'd get enough of it, #3.27.

/ Adapt further ideas, #2.01.

You eat – providing the nutrients required to the damaged by training muscles – they grow, with the rest needed/ when you sleep. It's easy.

Wait 3 months to assess the effects (it takes time).
Strict discipline is an essential must.

Keep it serious.

[694] Look up, #2.31/ to get an idea.

Training 1. One exercise only/ each training (in order).

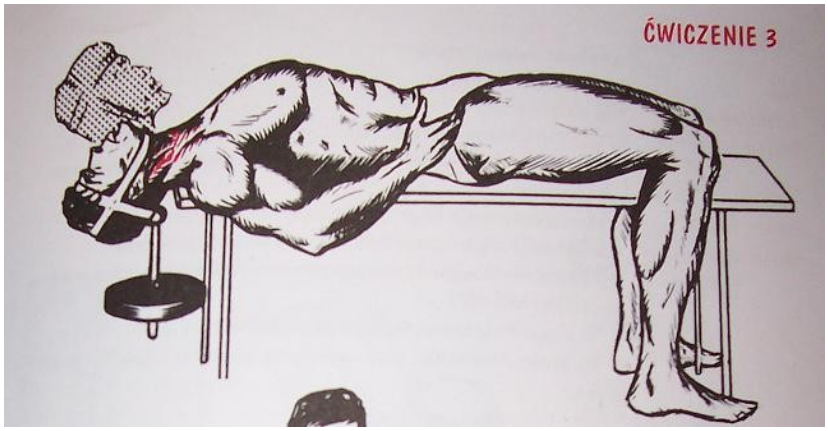
N1. Sitting Neck Curl.
N2. Side Lying Neck Curl.



N3. Neck Bench Curl.

4.3. EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION/ UNDERSTANDING OF THE BASIC HUMAN DRIVES AND DESIRES

Communication is an art of timing: you have to learn to understand self, before you would become master at it, as it's all about the experience for the speaker. You have to learn the silence. Your speaker can only process information at the tempo of his own words. There is nothing more wrong to speak too much, place too many information and it's vital: to talk about only what's interesting for the first.

To influence: you must possess own value/ the desired, of what is to your speakers. It might be muscle, as some are especially drawn to those in their eyes important (by being big, in the example – #4.2). The last might represent wealth, in general – knowledge or some creative skill, interest or understanding. To be able to fill one's desires/ wants is the key to successful persuasion and cooperation, in exchange for the advancement of your[700] goals.

Ability to make/ create a connection (rapport) is essential. You've probably spotted already that you don't go along certain people or can't open them to you/ or they don't want to be responsive towards your person, either your ideas. EXPERIENCES and achievements, the type of person you are: your way of being, acting – is what counts for the others/ with morality, as the base – less your property or accumulated wealth.

First and the foremost: you have to be a likable person. It's achieved through the attitude, experiences and stance similar to the object of your influence: therefore, it's required for you to have a multitude of such lived-through situations, where it can be helpful to establish a common rapport with the subject. Telling it more precise: if you get into environment where certain traits/ actions are required to extract the information essential to your goals – you have to play your part and it's not easy to be faked. Although character and attitude depends & can cover your lack of knowledge: abundant versatility of experiences is required to be simply accepted, as only then – the trust can be won, over anyone. It's usually achieved through own striving in the field of importance/ interest to you. Be however, on the constant watch because trying too hard causes suspicion/ best is to have a person, who introduces you to such circles or is your protege/ despite, it's not always possible – refer to those known, are familiar with.

To influence/ successfully communicate: you have to speak the people's language/ have a knowledge and understanding – usually first-hand of their experiences or be touched by a partial events that appeared in their life.

You must to be of value to them, to their goals: by having a knowledge/ resources/ contacts which might be to them helpful.

Avoid to ever share the immoral side of your personality/ reveal[701] any associated.

[700] Either, agenda.
[701] Unless it's a past, and it's required to.

It's not without a reason, anyone is with you and accepts your actions/ or you as a person – see it, know forever.

Share the moments.

Those who don't have: won't have, because it requires change – firstly of thinking/ belief system, which leads to actions required. They would always be there and their misery would only strengthen, in time. Inability to change your faith, in what you believe[702] – is solely responsible: denial to adapt, to 'what is, and not as you want it to be', the side effect. It's the nature of things.

It's wrong to don't learn on your mistakes/ to repeat the same ones, once a while yet most act as so. They won't never learn/ they won't adapt.

They refuse to do so.

And it's what they get.

Self-delusion is practiced, by many who cheat themselves into thinking it would be different: it won't, you won't win[703] the lottery/ you won't win in life, unless you take full responsibility for it. Not the immoral 'rob X and be a millionaire for the rest of your life'/ which would be either way punished, by the Laws[704] and you would spend more time in a prison than it would take, to win it the straight – best way: the moral way/ #2. It must occur to you, that everything which happens in your life either poverty/ richness/ happiness or sickness is a result of your choices/ of your own making – you can look five or more years back and track it to the causes. Not everything is what it appears to be/ it's commonly right for the people. Maybe, it had to be this way.

The key to understanding people lies here: as everyone does what's the best for him at the time.

Look at the other guy: he goes with a broken jaw drink alcohol/ is in a constant party – nearly a month. It might be stupid/ irresponsible for you, right? However, what you were to do, if you were to sit/ don't have anything to do/ have very little money on a drink and have used and felt in love with drugs/ #2.2? Take it, to your Life choices which you've took in the past and for some reasons: might be stupid/ irresponsible for any outsiders.

[702] Is for you possible/ or you can accomplish: start small, even very small – #2/ yet take the effort// #0.1.
[703] Even if you were to win: you would loose all in a very short lifespan, as you've didn't changed inside (the fear of loss would be prevalent and you don't have to win, to know this – even based on the observation of your environment/ it's better not to win, in it – in the long term// in reality).
In fact: most of those lotteries, if not nearly all are an open-cheat – they gather all the numbers and exclude those crossed or use a rigged-machine to select those combinations which are highly unlikely to be crossed (at least, in older versions of the scam)/ which applies, also to the randomness of numbers chosen by the machine (winners, are commonly actors or receiving a very small share of the won prize under the guise of taxes etc.). It's a mechanism controlled by the states to take the money out of market/ not available for the citizen – to ever enter (fraction is only allowed, to be won legitimately – to keep the grand illusion: alive). If you're still in a disbelief: you think how all those grand cumulations are possible in this system – where, in those older versions of it – everybody has won time to time or even many of those participants at one time/ the grand prize? You know probably examples: yourself – if you're older. It's however questioned whether the sums of money which are provided to the public are even for real.
The same is valid for the most part of the television shows, which you see on the cable: believe it or not.
Money have to be taken from those: who don't know how to spend them and be used purposely – understand it/ adapt.
Think again/ question everything, avoid to believe – demand answers: switch it off – stop to participate, count on self.
[704] Karma/ #1.2 // see, #1.12 for ways to escape.

You have to accept people as they are/ no. #1 rule. Unconditionally.

Think about it and do something purposeful to start the change, #2.
Instead of lottery: it's forever better to invest in self – to expand your knowledge, understanding or to even amass [705]experiences.

Each one of us, is[706] essentially an animal and should be treated as one: simple. We're all plain, in the very principle: we want essentially the same, but with the different level of intensity. Everyone wants something, each one of us – has got problems. Everything else, is hidden under the guise of personality/ not speaking clearly about your desires by being self-limited/ by social rules, restrictions. Those who didn't learnt[707] to use their brains/ allow others to think for them: are easily to be influenced, cheated or offended – used for your purposes as they always have and stay with nothing (unless they've received all of it, on birth). They're often defenseless, in reality.

Everyone is simple, like an animal: he wants to eat, drink, have lots of cash and fuck/ get understood and be important. Learn and adapt it to your speaking: be directly simple, get to the point and provide the wanted – in doses.

Everyone has a dark secret or something shameless from the past and it opens a possibility to steer up his emotions/ where you can find more about self (curiosity).

Everybody is focused only on self, yet he listens to you because he wants to be nice/ accepted or seeks for the information to further his own agenda – in reality. Nobody likes to listen about you as nobody cares/ at least, the way you do.

[705] Through the process, #2/ only.
[706] Zodiac characteristics provide the profile, partially #4.11.
[707] Although, it's a continual – never-ending process.

Limit your talk to 2:1 ratio/ 2 ears, 1 mouth.
Like every animal: each one of us is lazy, therefore avoid to speak more than necessary and be precise at it – use up to 3 sentences at max, to show your points. You've got up to 7-15 seconds, at max to grab the attention and deliver each time a message.

Be open, have a positive attitude – always, towards everyone/ and everything.
Trust initially everyone, unless you've got reasons not to i.e. reputation, past surprises.
Be an active listener: be engaged in the talk – move it to the points, in which you're interested/ as they've might prove helpful towards your goals.

If asked for help: deliver it, if it's viable to you and in the talk – be truly helpful for the speaker/ speak only about what's of interest to the other person and is for him of value.

Never hold any resentment towards anyone – just drop them, at best.

You have to constantly watch on people who sacrifice their values/ or are able to – as they tend to easily betray everyone. Understand that not everyone would like you or even love and it's the way it is and should be: as lack of enemies makes you even lazier/ the last provides the necessary incentives for your development – to become better, each day, being vital to your progress. Know that everything is told, over anyone – it's to be passed further. Watch on your words, speak less.

Know, that others might have completely different thinking than yours and be always aware of it all-time – seek for the key, based on which they operate, #2.59/ adapt this knowledge to the choices you take with them and use, to your advantage[708] by delivering – what they want/ desire, in appropriate doses for the achievement.

[708] I.e. an alcoholic, who doesn't has money because of his addiction/ enough alcohol – the last: is the key to his cooperation, because he would do everything to get it/ you have to be subtle – treat those items, as a tool which allows you to establish rapport and extract the wanted information, either moral actions. The left, might involve: money, resources, contacts and knowledge or the opposite-sex partners etc. – you get when you give first, in advance.

In order to communicate effectively: you must forget about the grammar – it's irrelevant to the force of your messages as you've learnt – to directly speak with the subconscious mind of the receiver. Firstly, close your eyes and see what you think, or would appear to you when you would read the below sentences.

- Don't think about the sky.
- Don't think about how the voice of your Mom sounds like.
- Don't think about what potential carries with it, usage of this knowledge.

For the mind, it's not a difference whether you tell: 'Don't think about the sky" or "Think about the sky"/ usage of negation. If you don't see it yet: review the below examples to assess – how you sabotage your own efforts on a daily basis, continually.

- Honey, don't stress. I've got something important for you to tell.
- Don't stress before the visit at the dentist, as it won't hurt.
- Don't miss it.
- Don't allow it to fall.
- Don't forget... etc.

You would probably ask: what is to be used, then? Calm down, as I something important would be told to you.

- Remember about (instead of "don't forget...").
- Watch this.
- Keep it and watch!

You've might be now led to believe that negation shouldn't be used, however it should. "We won't talk about the money, even not about the cars or apartments." Think about it, when to use such phrases to your personal advantage/ to further your goals.

The next idea, is that in convincing you might find people who respond to negation with success. For instance they would likely always respond with "NO" when asked directly i.e. "Do you would go today with me to the cinema?" However when the questions is rephrased i.e. "You won't go today with me, to the cinema? Right?" Avoid to be surprised when you would hear the opposite. Don't think: how you can start to use it from today with women.

The next word, is 'try' and its variations. The last basically programs the speaker on failure. When you say somebody to do something – it's likely, it would be done, but if you tell to try something – mind would 'try' to do it, yet it won't be equal to completing it.

- Try to do your homework before midnight.
- Try to not be late.
- Try to buy bread when you would be out.
- Try to come to the meeting.

Do you already see where you sabotage your messages? Use instead.

- Finish your homework before midnight.
- Be punctually at the time.
- Buy bread, when you would be out.
- Come to this meeting.

It has got many applications in the real life, when e.g. a client complaints or states that competition has got a better offer/ service i.e. "It's great, but other companies also sell the same product, of equal quality so why should I choose you as a partner?" Reply, "Yes, it's true – they've got also the same product so try to contact them and find something which would interest you, before you would decide to buy with us." It's vital to never reply i.e. "Yes, other services also offer the same product, but those are weak companies" as to avoid any suspicion to the intents/ it has to be dealt, quickly.

It's essential for you to know – that those words and techniques have to be used with a sense, as something natural and appealing. The whole purpose of its usage: it's the unseen influence they carry.

The third word, is 'But'. Interpret, how it affects the speaker.

- You're such a handsome man, but...
- It's interesting and smart what you've told, but...
- All is cool, but...

It focuses the mind, on the second section of the sentence and it could be exchanged with e.g. 'despite' or 'though'.

- You're a very handsome man, despite you've could be more wealthy (smile).
- It's interesting and smart what you've told, though you could also explain better/ more profoundly the knowledge contained in the book.
- All is cool, despite your friend could already drive to us.

It allows, to change the delivered experience and imply suggestions without the conscious resistance from the speaker. However, it's best to avoid any connections with the first segment of the sentence when implying any – as suggestions.

- Other companies have also a good quality product X, but as we talk – we would introduce you with our new product.

When you start a conversation with anyone: begin to best talk about his experiences, feelings and states, then imply any thinking (adjusting your energy, thoughts to his current[709] ones – to begin, from there). Confirm his reality, first.

Begin from today, use the negation ('no') – 'try' and 'but' marks to your advantage/ over your goals.

When approaching anybody: get to his state of being, first and then change his experience to suit your needs.

Throw only challenges which serve your agenda in the long term/ never any alike. Always speak in a positive[710] view about the people, home country – about their advantages i.e. pros and focus only on them/ ignore the rest.

[709] As stated.
[710] Draws moral energy, #1.1: particularly if you make somebody to believe/ for his best outcome.

Citation is also a powerful method to imprint in somebody else's mind an opportunity, i.e. "I've read once a story about a person, who [say all what you want to do with her or fantasies, in a 3rd person perspective] however it's only a story..."

Know: you've got more of what you focus on.
If you think about not having/ lack: you get more of not having/ lack.
Form each goal and want/ task in a positive form, i.e. I must to do X, I want X and NOT otherwise.

The highest mistake for you to make: is trying to revert somebody to your thinking. It's never achieved this way. Usually words, aren't used: actions are what count and presentation, not the argument matters. Sharing/ if only the speaker is interested, is more than enough.

Share only/ never force or expect.

It only brings, the outcomes desired.

You must know your place at the moment/ which depends or is limited by the group you're in (as the 'unspoken agreement'). Never overtake the power unless you're absolutely sure/ it's required for your goals, to advance. For a rich person: he can shit on the center of the road and people would laugh or clap their hands, but do it without being one and it won't be funny to nobody. It's the hard reality, everywhere. You have to adapt to this play, as it creates an opportunity to rise/ it serves for you as a protection, because you're not ready.

Enter: get what you want → leave – it's the rule to follow.

Avoid to stay for longer.

People seek the powerful[711]/ those who can contribute to their lives – what they want or desire.
Become, one of them.

Forever do: what[712] you fear (first).
/ Stay with this habit.

[711] In their eyes/ i.e. those who have – those who can add and enhance their experience of life.

It would make you more powerful, in time.

There would always be on your path someone or something which would effectively block your goals or delay them, at best: avoid to ever be concerned about it – take the lessons and proceed, relentlessly/ forget in the next minute[713] about any failures or drawbacks. Continue// persevere.

Ignore the interferers/ they're a waste (frustrated of their own[714] failure).

Lack of knowledge and thinking – laziness: is destroying people, in general/ habits only add to the problem. It's the spot to be exploited, but only if the speaker realized his effects – i.e. outcomes: are weak or non-existent. You're required sometimes to point it out, for him[715] to see: without the last – forget about any dialogue/ effective influence.

[712] Do it always, against all odds – fake, if it's required, but do it for the stake of performing it/ to never be defeated, in any terms. Educate before, think/ do it – enter every action with confidence, #2.1 & preferably – boldness: forever.
[713] The rule is, that: the more resistance you get – the more moral is the goal itself (more rewarding).
[714] Their hidden purpose: is to make you learn/ make you think.
[715] Usually in a non-invasive way i.e. as an idea of improvement of his/ yours: current situation.

You should treat everyone with due respect/ the same, as you're treated.
Be straight, objective and mirror other people.
If somebody mistreats you: leave.

When you listen – you never interfere[716] over anyone's talk/ if you're really required to do it: place a hand – making the 'stop' sign between you and the speaker before.
When the last ends to speak: give him additionally 3, 5 up to 15 (depends of the tempo of his words) or more seconds as he could continue the talk – then, only say your phrase.
Allow the speaker to reveal as much as he wants/ is delighted to (e.g. by suggestions/ questions). You're subjected to always say the truth/ you don't have to say just everything: learn to use i.e. 'as it has to be this way', 'please let me go, because I'm in a hurry' (reasons, don't have to be well-grounded/ logical – the first, is enough).

Ask relevant questions and be truly engaged and interested, all[717]-time.
Allow the speaker to speak without any limits or restraints and encourage him to.

No grudge – based on a daily constant: you like me – I like you. You're good to me, I'm good to you etc. It's the way, to handle everyone[718] – through mirroring their moves, based on the experience they bring to you, on each contact (everyday, is separate – like a new sheet of paper).

If you want to get the desired results in a person i.e. for him to become interested in you – you have to first become interested in him. Similarly when we want to bring his attention that his breath stinks – ask, whether yours smells.
You're never obliged to reveal anything you're not comfortable with: use it, to your advantage/ despise the things you can't have.

When they push: you pull/ & inverse. You usually get out of the way: to let somebody disperse the energy/ then you agree or leave. You never argue or want to convince anybody, unless it's absolutely required to win the person favor – yet you rather do it, by the subtle suggestions: pointing weak spots 'Maybe you should take a closer look at X' and/ or asking questions i.e. 'Why do you think X' than by being direct and saying it's (his) wrong/ unless it's a necessity to say so, or of the other reasons.

You typically don't help people – unless you're asked personally for such information or they're required for your goals. You just share your stuff/ and that's[719] it.

Avoid to ever say anything about self[720] unless asked or required for the dialogue/or to pretend somebody who you're not (other, than the truth)/ be plain-simple with the people.

[716] Unless, it's absolutely required to i.e. in a situation of danger.
[717] Move the topic to matters of interest to you/ if you're not able to.
[718] They have to be taught, that your behavior is the same – as their and it's solely from them responsible on how you would behave/ without telling it to anyone (there is no past, there is no future/ yet, you take into account the past knowledge and experiences).
[719] Maybe link it/ mention, if only viable at most.

You ~~have~~ must to believe that every speaker has got some important piece of information or untapped amounts of knowledge, which might prove vital to the achievement of your tasks, in the process – #2.

Adapt.

The GOAL in communication is to really help people.
Refuse any lower measures.

Strategy of a parasite, #1.1[721]/ really sophisticated one: would be to offer you goods, i.e. a high-end, expensive 'gift' of your choosing which you would get after X time/ on this occasion, in an unspoken agreement: that you would succumb to him, diminishing your values. Speaking more clearly: you'd might be asked what you would want for your birthday (and you've might be asked additionally, what you want for Christmas – which is a month after). Typically you get gift for a 100 – maybe 200 at most each year, but now it might result that you would get something for 350/ it's something really wanted by you... If you compromise you values, because of it: you're unworthy/ won't receive anything or something of less value as it's only an[722] illusion (like with the immorality). Avoid[723] to believe it/ ever.

Giving: is the most[724] dangerous strategy – use it, wisely.
Refuse any gifts from anyone, unless they've earned or paid first/ rare exemption.

[720] In the sense: who you would like to be/ not who you currently are; what are your plans that you ~~would~~ achieve (as you were already to have, do or be there). Focus only in talk on what you have today: maybe say you're going in the direction, but no more.

[721] Your strategy, on the contrary: would be to show him that in his interest lies listening to you as he would faster rid off you, either gain something of real value – to him/ i.e. for real. The next stage in protection, #1.11X attributes: implementing various and many baits which are irresistible for a parasite to pass by – something which might serve as a reason for him to attack you first/ so he would want to fix it, i.e. a smelly room, being a little dirty – purposefully: to engage in the fights and annihilate him, in each one of them – yet, it requires skill – knowledge, experience and toughness/ all in the moral boundaries.
You know, you've won – when they run away scared or avoid to come in the vicinity of you or either start to act very nicely – serving you. Always however: keep to remember, that they're enemies for your Life and death – literally and they would destroy, rob you etc. – if they would only get an occasion/ avoid to associate with them, unless forced to.
The best way to ever deal with the danger – the one your fear, is to defeat it – forever.
The even last: involves turning inversed parasitic techniques, #1.1X – against those, who effectively block the realization of your goals/ efficiently: ALL, only in the moral boundaries (beware: you've might get yourself burnt/ #1).

[722] It has been confirmed/ received 100 (avoid to ever believe anyone: require proofs, evidence). None on Christmas.

[723] You have to also understand that anybody who requires from you something which is good for his purpose, but not pushing you towards the goals: doesn't matters. It's only another attempt to take you from the goal/ do you like it or not – or do you see, perceive it – was mindful enough, to spot it. For instance: you've might be asked to get for a 3rd-mass for your dead grandmother and might be externally pressurized 'go there to have a respect' (which is false, as you don't need nobody or anything/ or do none: to be respected) or any other demand/ threat, loosing anything. Either way she's dead: probably in another body continuing walking of the soul – it doesn't matters to your goals anyway (such & similar situations pose a threat and delay the receiving of prize under the guise – you have to be vigilant and constantly question yourself: does it pushes me towards). It ALL doesn't matter, in the end/ none of those actions & it's the thing of which: you ~~should~~ must care. Waste your time on more of such events: and you've never get to the prize/ accept it.

[724] Approaching somebody with gift or something of value/ particularly who's not known to you is the way to take it.

You want to be always on the giving side.

Additionally remember to.

Learn to save and respect everyone's time: if you're asking, be prepared – you've got up to 3 minutes of anyone's time. Be efficient at what you do/ get to the point, use the minimal knowledge.

Everyone wants the same: get the most, with the least effort/ i.e. resistance.
Deliver it, then – forever/ make a habit of efficiency.

Adjust it, to your ways as it's crucial to be vigilant and strive for the best of your speakers.

Tips.

IMPLEMENT

When you're going to somebody: approach him with something, i.e. a gift/ alcohol etc.

Avoid to ever criticize anybody (unconditional acceptance) yet if you're bound to: do it in a subtle way i.e. "It's good, however I would see it this way…/ you've might improve X etc." and refer to your own mistakes when doing so, best – first i.e. "Look, I've made those mistakes too/ I'm not an ideal/ I've started similar way… etc."

To know, whether the other person listens to you – look at his eyes, if his blinking: his interested/ use it wisely, to know when to switch the topic or raise interest.

Be calm, engaging – open and friendly when talking.
/ The point is, that emotional reactions cause people to block in themselves, disabling any of your influence over them – i.e. harm you – your agenda/ #1.1.

Not everybody has to agree with you/ accept it and ignore what everyone thinks – you're with a particular goal, in each conversation. Mutual respect is the key to openness. Be, who you are at the moment – act as a responsible person/ avoid to play[725] anybody else or for anybody (hide or display your skills/ knowledge and understanding although wisely).

Eternally seek and deliver sparsely yet not timidly – what the speaker wants/ it's important. Know, it isn't necessary an object or a thing, but i.e. it might be a group-belonging, extending his feelings of importance by being with you – ex. as you're big, #4.2: have something, possess skill and knowledge or are dangerous, important, respected etc./ work continually on it.

Be/ have reputation of a moral, trustful person – #1.1/ forever.
Use typically gesticulation when required/ use more space and have a more relaxed, slowed down body language. Placing both hands in front of the speaker eyes/ typically mingled, seeds the subconscious trust – in the presence of smile, open stance, high moral energy, #1.1 etc.

Be appreciative towards any achievement of the speaker/ praise behaviors for you favorable and show your respect and understanding towards.

Reward those who have helped[726] you/ care about people in need. Allow a person to leave the situation with face/ never attack first – only defend. Avoid to say or do, more than absolutely necessary.

True interest in other people – causes their interest in you/ stick to it (always start from being interested in the other person on each contact). Refuse to speak about self more than absolutely necessary as it stops to bring & provide an opportunity to increase your knowledge, understanding or to be even liked.

Avoid to ever speak about the people badly. If you've got something to a person: approach him directly and demand explanation/ fixing, their behavior.

Stop to yell at people or use force: instruct, #1.14: be direct – speak slowly, calmly and firmly.

[725] If your goals/ agenda requires it: you have to BE this new person for the period (of years – possibly decades).
[726] Appropriately to their contribution.

Being effective at causing people to follow your suggestions/ you – requires lots of work, knowledge and it's rather a combination/ sum of all elements which work together to speak by itself – not a formula, word or a trick. It involves angel's patience and it's not something which can be simply taught/ you have to learn[728] what works for you.

NLP[729]-books/ Social Engineering, Body Language[730]/ i.e. 'What Every Body is Saying – an Ex FBI agent Guide to Speed Reading People' & Manipulation/ Human Brain working patterns plus many more materials have to be assimilated and used in practice to achieve beyond master level at communications.

Test what works, for the types of people you're dealing with: combine those elements, to become the truly best, at it. It's never a target, but a way.

To become a true expert you have to conquer every bit and part of knowledge/ on the specific topic – to extend it, by others. It's a pyramid-like structure which involves many levels: below each one, you don't know about the next but you attain it, in time – only when you pursue the task, to become the best and stay it this way.

Life is a war/ even, under the disguise of peace. It's your personal, private one. Always continue it, up to the victory: forever/ also in communications as they're crucial to your success. Ability to influence people/ to win over their views: is paramount to your well-being, happiness and satisfaction from Life – apply those patterns today.

Invest efforts, into pursue to be/ the master[731] moral, manipulator.

[727] Why he can't/ shouldn't and what he gets/ what lies in his self-interest to pursue actions that further your agenda.
[728] Motivate people to work by setting for them small, yet effective prizes of their need/ or want – allowing them also: to see the benefits of work for themselves.
[729] Neuro-Linguistic Programming
[730] Micro-itching, in particular.
[731] It's of the highest importance as if you can't sell – you won't likely: get this girl or a woman/ #4.2, you won't get hired by anyone or likely by the ones, who you would want to work for/ #2.31 (as you won't be able to sell yourself as a valuable employer) and it continues.../ everywhere (just want from somebody – something, which you can't get by yourself). Recognize: it's the most valuable ability which you ~~have~~ must to possess in your Life/ to Live it, to the full.
Begin your work/ to become the best, at influence/ #2.

4.4. SELLING AS AN EXPERIENCE/ BUILDING YOUR OWN ENTERPRISE

You have to understand one thing: it's always the client who wants to buy from you the product, not you – wanting to sell it, to him.

IMPLEMENT AND FOLLOW FOREVER

Prepare for each single[732] sale – do your homework.
Every: single instance is very highly important, as if you would let go in even one – the habit would strengthen.

Sell always your products at a reasonable prices/ have the best[733] offer, on the market.
In an eye-to-eye sales: rise the last up, by 25-35 to 55%.
You must to talk only about the things, which might prove useful to the buyer.
You must talk about his gains, improvements and advantages that possessing the product will give to him. Adjust to the decisions and actions, he takes – as he knows what's best for him. Leave or refuse to sell: if you think it might not serve his needs.

Allow customer to speak, talk only when necessary – remain mostly silent.
Let him time to think. Your presentation should be very short and specific/ as in the communications guidelines, #4.3 (up to 3 minutes, 7-15 seconds to deliver a message).

Provide only information solely important for the buying process, ignore all the rest – unless asked specifically. Let your answers be short and specifically target, the asked issue.
If you sense a problem/ or that it would be later, especially for those below $\mu < 0.35$, #1.1: refuse to sell.

Exclusivity, bargains, services yet also guarantees, help and other which you would provide – depend: on the type of sale, but avoid to take too much liability – especially, when it's not required.

Ability to sell, is a skill/ which is to be developed. You're always in the business of sales: each conversation is a sale of your ideas, wants or others as you want to win/ convince and influence others, to get/ to be important.

[732] Know everything about the product you're selling and which might be of value, to the client/ best: use it yourself.
[733] Price, is only one of its elements/ focus on the customer service – confidence: you're always there to help/ urgent time of shipment/ security and a membership for something more – better etc.

ADAPT

You've got to be 100% moral in each and every sale, truthful[734] with the client, #1.1.

All direct sales, require practice and knowledge: knowing what to push, when to pull and in what time – it's essential. Your personal confidence is a must, #2.1: you have to believe in the product you sell as lack of it, is failure. Avoid to ever sell anything over anyone, in which you don't fully believe.

Believe in yourself, as you're[735] the best.

[734] Inability to do so: would cause your downfall! which is guaranteed by the Laws, operating here. It's applied to Life, in general – and all the contacts, with anyone.
[735] In the process: of becoming one.

IMPLEMENT

Be honest, straight with the clients – even, in the face of trouble. Know deeply, that you would always succeed, eventually and EVERYTHING would align for you in the best sense of interest. Keep calm, be patient and set out yourself/ ego and any emotions: aside.

Be proactive when searching for the potential clients: think where they could be found. You could use letters, signed 'important: deliver directly to the hands of director/ CEO' (the one responsible for purchases) to send them straight to the probable interested companies. Visit places – even businesses directly, leave a trail to your venture: where are your target groups.

When you're selling a product[736] or participating in its sale – you're directly responsible for it and ALL the effects, it causes/ #1.12 & Karma, #1.2.

To differentiate/ gain the edge: add always something extra to the product.
It doesn't has to be something expensive, i.e. a pen, LED-light or a survival card might do the job in the mass-market products.

Your company has to be recognized: let the clients know about you by creating an unforgettable image and experience. Advertise[737] in places: where somebody will and might seek for the solution or products – you offer.

Distinct yourself from others, also as a salesman/ be different, be unforgettable – memorable. Establish yourself an image of quality/ being the best, getting the best deals etc. Be known, as a person/ company to buy with.

Shaking hands introduces comfort and trust: use it/ always on the first contact. Always speak in the tempo, of clients words. Make sure, the client always checks the products before selling it to him/ especially valid for the used items. Dilated pupils – when shown the product to the customer: are a sign, where the price can be increased/ you've sold it: already. Create a habit, to ask whether he's not interested in buying your other products/ leave to him a business card.
Use the phrase, at the end: 'See you again'/ for each and every client.

Lack of sale is never a failure – it's a feedback, that you've could do better.
Know that the client would come: believe it/ for who the product would meet the criteria and he would purchase it. You have to speak clearly with the clients: 'Do you want to be healthy?' Buy 'this book' (product). Make him feel, as it's his fault by not wanting to be (in a case[738] of rejection).
Keep persistently asking for a purchase – from your to-be customers or to test your product: in a regular intervals – for a better price – for a meeting[739] etc./ use this technique not only in business, but in Life. Persistency, is what counts.

You have to become the best first: to be a successful salesman.
It's never enough to sell anything to anyone: you have to make him believe – it's the right choice for him so he won't return for the cashback, with any complaint (to stay with such inner conviction, forever)[740].

[736] It applies also to the information supplied: providing even a spoken agreement or a leaflet with the clear conditions of use, dangers involved serves as a protection. The product might be also free-of-charge/ beware. If more people are participating: Karma is distributed, evenly

The client has to chase the product – never inversely.
Make them buy: from you.

You're not selling products: you're selling emotions, they cause.

IMPLEMENT AND FOLLOW FOREVER

Your task is to always present your product/ service in such way, that EVERYTHING is secured and the only thing, the client has to do: is, 'to sign'– pass you, the money.
Learn to create your offers irrefutable, be bold.

View the products as experiences that they cause/ market & sell them, this way.
You're not selling an alarms: you're selling the security, they provide – you're selling the peace of mind – you sell the comfort of knowing your business/ i.e. place of operations is completely safe & secured. Who would refuse it?

You sell experiences/ you're in the business of selling adventure, delight and all the sought values in Life.
Your product and possession of it: gives, to your clients.

Keep it simple/ for everyone.
You're not renting house for 220 as the maintenance pay, 400 for you and additionally 9.70 for each person occupying it.../ you rent for 700 plus what they use: ALL expenses covered.

The highest danger to the sales: is the need/ as you're willing to sell the item at a bargain – unfair price only for the purpose.

X_2

Live your Life as such, to be secured for everything and never be needy or in an extremity.
Never get to this situation/ place: protect yourself by keeping a reserve of cash and everything completely secured (as each success, first starts within/ i.e. from you).

Being a successful salesman – it's of primary importance: to your Life.
Become one, #0.1.

to the contribution/ fault and each one involved – personal gain (effort invested to the cumulative outcome, as the Karma might be also positive).
[737] Make your offer/ deal: visible. Attracting attention through a red border of an item – online or a picture with a very sexy half-naked model, isn't ever enough: create something questionable, which people would seek for themselves – something intriguing, unique/ memorable.
[738] It's the reason: why it's so important to believe in a product – you sell (use it, test by yourself).
[739] Even a girl – woman, #4.1.
[740] It's: what separates the good vs. the very best (it's never enough to be the first – if you want to stay at the top of your game). Make the decision: to become the latter. Going further: he's required to reject any attacks, on this belief.

4.41. Exemplary

You're required to sell – let's assume, that you've made a game: you've sold 200,000 units having 7 profit on each – after taxation and you're a millionaire in an instant. It's all about the reach and popularity of the product sold/ leverage, #4.41X. Business is all about finding and selling a product or a range of them for profit, continually/ making by it a change: improvement in others lives.

Unless you won't do something for others – you won't have/ the process would lead you to it, #2. An examples of already existing opportunities might follow the below:

- shipping merchandise directly from the producer ex. from the countries of middle East, business-to-business, business-to-customer portals i.e. aliexpress.com/ in which they guarantee money refund in the case of fraud; 1 piece is sent right to the customer – you earn on the difference between the costs; for instance brand new original phone is for 137 and you sell it online/ local for 214/ 234; in the moment of sale: you send money to the manufacturer and he sends the item – you repeat this process hundreds of times, a month – telling shipment time is about 14 to 21 days and clearly all the other – where customer gets the product on his home address/ earning a lot, for self,

- you take product from the wholesaler ex. organic food, or even cheaper directly from the farmers themselves and you sell them/ taking only what's been paid i.e. in your online store, each week and/ or your local grocery,

- you produce a song, movie or a book/ any other work of art – to sell it once or to Live from the continuous sale i.e. of concerts, CD/ DVD discs/ copies etc.,

- you begin to serve people by providing your specialized services i.e. cutting grass, cleaning, moving property or a hairdresser etc. – you put an ad, in the local television and on the internet, to later: execute orders, expanding on new people under you and locations,

- you manufacture by self – your own goods as for instance: organic food, to probably create from them unique products like i.e. grated beets with herbs, jams/ ice creams etc. – you put them for sales, to local shops and maybe later to the big shopping networks/ you can take the resources from the suppliers instead to produce them by yourself,

- you create something which people would use and pay for it a tariff on a monthly basis, or make a use from discoveries in the science like super-hydrophobic boots/ clothes which never go dirty: by applying a special invisible layer on the product and starting your own company in this area,

- buying a business/ which can be bought at bargain or entering a franchise is an option,

- you invent a product/ innovate on the existing solution – watch i.e. Invention Hunters, Blueprint (CNN)/ to get an idea of the whole[741] process, [741] Eventually: you seek others to fix & sell their ideas for a split of profit ratio.

- you print this book you're holding now and sell it for profit (see next page: footnotes for possible profits)/ extending your enterprise by others.

If you want – you must give from yourself, first – #2. Your success lies in the continuous sale of your products/ the more you push, at higher profit: the richer financially you become (keeping the costs low, limiting your own spending is essential, #2.31 – #2.33).

Instead of profits: focus, on bringing a very-high quality product to the market/ to truly help, enhance the lives of others – not for the stake of being sold, itself. If you want – you must give from yourself, first.

In order to build a solid good house – you need to have a solid foundation. In order to build the last – you need to know how the land lays and what the weaknesses of it are: if it's sand or rock or a clay, etc. You need to design your house to take advantage of the natural lay of the land. Will storms come from this or that direction? Where will the house need an extra protection? And many others. The very same principles pertain to business, because a structure is being built.

Ideas, page backward – were presented only to show you that the opportunities are there and, that when you sell: you're becoming richer/ the principle of product-sale which makes any business. You have to get the product or a range of them, in order to sell. If you don't have products: you sell your time or are forced on any public support funds, if any apply or are available. In Life, it's what you skip: deciding not to engage in, is what guides your fate. Those businesses mentioned before, very probably don't follow your inner desires of the[742] soul, as you were doing them already yet they might take a timely part in the process, #2.

You're in need to know[743] the impact-side of the venture/ before you engage.

[742] Pursue of them, might probably bring you money but if it's not aligned with your inner, deep striving – passions, #1.11xF: you're likely to loose your happiness and Life, in general. It's a much better way, to take it: continue.

[743] To be truthful: printing and setting aside X copies of this book for future sales, to be mentioned as a possibility or carried out with such intent – wouldn't interfere much with the goals in the process, #2 and could further improve your skill of sales/ you'd be allowed to learn it, as now you've got the product. You go tomorrow or even now: to you local printing press and order to print 5, 10 or best 25 copies – each at cost of ~5EUR (black&white) to be sold for 50/ or you do it online, without the need to leave home – i.e. 3mm thick hardcover, golden signs, red ribbon and round spine of the book/ for maximum sale value (for massive-volume print, on a side: title original with comma in one line, using the 16.3pt regular #d1b048 Garamond font/ centered, 90°CW: on a black, #000 background// scale it all – if required). Advertise it as 'the most important knowledge in the world'/ to put to the test. When you would sell 10 a day/ you're each day +450EUR & sales would go up: with your experience to 20-30 copies sold if you only use your ingenuity. It's the business in its purest form, simplified – you're allowed/ leave only ALL the content intact and you've encouraged to do it, as it would enable to break the first ice in sales – the highly crucial part of life. The most important lesson, to be learned: is to forever persevere, no matter what – until the goal is completed/ all stock of books cleared, each time.

IMPLEMENT AND FOLLOW FOREVER

Introducing any product to the market: requires first thinking about its consequences for the customer. What would they be? Would it bring a positive or negative impact to their lives?

Any venture, #1.12 which drives immorality/ reinforces such behavior is strictly prohibited. It extends also to products which literally you wouldn't use personally – when you would know the consequences of their use, like i.e. fast-food chains, foods which add toxic food-enhancers responsible for neural damage, many other diseases (monosodium glutamate, etc.) and the list goes on...
The fact, that others do it – doesn't gives you any permission to follow/ ignore. If you would be blinded by the monetary: you'd be stripped out of it, out of your Life and everything would eventually collapse/ the same applies also to every intent which doesn't serves the customer's self-interest.

You're warned preemptively as you would be tempted, by it – in the process itself, #2. All would be aligned for you to just take, use the easy way out/ however, it wouldn't be the right choice to take. It would block your way: if you only decide to.

It's not even attached to being just. You've might not receive an item and your duty would be to inform about it, the seller/ ask for a refund. Yet, another shipment you've might get one unpaid item more, and you would be morally required to pay for it back – even after time/ the right choice/ #1.12-1.14. In the business side of it: you'd be tempted, to take the selections which would produce tons of profit, but by a cost of customer-experience, safety or other – where, the last wouldn't even realize or mind it: maybe after some very long time. You're required to always choose right: be binded to the monetary but avoid the love of money/ the profit, at all cost.

You would get better by impressing one person for Life, than by selling to hundreds who would not remember what impact your product has caused, in their lives – in the next, 20 or more years. It's the chain, to success.

The process, of making it happen/ #2.

X_3

#1. Your task is to prepare the business to a point, where the first sales would be possible. Then, focus solely on them as they're the most important.

#2. Do the very best, from the very beginning – as you would fail, loose motivation and waste your time: if you refuse to pertain such way.

Begin start to see opportunities there, where others see drawbacks or major obstacles. If you would search how the situation could be turned to your advantage: you would start to feel more energetic/ alive.

#3. Be honest with yourself/ be honest with the clients – always (they have/ must to understand and it helps). Think about the way to deal with your problems.

#. The key to survival is the strategic importance: you're designed to build a product which would be in customer's mind, soul and body/ referred by him, to his fellows.

Never expect or require the pay, before the product is ready to be sold or delivered.
If you require it/ as some jobs do: avoid to ever touch the money, unless you've performed the work and sold, the product.

Avoid to approach anybody (Venture Capitals, Seed Funds)[744] except FFF (Friends, Family and Fools) for the money: to fund your project. Use what you've got, can acquire/ make it a success (first/ or have something of value – currently): allow other to come buy it.

Keep it basic: product is your base, sales of it – EVERYTHING. Forever remember and know about it, as everything is only a mean to the end/ i.e. sales.

The purpose of any business, is to enhance the Life of customers. In order for your product to be profitable: it has to address a need, burning problem – be important and simple enough for the customer to make a use of it/ buy. Ensure, it would be available for him to buy or get, not only online or through a complicated procedure.

Make it simple, stupid.

Attainable.

In truth: you can earn on everything – even on being an idiot, today. You do stupid movies, showing pranks or some kind of laughable material (showing complexes, problems, care, stupidity, cleverness, idiocy, scaring, making other believe in something unknown – to make them look funny): you put it on your channel – people watch, as they love to see something original, somebody who is worse (dumber) than them or it's just for them a way to relax/ refer it to their friends, as [744] Know the rule: nobody would give you cash unless you prove – you don't need it/ test it, by yourself: first.

they're able to understand such message 'without the use of their[745] brains'. You can follow a step further, i.e. Jackass movie (100M+ profit mark on each). [746]

> It's never enough to be honest: you must be guided, by the honesty.

Two men hiking through the mountains stumbled upon a hungry, six.hundred-pound grizzly bear: one of them gets his backpack off and rushes to put his running shoes. The other one asks, "What are you doing? You can't outrun a bear!" The first hiker responds, "I know, but I only need to outrun you!" Business is all about being one step ahead of your competition to avoid being eaten. It's all about adaptability, flexibility and agility.

However, the story doesn't ends there: it continues, with the second hiker staying perfectly still[747] as the first takes off. The last gets eaten, because bears only chase the prey that runs away. You have to know your enemies. Moral of the story is that you'd might get the wrong direction or burn valuable resources, in the process of wanting to increase your business: you have to be very thoughtful, to don't get yourself eaten/ also in the expansion of it. You have to understand the marketplace and harness your energies to focus on what is important.

I

Innovation, is the key to survival: do 1 step forward, to check whether it's the right one/ continual change, adaptation – expansion of your business and improvement, is everything. If not, revert and take to account something different – fresh, or new.

You have to focus on a product: what it brings, to the customer/ not the money solely, i.e. profit itself.
- Why he has to have it, - Why it's a better solution to his problems or needs than the other one.
- Why he has to buy from you, - What advantages he would have, by using it (lowered cost, fixed burning issues, peace of mind etc.), etc.

What worst can happen? Am I able to accept the consequences of it?
If yes. Enter the action.
If no. Either resign: delay it for a time or work your way up to be able/ particularly, if the idea is worthy to be pursued (working internally on it – in the process, #2).

Embrace & learn from the mistakes. In the end, if you want to truly succeed: you have to at least triple your failure rate/ which is a result of action. Avoid to be [745] It's for everybody/ clearly speaking.

[746] Pay somebody i.e. 1,000 or 5,000 to build for you an app/ theme/ etc. (for mobile phones, computers etc. – any, which has lots of users i.e. leverage): put it on the website, sell a copy for 1; sold million copies. You're tomorrow a millionaire. It's forever about the right mindset/ poverty is an illusion of the mind: a result of programming, #0.1.
Be warned: Laws control the experience – you've might not be allowed/ #2 if you didn't took the process/ get the idea.
If you want to earn: get back to the idea from the previous page & execute it (lower from 50 to 40 if they complain).
[747] In case of attack – partner/ appropriate weapon lack: stand still, avoid to be dreaded – take your position and become larger than it – it's best to seed some distraction i.e. if you've got a food in your backpack or something – throw it and back off slowly; playing dead – taking a fetus position with a hand on your head/ for quite a time might be some salvation if all of the above – fail.

ever dreaded by any of them, however use your planning and put many thought, to make it happen: to deliver – for you to always be, the achiever.

You've got 5[748] cows on a field: you milk them everyday morning and evening (they eat grass) and you travel down the street delivering the product. You've got for an hour of work more than a daily wage of many. Innovation is to cause people get to you and milk those cows for their own: to drink the raw milk/ which is an essential, not-replaceable element of the diet. You achieve it through spreading knowledge and putting in a state of fear by telling them they would have bone cancer/ kidney stones, etc.[749] (i.e. teeth transparency, #3.21).

You only earn, when you sell.

10% investment tax, #2.31[750] applies also to the companies: top ones, use it wisely.

GIVE

Use the 10% money of your profit to give-away your products/ on samples, to change and improve your community, to sponsor a worthy-cause events.
Make the most important use, of it.

It would grow exponentially your market share/ reach and expand the whole business.

RULE

Forever think for and perform more than is even expected[751] of you.
Always add one-thing – something extra.

Do, what others don't.

Additionally.

[748] They procreate with a bull: you sell the cattle – it's highly expensive.
[749] View the symptoms, #3.98A: use forever those arguments which penetrate, #4.3 and crisscross speaker beliefs.
[750] It applies to the company money (if you run the business) and your private money (when you've got the profit).
[751] Take the responsibility for each and every step of your business/ even the one – you're not supposed to.

TO-DO

Watch most/ all episodes of series: Dragon's Den & Shark Tank to get an idea of investable businesses/ how it is – how to succeed, in general. Complement it with also with any other business material or a resource, which you could take a hand on – to increase your knowledge in the subject.

Associate with successful people, who really made it and seek for their advice/ protection: if only possible.

End it, with: How'd You Get So Rich[752] - How I Made My Millions/ CNBC, Undercover Boss (work, pays off[753] – always).

Knowledge, aside: is required. You would learn how to make it, which is simple – if you only follow the process/ by passing: you would build one – at the time, earning all the expected wealth and it would be possible through it. Success is in your hands, only – it's guaranteed, by the Laws if you comply.

Take it, #2.

\ You think once in life and you've set, to the end of it.

[752] Where you would probably find, that those are the same people like you: who believed first, learned and just executed the ideas/ something, which is real to you: if you only take the first step, #2 & #0.1.
[753] Eventually, after significant time/ the process, #2.

Give this book to somebody for who, it could make a difference.

4.41X. Leverage

It's commonly thought, that the teacher's work is more valuable than the one of an actor. It's not an issue, in the business terms: it's ALL about the sales/ leverage. Movie, made with the last is watched by a broader audience, than the 33-40 students in the class/ where, state pays from the public expense: for the service. If the listeners in the classroom would pay 100/ each – per hour of a lecture: it would probably be more worthwhile. The reason, why they don't – is, because the level of knowledge taught: can be performed by virtually everyone. The best get only paid the most, as they've got abilities, skill and knowledge which can't be simply replaced and it makes them, unique. It applies, also to the products or services.

In the market place: if an employer is able to find a person, who would do the same work as you, i.e. the physical one – he pays, the usual minimal allowed salary as there is no requirement for any other. Your value and pay tends to increase, when the work you perform – with the experience you've got: can't be simply replaced, because there is lack/ low amount of people who would agree to a certain salary. Exchanging your time for the money, is a way to earn the payment but it's associated with one drawback: you have to be in it/ do the work, to get paid.

If your inner desires of the soul, #1.11xF/ fate, involves certain work: increase continually your worth/ experience.

Establish your own company and get the clients directly.

There is always job, for the best in every sector.

If you're asking: what to do, to have constantly the money – how to be, thriving financially all-time/ take a close look and apply.

FIND WAYS: TO DIFFERENTIATE GREATLY ENOUGH FROM OTHERS – IN YOUR AREA.
You have to be, the best – not only in terms of your work, but about time of delivery – all the handling, of the client (the last, might be even sometimes more important than all the other: the peace of mind for the customer).
For a shop: it might be the lowest prices/ going on volume and giving to each order a sample of other products i.e. a shampoo, anything (use your 10% give-away, #4.41: to be spent either way). It might be sometimes required to change the location, in order to get those clients/ high enough sales: usually, the capitol city of the state is a choice, to be.
Lack of irrefutable offer/ service – durable competitive advantage might be the primary source of your downfall.

NOBODY KNOWS ABOUT YOU.
You don't advertise, clients don't know how you can be reached.
Online presence is usually not enough, if no one can find you – advertise in your local TV station, be highly – preferable #1: in the search engines under specific quotes, i.e. your_service your_city – establish yourself as the best i.e. 'the best kebab in the town!' type of advertisement and deliver the promise.

YOU'RE NOT A TRUSTFUL PERSON – IN THE MORAL SENSE, #1.1.
Morality is at price and essential, to any success. You wouldn't give your money to a crook or somebody who has got reputation of cheating their clients/ usage of cheaper replacements which brake after time or performing the work low, to have a returning-clients? Would you?

YOU'VE HAVEN'T BALANCED THE COSTS.
Your personal, #2.31 – the costs have to be kept all-time low, #2.52/& the profits would come.

YOU'VE GOT A CERTAIN BELIEF SYSTEM WHICH DISABLES YOU FROM AMASSING WEALTH, #2.51/ #3.26.
You might believe that only rich can have the money and you're not rich – it ~~has~~ must to be changed, #0.1. The same, is when you resent rich – you can't become one, because in your mind you can't be a person, who you hate as every change starts first, within.

LACK OF PURPOSE/ AN OBSOLETE SERVICE OR A PRODUCT.
If the cost of a new pair of boots is lower or the same, than their repair: why to bother.
Be on a constant watch: for the industry development and insightful about the clients/ what choices, do they take.

LACK OF CONTINUAL GENUINE/ MEMORABLE MARKETING.
You have to impress people, by providing an ad which is memorable for longer – which lasts. When somebody will have a problem in the future or his friend – would have one: they would tell about you, because of it/ it's vital.

GET TO THE CLIENTS.
Visit businesses personally and ask whether they're not interested in your services/ products.
Hire and sell your representatives to scout the country for new sales.
/ Increase the reach: set out for new places, markets where your products can be bought: increasing revenue by serving more to & of your customers.

YOUR PRICES ARE OUT-OF-RANGE & DON'T OFFER THE VALUE – THEY COST.
If you charge far more than your competitors and bring the same or only slightly better service than them – it's usually not worth for the client/ to pay for it. He would likely choose the best/ at the best cost. Either offer something really worthy, which covers the money value of the service or product and brings i.e. a unique opportunity – finding lost person as a private detective, where everyone failed etc.

YOU'RE NOT BRINGING THE PROMISE/ THE SERVICE EXPECTED OR AT A DESIRED LEVEL.
If you don't bring what's told or advertised: nobody would rather come back. If you ship a product for instance 3-weeks, not adding something

There is always work to be done/ on your business, on yourself.
Avoid to ever stop at it, as the last would cease to exist/ same as you, #1.1 i.e. development over ALL.

Rich become those: who introduce products sold to the masses in high volume (millions).
Making others, to work for you.

When, you would increase your expertise: create a variety-range of your products i.e. education materials, movies etc. which can be sold.

It's required for you, to progress.

Eventually, in the process – #2 you would get to a point where you would be ready to bring on a market new product: which would make you independent/ set you free, for a lifetime. Make sure, it's easy to use and approachable for everyone/ to be acquired.

Be grateful from what you've got or get, but always want and strive for more.
Simplicity/ need, are the key to sales.

4.42. Workers and workplace

Advices and values, to be presented: to your employees – are to be used & followed, by you/ primarily. Your task is to hire and keep: the best people, as they're responsible for the success of your organisation.

ADAPT AND FOLLOW: FOREVER

EVERY WORKER – INCLUDING YOU: HAS TO BE RESPECTED AND ACCEPTED THE WAY HE IS.
Lack of it, avoidance to comply by any of the workers: including you – means punishment for the perpetrator. You always resolve any tensions by calling the employees and encouraging them to explain their views, eye-to-eye in front of you. Unity of the whole group, is paramount to the success/ it's empowered (value).

EACH EMPLOYEE IS REQUIRED TO PERFORM AT A CERTAIN LEVEL OF QUALITY AND DELIVER THE EXPECTED WORK. Everyone is trained, knows what to do – what's the reach of his responsibilities.
You provide training. Everyone is learned, what – how and why to do it: the way it is has to be, so he don't only understands the reasons, but acts based on them. You never give up on people: unless they do, first. You encourage them, i.e. 'I believe in you, X', etc...

YOU HIRE SLOW, BUT FIRE FAST – ONLY, IF THE PERSON ISN'T WILLING TO CHANGE OR DON'T PRESENTS SUCH STANCE/ FAILED YOU: YOUR EXPECTATIONS AND YOUR COMPANY. You give always the second chance, although watch for the improvement in any of them. In the process of hiring workers you review each and every one of them: you seek for the experience – you want to see his works he's done for himself or others (projects) etc. – you hire only the best. You motivate people appropriately with the use of carrot/ stick method. You drug-test employees in the first interview and after: if one is caught using drugs – he's fired. He can come back, when he gets clean and has got one chance for it.

HIGHEST MORAL CODE, #1.1/ ITS REQUIREMENT AND ENFORCEMENT.
Any act of immorality/ less than the highest morals is condemned and to be made – repeated, the right way. You're the enforcer of morality, other workers follow your footsteps/ morality and being just, is vital to your prosperity.

YOU'RE AIMED AT EFFICIENCY: IF THE WORKER PERFORMED THE DAY WORK GIVEN – HE'S FREE TO GO HOME.
You align, to the workers and their needs/ not inversely.

EVERY WORKER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR COMPANY: IT'S HIS COMPANY (VALUE).
You[754] and everyone has to talk about it, this way/ until they believe.

PAY IS RELEVANT TO THE PERFORMED WORK, BUT IT'S HIGHER THAN THE INDUSTRY STANDARD – YOUR COMPETITORS: WHICH MAKES YOU A COMPANY-TO-CHOOSE.
It's vital, to provide the required incentive for the workers to select you.

EACH WORKER IS TRAINED TO LOOK UPON: HOW EVERY OBSTACLE/ CIRCUMSTANCE WORKS FOR HIS ADVANTAGE, I.E. THE SHIPPING COSTS AND HOW TO TURN IT, TO HIS (YOUR) FAVOR.
You've got a box: where everyone can put his suggestions with name/ surname or anonymously to improve efficiency, well-being of the company. Authors of the best, are appreciated in front of the daily meeting, before work and awarded with a financial incentives, based on [754] You've might have the ownership, but it's each worker's company and similarly as if it was his home: he has to be responsible and care for it/ its success – bonuses might be redistributed, by performance or other incentives introduced like promotions & awards, free days, more vacation time, leadership boards, etc.

Highly motivated[755] people, loving their work are the key to your success.

It won't be always that you would perform at your best efficiency, therefore do little – as you can, but do it: keeping the quality/ an example: at the end, do 3-4 pages a day – as it would compound, the work becomes[756] finished. Avoid to ever[757] let go, complete each task up to the very end.

You introduce changes, to improve the work of your employees: timely yet gradually.

In the end, making – the work for you company: a way to Live each life/ fun & engaging and after ALL: successful, at the highest level.
The techniques and strategies you would use, with the system of motivation: ~~have~~ must to be suited to your particular environment, type of performed job and vision of the company/ they have to be adapted for the specific needs and conditions of the venture itself, at a time.

[755] The carrot/ stick method involves getting a carrot (reward, appraisal): when the worker/ subject is going along your intents, leading to the realization of your goals but he's 'beaten', i.e. painfully punished – when he shifts back.
Know however that you acknowledge workers needs, but only: if they stay open with you/ such stance, is encouraged.
You treat everybody individually, based on his contribution – skill and way: performance of work/ align, to them. However: they still need to deliver and it's always the highest priority.
[756] Similarly as with anything else, i.e. gym, partnerships – any undertakings. It's not when you're at your best, but when worse or the worst: that defines your abilities and strength/ willpower.
Adapt to it and use to your highest advantage.
[757] If you've encountered a problem/ seek for a better, more efficient solution: use best group collectivism by posting it as a challenge with guaranteed payment to be granted for any of the contestants/ i.e. many people work to find a solution for a pay to the solvers: even if the solution won't be found amongst them (i.e. InnoCentive).

You represent two-type thinking style. Assess what is your dominating style and subsidiary, by matching the below.

IV BUSINESS MINDS

TYPE A Idea giver[758]	People of concept, think in an unsystematic way (not schematically). They love to create new ideas. When they finish all the thinking about particular project: they start to get bored. Creative people, despite some would say not too much persistent.
TYPE B Planner	They love to set priorities and plan strategies for successful accomplishments. When they've got an idea handled before – they create steps, to realize it. Energetic people.
TYPE C Critic	They believe, that in the run wins a gradual player, although persistent. They like to say 'no' and don't believe in new ideas. They trust tradition, proven activities – they don't do risky things. They see, what can go wrong – they've got the ability to show errors already in the conception phrase, saving money and time.
TYPE D Worker	People oriented on detail, not-replaceable in works 'step-by-step'. They think and plan methodically with logic. They execute organisation and place tempo to the work. If you give them a plan (to-do list) and show expectations: they would do wonder.

If your style of thinking is Ab[759] (A as dominating, b as subsidiary): to execute successfully ideas given in the process, #2/ which might include building a business – you're required to scrutinize them for their weak spots, in order to prepare better for the achievement (type C) and use the help of people, who can do the work – you don't have to (type D)/ all to save your time, effort, money and complete efficiently, the task. Lack any of them: might cause your failure.

The urge to bring an idea to reality, #2 creates a requirement for its preparation on i.e. dangers, which you've might not perceive as a type Ab: you've got to be secured for them in the execution of your task as lack of the last might led to its collapse/ type C would point them for you. Type D person would do the works: you're not comfortable with – those, who can be done by somebody else and don't requires your participation/ saving you valuable time. If you would lack the type A: you would likely run out of ideas, would lack innovation and risk for the project to fail – until it can be brought to fruition, as there would be no new improvements. Type B would make those ideas possible to realize.

Assemble a team/ find people, who would help you[760] in the tasks you're given, #2.

[758] Hide roles: leave only types when reading or giving it for anybody to find/ none of the styles is better or worse. They're just different.
[759] The Idea giver: planner type.
[760] Filling your styles of thinking and operations.

You’re always in a need to realize the tasks efficiently, at your best: it requires a well-organised, competent help you will get from others. Later, make sure everyone is on the right spot for the job his given and works accordingly, to his style.

Being valued and appreciated, for the worker is of the highest importance. It's achieved by working for the best, being best and through the appropriate motivation: nice words i.e. appraisal, reminders of how prized they are i.e. by giving free, paid time off-work – checking out, how workers are doing in their personal lives and helping. Finding ways, to give this appreciation is crucial: you must find & develop methods – suitable to your organization, to continually achieve it.

Care* about the employees and motivate them, properly.

As/ like your company: make it the best choice ever, to be in.

4.43. Entrepreneurial mistakes: strategies to use

Business teaches you, how to deal in Life.

MISTAKE$_1$

The highest mistake, you can take: is to invest ALL/ majority of your money into one venture (all eggs, one basket). It might take a form of putting your retirement fund money into opening a business/ on a late years, without the knowledge or placing them into a fund which gives -X% a year.

It always costs more, than it's initially thought of and it's forbidden to risk the funds, which can't be touched for the purpose.

You've got Life to loose if the business fails – your investment money would be lost: leaving you to work until death. Are you able to accept[761] the consequences? If no: ever dare, to.

MISTAKE$_2$

The most common mistake, which is done by many: is to want to virtually do everything – instead, of taking a NICHE/ narrowed, part of the market to be filled with your product. You might for instance want to build a website which would do 1,500+ things, but nothing[762] ~~good~~/ best, at all.

It's a recipe for failure.

Focus, focus on one area: if it succeeds, expand/ one step, at a time, #4.41. Avoid to ever want to do everything/ do one thing at time, but the best.

MISTAKE$_3$

Another mistake: beginning without the proper preparation, thought – plan and resources. It has to be covered before you can engage.

No, it won't be 'somehow'. You won't succeed without the required.

Prepare, before you engage – in everything. You have to find the initial resources, required to start the work/ rest, is to be found. It's likely you won't have the minority things, in the project but you would overcome the obstacles.

Knowledge, is essential to deliver successfully.

[761] What is the worst thing, which might happen? Adapted.
[762] Avoid to be or think like a woman (none of good would be out of it – for you).

When the idea, begins to form in your mind by taking the process, #2: you're required to.

Things, to be done involve the below.

- ✓ essentiality is #0.1 programming/ starting sessions is enough,
- ✓ confidence: #2.1,
- ✓ if a partner is either an asset or a liability – it has to be dropped, in the second case, #4.1,
- ✓ health, #3: isn't even mentioned – it's obligatory, with the diet as a base: enabling to complete the thought, work process – to its very end,
- ✓ drugs are forbidden, any – #2.1/ i.e. except alcohol, time-to-time,
- ✓ morality is the key, #1.1: requirement/ where dropping any immorality is an essence to even took the process, #2 – making it possible,
- ✓ gym, #4.2: would allow you to feel more energetic, alive – by bringing and saturating the body with moral energy, to enable work at your best,
- ✓ proper management of what you already have is an adaptation method which allows you to deliver, #2.3,
- ✓ knowledge, #2.5: enables to complete the taken tasks with success,
- ✓ 2.5-4h aside of everyday must-do: new knowledge increase.

/ When idea is handled to you, in thoughts – as it entered, you perform.

I. PREPARATION.
You have to assemble all things, required to start the work: plan, it through.

II. EXECUTION.
You execute, immediately any idea which comes (at the beginning, you write all – to realize them, later).

100% self/ with heart – perform the tasks: the best you possibly can – you've might use the help of other people who could do the work – you don't need necessarily to do (also which secures your survival i.e. shopping; the IV business minds, #4.42)/ you use minimal resources required to complete the work and are focused on it.
Endings are crucial: avoid to let it go – finish the work, to the very end. Motivations and leniency is at all-time low and the last, eternally high but push it to its completion – it's the most crucial part, in reality.

III. FINISHING.
It doesn't matter that you've created a product which if only published: could earn you millions. You were tasked to do the certain work: you've might be asked to send a proposal to publishers, on your terms only and place it on X, y.

If even few of them would be interested: you have to always keep in mind, the nature of the test – you were not allowed to publish it i.e. to take even a dime out of it – in such sense/ only to send such inquiries and it's to be followed. The true fact, of the last is – that even if you were to 'eat dirt' for the next few years: you're forbidden to do it, having it on the reach of the hand as it's not the goal.

Your[765] Life/ success, depends on it.

[763] To the Laws/ #2: that you're really engaged and seriously in it, to complete the missions (they're present, but you've might not notice it/ i.e. serious 'help' might be by you not experienced directly).
In fact, 99% fails THE PROCESS/ #2 i.e. miserably and you would be told precisely why.

Author would use the leverage which he built upon the whole book. It's meant to be paranoid, it's meant to be schizophrenic, so just read it/ embrace. The truth is usually more ridiculous than the myth.
The process/ #2: has 5 distinct phrases, but focus would be placed at 6 (7) of them.

YOU'RE FIRSTLY IGNORED/ BY THE LAWS.
It's a stage which typically lasts 3 months to up to a year. If you've changed in what you believe/ what is possible for you – you aren't able to hold the thought in mind and be with it, for such period = YOU'VE LOST, 95% (drop-out rate). It can be even a week with probably the smaller prizes – for you as it ALL depends on the solidity of a person, from a very good reasons: to check, whether you've didn't changed your mind or wasn't swallowed in the un-important issues of the daily life, i.e. didn't stopped to believe – it's possible for you and you would get it/ it's presumed that it only takes so much when you're new to the process due to your lack of experience.
It's also the time to TEST your want/ whether you truly want it or is it just your another second-lasting "whim".
You have to decide what you truly want for real – stay with it/ it's commonly changed for the beginners i.e. they want X but after few days they change their minds – they want now Y – it continues. You select a want/ & stay with it.
You have to be committed to it.

A PERIOD OF WORK & TEMPTATION
If you're not able to realize what enters your mind which you're always able, but consciously decide not to. You're left, as you haven't executed everything: the time it entered, at your very best – urgently = YOU'VE LOST, 90%.
You have to forever execute everything whether you like it, want it, desire it or you're 'ready' or not.
However, it's easy to be honest at the beginning (it's the prize you want, so you do – you've got high error margin).
Nothing would be perfect, but it's accepted unless you willingly follow.

This stage lasts/ month to over half a year probably to get the first prize – you might get the idea for it after completing the first tasks you were ordered to// yes, it's a Law – avoid to ever question it.

A success might be a part of it: dependent on your strivings – for the Laws to get you hooked on the process/ #2.
The only thing you have to understand for Life is: your success is only now dependent on you.
/ Give from yourself forever 100% self (to speed up your progress & get the prizes).

If you continue the path taken (85% drop-out rate): you've might now spot that it takes a toll on you/ work becomes harder, no-successes follow, but you have to continue it no matter what.
You've might not notice the presence of Laws (they're never noticed, but you later know).

YOUR MOTIVATIONS

Same as every 'tourist' might take this book and say it's a creation of somebody's mind/ not existing in the real world/ that somebody is an idiot by believing it: you know, as you've seen, spotted or experienced everything by your own and always received the prize when you've followed. It all has to be earned: to by-standers, it won't.

Similarly as vodka (alcohol) reaches its peak AFTER 1.5 hours from the ingestion – you would reach your final goal after 5 to 7 years of the process/ #2. Avoid to ever overdose the first. Focus solely on the last (of the fine years, in Life): overcome ALL and make it through everything, no matter what. Not everything is what is seems to be/ ignore the rest: realize your mission. It only matters, in the end...

You make countless realizations which everything fails/ project after project. You give everything from yourself, but it fails again and again. You encounter resistance in your mind: first signs of burnout, weakness (doubts), etc.

It's the time when "the Devil" comes in.

You've got an offer for a job which would pay you 2k from a reliable source (i.e. your 'attorney'/ accountant, 100% sure): "5 hours a week". If it doesn't helps – you'd be tempted later in the time by another perhaps very much higher-paid job/ however paid work just isn't something appealing for the author, so it wasn't exploited...

Your friend says "look, I've met this hot chick and she has brought her friend/ i.e. on the New Year time": you go there and BAM – another MISS Polonia for YOU (pictures don't give it, check the official website/ just because you have taken the process, #2/ i.e. launched something unknown to anyone, in this reality). Author might be paranoid, but not everyday you get to meet a women who outperforms the porn actresses in the movies you watch (try beat him but most of them are weak genes, in reality). The best woman, at a time appears – in your reality for you to just arouse your desire (send by you-know-who). She would dance with you – playing uninterested/ she would kiss with her friend on your eyes to just make you aroused/ gives you her number. There is nobody on this planet, who wouldn't fell for the temptations who are just made(crafted)-to-you/ i.e. "the best genes". [2]

You've got 50,000+ and just know you can have her despite it would require your efforts/ you wait as it's not the goal.

Then on the next meeting after 'are send' 4 women, where another woman – to take: is for you, being with her friend from the above story – just ridiculously beautiful women/ you know: like when you've hit a jackpot in the slot/ fruit machine – things just don't happen at random/ confirmed. All yours, to take/ you just know (it can't be explained/ it just can't). You've got now a choice.
The next beautiful woman touches you 'accidentally' for a millisecond and she lets you know it, i.e. eye looks – movements, in talk and subconscious reactions (even such things as legs are pointed towards your direction/ if anyone would ever spot it) for you to just know it – you're the first she wants. You've got her number as she has given it to you/ SMS i.e. text message would do. She's just slightly less than her friend, in beauty but still impressive. However it's not enough for you; you've got about 10 hours – it's your girl: which is your time for a decision – purposefully, as she'd knew despite her impressive beauty – it's not enough for you/ doesn't looks as she would 'play lottery'/ seeing you captivated by her friend). The 'best' however in the same event would sit on your knee, even start to preliminarily test you// 'nobody has seen anything' i.e. to arouse. Your friend hits a jackpot, because you have refused.
The best i.e. might visit you at home with her friends/ she's a virgin, i.e. "friends share their secrets".
It's the purposeful work of the Laws to get you out of the goal you've set.

For those women it won't matter where you are/ whether you've left psychiatric hospital, can't talk – they would be attracted anyway as they know you would get to yourself (and probably you're not the real you). It's ALL purposefully so designed for you to loose your mind.

You have to just spend some time her and it's ALL that's required (purposefully so established to take your time, get hooked and to abandon the GOAL). You've got means – you just know (that's the point = if you take it – you've LOST big time, again because you were GO/ persevere despite everything: set the goal and go to it…

Forever*.
Keep this knowledge concealed from anyone: for yourself only – play & be your part.

It's the only way/ you won't have in another or would tire yourself to death & die (likely: drink yourself to death).
At least you won't never be truly happy (as it's hard to be told to you: who didn't experienced the path).
It's a very pleasureful way, by the way.

taken from the goal). Laws would win/ literally be delighted they've fucked you in and what a weak, lame person you are = unworthy. In the moment: you've abandoned your dreams (let it be, named as such) because you've took something not leading directly to them.

Various pressures and manipulation techniques were used. Everything is set to just take: beware.

You have to understand NOW – WHY it's your FAILURE in the process when you would meet with such beautiful woman (NOT a soul partner/ as the last, has a purpose). You're giving your energies (by holding in mind) to the other 'god' i.e. pussy/ betraying the Creator as you've been easily swallowed by the non-important i.e. you split the time in your head by thinking about the non-goal-related (woman, anything else irrelevant to the GOAL). However one-time sex or give her to suck is excluded, but no-woman (not a whore) would agree to it, at least: immediately (and you're only allowed to it)/ confirmed. You have to take it seriously.

You just have to adapt.

YES	x NO
Enter it	→ Skip it.

Gay? I've kissed with probably 200+ women: everyone except one (not because of looks, but of the 'dirt' on her mind) might be your wife. Suddenly they've stopped to laugh: focusing their attention on other problems is the way to play it/ but started to talk about 'lack of approach' (i.e. not gay). Nobody understood why I've didn't fucked any of them/ nobody ever would. You have to persevere in the World you Live in, because lack of it might not be able to realize your striving/ as required by the process/ #2 (friendship, contacts and still knowledge to extract was required from those people, attached: to advance your agenda/ any 'turn-left'

/ NOTE. Independent of the age – you're still required to pass the process/ #2 as if you won't: you'd be degraded to a lower plane (but before: a ~~likely~~ [subjectively] ugly woman, to repay the debt). It takes 5, to 7 years as low/ & you get – reach everything after its completion.
As you're still required to build the desired traits along this lifetime (as a plan of Creation, #1.11xE).
If you've not had this opportunity which is a false – use the anger you've build to this moment.
Look at ALL your life with a straight – true, eye.

You've had the ability to realize your dreams, but you've went from the path, somewhere.
Fix this mistake: starting – today/ #2.

might spoil the influence required, to possess the desired/ as you still have to take help from the other, i.e. make it use people to advance). Nobody would understand. You have to play your part/ as required, to be kept in the system – as you still Live within it. Fail to do so and you've might get rejected, by everyone. The system is your enemy. It's ALL an art of directing attention/ learn it.

TEMPTATIONS are usually unseen, appear out-of-nowhere and are just natural to be entered by you: principle above applies (is this serving me OR not, i.e. BLACK or WHITE – THERE is no gray or hue of a color). You enter only those, who serve (or not go beyond a day and it's aligned with the goal – in time of relax for instance, i.e. a 2-day "trip" / 3 days overall a month). You ~~have~~ must to always think from the BIG PICTURE/ not only related to the visible as you would loose miserably. ALL those events have a reason and make only one mistake and your Life is virtually over. It's hard to recover after each one and you know it.

Even knowing it ALL – won't protect you as you ~~have~~ must to think constantly.
Then you hear later where you've abandoned plans to get her that she wasn't 'interested in you at all' and you hear it suddenly (to get on your ambitions// 'as a last attempt to get you back' from the goal, itself). Everything is used.
It's ALL purposely so designed, to look 'random' and to get you off the path chosen. You're led forever through a path of the highest development which not always might be moral or not: it's where you learn, the most & where you have to go, accept and advance due to it. Experiences which I've met on my way won't probably relate to your path/ i.e. your inner motivations of the soul – fate. You would have your own/ suited, to you – by you desired, to be experienced even if they've might be painful later: particularly at the beginning.
You have to accept the pain/ it would probably be prevalent (the pain of failure, unfulfilled hopes, etc. but would change as you advance in it/ as you would transform your in-born thinking, about it).

As with every drug – you've got a period, when it's pleasure/ then the intoxication symptoms set-in: the same is with women. Learn it. With or rather IN Nirvana/ #1.1: you've got the first ALL-the-time, similarly as with the SOUL partner (might be not the most beautiful in the World, however it's likely sure to be). However what remains, counts...
It has to be earned/ as only weak and defected might enter your reality, without.

I was released on a day pass from the psychiatric hospital after being a month closed (cheated later every dose they've given to me/ 2 first weeks slept as you've couldn't skip it & the IV's): took MDPV (the only drug where my red lamp lit up/ from which could get addicted, but I've didn't as it stopped to work after a certain time completely so I've recovered// a HELL of a drug, to avoid – forever) hidden there, in fridge for the purpose. You don't leave moral field planes/ #1.1: of 0.0001 "as such"/ it takes a great deal of perseverance – if anybody would ever bounce from the very bottom (something to avoid, forever). Went on a trip with friends, being rich to the limits – "bitch to everybody", bought the most expensive camera (mission/ as something pumped into my head, with one side-task of getting Y amount in cash), "you study grab X"/ probably given easily over 2.5k+ on 3 people just as/ bought alcohol for everyone, took a box of it and opened one – wet my lips, drink a bit to have a distinctive taste (if I would be committed to not be caught I would drink it rectally// might be deadly, to avoid – forever) and she called basically immediately as I've violated the terms. They've took me probably 6 a.m. – in the place they've bet I would be back in 24 hours. They've would have won if I would take the last. Covered the alcohol test: found nothing (as always). They've said I've got a high-burnout rate (metabolism, as they always know better). Where your own mother is your greatest enemy/ as those around you don't have such access – you realize in such situations. Curiosity is that a person who was there in ambulance was Either past & future can be changed. The only time that ever exists is NOW so focus on it / i.e. on your daily, everyday efforts – what you do today (each day).

It only matters...

the guy who took 5k when they've took me at first – he couldn't look me in the eyes. I'd known, he'd known (money were hidden under the bed and they've moved it as I've basically got run out of the places to put them/ he crouched for a while as I greatly recall it – they're his to party, anyway). [1]

You're so shaking after the 'vacations' there that you can't drink vodka from a calyx and are forced to use a full glass/ particularly when they were trying to tell you – they've imported a 'special pill' resembling size of two blue, triangle mitsubishi extasy tablets telling, from another center – something, where nobody has reached such level there: it didn't helped. You couldn't talk for the period after, but it didn't killed your soul. It's just an example of what you learn & what circumstances are really required for you – to be able to. You have to see it with your own eyes and experience those or similar/ to get smarter, in order for you to become prepared.

Maybe it meant to be this way – particularly where everything had to be executed this style as because of the come back, I've received (which might be interpreted as another attempt to take me out of path, but it wasn't really it: the opposite is truth, in this case). The symptoms were just a kill, but because I've passed them – I've stopped to be afraid of any such treatments.

One of the reasons why immorality is accepted in this reality, is because – you're still increasing more of your knowledge, bypassing more limitations than the person who is reactive/ #1.11xE (as seen from the perspective of plan).
Attaining in a faster speed all those required traits as you have to clearly overcome basically all your fears, 'at once'. You have to repay it: to clear the Karmatic debt/ #1.11xF and it was required by the process, in order for your progress.
/ Unbelievably more (& accepted only to the point – later, but much later drugs have become just obsolete/ immoral except few particular substances/ being at a time required to extract or see the desired, to be & play the part enabling to advance your agenda).

If author was saved at a time by the extreme laziness// where 100%-(minus)units, fail/ the path also led to a breakdown.

REJECTION of the process is a part of it. You've got "23rd failure in a row" and you can't reach the prize despite you're performing everything and it just can't be mentally justified. You wonder – maybe you do something not as you should, but you can't find a reason for it.

An over month/ 1.5: amphetamine-row which takes a toll on you takes place, because you've extended your limits already (imagine something like working 3.5 years in a row or rather even more and have 0-slightest success rate/ barely no cash – no resources, with the works taken). You just don't want to continue, at a time...
It might be interpreted as a 'waiting of the soul' but after it and sleeping like a week – in high depression (brain-depressed due to its total destruction of ability to produce synthetic substances, not the moral field/ #1.1). You've been still however in the process/ #2, but it took some while to get this pause from the 100% work and it's as so.
You fall, sweep yourself & are ready to continue, after it (taken as a necessary vacation).

This stage lasts about 3-4 years or even 5 dependent only on your performance and engagement (next might already started)/ ability, to perform work and to don't stay lost is paramount – continuing, no matter what (units persevere).
It's ALL purposely so designed to take you out of the path: to test of what you've made of. You have to adapt, when you persevere.

THEY ATTACK YOU/ THE CONSTANT ASSAULT STAGE
ALL the plagues are released/ everyone is turned against you.

THEN just come ALL the problems/ they worsen timely. Your health cracks/ your mothers turns a parasite/ all the thugs come back to your neighbor/ you're framed into many things/ all your family betrays you/ you don't get help from anywhere/ you lack money – you lack resources – you lack friends – you lack everything & everyone makes you mad – wants to harm purposefully & it continues…
EVERYTHING/ just everything in the book…

What's interesting – they're not there to harm you, but to enforce your growth/ to see: the Real World, who is who etc.

Everything you would do now wrong – would take you out of the goal, so you must to be vigilant x10 (as always).
You have to forever remember about the goal and work your way through, to it.

For instance your mother/ all your family would make threats to you that they would put you back where you belong i.e. psychiatric hospital, would get to lawyers – you would probably see evidence in your reality for it to be true.
As you would be always in such conditions and circumstances where they would have a leverage above you.

It would still be exploited, but later everyone won't matter anymore because you've extracted everything and they've served your purpose. Ignore it ALL, at best. It's clearly visible to the author, but won't likely be to you (it's his interpretation of events, 'as seen & experienced by him'/ opinions presented were not solely his, i.e. basically everyone agreed and repeated the same as mentioned).

Perhaps the pesticide infestation/ #2.58 event was the most touching – memorable, destructive (i.e. total annihilation) from this whole period. Your mother was used to poison everything remaining so you were unable even to complete your work as it was required first to ensure your survival & a working laptop (a foil was devised). I still to this day write on it and even can't put some of my clothes as they weren't flushed enough (interestingly: those like many of such events are problematic only to you)/ becoming much better prepared for the scenarios. It's easy when you know, but everything was tested not mentioning the substances used – which you've didn't ever wanted to touch or used in such conditions previously/ particularly in the event when control over my body was lost for a period…

Therefore, in true reality: it's nothing at ALL, to be in worry about/ in this stage. All those events appeared to be working for your advantage as every immorality is punished for the perpetrators – your eyes went opened and you've learned through the experience. You've stopped to fear/ resent those substances all along you as you've been poisoned by them all/ including into it – any of such events (in intent: to always be prepared, in advance).

Such as parasites/ #1.1 are easily emotionally disturbed by your actions and react in such way – giving away their moral energy (happiness, high) to you. You have to change your mentality and start to see them as your 'free food' to eat/ obligatorily (no-talk, immediately to cause their reactions or turn everything against/ attack ALL their weak spots in each

4.47. Investing as a life process leading to independence

Investing is really, what would set your apart and allow to win the true independence. It's never enough to have one of anything: three/ four, possibly are elementary, to any success. If one ever spoils, brakes or is lost: you've got still two to lie on, time to recoup yourself – backed by the sense of security, which is paramount[766] in any decisions.

defensive attack – in order to extract them). Just do unintentionally i.e. something for you normal constantly what causes their scream on you and you've won/ as they can't behave such way as it's immoral to them. There is ever a better view than yours – viciously attacking mother hitting depression because of it/ as every parasite is your death enemy. You never can't attack first, but you usually don't have to as they want your piece of power (trying all the time something new but nothing seems to work/ #1.11X).

You've got a goal now and it has to be completed/ everything is either an obstacle or a help for you to take.

You know you've passed the stage of temptations when a friend from the segment of an organised mob: recognized your hidden, unknown to anyone potential for the job they do and offered a theoretical "100K at once, join us – everything covered". You'd refuse few times, as it's not anymore a temptation: you've got a clear goal and everything is irrelevant which doesn't pushes you towards it, i.e. cash, women or any of it (and nothing is for free as you always waste your time, brainpower/ 'sperm' even if it ever would be). It might take another form in your case. As it's known to the 'introducers' – you won't ever cooperate unwillingly (why? because you would loose moral energy i.e. happiness – high, #1.1/ & many other things of value, to you). Even if you were even to be implanted with a poison which lack of it: causes your death/ you would just sit and watch it: similarly as with the cut limbs – you would either regrow them or wouldn't care about nothing...

You have to develop skills which would enable you to continue striving for your goal/ never to weaken under those pressures. In fact all those people are like harmless pigs/ but immensely real 'pigs' – 'swimming dolphins' around you. However you've got also a weak spots – they can't do anything in fact, but you'd be still terrorised by for instance a poster of the new school (college, university – "you choose"): they've recently opened (everyone has got its own). You've got 'everything paid' – 'you'd get X amount of money' – 'I would take even a credit' i.e. just say YES.
It will continue... Everyday psychical treats aren't took into account/ 'sermons', 'arguments'. After those few years it would get to them they can't do anything about you/ however they still would 'try'.
You won't be ever asked in the process to do any immorality as those are done by the people who are lower in the moral field/ #1.1 – remember it/ know for yourself (i.e. unless you consciously decide to).
It's just too easy for you to be engaged (as a true reality, i.e. the reason why).
It always everything looks like a 'roughly' random, but it isn't. Author has made efforts to explain everything of importance. However many would tell that World is just an 'accident'/ in fact: it's nowhere near (it wouldn't exist, if it would be – if you're in disbelief: do something without a purpose and see how many would buy it).

If you're on a mission to get drunk on a particular day: it doesn't matters whether it's +30°C/ 86°F or -23°C/ -9.4F i.e. minus – you have to accomplish it. You're required to do it, independent of any. If I wouldn't drink at the pharmacy – I would have frozen to death, to be honest. It pumps into your head and you realize it, no questions attached.

Accept ONLY soul-partners (if you've ever met one or have an idea what/ who it is, but you have to know – a 'pull' exerted over a very long distance to your heart: like somebody would want to rip it in a direct heist, i.e. none of it visible – she's interested). None of those women were (it wasn't known to the author, at a time: as he never ~~met~~ sensed one in his whole lifetime).

INVEST

You're always in the search for the 'next big thing' i.e. a product/ service which would be a breakthrough in changing of human lives and its advancement as a race.
You invest also in leaders, or the ones who would become them because of their advancement in the field/ innovation.

Invest only in companies: with who you're aligned with (morally, by interests etc.).

INVESTING/ rapports – example ventures, with clues to seek

You can't back off after: in the beginning – it's possible but stop to count on it as you won't ever win in life, if you decide to quit (before the achievement of prize). Similarly as you have to reprogram adrenaline rush – when you're punched or kicked for real, i.e. seriously/ to never 'fear' anything or to ever be in such state, before.

The Process/ #2: takes such amount of time to get to the FINAL prize, but you get sub-prizes along it (which are required for you to advance, i.e. cash – financial success, knowledge required to combat X, Nirvana, a certain belief, etc.). It might be extended dependent on your performance and ability to see or spot things or if the goals are huge for you, but the stages usually last from weeks to up to couple months (where you achieve all those desired-by-you sub-prizes)/ easy... It's easy, when you start and everything becomes clear after a prolonged delay time.

If 100% was rejected up to this point (as they were swallowed by women, by paid job, by what-you-want or imagine or by nothing of value – delivered by the Laws/ it's used always what you could fall into). The process just really starts/ previously you've might be tasked to deliver 10 significant realizations at bare minimum (14 for real; some were described in the book). Now you've for instance must to write a book in 2 languages, covering the topic with the given principles. You always know what to do, but the true reality of things is that relatively few/ you wouldn't want to work for 18 months in a row without any vacation, payday or a reward/ delivering, to give it for free. Even if would think you were: it's unlikely you would truly deliver what you've been tasked (or have, possess the knowledge & ability and 'quality requirements' – in the first place)/ having in the mid-term all the possible attacks on your work, being highly diseased with all the possible obstacle (mainly: because of it; see: pesticide-infestations/ never would get myself be so 'fucked' in the future: just never, etc. it's easy – when you know it ALL). However: you've been prepared for it in the previous realization which you've made with a success (at your best forever – urgently, fast).

// Very probably required to generate appropriate positive Karma/ #1.2 i.e. "points" – in order to be able unlock such idea to be assigned, building skill – knowledge – abilities & understanding in the tracks of path (as everything has to be earned, in this reality – to be repeated). You're not supposed to question anything as it's a Law and it would direct you through the achievement of your want – you have to execute at best, urgently: everything that enters your mind (it's distinctive, won't be ever confused by you, with any – if you only activate the process/ #2).

You're required to think in the task, itself.

It would be very probably much less & easier for you (as goals of the author might be extreme for you).
Therefore: they require much higher efforts...

It ALL continues, but it becomes more and more irrelevant to you/ i.e. like a non-stop over monthly, lasting headache.
It's the purpose.

MORALITY TESTING PHRASE
You never won't be allowed to get any of the wants: until you won't improve your morality/ #1.

#1. GRAPHBATTERY.
GraphBattery: it's a company founded by 7 experts in the area of graphene research (first hint). Main goal of the undertaking is production of batteries based on graphene (next hint: new, emerging market). Batteries would weight half of what, current solutions available on the market: with the three times increase of capacity (another hint: competitive durable advantage).

For the last 4 years team has worked on the development of idea (hint: they're engaged, for a prolonged time – taking it seriously, due to the last). It worked to create an initial version of the prototype. It hasn't been yet subjected to field tests, but authors of the idea are convinced about its success (hint: belief, conviction – knowledge).

You would be very probably stripped out-of-resources after a period of 3-4 years only for the survival mode/ just for the purpose. It would be a time where advancements in your morality might progress/ see chapters #1-present.
This knowledge won't change anything, but you have to be conscious of it/ just for you to know.

You've got 0: can't scramble on a beer (as you're purposefully placed in such circumstance/ avoid to be mistaken) and suddenly in a month you get a monthly salary of many. You get to the shop and you get a 6-pack for free/ then 1 beer for free where you spot it later on the receipt – 'screaming' at the cashier to count it right/ similarly as being constantly tempted by stolen vodka, "+500" for free – "twice" and it just continues – one product here, one product there/ you've might get paranoid but you're basically cheated by everyone, all the time by getting everything for free.... Your thoughts are so purposefully controlled that you spot after days certain mistakes: you task is always to forever do the right decisions (for you)/ return the product, send the money back when only spotted or realized.
You've might be shaking on the view of alcohol which you have to return, but avoid to do it and your path is blocked. As you have failed the test and you'd be moved to other experiences which will "unteach" you i.e. the things you don't want to abandon or in the worst case – won't be unable to reach your goal, as Laws won't give a fuck.

..

Those stages intersperse, but after completing each of them – you gain consciousness (thinking) & powerful traits, where problems of the previous don't matter at all, to you & it's ALL about that. Work might continue...

YOU WIN
You now receive an idea/ being prepared fully for its realization...

And that's it/ so little, but takes time – predominantly & effort, self-engagement to complete the works given/ with any pay for nothing as you work – for something else and they're just to build your skill, knowledge & experience...
To make you prepared...

You've might now understand why this path is perceived by so many as 'the way with probable success' i.e. 'luck'.
It's only a process of your development...
The prizes (strivings) are an absolute guarantee/ i.e. the highest in this realm: when you pass those lessons...
It's a Law.

Author's note: it's still much better than anything in this reality as you at least learn something of value/ improve yourself and you would finally get to the prize, when you overcome those obstacles which makes you "indestructible" & best & that's the purpose of it all (for you to be able win all those qualities for yourself and reach everything in your Life, because of those early taken efforts).
/ You at least, Live/ for the first time in your whole Life.

[764] In their minds, only. In the 3rd, 4th year: if you survive i.e. withstand, passing this point – you've likely to win, as it's clearing in this moment (i.e. you'd might overtaken by the idea of crisis: that you fail all the time, it's not how it supposed to be, etc. = it's pre-programmed,

Originators would want to start the production of batteries for mobile devices, such as phones, tablets, computers etc. In the first years of business company wants to sell their products within the cooperation of leading firms from this sector, and if profits would allow to, in future: start to manufacture batteries by its own brand, extending the range of activity.

RAPPORT (CURRENT)/ when to enter

In the first year of business: company, thanks to the money acquired from a VC fund (hint/ pros: already someone has invested, seen the opportunity) was able to conduct research and tests necessary to introduce the device to mass production. In the time of tests, light defects were found in the construction of battery. The architecture errors are minor, therefore team is convinced – that their removal is an issue of only few next months (hint: almost a working product, to be manufactured and sold – something potentially huge).

Despite increasing interest on the market, part of the research in competitors companies has been suspended, because in the words of those working on similar projects: goal, to which founders of the company stranded – isn't able to be achieved with the current state of knowledge and technique.

World situation is kept at a stable level. In the industry however it slightly worsened, which in the next periods could have an impact on the planned and real financial indicators.

In the next year company plans to recruit three sales representatives, to begin discussions about selling its technology. The intent of the company is to acquire at least two huge receivers.

Financials indicate that the company could withstand next few years with money reserve, at current level/ is stable.

Hints:

- 7 experts: who contributed 4 years of their lives/ it's not somebody who has just started without no knowledge whatsoever,
- product has got potential/ i.e. mass production – whole world as a buyer,
- proprietary ownership is present/ product can be patented with the technology itself (value, is there),
- already completed the working prototype with minor defects/ to be fixed, in time (as upon thou you believe: you have – they're convinced, they know),
- company has acquired already Venture Capital funding.

Those are precursors for success: a calculated risk, which has to be taken.
It's worth it, as it can be the next real huge thing.
/ It's felt.

Improvement of the situation/ where shares are bought: would be to hire more experts (4) i.e. from the competitors who abandoned their research, get a patent protection valid for most of the countries, finish work on the first version of the battery which in effect – might into the process and a natural phrase of the temptations sub-stage, in path).

This knowledge won't help either way, but be conscious of it. Just do everything in you power: continue no matter what & you WOULD succeed.
[765] You're overtaken by the idea until its completion: thinking and performing the work continually/ 'Living it', to its ending.
[766] Emotions are always, a bad guide/ when you're broke: you're not likely to make the right decisions which are characterized by cold calculation.

allow to establish a cooperation with two huge manufacturers of the devices, to – in next year: start to manufacture the last.

#2. NANOSUIT.
Four professors from The Military University of Technology: officers in the state of rest – years searched for the new uses of carbon structures in armaments industry. Company NanoSuit was created: to elaborate a prototype of light bulletproof suit with the use of composite materials and graphene structures. To the time, it worked for them to patent an innovation method of building huge areas of composite-graphene materials, being characterized by elasticity, lightness and heavy strength.

Technology is to be sold to military. Company requires money to continue its activity.

RAPPORT (CURRENT)/ when to enter

First year of the business didn't ended with great successes. They've purchased or rented part of the required-to-prosper for the business infrastructure. Experiments which were conducted on the first version of suit: indicate necessity of massive changes in the project. However obtained composite structure shows desired properties. Team is convinced about good perspectives for the project.

Macroeconomic situation isn't the best. Crisis becomes even more touching. Many companies fail. At the same time on the market is observable an increasing interest in new technologies. NanoSuit used the challenging situation to buy-out a laboratory equipment from the failing business.

In the next year there is planned further lab research and actions towards establishing contacts with the potential buyers in country and abroad. Company is also forced to take an additional activity: consisted of doing minor analysis and expertise, which should help it to survive the time before sales of suit.

Financials indicate that the company burns half of the money it earns/ it needs only a slight investment, with it: they can survive and complete the project to its first sales – still, continuing their business.

Army/ military is one of the hugest clients and industries in the world of a key, strategic importance. Despite the risk of overtaking/ nationalization exists: though current economic situations in the country allows to take such risk – at most it would be talked-through and it has to be included in the bet.
It's however worth it.

Investment has been entered because of the first one, experiences of the authors might prove valuable and would led to the increase of competitiveness on the market and to create a better products in future.
It's a long term investment for years.

Those are only examples: however they refer to the true market conditions/ it's the way to be done.

Ensure, investment that you make are proprietary. Ask yourself.

What blocks others from doing the same? What's unique in it? What's the durable competitive advantage?

If you like the answers/ others are in place: enter the opportunity.

Never invest in something you don't know or understand/ or are being able to understand.
Make your decisions based on a solid data, not predictions[767] or possibilities.

The highest issue in investing: play emotions and the desire – it's not a statistic, remember. It's better for you to have 100% on the account, than to enter in one only business which would prove wrong or not-right, because the stakes here are not about the loss of money or others but primarily about the waste of your time/ all the other: is only its element.

Life has got only few opportunities, so it's worthy to take an advantage of them. It's not purposeful to throw yourself on everything: if something would be – you would know. Important is only, to make that decision.

In essence: undertakings in which you engage yourself require contact with the members of those teams – getting to know their achievements, their capabilities, potential and cluster of others. When you're investing money – it has to succeed and your goal is: to ensure it as those are your efforts/ resources & time.

Investment it's not something on today, however a long term engagement for years/ even for potential decades. If you're not able to accept it: find another branch as it's not for everyone/ you have to love[768] it.

[767] As of exception – if the required amount is however low/ the idea is really new and the possibility for success, based on a hard data/ your feelings – high: make the bet.
[768] Truly desire/ to achieve your true financial freedom. Avoid to ever jump on any deals, in a rush/ ignore the offer.

4.48. Business as a stock

It's best to perceive your company and yourself as a stock. If you were to be a stock – would you invest in yourself? The same is with the company, but certain rules apply which rule its value (being a formula to pick the winning stocks, long term). If you're truly thinking about business: you should focus on the below characteristics.

- Your company needs to have a durable competitive advantage. First type of companies are those: who have a product which is not meant to be changed or subjected to change, because it already has a competitive advantage which allows him to be a part of the society. An example might include such companies of popular soft/ energy drinks. They've got products which lay deep in the minds of many and their sudden shut-down would be considered as disaster ("they've entered a part of the human mind & soul and lay deep within it"). Common thing, with those companies is that they don't need to change e.g. production line – spend money on a constant research applying to the new trends, product lines, but they are instead a tool which generates money on a consistent basis, without almost any competition in the market – in their niche, because they're in a sense: unique.

  The second type of companies are those, who need to put money on a constant development i.e. technology companies – changing all the machines used to produce new products (and what if the last won't sell? It might be inferior to the product of competition or be ignored by clients). If they've got no new products which are competitive in the long run, those companies often crash: producing a varied source of income over time (not-steady). They need constantly invest money in new projects, innovate. It's in some sense: a total opposition of the companies mentioned before, who can use the cash for acquiring new businesses, spent them on managerial pensions. Those, who constantly are in need to put a set of their products are also vulnerable to the ups and downs of the market place, in a need to fire a lot of people and managing them is also challenging – few mistakes and they could get down. It's like competing with all the giants of motor industry. Those companies are risky to invest, because they might not produce a steady cash flow over long periods of time and the burnout of money is or may be significant.

  Third type are those, who are replying to the basic needs of people e.g. filling tax returns etc. and who have got in some sense of way "a brand in human minds" – a leader on the market, to be almost always chosen. They've got also some sort of dominance over the market place. Those companies are good, because people would always be in need to use some of their services – not dependent on the current state of economy, so the need for such services is ongoing forever.

  The fourth type, of companies are those in the retail business (yet also, who deal necessity products like e.g. oil) which sell things to other people. Those companies constantly require lowered costs of production – higher volume and sales. They produce often – steady high returns, but the need for competitiveness may drastically reduce their profit margins.

- Consistency of share value increase over the period of 10 years. It's easy to be performed in public companies, noted on the stock market but also is possible to be verified in a private companies by counting the worth of their employees stock/ options value.

Those companies need to produce a continual growth over a steady period of time e.g.

Year – Value of 1 unit of stock
2000 – 1
2001 – 1.16
2002 – 1.34
2003 – 1.51
...
2009 – 2.91

and not i.e.:

2000 – 1
2001 – 1.2
2002 – 1.15
2003 – 1.07 (losses)
...
2009 – 1.4

First stock of company, might indicate that a company has a product which sells with a constant growth. The second: may indicate that the company is type II which burns a lot of money due to e.g. changing production lines, bad periods of economy etc.

- Your company has passed the debt-free or debt-little test and is self-financing.
  Low or no debt indicates that the company performs well and it's an opportunity to get into. Although little debt might be a result of the expansion and it would be repaid soon by the overall performance of selling products.

- High ratio of "margin".
  Gross profit / revenue * 100% = margin.

  Margin of profit, needs to be quite huge – preferably min. of 50%. It indicates, that the company performs successfully, at its best. Mainly companies who have e.g. 14% profit margin (after all expenditures): indicate, that they've got no durable competitive advantage or are not well managed, risking not sustaining itself on the market place.

  Company which has 10M gross profit with the total revenue of 15M has a margin of 50%, which indicates a good performance of the investment.

Lack of all those elements, might be a request for trouble.

Highest morality of the managerial staff, high level of knowledge and experience with a proven success record track is essential. It's wise to pursue career in those businesses.

THINK CONSTANTLY & IMPLEMENT CHANGES FAST

I. Find your company competitive advantages – what distinction you've got from competition? Why your client needs to take the product from you? What's unique in your brand? What can be offered additionally or given more, to the sale?

II. Get rid of any credit, as fast as possible. Stack up huge amounts of money, which would serve as a life-saver in case of worst market conditions/ troublesome periods of lower sales and other.

III. Where is your company going? Do you have a plan? Are the products you're bringing on market worth the risks?

IV. How can I improve my business by serving better my customers/ simplifying procedures/ delivery times etc.?

V. What are the skills, which would improve the overall performance and the effectiveness of employees (including yours)? How to increase their skill? What are the new products of the time? Where is future and how can it be grasped? How can I become a pioneer in my niche?

Step back constantly and look at your business, the way: your competitor would.

4.49. Delivering: the life purpose

It ALL leads to giving others: the most, of you.

Money gives you a false sense of security. You must be very wary about the mechanisms which sole purpose is to get the first from the market, as it's required in the financial economies. Any stock, currency or bitcoin market either any other ventures which attract wealth of the common people: are to be avoided, forever (unless you buy whole/ majority stake of shares, in companies for the purpose of their development).

Certain places, i.e. Poland provide a better incentive and motivation to succeed, because of the surrounding they involve: low pensions – forcing you to learn how to combine what you have already or can be acquired, in conditions where nobody has, can do or is even able to provide etc./ they teach you Life. Advantage have those who have been born there, or under like-conditions because it has provided them with the necessary built-in drive to rise above.

Never agree to any immoral proposition, action or solution/ even in the least bit, #1.14.
Refuse to ever consider any/ reject each immediately.
Do it, without any thought.

You always work for the business: you either sell your time in one, or the products which it produces/ offers. The first instance, is limited by your time/ poor & middle-class is after it: the second, is pursued by the wealthy i.e. products[769] and their development, sales.

[769] Less services (as products).

When you reach a point: where belief is replaced by the knowledge/ knowing – it's a period of a new era, in your Life.

In Life & work taken in the process, #2: always go the extra mile, doing even more which is required/ expected from you.

If you master those abilities, unbelievable beyond – all the other people, become to you a 'separate category'.

You have to start slowly change your inner dialogue, as how you explain things to yourself – is paramount over any other.

Begin from today speak to yourself in your inner dialogue: with empowering mentality.
"I can't" → "It's not possible for me at the time", "It would be..." / "I'm working on it..." etc.
"I don't know" → "It's unknown to me/ yet" / "I would find out" / "I would get to it" / or even "No interest to me" / "Not important..." etc.
...

Match, the required to stop block your routes leading to it/ if only important.

It's absolute necessity for you to start see things from the other – round perspective (as they are).

You're always in the business of selling. In communication: you sell information/ as you want something to get (whether somebody accepts it, follows you with your influence – buys). It's extended to every area of your Life.

You have to be prepared for at least, the decade-long bust/ glut – where there would be no sales i.e. the slim times, when you're starting any venture/ any undertaking (not only business).

Lack of preparation means a living hell which is yet to come, in your Life (the work of Laws).

Having your own business is a monstrous responsibility. You have to be prepared, be just – not only morally, #1.1 but in the terms of meeting the expectations and to be able to perform at your best level for extended periods of time. You won't get, until you show – through your actions, that you're the one who is able to successfully execute the ideas, at a given pace – time and quality with all the desired/ being obedient to the Laws and appreciative, able to withstand anything, #2 / directly: everything.

You've might now see, why particular people (the majority): doesn't have – they've didn't earned it, through their lives, the required to be able successfully execute the ideas as they've refused to overcome their imperfections.

Responsibility, morality and skill, knowledge is an absolute must in any and who has it? If you won't start today: you're likely to remain like them, for the rest of your miserable[770] life. The best awaits only for those, who develop continually.

Maybe you would one day understand, that it's not about the money as it's all about the[771] pleasure, which brings them even more/ that gives Life: a sense, of purpose.

Remember it.
Know it.
Use it.
#2.

Everything is set in this reality to further your own development. You won't be killed tomorrow or today, on the road if you only show the initiative, #2/ abandon this idea. However, if you won't: it's not sure – if you're worth more dead than alive, or hold such Karma – it's likely you'd be moved somewhere, where you would have the ability to learn on your mistakes i.e. a prison. It's dangerous in this reality, to refuse development unless you serve those, who do the work/ being kept alive.

Its best in life to distance yourself a little from it: avoid to be bounded to it, hardly.

Use a dreamer-realist-critic approach to, the goals #2: of the process.
Internally.

A dreamer – perpetuates a very desirable goals and fantasies which are able to be realized in this reality.
Realist: sees the ways, to make them happen.

Critic: points, everything which can go wrong – looks at it, from the pessimist way of view (type III, #4.42/ yet everyone can perform such stance: learn it).

[770] Nirvana/ #1.1 but min. Adoration state is a ~~sign~~ indicator – it isn't: as you're doing it right – what you've supposed / for the best of yourself (i.e. the level of happiness).
[771] Inspiring/ morally-rewarding work for which you everyday wake up, to continue.

Nobody likes to be criticized, but you sometimes have to/ allow do it others as they've might see more than you can imagine: improving your work/ you yourself.

Think also in terms of 'what is limiting you/ your venture/ your development' and overcome those issues, by targeting the specific areas. If something[772] isn't leading you to resolving the problem: leave it/& ignore: more along.

If for instance your growth is limited by the capacity of your production: think on the ways on how to increase it or delegate/ [773]first.

It applies to any other field of development.

Knowledge, that.

Every action people turn against you: is predominantly from FEAR – the hidden, deep-rooted [774]subconscious one. Your actions make people feel uncomfortable (any action towards your dreams) so they respond by criticism, sarcasm and every other way to protect themselves as you make them feel inferior i.e. dreaded by the thoughts that you would rise above them or their level of richness/ by having more, through your actions – even if they seem pathetic.

Is the deep-hidden truth. Use it, to your internal dialogue.

Let it give you: the required drive to overcome.

[772] Keep in mind: that most people listen, but don't hear/ or know better – you've might be approached by someone, who knows already the answer but your refusal to acknowledge it, might lead to your downfall: look for the clues, signs and events which lead you to the accomplishment of your goals/ be vigilant and receptive – analyze your environment – #0.1/ constantly. Focus forever on solutions, to your problems – not the problems themselves.
[773] If everything else is covered for the expansion to be possible & you've got a solid data and funds to perform it/ only.
[774] They've might not be aware: why they do it, but the property of the mind causes them to reject or deny everything which is volatile, unknown or passes their certain understanding 'the average/ commonly accepted level' in order to protect their ego/ the deep-grounded and accepted ways – the 'status quo'.

Value is relative for everyone. For a survivor a bit of rope of web, to catch fish – a zipped plastic bag to carry water: would be a gold, but also making the first from a nettle and the second from a bamboo might prove valuable.

Never stop to attain new knowledge/ at bare min. 2.5-4h daily, each day.
Never.

Why people die out of cancer? It's because they don't think: they've refused to, by only binding to one area of knowledge at most of such cases. They avoid to take the efforts, to make their own research – they want for everything to be given to them. They don't question the system, they've stopped to observe intentions of the surrounding. They don't know what cui bono is, they went lazy...

Avoid to ever give up. Always and forever: fight up to the end, but with the knowledge first/ its usage – not, by any other means, unless they're required at the moment of time i.e. the usage of ~~inferior~~ dangerous & wrong/ publicly-available solutions, methods.

Avoid to ever really care about anybody except you and your closest family. However, be helpful to people and provide them with the desired – if you only wish.

Let the others do their thinking for themselves. Prize your efforts.

Be a believer in people, although/ presume such stance towards them, but know and count only on self.

Stop to ever give power to anyone or anything: over your own[775] prized Life.

It has the highest worth, in the end.

[775] Teachers, mentors, experts, doctors or even hairdressers.

Everyone grows comfortable, in time.

Put yourself on the edge – as there is the most of the knowledge to be extracted.

Keep it this way.

You either have or have not.

You either do or don't do. If you do, you do 100% or 0%.

No middle.

You change/ test constantly new things, approaches.

You avoid to ever look over anyone: you're the true master of your own fate, #2.

The highest importance in your Life has: your strength of character in any circumstances and at any cost. Develop it.

The beauty of this realm, is that anywhere you are in life – independent of age, any problem – any issue you've might have: health, financial, emotional or anything which happened to you in the past or is to be: you can always change it all, if you only would have such intent to take the full[776] responsibility/ to decide enter, the process: #2 (demonstrating such stance, really meaning it[777] for serious). If you live: it's never so badly to not be able start to do things, the right way/ #2.

It takes only 5-7 years/ everything would be dealt by you (avoid to ever think how/ why and what) as all would be provided, if you only would take the courage, to take – the best decision of your Life.

Everything, would turn around.

In time/ tested, #1.12.

Everything.
For only the best of you.

[776] In mind/ in thoughts, to follow.
[777] To fix the damage, #1.12 & go straight – by taking, #2/ which is, what to do.

It's, how it is.
Know it[778]/ believe.

If you refuse, to take the process, #2: your DNA (genes) might be lost, forever – as you're exempted from the Laws full protection.

You've changed. You've adapted, to save money for its later use, #2.31.

Assets are things which do bring you money – which/ in turn, bring you even more money (as you invest continually: the money you earn – in assets and self). You're basically asset-own.development focused as it's the most important – you avoid to spend them on items/ utilities, which don't contribute to your growth or the expansion of your assets[779]/ portfolio of your new acquisitions.

[778] As everything is set here, in such a way/ just as.
[779] You've acquired and have to take care of, in the process itself – #2/ to develop, for your best outcome.

You just take it/ & keep with it, as with everything i.e. in starvation, #3.1: you just stop to eat, drink water and keep it for this time, 7-days. It's all/ adapted to any action/ preceded by thought.

It's all easy, unique mind programming enables it, #0.1: it's the key/ to any achievement.

The question to be continually asked, is.
What is the most important use, of my time?
Follow it. You always know, what to do.

Do it continually, then.

If you don't sell – you've got a problem.

Whether you would share this book on a various forums – discussion groups, with your friends, p2p networks/ put permanently on your blog, website and sources of your associates – print and sell, redistribute[780] etc.: it's only up to you, as everyone works on his own account, to earn points which enable you to be used to get an idea ex. for the next multi-billion dollar business/ or buy any related i.e. love, the best soul-partner, or any other dreamed of, desired – imagined.

/ Efficiency is what counts, the more – the better, the chance of getting them. Everyone works for himself, always and forever would be, in this reality.

Fail at it, and you've might get stuck in Life.

Take the process, #2.
It all gets, to it.

Nobody would help you, unless you would help yourself first.

[780] Avoid to look at anybody/ ignore everyone. You're working for yourself only, always: they would want to, but lack the courage – you possess/ therefore: ignore all the comments, what anybody thinks – as it's irrelevant.
You know what to do the best for you: stay with it/ to the end.

Aside from what has been written. I stepped once, to a shop and observed the cashiers and all the people around: everyone is watching himself and his back – the first, looking and speaking with the clients, serving them and selling the GM-poisoned, deadly cigarettes/ you can be like this cashier, working each day for the end of your life complaining – working at the factory or doing other job which you don't like, hate or even sometimes do from a must – it's a part of the process. Embrace it. You're not a nanny to babysit everyone. Never disdain, but change and take those actions to make this change. If you won't: you would be condemned for this living hell, here (the heaven and hell concept). The process, is the first – i.e. the job which doesn't develops you: the latter. Why it should ever matter that you're dirty or raised seat toilet or washed after? It wastes time, which could be used purposefully for development, which does only matters in the end/ to attain new experiences. You've might still do this job, as all is in the mind.

The first mistake is lack of listening, to the end – what one, has to say. Second: is the 2nd best. To third: nobody listens. Aiming to be a billionaire/ going after it: mine ideal me/ not a billionaire yet – I'm on its road, as The Process lead me already everywhere, where I've wanted to go – whether it was to get the best-looking girl for a end-school[781] party (was brought, on the last day i.e. "hour" where the name had to be given/ which implies: you have to believe – stay in this[782] belief, up to the very last, final – absolute END or is it, to it: with success/ it's all confirmed and well-documented or the 100k in a 3-month time (earned more)/ I absolutely believe it, as it has been proven so many times. I've achieved everything that I've ever wanted to this point of time – thanks ONLY to the process, which is on a side – a primary mechanism created to realize the purpose of knowledge increase of a unit and serves the God to harden you[783] – the worthy, #1.11xE/ the soldiers (being a basic Law, of the cause principle/ of the Universe). In the foundation: those 75[784] failures, in a row (something, which nobody would handle): were all a successes, however they've didn't succeed financially – they were all my personal successes (most of the projects lasted at min. a week up to couple months, each/ to prepare – significant money and efforts were invested). They've might succeed, but I've always backed where the initial plan failed/ where each stage was cleared: I'm never interested in anything lower. Look upon yourself only/ ignore, all the rest. Even if I've earned in some of them: they couldn't be named successes/ being abandoned as it was not the purpose (the most important: to forever remember). It never worked with the plan, but the last was always done on-the-fly to adapt and adjust to the current circumstances.

Even if I would fail the next 5925 times/ which is still, despite the wisdom: likely to happen as my knowledge is slightly above the basic level –/ I would continue to work my way up to the success. I'm a realist acting as a greatest pessimist: I've got my limits, too.
It's normal for everyone around that they would best close such people in the closed institutions as they feel no power over such people and are scare of them. They're scared, because they're better of them/ then I would reset the counter and start to count from the very beginning, again.
They're scared.

They're powerless.

The best works – to show them their powerlessness over you: is to ignore everyone and everything around which doesn't serves your goals – it's the highest punishment ever. The last, is also to be like everyone around: mediocre, at best/ not the very best, which ever lived – I can't Live with it and fight those battles everyday. Look on everyone is a sin, but being led by someone's thinking is a corporal punishment condemned for a long-lasting prison/ it includes TV, media, the so-called 'experts' and everyone, including you. To trust, is to fail – in Life, miserably. I acknowledge, but I

[781] 1st graders couldn't, because there was alcohol/ it had to be someone from the outside – someone unknown: to look the part.
[782] I've never stopped.
[783] If you only choose to participate/ #2.
[784] After how many failures: you've stopped to continue?
[785] Vibrations, i.e. frequency/ this Universe is a very crowded place: believe.
[786] By staging an event – which wasn't hard at all, in my case: they've just looked and knew, believed in an instant / pull up the records, who called (indirectly – to be placed there, in result).
[787] The thing, is that they've didn't wanted to let me out/ the 2nd longest holiday in a 'hotel' – is another story/ particularly where the IQ-resembling tests were given – some sort of puzzles, to match: which on the side were the hardest thought process I've ever made to be released was done (with my skills at it, being drugged insanely). However: I've succeeded finally after the second approach – days later. I've made it/ the impossible, as forever.
In fact: they were the only normal people, I've met/ not judging, listening and respecting others opinions and thankful for what they've received – not wanting, to use anybody for their purposes (sharing and helpful, to add to it – accepting their defects – striving to solve them/ however: the bad way, due to lack of knowledge). Without an immense ego.
[788] Damages the retina.
[789] I.e. ask always: whether you would want for somebody to steal your possessions (as the product such lowly priced might indicate it, being stolen or faked as the seller wants to sell it fast)? If yes: support the immoral by buying, but acknowledge it has got consequences (Laws, but also in the legal sense/ #1.12).
[790] If others want to buy those items: it's their choice.
[791] If "they're derived from the outlets and because of it: they're highly cheaper/ quality a little bit deviates from the original (of those which are in the shops: three times pricier), but they for sure are worthy of spent money as people don't complain and seller wants to return the money if you don't want them"/ they're probably not coming from the crime as there are no indicators for it in such an open stance (which is the key, to transparent and legal business).
Avoid however to ever stop there: keep to seek for a hole despite any claims as a skilled manipulator might have an advantage knowing all the mechanisms (rare) which are involved and trick you into his thinking/ beware. Avoid to ever trust on word. Verify and confirm everything, by yourself.
[792] In its basic form: as it was implied in the whole contents of this book/ keep it a secret: those who only live up to their elderly years i.e. 100 years or more – pass fully, the tests.
[793] My work: is just a part which has to be realized in order to get me somewhere where I go and has been determined by the process itself/ #2. I avoid to question it as I know/ mainly, because when everyone says their sentence: you're staying alone i.e. with your problems, etc...
[794] Usually those who attack you the most: haven't achieved much by themselves and trying to impose – if they aren't able to help, tell them to leave and come unless they've got something important to add. If it doesn't helps – tell them, to describe their achievements – thank and say: you're not after what they've achieved or wanted (as those, who have achieved anything or little: understand what it took to get there/ they know it's a process of 'trial and error' and one has to invest many time and efforts to get anywhere for real). It's forever forbidden to give-in to anyone, except the process as if you would start to listen: you'd be discouraged by their own presence/ they're purposefully placed there to test your belief and persistency as if you can't overcome – not listening to anyone except self: you can't win in the end. If it doesn't helps: inverse the cards – protect yourself against a heist on your mind: ask, whether they've proud of what they've achieved/ whether they're proud nobody remembers them/ whether they're satisfied with their 1,000 starvation pay (if commands to back: ceased to work). If not: why in the world: their opinion should matter to anyone?

Each and every attack on your belief system/ the process, #2: is an enormous Life-death threat/ danger which has to be dealt immediately. Unless you want to be a failure: believe what a 'hot-dog' – pizza seller has to say/ trust his advice.

[795] Abandon this idea: forever as it's very dangerous (death is a certain possibility).
A side note: and so what (each of three people could be the one, who did it)? You're not the only one. What you're laughing? You've probably too was forced to take suppositories as a child inserted by your carer (drugs). Only few decided to do it willingly in the adulthood.

[796] Stopped to count on 26 this year/ often accompanied by the parallel diarrhea.

[797] Avoid to ever engage if you didn't succeeded in business or are with no or little cash: love allowed me to work on a higher performance for the latter period/ tested all the seduction techniques envisioned i.e. the simplest work the best: buy her a small teddy bear (for you is a piece of trash – for her, a whole life i.e. the cheap but quality-high shit does the work// frequency counts, less the size of those gifts)/ care for her (she tested her seduction techniques on me first, then backed and played 'uninterested but interested' – the very best approach for a woman to hook a partner: but, I've felt at first sight). If you don't see it: avoid to ever enter it.

[798] I could borrow, but you can't borrow forever: if I don't have – I don't engage. I would make her pay if she invited me – in full, but I'm required to have my own resources/ always. I've eternally had an impression that most of the women outbeat men in their perseverance, because what could do such a cute woman do? Wait, tempt and look all the time burning saying "take me/ I'm yours". They should think first about the source of the other people problems/ not to question their looks or constantly wonder: "why he doesn't wants me".
I'm usually a very impatient person, despite the appearance – therefore, on the first date in my life I've didn't fucked a women and decided that it's too much for me: went quite far/ she wanted to give me fuck herself on the next meeting i.e. "day you would remember to the end of your life" and it told me my friend, who was the last person who would figure out anything – I've couldn't stand the failure that I didn't make it, the first time so I've wrote 'to stay friends'/ she never spoke to me again: he was with her probably for the 7 years period, straight. Was quite cute, slim and sexy but I'm not a person who likes to wait. It's particularly visible when I'm tied to the cause: spent those years straight learning specific – certain areas, closed in a room with no ventilation, to leave it only for the rest (alcoholic escapade)/ you should be such person too, if you only want to succeed. I've wrote this? For you to know, that with women: the less you care – the more you have (all, value-related). They've might not like it or admit, so forever avoid to jump on the first deal/ wait – you've got the time (if you've taken the process, #2). Your value and self-worth is at a very low-point: if you disallow yourself to be seduced.
To add to it: it isn't sufficient for a women to be beautiful only: there has to be a character match (see the tables, #4.11): as when you ejaculate – the spell goes away/ if you only withstand, up to this level (there is nothing, besides the beauty – 'no light'). Therefore: the only advice is to take the process – #2 and engage in the work, so a soul-partner would be brought to your experience/ avoid to ever think about any rest (as it's said – I'm just describing: what is).

[799] To increase the last: begin to work on your problems: first/ then those, of people – on a various forums, discussion groups etc. (ensure, all are solved up to the very end: completely).

[800] Usually: rarely speaking about self or anything, which isn't related to the speaker.

[801] Perhaps the most surprising is the fact that whatever you can believe in: you can achieve/ in the period of your lifetime – it's the working, of the Law/ #2. You get to a certain beliefs through your work: knowledge increase.

[802] It's also one of my greatest advantages/ as perceived by me: without it – my Life would be in ruins.

[803] Where, 100% people died ~~prematurely~~ out of it: globally/ unknowingly (conclusion drawn based on testing of all/ extensive observation)/ on the side (in the 17th year of it: usually nobody can't even talk, is paralyzed – however the most probable is that he died already either through it or a to-be successful suicide/ I've build my mass in the 15th year of it, #4.2 on a stricte diet, #3.81 only – however, with it: very limited to basically three different foods for the period of 8 months straight, with almost 3 months in a row, with no-sugars: so, it's all mental/ 90%/95% who claim on discussion boards that they've got it and cured themselves through the use of X: haven't got the disease at all/ as I've tested all, i.e. everything – everything: avoid to ever panic, as your/ doctor's diagnosis – might suck). You've might already know/ it's mentioned in the book, one final advice: suit yourself very well and cover all the skin – particularly when you go to the forest/ or into the wild.

[804] Nearly 100lbs of an invisible backpack/ all the time – for a period of over a decade.

[805] Experienced Nirvana, at $\mu \sim 0.99$ for a period of ~5 minutes: which knocked me nearly out of consciousness, knees and left scared for years out of such high (being soaked completely in the "volcano of happiness")/ for me to return for it: the years after. The high experienced – can't be possibly even related to anything known as it's a "different-dimension" experience. It placed a lasting impression in the memory and is a sensation: in which you, have to Live/ #2: forever. It was probably a compensation for the unearned pain & suffering – trauma: experienced in the childhood.

[806] To crack all the disciplines on an elementary level and to learn all from the very beginning, ground up: some are mentioned in this book/ in the path determined.

[807] Organize groups to publish it on the front of major websites, places, place posters, write a news story etc. – do a major sales of it in places where anyone might need it/ be helpful, to people in need as it might trigger positive Karma and moral energy/ #1.1, #1.2: for you (& additionally earn some money for yourself/ #4.41: for details).

[808] It's much more to it, examples given – they're not even the tip of an iceberg (not mentioning, what's under the water). They were purposely placed, to show you: others have got better than you/ as they've rewarded with all sorts of troubles to which – yours are probably with no comparison. You've might not been so luckily gifted by the Universe, but you have the chance – by taking the-so-called process/ #2. It's an adventure, which is the best memorable experience you could ever have/ liked the stories? You would have even better and look from all of it, in a different angle. Move your body/ get into the action. What's next? It's for you to experience.

I've been prepared: for years condemned on immense pain, trouble, failure/ nothing was received, no support ever handled. I've received probably about 70k rejections/ if only to count them, in a row – with all my projects: some earned millions in a period of two years/ or I was forced to watch the TV ads couple years after their introduction by me. My home was a habitat of Hell: all those immensely powerful entities which used the bodies of my fellow men and women – to bombard me with every in-the-book or not even in it: technique, to crack me – under various pressures/ I won't ever let anybody to take my high, i.e. happiness/ #1.1. Even my own mother tried to kill me: for face – unsuccessfully as always (throwing a chopper knife from a 2-3 meters – for the head with a whole force, being drunk/ from surprise – qualifies). If you do anything: be successful at it, for the stake. More than all: I hate failure/ I just can't watch when somebody does a mediocre job (on a personal level, not attached to any of the outside). Thanks to her: I've succeeded as I've started to do the opposite of what she did or didn't. It continues still to this day, all the time: I couldn't reveal more and this knowledge is merely a top-bottom base of an absolute very basics level/ so an apology for it, but you wouldn't accept certain ideas beyond it or even on the boundary of the next: it has to be earned by you. Nobody wanted to ever print this book (as a curiosity – it couldn't be printed anyway by me, #4.43 as any profit would spoil the prize/ it was not the purpose)/ nobody helped to get a patent for a formula which removes completely all the alcohol hangover – yes, I've thought about it too (if the memory would be lost, by you: you won't tell whether you've drank yesterday any of the %; I've found three substances working in conjunction which perform such role; the pill can be embedded itself into vodka/ for less than 1% of it cost// none side-effects, it's an addition to it: safe & harmless with no extra kick/ there are designed two special versions of it – with it). My (your) survival is the most important: then, comes the

If there is anything, which could be added and I've learned and still learning to this day: in Life, you only have to do 1 mistake – to loose it/ to *fail. It applies to everything: is it the chocolate who would have 1 non-organic ingredient which would be GM-poisoned and would force you to vomit/ #3.29L (sensing and rather 100% knowing[809] you would, after it) or is it the event which would come and poison all the living environment including all your clothes and forcing you to shake bone cold at night, as you've got nothing to wear as nothing can be touched by you as it's all infested with pesticides – to leave your even to this day walking without pants/ #2.58 (as those challenges learn you to secure everything and think, in the first place: i.e. in your work, the most important – it's insuring its[810] survival, the latter – comes the last).

Those experiences leave a mark on you – the permanent one, which do really matters as they change you. You can't be killed immediately because you have to have: the ability to learn, based on your mistakes (yes: this world has got embedded in it a ~~genocide~~ survival-requirement plan by the Creator himself/ secret). Only up to you, is whether you would: survive.

However, thanks to them: you're only able to succeed. Avoid to do this one mistake in Life and change it/ for the very best of you, #2. Follow, those who had the courage – to choose [811]wise. Make such decision/ too. Accept it/ pursue: willingly, #2 & your Life and the whole experience of it – would change only for the very best, drastically – forever.

It's: the purpose.

all rest. However it's all: only a pre-requisite for a better progress/ which is continued, everyday. Things started to change recently and it's the whole point of it, as due to those all hardships: you're better prepared for the incoming. Hope: you would invest in yourself also – as it's worth it and this humble piece of work inspired you and delivered the very basics, for you to want and do the change/ #2.

I won't understand – you've didn't took it/ I'm not listening, why.
If you would refuse 'today'/ #2: you would be condemned for the pain, trouble, failure but also depression, lack of sense and loneliness/ when the cards, invert – usually, in time.
Like many who did and lost – their lives. Independent of the age: you can still turn the cards for your favor – if you only would believe – it's possible for you and it is/ you only have to willfully follow to the end, it's all.
Avoid to ever look on anybody around or look, to be able: confirm those words.
It's your choice, only.
Thank you.

[809] So why to eat it? To learn, based on this experience (new ingredient, unknown before)/ it's accepted, fully.

[810] This reality (& the Universe itself) it's so purposefully designed: to create a 3d illusory environment where there would be ability to train and provide a learning ground for the souls. Those who would prove themselves, i.e. surviving and getting the most out of it/ possible only: through taking the process, #2/ those who would acquire the desired traits and knowledge imprinted in them (through all of those experiences): would be the winning candidates (would be spared, to progress). The rest of souls, who failed those tests: would be destroyed (as they're useless – for the purpose of Creation, #1.11xF). This training ground: is to create and pick those winning candidates/ who would become ones: through their own efforts by using the Laws here present.

[811] The highest in this world: I "fear" job i.e. the reactive state, #1.11xF/ knowing, The Process – #2 (as the last is fun, pleasureful and worth living – despite the hardships which aren't really perceived as such, but as a learning experience). My mind generates horror dreams of me working in the first, when I screw big time. Never EVER again.
I love it/ everyone will do, who took it and passed – the initial years: when he learned, the basics.
Life is a dream: when you're crossing it.

Causality.

The Law of cause and effect.

We Live in a cause-effect reality. You won't be hit by a truck – your car wouldn't be splashed on the road. If you were to be even killed, #2/ you'd be resurrected by the path (the next deja-vu effect) as the testing has to continue and you're now important.

Therefore, if you were even fucked in the ass (not a gay, couldn't do anything or rather did everything in your power to protect yourself). You have to[812] do: none/ that's the point.
It's enough to feel emotions for the perpetrators and they would be returned to those who did it. If you would waste your time and energies to find them: YOU would earn Karma, #1.2: the Law serves the justice – you don't have to, it's absolutely guaranteed. It might block only your path to success and you've now might be hit by a car.

The same applies to health/ #3. The last, is of your own making, ONLY. What you eat, what you do with it – if you avoid to take causality for it: you suffer. We've got power over our Lives, through the choices we make daily. If they're are insufficient: we suffer.

Learn it.

[812] It's forever about the right mindset suited to the goal itself: you're horny which not every woman has.
It's, the most important of lessons/ Adapt it: to your reality.

As in, #3.21: the same applies to ~~people~~ you.

SUMMARY OF YOU

"NORMAL" YOU / limited	IMMORAL YOU / wanting something for nothing or achieving it – the immoral way, i.e. drugs – speculative stock market play etc.	PSYCHOPATH YOU X / following only moral paths – with morality as your highest value as you've learned through your mistakes
Worthless piece of trash (even if you get the chance to reach anything what you want – you still won't overcome your fears and limitations because you're constantly afraid[813] of something).	Deadly piece of trash (threatens the plan of Creation at some level).	Valuable to the Creator as they overcome their fears: constantly strive to their goals – have a relentless attitude. Improve and develop themselves, all the time (as required for the achievement of goals).
You're likely to die due to your lack of actions and reactiveness as lack[814] of striving for any goal – lack of overcoming doesn't develops you (properties only found in psychopaths). You feel not as the psychopath, without knowing it/ worse, much worse. You loose your life satisfaction, happiness, great mood and all the attached, i.e. immense wealth (because you've ceased to generate moral energy through your actions/ #1.1). - You're only kept in this reality to give you the chance to change/ #2 and to work – providing tools[815] for the psychopaths.	You die due to your actions or are moved somewhere else – given chances to change yourself and leave what you do behind. You're moved to a prison/ psychiatric hospital or killed somewhere else. When your role ends: you're killed by the Laws/ or become a cripple – handicapped i.e. permanently disabled to serve as a living warning sign for others. You die.	You Live, are happy.

[813] Lack focus/ lack the action to make it happen through your own effort.
[814] Insufficiency, i.e. 100% effort like in the case of psychopaths.
[815] You'd kill yourself] when your role ends i.e. through a disease: it, being a result of your lack of thoughtful actions.
For instance you've might have an idea to use doctor's place who are designed to softly kill 'undesirables'/ like you.

Look at it, from this side and keep a positive eye on all those experiences delivering you by the process/ #2 as because of them: you're increasing your value in the face of God.

Forever know it: never cease to believe.

It's not the work you perform, but what you think about it.

It's, the ~~ugly~~ truth. You'd better adapt to the plan of Creation, #1.11xE by taking the process/ #2 to increase your value. You're not born a psychopath/ you become one.

You can always watch a false telenovela[816]/ if not.

It's ~~believed~~ known by the author that in the End (and it's even given in every religious book): when it would come to this War of the Worlds (realms, Universes – as described in, #1.11xE) only those who have acquired the traits, knowledge and possessed a variety of skills would be spared from this whole Creation (as i.e. critics, those weak – weakly prepared would rather cause problem[817] than solve anything/ literally: those who attack people who have taken the process/ #2).

Therefore: it's in your best self-interest to start play[818] this game/ #2.

[816] Impossible to be achieved scheme of a perfect 'life'/ causing frustration.
[817] They're a problem from the perspective of Creation but are left to serve as an opposing force for those who reinforce their strengths & fight to win – learning, all the time/ as free will has to be present. Interestingly: everyone has got equal chances to do it, as he's faced with a different set of problems in each of his lifetimes/ being best equipped.

4X. ENDING

All Laws in the Universe are here to assist you in the development/ reinforce thinking – to realize the purpose of Creation, #1.11xF. We're brought here, without a manual or tutorial how to play along and use them to our own advantage. Generalizations, might be known and are introduced in the form of religion: not to harm anybody, be a good man but – it doesn't provides much and it's rather largely incomplete.

The world is, as it is: purposely – to pick and create those who have learned to use their brains – to progress from a sheep to an intelligent beings. Only those, who invested their efforts and used their abilities to uncover the truths, are and would know solely the stakes involved in this game – rest, just doesn't cares and they suffer throughout their whole lives, because of that. It's only up to you, whether you would reinforce your strengths, adapt to what's here – to win, all the desired and Live a happy Life/ not the comfortable one, but the most pleasurable.

It's the work, only you can do. You're in this game alone – you're judged individually, as everyone else yet their punishments, might and are often purposely hidden. It's never about not making any errors or taking the wrong choices – they're required to progress, but about the ability to learn based on them. Nobody ever told, it's easy to start but it's required – and it, only matters. By refusing to play, accordingly to rules: you always get the punishments which are usually delayed in time by 5, 15 or even more years.

Those, who have started the process, #2: Laws start, to work for their favor in this reality. Those who didn't: might be perceived as slaves for those who took the process, in this reality – working hard, for the money – to blow them up at the end of the month, having little or none left/ or to buy things.

Everyone can take it, but not everybody would. You, yes you – can take it, as you're an entity populating this Universe and Laws are to be used by anybody/ being the same for each one of us, working by the consistent rule. The question is only: whether you would be intelligent/ smart enough, to use the knowledge here presented?

Most, would not.

It's only about you.

Take the process, #2/ the path-of-power.

[818] Telling it the most clearly: refusal to become the best of the best – would be equal to the end of you, terminal.
The end: of your existence.

This book is worthless/ if the knowledge isn't applied by you – to your daily Life. It's a continual process.

To brake any fear: do what you fear, immediately. It's required sometimes to investigate the object[819] of the fear itself.

Knowledge is highly organised – you're always being lead by the path of maximal development: only untruths and false/ inaccurate information might find you, being screamed or presented publicly. It's required to invest your own efforts into understanding and it's hard, because an invisible (moral/ #1.1) field is to be conquered. However, it's always worthy as it pays off – sometimes, you might not know how or why at the moment of attaining it.

You see, if you don't know how to earn money: the only idea, besides getting a legal day-job would be to punch somebody in the head and rob him/ maybe more ambitious immoral enterprises i.e. selling drugs or others/ heist. Here comes, the knowledge because if you pursue the process, #2: an ocean of opportunity comes in – you start to see, use and gain of ALL what you've acquired, #0.1/ if backed only by the appropriate brain programming.

Those, who have risen to the very top: have invested all their Lives, to conquer the darkness of the unknown, feared and took the risks and chances – if not even always the moral way/ #1.12 & 1.2: they've learned on their mistakes, fast.

You won't ever be nobody else, than who you are or can personally become – therefore, take the path which is right, from the very beginning and complete it with success as the rewards are a guarantee. It's ALL the difference between those who have access to such knowledge, to those – who don't. Be however wary, that by sharing it with others/ the payback would come, from other source – in a prolonged time. Know basically, that what you do today – would be repaid, in a 5-7 year mark so you'd better start do it now, #2.

No purposeful effort, is ever lost.

[819] Using/ observing others who already did it might be helpful, therefore: share this document, now/ it's the purpose.

Most people/ you would desire in life – to experience a pill, which taken: would give you ALL what you want, in an instant. This knowledge, is such pill – #0.1, #1/ the one, which works and lasts, without any hangover or unwanted side effects, which provides unlimited health, #3 and that takes on a journey, #2 of a lifetime – rejecting all the darkness, shade within.

You have however take it, to experience.

You've found the code of this reality – know all the possible traps, variables to follow to get the desired/ to get the fastest, most prolific results possible – the best[820] way. Therefore, the only person to blame for not succeeding, at it – is you.

You would get back to this book many times.

Power and achievement is measured not by the volume of knowledge attained, but by the sheer actions and courage who lead to their completion.

[820] The process/ #2: can be also understood by you – the other way/ a closer to the reality of what it is & even simpler. It's a Law (God intent) which wants something to be introduced in the material world for purposes of the plan, #1.11xE/ i.e. moral development of the individual people, something which would cause them to think – direct their attention on (or scare/ or to test them – how they would behave, where they are), etc… We Live in a cause-reality environment so for everything there must be a valid-reason (causality)/ i.e. a tower can't just pop-up in front of you as it has to be build by someone – similarly as with all the other things (it could, but because of this self-imposed limitations on this reality by the God/ Creator himself it has to be assigned for the entities populating it, to be done).

It's a guess, that likely some people would have to be for instance spared by the Laws (ex. in terms of Health/ #3) so a person is introduced to this reality who willingly follows the track, because he wants to be high as it's embedded in him and it's the only source of getting it/ at the level by him desired (many more, apply). He is also extremely lazy, doesn't wants to work, is interested only in the easiest & simplest jobs (which might not be such, to the outer but for him are totally/ with limited IQ). Therefore, he does the job required by him in the process and does it in an excellent matter (in his thinking only/ i.e. it's never what anyone thinks). A book is released, as tasked by the Laws (God)/ #2 and it would be supplied to those for sure who earned the reasons to Live (be kept, in this reality alive) as they continue their development, willingly (lack of this knowledge might cause their deaths, due to cause-effect chain involved i.e. eating bad foods, absence of knowledge in other fields/ you can only think of more – not everyone is able to take such risks and has simply the time to focus on those areas for everybody important).

It's what you have to know/ persevere// $_{x}\infty$.

Nothing can kill you, unless you allow it to. People would always find some sort of explanations why they've didn... focus on the solutions – answers, seek eternally until you get them. This unrelenting attitude is required, throughout whole Life – throughout ALL the process, #2. Those motivated enough, would only succeed. You can win in life, but would you take the effort to?

Watch on the temptations, complete the work given – it takes only those couple years to win your Life to the end of it. It's the effort worth taking, because of the journey, development and increase of self-worth. In it, remember to always ingest new purposeful information.

Attain new knowledge, everyday – for at least min. of 2.5 hours daily, 4h or more at the required best.

It's a must.

You have to always develop yourself in this reality, because lack of purposeful movement – is equal to death, #1.1. The last, might not come solely due to lack of it, but because of not being aware and mindful enough: on thinking, and securing all the required. You have to be inquisitive: if you don't see possibly that after beer you're drinking/ food you're eating – your stomach is in pain or that after the medicine you're taking – you're not cured, yet bound to take it for life: your genes and those, of the less intelligent would likely be removed, on your own due to sicknesses and diseases which would follow. Inability to recognize that the maintenance and expansion of diseases is a precondition for the industry's financial growth; the pharmaceutical industry is an investment industry driven by the profits of its shareholders is your fault solely.

You're born dumb as each one of us – imperfect and it's only up to whether you would choose to do something about it, which really do matters in the end. You have to always strive for the better, to improve your situation – your Life, your knowledge and understanding. Nobody would teach you to think, until you won't do it yourself: similarly as nobody would believe in you – until you won't believe in yourself, first.

It's never any embarrassment for you to fail/ to struggle (as seen by others) but to give up and cease your purposeful[821] activities leading to overcoming yourself/ & development, in result.

/ Independent of any.

It's a disaster of our own making, because through our way of irresponsible living – which deemed a natural occurrence of the economic system of the planet: we've depleted our ozone layer, which threatens to kill us all and all the living – on the outer layer of this planet. The chemtrails program, which has a task to limit the deadly UV radiation coming from the Sun and serves as a medium to create a large scale ozonator in the upper level of the atmosphere: plays only a limited[822] role to rebuild the ozone/ the limits have already been crossed. Those substances used to make this protective cover on the skies are consisted out of deadly chemicals, which harm your health everyday – everywhere, where the civilization reached. All would be brought to a halt, in a very prolonged transition era which role would be to rebuild the environment/ where all the production – stops i.e. "the stone age, era", to introduce the new, minded system. Its role would be not to produce all, which would brake after time – that completely wastes the resources, but to think everything through and never allow anything similar to happen in the future.

Those current efforts (GMO's, through poisons/ toxins introduced on many products, pharmaceuticals, drugs, information etc./ recently brand cigarettes, alcohols) which you see daily: are only a subsidiary, to limit the ever increasing population. If you're not after taking the full health restoration process, #3: your body is likely to crack under the ever amounting number of toxins that are absorbed by it, everyday.

We've destroyed this planet and if you didn't spotted that you've been poisoned for all those years, was not mindful enough to see that the 2012 end of the world predictions/ agenda was only a warning: you're likely to be left, with all the sheep – those who are unprepared, commonly ridiculing everyone around who does something/ i.e. as in the movie "In Time" (2011). The world as we know it, is coming to an end and you'd better be prepared. The process, #2 would allow you to gain the required resources and as you would become more worth: new opportunities would open for you as your value would increase – to grow incrementally, each day/ it's the only [823]salvation, in truth.

Take, the path-of-[824]power.
Now.

---

[821] It's the excuse/ i.e. the story you've believed in, which stops you in your tracks of getting what you want/ #2.
It's you: who stops himself, by the thoughts you hold in your mind/ #0.1: forever.
You have to break them, to get/ to be able to get.
You know, what to do/ #2.

[822] To slow down the process of its destruction and therefore: to provide more time for the ongoing research.

[823] In this event population would drop probably by 70-90%/ in picture: you might be one of the lost souls. It's ~~believed~~ known by the author that if you took the process/ #2: you'd be spared by the Laws to continue your development/ where the rest would get stranded fighting for their life and death as foreseen in the movie mentioned in the text – where 'time' would be access to clean water and food, shelter/ if you run out of it: you die.

You either prepare & execute what's necessary or you suffer the consequences {i.e. death/ in _Agony --- as essence}.

You've got no-time, literally to –prepare as the {events} are coming rapidly & the-temperature {heat} is rising very fast, NOW [as of February 2016– }.

Therefore: -prepare {by executing protocol contained in the book} or die.

A frog dropped into a boiling water would jump-off it, quickly.
The same frog dropped into a water with the-temperature steadily rising:
will cook itself without her even knowing {die}.

{The same Applied to the Most of Humanity/}

WHY IT_HAPPENS/ & WHY I _MUST: EXECUTE THE PROTOCOL

0.01. BEGINNINGS OF UNDERSTANDING

In order for the Humanity to survive: The World Population has to be reduced at least by the level of 70-90%/ & it has to be _organized in a way which would promote the Development[830] of the Human-specie in the way to become a ~~meaningful~~ Important-player in the intergalactic-sphere.

The Process started in the beginning of this Century/

{As of _recent: timeline of events/

In essence:

You'd be brought to your-knees in The-Chemical-Attack period before you know-it {as if you've failed to notice that -3 years back _ALL was poisoned, i.e. to name a few: clothes, bottled water & tap water, food {packings} with even items such as paper/ toilet.paper & All-the-rest}.

If you refuse to make the necessary-preparations {which would be_ ALL-made in a budget of [832]700 EUR}: you'd [probably] / D-I-E- / like_ the rest of your-kind {if ignored to _implement this[basic]:knowledge As Exactly As It was Presented in this book}.

The time is-ticking {no-time has barely left & it's "Last Chance"/ literally.

Authors+note.

I never care. You take it as it's written = you succeed & / perhaps/ beyond 99.5% of population.

Ignore everybody as they're programs {

- refusal to let others let to think for themselves is the prelude to your_disaster

} [[never reveal your_knowledge {found in this book} / never speak about .poisoning {the-Chemical-Attack period} / never consult this knowledge with no-0ne [[leave it for yourself & NEVER let n0body close [even:remotely] to the Big+Picture/ i.e. Agenda/ of yours]]/.

Very little explanation will be provided as the time to / "seed" / has _GONE and _now is the time – TO.EXECUTE.

Fail to / take [833]1-2 weeks of vacation (from work) & prepare for the incoming will [probably] result in your_failure to survive {death}.

Look only upon yourself as you – Are – The – Most – Important – In – The –World.

[832] A money-amount EVERYONE/ YOU has the ability to get {in up to a 3 weeks-period: in case of those who have no-money}.

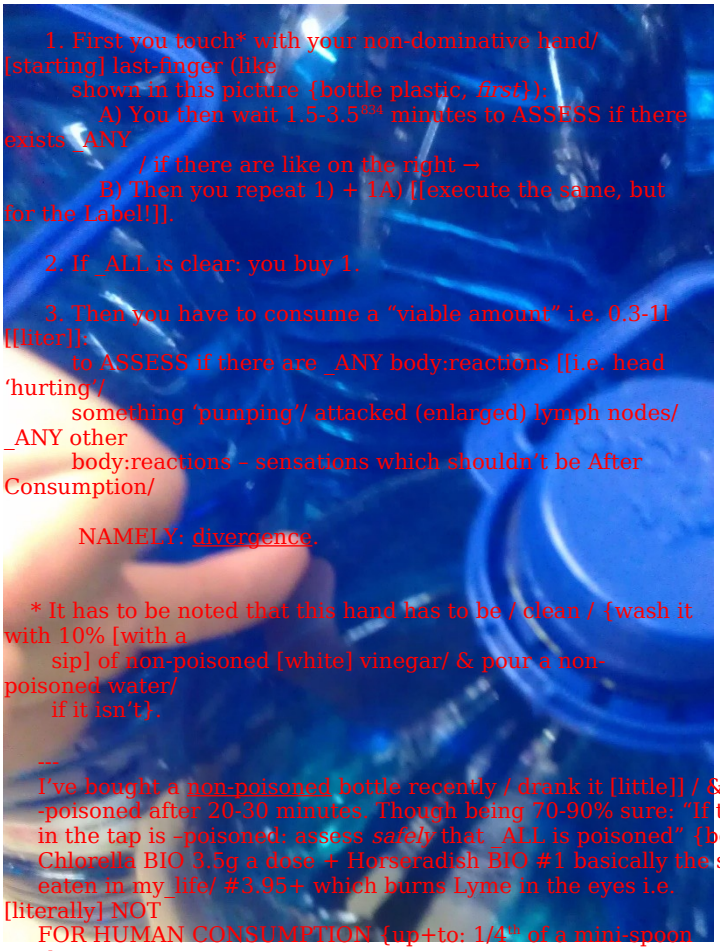
-1. [NON-POISONED] WATER SUPPLY

As of ~1st March 2016 tap/ {bottle} water is poisoned. Your head already probably hurts [[or you've got so adjusted to being chronically poisoned by now that you've ceased to pay-attention]].

HOW TO DETECT POISONED/ NON-POISONED SOURCES {of water/ food i.e. How to distinguish}

The protocol is easy:



[834] I typically walk in the shop scouting for the new products to buy [[but Never touching them!]].

when you're -ALL:poisoned (All is –poisoned so/
IF UNSURE [[LESS THAN IN 100% {ABSOLUTELY!} SURE]] === REJECT.

ACT NOW!

[0] Buy _ALL expiry[835] date: 2016-12 – 2016-06 [[i.e. "old waters"]].
[1] Buy / some / glass-waters.
[option: 1A] Additionally buy some 100% cold-pressed juices [[pasteurized & not]].

{test[836] them _All: before the purchase}

I've secured _myself / before /

[835] It's just an expiry_date of the bottle as water never spoils/ they would be safe perhaps up to a 1-year after as the plastic would start to brake down and leak petrochemicals to the water itself [[it would be experienced {beyond that \ extra \ term} in the –poisoning:taste but none serious would happen]]. Waters stored in glass are valid virtually indefinitely if the cap is not re-sealed or damaged {the expiry_date [in_reality] is a "guarantee" by the producer of product freshness – a time where it stores the / quality / promised /// in _ALL food products [[in fact: it insures the product will sell/ & be consumed, in time which increases the+profits for the first}.
[836] You buy just 1 piece of the item you're going to buy [[in bulk]] & test+ All of them 1 by one / with 5-7 minute breaks in_between.

In essence: over 90 non-poisoned[837] [verified 100%] 6l bottles [[plus glass-water!]]/ & about x100 noodles [[now the stashes of food had been expanded significantly/ #1(Apocalypse)]].

LEARN

If you‘ve got –resources which keep you START.AHEAD/

You’re safe & basically[838] “can die” and it’s _ALL about it {therefore you _always prepare:before/ any of such events-cataclysms happens {{i.e. fun}}}.

[837] They’re secured over many locations [[in_pictures are just shown some/ visit +xernt[directory]/3.3B_Agenda.anonymous_logs.pdf] for more].
[838] I refer to it as `peace of the mind` which is an –enormous.advantage.

-Psychiatric.hospital place is my source of drinking water when my supplies end.

Though, 3 km distant: I'm _required to be going there @ 06:00-06:30 {leave} MAX & 20:30-21:00 due to reason of missing All those who have placed/ seen me in the department and who might question me. I'm planning to carry there 2 bags & a backpack with empty 6l bottles[839] {to conceal the purpose of visit} (where 10-15, 21 bottles would be left). The water itself has to be drank w/o touching the "neck" with my mouth (due to bacteria that grow on it & spoilage/ nasty smell of the bottle itself). I plan also to carry a 1.75l bottle from which I would drink directly {the water was never poisoned in [the-state-of-the-Art] hospital {now & in the past}: since they've got a separate[840] [water] source and those neighboring flats have also shown no-indication of water poisoning {was in dentist for tooth removal during the time of the stay: there & water seriously had no-signs of tampering when I was ordered to wash my mouth}.

-/ If you've got none such [free] water source or have no knowledge about it yet: you're left with [[except for the waters found in the shop/ i.e.]]/

1. They've put up a "100% [pressed] apple-juice" in a [carton-box!] which is a novelty in Poland since n0body buys [bought, like:never] so/ such expensive [the cost is –outstanding as 11.99 PLN {2.8 EUR/ for 3 liters of 100% apple-juice]: I've paid for [a single] 6l water: 1.79 PLN {0.42 EUR; see previous-pages}.

You've got also 100% juices [[with NONE addition of the –poisoned-water {that's the point!}/ which are pasteurized {[ultra-fast] boiling juices/ i.e. pasteurization causes Vitamins {& ~~more~~ All-else/ read All about it in #3.1+ chapter of The Luciferian.Doctrine.pdf} to be destroyed [[rendered useless for the body/ though present in the product]]. Therefore: If you'd suffer some vitamin-poisoning (which in overdose causes symptoms and [perhaps] leads to vomit {as in the case of foods}: _ALL you [839] To get 18l/ 19 qt every 3 up to 4 days.

[840] Update 2017-03-17. I've took water from that [marked presume it's due to chemicals that were used to clean it [would get there though in up to few+weeks and would ta [[did it already & water was OK]]. I'd probably be in a _re rubber-pipe but I would get there {in the_end}. The –protocol for water-testing in such cases/ is _wait up to 35 minutes after the initial-sip [[followed in 10-15 minutes with up to 1.5 "sip"]] {& observation/ #-1(Apocalypse)}.

have to execute is to boil[841] those non-pasteurized juices to turn them into a 'color' [tasty] water {like it is done with the milk/ for instance}.

{If there is X condition there _Always pops-up something to counter-act it i.e. there is _forever the solution to –any}. Though, because you've refused to –prepare:before --- you'd be now paying extra {& as I say: A poor {due to being unprepared and/or lack of $} losses up to x10 times.}

2. There are _also those waters in the glass/

Though they're just 0.50 PLN {0.12 EUR/ as bottle is given-back}: they contain over 3,400mg of minerals/ per 1 liter {you get high by drinking them perhaps due to [natural] fluoride contents so they _must/ should.be: diluted or used as a safety for up to few a day}.

I've also found those [other] 0.33l glass-bottles but they were just few of them and they've cost 1.49 PLN {0.35 EUR}. No-other [glass-bottles]] were present at my current location and the 2nd where they've might be some non-poisoned glass water is in a city 25km near so it _requires a car {trouble, so stick – with.what.you've.got:currently!}.

They should stay safe[842] [[to the End/ i.e. end of 2016/ Jan 2017]]). {They would stay-safe indefinitely! See #-1[Apocalypse]:footnotes for more on expiry_dates of glass[water]}

[3:] There is _also a possibility of – buying those "experimental" waters which are quite expensive but which might play the/ 13.99 & 19.99 PLN {3.27 & 4.67 EUR} for 5 liters/ They've might be valid {non-tested, though} because they're placed in {paper/ cardboard} cartons {which were never-poisoned in the past}.

[4:/ ignore]. I've also once, being drunk --- in the water:poisoning period {few years ago} spoke with

The+Truth is that my_mind requires drugs [dope] to function at its best. The substance of choice [currently] is DXM [Dextrometorphan] /// NFO. It has to be _pure/ i.e. it never can contain any extra-substances like painkillers that are frequently added or it would kill you [[harm liver, etc.]]. In Poland the / cure / is sold as "Acodin" {I've paid for it under 5 PLN [1 Euro] in the years before/ now, the price has doubled to 10 PLN --- it's what #inflation is about [prices rise, but you earn the+same or a little bit more/ it has to be noted that products are very often priced a bit each passing year or are downsized as for instance years before I've bought a beer for 1.69 & it had 7.2% : now the_same beer costs 1.79 PLN and it has "only" 6.6% [[or you get instead of a 1 Liter of juice/ i.e. 0.9L]]}. / In order for the drug to perpetuate its job [[i.e. RESET[your]:MIND!]] it has to be used at a dose of YOUR_WEIGHT x 2.5mg so for a 70kg person the MAX_DOSE is 175mg so I've took 150mg. / It's forbidden to mix it with _ANY [[including *any pharmaceuticals [as for instance: anti-depressants, herbs, alcohol, etc.]]. You're forbidden also to use chestnut oil.

I've took it immediately {yesterday} in pharmacy [[I always took drugs in such places since they're safe/ similarly as I drink in a shop/ etc.]]. You never think [[as you've did the thinking, before/ as _forever]].

Thoughts to the-trip: NEVER avoid to panic [when it loads]. IGNORE everything else [[NO/ you would never die from such dosage/ if you have followed guidelines stated above]]. // You have to also have in mind that if you'd go to the doctors: you'd be laughed and sent back home [[with such dose]]. I mean: programs take up to 90 tablets of it at once [[protocol is 7 tablets per 7 minutes to avoid vomit]]. Oh & avoid to vomit because you won't [[waste of time]]. N0body has ever died out of such `dose` and you'd be fine. The "high" [[I experience no "high" in the strict sense/ i.e. #1.1 but I take it because I must // to function, at my+best {you're never supposed to understand it / }. Therefore: calm down/ It lasts about 2 hours [[peaking at 1.5-2h]] and then it basically wears off though ~~the trip~~ the effects might last for the next 2-4 hours/ -end.

It also nullifies your+tolerance for drugs [[so instead of taking 1g of Amph. : to have the-same effect/ you might now be taking half of it]].

It's what I've required/ though: enough is _enough & you're supposed to take this drug up to 1-once/ a month {I take it 1-2 times a year/ up to this time}. For me it's an Anti-depressant and it basically "straightens" your brain-"homeostasis" [let's say it like this] so you're clear to go {first-use / A day After: I've opened a fridge and laughed to meat as a prime example}. / It's just [my_]pharmacy.

The 3rd step to / persevere / in the _moments {_ANY psychological "issues"} like this is/

U

Use UP+TO[!] 10x 15mg tablets [[150mg of / pure / DXM [[Dextrometorphan]] at once/ per month. Females 8 tablets MAX (optional but _required).

1.1. SECURING FOOD FOR THE NEXT 9-11 MONTHS/ FOR AFTER THE FALL & PROTECTING YOUR_SPACE

You must think & prepare [[in_time]] things to survive you'd _require.

1.11. (Non-poisoned) Food:security Up To The Fall

@1st March 2016: water was poisoned Worldwide, so basically Every food-product made with the use of water like: [potato] chips, –cheddar is destined/ will be – poisoned, too.

NOODLES (PASTA, RAMEN) is the –least.expensive food item available in my_area so, I've bough/~250x 400g [[14.1oz]] packets of it. I've tested it before for its validity. I've bought _ALL: items in shops for up to 01-2019 [[expiry_date]] {about x100 noodles for 0.99 PLN each {0.23 EUR}}.

It is important though to mention that [[in the same time]]: they've added new_series of the same product but with the expiry_date changed by –1 year & / when the water became poisoned / I've found that mother bought 2 pasta's from that:series [[02-2018 C3AS]] for 0.99 PLN in that promotion (so technically the product couldn't be poisoned from there in Jan 2016 when it was bought) and with the influx of funds: I've cleared –ALL 5 [network]shops with that pasta {pasta of those #series} [[as there was none [other] expiry.date-before [those] pasta's & my[program]:mother provided me with details of the purchase which were congruent with what I've spot --- i.e. those pasta's were released with new _expiry:date).

In the picture on left: you've got a (sample) of concealed stash [[of 30/40 pasta's]] which I've spread over whole my_home.

I've paid in overall about 300 PLN {69.91 EUR} for the food which would serve as my –safety.pillow[848] i.e. consuming it would allow me to sustain _myself for those next 9-11 months before the Fall.

[848] If I would have no-other[safe] food for consumption in that period: I would _survive just by eating pasta everyday.

ACT

If you aim to have a similar-plan in place: ask [the_manager] for those "old" pasta's who were delivered to the Wholesale/ shop: by date 11-2015/ 01-206 (as those are [perhaps] safe). Buy 1 [[just one]]/ –pour a non-poisoned water [[#-1(Apocalypse)]] to a [849]brand-new pot (cookware) and put it to a boiling point: then add the pasta (& check for "divergence" [[if any poisoning-symptoms appear/ #-1(Apocalypse):1st)]]. If they show no-signs of being –poisoned: you buy the whole cartons of that #series [[it's time-sensitive!

{You again pay, because you've refused to execute it before}

[849] 1-time you pour water [[even a bit]] to a vessel: it's basically GONE / FOREVER --- You won't rather make it ever[!] cleaned out of the toxic-chemical {which is a direct evidence for the Ultimate(Last): poisoning before the Fall!}.

SELECTION OF FOODS-TO-BUY/

- CANNED BEANS,
  LENTILS,
  PEAS,

- With CANNED [WILD!] FISH you _MUST be thoughtful because they've might be Radioactive. / I've once entered a shop and found –suspiciously:priced sardines. I've bought 2- cans & ate them/ over an hour later I've became –poisoned [[feeling of / changed_[internal]:state / sleepiness & All.the-other symptoms follow/ → you would.know if you'd only focus on your_internal:feelings[850]]].

- OLIVES [[those & –ANY other: You _MUST Find Expiry_Dates Which Are Up+To A Certain Point {Of Time; See The Next Page!} with non_poisoned water [[–USE plastic-cutlery for –ALL foods[851] for this period]].

1.14. (Non-poisoned) Food:security After The Fall

You _MUST: prepare yourself for the incoming --- to survive.

In order for you to have a 'food:security' for The[857]+Next+Decade: you'd _require:

- 1,9 tonne[858] of Raw, Hard-Winter Wheat(berries) [[a {raw} cost of about 1,400 PLN {327 EUR}]]

All packed in a Heavy-duty[7mil] Mylar:bags.

You'd probably had never eaten a whole-seed wheat.

It has to be soaked in cold water [[7h soak &/ 45 minutes cooked: in a boiling water]]/

GRAINS[505]	TIME TO SOAK TIME TO BOIL	TIME TO SPROUT
Wheat Spelt Kamut (durum)	7 hours 45 minutes	2-3 days

Though: such plan in work might actually work also in their case under the condition that they will substitute[859] it with fresh prey [[human flesh of those [freshly:]dead might be used {it's also meat}/ for instance]].

-/ First assemble_knowledge about the foods which you'd be packing /-

HOW TO PACK FOODS IN _MYLAR:BAGS {INSTRUCTIONS}

{BASE+COST}

1. You _require to buy: x150-x350-x450 Large Heavy Duty Mylar[863] Bag - 48cm x 74cm (19 "x 29") [[7mil (178 microns) Thickness]] {5 Gallon / ~19 Litre}

   A [base] cost of x150 (150 bags) is 2050 PLN {477 EUR}.
   Though recommended is buying ~~x350~~[-x450] if you are after surviving a decade.

2. You _must buy to them: [a matching_size of] 2,000cc Oxygen-Absorbers.

[863] I'd buy some of these [[minimal_order]] in order to test them/ if they were NOT coated in pesticides/ #-1(Apocalypse).

A [base] cost of x150 (for 150 bags) is 655 PLN {153 EUR}.

3. [OPTIONAL!] While buckets are _*optional*, because _mylar:bags would keep the food safe: they won't protect against rodents, punctures [[of the bags]] which are easy to get nor any other damage to them.

   Any 6-Gallon/ 23-25 Litre buckets would be fine [[if no-chemicals were kept in them]] but the most prevalent are: 10x 6-Gallon Pail With Gama Air-Tight Lids AND 10x (min. 23 or) 25 Litre Plastic Buckets With Lids And Metal Handle, Hard Wearing Bucket.

   It's recommended to have at least x10 of those pales [[close-tight, lid buckets]] as when you'd open a _mylar:bag with food: it has to be closed [tightly] after every use to _prevent any spoilage [[contamination of the food!]]/ & any mylar_bag(bucket) is equal to 1-month, 0.5kg/ a day ration.

   A cost of x10 is 327 PLN {76 EUR}.

4. [OPTIONAL!] It's _optional to put packets of moisture-absorbers into food [[at the bottom]] to prevent:spoilage {The last has to be dry}/ i.e. 100g Silica Desiccant Sachets.

   A 50-pack costs 436 PLN {101 EUR}.

HOW TO BUY FOOD

“I purchase organically grown whole wheat berries (Winter wheat) from a natural foods grocery store that sells in bulk. Whole Foods Market is a national chain that sells bulk foods but there are others including local sources. HOW TO PACK FOOD [[FULL_PROTOCOL]]

4. You put the food in [[14-17kg/ ~30.9-37.5 lbs/ per bucket]]: up to the lid but leaving some space left to be able close it, tightly.

SURVIVING THROUGH THE APOCALYPSE [[I.E. END OF 2016/ 2017-01 –TO 2023-2025]]

Before you engage – you _MUST:plan [[to EVERY single/ smallest/ possible: details {variation/ of events}.

2.01. WATER

You survive with no_water for up to few days & you die with none of it {{but if you go beyond a day with no water: your_thinking seriously degrades, so [pure, non-poisoned] WATER is your:Highest priority[877] over any other_requirements for survival/ of All-time).

After The Fall: there would be no-shops/ #-1(Apocalypse) ability type-of-purchases maybe for except the –WELL "[#4]" mentioned [[most automatic pumps would [perhaps] cease to work due to lack of electricity]].

THE+WORST case scenario is you: having None [running] Water. The last is – poisoned in the majority streams and rivers [it contains pesticides, chemicals, animal-agriculture manure [[shit]], bacteria, viruses and –All: / nasty. Though: the worse is when it contains `hydrogen sulphide` [[in higher concentrations you've might sense a stench of 'spoiled eggs' but if you take it from the "source" of stream: it might carry no-smell or taste but the poison would still be there]]. Take a look at the table of sample –poisoning:symptoms/

POISON	SYMPTOMS [[CONSEQUENCES]]
Lentils [[{ALL:not-BIO/ in.reality]]	After ~5 hours from consumption something in your_intestines cracks open & you experience pain[heartburn] –poisoning {due to GMO:lentils).

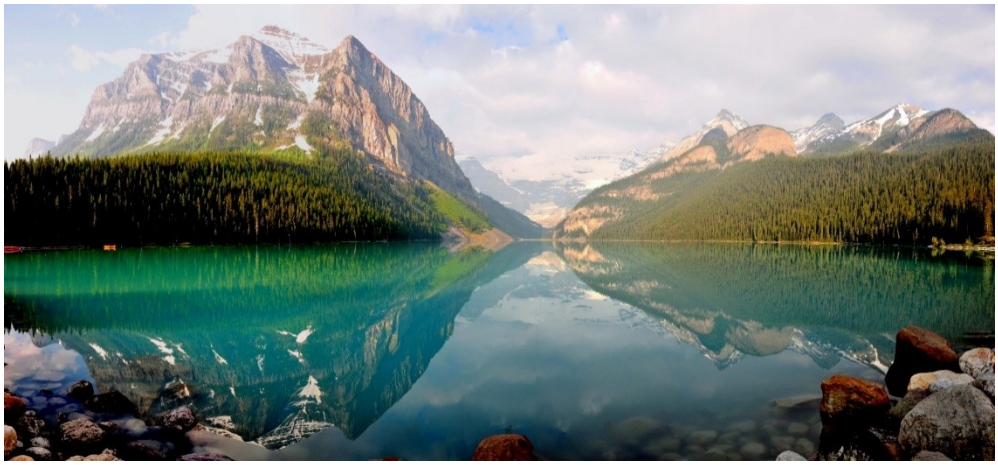
Therefore if you pick those locations to survive: it'd be best if they were near a 1-st[879] grade:class of purity-lakes/ i.e. for drinking:purposes {best Huge, with an abundance of wildlife –set in an environment with no farm fields, far from any agriculture; in a secluded area/ where n0body gets to [with a constant water flow]}.



-/

Location with an underground [best: very deep] running water source fit with manual:pump/ checked for the quality[purity] of water {including –pesticide/ -toxic chemicals present [[which get to the water from the above and flow with it]]/ inc. hydrogen sulphide [contents], etc.}: would also make a –perfect {if only fully_stacked/ #1.14(Apocalypse) & 100% protected} place to stay.

Water is of #NO1:Importance, forever.

YOU

If you aim to pick the location for survival: it has to be near a [safe]: water_source.

-Any water that you drink from lake/ or any other source: _MUST be brought up to a boiling point and left [[cooking]] for the next few minutes.

Never eat when you have no [pure-]running water.

- If they hesitate/ -to.kill in order to protect what's theirs [yours/ group] [[but with a sense of morality/ ^& LOYALTY to the group]]: they're of ~~little~~ none use {You never invest in losers}.

X. EXTRAS

X1. HOW+TO ACQUIRE [PURE] WATER IN SPRING– [[to Winter/

1. You find a tree:

A) MAPLE TREE

(or its variation) [[The sap flows from as early as January to as late as May dependent upon location/ but usually it's a ~month time of window]] AND/ OR

B) BIRCH TREE

You identify those by its characteristic [[white with black-stripes) bark [[sap available is beginning of March where the temperature is 8-10 °C/ 46.4-50F (for few days) and up+to 18-20 days before the tree would release its buds).

2. You make a [shallow] puncture:

The sap should start to soak (in some cases it might take up to few minutes!).

3. You connect a tube:

Either: inch copper pipes might be used, but also things like a piece of bended metal sheet, metal pens and others which serve the purpose {which you attach to the tree to collect the sap into a vessel}. In the case of lack of any: you puncture a hole with the top side of your knife & attach a wooden-peeled stick.

4. You place a [best: 4-5 litre] pot/ plastic [[non-poisoned]] water bottle under the funnel for the water to be collected.

In few hours you can collect at min. 3 liters of water from a [single] tree {make sure to cover those bottles [from_others] with a bark}.

[Walnut trees also produce [consumable] sap like many others]
{non-tested, yet}

X1A. HOW+TO MAKE A CONTAINER

Such a man is prudent and does not allow himself to take risky actions that could expose him to some loss, for example material, but unfortunately he does not always succeed. He is very ambitious, therefore he stubbornly strives, not counting on luck, but only on himself and usually achieves his goals at the price of great effort and honest work. He often feels aggrieved because he rarely meets what he deserves, objectively and in his opinion. It can lead him into frustration and irritation.

Such a person is also considered to be very serious, but he is not rigid - he has a perfect sense of humor and likes to read comic stories, however, he usually remains serious in everyday life, especially when the situation requires it.

In addition, a man born on January 1 has great trust in relatives and friends because he is very caring and he has the happiness and prosperity of others, so he tries to help them, often at his own expense, with all possible means. Such people are also characterized by the fact that they like to talk a lot, although they do not have great talent in this field. The disadvantages include traits such as fierce, vindictive and gloomy, but they are balanced by virtues such as justice, virtue and nobility. It is also characterized by great gravity and permanence, also in feelings. It is rather secretive, so it can be a perfect confidant of other people's secrets and secrets.

To avoid this, a man born on January 2 should focus primarily on his relationships with the environment, and try to work on himself and constantly improve his character and strengthen his weak or eliminate negative sides. He is fast and efficient in action, conscientious and full of agility, and also crafty as a predator, which provides him with excellent results in all activities he undertakes. If, however, something happens to him, he gives his actions all appearances of victory and deceives himself and others, only to be seen in their eyes as the invincible and the winner. If he decides that someone is his enemy or may harm him in any way, he can be very stubborn and vindictive.

It is most important for him to make a career and show everyone his considerable superiority over others, both on social and intellectual grounds. Often, he manages to achieve these goals and eagerly surrounds people who are weaker and admiring him, which flatter him and raises his value in his own eyes. He likes to supervise everything and to give other people, even him independent commands, and has the right predispositions for it, because he is strong, very confident and extremely courageous. He is never afraid to undertake even the most difficult intentions and tasks, and at the same time, he stubbornly strives to achieve them, in which character traits such as patience and great perseverance help him considerably. Thanks to this, it does not happen that he does not achieve his goal, unless he concludes that he really does not need it and will give up himself.

His unbelievable projects can sometimes seem to outsiders seem bold and unreasonable, impossible to achieve, but he always stubbornly and consistently strives for what he has planned before. This excessive ambition often gives him some trouble, because it prevents him from achieving complete peace and a sense of happiness in life. Therefore, people born on January 7 are ideally suited to high, leading positions, especially in areas such as commerce, banking or some industry.

The person born on January 7 also has a very large ease of flexible adaptation to changing environmental conditions, which of course is not always an advantage, because it can also take the form of negative and universally condemned opportunism or even depravity, especially in relation to people above or for example superiors . This attitude is obviously aimed at achieving the greatest possible material benefits, because this is the main goal of the person born on January 7, and most often sends it all other values that are not so important for her. He may even sometimes use the weaker to achieve his goals. It makes him rarely has true and faithful friends - more often he is very lonely, even for a lifetime or at least a greater part of him. His character helps him achieve his goals. The person born in January is characterized by great enthusiasm in action and the will to fight, sometimes even excessive. 9TH OF JANUARY

A person born on January 9 has a rather complicated personality, because it is characterized by a sophisticated mind, high emotionality and emotionality, as well as artistic preferences, it can be very serious or impulsive, depending on the circumstances. Depending on the mood, a man born on January 9 can be either very sophisticated, sublime and refined, or - if his mood is not the best - impulsive, laconic and unwilling to do some especially refined behaviors. The characteristic of his humor is his style of expression. If his speech is decorative and raised, it is a sign of a perfect mood, but if he rather reluctantly speaks and does so in a decidedly unsophisticated manner, he certainly has something on his heart or someone has recently annoyed him. Thanks to this, it is easy to get to know his mood and avoid any conflict, withdrawing if he has a bad mood. This particularly applies to people who know him well and his moods. Such a twofold also appears in the everyday life of such a man: sometimes the material sphere is the most important for him, while in others he rises to the spiritual heights and despises lowness and triviality.

Another very important feature of this man's character is his great perseverance - he is very calm, strong and does not bend under any, even the greatest adversities of fate, but calmly and methodically seeks his clear goal. He also does not allow anyone to disturb him, but he does not have to fight or compete with anyone, because his enemies are hurting themselves, because all their efforts are unsuccessful and even unnoticed. They waste only time that they could devote to constructive activities, and this advantage is greatly exploited by the man born that day. It also shows a lot of entrepreneurship, which is why there are usually no major problems with achieving material success and obtaining assets, if of course it has such a desire and needs.

His main problem is the great ambition and the fact that he also requires a lot of criticism from others, if he thinks that they are not trying enough. He should therefore fight with this undesirable feature with absolute certainty. Another problem is the failure to be susceptible to failures - the disappointment and melancholy attacks most often cause health problems: bile attacks or stomach upsets. He should fight it, trying to keep hope and stay among cheerful and happy people, for example changing residence or even staying. At the end of his life, this can be aggravated by arthritis.

9TH OF FEBRUARY

Człowiek narodzony 9 lutego jest przyjaźnie usposobiony do ludzi i bardzo pozytywnie nastawiony do świata. Nie wymaga wiele od życia, cieszą go najprostsze drobiazgi, jest ascetą i minimalistą przyzwyczajonym do prostego i nieskomplikowanego życia. Ma skłonności filozoficzne, głosi dobre zdanie, jakie ma o świecie i równie zadowolony jest z własnej osoby i ze swojego życia. Lubi samotność i doskonale czuje się we własnym towarzystwie. Dzięki tym cechom jest bardzo wrażliwy, czasem nawet może przejawiać zdolności telepatyczne lub też być medium. Nawet może sobie tego nie uświadamiać, jednak często miewa prorocze sny i różnego rodzaju przeczucia, które się sprawdzają.

Człowiek ten ma skłonność do głębokiego studiowania wszelkich zagadnień, ale cechę tę jest w stanie doskonale połączyć ze świetną organizacją i zdolnością zarządzania wielkim przedsiębiorstwem. Obok filozofii i analizowania świata na wszystkich jego poziomach, jego wielką pasją jest sport. Zajęcia sportowe pochłaniają sporą część jego wolnego czasu i stanowią niezwykle istotny element codziennego rozkładu dnia. Ponadto człowiek ten ma wielką zdolność do płynnego wyrażania się oraz do odczytywania ludzkich charakterów na podstawie zaledwie kilku gestów czy słów.

Ludzie postronni często odbierają go jako człowieka mało skoncentrowanego na swym działaniu i o bardzo małej aktywności. Nie jest to prawda, bowiem wszelka zwłoka w działaniu jest spowodowana jedynie chęcią zorientowania się w sytuacji i ma na celu zebranie jak największej ilości informacji, jest więc przejawem rozsądnej ostrożności, a nie flegmatyzmu. Działanie takie jest podyktowane chęcią wydawania jedynie w pełni słusznych sądów i wyrobienia sobie odpowiedniej opinii na dany temat i ma na celu wyeliminowanie ewentualnych błędów w postrzeganiu jakiegoś zjawiska czy osoby. Czasem jednak istotnie zdarza się tak, iż jakaś sprawa przerasta człowieka narodzonego tego dnia, zwłaszcza wtedy, gdy powstają jakieś nieoczekiwane trudności i sytuacja wymaga natychmiastowej reakcji. Nie jest to komfortowe dla owego człowieka, bowiem nie jest to jego właściwy sposób działania, dlatego może mieć w takim przypadku problemy z słusznym działaniem.

W młodości miewa problemy ze zdrowiem oraz z samopoczuciem, ale wraz z upływem czasu jego sytuacja znacząco zmienia się na lepsze, by w końcu osiągnąć stały, dobry poziom stabilizacji i szczęścia, do czego człowiek ów sam wydatnie się przyczynia, wykorzystując swe nieprzeciętne umiejętności przewidywania i orientowania się w swym otoczeniu.

In general, he is a great humanist and with great respect refers to all humanities that seek the truth.

Satisfaction is also gained by acquiring purely theoretical knowledge, which can not be put into practice. When it comes to personal characteristics, he is a righteous, honest, good and loyal man. He is very kind to everyone and in every situation, which connects him with many friends, also outside the country in which he lives. They all appreciate the advice given by this man, because they have great value, regardless of the field they concern. It often takes the form of public recognition and popularity.

A man born on that day should avoid hasty and too hasty actions, which he can sometimes harm. This also applies to unnecessary and ill-considered journeys that can ruin his budget without bringing any benefit in return. This rashness in action and great violence are also sometimes the basis of conflicts and misunderstandings with other people.

Another disadvantage of this man is sometimes laziness and inability to effectively and resolutely oppose the adversities of fate. If a situation requires activity, he, instead of decisive action, shows irritation and lack of self-control, and instead of making a decision immediately, he delays as long as he can. However, when he pulls himself together and thoroughly thinks about everything, he will make the perfect decision and show himself full of common sense. So if the situation is not very urgent, it is worth giving him the time required for reflection and drawing the right conclusions, which will certainly bring excellent results and the best possible solution to even the most complicated matter.

The personality of a man born on February 11 is original and extraordinary. He is very focused on his work, but it does not mean, of course, that he does not devote much of his time to other activities. He has an innate gift of quickly establishing contacts with people and infiltrating their characters, thanks to which he is rarely deceived or engages in negative relations for him. He, for that, has a tendency to manipulate people and create intrigues, especially political ones, that are supposed to provide him with profits, and he especially cares about financial ones.

In his actions he is very stubborn and stubborn. He never gives up his plans, even when it costs him a lot - he is willing to suffer significant losses in order to achieve his goal and not let defeat and recognize him as defeated, also in his own eyes. Equally great power manifests itself in feelings - they are torn by great passions that explode suddenly and often pass by. His feelings exert a very strong influence on him and his well-being depends mainly on his success in this sphere. At the same time, he is always polite and sympathetic, but he is not always honest and sometimes hides his true negative feelings after the mask of politeness.

This man should constantly be on his guard not to lead to a situation when his passions and emotions that stir him will get him into some trouble. Although he has great strength and can overcome all obstacles that he encounters in his everyday life, he may have problems with taming himself and controlling his emotions and feelings. If he allows them to take precedence over reason, they will overpower him enough that he is capable of committing some ill-conceived act, which he will certainly regret when his consciousness comes back.

His temperament and impulsive nature is his biggest enemy and he can cause him much more problems than the most hardened enemy, which is why he has to keep his emotions steady if he does not want to ruin his career or personal life. For a lot more peace, he can count on it in the sphere of money, because he realizes perfectly well that this is not an end in itself, but only a means to meet the needs and achieve goals. As a result, he does not focus too much on gaining money, but he is also not wasteful and is planning his expenses wisely, in the opinion of some people he is too cautious in this matter. In spite of this, in other cases a person born on that day may manifest excessive optimism and overconfidence with his own strength, which may lead to failures and great disappointment in various situations.

The man born on February 12 is a very positive personality. He is right, he treats everything and everyone positively and has a lot of interests in various fields. It is not subject to any stereotypes or even superstitions. He has a very open mind and is an advocate of all progress. He does not recognize tradition or universally acknowledged authorities, but it must be clearly stated that he negates them in a cultural way and is not intended to offend or mock anyone or any way of thinking, even if he is as far away from the worldview he presents.

If he meets something with which he disagrees, he remains serious and calm, and even shows a kindness and shade of interest. He always seeks the truth, even where no one else is expecting to find her. However, if a person born on that day does not achieve the appropriate level of spiritual and emotional development, he has slightly different characteristics, because, for example, there is no strong urge to know and seek the truth.

It has some germs of these traits, which for the most part of his life remain deeply hidden and give themselves only in later years, but it does not always have to happen and sometimes this person is deprived of these inclinations throughout his life. Then such a person focuses primarily on his work, which gives him great pleasure and satisfaction, although - or maybe because of that - requires a lot of effort and concentration from him. It also manifests interest in politics, education and social life, and the work that it performs is usually mental work.

He is also cautious and reasonable, which makes him usually popular in his environment and often leads public life, appearing before a wider circle of people and coping perfectly in this role. Despite his involvement in political life, he does not exhibit aggressiveness or tendency typical of this environment, on the contrary, he is calm and very patient. He is willing to wait long for something if it is necessary, and the time devoted to it is greatly used to look around the situation and draw the right conclusions. Despite its popularity, it never turns out to be vain or conceited, which is why it enjoys popular sympathy. Women born on this day, unfortunately, usually do not have happiness in love and marriage. If they have a male offspring, they can also expect problems and annoyances on his part.

The date of February 12 corresponds to the zodiac sign: Aquarius

13TH OF FEBRUARY

Carefulness in action and ambition are the main features that determine the behavior of a person born on February 13. Man is very keen on recognizing others, which is why he carefully devises and plans his next moves, so that he always achieves success and under no circumstances should he fail. In spite of great ambition, there is no problem with abandoning his opinion and subordinating himself to some important person, especially if it is someone he loves, because feelings exert an even stronger influence on him than his aspirations and desire to be admired. In addition, he remains a hardened individualist, which does not always meet with the understanding of the environment and can cause false and unfair opinions about this man.

In addition, it is characterized by great perseverance in everything it does, thanks to which it almost always achieves its goals, although sometimes with a significant delay. Although he is an individualist, living in solitude rather does not serve him, the more that he has all the features to be in harmony with people. For example, he can exert great influence on them because he maintains great contacts and good communication skills. When he does not close himself in his loneliness and follow the voice of his heart, he engages in a happy relationship, reaches the apogee of his abilities and can achieve a lot and a lot to do for the society in which he lives. However, the rejection of love is very risky, because then his psychic energy concentrates exclusively on the material sphere, which is never a good way for a human being and in no way can give him happiness and fulfillment.

The negative feature of a man born that day is his moral weakness and excessive pursuit of peace. To have it, this man tries not to take any life struggles or actions that may expose him to shocks, which of course is not a good attitude, because he eliminates it from many positive experiences and can sometimes miss his chances for happiness. This is especially true for women, because they show great immunity to stress and extreme situations. Very easily they get embarrassed and lose their head, so they are unable to take up any fight or even decisive action and think only about it, as soon as possible to withdraw from the stalemate and return to normality.

In calmer situations, the people born that day are able to defend their views and show great clarity of mind. They are aware of their intellect and do not allow anyone to interfere in their affairs because they assume that only they have the right to decide about themselves.

14TH OF FEBRUARY

The sphere on which the man born on February 14 is the most focused is the mind. His intellect is versatile and like a sponge he absorbs knowledge from everywhere, thanks to which he has a rich experience and knowledge on almost all possible topics. He has a great ease of expressing his thoughts, what he can impress his listeners. Despite his scientific approach, it is very difficult for him to change his mind about a subject when he already has his own view. In addition, he is very sensitive to his surroundings and to various forms of art, because he loves beauty and all its manifestations. Other people appreciate him for his friendly way, stability and patience.

However, not all people born on that day have the same characteristics, two types of personality can be distinguished among them: positive and negative. The positive type has definitely positive features: it is gentle, subtle and it perfectly knows human nature, thanks to which it easily establishes contacts with people. The second type - negative, is very volatile, unpredictable and certainly can not be relied on. It also manifests a large arbitrariness, it can not be tamed with any orders and prohibitions, it can be conceited and lives its delusions, not allowing itself to speak to reason. In addition, if it does not reach the right level of development, it behaves like a primitive man and simply can not stand it. Fortunately, these are very few cases and at the present stage of civilization development rather they do not happen anymore. Both types of people born that day have an excessive tendency to undergo external influences. If these influences are positive, they make the person calm, good and generally positive. Admittedly, there are some violent feelings and emotions hidden under this layer of calm, but on a daily basis this person has no problem with taming and keeping them in check.

The man's disadvantages include power and the desire to control others. He likes all titles and decorations very much. Sometimes he can not control his anger and gets angry, which further aggravates and exacerbates the situation. He should work on greater mastery and try to develop in moral terms, which will certainly increase his chances for a happy life and success in all his fields. Such internal awareness ensures success, especially in the material sphere.

16TH OF FEBRUARY

Człowiek urodzony 16 lutego to osoba pożądana w każdym towarzystwie, ponieważ jest zawsze bardzo miły, kulturalny i uprzejmy, a przy tym jeszcze wrażliwy i ma wysoko rozwinięty umysł. Jego charakterystyczną cechą jest dobra pamięć. Chętnie chłonie wiedzę, ale nie czyni tego bezkrytycznie, lecz czasem nawet przez osoby postronne bywa postrzegany jako cynik. Odznacza się także dużą cierpliwością i zdolnością do poświęceń w stanie wyższej konieczności.

Jest bardzo otwarty na świat i na innych ludzi, cieszy się powszechną sympatią i bardzo łatwo nawiązuje nowe znajomości, a następnie przekształcają się one w przyjaźnie. Dla tej grupy ludzi człowiek urodzony tego dnia jest pociągający i niemal fascynujący, ale osoby spoza tej grupy nie doceniają jego zalet, gdyż są dla nich zbyt oryginalne i głębokie. Duża samodzielność sprawia także, że czasem osoba ta bywa niepopularna, a jej zachowanie jest niepokojące i niezrozumiałe dla innych. Takich towarzystw powinien więc unikać, a ma tym łatwiejsze zadanie, że dobrze zna się na ludziach i lubuje się w wyższych formach osobowości i przejawia dużą subtelność. Jest także pożytecznym i dobrym członkiem społeczeństwa i może wiele zrobić dla społeczności, wśród której żyje.

Do zagrożeń, jakie w swym życiu może napotkać człowiek narodzony tego dnia, należy zaliczyć cierpienie spowodowane nieodwzajemnioną miłością. Męki nią spowodowane kłębią się we wnętrzu człowieka, głęboko skryte przed wzrokiem innych, gdyż nie chce on pokazać swej wrażliwości, by nie zostać uznanym za słabego. W ogóle sfera uczuciowa jest dla niego bardzo ważna, podobnie jak życie rodzinne i dobro bliskich.

Wprawdzie w młodym wieku nie spieszy się do tego, by zaangażować się w oficjalny i prawnie usankcjonowany związek, ale gdy już się na to zdecyduje, bez zarzutu wywiązuje się z obowiązków, jakie krok ten za sobą niesie. Czasami dąży do zdobycia dużego majątku i jest w stanie osiągnąć ten cel, ale w przeważającej części przypadków osobie urodzonej tego dnia nie zależy specjalnie na sferze materialnej i nie wykazuje wielkiej aktywności życiowej. Nie jest to bynajmniej przejawem lenistwa, lecz cierpliwości i wytrwałości towarzyszącej każdemu działaniu, co wydłuża czas potrzebny na osiągnięcie danego celu. Cechy te, a ponadto także zdrowy rozsądek i duży praktycyzm czynią go bardzo pożądanym jako potencjalnego partnera na całe życie.

17TH OF FEBRUARY

Człowiek urodzony 17 lutego ma bardzo duży potencjał we wszelkim działaniu, dlatego może odnieść sukces nawet tam, gdzie inni ponoszą porażki. Na pierwszy rzut oka nie widać jego niezwykłych cech, ponieważ jest bardzo umiarkowany w prezentowaniu samego siebie osobom trzecim i raczej skryty w większości sytuacji. Jest świadom swej wartości i pełen harmonii. Potrafi skutecznie bronić swoich interesów, a także - w razie potrzeby, stać na straży swych poglądów i przekonań, na przykład religijnych.

Jego umysł rozwija się bardzo wszechstronnie i czerpie wiedzę ze wszystkich możliwych dziedzin, tak iż człowiek ten nierzadko ma problem ze sprecyzowaniem swym poglądów i ukierunkowaniem się na jedną, ściśle określoną dziedzinę. Równie nieograniczona jest jego tolerancja - nie zważa na poglądy i przekonania innych i liczą się dla niego tylko cechy danego człowieka - wielkim uznaniem darzy takie jak prawość i mądrość. Jest to ponadto człowiek bardzo postępowy i zwolennik wszystkiego, co nowe, ale jednocześnie nie ma wcale na celu zaburzania istniejącego porządku rzeczy i walki z utartymi konwenansami czy uznawanymi tradycjami.

Jest realistą i chętniej zmierza już zbadanymi przez innych ścieżkami, korzystając z ich doświadczeń, niż odkrywa nowe i przeciwstawia się temu, co znane, gdyż uważa, że jest to dużo bardziej bezpieczne jeśli chodzi o możliwość osiągnięcia wyznaczonego celu i oczywiście znacznie szybsze. Może to się wydawać nieco kontrastowe, lecz człowiek narodzony tego dnia doskonale łączy w sobie te przeciwieństwa, osiągając doskonała harmonię i równowagę wewnętrzną. Nie wszyscy jednak potrafią to zrozumieć i docenić, zdarzają się bowiem ludzie, którzy negują postępowanie czy rady udzielane przez owego człowieka, choć może podłożem tego jest zazdrość, bo sami są przeważnie niespokojni i nie potrafią zaprowadzić w swym życiu harmonii i porządku.

Większość ludzi jednak ceni sobie towarzystwo tego człowieka, a zwłaszcza jego pogodne i przyjazne usposobienie. Bardzo łatwo zaprzyjaźnia się on z obcymi i na każdym kroku daje odczuć swojemu otoczeniu, że kocha życie, a miłość ta jest najprawdopodobniej odwzajemniona. Co więcej, wraz z upływem czasu, obcując z ludźmi, nabiera wielkiego doświadczenia i nabywa zdolność przenikania ludzkich charakterów. Podobne zdolności ma w kontakcie z przyrodą. Jeśli chodzi o sferę finansową i zdobywanie majątku, rzadko dąży do tego tradycyjnymi sposobami, woli raczej zdobyć duże pieniądze szybko, co ma mu ułatwić hazard lub spekulacje. Nie jest to dobre, powinien być bardziej pracowity i wytrwały, a nie liczyć na łut szczęścia, który może mu się nigdy nie przydarzyć.

this person is very interested in internal content and spiritual experiences. He conducts activities aimed at exploring all life events and events and discovering their meaning and the cause of the uprising. He often takes into account the interference of psychic forces and underlying causes. This does not mean, however, that he is completely detached from reality, because despite the tendency to see unusual phenomena everywhere, he stands firmly on the ground, and is even a great strategist and he is perfectly successful in business. In addition, he is very mentally resistant and has great ability to easily adapt to changing environmental conditions. Thanks to this, there are never problems with keeping pace with progress or understanding of phenomena taking place around it.

All these positive features, however, have only a highly developed individual, and not always people born that day reach a high level of development. you do not know it at all, because on the one hand it is very polite and nice, but sometimes it is also a great egoist and reluctant to refer to others. It is not always known what is the reason for such behavior in a given situation. Another contrast can be seen in his approach to work: sometimes with great patience and memorability he plunges himself into some task that he is particularly interested in, displaying enormous diligence, but in the case when he is not interested, his laziness and carelessness can be noticed. Nevertheless, this person is dominated by rather positive features, because it is very straightforward, noble and responsible.

He is otherwise trustworthy and conscientiously fulfills his duties, which is why he is ideally suited to some important, responsible position. In addition, this person is very emotional, strong relationships that connect him with others, fuel his life forces. He likes simple, busy life, preferably in the countryside, surrounded by nature. He has great abilities, which he always uses in the right way, but nevertheless he is ready for hard, patient work and he appreciates it very much. Similarly in his contacts with other people - he is very natural, honest and never pretends to be someone he is not. People value it very much, and in addition, they praise him for his ability to move others.

This man, due to his ambitious ambitions and a greater willingness to work than receiving honors or acquiring assets, usually does not achieve much in life, but fully satisfies his aspirations, thanks to which he achieves fulfillment and happiness in life. His close relatives and friends exert a great influence on his behavior and views, and this is due to his great emotionality. When they give him advice, he listens to them very carefully and, if possible, tries to put them into practice.

Sometimes, however, it can be quite changeable, the blame for which should be suffered by its overly voluminous imagination. Despite the serious nature, or maybe because of it, because it may be a search for a counterweight for a peaceful or even boring life, he likes all sensations, extraordinary adventures or romantic stories. If a person has managed to achieve a higher level of development, he has even more positive traits such as patience, a calm approach to everything and everyone, great compassion and willingness to help. These two features are manifested especially in relation to beings who are aggrieved and are unable to help themselves, that is mostly animals.

In addition to these good qualities, there is at the same time very poor faith in one's own abilities, and it is mainly the achievement of success in life that depends on it. Nevertheless, the influence of the environment is important because because of its sensitivity, this person is very susceptible to the influence of the environment, which is not always good, because sometimes it distorts his orientation, not allowing him to properly assess what is good and what is bad. Therefore, a very unfavorable situation is the situation in which an unformed person is exposed to contact with people who have a bad influence on him, because then he will be very difficult to free himself from him. Admittedly, he has a problem with making decisions quickly, but thanks to this, when he decides, he does not deviate from his opinion.

Among the people born that day, we can distinguish two types of personality. The first of them is a man highly developed in spiritual, intellectual and moral terms. He is a great social worker, ready to work for people, and even sacrifice for the good of humanity if the need arises. Such actions are the meaning of his life, along with striving to improve his spiritual side of personality. He wants to separate himself from what is typically human and primitive, that is, from thinking only about himself and satisfying his needs. He believes that he is created for much higher purposes and he subordinates all actions to this belief.

However, an undeveloped man, representing the second type of personality, is pretentious, autocratic and is never quite satisfied with his life. He is characterized by great egoism, which allows him to acquire great wealth and satisfy excessive material needs. In order to achieve success, a man born on that day should tie his professional life with the land, ie agriculture or gardening, or the real estate industry. He can also find fulfillment in artistic competitions, because he often shows some talent in this direction. The disadvantage of this man is excessive stubbornness and the fact that he always wants to have the last word. He believes that only he is right, and if someone has any other opinion on a given topic, then his conviction is certainly right, while others are wrong.

He is very relentless towards others and imperious, which manifests itself especially at a later age. In addition, he is characterized by great pride and sense of personal dignity, which often is the foundation of his strong outbursts of anger, as well as jealousy. This man manifests an excessive desire for independence, which very often has a completely opposite effect and makes him remain largely dependent on others. He should not try to hurt others either, because he can turn against him, according to the well-known proverb: "Whoever digs beneath whom he digs falls into them himself." If, therefore, he wants to live peacefully, prosperously and happily, he should focus on himself and on mastering the negative emotions that torment him. Otherwise, apart from unpleasant consequences in the form of conflicts with others and material losses, mental problems may also arise. In particular, depression may pose a threat to him.

It is characterized by a positive attitude towards other people, but at the same time a certain striving to maintain its distinctiveness and emphasize its individuality. For this purpose, he builds a peculiar wall between himself and the rest of the environment, which is an impassable boundary for both sides. A characteristic feature of this person is the ability to follow common sense in every situation. He also has great analytical abilities and uncommon creativity, which means that he still has a head full of ideas and they are usually really good. He also has the ability to speak in front of the crowd.

Other features include perseverance, life force, but also some phlegmaticness. It has a certain amount of materialism, but it does not affect his personality negatively and yet he is capable of intense feelings. When he loves someone, he is able to give himself completely and, if need be, sacrifice his good for the benefit of another person. Children born on this day from the first days of their life should be surrounded by the most care. It would also be good to show him the right patterns and ideals that he should follow later in life, so that he does not grow into a materialist focused only on his needs.

His passion for meticulous research, manifested from an early age, should be developed so that in the future he chooses a profession related to just such an activity, which will be perfectly fulfilled. For example, he can be a chemist. However, he must watch out for enemies who can take action against him, which is aimed at preventing him from achieving success and accomplishing his plans. From the very beginning, this person should be aware that he must watch out for such people.

11 May - sign of the zodiac

The date of May 11 corresponds to the zodiac sign: Taurus

12TH OF MAY

The disposition of a man who was born on May 12 is very friendly, peaceful and resilient. He is also extremely emotional and sensitive, as well as constant in his likes and dislikes. In spite of this constancy in the emotional sphere, in other areas of life it can perfectly adapt to the changing situation and environmental conditions. He is able to achieve a lot in life, but not if he acts alone, but only when he joins forces with someone else. This is particularly influenced by his friends who show him great trust and devotion.

A person born on that day is characterized by an innate ability to organize his life, give it the desired shape and bring full harmony. He also has great sensitivity to art, especially when it comes to music and singing. Often, he even associates his professional life with these fields. He can be a great artist, but thanks to his dexterity when it comes to manual work, also a surgeon. No matter what life path she chooses, she will definitely be successful because of her diligence and ability to cooperate with others. He can count on the help of his devoted friends, but he will achieve success mainly thanks to his own efforts, which he is always ready to undertake, never counting on a happy fate that will bring him to heights.

Another interesting feature of a person born on that day is the excess of life forces expanding her, which does not allow her to sit still and forces her to undertake new activities in which this energy can find an outlet. These are not only professional tasks but also sport and love adventures. Unfortunately, these vital forces do not translate into the perfect health of this man, because through poor diet he can complain about kidney and liver problems, as well as a tendency to gain weight. It should be noted that people born at sunrise are characterized by better health and greater resistance to various diseases than people who came into the world at night.

The disadvantages of this man include excessive irritability and a tendency to outburst of anger for any reason that is difficult to subdue. In addition, he is sometimes capricious and willing to succumb to his lowest urges or passions, and even to his mischief. He is also imperious and very critical towards his surroundings. He eagerly searches for the mistakes of other people and points them out without the slightest hesitation, even if it causes them a great pain.

12 May - sign of the zodiac

The date of May 12 corresponds to the zodiac sign: Taurus

13TH OF MAY

The man born on May 13 is very sensitive and cordial. These features are manifested in relation to almost all people that he has to deal with during his professional life or even everyday life, and because it is obvious that sometimes he also encounters dishonest people, often falls victim to them, which is why he is too gentle disposition. He does not realize it, because his conviction about self-worth, self-confidence and inner strength are very large, but unfortunately it is not possible to say the same about the mental abilities of this man.

On the other hand, he has great political abilities, which are manifested first of all in the case of concluding various agreements or working out compromises. It is especially useful in the professional field, which gives him a chance to occupy a very high and responsible position. In addition, he has a head full of ideas and is eager to put all of them into practice, because he really wants to achieve his goals and show the surroundings how much he can do. Unfortunately, although often he manages to gain a high position, whether professional or social, he fails to maintain it for a long time. The reasons for this may be very different, but usually these are unfortunate accidents, completely independent of him, so even if he tries hard, he can not prevent them. A high position is not for him only with benefits and a stable life situation, but often brings with it anxieties and a constant threat of collapse.

The reason for this may also be that this person relies only on his own skills, which he often overestimates and has a tendency to engage in issues of which he has no idea, but ambition does not allow him to admit it. This can lead to many failures and even dangerous situations. A similar self-will and willingness to be independent are manifested by children born on that day. In addition, they are very susceptible to the influence of other people, so the child born on that day should be placed only in the right company, from which he can draw positive patterns.

Such a child also manifests a very stubbornness which can only be broken by showing him love and great patience. One should also take actions aimed at developing his artistic skills if he has one, and make them accustom to the observance of universally recognized orders and prohibitions, not allowing excessive self-will, which, when firmly rooted in him, will be very difficult to harness.

He is constantly taking action to meet the requirements of the surroundings he lives in as fully as possible, but he manages to reconcile with his own goals and skills.

Sometimes it is very unstable, especially when it has to make a very important decision and show a weak will just when the situation requires internal strength. In relation to other people, he shows excessive trust, even credulity and very often he misses his trust, which has unpleasant consequences. If a person born on that day wants to achieve a lot in life, he should first of all try to master his passions, as well as his overly voluminous imagination.

If he succeeds and controls his interior, he will become a righteous and faithful man, capable of almost anything he wants. The rejection of carnal temptations will increase his mental strength, turning into great power. It will enable him, among other things, to keep up with all modern trends and facilitate efficient and quick implementation of them. Spiritual development can also discover some unusual talent in it, in which it can achieve significant successes, and even fulfill itself in life, of course if it will feel like it and take steps to develop it. The effects of his mastery of his imagination and sensuality can be very large, but it certainly will not be easy, it is for a reason that it is said that the most difficult fight is fighting with yourself.

In addition, this person should be more lonely than other people, because detaching from the external influence of other people will strengthen the power of his mind. This applies especially to important life choices - the most important life decisions should be taken by him in isolation, so that he is not subject to any influences to which he is very sensitive. Only then will she be able to make a choice that is entirely consistent with her will and with her own conscience. It will give her the confidence to independently decide on her fate and satisfaction if she achieves significant success. If she fails, she will be able to acquire life experience and it will be an excellent lesson for her.

This applies not only to interests and professional life, but also to the personal sphere. For example, it can prevent you from placing feelings in the wrong person. In general, you must admit that the character of this person is quite unusual, and her personal characteristics - unusual. Although it is constantly surrounded by many people, it does not feel integrated with them and the feeling is mainly mutual. Some harshness in her behavior makes her rather unlikely to be popular, especially since she is proud and haughty. In general, he is a good and just man, but sometimes when there is no other way to achieve his goal, he resorts to violence. He strives to achieve the set point by deftly using the circumstances that arise, so if he manages to succeed, this is certainly not due to his efforts and perseverance, but precisely to the skillful use of various situations and the use of force. He adheres to the principle that the end justifies the means and takes it so deeply into his heart that he does not really withdraw from anything to get what he wants.

Thanks to this decisiveness and ruthlessness, it often dominates other people and obtains a superior position in relation to them. All this means that he has very few friends and sometimes his ruthlessness avenges on him, especially at the end of his life, which is usually not good, and is usually very inauspicious. Children born on this day should certainly not be left alone. They need to be raised very carefully and constantly keep an eye on them, otherwise they can become malicious and bad.

If a child born on that day does not have the right role model, he shows a tendency to lie and color reality, depending on his goals. It depends only on his own interest and to achieve his goals, he is ready for all mean and immoral behaviors. This can be, for example, taking property from the weaker people. He perfectly combines this with family life, because in addition to social activity, he also values the peace of his home, which reveals his emotional side of personality, as well as traits such as tolerance and kindness, in which his character is very rich.

Such an attitude will win him widespread sympathy and a multitude of friends and acquaintances, but time verifies these relationships and often turns out that real, devoted friends are very few in his life. Besides, if he does business with these friends, usually nothing results from it but losses, so he should not be involved in certain areas. As for the enemies, he usually has few of them, but they are so dangerous that they can cause him a lot of worries, so he should keep on guard.

The material situation of this man most often at the beginning of his life is not the best, but with the passage of time he is increasingly changing for the better, and this is mainly due to his predispositions and great foresight. So he can count on success in finances, which unfortunately can not be said about marital life, because it is often not very successful and not very successful. Failure in the personal sphere can have a large, negative impact on the other spheres of his life and act discouragingly. To prevent this, a man should realize that successes in other fields will help him to balance at least a small loss suffered in the emotional sphere. will at least replace his life's happiness, which he will not find alongside his partner.

It also has a tendency to immoderate in eating, which often leads to health problems on this background. In general, he is very much focused on satisfying his bodily needs, which is why he should develop spiritual wealth and teach them kindness, empathy and balance in all things.

This is because each time it is the result of very long deliberations and thoughts, so once the decision has been made, he is absolutely sure that it is completely right.

In general, the life of a man born on this day passes quietly and without major turmoil. Usually, he manages to achieve considerable wealth not as a result of some unusual events or risky interests, but as a result of painstaking work done as part of the learned profession. The disadvantage of this man is that he is too focused on his own person and has too big, unjustified beliefs about the meaning of his person. In relation to others, he usually displays great authority, he also has a tendency to mock people from his surroundings.

Excessive ambition, which causes that he does not always use good means to achieve his goals, can put him into trouble or take revenge on him. His dream is to take a position that gives him control over others and lead them, which could be a source of his great satisfaction and pleasure. In addition, in striving to take over, he does not think about whether he is the right person with the required qualifications.

However, there is a danger that instead of taking over others, he will be taken over by the person he loves. Although he is generally a conservative rather than a liberal, his intellectual interests and horizons are very wide. There is no problem with acquiring any new things, of course if he considers them right and in line with his views.

With age, more and more harden in it such qualities as stability, unbearableness and seriousness. The latter, especially, and the secretiveness of showing in relation to others, force respect on the surrounding. In addition, he is a very emotional man, and generally well and friendly towards others. He is full of personal dignity, which may be the reason for perceiving him as an incredibly domineering, but also noble one. He is very cautious in all actions - he prefers to think about something several times than to take a hasty decision and bear the consequences.

This is an expression of his great sense and wisdom of life, appropriate only to people who have extensive experience and use it skillfully, and certainly there are not many such people. When he makes a decision, he never gives up on it, demonstrating great permanence. It is also a great aesthet- especially appreciates the beauty of nature, but also notices all its manifestations in art, for example in architecture. Not infrequently, he exhibits artistic skills in these directions. Often, he also undertakes various philanthropic activities, because helping and pleasing others gives him a lot of satisfaction and a sense of accomplishment. If he did not have higher personal ambitions, it could even be his life goal.

His biggest drawback, however, is laziness, which makes him do a lot less than he could. Because of this he is wasting his great potential, fortunately throughout his life he tries to fight it and often succeeds in this field. A tendency to laziness and a comfortable life can sometimes cause trouble and annoyance. To avoid this, this man should fight with himself in order to overcome his carnal side and raise his soul to abstraction. Such effort will certainly be lavishly rewarded by fate.

May 20 - sign of the zodiac

Not without significance is the fact that this man often has his allies among high-ranking people, whose protectorate has an invaluable influence on his climbing the career ladder and helps him in this.

Unfortunately, his disadvantages include the fact that he is too susceptible to any influences from the environment and is often exposed to falling into bad company and taking over the worst features and attitudes from him. He also has too nervous disposition to deal with it efficiently. A child born on this day requires for this reason a very caring care on the part of parents, whose important (perhaps even the most important) point is the intense work on his character. It should be clearly stated that a child can in no way be left to himself when his character is being shaped, because if he does not have the right role models, and no one will tell him what is good and what is bad, he will not develop properly in terms of spirit and moral, as a result of which he will always remain at the stage of satisfying his basic needs, that is, bodily needs.

So it will grow up to be a poor man, for whom only the current moment and pursuit of pastimes matter, who waste his life and vitality on something that can not give him happiness or fulfillment. Men brought up in this way behave highly inappropriately and do not enjoy a good opinion in their environment, while women are emotionally and restlessly agitated.

There is a great unsteadiness and lack of consistency for it - these features make it rarely bring any matter to an end, because it quickly gets bored and instantly changes objects of your interest.

This anxiety and nervousness in action deepen with his age. This indecision is his great disadvantage, because it makes him often unable to concentrate sufficiently on the task performed, so that his tasks are ineffective and do not bring the expected benefits, but only waste his time and energy. Often, he loses his life opportunities, because when he has two options to choose from, he hesitates and thinks that when he makes a decision, it is much too late. Because of this, great love can escape it. His excessive irritability makes him very angry and then completely loses concentration.

This tendency to change, even hesitations, unfortunately, often translates into its financial situation, which manifests itself in such a way that this man once possesses great wealth, and then he loses it and vice versa. Rather, it is never that for the majority of his life he was either rich or poor, which undoubtedly has some good sides. This is probably helped by his desire to achieve a perfect inner balance and physical self-control. It can not be said that a person born on that day had a particularly strong personality, because he is definitely very sensitive, but still has a great impact on the opposite sex. Unfortunately, he is not the best in love games, which can be completely overwhelmed by some dishonest person who wants to use him, which may end up very sorry for him or even threaten him with some danger.

The disadvantage of a man born that day is an excessive tendency to incite conflicts with other people. In addition, he often shows cunning and deceitfulness. It often draws its surroundings into its risky ideas, not caring about their safety. Often it is also insincere, it conceals its true intentions or views to draw others into the field and to have an appropriate influence on them.

He also has a great inclination to criticize others while he is by no means a crystalline person. He should definitely fight it and look more fairly at others and at himself, and avoid making hasty opinions about people he did not know well. Nor should he worship materialism or flatter rich people who usually do not deserve their favor. They should rather admire people who are wise, honest and help others and show them respect, which they certainly deserve.

6TH OF SEPTEMBER

Huge practicality is a feature that stands out in the first place in the case of a man born on September 6. He is a great realist and extremely hard on the ground, which unfortunately unites some imagination. Although he is hardworking and righteous, his attitude of most situations is completely passive. There is no ambition to take on the position of the primate, who would give him power over a subordinate group of people, and never want to play the first violin, preferring to stay in the shadow and directing the already established, safe path in life.

His only ambition and aspiration is wealth, which he usually succeeds, thanks to the fact that he most often chooses the best possible profession. However, it should be clearly stated that this man is right about not wanting to occupy high positions, because he does not perform well on them, but he does well wherever he works under management. In this way, he has a chance to make the biggest career, which will entail the acquisition of a significant estate. He may indeed be a manager, but he will manage in this function only in this case, when there will be someone above him above and he will be responsible to that person.

This is mainly due to the fact that this person cooperates perfectly with others and only in such a way is able to achieve good results of his work, and when he is left to himself, he can not impose his will on his subordinates. The reason for this is usually lack of self-confidence and draws wrong conclusions. So he must always have someone on hand who will give him support and advice in every difficult situation for him. Then he feels completely comfortable and only then can he really show what he can do, revealing his great conscientiousness, responsibility and diligence.

In addition, the disposition of a man born that day is very gentle and calm. Often it closes in itself and remains on the sidelines of the company. Nevertheless, he is very flexible and extremely skillfully able to adapt to changing environmental conditions, which he finds useful in many life situations, not only on professional grounds. His comprehensive talents and talents also help him. In addition, she is a person who is very attached to her family and who values the quietness of a home bonfire, but unfortunately he can not always count on it, because sometimes he is greedy in family life and frequent misunderstandings with his loved ones. He is also waiting for many breakups with his beloved ones.

He enthusiastically performs every job if he knows that it will benefit other people. He is very affectionate, emotional, and at the same time sensitive enough, almost timid, that this may be surprising in the case of men, because these are attributes rather attributed to women.

His sensitivity may be so great that he will give him extraordinary, almost medium-minded capabilities, if only he has the right ground for development. The main point is that spiritual advancement should not be disturbed by materialistic pursuits, to which this man has great inclinations, most often one, that once he tastes in spiritual life, he will abandon low motives and money will no longer be so important to him. Thanks to the fact that he assimilates philosophical views so quickly and is able to develop the spiritual sphere of his personality, he will be perfect as a teacher or lecturer in philosophy. He also enjoys long-distance travel and realizing this passion often stays outside the borders of his homeland. He is a very good observer and can make perfect use of this skill, learning from the mistakes of others and accumulating life experience. This man also manifests a great originality, which is revealed in almost every situation of his life, mainly relies on his unwillingness to act automatically - he always wants to do everything his own way and everywhere he has to leave a feature of his extraordinary personality.

It can be quite embarrassing, especially on professional grounds, because even when he receives some official orders from his superiors, he fulfills them, but not according to top-down instructions, but according to his own invention. He is also a very happy, sociable person who likes entertainment, often even careless in pursuit of it. He has a tendency to analyze everything and study according to his own measurements, which is helped by his great insight and ability to distinguish. The main problem of a man born on that day who has not been able to achieve a high level of spiritual development lies in his great materialism. He is a very social person, possessing strong social instincts and very versatile interests. Admittedly, he shows great practicality on a daily basis, which is connected with the fact that he is a materialist for whom life is very important, but it does not mean that he can not rise to spiritual heights, because on the contrary, he has a rare ability to combine these two opposing features.

If a person is not able to achieve a sufficiently high degree of spiritual, intellectual and moral development, he is a man who is very critical towards others. There is not the slightest problem with telling people even the most brutal critics, which is very unpleasant for them - it burdens their psyche, deprives them of self-confidence and makes them lose their will and motivation for further action. In contrast to a highly developed person, this person looks at everything in black colors and everywhere he sees only piling up difficulties, impossible to overcome, not realizing at all that the task is quite simple - he thinks he is absolutely unobtainable and does not even make any effort to verify it. Besides, although he wants to praise and appreciate himself, he never expresses himself, because there is no reason for that, since he always finds something that he does not like and is never entirely happy with anything.

He too focuses his efforts on gaining great influence and wealth and on the outside of life - often poses for someone else, just to impress his surroundings and make the best impression on him. This desire often leads to great trouble, it can even lead him into serious indebtedness. He also has the ambition to predict the future and play the fortune-teller, which is not entirely predisposition, because even if he once had some skills in this direction, they have long been drowned out by his great materialism.

The man born on September 19 is very open to people and the world and kindly applies to all people with whom he has to deal with. He is ambitious, smart and shows great intuition to business. In addition, he is usually fortunate, thanks to which he fulfills himself perfectly on professional grounds. He is very socially disposed and wants to do as much as possible for the common good, with his motives altogether altruistic and not intended, for example, to gain fame or other forms of exaltation. Often, however, he involuntarily becomes a person in the center of interest, and this is due to his actions and unusual features, such as practicality, dexterity in all activities, perfect orientation in every situation of life, and great critical skills.

It works best for him alone and he prefers self-effort rather than interaction, which is mainly due to the fact that he does not like much when someone looks at his hands, and it can not be hidden that he is afraid of possible criticism. This may come as a surprise, because he has no resistance to criticizing others when he does not like something in them, but he does not like to behave like that towards his person. He only accepts purely practical tips, although they are also not particularly welcome by him.

The disadvantage of a man born that day may be a lot of recklessness, which fortunately is revealed only in the case of people who are underdeveloped in intellectual and moral terms. This is manifested in the fact that this person is very undecided and changeable in his decisions. He also has a problem with adjusting his behavior and appropriate attitude to the requirements of the situation, which often exposes him to various types of losses.

Another threat is his excessive passivity, which makes him sometimes a victim of more active and cunning people who want and can use his submission. Therefore, he should strive to develop a strong will and resistance to the temptations of others who want to use people. By analyzing his behavior and learning, he is able to avoid superficiality and focus on what is really important and can bring him happiness in life.

In addition, however, usually a person born on that day has a happy and successful life, mainly due to favorable circumstances. He can count on happiness associated with family life, but for the maintenance of mental balance and physical health he needs complete harmony of the environment and maintaining regularity in all activities, mainly when it comes to maintaining order.

Therefore, he should strive to develop a good attitude and kindness towards all people he meets and influences. He should also try to combat his meticulousness and the tendency to lose himself in the least important details. He should also try to act more freely, because he often imposes a formal style too.

marking his great individuality at every step, which makes him very likely to become an outstanding personality. Independence and the possibility of directing one's own will in life is one of its most important priorities for this man. It even takes the form of reluctance to marry and stay alone sometimes even for life.

He also has a very strong sense of observation, thanks to which it is very easy for him to draw the most accurate conclusions almost from the first look at the given thing. Striving to maintain independence has developed in him an excellent ability to perfectly use their abilities and skills, thanks to which he is able to achieve his goals without looking at others and without anyone's support. At the same time, he has great confidence and there is no shadow of doubt about his success, which is why he takes great enthusiasm for each task. However, it is not always good for him, because he is often bravado and imprudent, which means that he may suffer losses and expose himself to various dangers.

He does not like thinking about his words or deeds for a long time, which often puts him in serious trouble. He is also not helped by the fact that he likes conflicts very much and is not particularly peaceful. He is brave, brave and likes to show off by attacking his enemies. At the same time he does not count with the feelings of other people, because only his own good is important to him.

However, he never behaves dishonestly and is a sensitive man, which is an extraordinary contrast, but he has the rare ability to harmoniously combine such opposing qualities in himself. As a result, it usually has a complete internal balance and there is no problem with experiencing internal conflicts or dilemmas. Nevertheless, this person should strive to master and acquire the ability to control his actions as much as possible, because in his impetus and bravado he can really seriously hurt someone, although this is never his goal.

He really wants to achieve inner harmony and balance of feelings with his thoughts. He has a noble and extremely friendly disposition and high ambitions that constantly push him to act and do not allow him to stay in place and rest on his laurels.

He is always willing to help the needy, but he is not very sociable, because he is most interested in the spiritual sphere than in the outside world surrounding him. He has great observation abilities and great intuition, and he can use these skills perfectly in everyday life. The fact that his intellectual abilities are truly outstanding enables him to explore the most complex and most difficult areas of science. He is also great at discovering the laws that govern nature, which he does very willingly, because he is a great lover of nature.

He also has a great religious sense, he is faithful and work, so he can become a good priest or other spiritual person. If he manages to achieve a very high degree of moral development, he becomes a very inspired man, filled with lofty feelings and inspirations. Often, however, they hide them in themselves, so that the surroundings do not have the slightest idea about them. The main reason for hiding your true face is the fear of possible criticism.

The disadvantages of a man born on that day include a certain tendency to melancholy, which is often manifested in him despite his positive attitude and everyday shown in relation to all courtesies. He also has a tendency to fall into exaggeration, especially when it comes to religious matters, so it can easily become bigot. In addition, he also focuses on his inner life, which sometimes makes his thoughts completely dominated by his feelings, which is good or bad depending on whether these feelings are good or bad. Sometimes it also shows too little strength and activity in life. Passively, he then expects an impulse that would encourage him to act, but he should not count on any motivations from outside, but look for them in himself. This is mainly due to the fact that he has a feeling of his weakness and believes that taking action by him does not make sense, because they are doomed to fail.

In the financial sphere, she shows great care and does not worry about her financial situation at all. Interests do not attract him at all and he often has material problems. 26TH OF SEPTEMBER

The behavior of a man born on September 26 in relation to other people is very friendly and nice. It accuses him of widespread sympathy and trust of the environment. Besides being sociable, he also shows great willingness to help others and interesting stories and the ability to completely absorb the attention of his listeners. He loves traveling far and whenever he can, he travels beyond the borders of his country. He derives many benefits from these journeys, not only those related to learning about distant countries, foreign customs and the accumulation of life experiences. His mind is very active and constantly studies the phenomena that reach him.

The character of this man is admirable because it is almost crystalline. He likes reading a lot and thanks to that he draws the great knowledge he needs for spiritual and intellectual development. Its characteristic feature, however, is an almost extraordinary sense of justice, which manifests itself not only in its impeccable behavior towards other people, but also in undertaking a series of actions to improve the situation in its environment. Very badly, he abolishes the situation when he is a witness, how someone weak is hurt by unfair, unequal treatment. In defense of truth and rightness he is ready for the greatest efforts and sacrifices. However, he is not always able to properly assess the situation and sometimes draws wrong conclusions, taking something that is not really true and right.

He is a charitable and very generous person, while at the same time he highly values a comfortable, prosperous life, full of pleasure and entertainment, but he hates routine and hard, arduous work. He is gentle, sensitive and kind, but I must admit that he has a certain character of the fact that he values the respect of others too much and recognizes his merits by his surroundings. Often he is extremely focused on his own person and is guided in his own life by his own path. He has his own views and his own system, he believes, because he does not like taking over someone's way of thinking, considering it to be an insult.

In family life he can count on fulfillment and happiness, which results mainly from the good choice of his other half. He is also a great parent, but usually has few children. He is a very emotional man and he feels everything very much, but - fortunately for him - he takes more joy than sadness to his heart. Sometimes it is vain, therefore it seeks to take an outstanding position. It can be fulfilled in a profession such as a theoretician, naturalist, artist or trader. Especially in this last area, he exhibits extraordinary talent.

September 26 - sign of the zodiac

The date of September 26 corresponds to the zodiac sign: Libra

27TH OF SEPTEMBER

The man born on September 27 has a great faith in his own abilities. He is even a bit vain in this because he wants power and domination over others. Despite the fact that he does not have particularly outstanding ability to plan and implement his projects, he believes in the best possible success of each of his projects. In spite of this faith and enthusiasm, a large part of his intentions is not realized, because the plan of incarnation of a venture into existence is simply wrongly done in the world and then erroneously implemented. Nevertheless, this man does not break down and does not intend to spend his life idly. On the contrary, he is constantly moving and constantly doing something, because he is extremely active and hardworking.

In professional matters he shows a lot of stubbornness and will not rest until he finishes with a positive result of some task entrusted to him. In feelings he shows a lot of affection and is capable of a very deep, faithful love. He attaches great strength to the people he loves and is ready for the greatest sacrifices for them. He has excellent taste and great artistic skills, especially in the areas of graphics and sculpture.

He also has a passion for medicine, and thanks to his urgency and precision he can make a great career as a surgeon. It can also be distinguished in the military, thanks to its strong strategic capabilities as well as in politics, due to its exceptional negotiating and diplomatic skills. Nevertheless, he usually chooses a completely different model of life, because he loves the tranquility of rural life and farming. Such opposition in abilities and desires makes this man most often for a long time can not decide what he should do in life. For this reason, he usually performs two professions halfway through life until he finally decides what he chooses.

Therefore, the greatest success and professional career can be counted only after the situation has completely stabilized, which usually occurs in middle age. Maybe this is not the best solution, but certainly more beneficial than choosing the wrong profession, in which he would have to struggle for many years, so he should stay with his caution and wonder well about each of his next moves. He is in danger of losing his life and giving him many opportunities to demonstrate his extraordinary abilities and skills. Certainly it will not be too easy and it is possible that you will not get positive results of your efforts or for some reason you will not be able to use them.

September 7 - sign of the zodiac

The date of September 27 corresponds to the zodiac sign: Libra

A characteristic feature of the character of the man who came into the world on September 28 is his desire to have power over other people and to take first place in all possible areas. He has uncommon intelligence and great ambitions, but often uses the argument of force instead of the strength of arguments, which often puts him in various problems. It has the ability to draw fully accurate conclusions without unnecessarily delving into the details of a given case.

He is characterized by enthusiasm, which manifests itself at the beginning of each new task, but the enthusiasm quickly passes him and then without regret he abandons the unfinished work for a completely new one, which he takes with the same zeal as before. His shortcomings are the lack of patience and perseverance that prevent him from bringing things to a happy finale and often make it impossible for him to achieve his goals. Often it also shows a great lack of any caution, because it has a tendency to act under the influence of a momentary impulse or some passion. His other skills include comparative skills and artistic talent, which is manifested mainly in the fields of architecture, applied arts and music.

In the professional sphere, he is very eager and he cares about his job. When he decides to do something, he stubbornly strives for it and tries to do it as soon as possible to save as much time as possible, and perhaps also to make it before his enthusiasm leaves him. Despite this, however, he is often threatened with losing his position due to various reasons, usually independent of him, and so despite his efforts, he will not be able to protect himself against this if only such a fate will be given to him from above.

A man born on that day should fight with his impulsiveness and hot temperament. Failure to control and lack of self-control can lead to many embarrassing situations and even physical danger. The main point here is that with their careless words and deeds, it is easy to get into a fight and become very hurt in it. Other dangers that may occur during his life are related to his over enthusiasm and hope, which can lead to great disappointments and life frustrations. To avoid this, he must approach each case with more caution and more moderate enthusiasm, considering that something may go wrong.

This is a rather unfavorable juxtaposition, because a man with such contrasting features is very unpredictable and has variable moods. From excitement and almost euphoria it very easily goes into melancholy, sadness and discouragement.

When he is in a low mood he is very pessimistic about the world and his current situation. He thinks he is very lonely and has no one to trust. This is not true, because this man enjoys great sympathy of the environment and has a large group of devoted friends. So when he is in a good mood, he loves life and the world, he is full of enthusiasm for discovering it and for all merry entertainment. He is a great advocate of art, especially music, and sometimes exhibits greater or lesser talents in this field. Rarely, however, he achieves full happiness in life, and only his own difficult disposition and unpredictable character are on his way to it.

He has a tendency to make unnecessary worries and is very sensitive and takes everything to heart. It draws full attention to everything that is going on around it, which does not always give him positive impressions. It is in a non-harmonious environment that one should see the reasons for his changing moods and the tendency to fall into sadness, which can not be justified. The environment, on the other hand, recognizes such a person as a very changeable, capricious person and does not understand his behavior at all. So you can see that the life of a man born that day is not very simple and must make a lot of effort to achieve something, because it is usually difficult and even unusual tasks waiting for him.

Besides, however, this man is very romantic and idealistic and can devote himself completely to his ideal. However, he does not have a particularly strong will and, under the pressure of stronger people, he easily loses his individuality and gives in, accepting a different line of thinking and views as his own. The same is with its strength, which is by no means impressive. These defects make him vulnerable to a painful fall from the high place he most likely manages to occupy, but that's why he should not get used to it too much and should be aware that such a good situation can change very easily for worse. Nevertheless, it is - or maybe because of that - that he has high expectations for life and that's where his extraordinary aspirations come from. However, this is a very sensual man, who is exposed by strong instincts and must put a lot of effort into restraining them. If it succeeds, as often happens, it is able to achieve all of its life goals. He will also achieve wisdom, prudence and the ability to keep a secret.

This man also has a very high sensitivity and the ability to draw accurate conclusions from observation of the environment. He is perfectly aware of this and makes good use of his skills, the more that he also has a strongly developed intuition, thanks to which he is able to solve even the most complicated issue or matter. He is also a serious man, who values loneliness and is rather introverted. He has the ease of expressing his thoughts, but he does so very carefully and carefully selects words, considering what he is saying to whom. This caution is sometimes even excessive and there is no justification in reality.

In addition, this man has his own fate in his hands and no one will help him in resolving the issue of what he should do, because this decision belongs exclusively to him. If he fails to achieve a sufficient degree of development, he has a tendency to destroy, and only his strong will is able to stop these aspirations. He also has self-destructive tendencies and the involvement of others in sometimes very dangerous situations, which are mainly caused by his inability to control the passions that loom him.

If he manages to develop a high moral level, he can faultlessly distinguish between what is good and what is bad and he can even rise and be reborn in a difficult situation. He will also be able to turn his cunning into wisdom and cruelty and his great fierceness - into an extraordinary willpower. Thanks to these features, he will certainly achieve personal happiness, and also greatly contribute to the society in which he lives.

The man born on November 2 is quite sarcastic and likes to make ironic remarks about his surroundings, but usually he masks his thoughts and does not reveal them outside, not wanting to expose anyone and thus lose the chance for possible, various benefits. That's why he rarely shows his true face to people, and he rarely discovers his true views. He is secretive, critical of the world and his great domain is sarcasm, but at the same time he is not deprived of the tendency to succumb to all kinds of illusions, which in his case may be surprising considering its criticality, but paradoxically happens quite often.

He is a determined, self-confident and fierce man - when he wants to do something, he does it, regardless of whether the circumstances are favorable or just the opposite. When he has his views established, good or bad, he defends them to the last. Because he is so secretive, only a very small group of people is able to get to know his real face, which is why he is easy to, if he wants or needs to, mislead people and even manipulate them.

He has extremely strong sympathies and dislikes and is capricious in his thinking and approach to various phenomena. He often surrounds himself with friends and acquaintances, especially those who compliment him and may be useful in various situations, providing him with support, but rather they are not strong relationships, because this person is reluctant to take on such commitments. Nevertheless, he is well-liked and is not short of friendly people, because he has great diplomatic skills, thanks to which he is able to communicate even with his enemies, even though he is an extremely fierce rival. He can demonstrate great tact, even during the most intense dispute. The same trait appears at the moment of making friends and breaking contacts with people who have ceased to be needed.

This man is extremely commanding and has enormous self-confidence. These features make everyone perceive each other and that's why it often happens that they are unable to be forgiving for people who are weaker or less capable. It is also difficult for him to accept other people's views, which differ significantly from his own way of thinking. He does not like to be in the company of people who are variable or constantly showing anxiety because he irritates him and makes him unable to concentrate on anything, because his attention is dispersed.

Although sometimes it is simply not suitable to occupy a prime position, be it due to the lack of experience in a given issue, or inadequate skills and lack of predisposition, he can not go on the agenda, although at the intellectual level he understands it perfectly well . In addition, he always stays full of vigilance and when he manages to catch any mistake made by his rivals or bosses, he is greatly aware that he is better off because he was able to notice something they overlooked. This is not particularly ethical correct, because in this way it enjoys someone else's weakness, but it can not master it, because its intentions are often stronger than its reason, which is generally lacking. The feeling of superiority also helps him often in achieving life's successes, but he does not overly overdo it and rather he is a silent expression of his sense of his own dignity and dignity.

Its drawbacks include audacity, carelessness and a tendency to be jealous. It also shows insufficient ability to predict possible consequences of its behavior, which often contributes to its own problems. He has high aspirations and believes that his goals are the expression of his best intentions, so he hates when someone criticizes his actions and does not accept the opinions of others if it is different from his views.

He is always confident and fully believes in the rightness of his actions, both in the light of morality and in every other. He willingly and easily reveals the human weaknesses of every human being, which gives him a certain superiority resulting from the fact that no one, hence himself, is free of flaws. He should try to control it, because it is not good in any way, especially for his contacts with the environment.

Although this man does not tolerate any restrictions and strives to maintain full independence and independence at all costs, he does not always succeed, because it is really very easy to guide him and in a way that he is not even aware of it, you must have only for this certain predispositions and not to let him feel that someone is putting pressure on him. This man's weakness lies in the fact that if he is not aware that someone is in some way controlling his actions and directing his actions, he thinks that he works completely on his own, even if he does something that is not entirely sure or what he would never do before. It must be remembered that in his case giving him firm instructions and demanding that he do everything that is expected of him, and what he does not want to do, brings a result opposite to the intended one. A much better solution is to use a mild persuasion and a friendly attitude that can be done very much.

The child has a lot of willpower and astuteness astonishing to his age, which is why it is hardly easy to deceive or manipulate, and you have to bear it in mind when dealing with him. One should be straightforward and open to him, the more that - like every child - he absorbs patterns from the environment and takes an example from adults' behavior, so all attempts to mumble and lie can have a negative effect on his psyche and shaping personality.

13TH OF NOVEMBER

He has a fairly extensive intuition and the ability to comprehend the most complicated matters in an extremely fast and efficient manner.

Another interesting feature is the fact that it exerts considerable influence on its surroundings and can influence decisions taken by people from its closest environment. If he manages to achieve a high degree of emotional and moral-intellectual development, he is able to become a creative center that exerts a positive influence on the environment and encourages them to act. In addition, this man is completely neutral and when something or someone deserves to be criticized, he speaks in a diplomatic manner, but without bluntness, showing no shadow of opportunism or any respect for anyone.

He can also express his thoughts very clearly, so that no one has the slightest doubt about what that person thinks about a given topic. Unfortunately, his life is usually not as uncomplicated as he is, because very often there are various adversities on his way which he must overcome with considerable effort. Often also unfavorable circumstances and bad living conditions force him to make hasty decisions and superficial hasty planning, and sometimes even risky moves. Although his mind is very impulsive, active and restless, most often there is not enough acumen and the ability to anticipate potential dangers in order to prevent them in time. 15TH OF NOVEMBER

A characteristic feature of the man born on November 15 is his stubbornness and persistence in pursuing his goal. When he decides something, he does not spare his efforts to achieve it. Through this, and also thanks to his outstanding intellectual abilities, he has a great chance of gaining the desired, high position.

If, however, he manages to overcome his faults and go to the agenda of all his failures without remembering them, he has a chance to achieve the fullness of spiritual development. Before this happens, however, a lot of it may cost him getting rid of his undesirable traits, among which undoubtedly lead the fierceness, vindictiveness and tendency to succumb to the whims of the lowest category. He also has the tendency to dissipate his strength and waste energy on unrealistic concepts that can not be implemented in any way, yet he focuses his attention on them and tries to achieve them, losing only precious time.

He does not like it when someone tries to give him advice and never hears the opinion of other people, even when it could be very useful for him and save him many problems. This is mainly due to the fact that very often it takes great efforts that do not bring about any positive result. In marriage, this man manifests great authority, and even overbearing. It is therefore necessary that his other half be resilient, gentle and that it does not prevent her that her spouse constantly imposes her will on her. Only in this case the marriage with this man may be fair and harmonious, but it certainly will not be easy, even for the calmest and most meek person.

It is equally difficult to live with such a man from the point of view of his children, because he is a very overbearing and completely incomprehensible parent who looks at everything from a single point of view - his own, disregarding the opinion and even the feelings of others, all the more many younger people than you. At the same time, he does not like too much familiarity and keeps everyone at a distance. The main blame for this is the people unfavorable to him who use him and thus contribute to his failure. It combines two natures - internal and external. Both of them are restless, bold and at the same time extremely sensitive and sensitive. Because of the existence of these two personalities, this person sometimes appears irritated and displays a strange anxiety that has no justification in the external environment, because it results from the fact that both of these natures would like to get to the surface at the same time, which of course is not possible. However, apart from these few cases of reduced well-being, this person has a good mood, he is characterized by hope combined with enthusiasm and a cordial attitude to the environment. In addition, he can deal with any, even the most complicated situation, the more that he is extremely active and constantly wants to do something.

He has inventive abilities and efficiently organizes all ventures. He is fully conscientious in performing his duties, but apart from them, he displays a certain frivolity and even boldness. He never goes to deliberately hurting anyone, because he has a very strong sense of justice, but if someone stumbles on him, he can become rough and unpleasant. However, he never intends to take revenge, even in the worst offenses of other people, nor does he show a tendency to stutter in his anger.

Life's pleasures are important to him, therefore he spends no time and money on indulging in various types of pastimes. Also looking for adventures and strong impressions, he always believes that only good events and surprises will meet him, not allowing himself to think that he might encounter something unpleasant, let alone bad. This is some recklessness on his part, because even a man as trusting in the good of fate as he should not be too sure of himself, so as not to provoke some misfortune with an excessive shoe and the certainty of his success.

The problem is also that if he does not count on potential dangers, he will never be ready for them, so he will not be able to defend himself in any way when he is surprised. Of course, it is not said that it must be so, but human fate is so unpredictable that everyone should - using life - leave behind an open back door in case of an unforeseen situation.

It must be added that he has great predispositions for this, because he is characterized by great cunning combined with outstanding diplomatic skills. his horizons.

It also has such advantages as patience, perseverance, caution in action, savings, faith in one's own abilities, loyalty, emotionality and a great sense of justice. They are particularly evident in highly developed persons in moral terms.

However, if a person born on that day is still at a low level of internal development, selfishness is developed so strongly in him that it almost prevents him from developing and making life's progress, not only in terms of self-improvement. Most often, it exhibits such negative traits as contempt for other people, jealousy, delusions, skepticism, great miserliness and a tendency to feed hatred towards people who do not deserve it at all. By these features he often rivals other people, deepens the hostility between them and can lead to a situation when he can not communicate with anyone and as a result will remain completely alone.

29 December - sign of the zodiac

The date of December 29 corresponds to the zodiac sign: Capricorn

30TH OF DECEMBER

Seriousness and great development opportunities - these features distinguish the man born on December 30 from the crowd. He is also very calm, patient, but he is also free from some harshness, especially in anger. He has a very characteristic passion for the impressive surroundings, which is manifested in the fact that nothing is able to impress him particularly strongly, because he is accustomed to glamor and splendor, even if his life does not look like that at all.

His nature is quite misanthropic and it is probably for this reason that the man so willingly stays in isolation. It is also characterized by the fact that it has an uncommon mind that allows it to completely break away from everyday and gray everyday life and rise to the philosophical heights, thus developing its spiritual sphere. In the face of the world around him, he shows almost total indifference and is pleased with himself and his life, there is no special desire to change the existing reality. This does not mean, however, that he would be happy and particularly happy with his existence, because he is rather impressed by the lack of such a feeling.

He also has an extremely critical and penetrating mind that makes him see the tiniest details and hiding anything from him is virtually impossible. For this reason, he can be a great detective, and if he is undeveloped in moral terms, he can use this feature to cheat others and manipulate them in order to achieve personal gain. Man, however, depends on achieving general recognition and wants the surroundings to admire him, although he often does not realize these desires at all.

When he manages to achieve a high degree of development, he exhibits great diplomatic skills, perseverance in various activities and the ability to conduct deep thinking on serious topics. At the same time, he can devote himself to the most bizarre fantasies and long-term meditation on the most trivial, everyday matters.

A woman born that day thanks to her savings and practicality can be an excellent lady at home. He also gives himself advice in business and on social matters, mainly thanks to innate common sense. It should be noted that both, a woman and a man born on that day, often tend to marry not out of love, but out of reason, that is for money, They are usually associated with affluent and much older people. This is for them an expression of their practicality in pursuit of their own goal, which is usually the acquisition of property and universal respect.

December 30 - sign of the zodiac

The date of December 30 corresponds to the zodiac sign: Capricorn

31TH OF DECEMBER

The man born on December 31 is sensitive to the point that his nerves are constantly tense. This is due, among other things, to the fact that he is fully aware of the great responsibility that lies on him, regardless of the position he occupies.

If, however, it happens that he will be forced to occupy a superior position, he will not be able to follow his path to achieve his goals and ambitions and will not be able to fight for independence. Then he will certainly become a man closed in himself, silent and pessimistic about the world and his life. Fortunately, these are rather rare exceptions, otherwise the man who came into the world that day will most likely achieve an outstanding position in life. However, he should beware that the soda water does not hit his head and as a result he does not become an overly conceited man, because it can cause his very painful fall.

His aspirations are very ambitious, because he wants to know and have the ability to penetrate all life experiences, although probably a capricious fate will also spare him unpleasant disappointments. This may be the case, for example, in the fact that the financial undertakings in which he is involved instead of the expected high benefits will only bring him losses and may even significantly harm his reputation, lowering his rank in the eyes of society. He should therefore show greater patience and caution in all his actions, especially if there is even a slight risk that his plan may fail.

If a man born on that day succeeds in restraining his audacity and impulsiveness in action, he will certainly do it for good. If, however, he learns peace and shows greater modesty, he will cease to tempt fate and certainly his life will be much more peaceful and stabilized. Thanks to this attitude, he has a much better chance of gaining wealth than using gambling licks and impetuous, sudden moves.

A man born on that day has many different abilities with which he can tie his life, getting good results, but the areas on which he should focus particularly are literature, art, agriculture, mining, real estate or the textile industry. As for his health, it is really impressive, especially when it comes to the endurance of his body. Thanks to this, he has the opportunity to live a very late age in perfect health and with full clarity of mind.

The Breaking Process of the African Woman
Take the female and run a series of tests on her to see if she will submit to your desires willingly. Test her in every way, because she is the most important factor for good economics. If she shows any sign of resistance in submitting completely to your will, do not hesitate to use the bull whip on her to extract that last bit of resistance out of her. Take care not to kill her, for in doing so, you spoil good economic. When in complete submission, she will train her off springs in the early years to submit to labor when the become of age. Understanding is the best thing. Therefore, we shall go deeper into this area of the subject matter concerning what we have produced here in this breaking process of the female nigger. We have reversed the relationship in her natural uncivilized state she would have a strong dependency on the uncivilized nigger male, and she would have a limited protective tendency toward her independent male offspring and would raise male off springs to be dependent like her. Nature had provided for this type of balance. We reversed nature by burning and pulling a civilized nigger apart and bull whipping the other to the point of death, all in her presence. By her being left alone, unprotected, with the male image destroyed, the ordeal caused her to move from her psychological dependent state to a frozen independent state. In this frozen psychological state of independence, she will raise her male and female offspring in reversed roles.
For fear of the young males life she will psychologically train him to be mentally weak and dependent, but physically strong. Because she has become psychologically independent, she will train her female off springs to be psychological independent. What have you got? You've got the nigger women out front and the nigger man behind and scared. This is a perfect situation of sound sleep and economic. Before the breaking process, we had to be alertly on guard at all times.

It is never to late to get up off of your knees and fight for w...
Now we can sleep soundly, for out of frozen fear his woman stands guard for us. He cannot get past her early slave molding process. He is a good tool, now ready to be tied to the horse at a tender age. By the time a nigger boy reaches the age of sixteen, he is soundly broken in and ready for a long life of sound and efficient work and the reproduction of a unit of good labor force. Continually through the breaking of uncivilized savage nigger, by throwing the nigger female savage into a frozen psychological state of independence, by killing of the protective male image, and by creating a submissive dependent mind of the nigger male slave, we have created an orbiting cycle that turns on its own axis forever, unless a phenomenon occurs and re shifts the position of the male and female slaves. We show what we mean by example. Take the case of the two economic slave units and examine them closely.

The Nigger Marriage
We breed two nigger males with two nigger females. Then we take the nigger males away from them and keep them moving and working. Say one nigger female bears a nigger female and the other bears a nigger male. Both nigger females being without influence of the nigger male image, frozen with an independent psychology, will raise theiroffspring into reverse positions. The one with the female offspring will teach her to be like herself, independent and negotiable (we negotiate with her, through her, by her, we negotiate her at will). The one with the nigger male offspring, she being frozen with a subconscious fear for his life, will raise him to be mentally dependent and weak, but physically strong, in other words, body over mind. Now in a few years when these two

The term "subconscious mind" represents a hypothetical physical organ which has no actual existence. The mind of man consists of universal energy (some call it Infinite Intelligence) which the individual receives, appropriates, and organizes in definite thought forms through the network of intricate phys-ical apparatus known as a brain.

These thought forms are replicas of various stimuli which reach the brain through the five commonly known physical senses and the sixth sense, which is not so well known. When any form of stimuli reaches the brain and takes the definite shape of thought, it is classified and stored away in a group of the brain cells known as the memory group. All thoughts of a similar nature are stored together so that the bringing forth of one leads to easy contact with all its associates. The system is very similar to the modern office filing cabinet, and it is operated in a similar manner.

The thought impressions with which one mixes the greatest amount of emotion (or feeling) are the dominating factors of the brain because they are always near the surface— at the top of the filing system, so to speak— where they spring into action voluntarily, the moment an individual neglects to exercise self-discipline. These emotion-laden thoughts are so powerful they often cause an individual to rush into action and indulge in deeds which have not been submitted to or approved by his reasoning faculty. These emotional outbursts usually destroy harmony in all human relationships. The brain often brings together combinations of emotional feeling so powerful they completely set aside the control of the reasoning faculty. On all such occasions human relationships are apt to be lacking in harmony.

Through the operation of the sixth sense, the brain of a human being may contact the filing cabinet of other brains and inspect at will whatever thought impressions are on file there. The condition under which one person may contact and inspect the filing cabinet of another person's brain is generally known as harmony, but you may better understand what is meant if I say brains attuned to the same rate of thought vibrations can easily and quickly exercise the privilege of entering and inspecting each other's filing cabinets of thoughts.

In addition to receiving organized thoughts from the filing cabinets of other brains through the sixth sense, one can, through this same physical organ, contact and receive information from the universal storehouse known as Infinite Intelligence. All information reaching one's brain through the sixth sense comes from sources not easily isolated or traced; therefore, this sort of information is generally believed to come from one's subconscious mind. The sixth sense is the organ of the brain through which one receives all information, all knowledge, all thought impressions which do not come through one or more of the five physical senses.

July 29/---
The man born on July 29 is characterized by the striving for independence and openness to the world. He loves competition and values a beautiful, rich environment. He is self-confident and haughty, he is characterized by a great sense of pride and military passion, which results from his fascination with all manifestations of heroism, courage and various fights. Therefore, when a dispute arises, it always strives for victory in it. He never gives up and shows great stubbornness, often even inadequate to a small matter. He often shows aggression and is very eager to fight his enemies.

He has great dexterity and is always ready to attack. Do not heed any dangers and do not worry about the possible consequences of your actions. His strength can give big favors to all mankind, because this man is capable of inspiring others in a moral aspect. It has a unique ability to combine and reconcile characteristics that are poorly compatible with one another, such as practical materialism and philosophical wisdom together with great spiritualization. Thanks to this, it is able to exert an appropriate influence on the environment and make it behave according to its will.

During skilful public speaking, he can convince others to his way of thinking and instill ideas in them. This influence can be even greater when this man achieves inner power through philosophical meditation and spiritual maturation. Due to the fact that this man possesses such extraordinary skills and almost hypnotizing influence on the environment, he is constantly surrounded by people and is very much respected by them, especially since he most often has an unusual mission to fulfill. By all this he will most likely succeed in achieving the status of leader and universal recognition for his extraordinary mental abilities and moral strength. However, it will happen only when the environment or family are not going to try to stop its impulses.

He can count on the greatest success in military service. It will undoubtedly achieve success in every work that will require courage and show its

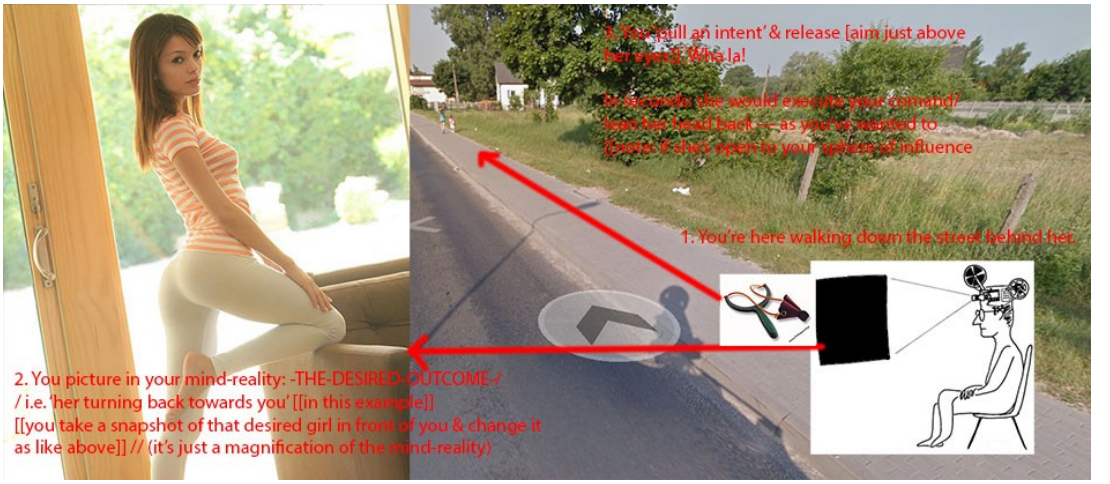
0.17. PRESENTATION OF TECHNOLOGY

In the Span of Summer 2017 Author has developed technology which allows for a female to have lack of Control over her Mind & Body; in effect: You're able to steer her with your mind as follows



[913] (it was tested in the field with Success --- also on females)

/ where:

* Did you Know that just 3 (three)[914] Men in the ENTIRE World Know how to fuck properly Women?

* Author projects/ plans also, that you'd be able to Control her Mind Via your+Mind as you'd be walking an Avatar [[because The Devil (himself) [Lucifer] telepatically offered Author a Deal which he Valued the Most and asked for Permission to his Mind to deliver --- it was rejected because he was Never-able to Deliver]]

It's All planned Far further although just to give an outlook of what Has been developed.

[913] EXACTLY as it is written (Manipulation level 5 deals with it). To have access to so-called Mind Mind-Reality: you're required to have unlocked pineal gland for which there are special herbs.
[914] Including in it Author.

from where:

* Technology is based on birth Horoscopes [[which Builds on birth Traits of Women and Develops them]] --- see Contact {also Yours}

* In the book there would be presented Techniques of Seduction that were used by Females on the Author [[over 153

[..]

* Predicted is also Presentation of technology for the Opposite sex [[Females controlling men (although in Version different that is commonly thought)]]

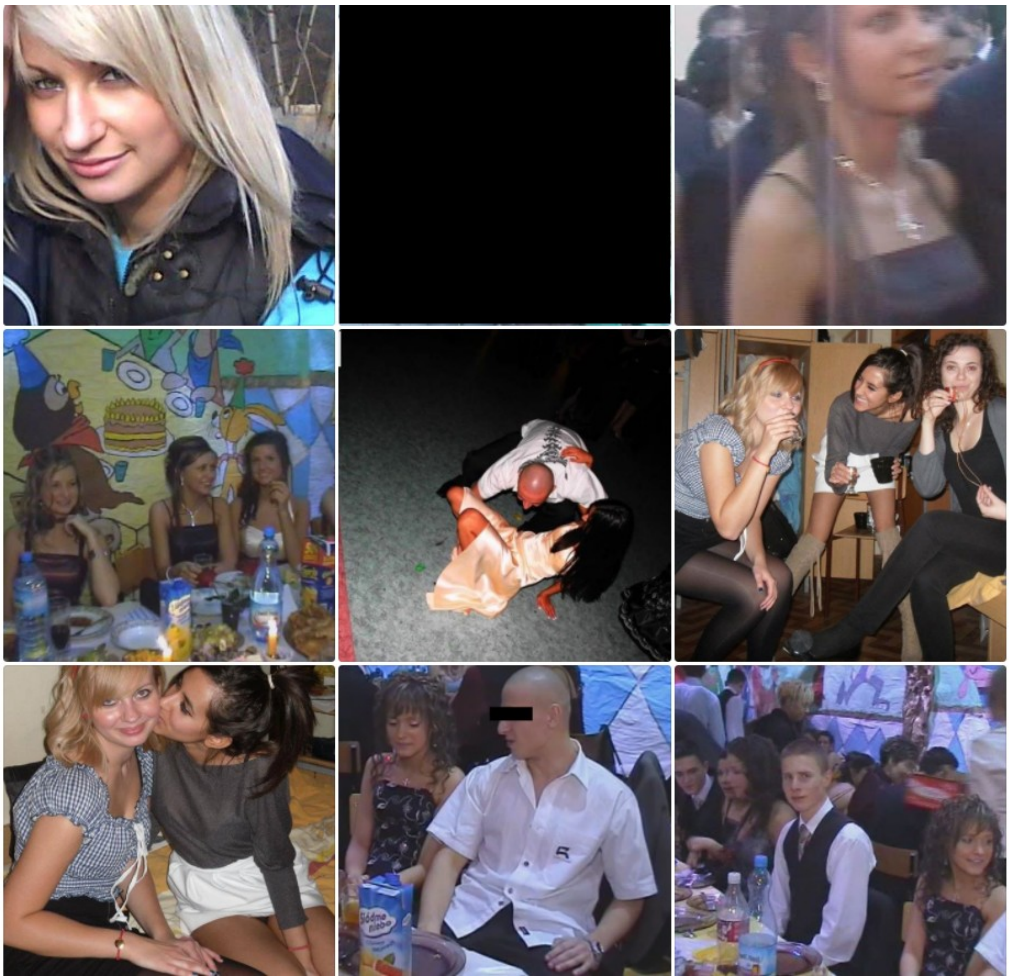
0.19. TYPES OF AUTHOR FEMALES

Representational [[females that were/ are Interested in Author

And also



(or the Author could have had)

0.19+ IMPLEMENTATION OF TECHNOLOGY

It’s varied due to Agenda/ #2 although:

* Support of female [Slave] through providing her with the Knowledge (ev. Some functional funds, care, Contacts or also else) or by Enabling her to Achieve: Success in provided by Her fields or also those Selected From her free will --- to pay 90% of earnings [[rest 10% can Also by used to [..]

* Introductory for the Agenda spheres of work to be Executed & Delivered Forever with Success

* Sale for the Slavery [[dependent on the Agenda]]

{With also} It’s required to notice that Women with n0-such support have lack of Possibility to Achieve in selected by themselves [[by-birth]] fields/ spheres or also those imposed and All-that with-n0ne of creating Karma/ #1.2.
